Comparing the sizes of toilet soaps with Ivory Soap, the Ivory Soap should cost four times as much as the toilet soaps. It is exactly the reverse, and when you buy Ivory Soap you pay about one-fourth as much for it. The best people use Ivory Soap for their toilet and bath, because of its purity, the effect upon the skin is beneficial.

Do you want to vote for a change that will put you back to the good old times of Grover Cleveland and soap houses? Then vote for Republicanism. If you are satisfied with the present conditions, then vote for Republicanism.

W. V. Allen must be taken care of. He doesn't propose to have the "pie" passed around. Neither does the old firm propose to let that judgship get away if they can help it, but there'll be a difference one of these bright November mornings.

If Bryan resigned from his regiment to come home and fight republicans, as he says, it is a good thing for the country that he did so, for it would certainly be glad to escape in its army operations the success that attends Bryan in his political warfare.

The republican state platform is a clear enunciation of the position of the party on the issues of the day, especially those of paramount interest. It also declares in a most emphatic manner adherence to the declarations of the St. Louis convention and expresses the utmost confidence in the patriotic and statesmanship of President McKinley and is particularly in pledging Nebraska republicans to sustain his administration in its efforts to maintain the honor of the flag and nation.

MANOAH B. REESE
The republicans of Nebraska are to be congratulated on the spontaneous selection of an inviolable standard bearer in the impending state campaign. Manoah B. Reese occupies a place in the hearts of the masses of this state held by few other public men. No candidate could possibly have been named whose nomination would have been more responsive to the popular demand for a man who possesses the requisite qualifications for a supreme judge coupled with unblemished character and flexible integrity.

In Judge Reese the republican party presents to the people of Nebraska a candidate who has often been tried and never found wanting; a man who laid down the judicial ermine he had worn for six years as spotless as when he first donned it. Coming unsought and in fact, in spite of repeated declarations, the nomination of Judge Reese by unanimous vote of a representative and harmonious convention is an honor rarely conferred. It is an expression of confidence and esteem that comes to but few men in a lifetime.

Although making a pecuniary sacrifice Judge Reese has accepted the call as a duty he owes to his party and the state. Incidentally the high compliment bestowed upon Judge Reese comes as a tardy acknowledgment that his retirement from the bench was a serious blunder as well as rank injustice.

It goes without saying that honest republicans of all factions will hail the candidacy of Judge Reese with cordial and hopeful feelings as an evidence of the regeneration of the party that will reinspire confidence in its future and restore it to the place it held for many years in the affections of the masses.—Omaha Bee.

Holcomb honest? That's the question, or are his professions of possessing that virtue mere hypocritical pretense? It looks like the latter. When Holcomb was governor Edmisten was state oil inspector. On one occasion when Edmisten made a trip over the state and rode on passes Holcomb had him on the carpet and actually remonstrated against his charging up mileage to the state at the same time. There was a hot time in the old capital town for a while. The governor even went so far as to accuse the oil inspector of dishonest practices and didn't propose that the claim should be paid. But Edmisten was as firm as oak and the governor weakened. He always weakens in time, for cause unknown and only suspected. The claim was paid and now Mr. Edmisten is acting as chairman of the populist state central committee, still rides on passes and is looking after Holcomb's political interests in a manner that savors of mutual friendship and confidence.—Stanton Rocket.

Slippery Sillias Holcomb will find vote getting the hardest task of his life this fall. Most Nebraska people are tired of being humbugged.
DeWitt's Little Early Risers permanently cure chronic constipation, biliousness, nervousness and worn-out feeling; cleanse and regulate the entire system. Small, pleasant, never grip or sicken—"famous little pills." L. P. Orth.
Hon. William E. Mason continues to revolve, ominously silent and threateningly vital, around the well-worn and rotten-warmed axis of himself.
As an external liniment of most wonderful penetrative and curative power, Ballard's Snow-Eucalyptus is not equaled by any other in the world. Price 25c and 50c. Ed J. Raymond.

"TAKE CARE of the pennies and the pounds will take care of themselves."
Large things are but an aggregation of small things. If we take care of the small things we are in effect taking care of the large things which the small things continue to make. That is the philosophy of the old financial proverb, and its application is as broad as human life.
Take care of what you eat, when you eat, and how you eat, and your stomach will take care of itself. But who takes care of such trivial things? That is why, someday, the majority of people have to take care of the stomach. When that day comes, there is no aid so effective in undoing the results of past carelessness as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, and restores the organs of digestion and nutrition to a condition of healthy activity. It cures biliousness, heartburn, flatulence, indigestion, palpitation, dizziness, cold extremities, and a score of other ailments which are but the symptoms of disorder in the stomach and its allied organs.
If you are sick you can consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., by letter, free of charge. Each letter is treated as strictly confidential, and an answer is promptly sent in a plain envelope without printing or advertising upon it.
"I was troubled with very frequent headaches, often accompanied by severe vomiting," writes Mrs. Mary Belle Zimmerman, of San Diego, Cal., Texas. "My bowels were irregular and my stomach and liver seemed to be out of order. Often I could not eat almost anything, and sometimes absolutely nothing for twenty-four hours at a time. I was entirely unfit for work, and my whole system seemed to run down that I feared a severe attack and was very much discouraged. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and did so with such satisfactory results that before finishing the third bottle I felt perfectly able to undertake the duties attending my school. After and contracted to do so. I had heartily advise these suffering with indigestion, and its attendant evils, to give this great medicine a fair trial."
Use only Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets with "Golden Medical Discovery" when a laxative is needed.

Om Paul will find England better posted in the manual of arms than in sacred literature.

Chester H. Brown, Kalamazoo, Mich., says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me of a severe case of indigestion; can strongly recommend it to all dyspeptics." Digests what you eat without aid from the stomach, and cures dyspepsia. L. P. Orth.

If the fusionists do not believe Nebraska is debatable ground this fall, why is it that Bryan, Cyclopedia Davis and the best speakers they have are traversing the state from one end to the other.

White's Cream Vermifuge is perfectly harmless, and will remove every worm. It is also a tonic and by its strengthening properties will restore to pale cheeks the rosy hue of health. Price 25c. Ed J. Raymond.

Admiral Watson reports the capture of a Filipino schooner. How does he know but what it is one of Aguinaldo's capitals afloat?
"There's always hope while there's one Minute Cough-Cure." An attack of pneumonia left my lungs in bad shape and I was near the first stages of consumption. One Minute Cough-Cure completely cured me," writes Helen McHenry, Bismark, N. D. (Given in return for relief. L. P. Orth).

The easiest thing to raise a subscription for now would be to send a lot of anti-expansionists to the furthest place on the map.
By all means let the government send Old Bag to the Philippines. This is the first chance we ever had to play a game where we win if we lose.

WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA
PROMINENT VIRGINIA EDITOR HAD ALMOST GIVEN UP, BUT WAS BROUGHT BACK TO PERFECT HEALTH BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.—READ HIS EDITORIAL.
"From the Times, Hillsville, Va.)
I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery, and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy I decided to try it. After taking a few boxes I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today, and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. THE DUCHESS

CHAPTER VI. The past steps of the old man down upon us like— "You must," insists Griselda, sternly. "It's impossible to know what sort of man he is. If successful, he can play off with us."

CHAPTER VII. "Well, I'm off," says Griselda, poking her pretty head into the summer house where Vera sits reading. It is next day, and a very lovely day, too. "For your ramble," says Vera, laying down her book. "So you won't take my advice? Very good. Go in, and you'll see that you won't prosper. Her tone is half gay, half serious. And don't be long, entrants Vera, with a sudden rush of anxiety. "Don't, now. Yes, I'm in deadly earnest. There is that man all over the place, and he is worse than his disreputable, and if he turns up in this part of the world I suppose I shall have to talk to him."

CHAPTER VIII. "What a calamity," says Griselda, with a little feigned drooping of her mouth. "In this letter, which is an excellent specimen of your own penmanship, may be regarded with rapture—even Seaton!" Better any man than no man, say I. "So say not I, then," with great spirit. She has leaned forward upon her elbow, and her eyes are brilliant with a little indignation. "Is that all you have to say? Is that all you have to say? I know it will require only time to teach me to detest. And how you can call him so familiarly 'Seaton,' passes my mind."

CHAPTER IX. "You are Griselda, I suppose?" says he, pleasantly. "Why should you suppose it?" asks she, with a faint smile. "Perhaps because," with a steady look at her, "I have been told that my cousin Griselda is a person possessed of a considerable amount of character. You say you mean that you have heard Griselda is well-willed," says she, calmly. "And as if it were my duty to look the part also, I am afraid you must prepare yourself to meet two self-willed cousins. I am not Griselda."

CHAPTER X. "You are Griselda, I suppose?" says he, pleasantly. "Why should you suppose it?" asks she, with a faint smile. of which so much has been seen of late. An example of this grade of evening costume appears here, and consideration of its construction will show that it was quite fine enough. Of ivory silk, it was cut princess, a little drapery being provided at the bust. Embroidered black spirals the gown from edge of yoke to hem. A yoke of black dotted ivory gauze and bust trim of black velvet were other novelties.

Charles Dickens. Sir Arthur Sullivan is quoted as saying of Charles Dickens that he was a most delightful companion. "Apart from his high spirits and engaging manner," the musician adds, "one might give two special reasons for this. On the one hand, he was so unassuming in his own regard; on the other, he was so unassuming in his regard for others."

VALMAGE'S LECTURE

A body so divinely endowed and so divinely constructed, left so careful not to abuse it. When it becomes a Christian duty to take care of one's health, is not the wisdom tendency toward longevity? I believe so.

It is said in Isaiah, "The child shall die a hundred years old." According to Scripture, the child is to be a hundred years old, not just the men and women reach to 300 and 400? The fact is that we are mere dwarfs and skeletons compared with some of the generations that have preceded us.

My design is to show that practical religion is the friend of long life. I leave it first from the fact that it makes the care of our health a positive Christian duty. Whether we shall keep early or late hours, we shall be doing it for God's glory and our own benefit.

Not What He Wanted. "What time for your morning walk?" Mr. Peppery. "In a convenient time," Mr. Peppery. "What I want is something to eat." London Study.

What right has any man or woman to abuse the body which God has given him? What is the right? It is the right of the body to be preserved in its natural state. It is the right of the body to be preserved in its natural state. It is the right of the body to be preserved in its natural state.
