Last Thursday the remains of Mrs. Wm. Mellor arrived on the evening train, accompanied by Mr. Mellor and sons Robt. and George and daughter Mrs. McCabe and her son. They were taken at once to the residence of Robt. Mellor from which the funeral occurred Friday morning.

Medesmas Howard and Berry entertained the members of the U. D. club and their husbands at the home of the former last Monday evening. After playing various games an excellent supper was served. The evening was very pleasantly spent by all present.

After the 1st of May, Doctor Blair will occupy the office rooms now used by Judge Norris. The rooms are most conveniently located for a physicians use, on the ground floor in the east end of the Wayne National Bank building, the entrance on 3rd St.

It is the opinion of the HERALD that the building improvements in the city this year will amount to a great deal more than it has for the past five or six years, but it is not strange for Wayne is bound to make a city of from four to five thousand inhabitants inside of the next ten years.

Randolph Times: Elmer Lundburg's lecture at the Presbyterian church, last evening, was well attended and quite interesting and instructive. His observations of the Filipinos' country are accurate and valuable to the student. The talk was delivered in a clear and distinct manner and held the attention of the audience, easily, until its consummation.

The little three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Pratt, died last Thursday night of spinal meningitis after an illness of but a few hours. The funeral was held from the Catholic church Saturday afternoon. The stricken parents have been in Wayne but a short time but the entire community sympathized with them in the loss of their beloved child.

During the past ten days the weather has been fine for sowing grain and the farmers of Wayne county have taken advantage of it. As a result the small grain crop is about all sown and the beauty of it is a fine rain fell yesterday which will start it to growing at once, practically insuring the crop this season. Wayne county is indeed a favored spot.

From the amount of business that various nurserymen do each year in and adjoining Wayne it would seem that the county would soon be well supplied with trees. The large number of fruit trees that are being set out each year is a grand thing. With the proper care apples, cherries, plums and the smaller fruits can be grown here as well as any other place and the day is not far distant when Wayne county will be able to boast of some of the finest orchards in the state.

Mrs. Clyde Oman has been very sick the past few weeks and as a result Mr. Oman has been unable to properly look after his farm work, and the first of this week found him with his seed wheat and oats still in the granary instead of the ground. Fred Benschoff was at Mr. Oman's last Friday and taking in the situation, passed the word around to a number of the members of the new camp of Modern Woodmen, No. 8314, of which Mr. Oman is the Venerable Consul and on Monday morning bright and early the boys met at Neighbor Oman's place and before the sun went down that evening about seventy-five acres of wheat and oats had been sown and dined in. This act of kindness on the part of the members of the M. W. A. is so generously bestowed, was greatly appreciated by Mr. Oman, and will ever be remembered by him.

Pender Republic—W. C. Bonham, who several years ago was a resident as a single man of this place, and who has been following his trade and teaching school at Winslow and Hoskins has returned to Pender where he will make his home in the future with his wife who he married three years ago in Wayne county. He expects to follow painting and paper hanging and as he is a first class mechanic in these lines ought to find plenty to do. He has rented a house in the south part of town which they will occupy after May 1st.

Wausau Gazette: What might have proven a serious accident occurred here Tuesday afternoon. S. C. Fox lying west of town, had been in to transact some business and was just starting for home when one of the lines got caught under the single tree and the horses becoming frightened, started off on a run. Mr. Fox was thrown from the wagon and knocked senseless by the fall. Medical aid was hastily sent for but before it arrived Mr. Fox revived. It was soon found out that no serious injury had been received, and Mr. Fox no worse off for the experience with exception of a slight bruise on the face. The horses continued their run up through town, running against and smashing more or less vehicles along the street before they were finally brought to bay.

At noon today the Norfolk Beet Sugar company ceased to exist and the Norfolk factory became the property of the American Beet Sugar company. The new corporation becomes the owner of the four Oxnard sugar factories, heretofore operated under separate corporate names, known as the Norfolk Beet Sugar company at Norfolk, the Oxnard Beet Sugar company at Grand Island, the Chiles Valley Beet Sugar company at Chiles, Cal., and the Pacific Beet Sugar company at Oxnard, Cal. The new company is capitalized at $20,000,000, of which $5,000,000 is preferred stock and $15,000,000 common stock. Henry T. Oxnard is president of the American Beet Sugar company as he was before the reorganization of each of the four separate companies. The new company contains some new names, among them being the banking houses of Kahn, Lobb & Co. and Spencer, Trask & Co. of New York.—Norfolk News.

Uncle Henry Miller, the sage of populism of this county in last week's Sunday Sun of this city takes occasion to give the editor of the HERALD a gentle reast, but as we have naught but respect for the venerable old gentleman, who seems to have misinterpreted the meaning of an item in the HERALD, we will reply briefly. It is our opinion that Mr. Miller is sincere in his political opinions, yet it is just as possible that he may be mistaken in his views as well as any other person. But, be that as it may, the fact is he has labored hard and faithfully in behalf of that which he believed to be right political. It yet it is to be conceded that he has never received that recognition which he deservedly merits at the hands of his party. It is along this line we have referred, in our way, but not with any intention of disrespect for him and only to show the ingratitude of his party associates. If by so doing we have injured his feelings, we certainly regret it very much.

A WARM ESSAY.

In a country school not far from Pierceton, literary exercises are indulged in every Friday afternoon during the term. Last Friday afternoon a twelve-year-old boy read an original essay on "The Newspaper." The teacher considered the essay an especially fine literary production and requested its publication in this paper. We publish the essay under protest as investigation reveals the fact that the Pierceton Record is the only paper that ever enters the home of the writer. This latter day youthful Solomon treats his subject thusly:

"Newspapers are sheets of paper on which stuff to read is printed. The men look over the paper to see if their name is in it and the women use it to put on shelves and sitch. I don't know how newspapers came into the world. I don't think God does. The Bible says nothing about editors and I never heard of one being in heaven. I guess the editor is the missing link between fella's talk about. The first editor I ever heard of was the fellow who wrote up the flood. He has been here ever since.

"Some editors belong to church and some try to raise whiskers. All of them raise hell in their neighborhood and all of them are liars, at least all I know, and I only know one. Editors never die. At least I never saw a dead one. Sometimes the paper dies and then people feel glad, but some one else starts it up again. Editors never went to school because editors never got licked. Our paper is a mighty poor one, but we take it so ma can use it on our pantry shelves. Our editor don't amount to much, but paw says he had a poor chance when he was a boy. He goes without underclothes in winter, wears no socks and has a wife to support him. Paw hasn't paid his subscription in five years and don't intend to."—Pierceton Record.

Glorious News.
 Comes from Dr. D. B. Carleton of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for many years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best Doctors could give her no help; but her cure is complete and her health excellent." This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys, and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Wilkins & Co.

If you suffer tenderness or fullness on the right side, pains under the shoulder-blade, consumption, biliousness, sick head-ache, and feel dull, heavy and sleepy your liver is torpid and congested. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will cure you promptly, pleasantly and permanently by removing the congestion and causing the bile ducts to open and flow naturally. They are good Pills. Orth.

Dodge Criticism—Hell has no depths great enough, no fire hot enough, to suitably punish those who deliberately set to ruin and blacken a man's character, says an exchange. Riches you may take away, and he may be better off than he was before, but when you robbed him of something he cannot regain you have committed a crime for which you will surely answer from your naked soul stands trembling before the judgment bar. The devil has no more faithful agents on earth than those who confidently peddle scandale. They are the buzzards of the human race and no muss is too foul for them to insert their bill into and get a mouthful, and verily, when the angel of death knocks at their door they will ask him to wait while they reverse the latest lie about their neighbors. While we do not believe so much in the material hell spoken of, we are ready to swear to the truthfulness of the assertion that scandal mongers are the "buzzards of the human race" and every community has its full quota of them, and as compared with those whom they seek to ruin, such people are the dregs of humanity.

ONLY ONE CURE FOR SCROFULA.

S. S. S. is the Only Remedy Equal to this Obstinate Disease.

There are dozens of remedies recommended for Scrofula, some of them no doubt being able to afford temporary relief. But S. S. S. is absolutely the only remedy which completely cures it. Scrofula is one of the most obstinate, deep-seated blood diseases, and is beyond the reach of the many so-called purifiers and tonics because working more than a mere tonic is required. S. S. S. goes down to the seat of the disease, thus permanently eliminating every trace of the taint.

The serious consequences to which Scrofula surely leads should impress upon those afflicted with it the vital importance of wasting no time upon treatment which can not possibly effect a cure. In many cases where the wrong treatment has been relied upon, and the disease has become so advanced that a dangerous surgical operation is necessary. N. H. E. Thompson, of Mill-Grove, Ga., writes: "A bad case of Scrofula broke out on the glands of my neck, which had to be lanced and caused me much suffering. I was treated for a long while, but the physicians were unable to cure me, and my condition was as bad as when I began their treatment. Many blood remedies were used, but without effect. Some one recommended S. S. S., and I began to improve as soon as I had taken a few bottles. Continuing the remedy, I was soon cured permanently, and have never had a sign of the disease to return."—Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD
 —is the only remedy which can promptly reach and cure obstinate, deep-seated blood diseases. By relying upon it, and not experimenting with the various so-called tonics, etc., all sufferers from blood troubles can be promptly cured. Instead of enduring years of suffering which gradually but surely undermines the constitution, S. S. S. is a safe, certain, and sure cure. Scrofula, Eczema, Cancer, Rheumatism, Pimples, Ringworm, Tetter, Impetigo, Sores, Ulcers, etc., can be cured by its use. Books on blood and skin diseases will be mailed free on request by the Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

 With an abridged ballot fusion is surely doomed. It is a case of the grave win-ning of the...

Ferried along the Elkhorn railway in Rock county last Thursday destroyed a vast amount of property, including many buildings of farmers.

The average Porto Rican is, to put it in a slang phrase, "dead stuck" in being annexed to the United States and is of the opinion that the republican party is a good thing to tie to. It is encouraging to note the intelligence these people display in grasping at the truly American idea.

According to the new ballot law which provides that the party casting the largest vote for the state ticket in the county will be entitled to first place on the ticket, the republican candidate will appear first in nearly every county in the state, from the fact that the fashioning was under the three heads forming that conglomerate.

General Gomez has been selected by the Generals of the Cuban army as their representative to enter into negotiations with the United States for the disbandment of the Cuban army. The general states that when his duties in this line are completed he desires to retire to some pleasant part of Cuba or some other country to live the balance of his days in peace and quiet.

After in the not distant future Governor Poynter will have discovered that in giving heed to Bryan instead of the will of the people as represented by the legislature, he made a serious blunder, he will wish he hadn't for he will never be able to look one of the brave boys of the First Nebraska volunteers in the face without turning crimson with the blush of demogogy depicted upon his countenance.

The letters of Frank G. Carpenter, who is "making a tour" of southern countries in the interest of the Omaha Bee, are of a decidedly interesting nature. The last two, which appeared in the Sunday Bee, were from Brazil, the greatest coffee producing country of the world. Last year the United States consumed 800,000,000 pounds of coffee, more than the combined countries of Europe and a large portion of it was imported from one of the southern states of Brazil.

The republican legislature has dealt most generously with populist officials. It has appropriated $800 for traveling expenses for governor and $25,000 to buy an executive mansion. It has retained three political managers on the railway board of salaries and set apart liberal salaries for state employes all of whom rode the fusion ticket as a religious duty. And when the time comes these same people on the public payroll will howl like coyotes at the republican party for dealing generously with them.—Fremont Tribune.

If a thing is wrong it is wrong whether there is a law against it or not. The act of passing a law against it does not make it wrong. The law is passed because the thing is wrong. It is supposed to be wrong. When a man proposes a law against anything, he does it, if he is honest, because he thinks the thing is wrong. If it is necessary to enact a law against giving and receiving railroad passes it is wrong to give or receive them, just as wrong as though the law were on the statute books. The man who introduces the bill declares it is wrong and the man who votes for it declares it is wrong. If either of them rides upon a pass he does what he thinks and publicly declares is wrong.—York Times.

W. J. Bryan in his speech at the Jefferson banquet at the Grand Central Palace in New York on Saturday night, referred to the United States as a "bully for striking down the Filipino natives," but he did not refer to the treachery of Aguinaldo's agents in attempting to strike down the American soldiers who went to the Philippines that the people of those islands might be blessed with the freedom of the great American people. Who struck down the American Indians and who sought to have them become citizens and enjoy the peaceful parents of life? Bryan is now at the bravery of the Nebraska volunteers, when he succeeded in getting Poynter to veto resolutions commending the boys will land Nebraska strongly in the republican column two years hence.

A Contrast.

It is refreshing to read the Hamilton club speech of Governor Theodore Roosevelt after we have tired of the interminable twaddle of the chief democratic wretches of the forthcoming three-headed Jeffersonian banquet at New York. "Teddy" has no time to waste on dead issues, but discusses the live questions that interest the people, in a manner that strikes the heart of every patriot in the land. What Jefferson said or thought a hundred years or so ago appears to have no particular interest for the governor of New York and the crime of '73 is not wringing his fathers.

Sixteen to wun is no hero of the past foolishness and he seeks nothing of it, but takes up the subject of the duties of the hour as they have been forced upon us by the logic of momentous events in a breezy, sensible and patriotic way that encourages every American to put in his best legs in the cause of national progress and the world's civilization. It will be read with pleasure by every well wisher of Uncle Sam.

The contrast between the governor's Chicago speech, hopeful, hearty and bracing, of confidence in American and Americanas, of faith in our future of recognition of the method of the new generation that is succeeding to the conduct of our public affairs and means and the groans of the populist leaders about the degeneracy of the army here spoiled meat, beef in Cuba and the hell to thank in Louisiana and good job dollars in the pockets of the people of this country with noisy disputes about what Jefferson meant in the multitudinous and contradictory utterances in his forty odd volumes of literary remains, cannot escape the notice of even the school boys of the land.

It is the contrast between the great and the little, the broad and the narrow gauge in politics, the clear, full notes of the statesman and man of action and the yap-yap of the pretty demagogue that snaps at his heels.—State Journal.

The Democratic Brooklyn Eagle, in referring to the fact that the New York Times favors the nomination of Richard Olney by the Democrats in 1900 for the presidency, remarks that "the probability is Mr. Olney will vote for William McKinley for that office and the Times will ask its readers to do the same thing." This forecast is probably correct. Very likely Mr. Olney, if he voted at all in that year, voted for McKinley in 1896. It was said at the time that President Cleveland did not vote that year. If he had voted there is no doubt that it would have been also for McKinley. No doubt both will cast republican ballots next year. The republican party is going to get many Democratic votes in 1900. The reason of this is plain, of course. The republican is the party of solidity, sanity, and stability. It knows what the people want, and does it. Two parties are essential in a country with representative institutions. A little opposition is a good thing to keep a party from dropping into carelessness and shiftness. The Democracy, if its unstable leaders do not extinguish it, may perform the necessary functions of an opposition party for many years yet.

Some men see ghosts in every shadow and hear spirits in every breeze. There are others who do not see ghosts or hear spirits who pretend they do, and are always looking wild and saying "niet hist I see goblins" just to frighten the nervous and superstitious. They see some scheme, some deep laid plot, some covert crime in everything done or proposed by everyone except themselves. They are conscientious alarmists, who keep those who believe in them on tiptoe all the time. Just as the spiritualist medium keeps his followers in a nervous state where their imagination helps their eyes to see the most amazing things. If President McKinley goes out for a horseback ride, Col. Bryan says he does it just to show the poor, who cannot afford carriage, that they must submit with the millionaires who roll along in gilded chariots. There is to the dauntly colonel a deep, subtle and dangerous conspiracy in everything the president does. The life of the chief executive is a cryptogram, to Mr. Bryan, which he spends all of his time unraveling for the edification of the open mouthed boobies who stand ready to swallow everything that escapes him.—York Times.

The Fremont Tribune issues some of its sweetest tarts in regard to the raising of sugar beets. It is to be hoped that the raisers of beets in this vicinity will not find so much tar on the product that the usual amount of bitterness will be added to the sweet such as some of the farmers in this vicinity experienced in their dealings with the Omardes.

Governor Poynter now has a large sized job on his hands. Patronage is indispensable and his patrons who are ready to have pay thrust upon them are legion. In fact the Governor has a "heap more" friends than he cares to be blessed with in the line of state house gratifiers.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? These who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worth persons may be taken for knowledge. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other sold in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky. for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. According to the Times Journal of Muncie, Ind., a Miss Shaw of that place, recently gave a select party to a few friends. During the evening various delicacies were served, and among these were pop-corn balls. Now, pop-corn balls in general are all right, but these pop-corn balls—but that's where the joke comes in. They were fat to look upon and pleasant to the taste, the guests eat free. Soon a spirit of uneasiness and discord made its self manifest, and the little party dispersed rather hurriedly, some not even pausing to bid the hostess "good night." A few days later the secret leaked out—as all secrets will. The hostess habitually kept in the house for "home consumption" a bottle of "DeWitt's Little Early Riser" and the little pills. Some heartless joker had secured possession of these and distributed them among the pop-corn balls with a liberal hand. And now a painful atmosphere of chilliness and suspicion prevails among the members of that clique. Too bad.

State Fair and Exposition.
 Lincoln, April 13.—(Special Telegram).—The State Agricultural board held a meeting here this afternoon, about thirty members being present. The question of holding a state fair this year was discussed and it was decided that a successful fair could not be held at Lincoln this year on account of lack of time to secure and fit up the grounds. The matter of joining with the exposition at Omaha was discussed and it was concluded that satisfactory arrangements could be made the fair would go in with the exposition. The matter of arrangement was left with the Board of Managers, which is composed of E. L. Vance Austin Humbrey, J. B. Dismore, Milton Donliffe and Peter Younger, who, with President Bassett and Secretary Furness, will negotiate with the exposition people.

Any Girl Can Tell

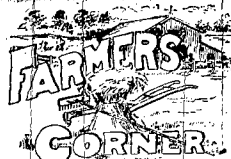

A physician who makes the test and is honest about it can tell you that, in many cases, the number of red corpuscles in the blood is doubtless after a course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

This means good blood may not be entirely clear from the doctor's statement, but any girl who has tried the pills can tell you that it means red lips, bright eyes, good appetite, absence of headache, and that it transforms the pale and sallow girl into a maiden who glows with the beauty which perfect health alone can give.

Mothers whose daughters grow debilitated as they pass from girlhood into womanhood should not neglect the pill best adapted for this particular ill.

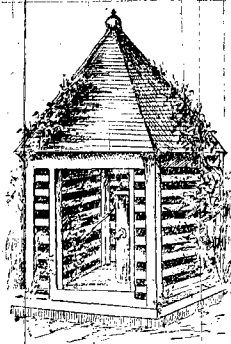

Frank B. Trout, of 103 Griswold Ave., Detroit, Mich., says: "At the age of fourteen we had to take our daughter from school on account of ill health. She weighed only 30 pounds, had pale and sallow skin, the doctor said she had anemia. Finally we gave her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. When she had taken two boxes she was strong enough to leave her bed, and in less than six months was something like herself. Today she is entirely cured, and is a big, strong, healthy girl, weighing 120 pounds, and has never had a sick day since."—Detroit Evening News.

The genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold only in packages, the wrapper always bearing the full name. At all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N.Y. 50¢ per box.

Attractive Well House.

Few realize the amount of heat that goes down into a well of water through the platform that surrounds the pump. It can be partially realized by going up into a close attic under the roof some hot day. As a matter of fact, closed air spaces beneath building that is exposed to the bright sun become fearfully heated, and in the case of wells this heat is soon transmitted to the water. A double platform with an air space between will help greatly, but best of all is a summer house, an elegant closed well house, built over the platform, and this in turn covered with vines. Not only will such a little house serve an excellent purpose in keeping the well cool, but it will be an ornament to the place as well, and, as a "summer house," may be a most agreeable place to spend an hour on a hot day. Woodbine is one of the best vines to use in covering such a house, as it provides abundant shade very quickly and is hardy even in the coldest climates. A few large trees planted about the well in each year will soon greatly improve the looks of the farm surroundings, and will decidedly increase the comforts of farm life. A suggestion for such a house is given below.

HOUSE OVER THE WELL.

Woodchipping in Spring.

It is too hard work to do much chopping after warm weather comes, while in zero weather the exercise of swinging the ax and bringing down the tree is rather a delight than otherwise. But after the sap starts in the trees it is better to chop on a hill than in a valley. Most timber will keep best if cut in July or August, while the tree is in leaf. The leaves continue to evaporate moisture after the tree is down, and this soon makes the wood dry.

Cutting Potatoes Made Easy.

The preparation of our farm seed causes more trouble than that of the potato crop. It is a slow, tedious task and must be done by hand. This is usually done by placing the potato on a board and cutting it in the size desired. Now this task may be greatly aided by the use of a device that is not new. It is simply a flat, cylindrical only of a plank, a ten or twelve inches in width and two feet in length, and a knife, B. driven into end equal-to the entire end is changed. So much cutting away of the top wood will cause many sprouts to start. These must be destroyed as fast as they appear, rubbing them off while the green shoots can be removed with the thumb and finger.

Get Garden Plants Out Early.

Proceed to get fruit trees from the dump pile near town. Grow them on the fire and when the soil is melted, straighten them out. With a knife cut them in two lengthwise about the middle, fasten a piece of hardwood 2 1/2 inches square to the work bench, and then with a light wooden mallet bend these pieces of tin into squares around this wood. They then form square boxes, as usual, then cover the top with boxes placed side by side and fill with good garden soil. Plant seed so that there will be one growing plant in each box. When they are large enough to be set into the field, the plants can be taken up with a trowel, box and all, and a lot of them set on a board, the whole carried to the field. When the boxes can be slipped off and the plants set in the soil about the roots undisturbed set in the open ground, growth will continue without being checked by transplanting. Store the boxes in a barrel until next year. For melons or cucumbers put about three seeds in each box, and after they are started, thin to two seeds and set two boxes in each hill when taken to the field. The advantage of this plan is that a large number of plants can be started in a light hotbed or cold frame, where they will grow from root to tip, and can be transferred to the open field without checking growth.—Orange Judd Farmer.

Replanting Young Orchards.

It is sometimes supposed that the farmer finds even before his orchard gets to bearing that a large part of the trees are of varieties that will not give him much profit. Replanting to better sorts is a very laborious and expensive process if the trees have grown to nearly bearing size, because so many grafts have to be set to make a good stand. As young sprouts may be left below the grafts to draw the sap, but they must be cut away as soon as the grafts get to growing. A better way is to take a few to do the grafting, putting in two or three grafts each spring, un-

Duke of York as a Carpenter.

It is not generally known that the Duke of York is an expert carpenter, and, if necessary, could handle a plane or use a chisel with nearly a man who carries his livelihood in this way. An interesting story is told of him in this respect. Some years ago, the late Duke of Clarence's younger brother, out of a room into which he particularly wished to enter. The Duke of York, then Prince George, simply hinted that if his brother did not open the door he would quietly put his foot through a panel of it. No heed was paid to this threat, and after a lapse of a minute or two, Prince George proceeded to carry it into execution. After this was done, Clarence's son-in-law, and he knew he would get into a bother. So he obtained the necessary wood and set to work at once, planed another panel, put it in the door, got the bright-colored paint to match the other panels, and no one was any the wiser.

Public Banquets.

A very pretty part of the evening's entertainment at public banquets are the souvenirs in which the lucks are served. The souvenir at the Li Hung Chang banquet given in New York was a mandarin's hat, with the yellow but not an ostrich feather. A horse show association had a very elaborate souvenir consisting of a horse in brass standing upon the box containing ice. At a dinner celebrating the opening of an electric road the ice was served in little cars, imitations of those of the road. At a dinner at the Waldorf in New York, given by the deck commission, there was a tiny dock to remember the occasion by, and at a Board of Trade and transportation dinner a boat carrying several railroad cars held the ice.

At a Dinner Given to Lieutenant Peary.

The souvenir, an Eskimo boat made of skin was a most expensive little memento. Hundreds of other souvenirs have been prepared by a large New York house, whose entire business consists of making such things. There are mortar boards and footballs for college banquets, iron pins for bowling clubs, miniature desks for schoolmasters' associations, and fish and game of all kinds for sporting clubs.

The Souvenirs at Public Dinners are Not Usually Expensive.

But those at bachelors' dinners and wedding feasts often cost many dollars apiece. Silver loving cups and hearts are popular, and a pearl pin laid in an oyster is a pretty conceit for a bachelors' dinner.

A Woman's Tongue.

Given a woman and a woman of equal size and weight, then the tongue of the woman is smaller than that of the man.

ONE reason Mrs. Pinkham's treatment helps women so promptly is that they have confidence in her.

Through some of the many thousands of Mrs. Pinkham's friends an ailing woman will be led to write to Mrs. Pinkham at her home in Lynn, Mass., and will tell her symptoms. The reply, made without charge of any kind, will bear such evidence of knowledge of the trouble that belief in her advice at once inspires hope.

CONFIDENCE HELPS TO CURE

This of itself is a great help. Then the knowledge that women only see the letters asking for advice and women only assist Mrs. Pinkham in replying makes it easy to be explicit about the little things that define the disease.

Mrs. ELIZA THOMAS, of 634 Pine St., Easton, Pa., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I doctored with two of the best doctors in the city for two years and had no relief until I began the use of your remedies. My trouble was ulceration of the womb. I suffered something terrible, could not sleep nights and thought sometimes that death would be such a relief. To-day I am a well woman, able to do my own work, and have not a pain. I used four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and three packages of Sanative Wash and cannot thank you enough for the good it did me."

Mrs. M. STODARD, of 268 Springfield, Minn., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For about four years I was a great sufferer from female troubles. I had backache all the time, no appetite, pains in stomach, fainting spells, was weak and my system was completely run down. I also had falling of womb so bad that I could scarcely walk across the floor. After taking two bottles of your Vegetable Compound and one box of Lozengers, can say I am cured."

THE pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well-known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Company, illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principle of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative.

CLEANSING THE SYSTEM EFFECTUALLY, DISPELLING COLDS AND HEADACHES, PREVENTING FEVERS, OVERCOMING HABITUAL CONSTIPATION PERMANENTLY.

Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, gently yet promptly, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative. In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but by a method known to the California Fig Syrup Company only. In order to get its beneficial effects, and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package. Consumers of the choicest products of modern commerce purchase at about the same price that others pay for cheap and worthless imitations. To come into universal demand and to be everywhere considered the best of its class, an article must be capable of satisfying the wants and tastes of the best informed purchasers. The California Fig Syrup Company having met with the highest success in the manufacture and sale of its excellent liquid laxative remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, it has become important to all to have a knowledge of the Company and its product. The California Fig Syrup Company was organized more than fifteen years ago, for the special purpose of manufacturing and selling a laxative remedy which would be more pleasant to the taste and more beneficial in effect than any other known. The great value of the remedy, as a medicinal agent and of the Company's efforts, is attested by the sale of millions of bottles annually, and by the high approval of most eminent physicians. As the true and genuine remedy named SYRUP OF FIGS is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Company only, the knowledge of that fact will assist in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties.

A. M. Averill shipped a car load of hogs Monday and four cars of cattle and one of hogs were shipped from this station Tuesday.

A. B. Clarke, now one of Peavy's repair gang went to Wayne Monday morning expecting to work with the motor people the coming summer.

D. J. Cavanaugh started out Monday in the service of the Deering Harvesting Co. as a salesman. He expects to be in their employ through the summer.

The American Grain Co. of Minneapolis has begun work on their new elevator here and McClusky & Needham will soon begin the erection of another one making four elevators for Wayne.

A little girl of Henry Pula has been more or less sick all winter, and the family think that her sickness was first caused by swallowing uncooked beans these, they think, have begun to grow in her throat. She was four years old and was suddenly taken with a choking spasm and died in a few minutes. The body was buried here, Tuesday, a large gathering of friends and neighbors went with the family to the graveyard.

Ben Y. Mead bought 40 acres south of town a few weeks since and built a small barn and house thereon. Aug. Walkenhorst, who has a short time ago from Paxton, Neb. purchased 80 acres of land near Winside and the two bachelors have been living together on Mead's place, Sunday Sunday while in the house they were started by hearing a squealing noise which one of Walkenhorst's teams was tied, being tipped over. They found that the team had been frightened by one of the teams of Walkenhorst that was tied in the barn having broken loose and run out over the top of the hill. The three horses in the stable were burned to death and the one that ran out had to be killed as it was terribly burned; the stable and the two teams had no insurance and were a total loss. The neighbors started a subscription paper to help the men in getting money enough to buy new teams and about $25 was raised in a few hours. Mr. Walkenhorst, however, would not accept the proffered aid saying that he could manage to get along without it although he was very grateful to those who offered it, so the whole amount will be tendered to Mr. Mead. Harness as well as teams were lost by both men.

Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Nobrara Presbyterian.

The executive committee convened at 8:30 p. m. on Thursday, April 12, with the President, Mrs. M. K. Bonner, in the chair. A few resolutions were passed and the meeting adjourned at 7:30.

The first number of the program in the evening was "Song of the Belis" by a Wayne quartet. Scripture reading by the prophet, prayer by J. H. Montgomery, followed by music by the choir. Mrs. Welch in a few well chosen words welcomed the society in behalf of the local society and churches. One of the good thoughts worth remembering was that serious art steps toward the millennium. The response, the very finest thing of the kind we have ever heard, was given by Mrs. Jennie Watson of Hartington. This followed by an instructive talk on missions by Mrs. J. H. Miller of Lincoln. Then came a stirring recitation by Mrs. Brown of Wakefield.

Friday's meeting was interesting throughout, especially Mrs. Findley's report from the meeting of the Northwest Board at Minneapolis and Mrs. Brown's report of the Synodical meeting at Plattsmouth.

The evening meeting was remarkably good from the solo "Jerusalem" by Mae Cunningham through Miss Light's talk on Freedom, but especially D. K. Miller of Fairbury on Foreign Missions. I wish the students could only true civilization—for I defy any one to find a heathen country that has been enlightened without the entering wedge of the gospel—could have been there. His statement, which can be put in a nutshell, was that the money subscribed just eight cents out of every dollar is used for the machinery is certainly a reputation of the threadbare statement that it takes ten dollars to carry one to the horizon. Our own Mrs. Cline gave an excellent recitation and with music we adjourned to meet in Pender one year. There were present twenty-five delegates and visitors from C. M. WHITE, Soc'y pro tem.

Discovered By a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutch upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she died hopelessly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way of recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved as to take the first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles had been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Lillian Lee. The bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery is sold by all druggists. If you are afflicted with consumption, or any other lung disease, do not fail to try this great discovery.

COLLEGE NOTES:

Mr. Bruce of Laurel, was among the new students enrolled last week.

The Music Department is well filled. Miss Stewart's time is well occupied.

Miss Junge of Osmond who attended college four years ago has returned. She gives special attention to Music.

Miss Mamie Wallace enrolled last Monday. She has taken up the work leading to a state certificate.

Miss Stewart has organized another class in harmony. A large number of students are doing advanced work in Music and we expect something extra in this line during commencement week.

The State Superintendent will hold an examination in Wayne sometime in June for the persons who wish to take the examination for state certificates. Several of our students will take the examination.

The work of the Commercial Department has received closer attention this year than ever before. Prof. Gibbon devotes his entire time to this work. His latest developing good penmen and bookkeepers.

Our classes were never doing better work than at present. Only a few review classes well filled but the advanced. Botany, chemistry, psychology, zoology, Cicero and other advanced studies are on the program this term.

The Literary societies meet every Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Some strong programs are being prepared; the next Friday is a Franklin program. Miss Sovel is president of the Philomathean society, Miss Bailey is president of the Crescent society.

The members of the graduating classes at their regular weekly meeting last Tuesday evening adopted a class motto, selected their colors and began preparations for their final exercises. They are now preparing their term orations for the close of this term; their subjects being from General History.

A very interesting class is the one in Aerial business which recites from 4:00 o'clock until supper. About 20 are enrolled in this class. The members buy and sell merchandise, real estate, stocks, etc. All business papers are carefully made out. Two banks do the business for these young merchants.
