Next week everybody will be afforded an opportunity to enjoy themselves. On Tuesday the A. O. U. W. will give a big picnic at Grimsley's grove to which everyone is especially invited. On Wednesday the old soldiers hold their annual reunion at the same place and no one can afford to miss it, because the old veterans never do things by halves. Load up your baskets and join in and have the best time of the season.

Last Friday the little six year old son of Geo. Roe, who resides in the vicinity of Carroll, met with an unfortunate accident which resulted in the loss of two fingers of the hand. During the absence of his father and while an older brother was out in the field the little fellow was amusing himself shelling corn in a hand shelter. He would turn the crank and start the machine to going at a rapid rate and then stick ears of corn in the feeder. Accidentally he reached his little hand up too far, the cogs catching it almost severing one finger and crushing his hand quite badly otherwise. His father brought him to Wayne as soon as possible to Dr. Williams. The little fellow heroically stood the operation necessary to the amputation of two fingers and at this time Mr. Roe's son is getting along very nicely considering the seriousness of the wounds.

Modern Woodmen Picnic.

This is the year of picnics and the picnic of all picnics will be the great "Woodmen Log Rolling" to be held at Hartington, on Thursday, the 25th. Woodmen, Royal Neighbors, and all their friends and relatives will be there. Wayne will be there with her Corn Palace Band. The best of train service will be furnished, the train leaving here at 7:00 a. m., and returning, leave Hartington at about 7:00 p. m. All Royal Neighbors and Woodmen and others wishing to go are requested to meet at Woodmen hall at 6:30 a. m. Woodmen having badges will please not fail to bring them, and also any flags they may be able to secure. Let everybody go; we are sure to have a good time, and let every man, woman and child who goes from Wayne tell every man, woman and child in Hartington about the barbecue and invite them to come to Wayne in September. A Jett will captain the Wayne forces and let us go strong enough to take Hartington by storm.

By order of Com. M. W. A.

BIG BARBECUE

AND PEACE JUBILEE!

Several hundred dollars have been subscribed by the citizens of Wayne for the purpose of holding a Big Barbecue and Peace Jubilee on Thursday, September 15th, in this city, to celebrate the glorious success and termination of the war, and the bountiful crop this part of the state is blessed with. Three steers will be roasted and served to the people free. There will be two balloon ascensions, bowery dance, zig-zag parades, and everything in the line of amusements, to which the citizens of the county and surrounding country for fifty miles, are invited. Everything free. The two nominees for governor will be present. Everybody invited to come and celebrate.

POLITICAL DRIFT.

The conference committee selected by the fusion convention at Norfolk Tuesday were out all night and only reached an agreement after a bitter fight, and then only after the free silver republicans had been shut out of the convention by being refused proper representation. However, these same people may register their rebuke at the poles, and if they do Judge Robinson will be defeated.

At the fusion congressional convention held at Norfolk Tuesday night, after an all night session, was placed in nomination to succeed Maxwell. Madison seems to have a lead pipe cinch on the nominations for U. S. Senator, Congressman and District Judge.

The free silver republicans didn't stand as much show as a rabbit at the fusion congressional convention held at Norfolk Tuesday night. In fact they were completely shut out and Congressman Maxwell was sent away to rest. The free silver republicans who have played with the tail of the kite should be tickled to death. They are only wanted when they can be used.

Republican Congressional Convention.
The republican electors of the Third congressional district are requested to send delegates from their respective counties to a republican congressional convention to be held in the city of Norfolk on Tuesday, August 23, 1898, at 8 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for congressman from this district, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

Wayne county is entitled to nine delegates in this convention.
It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention and that the delegation present be authorized to cast the entire vote of the delegation of the county which they represent.

GEO. MARSHALL, Chairman.
P. F. SPEICHER, Secretary.

M. L. Hayward of Nebraska City, will be the next governor of Nebraska.

The United States will have a great merchant marine within the period ending five years hence.

The United States has forged ahead many points since the election of President McKinley toward the head of first-class powers.

Blanco didn't seem to Havana time for the "Yankee pigs" a few weeks ago but he has since concluded to be shipped back to Spain by that same "pig."

The HERALD has frequently spoken of a splendid trio to draw to, Hayward, Matthews and Norris. We've got the two former, now give us the latter and we'll give the fusionists in Wayne county a Spanish dose.

The crowds at the Trans-Mississippi Exposition are gradually increasing in number and the attendance during the months of September and October will no doubt be large in consequence of the fine crops and the discontinuance of war. The exposition is one of which the West should take pride, and we have no hesitation in asserting that any person can profitably spare four or five days there, in sight seeing.

The republican party in Nebraska, when its nomination to a state office was equivalent to an election, boasted that it could run a "yellow dog" for governor and beat the best and ablest democrat named for that place. The record verified the success of "the yellow dog" several times. That jangled canine was often elected auditor, treasurer and frequently also made oil inspector. The political party which glows over its nominations being equal to elections is always in danger of defeat because of "yellow dog" domination. Whether the party which nominates a Pointer is any better than one which names a "yellow dog" is a conundrum for future solution.—Nebraska City Conservative.

"If the government complies with the popular will embodied in the platform upon which Pointer stands and purchases all the railroads in the United States and operates them what a splendid service the transportation of passengers and freight will develop! Pennsylvania and Michigan tried state ownership of railroads and trains were regularly stopped in order that the conductor, brakeman, engineer and fireman might attend, for an hour or so, a political convention and help nominate a railroad ticket. Those were experiments in the Allerman and paternalism of railroad ownership by the state which proved unsatisfactory, unprofitable and disastrous to the people," says the Conservative. (Dem.)

Judge M. L. Hayward, the republican nominee for governor, is an able man. He was almost the unanimous choice of the people, except in Douglas county, and in fact, he was their choice, except they had a son whom they wished to favor. The convention was not whirling deal where men were whipped into line, sacrificing their independence by adding to the bosses, such as occurred at Lincoln when Poynter was nominated by the fusionists comprised of three parties, neither of which dare stand out and make a fight on their party platform, or any other principle of the sake.

G. R. Williams, the republican nominee for Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings, is a brother of Dr. J. J. Williams of Wayne. He is a man of larger build than the doctor, is an able gentleman thoroughly qualified for the position. He has been elected three times for the office of county commissioner of Douglas county by the farming element which he largely represents and in a district largely democratic, thus showing that he is a man of the people and for the people's interest. We hope that the citizens of Wayne county will see that his vote is a large one here.

The republican party nominated no "yellow dogs" this year, but clean, able upright men that will command the respect of every loyal citizen of Nebraska, men eminently fitted for the offices to which they now aspire, since being nominated, men who are thoroughly in accord with the magnificent administration of President McKinley; and they desire to be and will be elected.

When, during the campaign, Senator Thurston stumps the state in behalf of the republican party and the republican nominees for the state legislature, those papers that have been so free to malign him with the charge of aiding and wishing to secure Senator Allen's re-election, will feel like putting their heads under a tin cup and letting it remain there.

In 1891, when W. A. Poynter was president pro tem of the state senate he undertook to hold up the state for $150 extra pay for his extra honor, though Tom Majors as Lieutenant Governor, presided nearly every day of the session. His efforts were abortive, but his attempt showed him to be a reformer for revenue only.—Fremont Tribune.

When T. L. Matthews comes to Wayne this fall the Wayne band will furnish music gratis. We distinctly remember when he came up from Fremont two years ago and delivered a splendid oration on the Fourth of July and never charged the band boys a cent, they having charge of the celebration.

Get your mind made up to vote for the republican ticket this fall. The nominees of the republican party in Nebraska this fall are without a blemish. They were nominated by the people and no alliance such as governed the three-ringed fusion deal at Lincoln.

Poynter was a bitter pill for the democrats to swallow in their convention. They well remember the red hot fight put up by Poynter in behalf of the prohibitory amendment a few years ago. Poynter will never be Governor of Nebraska!—Osmond Republican.

Uncle Sam spent considerable money burning powder for practice during time of peace, and as a result it only took 123 days to whip a nation and destroy its fleets. That is why it doesn't pay to be niggardly in government affairs. The best is the cheapest.

The war is over as far as fighting is concerned, but the magnificent generalship of President Wm. McKinley will last forever in the memory of the great American people as they read in years to come the magnificent history made during the past few months.

When the congressional convention meets at Norfolk on the 23rd of this month Judge Norris will be nominated by acclamation and Stanton county will help to do it. That's why we are feeling pretty well, thank you.—Stanton Picket.

If Judge Hayward could appear before crowds throughout the state with Poynter it would be difficult to imagine how large a majority Hayward would have for governor. It would certainly exceed 25,000.

Judge W. F. Norris should be nominated by acclamation at the republican congressional convention to be held at Norfolk next Tuesday evening.

Peace and prosperity, the products of President McKinley, though we grew considerably before peace was declared.

The republican party in Nebraska will shoot the bolts this fall and land high and dry on the wave of success.

If Spain is satisfied that her "honor" has been preserved, there is no one to begrudge her such better.

Uncle Sam'd never had a fight yet that he didn't come out of the scrap larger than ever.

FOR MCKINLEY.
In the matter of electing congressmen this fall, the duty of all loyal citizens is to strengthen the hands of President McKinley whose wisdom and patriotism is now recognized, not only among his political followers at home but by prominent men of all factions and by European statesmen.
This tribute from the London Spectator is remarkable because we know that every organ of public opinion in Great Britain was tooth and nail against his election in 1895 and prayed for the success of Bryan, the free trader, for what it would advantage the British manufacturer. Among other things the Spectator says:
"Two resolves have taken possession of him or shall we say a conviction of two duties—to carry this war forward to complete success, and to execute the national, as distinct from the party, will; and with those resolves, hesitation and over-anxious care have alike disappeared, and President McKinley has become a dangerous man to face. His own people see, and the world begins to recognize that whenever the appeal from the armies of the fleets or the department reaches the White House the orders that come back are always clear and are always in the direction of decided action. Cuban give trouble, foreign powers give trouble, the general give trouble, critics at home give trouble, but Mr. McKinley goes on steadily, unshaking and undismayed."
The conduct of the war has shown that McKinley is a great president, equal to any emergency. The war may be virtually at an end, but the fighting is not the end of the difficulties involved. The man who has showed his consummate level headedness in persisting against the clamors of the democrats in congress and some of the most prominent republicans, in shaping the declaration of hostilities in such a way as would not tie his hands in giving Cuba a free government, can be trusted better than any other with the shaping of our policy for the protection and good government of the new peoples who will come under our flag.
To help him is to elect to congress from every district in Nebraska a man who will stand by the president and to leave at home every candidate who gives utterance to sentiments of hostility to the president and his policy. Let Nebraska send up a solid republican delegation to congress this fall, and she will do her whole duty to her country in this emergency. All the magnificent work of the administration during the past six months will be greatly marred if not rendered useless by sending to Washington a lot of fusionists to bark at his heels and decri his achievements. Stand by the president.—State Journal.

The Republican Standard Bearer.
Nebraska republicans have reason to congratulate themselves upon the work of their state nominating convention. The candidates endorsed as their standard bearers in the campaign of 1898 are pre-eminently qualified to fill the respective offices for which they have been nominated. They are each and all men in high standing and of known integrity and character. All have been tried in positions of public trust and proved themselves worthy of the confidence reposed in them.
Judge M. L. Hayward is a stalwart republican who served his country in the ranks of its defenders in the hour of the nation's peril. As one of the framers of the constitution and as a lawyer and judge, his career has commended him to popular esteem. As a man of affairs he has exhibited business capacity and executive ability of a high order, which assure the people of Nebraska a safe and conservative administration of their state government when he is elevated to the executive chair.
The nominee for lieutenant governor Geo. A. Murphy, is by reason of his experience as one of the republican leaders in the last legislature eminently fitted to preside over the sessions of the state senate. Both as state senator and county attorney he has made a creditable record.
The foreign-born elements of the party have been recognized with two responsible positions. For secretary of state the name of Cenck Durus is presented. Mr. Durus is a native of Bohemia. He has creditably filled local offices in Saline county and represented his district with distinction in the state senate. For treasurer, Peter Mortensen, a Scandinavian by birth has established a reputation for honesty and reliability in various capacities as farmer, county treasurer and banker. The candidate for auditor, T. L. Matthews, is reputed one of the best accountants in Nebraska and is recognized among business men as a man of unassailable honesty. In addition to these essential qualifications he will bring to the office experience as a law-maker and familiarity with political affairs.
N. D. Jackson, for attorney general, ranks among the most prominent attorneys in northeastern Nebraska. He has served as district judge and possesses all the requisite qualifications for the efficient discharge of the duties devolving upon that officer.
G. R. Williams, who has been nominated for commissioner of public lands and buildings, is a substantial farmer possessed of more than ordinary business capacity. As commissioner for the most populous county in the state he has acquired experience in the management of public institutions and property that will make him invaluable as administrator of the state lands and supervisor of the state institutions.
J. F. Saylor is by profession an educator and will bring to the office of superintendent of public instruction the benefits of his long experience as school superintendent of the Capital City.
With such an array of clean and capable candidates republicans can enter upon an aggressive campaign confident of the triumph of their cause.—See.

Live Stock Improvement.
The hard times and low prices of sheep and cattle of a few years since proved potent factors in the securing of a united effort towards improving herds and flocks. When it was hard to make ends meet in these pursuits owners sought to make their stock profitable by breeding the best in order that they might get top prices, top prices having always been remunerative. When wool was lowest it was sought to make up for the loss in price by the increase in pounds and the same has been the case in the production of beef and mutton. During the past few years there has been a marked improvement along this line, and as the years advance herds and flocks will steadily increase in size and improve in quality. We are aware that the idea is prevalent among many people that if one attempts to do anything with cattle he must have two or three hundred head, but this is a mistake. A nice profit can be made from forty head of cattle or even less. The farmer, for instance, with a dozen milk cows, who can fatten five or six beef steers every winter, will find that it will pay and the time is coming when, instead of a man standing aloof from sheep because he cannot own two or three of a dozen flocks and land in princely possession, but owners of single flocks of not more than 2,000 head will multiply rapidly. There are hundreds of places where this number of sheep may be summered on the high mountains, and dozens of small ranchmen produce enough feed on 300 acres of land to winter such a flock. It is true in the days of small herds and flocks which must come sooner or later, it will be different from the small owner of ten years ago. Then all sought to keep their increase and become large owners. The man with a few milch cows husbanded his herds until it became large, and the small owner of sheep so manipulated things as to keep his increase and soon own a number. If every man will follow the industry of raising cattle and sheep and will dispose of their increase every year they will, in fact, be so situated that they will not have the facilities for caring for increased numbers, and will therefore be content with just what they can care for. But even then the pursuit will pay and their bank account will grow even more rapidly in proportion than when all their profit went into their increase. Just now, of course, there is strong tendency toward large flocks and herds, but this will be of short duration and in the new order of thing, of small flocks and herds, we may look for better breeding and far better results, since stock handled in a small way have better attention than can be given when one has vast possessions to see after and more profit will accrue to the country.—Live Stock Review.

President McKinley's mail is burdened, as he wishes it should be, with suggestions as to the future course of the country in the Philippines. It is said that the "weight of character and intelligence favor keeping only Manila and the surrounding territory, but the weight of numbers, as in the newspapers, is for taking at least the island of Luzon, if not the whole archipelago." It will be observed that as the question is discussed the extreme conservatives have moved forward with the thought of the country. They are virtually ready now to consent to the taking of Manila, whereas at the beginning they did not want to consent to the acquisition of any Asiatic territory whatever. The president is believed to favor taking Manila and enough territory for its defense, but nobody appears to know what his final recommendations on this question will be.—State Journal.

It now appears that General Miles made the cleanest campaign on record down in Porto Rico. Therefore it would seem that a nobby uniform and a first-class bath tub are not the badges some people would think. "Cleanliness is next to Godliness," and that is the reason perhaps that the Porto Ricans fall over themselves trying to get into Gen. Miles' band wagon, while the Spaniards in their frenzy, fall over themselves in trying to get away. They know neither cleanliness nor Godliness.
The republican party needs Judge Baker on the bench. He will probably have an opportunity to take care of some poporats at some future date.
A cloud burst in Hawkins county, Tennessee, last Friday, caused the loss of thirteen lives and considerable property.
More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in it's merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores in the shortest space of time. L. P. Orth.

Superintendent's Notice.
I will be in the office Mondays and Saturdays. Examinations the third Saturday of each month and Friday preceding. CHARLOTTE M. WHITE, Supt. of Public Instruction.
For broken surfaces, sores, burns, insect bites, skin diseases and especially piles there is one reliable remedy, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. When you call for DeWitt's don't accept counterfeits or frauds. You will not be disappointed with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. L. P. Orth.
The Best Remedy for Flu.
Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Palisade, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flu, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhea remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that half of one bottle cured me." For sale by L. P. Orth, Druggist.

Priceless Pain
"If a price can be placed on pain, 'Mother's Friend' is worth its weight in gold as an alligator. My wife suffered more in ten minutes with either of her other two children than she did all together with her last, having previously used four bottles of 'Mother's Friend.' It is a blessing to any one expecting to become a mother," says a customer.
Thus writes Henderson Dale, Druggist, of Carmi, Ill., to the Bradford Regulator Company, of Atlanta, Ga., the proprietors and manufacturers of "Mother's Friend." This successful remedy is not one of the many internal medicines advertised to do unreasonable things, but a scientifically prepared liniment especially effective in adding strength and elasticity to those parts of woman's organism which bear the severest strains of childbirth.
The liniment may be used at any and all times during pregnancy up to the very hour of confinement. The earlier it is begun, and the longer used, the more perfect will be the result, but it has been used during the last month only with great benefit and success.
It not only shortens labor and lessens the pain attending it, but greatly diminishes the danger to life of both mother and child, and leaves the mother in a condition more favorable to speedy recovery.
"Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists at $1.00, or sent by express on receipt of price.
"Viable book for women, 'Before Baby is Born,' sent free on application. THE BRADFORD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

It is cool in Colorado.
The real difference between the summer temperature of Colorado and that of Iowa or Nebraska is only about ten degrees. The apparent difference is about thirty degrees.
August is the best month to visit Colorado. In August the temperature is just right, the mountain resorts filled with pleasure-seekers, and the cost of reaching them little more than half as great as is ordinarily the case.
Write for information about rates and train service. Also for advertising matter descriptive of Manitou, Glenwood Springs, Estes Park, etc.

Some reports have been spread abroad that the scarlet fever was in town, but we believe this to be false.
The Baptist church did not hold their usual services Sunday as their pastor Rev. Tyson was attending the Exposition.
In spite of the threatening storm the social of the M. E. Church held at Mr. Frank Berry's Friday, was in every way a success.
Miss Way who has been looking after the interests of her brother, Mr. Linn, the past two months, returned to her home Monday.
Miss Nellie Swartz departed Monday for Sioux City where she will attend the school for teachers, and visit with friends. Miss Ethel Dunoan of Wakefield, accompanied her.
The Breconner elevator has been repainted. We think if a few hundred dollars were expended on the dwellings and town in general it would add greatly to the appearance and business interests.
On account of the failure on the part of the farmers to patronize the creamery, it has been closed. Mr. Sinclair has returned to his home. This is a great loss to the town and it is hoped it will soon take measures to reopen it.
The M. E. Church held a baptismal service Tuesday morning at Mr. J. R. Manning's pond. The pond is convenient and very suitable for the occasion. After the ritualistic service twelve persons were sprinkled and five immersed. A goodly number of people assembled to witness the service and everything went off quite smoothly. After dinner Mr. M. S. Linn's two youngest children were also baptized. Rev. Thos. Bithell of Wayne officiated during the service.
