NEBRASKA FARMERS AROUSED

Will Contest the Legality of the Grain Growers' Mutual Hall Association in the Court.

There are about 7,600 Nebraska farmers who are members of the Grain Growers' Mutual Hall association, the head office of which is in Omaha. About 400 of these are in Wayne county, and they have through their authorized agent, Captain J. H. Brown of Wakefield, an officer of the Third Nebraska regiment, applied for a writ compelling the officers of this company into court. The Wayne county farmers have been joined by about thirty Douglas county farmers, who are represented by Attorney J. P. Brown of this city, while the county attorney appears on the pleadings as a representative of the state.

The title of the suit filed in the district court is "State of Nebraska ex rel. Mons Johnson, Stephen Carpenter, D. Cullen, D. P. Bronse, and H. P. Brink, versus D. W. Miller, F. L. Miller, C. M. Harris, C. C. White, John Tragoenloht and J. C. Miller, whose first and real names are unknown." The man who wrote the petition did not notice words. After setting forth that the relators have a private and personal interest in the matter, the petition brands the defendants as "a band of roving insurance adventurers."

Getting down into details the petition says: "After having perpetrated in the states of Minnesota and South Dakota acts not unlike those herein-after detailed, the defendants appeared in this state about January, 1899, and attempted to organize what is called 'The Grain Growers' Mutual Hall association,' and on January 23, in pretended pursuance of an act of the legislature, creating authority for the organization of such association, the defendants filed in the office of the state auditor documents pretending to be a declaration of intention to form a company for the purpose designated by said act." Continuing, the petition says that the document filed with the state auditor had the pretended signatures of a large number of persons, presumed to be residents of ten different Nebraska counties, the signers being so numerous and so widely scattered as to residence that it is impracticable to bring them into the suit as defendants. It is plainly charged that the pretended corporation was never lawfully organized and the word "fraud" occurs many times.

It is charged that the defendants were guilty of fraud by representing to persons signing the document that they, the defendants, would so conduct the business that the signers might have free insurance for a long term of years, not only on their growing crops, but on crops not to be grown until succeeding years.

It is further alleged that the defendants have recently attempted to levy assessments, and that in most cases the attempt was met with failure. In conclusion, the petitioners pray the court to give the defendants to appear and show by what authority they are operating, and in the event of default in appearance, the court is prayed to issue judgment of ouster.—Omaha Bee.

The American Bible Society.

No other institution in the world has a prouder record than the American Bible Society. Its aim is to put the Scriptures into every home in the land. Of the million and half copies issued last year over half of them were sent to foreign fields. It is a great home and foreign missionary agency. It prints the Scriptures in one hundred languages. Last year its receipts from all living sources was $100,207, a sum far too small for the work in hand. Rev. S. W. Dickinson, the representative of the society, was present at Synod this week and earnestly urged his claims upon the benevolence of Christian people.

A special to the Omaha Bee from Wakefield on Oct. 9 says: "Yesterday morning during the absence of their parents, Lawrence, aged 5, son of Captain J. H. Brown, while playing with matches in the front yard, set fire to the dress of his sister Lucy, aged 2, and she was fatally burned, dying this morning at 6 o'clock." A neighbor who heard her cries smothered the flames with his coat, but was too late to save her life.

Rev. Mr. Barker is preaching some powerful sermons at the M. E. church this week. Last night ten persons were at the altar and ten or twelve more arose for prayers. Mr. Barker has a wonderful faculty for winning souls for Christ. He does not seek to abuse anyone, but preaches the plain Gospel as he finds it in the Bible. ## SYNOD OF NEBRASKA

About One Hundred Ministers Attend the Annual Session.

WAYNE HONORED BY MEETING

Docket for October Carried Out, and the Different Sessions Interesting.—Dr. Halsey of New York, Delivers a Splendid Lecture on Foreign Missions.

Wayne feels highly honored in having secured the annual meeting of the Synod of Nebraska of the Presbyterian church, and rejoices in being privileged to entertain this august body of Christian gentlemen. Few cities of the size of Wayne will ever have this opportunity.

The first session of the Synod convened at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, Moderator Rev. Thomas C. Clark, D. D. delivering the opening sermon, which was immediately followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, after which the Synod was constituted by prayer and roll call. Rev. W. A. Porter was then elected Moderator, and Revs. Boyd and Leckhart temporary clerks. The first session closed with the report of the committee on arrangements.

Wednesday, October 11th, general business was transacted, consisting of devotional exercises, reading of minutes, election of stated clerk and announcement of committees. At 10:00 o'clock, Rev. A. W. Halsey, D. D., of New York, secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, addressed the assembly, immediately followed by an address by Rev. S. W. Dickinson, field agent for N. W. of American Bible Society. During the remainder of the day session various reports of the Synodical Missionary, Sabbath School Synodical Missionary, Apportionment committee, etc., were read and duly acted upon, and accepted.

At the popular meeting held at 7:30 p. m. the church was well filled and those present enjoyed a feast in the able and most highly interesting lecture of Rev. A. W. Halsey of New York, on "Foreign Missions." His graphic description of the work of foreign missionaries in Cuba, Africa and at Manila in the Philippines was listened to with the closest attention. Dr. Halsey is an eloquent speaker and he was frequently greeted with applause. Prior to the lecture Rev. E. Van Dyke Wight read the report of the committee on Foreign Missions, and at the conclusion of the address the report was unanimously adopted.

An hour was devoted to devotional services this morning, followed by reports of permanent committees.

Rev. John Dixon, D. D., of New York City, delivered an excellent address at 10 o'clock this morning on "Home Missions. The afternoon session will be devoted to reports of various committees. The anniversary exercises will be held this evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

A FEMALE HORSE THIEF.

About noon on Sunday Sheriff Cherry in company with Geo. Rowher, of this county and Sheriff Brown of Cedar county, arrested one Clara Ola Williams near St. James, on a charge of horse stealing, preferred by Mr. Rowher. She was given a hearing before Judge Hunter Tuesday, waived examination and was bound over to the district court in the sum of $1,000 in default of which she was placed in jail to await the November term of court. The woman had been seen in this vicinity for a number of days and had made inquiries of the newspapers in regard to the advertising of a stray horse, claiming that she had lost one, but we have learned since that the animal had died and was dumped into the Missouri river. On Thursday she had called at Mr. Rowher's, northwest of the city, and in company with Mrs. Rowher looked over the horses in the barn. Saturday morning one of the horses was missing. Mr. Rowher tracked the animal to the road where he could plainly see that a horse and buggy had been standing, and also discovered the imprint of a woman's shoe in the soft ground. He at once notified Sheriff Cherry and they tracked the thief with the result above stated, the horse being found in her possession. When arrested she was in company with another woman and four or five men. The evidence is very strong against her and she will no doubt be found guilty.

Young Men to the Front.

In the republican county convention at Wayne Saturday last Mr. Edward A. Lundburg, principal of the Emerson public schools, was nominated by acclamation for the responsible and highly important office of superintendent of public schools for Wayne county. Mr. Lundburg taught the grammar department of the Wakefield public schools two years and gave the very best of satisfaction. He left it to assume a higher position. As a teacher and as a man he justly stands very high in the estimation of Wakefield people. He is now serving his second year as principal of the Emerson schools where we understand he is also giving entire satisfaction. In all he has had five years active experience in teaching, backed by a thorough education. He is indeed well qualified to fill the position for which he has been nominated. It is not our province to enter into any discussion of Wayne county politics nor have we ever done so. We have a few politics of our own on this side the border line and the times are getting ripe to attend to them. But certainly it is violating no confidence nor any of the proprieties, but on the contrary it is but the simple truth to say that in the nomination of Edward A. Lundburg for superintendent of schools the republicans of Wayne county are to be congratulated on having made an exceedingly good nomination. Young men to the front, is the watchword of the hour; and Mr. Lundburg is one of the young men who has made his own way to the front and possesses a rare talent for remaining there.—Wakefield Republican.

For the benefit of those interested the HERALD wishes to state that it is unnecessary to elect judges and clerks of election this fall to serve at the election a year hence, or to hold caucuses for the same. They are selected by the county judge after having been recommended by the different precinct caucuses each year.

Every republican nominee on the county ticket is the peer of any fusion nominee, and there is absolutely no reason why they cannot be elected. To do this common sense people must pay little heed to the roosterbark sent forth by disgruntled politicians for the purpose of stirring up discord. The HERALD proposes to stand by the republican nominees from top to bottom and if any person has any thought of anything else let him disabuse his mind of that false idea at once.

The voters of Wayne county should not fail to cast their ballots for E. A. Lundburg, the republican candidate for county superintendent. Democrats and populists all over the county have been longing for a chance to vote for some good man for superintendent, and they certainly have the opportunity this fall. Mr. Lundburg is thoroughly qualified for the position and there should be no doubt of his election.

In this age of theatrical productions plays are numerous as the autumn leaves. Some of these are happily designated, others not. To the former class belongs Monte Cristo, Dumas' great work. Aged as it is, the play is always received with deep pleasure by an intelligent assemblage. The story of the play is vastly interesting and alternately humorous and pathetic. The moral of Monte Cristo is worthy of hearty commendation, that form of sin which subdues the mind and the pity which melts the heart contribute to elevating the moral and spiritual tone of mankind. It is depicted in this drama which promises to be interpreted by an evenly balanced cast, and every indication is given that the play will be well received on its presentation at the Wayne opera house tomorrow evening, October 13th.

Sewing on Trouble

There is an old proverb to the effect that every time you have a button sewed on the clothes you are wearing, the sewer sews on trouble. Whether this is true or not, it certainly TAKES trouble to sew up rips and on buttons. Good work won't rip—buttons well sewed on won't come off. We try to do good work—we are ready at any time to make good deficiencies. WE WANT YOUR PATRONAGE.

Some prominent speakers have been secured to address the convention. If there is to be any local mud slinging it must be by the other fellows. The HERALD proposes to labor in behalf of the republican ticket, and feel confident that it will be elected, as the fusionists had little to crow over two years ago. The Nebraska Federation of Womens Clubs is in session at York this week. A number of Wayne ladies are in attendance among them being Mrs. W. R. Mr. Hunter has proven himself a most efficient clerk and business man here, attentive to business, and always accommodating, making it pleasant for customers and his employer. In closing an article on the republican county ticket the Democrat says: "Now, isn't it a very weak, wobbly and unsafe ticket? It most certainly is if you take the Democrat's word for it." Well, for a long, long time the people of Wayne have placed no confidence in the Democrat's word and they certainly won't take that papers word for it when they cast their votes this fall. The republican ticket is a strong one, a fact which the Democrat will soon discover. The author of "In His Steps," the famous religious book, of which over three million copies have been sold, has been induced to answer, in an article which he has sent to The Ladies Home Journal, the question which unconsciously comes to mind after reading his book: "Is this plan practicable in our present daily life?" Mr. Sheldon does not evade the question, but answers it in a direct and vigorous manner, and tells exactly what he believes would be the effect of his plan upon modern business methods and present day social life. Norfolk Journal: Charlie Kilmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Kilmer, met with what came near being a bad accident near Wayne last Friday. While driving down a steep hill his horses became unmanageable, and being heavily loaded so no break on the wagon, the horses ran to the bottom of the hill the wagon striking a bridge and breaking the fore wheels from the wagon. Mr. Kilmer was dragged a distance of one hundred yards, hurting his head and hips quite badly. In speaking of the republican ticket the Democrat says: "It is observed that the whole ticket is a HERALD deal all the way through." That is, none of Eph Cunningham's friends were recognized. Under the title of "Christian Science and the Book of Mrs. Eddy," Mark Twain contributes to the October Cosmopolitan what is the most remarkable magazine article of the month, if not of the year. Twain discloses two phases of himself—the humorist and the keen far-sighted philosopher. He handles the cult a bit severely, perhaps, but he has his reasons for so doing and sets them forth most forcibly. His statement concerning Mrs. Eddy's book is characteristic. Of it he says: "It is the first time since the dawn of Creation that a Voice has gone crashing through space with such placid and complacent confidence and command." Emerson Enterprise: Mr. E. A. He is a young man of good education and a highly successful teacher and possesses the executive ability necessary for a model superintendent. His many friends here hope he will be elected. Norfolk News: A real estate firm in Wiuside sold six farms last week. North Nebraska real estate is surely attracting attention—and buyers. A Hoskins correspondent sends an interesting and highly sensational account of a neighborhood row in which two women of the town were the chief participants. There has been considerable trouble between the women and other residents of the town for some time and the above was the result. FARMERS—TAKE NOTICE! When in Wayne call at the Perrin hotel and get a good, square meal 25 cents.

The Dreyfus trial cost $10,000. In Chicago that wouldn't have been more than the price of one jurymen.

Perhaps that Malus earthquake was just the settling of the country to adjust itself to the loss of Tom Reed.

The farmer's wife who raises chickens, knows that they must have food enough first to satisfy bare hunger, then enough more than that to put into the hen in the form of nourishment and fat before they will begin to lay. In plain words you've got to put into the hen in the form of food what you get out of it in the shape of eggs. An ill nourished hen lays no eggs.

The difference between the farmer's wife and her chickens is that she fancies she can take out of herself in daily care and toil what she does not put back in the form of nourishment for her body and her chicks. Sooner or later the woman who tries it breaks down. The warning signs of physical breakdown are, among others, headache, weak stomach, flatulence, pain in side or back, difficult breathing, palpitation of the heart. These are only some of the indications of a derangement of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. The one sure remedy for this condition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood and nourishes and invigorates the nerves.

Mrs. Martha E. Babham, of Newville, Prince George Co., Va., writes: "I commenced to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in June, 1897, also his 'Favorite Prescription,' and I cannot express the benefit I have received from these medicines. I was suffering with what the doctors called chronic indigestion, torpid liver and vertigo. The doctor did not do me any good. My symptoms were giddiness in head, pain in chest and upper part of my arms. I also suffered with female weakness. I was all run-down and could not do any work without suffering from nervous attacks. I wrote to you for advice. You advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription.' When I commenced to use the medicines I weighed only 112 pounds, now I weigh 150 pounds. I thank God and Dr. V. Pierce for my recovery."

RUNNING SORE ON HIS ANKLE.

After Six Years of Intense Suffering, Promptly Cured By S. S. S.

Obstinate sores and ulcers which refuse to heal under ordinary treatment soon become chronic and deep-seated, and are a sure sign that the entire circulation is in a depraved condition. They constantly sapping away the vitality. In every case the poison must be eliminated from the blood, and no amount of external treatment can have any effect.

There is no uncertainty about the merits of S. S. S.; every claim made for it is backed up strongly by convincing testimony of those who have been cured by it and know of its virtues by experience.

Mr. L. J. Clark, of Orange Courthouse, Va., writes: "For six years I had an obstinate, running ulcer on my ankle, which at times caused me intense suffering. I was so disabled for a long while that I was wholly unfit for business. One of the best doctors treated me constantly, but did me no good. I then tried various blood remedies without the least benefit. S. S. S. was so highly recommended that I concluded to try it, and the effect was wonderful. It seemed to get right at the seat of the disease and force the poison out, and I was soon completely cured." Swift's Specific.

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—drives out every trace of impurity in the blood, and in this way cures permanently the most obstinate, deep-seated sores or ulcers. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains not a particle of potash, mercury, or other mineral. S. S. A NEGLECT OF DUTY.

How Governor Holcomb "Settled" With State Treasurer Bartley.

The failure of Governor Holcomb to make a proper settlement with State Treasurer Bartley in 1895, and the acceptance of a worthless bond, whereby the state lost half a million dollars, is a matter of record that will not soon be forgotten by the people of Nebraska.

That Holcomb was to blame for this loss this record clearly shows, his own halting and confused evidence given in the bond trial being the best proof.

The public mind needs only to be refreshed. Holcomb was elected governor in the fall of 1894. Bartley had served two years as treasurer and there was a suspicion that his accounts were in bad shape. The governor-elect was warned by Rosewater and others that the treasurer was a defaulter and that a very careful accounting should be had, to protect the state.

In spite of this warning, and in spite of the law, the new governor plainly intended to deal with Bartley. After a long private consultation he accepted a new bond upon which most of the old and already accountable bondsmen qualified for fabulous sums. No attempt was made to examine into the real worth of the bond.

One of the bondsmen was the president of a bank that held over $300,000 of state money. The bank was not a depository and the deposit was unlawful. The governor then accepted this bondman, qualifying in the sum of $200,000 over and above all debts and liabilities. The public knew then and knows now that the deposit was unlawful and that the bondman was not worth anything like the sum mentioned.

The acceptance of the straw bond was bad enough, but the worst part of the deal was in the pretended settlement with the treasurer. The transcript of Holcomb's evidence in the Omaha trial is the best proof, and it is accessible to all.

According to this testimony, Holcomb first held a private consultation with Bartley and then called on the treasurer's office, where they remained about two hours. The governor says he looked over a ledger or some such book in which there were some accounts. He is not sure what book or what accounts.

Then Bartley produced a cigar box containing some slips of paper, representing what should have been about $400,000 in cash. The law required it all to be in cash, but according to Holcomb's testimony, "the law was a farce and a sham." This testimony is a matter of record.

The governor did not examine the slips of paper closely. He admitted that he did not know whether they were genuine. He knew that the one bank which was not a legal depository was represented in the cigar box by a slip calling for over $200,000.

The story of the "settlement" is best told in the exact words of the record. The case was heard at Omaha in February, 1898. Governor Holcomb was on the stand, and the following extract is from pages 617 to 623 of the record, bill of exceptions.

Question. I ask what he was charged with?

Answer. $600,000 or $628,000, if I remember rightly, that included the money in suspended banks.

Q. I understand. There was about $47,000 in cash, but according to the transcript there was $241,000 that was tied up in suspended banks, was there not?

A. Yes, sir; I think so.

Q. That would leave about $718,000 in cash?

A. In that neighborhood; I was thinking it was about fifteen thousand; I may not be correct.

Q. I will ask you again what it was that he brought these papers that you call certificates of deposit out in?

A. Well, as I remember, it was a little box.

Q. Cigar box?

A. Something of that shape.

Q. Of the balance of this, outside of the $47,000 he produced none of it in cash? If it was $241,000, you may say it may be?

A. No, sir; no different from what I saw.

Q. Here followed a few questions as to what Holcomb had testified to on a former occasion, and the examination continued.

Q. He produced this box that was like a cigar box; did he show on these papers he had?

A. I do not remember that it had any cover.

Q. And then took out papers that he called checks and certificates of deposit, is that right?

A. He took out mostly certificates of deposit. There may have been a few checks.

Q. Have you a list of these?

A. No, sir.

Q. Here followed some questions covering the same ground, but the examination concluded as follows:

"The candidacy of A. A. Welch for district judge is meeting with favorable comment all over the district and as the days pass by his chances for election grow correspondingly, and that he is the man for the place is conceded."

"It did me more good than anything I have ever used. My dyspepsia was of months' standing, after eating it was terrible. Now I am well," writes S. R. Keener, Holston, Kas., of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. L. P. Orth.

Q. And then he brought out a box that looked like a cigar box, from which he took out a number of certificates of deposit, amounting from $240,000 to $410,000.

A. I do not know whether he called them certificates of deposit or not; they were certificates of deposit mostly. There may have been some bank checks.

Q. He showed you the papers?

A. He showed me the certificates of deposit.

Q. You looked them over and took no list of them?

A. No, sir; I took no list of them.

Q. Took no memorandum of them?

A. No, I took no memorandum of them.

Q. And you turned them back to him and he put them back in the cigar box and went off with them, is that right?

A. He put them in the vault.

Q. Did you see him put them in the vault?

A. I will not say positively that I did.

Q. And that was the end of the examination?

A. Yes, that was the end of it.

The man who gave this weak and halting testimony—who accepted a worthless bond—who made an illegal settlement with a defaulting official—who declared the law of the state to be "a farce and a sham"—and by his failure to enforce it caused the state to lose half a million dollars, is now a candidate for a place on the supreme bench.

The people will not be deceived the second time. The record is open for their investigation. They will decide to place a jurist on the bench. This professional politician with the unsavory record will not be given further opportunity.

THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS.

Hon. M. B. Reese, Candidate For Justice of the Supreme Court.

Judge M. B. Reese has been a resident of Nebraska 23 years. He is a native of Illinois, having been born in Macoupin county in 1839. He received a common school education and being desirous of further culture attended a seminary for two years, paying his own expenses. During that period he developed the spirit of independence and self-reliance characteristic of all men who attain eminence. His father was a farmer and he followed the same occupation until he was 24 years old. Meanwhile Mr. Reese had married and settled down, but an accident occurred which disabled his arm for life.

Mr. Reese then commenced the study of law. He entered the leading part of the war he enlisted, but when he came to undergo the physical examination necessary, much to his chagrin, he was rejected because of the injury referred to. He then again applied himself to the study of law and was admitted to practice in March, 1865. He practiced in Osceola, Ia., until 1871, when he came to Nebraska. He has lived in Platteau and Wahoo and now in Lincoln.

Judge Reese was elected a member of the state constitutional convention in 1875 and assisted in framing our present constitution. In the following year he was chosen for state senator by the voters of his district, but he declined the nomination. In the fall of 1876 he was elected district attorney of the then fourth judicial district and was re-elected in 1878 and again in 1880, practically without opposition.

In November, 1883, Mr. Reese resigned his position, lacking two months of holding it six years. In the fall of 1883 he was nominated for the position of supreme judge and was elected, remaining in office for six years.

About six years ago Judge Reese was appointed dean of the law department of the State University of Nebraska, which position he still holds.

Mr. Reese is a member of the University Regents. His father died while he was quite young. He began the study of music at an early age and taught music in the fonoia society at Champaign, N. Y. Several years ago in the fonoia society at Rome, Ga. He commenced studying medicine at Rome, Ga., and entered the college of medicine at the University of Michigan in 1876, graduated in 1878, practiced medicine in New York until 1881, when he removed to Ainsworth, N. B., where he has resided ever since. Dr. Ely was a candidate for state senator in the Fourth district in 1890, on the Republican ticket, but was defeated by 1,000 down to 350. He is considered one of the brightest and best physicians in northwest Nebraska, and has a very large practice in Iowa and surrounding counties. He has a good citizen and highly esteemed by a large number of his countrymen.

Edmund G. McGinnis, nominee for regent of the State University, was born in Wisconsin 40 years ago. When he was 13 years old his parents moved on a farm and from then on he has had a youth was that of a farmer. He attended the State University of Wisconsin, graduating there in 1881, and afterward the law department of the same institution, from which he graduated in 1885. In 1893 he came to Omaha and engaged in the practice of law and has practiced his profession there ever since, and has attained a position in the estimation of his fellow jurists which can be placed as that of but few lawyers in the state.

W. W. Young of Stanton, had the honor of making a nominating speech which resulted in the nomination of M. B. Reese by the state convention and those who were there say he covered himself all over with glory, both by the speech and its results. W. W. is all right.—Tribune.

Governor Roosevelt of New York, and the hero of Santiago, will make a two days trip through Nebraska during the latter part of this month, and he will be given a grand reception. He will address the people from the rear end platform of the train.

"The Last Hope of the Republic" is the name of the straight populist paper in Lincoln, which, however, is not able to stand the combination put up by the fusion forces at Omaha. As indicating the way it feels about the head of the ticket the following clippings will show: "Silas A. Holcomb has twice been elected to office on anti-pass platforms, and each time he proved to be the worst pass-grabber on record. That's the kind of business that deserves a reform party and a good thrashing down is what traitors need." "Silas A. Holcomb has been false to every plank in the Omaha platform. The chief of his sins is the sell-out on the free pass question. Next comes his connection with Bartley. And think of the size of a man who would swear to vouchers drawing $50 per month house rent, when he was paying $30 a month for the house. You may say this is a small matter, but it amounted to a steal of $50. Would a man of this sort respect the oath of office as supreme judge? Would it be safe to allow him to pass on questions of property or money? If the populists of Nebraska cannot meet and nominate a better man than Sil Holcomb for supreme judge, they had better take to the woods. If the honest populists of the state desire to perpetuate their party they will call a new convention. And they will name their party the 'populist party.' The term 'people's independent' as used by the fusionists is a fraud."—Norfolk News.

In the nomination of Anson A. Welch of Wayne, the populists of this judicial district have a candidate in whose ability and integrity they have the greatest confidence. If you want to down one of the worst trusts in the state see to it that Mr. Welch receives your vote.—Omaha Republican.

A vigorous campaign will be waged throughout the state this fall and though it will be a short one, yet it will be disastrous to fusionism in Nebraska. Slippery Silas is not the man the people want. Judge M. B. Reese is the man.

Anson A. Welch during the past week has made many strides toward the judicial goal, and when the day for voting arrives it will be only a question of the size of his majority. Right is bound to again prevail in Nebraska.

THE MAN BEHIND THE PLOW.

He is Not Likely to Agree that Prosperity Shall Be Pulled Up by the Roots.

It is not too early for the man behind the plow to make up his mind that the present conditions are good enough for him, and that he will oppose any new political experiments at the next national election. A bad currency injures the farmer as severely as anybody. Anything that stunts business confidence and puts a stop to new industrial enterprises hurts the man behind the plow by killing his home market for agricultural products. It injures the merchant and manufacturer as well as the workingman and farmer, because we must all suffer or enjoy the same conditions. The business world is intensely desirous that there should be no check to prosperity next year, and it will do all its power to keep things as they are. Will the man behind the plow do the same?

Agriculture is the greatest American industry, employing more men than any other. The army behind the plow is as potent for good or ill as the army that conquered Spain. The men behind the guns won victory by their straight shooting, and the men behind the plow must do their share by straight thinking. Any crooked reasons that will shake the foundations of the present superb prosperity would bring defeat and loss to the farmers of the nation as quickly as to any other class. The name of the party in power matters nothing. We only know that the principles now in force are the foundation on which we have built up the greatest business—foreign and domestic—that the country has ever had. It is important that those of these foundation stones be wrenched out by indulging in any political experiments or even by arousing a suspicion that any such experiments are possible next year. To a considerable extent it rests with the man behind the plow to say that nothing of the sort will happen.

It is one of the misfortunes of our system of Government that it subjects the whole business of the nation to every four years. When a presidential election comes during hard times it makes the times temporarily worse, and when it comes in good times it often checks activity. The harm is in direct proportion to the uncertainty. There is no reason why there should be any such harm at all in 1900, because there need be no doubt as to the result. If the commercial world and the agricultural world will but join hands and say they will let well enough alone, there will be no trace of an election year slump. If there is an expansion question to solve, nobody is likely to do it better than the President, who is acquainted with it from its beginning. If there is any currency legislation needed, let the party do it that has ruled in the present prosperity. Stability is all that is needed now in order to carry the present wave of activity, not only to the beginning of the next campaign, but far beyond 1900. It is not too early for the man behind the plow to declare that he is not going to pull up his prosperity by the roots to see if it is growing.—Chicago Dry Goods Reporter.

COLLEGE NOTES.
Rev. Bithell with Rev. Barker took dinner at the college Tuesday.
Miss Chase spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents at Pierce.
Two of the Presbyterian ministers who are attending the Synod, are staying at the College.
Some of the students have been on the sick list this week but all are around at classes again.
Mr. Henry Raubach who spent six terms with us and completed our teachers' course, is teaching his home school near Pierce. He is a fine young man and is an excellent worker.

Miss Chase informs us that Misses Wallace and Scherwin are doing excellent work in the schools at Pierce. They are experienced teachers and women of ability who are a credit to the college and any school where they are engaged.
Miss Kate Sherlock was visited by her father and sister last week, also by her friend Mrs. Dr. McGregor of Sioux City. Miss Sherlock was a faithful student all last year and is now well prepared to teach any good school.
A great many students have secured season tickets for the course of lectures which have been planned by the College, high school and the churches. We are sure students can not invest $1.50 to better advantage and hope all may attend each lecture.

Mrs. King of Hastings, the state president of the Y. W. C. A., was a college visitor this week. She addressed the students and all enjoyed her talk and her visit very much. She was pleased with the work being done by the young women of our Y. W. C. A.
Since we wrote the notes last week we have been informed of two more college boys nominated for the office of county superintendent; Chas. Hill by the republicans in Cuming county, and Will Hill by the democrats in Thurston county. This makes a list of 15 former students who are candidates for the office of superintendent.

The teachers report satisfactory examinations in the various classes. The last half of the term starts out with bright prospects and each student is determined to make a better record the last half of the term than for the first half.
The college had a number of prominent visitors this week, and several inspiring chapel talks. Rev. Barker spoke on Tuesday morning. He is a pleasant talker, and the same is true of Mrs. King and other speakers. This week will be especially remembered by all of us.

ANIMATED EXPRESSIONS OF PEOPLE.
KIND FRIENDS:
The season is now approaching, if not already here, for coughs, colds, and bronchitis. We know most of the people around Wayne know the great success Craig's Indian Oil and Vegetable Cough Cure has had in removing these troubles. No house in town or the county is safe without a bottle of Craig's Indian Oil and Cough Cure; it removes the first stages of lung fever; for sore throat it cannot be beat; taken in time it is a positive cure for laryngitis. For croupy children we have never known it to fail. Barabche it stops in five minutes. A few references may not be amiss in regard to Indian Oil: Wm. House, Wayne; Chas. Fisher, Wayne; Tom Hennessey, Wayne; Abram Jett, Wayne; F. M. Skeen, Wayne; Chas. Miller, north of Wayne; Fred Kay, north of Wayne; John Olson, northeast of Wayne; Alfred Johnson, northwest of Wayne; Hugh House, west of Wayne; Griff Davis, west of Wayne; Ed Carroll, county commissioner west of Carroll; D. B. Tallman, south of Wayne; Mr. Emick, south of Wayne; Mr. Barrett, south of Wayne; Jud Tallman, east of Wayne; H. P. Hansch, east of Wayne; Miss Emma Anderson, Wakefield; Ance Holson, north of Wakefield; Mr. Alexander, northwest of Wakefield; Wm. Hillmer, east of Concord; Mr. Postelwate, east of Concord; J. Hamlin, west of Allen; Lou Truly, west of Allen; Cal Mitchell, east of Concord; Mr. Finch, east of Dixon; and hundreds of others who will be glad to testify to any enquirer of what they think of Craig's Indian Oil. I firmly believe these among the most respected people in Nebraska; and Nebraska, who will say it is one of the best internal and external medicines ever come to their homes. You can get this Indian Oil at Wayne; office and residence west of post office.
J. LOEKE, Manager.

See the new ads of Otto Vogel, the Raeker and John H. Kate, in this issue.
General Manderson has been elected Vice President of the International Association, Nebraska seems to be right in the front both in war and peace.
Ex Gov. Crouse will take the stump for Judge Reese and will help increase his majority to 20,000. In fact, about everybody is doing a little stumping for the Judge.
What a vast difference between the patriotic utterances of President McKinley and the demagogic speeches of Wm. J. Bryan. Just compare them and draw your own conclusions.
We do not know what the well meaning populists of this county will do, but if they don't do the handsome thing by Judge M. B. Reese for supreme judge, we will greatly miss our guests. And many of them will also quietly cast their ballots for A. A. Welch.
Woodmen Accident Association, LINCOLN, NEB., Oct 5, 1899.
D. H. SURBER, Wayne, Neb., Esteemed Neighbor—We are pleased to enclose you our secretary's order on the treasurer for $20.00 in full settlement of your claim for injury of Aug. 9 last, and trust that the same will be entirely satisfactory to you.
Fraternally yours,
A. O. FAULKNER, Pres. and Gen. Mgr.
Mr. Surber holds a certificate in the Woodmen Accident Association and the above letter explains itself. He had his hand badly bruised up and was unable to work for some time. His claim against the above association was promptly acted upon and in a manner entirely satisfactory to him.
During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cask of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by Ed. J. Raymond, druggist.

THE WORD BLIZZARD.
Said to Have Been Used in South Dakota in the Sixties.
A well known book of reference states that the Chicago Advance was the originator of the word "blizzard" on the 8th of January, 1880. Old timers in South Dakota take exception to the statement. A story is told by the editor of the Hutchinson County Herald, who commenced his newspaper work on the Dakota Republican, at Vermillion, in August, 1867.
"The Peake family, Swiss bell ringers, arrived in Vermillion by stage, and William Peake, manager of the bell ringers, said to a party of friends, 'I would like to see one of your blizzards I have heard so much about.' Mr. True answered: 'All right. We will order one for your special benefit and have it here when you come back through here from Yankton.'
After showing three nights in Yankton the troupe started homeward to Sioux City, Mr. Peake being on the outside of the stage with the driver. The morning was warm and balmy. Mr. Peake was astonished at the actions of the driver, who suddenly whipped up, and asked what the matter was. T. C. Williams, who was driving, answered that he was afraid Mr. True's order was going to be a little ahead of time. 'Look to the north-west,' said he. There was the blizzard approaching in all its fury. In almost a minute the blinding snow was being whirled through the air, and Mr. Peake withdrew to the inner part of the stage. It was one of the most terrific storms known to the territory, which is saying considerable. The Peake troupe was compelled to wait several days at Vermillion until Mr. True's blizzard had blown itself out—Sioux Falls Argus.

THE END.
"What have you been writing, my dear?" asked Mrs. Beechwood of her daughter.
"These are the last sad writes, mamma," replied the girl. "This note tells Mr. Homewood that I have ceased to love him."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.
