Decoration Day, May 30, 1899.

Written by Belle Willey Gue, of Winside and Recited at the Opera House on Decoration Day.

Could the dead come back from that cold, dark deep
Where they lie so silent, so sound asleep,
To the glad, green earth that they loved so well,
To the hearts and homes where they used to dwell,
Would the world seem right to their sin-free eyes?
Would they see their dearest with sad surprise?
May the noble dead know our hearts were brave
As we stood, today, round each sacred grave.

There were little children who never knew
What the shadow was they were born into;
Whom united nations can scarce beguile
From the life-long loss of a father's smile;
For a widowed mother's heart-broken cries
Mingled, to them, 'til their last, sad day dies
With shouts for that banner, red, white and blue,
They will follow in peace and battle, too.

There were shallow graves 'neath the southern stars;
They were grief and pain behind prison bars.
A most pitiful struggle was begun
In the storm and sunshine of sixty one;
Even nature wept on that dreadful day
For our boys in blue and our boys in gray.
But the fight was over, forever still,
When they marched abreast up San Juan Hill.

For a foreign foe had assailed our State
In the early morning of ninety eight;
And we gathered our best, both from south and north,
We girded their armor and sent them forth,
With a blood-bought blessing—a mother's prayer—
In a righteous war—far to do and dare.
"Epitaphus nunti." We cannot sing
With that motto carried by one and all.

The blood of our fathers is in our veins;
A patriot's pride will never wane;
Advancing armies would be met, again,
By the thunderous tread of our minute men;
And our women, now, as in days gone by,
Would arm their beloved to win or die.
No wonder the well-trained regiment fears
The nervous attack of our volunteers.

We are proud of our ships as they sail the main;
As we watch them go and return again;
We are sure that each and every man
Is doing his duty as best he can.
Our disciplined soldiers can, now, compete
With the best-brained hosts they will ever meet.
Our leaders are fitted to govern all,
We're ready to answer our country's call.

The latter has had but one term and it was deemed the proper thing to re-elect him as he has been an efficient official and is a gentleman in every respect. Dr. Blair made an exceptionally good opponent but held the position but one term.

IVORY SOAP PASTE.
In fifteen minutes, with only a cake of Ivory Soap and water, you can make a better cleansing paste than you can buy.

Ivory Soap Paste will take spots from clothing and will clean carpets, rugs, kid gloves, slippers, patent, etamel, russet leather and canvas shoes, leather belts, painted wood-work and furniture. The special value of Ivory Soap in this form arises from the fact that it can be used with a damp sponge or cloth to cleanse many articles that cannot be washed because they will not stand the free application of water.

DIRECTIONS FOR MAKING.—To one pint of boiling water add one and one-half ounces (one-quarter of the small size cake) of Ivory Soap cut into shavings, boil five minutes after the soap is thoroughly dissolved. Remove from the fire and cool in convenient dishes. (Do not stir). It will keep well in an air-tight glass jar. COPYRIGHT 1898 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going to a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides, one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. Obituary.
The following is taken from the Park Hill, (Out.) Review and has reference to the father of Alex Laurie and Mrs. James McIntosh:
Obituary.—We regret to record the death of Alex Laurie, which occurred at his residence on the 15th inst. He was born near Maxwellton, Dumfries, Scotland, in 1830, and emigrated to Canada in 1852. He first settled in the township of Whyby where he resided for several years, but in the fall of 1878 he came to McGillivray farm on his family, having purchased the farm on which he has resided since that time.
He was one of the first promoters of the Corbett Presbyterian church and gave liberally of his means both for its erection and its support. When the congregation was organized he was chosen elder, which position he filled until the time of his death. Mr. Laurie was a good neighbor, a kind husband and an indulgent father. In politics he was always a Reform. About the middle of February he was stricken with a grippe and kept constantly growing weaker until the end came, but his sickness was borne with wonderful patience and courage and he sanctified death with a cheerfulness that impressed all who saw him. His wife, three sons and four daughters survive him. The children are: Mrs. William Leask of Osawa, James, John and Mrs. George Jones of McGillivray, Alexander and Mrs. James McIntosh of Wayne, Nebraska, and Mrs. Freeman Talbot of Rochester.

Everyone who possibly can should hear the Wesleyan quartette at the M. E. Church next Wednesday evening, June 14. They are with out doubt the finest singers that have ever visited Wayne, and all who heard them on their former visit are loud in their praise of the quartette. Their impersonator, A. E. J. Small, is fine; he will be sure to entertain you well.

PHILIPINOS SCATTER IN EVERY DIRECTION.

American Pursue the Fleeing Rebels Through Soggy Rice Fields and Boes, Under a Terrible Sun—Night Kept Up for 24 Hours.

Recent Engagements. Manila, June 4, 8:45 p. m.: Gen. Hall's division in the movement on the Marikina Peninsula, completed a circuit of twenty miles over rough and mountainous country, having two engagements with the insurgents...

On Saturday morning they began to cross the San Mateo River, and about noon repulsed a large band of Filipinos, about twelve miles east of Manila, between Marikina and Antipolo.

The Oregon regiment, the cavalry, the artillery and the Fourth Infantry accomplished this task, driving the insurgents from the hills, where they were held in force, but they were not able to follow in the pursuit toward the sea.

After a few volleys the insurgents were seen scattering over the crest of the hills in every direction, and their panic was increased when the artillery opened upon them from the enemy's position.

The heat was intense, and the troops suffered greatly, but they continued on the trail taken by the fleeing enemy in the hope of driving them toward the lake.

CHANGE FOR DREYFUS.

Court of Cassation Grants the Captain a New Trial. When the doors of the Court of Cassation in Paris were opened Saturday an immense crowd of people attempted to rush through the entrance, and for a time there was great confusion and uproar.

Seeing that the alleged confession of Dreyfus to Capt. Le Brun-Renaud are disproved in view of these arguments, and without submitting others, the Court quashes and annuls the verdict of condemnation of Dec. 22, 1894, against Alfred Dreyfus, by the first court-martial of the military government of Paris, and sends the accused before a court-martial at Rennes, to be especially appointed to conduct the new trial.

The decision says the prisoner will be retried on the following question: "Did Dreyfus, guilty or having had complicity in a foreign power or its agents with the view of facilitating acts of hostility in cases of war with France?"

ESTERHASY DID IT.

Voluntarily Confesses that He Wrote the Bordenian. A London dispatch says: The Daily Chronicle says that Maj. Count Esterhazy, who was a confidential friend, and after declaring that the time had arrived when the whole truth should be told, although bitterly, by reason of constant orders and intimations, he had kept through the essential point, made the following statement:

"The chiefs of the army have degraded fully abandoned me. My cup is full and I shall speak." "Yes," raising his voice and glaring around. "It was I who wrote the Bordenian. I wrote it upon orders received from Sandherr."

Esterhazy, the Chronicle says, then proceeded to explain that for months before 1898 moral proofs had been obtained of leakage, which were only possible to an officer belonging to the Ministry of War, and it was necessary to catch the guilty party by material evidence. Hence the Bordenian.

Now they are using threats," he shouted. "But I will not be deterred." The Daily Chronicle got Esterhazy to sign the notes of the interview.

NASH FOR GOVERNOR.

Chosen as the Ohio Republican Candidate. Columbus Man Gets the Nomination on Second Ballot in the Primary—Expresses Faith in the Administration—Also Commends Anti-Trust Action.

Columbus special. Judge Nash of Columbus was nominated by the Republicans on second ballot for Governor of Ohio. On motion of Chairman Holcomb of Cleveland the nomination of Nash was made unanimous without a count.

The Ohio Republican State convention met at Columbus Tuesday afternoon and the temporary organization that had been selected by the State central committee, at the best men are selected for the committee on resolutions, and the least attention is paid to the selections for the committee on credentials.

When the convention assembled Cyrus Keiser, chairman of the State central committee, made the usual congratulatory address on the work of the committee in the last temporary organization.

Secretary E. L. Lamson of Ashland. Sergeant-at-Arms Frederick Barber of Cincinnati.

Friday's Session. Owing to the conference of leaders during the night and again Friday morning, it was late before the convention resumed.

While the hand played in the galleries, the crowd of spectators and leaders came into the hall, and especially those some of the winners of contested races took their places.

The reports of the committees on rules and order of business and on permanent organization were adopted.

The first ballot for Governor resulted: Daugherty 241, Hall 210, Jones 170, Nevels 82, 0r 17.

On the second ballot Nash gained only one vote in Cuyahoga county, but when Cox cast the 80 votes of Hamilton County for him there was a tremendous demonstration, that was considered the bandwagon sign.

THE DIFFERENCE.

People do not ever notice of their own peculiarities of dialect. The cockney can never understand what people mean by saying that he drops his h's, and the New England woman will not believe that she pronounces Hannah "Hanner" and Esther "Estha."

IN COLONEL BRYAN'S STATE.

The report of the Labor Bureau of Nebraska, which has recently been issued by an official of Colonel Bryan's faith, will not become a part of the 16th literature of 1900. It deals with that mortgage question which Mr. Bryan never failed to turn to his advantage in his speeches in 1896.

THE FOREGOING FIGURES EMBRACE FARM MORTGAGES ONLY.

The foregoing figures embrace farm mortgages only. The annual amount of farm mortgages filed exceeded the amount released by more than $23,000,000 during the years 1892 to 1893, 1894 and 1895.

BACK TO LIGHT AND LOVE.

THE silent stars looked down through a clear, still night upon a host of sleeping men. The brigade had advanced by forced marches, and now lay within two miles of the derelict camp.

THE SHADOW OF DEATH LAY UPON HIM.

The shadow of death lay upon him, as, at times, it does upon the bravest soldier; he would fight none the worse for it in the morning.

THE SUN HAD RISEN.

In the previous short half-hour of dawn the assassin had been delivered; the derelict camp had been drawn from their intrusions, and now the black, grinning "Gipsys" were fraternizing and chaffing white comrades.

THE OPERATION WAS SUCCESSFUL BEYOND HIS HOPES.

The operation was successful beyond his hopes, and in a few weeks he was being back to his love—eyes shaded, it is true, but with the certainty that in a short time his sight would be fully restored.

HE WANTED TO SEE MISS JOHNSTONE.

He wanted to see Miss Johnstone, he said to the orderly at the hospital entrance. "Miss Johnstone, sir? Which?" "Yes, the nurse."

HE STARTED FORWARD.

He started forward, and the doctor, who lay motionless on a stretcher—who had no lain half an hour at least. The doctor looked his patient over, gave a low whistle, and beckoned to one of the orderlies, who at that moment turned his head.

HE SAID TO HIM, AND WAS WILDLY LAUGHING AT HIM.

He said to him, and was wildly laughing at him. "But as that doctor?" asked the motionless man, faintly. "Is so? Now you keep quiet."

SAFEGUARDING BIG BANKS.

One Precaution Taken to Make Sure That Watchmen Are Vigilant.

Some people think that time locks, burglar alarms, and steel barred windows are a watchman awake or asleep inside, and that the watchman might afford protection in place of a bank.

STEEL BEAMS.

During the reconstruction of an office building recently in Chicago an interesting use was made of the electric current in cutting in two a cluster of half a dozen heavy steel beams which it was necessary to remove.

A large crowd went to Sioux City on the excursion train Sunday morning. About thirty tickets were sold at that station. More than a hundred came down from Bloomfield, Wausa and Randolph. The weather was superb and those going enjoyed the trip very much.

The Herald sees fit to ask this question: Is the fire limit ordinance of any force as an ordinance, and can its provisions be enforced. It is either a farce or a mockery, being grossly violated to the detriment of the business portions of the city. If it is not being violated then it is a poor ordinance and should be repealed, and another passed in its place.

The citizens of Tekamah, when they heard that arrangements had been made by the school board and principal of schools, to charge an admission fee of ten cents to the commencement exercises, raised a vigorous and well-merited kick. The schools are free institutions and the poorer class of children should not be excluded from the closing exercises by charging an admission fee. If money is needed to defray the expenses the school board should supply it. There should be no limit to the freedom of our educational institutions.

The Nichols-Shepard TRACTION ENGINE

Nothing that helps to make a perfect road and thrasher engine has been left out of sight in the construction of the Nichols-Shepard Traction Engine. Everything has been done that science, skill and experience could suggest to add to its effectiveness, power, durability and safety from explosion and fire. The boiler is of very best selected steel, thoroughly well made and provided with every approved safety appliance. The fire-box is surrounded by water—top, bottom and sides. The draft-chamber is so made that sparks and ashes can't drop out, and the smoke-stack is fitted with patent bonnet and spark-arrester. Every part is strong, durable and is thoroughly tested.

Detailed descriptions and many illustrations of the Nichols-Shepard Traction Engine and of the Nichols-Shepard Separator and other threshing machinery are contained in large catalog—mailed free.

A SMALL SPOT MAY BE CANCER.

MOST VIOLENT CASES HAVE APPEARED AT FIRST AS MERE PIMPLES.

The greatest care should be given to any little sore, pimple or scratch which shows no disposition to heal under ordinary treatment. No one can tell how soon these will develop into Cancer of the skin. So many people die from Cancer simply because they do not know just what the disease is; they naturally turn themselves over to the doctors, and are forced to submit to a cruel and dangerous operation—the only treatment which the doctors know of. Cancer promptly returns, however, and is even more violent and destructive than before. Cancer is a deadly poison in the blood, and an operation, plaster, or other external treatment can have no effect whatever upon it. The cure must come from within—the last residue of poison must be eradicated.

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—because it is the only remedy which can go deep enough to reach the root of the disease and force it out of the system. Permanent cure is not reached the blood—the real seat of the disease—because the blood can not be cut away. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place. S. S. S. cures also any case of Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Ulcers, Sores, or any other form of blood disease. Valuable books on Cancer and Blood Diseases will be mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

Almost every republican county convention in Ohio passed resolutions denouncing trusts, and it meant something. It is not of the populist brand, merely wind.

Mayor Carter Harrison of Chicago, says that President McKinley will be re-elected next year and for that reason he (Harrison) does not want the democratic nomination.

Our fusion friends will take due notice that wheat and other products are still obtrusives of the free coinage of silver. Hence the old ratio humbug ought to be settled by the missing link between silver and prices.

It may not be out of the way to give you a pointer that the next governor of Nebraska will not be the present incumbent. The boys who went over to Manila will take due notice of the Governor's bad break made this spring.

What's the matter with the pop officials "enforcing the state laws against trusts, if the trusts are engaged in the nefarious work of doing the people as it is being done. They are either do it or discontinue howling about it.

According to the theory of Bryanites none but populists shall perform the rights of delegates to the democratic national convention this year, but according to Perry Belmont's ideas none but real democrats need apply. If there you are, the admission will be no more or no less to the great three-ring circus.

Worry is an American disease and kills more business men than all other maladies combined. It has no other source than the habit of fear. Men have found for so many years disaster breeding on the heels of apprehension that they lack faith in good things present and to come. Every year is a worry about short crops, and yet the crops grow larger. The specter of monetary trouble haunts men who know the country is strong beyond any need. But all the time the volume of business is rising. This week and every week, brings larger wages to many and increased purchasing power and the demand for products is consequently expanding in all branches of consumption.—Columbus Times.

Memorial Day was celebrated this year on both sides of the world. Ere the morning dawned, in the United States the ceremonies at Manila were about concluded. In Cuba the graves of Americans were strewn with flowers and in the harbor of Havana festoons of laurels were placed on the wreck of the Maine. Striking changes have been brought about during the past eventful year. The grand old flag has been carried westward far across the Pacific, and more than a thousand miles east in the Atlantic. On Decoration day the most beautiful and choicest flowers of every clime were laid upon the graves of the nation's defenders. The observance of the day this year was much more universal than usual and the interest more deeply marked.

No Definition Handy. The Louisville Courier Journal, which is never tired of laying steel traps and digging pitfalls for the Bryanites, took occasion to mar the happiness and harmony of the sixteen-to-win conference of the Ohio valley contingent by suggesting that it is quite likely that not one man of the great crowd of intellectual giants that will be called upon in the various state, county and national conventions of the coming years could answer the conundrum "What is a trust" or tell what is to be done to destroy it.

The allegation of Colonel Watterson, so rattled the conference that not a statesman of the throng attempted to bring light by telling the people what sort of a beast a trust is and where his hole can be found. George Freddy Williams, though he labored long, did not have time to define a trust, but he undertook to give us a hint by alleging that the money plank of the Chicago platform "would kill the trusts if put into active operation. But how about the silver trust? That seems to be the only trust that has fulfilled the predictions of the trust-dusters by "advancing the price" of the chief "necessary of life" to a Bryanite.—State Journal.

Dr. Mary E. Green, president National Household Economics Association, member American Medical Association, member American Public Health Association, author of "Food Products of the World" writes from Charlotte, N.C. "The excellence of Pabst Malt Extract is not unknown to me, as I have used it professionally for years, always with the most satisfactory results. For mothers nursing their children and for general debility from any cause, I regard it as of especial value, as it combines both tonic and nutrient properties, which make it truly the 'Best Tonic.'"

"I recently prescribed Pabst Malt Extract, the 'Best' Tonic, to three of my patients, all of whom were ladies, and all of whom were suffering from dyspepsia and its consequences, and in all these cases it acted like a charm. Two of them bought more of the tonic, and continued to take it, until now they tell me they can eat anything, and one of them added 'everything' without the slightest inconvenience. They have certainly improved wonderfully in weight and strength. I have prescribed your 'Best' Tonic great number of times. It is one of the best, if not the very best, of its kind."

MEMOIR OF MRS. MORRIS LINN.

Death claims its own. Melissa, beloved wife of Mr. Morris Linn, passed away after a short illness at her home in Carroll, Neb., Monday morning, May 22nd. The maiden name of deceased was Chapman. She was born in White Co., Illinois in the year 1865, and came to this state with her parents in the spring of 1881. She was married to Morris Linn in October, 1890; seven children were born of this union, five of whom still survive here, the two youngest, a pair of twin girls, being but four days old at the time of her death. The remains were shipped to Ashton, Nebraska, the funeral being held in the Presbyterian church at that place May 24, and the remains were laid to rest in the family lot in the Ashton cemetery, near her mother, brother, sister, and two small sons.

Mrs. Linn united with the Methodist church when a child, and was a true Christian woman. The uniform testimony of all her acquaintances is to the effect that in her death the entire community has lost a most estimable christian lady. Of the loss to her husband and children the present writer presumes not to speak, for no words are adequate to an expression of their irreparable loss.

When in the shadow of such affliction the soul sits dumb, how poor seem words of sympathy from even dear friends and how vain the efforts of willing hearts to lighten the burden which bows down the bereaved ones. With aching hearts and bowed heads they left the departed to her long and dreary sleep.

So lived that when her summons came to join The innumerable caravan that moves To that mysterious realm, where each shall take His chamber in the silent halls of death. She went not like the quarry slave at night Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed By an unfaltering trust, approached her grave Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams." C. W. D.

Resolutions.

Whereas, in his all-wise providence, our Heavenly Father has been pleased to transfer our beloved sister, Mrs. M. S. Linn, from earthly labors to heavenly reward, therefore be it

RESOLVED, by the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church of Carroll, Neb., that we present her husband and family an expression of our sincere sympathy for them in their loss, and be it further

RESOLVED, that we hereby express our high regard for the devotion of our sister for the Master's cause and that we freely testify of her as a woman of God, worthy of all praise and whose example is worthy of being followed.

Whereas, we further direct that this expression of our hearts, signed by the president and secretary of the Society be presented to Bro. Linn and family, and that a copy be placed on file in the records of the society, and that a copy be sent to one or more of the county papers.

New York republicans do not believe that the next one will be a Platt-form any how.

Some men have an idea that it is beneath a man's dignity to trouble himself much about his personal appearance if anything is said upon the subject of slothly, does not succeed, either with disdain, and say they leave vanity to the women.

A man never made a greater mistake. A man should be clean dressed, but also clean inside. The man who is so is the man that succeeds. The man who is not is the man that fails.
