At the next meeting of the county commissioners the initiatory steps toward the building of a court house will be taken. The bonds should be issued and registered as soon as possible. There is no use in continuing the expense of $500 per year for the old barn or "palace de jure." Let the good work go forward at once. THE HERALD hopes to see some steps taken to trade the court house square for property nearer the business portion of the city, as the present court house site is entirely too far away. There are a number of good quarter blocks that could be had if it is possible to make an exchange of sites.

The following items were taken from the South Omaha Drivers' Journal of Saturday: S. B. Soace, a big cattle and sheep feeder of Wayne, had two car-loads of cattle on the market. A. R. Oxford, of Omaha, has located in Bloomfield and engaged in the live stock business. He sent his first shipment of hogs to the market today. James Kenrick of Elker raised and fed the lot of steers and heifers which sold on today's market together at $4.95, averaging 1,000 lbs. These cattle were well bred and young, twenty months old, and were started on grass, then put in feed lot on a ration of oats and were finished on oats and shelled corn, making a good gain in weight and netting their owner, who is well-known in his locality as a successful feeder, a handsome profit.

CORNER STONE LAID.

Quite a large gathering of citizens attended the laying of the corner stone of the new Presbyterian church which occurred on Tuesday afternoon. The event was celebrated in a befitting manner with exercises appropriate to such an auspicious event. Rev. D. C. Montgomery, pastor of the church, presented the introductory remarks concerning the building of the church. After prayer by Rev. Lemon of the Baptist church, A. L. Tucker gave a very complete and interesting historical sketch of the church, beginning with its organization by Revs. G. L. Little and G. M. Lodge on December 21, 1881, up to the present time, showing that the church has prospered and largely increased its membership under pastors Robt. G. M. Lodge, F. P. Baker, A. F. Ernst, E. Van Dyke Wight and D. C. Montgomery. This was followed by scripture reading. Rev. G. M. Lodge, the first pastor of the church, then made a brief but highly entertaining address which was listened to with the closest attention. After a song, "An earthly temple here we raise" the formal laying of the corner stone occurred; a sealed box containing a number of articles, among which were a bible, a history of the church, the Interior and the Wayne Herald and Republican. The exercises concluded with a prayer of dedication and thanksgiving by Rev. D. C. Montgomery.

The new church will be a handsome structure costing about eight thousand dollars or more, and when completed will be an edifice which every citizen can point to with pride. The contract for the building was awarded to E. M. Farr, who has the foundation almost completed. It is expected the church will be ready for occupancy before spring.

Auction Sale at the Bazaar Saturday.

From some unknown cause a number of new cases of diphtheria appeared last week after the disease was supposed to have been wiped out; and on Friday the residences of Judge Hunter, T. W. Moran and E. E. Reed were quarantined. Since then a case has appeared at Dr. Blair's and there is grave apprehensions that the physicians may carry the disease. They cannot be too careful in thoroughly disinfecting the clothing after visiting each one of the cases. The board of health cannot use too severe measures to suppress the disease before it becomes an epidemic, and every family should use all precautionary measures to prevent its entering the household. It is a good plan at any time to clean up the alleys and streets, remove all rubbish and manure, and the ordinance should be enforced in this regard. But we are of the opinion that the disease in question is carried by persons, as well as by dogs and cats and that the quarantine law should be enforced in every case, none excepted.

Rhode Island re-elects two Republican Congressmen.

Texas went Democratic by a majority of 250,000 in a total of 400,000.

Partial returns from Delaware indicate a complete Republican victory.

Oklahoma elects a Republican Congressman and fusion Legislature.

Montana Democrats won everything in sight, and will have a large majority in the Legislature.

In South Carolina the Democratic State ticket was elected without opposition.

The Democrats swept Alabama, electing nine Congressmen, eight of whom are free silver men.

Florida is solidly Democratic. The Legislature will elect a successor to United States Senator Pasco.

New Jersey elects a Republican Governor and Legislature by about 10,000 plurality.

Almost complete returns from Washington indicate the election of two Republican Congressmen and the Republican ticket.

Tennessee is elected by a majority of 25,000, and eight of the ten Congressmen are Democrats.

Legislature shows a heavy Democratic gain.

Each surveying party is accompanied by men who are boring at intervals of every four to five feet to determine the character of the geological formation.

After the field work has been concluded the commission will begin the preparation of its data and report, an undertaking of considerable magnitude.

It is estimated, about thirteen months, so that the report will not be submitted to the War Department until about Jan. 1, 1900.

Up to date the commission has expended $255,000 of its appropriation of $375,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1899.

The work is being carried on at the rate of about $25,000 a week. It is estimated that $435,000 will be required to complete the surveying projects, and Congress will therefore be asked to appropriate $600,000 to be expended after June 30, 1899.

WATER SCARCIE IN UTAH. Salt Lake Is Lower Now Than It Has Been for Many Years.

Just now the people of Utah are somewhat alarmed over the low water.

For many years the lake has been falling, and on account of the small snowbanks left in the canyons of the mountains last winter it is now lower than ever.

Nostruce explanation is necessary to account for the drop in the lake level. It is found several streams, and evaporation is the only outlet.

The Federation of Labor will make determined effort at the approaching session of Congress to secure action by the Senate upon a bill which passed the House without a dissenting vote last summer.

It would require the Carmeges, for example, the Bethlehem iron works, the manufacturing firms which furnish clothing for the army and navy, the powder mills, the gun factories, the packing houses which furnish the beef and pork, the bakeries which make the hardtack, the factories which produce the shoes for the soldiers and the sailors, the men who build wagons for the Government, the miners who furnish coal for the men-of-war and the Government transports to adopt the eight-hour system, except in extraordinary emergency.

It would practically prohibit the Government from buying anything from anybody whose employees worked more than eight hours.

There is no doubt of an extra session of Congress on the 4th of March. The President is understood to have given an assurance of his intention to call one.

The regular session will be only three months long, including the usual Christmas vacation, and there will be an unusual amount of legislation that is considered absolutely necessary, such as provision for colonial governments in Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands and a provisional government in Cuba, which will doubtless require a great deal of time. It is also intended to push the Nicaragua canal bill through at the regular session, in order that the concession granted to the Maritime Canal Company may be saved by commencing actual work. The increase of the army and several plans of reorganization will also require considerable attention, and they are considered emergency measures.

President McKinley is devoting nearly all of his time to his message. It will cover so many new subjects that it is expected to be the most important for years.

The questions growing out of the acquisition of new territory require many suggestions from the President as to the form of government in each separate possession. The plan for reorganizing the regular army on the 100,000 basis, the suggestion for the increase of the navy and work on the personal bill which engage the President, the subject of the Nicaragua canal and a cable between the United States and Manila, via Hawaii, are points to be brought before Congress. The President is likely to go into a discussion of the race question and point out the necessity of Congress taking steps to guarantee protection to life and the exercise of suffrage.

Genlemen who have arrived from San Juan report that Gen. Brooke is having some interesting experiences with Porto Rico. He is having a very hard time to get the subjects of the United States and Manila, via Hawaii, are points to be brought before Congress. The Biggest and Best.

All our farmer readers should take advantage of the unprecedented clubbing offer we this year make, which includes, with this paper, The Iowa Homestead, the Special Farmers' Institute edition, The Poultry Farmer, The Farmers' Mutual Insurance Journal and the Humane Alliance.

The subscription price of these five publications amounts to $2.50, while our own paper is $1.00, a total of $3.50. We are prepared to send them all, including our own paper, to any farmer in this county for $1.45, which is only 45 cents more than our own subscription price.

Never before has so much superior reading matter, of the most practical and useful character, offered for only $1.45. The first four of the papers named are so well known throughout the West that but little need be said of them. They commend themselves to the readers favorable attention upon more mention.

The Humane Alliance is devoted to humane education, and should be in every farmer's family, so that the boys and girls on the farm may early imbibe the principles of a broad humanity that shall include all God's creatures, and learn the wickedness and brutalizing tendency of cruelty of all kinds. Take advantage of this great offer.

Farm and Dairy School at the University of Nebraska.

The University of Nebraska has just issued a very attractive pamphlet descriptive of the School of Agriculture.

Every farmer should write for one. This course in agriculture is altogether the most complete, practical and common sense thing of the kind that has ever come under our observation.

It is something that no farmer's boy or girl of any ambition can afford to miss. The people in charge of the school realize the fact that most farmers' sons and daughters cannot afford to spend the time and money required in the preparation for and completion of the regular college course, but believe that in farming, as in every other business, education and training pay.

Keeping this in view they have prepared a short, practical course of three months, beginning January 3, 1898, and ending March 17. It provides for the following studies: Soil tillage, diseases of farm animals, stock breeding and judging, feeding cattle and hogs, dairying, horticulture, carpentry and blacksmithing.

An explanation given in the circular of the manner in which the instruction is given, shows that the student obtains much of it by means of actual practice and observation. Not that he will be expected to do the work of the farm with which he is already familiar, but such operations as stock judging, milk testing, creamery operations, tree grafting, treating sick animals, etc.

No examinations are required for entrance. There is a registration fee of $1.00. The cost to each student last year for room rent, table board, books, etc., was about $38.00.

The wolf of a star that howls at the doors of thousands of men who are well to do and surrounded by plenty of health, in the majority of cases, is starvation, pure and simple. It means that body, brain, nerves, bone and sinew are improperly or insufficiently nourished. Improper, insufficient nourishment is starvation.

When a man's head aches it is because the tissues of the brain do not receive sufficient nourishment from the blood, or receive impure and unhealthy nourishment. When a man gets nervous and sleepless, it means that the blood is not properly nourishing the nerves. When his skin breaks out with pimples and eruptions, it means that the skin is being fed upon the impurities of the blood.

THE WAYNE HERALD.

W. H. McNEAL, Editor.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

Tammany got a body blow in the New York election, by one Teddy Roosevelt and his rough riders. It was just like taking San Juan.

The Philippine question will be one of vast importance in the next congress and the outcome will be looked forward to with great interest by the American people.

Fusion didn't fuse in the case of Senator Wm. V. Allen. He will again be permitted to engage in the practice of law at Madison. It doesn't always pay to be a hog. There are other parts of the state besides Madison county.

It has been definitely settled that the First Nebraska Volunteers, now at Manila, which has been service will be mustered out. The regiment will return to the United States and will go into quarters somewhere in Texas, until they become accommodated.

The republican papers had to take back some of their election claims, but the fusion press is in a worse plight. The legislature is republican in both Senate and House and a republican United States Senator will be elected to succeed Allen, which is of vastly more importance than the election of a Governor.

The silver issue is deadlier than a mackerel for eight years at least. The republicans gain time democratic and one populist seat in the U. S. Senate and no matter how the elections go for the next eight years, their can be no "free coinage of silver legislation." If this doesn't convince our populist friends that the silver issue is dead, the Lord pity them.

The yellow kid journals will continue to pound the air with dismal forebodings in regard to your Uncle Samuel, but no dire disaster will ever happen this nation so long as President McKinley is at the helm. If it is found practical and advisable for the United States to expand, expansion is the word. This country has never yet suffered because of enlarging its possessions, when honorably done.

One of the congressional campaign managers for the fusionists in Nebraska now announces that silver is a dead issue. The fight of the future, in his opinion will be on expansion and the banking laws. The republicans are not ready to predict what the democrats will adopt for their war slogans in the future, but they agreed a year or two ago that free silver could never be revived as a national issue. In coming around to the same view in less than a couple of years, the democrats are showing a little more than their usual aptitude. In about forty years after each campaign they generally admit that the republicans were right.—State Journal.

Douglas county in times past, gave a republican majority of from four to five thousand, but now it gives little more than 1000 majority. THE HERALD hopes the Bee will see the folly of continually finding fault with republican nominees, for it is the opinion of a vast number of the people of the state that the Bee's course along this line has been the cause of the great slump in the republican majority in Douglas county. It is the hope of the republicans of the state outside of the city of Omaha, that Editor Rosewater change his course, or else the people of the state will have to go down to the "Bronk"—the limits of Douglas county—with a big republican majority if they expect to redeem the state from the power of pop officials.

Our ballot in Nebraska is a farce and a most unfair and dishonest sheet. Why is it right that the candidates, on one side should have their names on the ballot only once while those on the other have theirs on the ballot three or four times? Is it not enough that a candidate's name is on there once? Anybody who wants to vote for him can surely do so. To put any name on the ticket more than that is a farce and when a distinction is made between the two sides to the contest it is unfair and dishonest to discriminate thus between them. This political sheet shows themselves as mean and dishonest in this in everything else. The action of the free silver republican ticket and a free silver democratic ticket and a free silver populist ticket made up of free silver republicans and free silver democrats, does not really deceive any one. Intelligent men of all parties know it is simply a ruse kept up to gain an unfair advantage.—York Times.

A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE.

McKinley received in 1896 a plurality or majority of the popular vote in California, Connecticut, Delaware, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Minnesota, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Wisconsin and Wyoming—271 electoral votes from the twenty-three states.

On Tuesday, Nov. 8, the republicans carried California, Kansas, Michigan, Massachusetts, New York, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, and Wyoming on a vote for Governor; Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio and Utah on minor state officers. They carried Oregon in June, Maine and Vermont in September, and West Virginia, Washington and Nebraska on the Legislature and Congress Nov. 8. In other words, the republicans carried in 1888 every state that gave a majority to McKinley in 1896 except Kentucky, and in addition carried Kansas, West Virginia and Wyoming. If McKinley had been a candidate for President in 1896 he would have carried more states and received more electoral votes than he did in 1896. This is a good record for an off year.

In 1860 Lincoln had 180 electoral votes, but in 1862 the democrats by misrepresentation and by engaging on the mistakes in the conduct of the war gained many states and would have defeated Lincoln had he been running for President.

In 1872 Grant received 286 electoral votes but had the election been held in 1874 he would have lost 153 of the 286 and been defeated.

In 1892 Cleveland received 277 electoral votes, but in 1894 the republicans changed a democratic majority of 98 in the House to a republican majority of 104 and Cleveland would have been badly defeated had he been running for President that year.

Thus it will be seen that the democrats dismally failed to rebuke the President, as they expected, for his war policy.

The republicans have reclaimed from the populists and democrats two of the great states of the West, hold all the republican states by normal majority, control the Legislatures wherever the election of a United States Senator is at stake, and secure a good working majority in Congress. This was not an off year as were 1862, 1874, 1882, 1890 and 1894, but a year in which the people voted confidence in a republican administration.

Governor Shaw of Iowa, in speaking of the recent election in that state, says:

"The result of the election, I need hardly say is very gratifying to me. It is such an endorsement of President McKinley and his policy as no other president has received, I think, in the middle of his term. I do not interpret it as a recommendation of territorial expansion, but merely the expression of opinion on the part of a patriotic united people that William McKinley and his advisers will be able to solve all future questions growing out of the war as satisfactorily as they have solved those already disposed of. In the very nature of the case, circumstances and the trend of events must have had great influence in the solution of the questions. President McKinley, the representative of the people, in a certain sense is the attorney for this country in the settlement of very important litigation now pending between it and Spain, and the people, in giving him plenary power have expressed their confidence in his wisdom and integrity and given notice to the world that they will abide by whatever he may do in the premises.

"So far as the election in Iowa is concerned it is a vindication of the advanced position taken by the party in its Dubuque platform. It is notice to the world that the intelligence of our people is sufficient to enable them, after due consideration, to solve the most intricate financial problems. The pronounced stand taken by the party secured the support of the sound money democrats, and the actual support, under the Australian ballot, of a large number of democrats who remained nominally with their party, but who were able to see the inevitable evils that would result should the Chicago platform ever be endorsed at the polls. The result should steady the hand of every republican and encourage the party throughout the nation to take such an advanced and aggressive position in favor of sound money as will leave no occasion to doubt republican sincerity, and thus keep with us and of us forever those heroic democrats who have preferred good government and national prosperity rather than party victories."

J. Sterling Morton, ex-secretary of Agriculture, and Editor of the Conservative at Nebraska City, in an article in the last issue of his paper says: "The old tenets of democracy have been abandoned. The political organization which claims to be the democracy and which nominated a candidate at Chicago in 1896, after endorsing all the money fallacies, and all the judicial vagaries of the proletariat, is fast losing its identity in each of the several states among the organizations and isms of populism. Disintegration has so far taken place and dissolution is so imminent that a member of the United States senate from Arkansas, named Jones, who was the nominal chairman of the national democratic committee, has made an assignment of all his political party property, functions and belongings. This assignment was sided, perfected and ratified by committeemen of the silver republican and populist national organizations of the United States. By this transfer of titles of Jones to 'Coin' Harvey of Chicago, the complete failure of the Chicago and St. Louis conglomeration of 1896 is officially admitted and proclaimed.

"When shall there be a national committee of conservatives who shall convene a national convention of conservatives to meet in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania?"

ELECTION NOTES.

The city of Chicago gave a republican majority of 11,000 at the late election, and elected every county commissioner including ten in the city, and five outside of the city in Cook county.

Hulcomb carried the state of Nebraska two years ago by about 22,000 majority. Last year Sullivan had a majority of nearly 14,000 for Supreme Judge. Thus fall Praytor has but a little more than 2,000 majority, while the republicans made a gain of nearly 11,000 votes in the state. Draw your own conclusions.

The people decided that only one of the Madison law firm should go to Washington, and Robinson seemed to be the biggest man.

Norris, Meiklejohn, Lambertson and Hayward are mentioned in connection with the candidacy for United States Senator to succeed Senator Allan. Judge W. F. Norris has a host of friends in Northeast Nebraska who would be greatly pleased to see the senatorial toga fall to him.

Kansas has been redeemed from populism, having given a majority of 15,000 for all of the republican state officials besides electing eight republican congressmen.

The great state of Ohio stood by President McKinley nobly at the recent election, giving a larger republican majority than a year ago. In fact, it has never been exceeded except two or three times in the history of the state. It is certainly gratifying to the President to have his administration thus highly endorsed.

Judge W. F. Norris made a gallant fight in the third congressional district, and succeeded in putting the fusion majority of 4800 for Maxwell two years ago down to about 1800, a difference of about 3000. It was a decided victory for Mr. Norris even if he was not elected, for it clearly demonstrates that he is a vote getter and could easily win with anything like an equal chance.

The severe shock given to the fusion forces last Tuesday is significant in that it plainly shows the majority of voters are convinced of the inutility of demagogic pretensions.—Bee.

The populists will be unable to pass any legislation detrimental to the state because the Senate is safely republican.

As usual few people are sorry the election is over, and while one side or the other must be defeated, in the present campaign no one has been disgraced particularly.

The wheeling of Kansas, South Dakota, Wyoming, Idaho and Washington into the republican line carries republican territory in an unbroken line from the Atlantic to the Pacific and deprives the populists of their last source of the effect that their party ruled a "greater area" of the United States than the republicans. The republican area now holds the belt and that without any still unfortunate oleomargarine Nebraska. But Nebraska is on the mourner's bench and the prayers of the faithful will get her out of the bonds of slavery in 1900.—State Journal.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by Wilkins & Co., druggists.

In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes in the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. All Eyes Turned to Lincoln

The Omaha exposition has closed and all eyes are now turned toward Lincoln, the capital city, where the legislature will soon meet. The installation of new state officers, the election of a United States senator, and other matters of much importance will make Lincoln the center of state interests and every Nebraskan will want to read the old, reliable standby, The State Journal, during the coming year. As a special inducement to secure new readers, the Semi-Weekly Journal, printed every Tuesday and Friday, will be mailed from now until January 1, 1900, for $1.00. This is a mighty long time for the money and the sooner you send your dollar the more papers you get. There isn't any other paper in Nebraska that gives so much for the money. It is twice as good as the old fashioned weekly. Try it. Address, The State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.

THE DAIRY BREEDS.

There are about sixteen million cows in the United States that are classed as milk cows, and while a very large proportion of them do not fulfill their mission in any profitable way, it is probable that they are the best we have. The general impression is that the exclusive dairyman should have a herd of cows composed of some one or more of the dairy breeds, those who content for the general purpose and admitting this. As an ideal to be gradually approached this is probably correct, but as a practical proposition shortly to be attained, there is not much in it. The dairy division of the department of agriculture estimated that in 1895 there were only a little over 200,000 cows of the nine dairy breeds in the country, counting Jerseys as separate dairy breeds, the others being Jerseys, Guernseys, Ayrshires, Holstein-Friesians, Dutch Belted and Brown Swiss. The number has, of course increased considerably since 1895, and a few Simmenthals have been imported, making a tenth dairy breed, if it were admitted those already enumerated were entitled to that designation, but the number is still very far from being sufficient to fill the demand for 16,000,000 milk cows, and for a long time to come the milk and milk products of the country will have to be yielded of something else than the dairy breeds.—Iowa Homestead.

Doctors Can't Cure It!

Contagious blood poison is absolutely beyond the skill of the doctors. They may dose a patient for years on their mercurial and potash remedies, but he will never be rid of the disease; on the other hand, his condition will grow steadily worse. S. S. S. is the only cure for this terrible affliction, because it is the only remedy which goes direct to the cause of the disease and forces it from the system.

I was afflicted with Blood Poison, and the best doctors did me no good, though I took their treatment faithfully. In fact, I seemed to get worse all the while. I took almost every so-called blood remedy, but they did not seem to reach the disease, and had no effect whatever. I was disheartened, for it seemed that I would never be cured. At the advice of a friend I then bought S. S. S., and began to improve. I continued the use of it until my health and increasing my appetite. Although this was ten years ago, I have never yet had a sign of the disease to return.

W. R. NEWMAN, Staunton, Va.

It is like self-destruction to continue to take potash and mercury. Besides totally destroying the digestion, they dry up the marrow in the bones, producing a stiffness and swelling of the joints, causing the hair to fall out, and completely wrecking the system.
