"There are Others, but not the Same." The "Nethersole," the "Queen Bee" the "Drew Selby line," the "Little Giants"—Gen. E. Klett's superb footwear, sold only at Maute's Shoe Store.
Little Gladys Goldie celebrated her first birthday yesterday afternoon. A large number of little babies and their mamas were invited and while the babies don't say much about it their mamas do. It was a happy crowd and a well behaved one too, but the babies were not the only ones who enjoyed the party.

Messrs Bert Brown, Robt Wilkins and E. A. Lundburg will make a trio of young men who will be able to conduct the affairs of the county in office and who will be a credit to every citizen of the county, honorable and courteous to their constituency, and careful and painstaking in the conducting of the affairs of the office to which they will be elected.
Every man in the first commission district should be interested in the re-election of J. E. Russell. He has been a faithful servant of the county the past three years and has looked well after the interests of the people of the first district. The questions pertaining to the election of the new county house have not all been discussed and it would be a very unwise move on the part of the people to elect a new man now. Mr. Russell is well posted on everything that has been done and knows just what business is yet to be transacted. Vote for Russell and see that your neighbors vote for him.
We occasionally hear it reported that this paper is not supporting Bert Brown as it should. We want it distinctly understood, that we have for Brown from start to finish and he is going to be elected. He is as clean, as upright and honest, and as competent as any man who ever ran for office in Wayne county. During the past four years he has attended strictly to his business as clerk of the district court; he is courteous and obliging and will make a model county clerk, always his post of duty, and when you have any business to transact with the clerk, you will know just where to find him. Vote for Brown and help elect a deserving and worthy young man.

Winslow Tribune: The Democrat says Miss White's record, as county superintendent speaks for itself. That's the point exactly, and that is why the people, regardless of party, are going to vote for Lundburg. Mr. Lundburg's record speaks for itself also, and shows him to be a thorough, up-to-date, practical, successful school man who would bring clearest business methods and practical ideas to bear in his conduct of the office. The people who have the best interests of the schools at heart will vote for Lundburg, regardless of party. They can't afford to let him be defeated.

Judge Robinson addressed a small audience at the opera house last Friday evening but if he did the fusion cause any good he's welcome to it. The utterances of a man who will denounce the President of this nation is not patriotic and his remarks fell upon chaff. The majority of the people of this county are patriotic American citizens and at the polls will so proclaim their fidelity by retiring such men.

The revival meetings conducted by Rev. Barker at the M. E. church closed last Friday evening, and was no doubt the most successful series of meetings ever held in the church. While the number of professed converts was not so large as at some meetings, many persons were converted and several members of the church were made to realize more fully their duty and privileges as christian workers. Mr. Barker accomplished a great work here and will ever be remembered by the Methodists of Wayne.

LAW AS INTERPRETED.

Notice that an unearned premium will be restored and holding the amount subject to the call of the insured if held in Tisdell vs. New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY: "OUR FLAG STANDS FOR LIBERTY WHEREVER IT FLOATS."

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY made American sovereignty in the Philippines a part of truth every speech across Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin.

When those who commenced them will stop, and they will not cease until our flag, representing liberty, humanity and civilization, shall be triumphantly in every island of the archipelago under the undisputed and acknowledged sovereignty of the republic of the United States.

That territory, my fellow-citizens, the President has no power to alienate if he were disposed to do so, which he is not.

Whichever we have raised our flag we have raised it not for territorial aggrandizement, not for national gain, but we have raised it for civilization and humanity.

I never travel through this mighty West, a part of the Louisiana purchase, Iowa, part of Minnesota and the Dakotas, that I do not feel like offering my gratitude to Thomas Jefferson for his wisdom and foresight in acquiring this vast territory.

All hostilities will cease in the Philippines. Prosperity and Education. From all over the country there are reports that the enrollments at public and private schools, from the primary grades to the universities, are larger this year than ever before.

No Time to Spare. The laboring men who still cling to Bryanism should take into consideration this fact: That Bryan made his previous tour through the country they could go and hear him without losing any time whatever from the jobs they didn't have.

One of the Evils. Those Denver steam whistles which the inhabitants of that city are complaining about as nuisances are one of the evils of a Republican protective tariff administration.

Never Again. Wage-earner—No, I thank you; not any for me. I tried your game in 1892, and know exactly how it works. Protection is good enough for me.

And Still They Cry. Labor Commissioner McCormack of Indiana makes the statement that there is work for every one in Indiana who is willing to work.

Has Lost Its Charm. Colonel Bryan, like the funny man on the American stage, makes "local hits." When he is in the East, the heart of America's commercial life, he lets silver alone and talks up something new to the Eastern task.

Viewed with Alarm. Notwithstanding the grime of '73 and the "robber tariff" in connection with the present Republican administration, the farmers show a degree of prosperity and happiness that must be very trying to Billy Bryan and his little gang of pessimists, who view it with alarm.

What He Needs. Here is a bright and shining example of the Proteidia afforded consumers by competition. Without the Doschers and Arbuckles there would be no cheap sugar. With them the fangs of the Sugar Trust are drawn, and instead of a monopoly it is only a large corporation in competition with smaller ones, which have the power to regulate prices.

What Mr. Haveneyer seems to need is not so much modification of the Tariff.

A Political Maund Miller. Bill Bryan on an autumn day, in Canton, Ill., was making hay—

Making hay, for the day was fair, and the fair committee brought him there.

Down to the depot rusted the throng, and so Bill Bryan went along.

McKingley's train came rolling in, and Bryan met it with a grin.

His grin was wide, and blithe and sweet— It occupied the entire street.

It rippled with a glad surprise, and ebb'd in his twinkling eyes.

And, 'mid the music of the band, He reached out with his horny hand.

His horny hand, with calloused palm, Made so by many a gesture calm.

As well as by saving the gentle air To emphasize a point most rare:

For the only work his hand had done Was to touch in the fair committee's "hour."

And, as he felt McKingley's clasp, "How are you, Billy?" they heard him gasp.

"How are you, Billy?" the President Replied, as o'er the rail he bent.

And soon McKingley's speech was o'er, And he was riding on once more.

Bill Bryan looked, and sighed; "Ah, me, That if the President might be—

"I should be glad and free from care, And I should shake the county fair."

"I should not have to mark my place, And stop till after the next race."

"But I could talk, or I could not, Just as I liked," so Bryan thought.

"I would not," he mused some more, "Emblazoned on billboards galore,

"Along with heaps of fancy fruit, And yellow pumpkins, too, to boot."

"The folks would not, in letters big, Say: 'Come and See the Giant Pig,

"And Ride the Merry-Go-Around, And Eat Your Lunch on the Ground."

"And Hear the Canton Brass Band Toad."

Like-wise, Bill Bryan Elucidate:

"They would not sandwich my best thought "Twixt heats of the two-forty trot."

And then the fair ground's wooden walls Stretched away into statey halls:

The fair committee, heavy-set, Turned to a statesman's cabinet:

The set of faces round the track Became a Congress at his back;

And for a moment, heavy date, He dreamed he steered the ship of state.

But he looked at the fair-ground fence again,

Justly sighing: "It might have been, —Soddy Wink in Baltimore American."

Truth as to Trusts. Mr. Osgood's statement that trusts are the result of competition which has taken business beyond a paying point is certainly the truth as applied to most cases.

Ten Thous' Dollars Paid to Working Men and Women by Four Xenta Factories last Saturday.

Utility of Trusts. It is a fine thing for Democrats that we have truck for without them there would be nothing for Democrats to denounce.

Howling Has Become Unpopular. Mr. Bryan is against trusts, but he hasn't said so for a long time.

Needless Not Wanted. There isn't any question that William McKingley will be re-employed in 1900 as Advance Agent of Prosperity.

Makes Them Sadder. General Prosperity seems to be the hardest thing for the Bryanites to get over.

Concerts in Guam. Daily concerts are to be given by the Governor's band in Guam.

NORA'S BLUNDER

Miss Mattie Rice had gawped once since breakfast she had yawned a score of times; and even pretty Evelyn was growing drowsy over her embroidery by the window.

It was a hopelessly rainy day in mid October, with the sky veiled in dark gray mist, the faded leaves floating down in luscious layers of dim color around the columns of the piazza, and the fall foliage nearly prostrated by the steady downpour.

No walks, no gathering of ferns, mosses, berries in the still, delicious woods; no dreamy rambles to the meadow, hills, and worst and saddest of all, neither to read.

"I don't want to be deluded into working words," said Matty, "nor get into crowds and Kensington stilt."

"How are you, Billy?" the President Replied, as o'er the rail he bent.

"I should be glad and free from care, And I should shake the county fair."

Sewing on Trouble

There is an old proverb to the effect that every time you have a butt n sewed on the clothes you are wearing, the sewer sews on trouble. Whether this is true or not, it certainly TAKES trouble to sew up rips and on buttons. Good work won't rip—buttons well sewed on won't come off. We try to do good work—we are ready at any time to make good deficiencies. WE WANT YOUR PATRONAGE

The republican party of Wayne county has an opportunity of a life time this fall. Will they perform that duty or will they not—that's all there is to it.

The infant child of Chas. Pfeil died last Thursday and was buried Saturday. The stricken parents have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Joseph Stookford, Hodgdon, Maine, healed a sore running for 17 years and cured his piles of long standing by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures all skin diseases. L. P. Orth.

Four trains of soldiers belonging to the forty-fifth regiment, of St. Paul, passed through Wayne early Monday morning on the way to California. From they go to the Philippines.

The Hon. Cyrus T. Brady will tell in the November number of McClure's Magazine, the thrilling story of Decatur's exploit of cutting out the "Philadelphia" when she was held captive by the Tripolitans.

The republicans of the first congressional district should see that Diok Russell is re-elected. He has made an excellent record and should be elected by a big majority. Get out and work for him.

There are several reasons why the citizens of Wayne county should vote the republican ticket and one of them is that every man who wishes to work has many opportunities. Labor is remunerative and what more do you want.

Eat plenty; Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat. It cures all forms of dyspepsia and stomach troubles. E. E. Gamble, Vernon, Tex., says: "It relieved me from the start and cured me. It is now my everlasting friend." L. P. Orth.

A. T. Witter, the republican nominee for clerk of the district court, is an honored and respected citizen of Wayne, and a man thoroughly qualified for the office. The republican party should see that he is elected.

West Point, Republican.—Rev. Graber of Wayne, and Rev. Friend of the Home Missionary society of the German Evangelical association of N. A., were in West Point looking up the prospects of starting a church here of their denomination, which is similar to the German Lutheran. The field here seems already overdone.

Hull (Iowa) News: It is not very often that any entertainment gives such universal satisfaction as that given by Mr. Rolfe. He is a very talented young man and we predict that in the near future he will be at top of his profession. The most versatile man ever on the stage.

At the Wayne opera house this evening.

The America's cup is still an American asset. After eight flizles because of light breezes, two deplive races and one race in which an accidental disabled the challenger, the international yachting contest has ended with the Columbia a triumphant winner. It was three straight in the actual races called and there is not the slightest question that the better boat won. In light breezes and in stiff gales the Columbia has proved her superiority over the Shamrock in all the races and attempts at races.

Geo. Baller was here from Carroll on Friday.

A. P. Childs of Norfolk, was a Wayne visitor Thursday.

A vote for Brown is a vote for the right man in the right place

90cts BUYS a fifty pound sack of Full Patent Flour at P. L. MILLER & SON'S.

From 20c. to $5.00: Everything you want in footwear at prices that are about right. Maute's Shoe Store.

Subjects for Sunday services at the Baptist church: Morning, "The Bible." Evening, "Our Sunday Law and How it is observed in Wayne."

School Books, Tablets and all school supplies at Davies' Book Store.

If the voters of Wayne county will do their duty they will give Anson A. Welch snob a rousing majority that Waterloo V. Allen will not be in it.

Jerry Simpson wants the people of Kansas to give him their ears. They are pretty big ears this year too, and there are a good many of them to the stalk.

Wm. Dammeyer, of Arlington, has moved to Wayne and will engage in the manufacture of cigars. He comes to Wayne with excellent recommendations and should receive a liberal patronage.

The Democrat will have to put a little more muscle on those arguments in favor of the "people's candidate for county clerk" if it expects them to stick. Bert Brown is the people's choice this year, and he's gaining votes every day.

Judge Hunter, Dan McManigal, A. T. Witter, Robt Jones and W. A. Love will all make good officers and will creditably fill the positions to which they aspire. Judge Hunter who was renominated has made a splendid record which will be endorsed at the polls.

If the people of our neighboring district don't retire Judge Allen to private life this fall they never ought to try it again. It will take a stiff pry to loosen those joles from the official tete to which they have clung so long and constantly. With Welch against him it ought to be done—Stanton Pickett.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Messingill of Beaumont, Texas. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by Ed. J. Raymond, druggist.

Ex-Governor Altgeld, who it is said resigned his place on the ways and means committee that he might devote his whole time to the promotion of Bryan's presidential candidacy, is about to invade this state to give the candidate a boost. He is advertised to speak at Wayne on Saturday evening of this week. This country remembers Mr. Altgeld as governor of Illinois refusing to protect life and property in Chicago when it was at the mercy of a mob. He is an ardent democrat, and because of the fact that he is a sort of a political curiosity he will doubtless draw a big crowd at Wayne.—Norfolk News.

Winside Tribune: There isn't so much blow and bluster about Bob Wilkins as about some people, but there's a whole lot of good hard business sense, and when elected treasurer, as he will be, the duties of that office will be attended to carefully, accurately and honestly.... The Democrat is worried because it says the republican national committee is furnishing free plates to the Nebraska republicans, but it fails to state who is furnishing those supplements containing Olin Harvey's speech and other tommyrot to the fusion papers. What is sauce for the goose ought to be sauce for the gander and Goldie might profitably pluck the beam from his own eye before seeking to pluck the mote from the other fellow's pepper.

Chairman Tett of the state committee, says: "In my opinion the republican party is in excellent shape to win this year. The predictions which the republicans made two years ago in the presidential campaign have been realized in such a manner that no one can successfully deny them. There is existing in this state and in the nation today a condition of affairs such as states are already striving to achieve, that is, a condition of prosperity where the laboring man who desires employment receives it at good wages, where the business man has a trade that is satisfactory to him, where prices are universally good and the agricultural interests have markets that are satisfactory, and our foreign commerce is wonderfully improved and the balance of trade is wonderfully in our favor. The people are able to pay off their obligations and at the same time provide the necessities for their families, and all this has occurred in the face of the dismal predictions made by Mr. Bryan and his associates as to what would happen if they were not placed in power and their policies inaugurated as the policy of the government.

"In this state we have a state ticket which commands itself to every man who takes interest in good government; Judge Reese is well known throughout the state and wherever he is known he is known to be a man who will register his convictions of right and wrong without fear or favor in the official position of supreme judge. He is especially fitted for that position. When sitting on the bench before, he demonstrated by actual decisions that he could not be controlled by corporate influences or influenced by personal friendships, but was fearless, able and incorruptible."

Boodling Filipinos.

There was no reason why any American should aid with the rebellious Sioux Indians against the American army. There is still less reason why any American should aid with the Filipinos against the American army. The Filipinos are a race of savages and never have been civilized.

After organizing a rebellion against Spanish authority, Aguinaldo, for instance, sold out his people for $435,000. Carried back from baptismment to Luzon on the promise, voluntarily made by him, that he would do all things possible to promote a feeling friendly to the United States, Aguinaldo organized a rebellion against American authority.

Posing before the world as a friend of liberty and peace, he began war against the Americans as he formerly had begun it against the Spaniards—for blackmail. When General Loria was suspected of treason to this holy cause, Aguinaldo had him assassinated. Next, in loyalty to the same cause, he made his brother, Baldimero Aguinaldo Minister of the War Treasury, with the result that Baldimero has stolen all the money.

Such an example begets emulation, and now General Pio del Pilar comes forward with a proposition to surrender all the forces under his command to General Otis for $200,000. P. O. Otis offers to deliver to the Americans Aguinaldo, Paterno, and the other rebel leaders, and to procure the total overthrow of the rebellion. General Pilar is, therefore, just the same sort of a modern Washington as is Aguinaldo. Both are boodling traitors to the best interests of their people.

The proposition of General Pio del Pilar to sell Aguinaldo is no more monstrous than was the proposition of Aguinaldo to sell his colleagues to the Spaniards in 1896. He stipulated then that before the agreement should be carried out he and certain associate leaders of rebellion should be safely transported to some other country. It follows naturally that his Generals who have escaped despatchment should now propose to sell Aguinaldo himself.

The records of the Filipino leaders in Luzon are the best evidence of what they are there for.—Inter Ocean.

Call for County Suffrage Convention.

All friends of justice and equal rights in Wayne County are urgently invited to meet in mass convention in Wayne, November 16th and 17th, 1899. The convention will be held under the joint auspices of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, and the Nebraska Equal Suffrage Association. Able speakers will be present, and an entertaining, instructive program will be provided.

Four states, Wyoming, Utah, Idaho and Colorado, have already granted full suffrage to women, while twenty-six additional states have admitted the justice of the claim by extending partial suffrage. The states which have had full opportunity to observe the advantages of women suffrage unite in the testimony that it has proved beneficial in every direction. It has in no way injured men woman or the state. Instead, under its influence, women have become more intelligent and self-reliant; good men have been encouraged by the moral side of women, and have sought the purification of politics which they were unable to accomplish alone, while the state has gained a new dignity by the introduction of this moral force.

Important business concerning methods of work best suited to hasten the establishment of woman suffrage, in order that the state may gain its consequent good effects, will be considered in the convention. The friends of suffrage are invited to aid in the formation of these plans; the indifferent are invited to attend the sessions that they may be converted; and the opposed are invited to participate in the discussion presenting their side of the question. Everyone is invited. Come one, come all. MARY SMITH, HAYWARD, Chadron, Nebr., Nebraska W. S. A.

A SMALL SPOT MAY BE CANCER.

MOST VIOLENT CASES HAVE APPEARED AT FIRST AS MERE PIMPLES.

The greatest care should be given to any little sore, pimple or scratch which shows no disposition to heal under ordinary treatment. No one can tell how soon these will develop into Cancer of the worst type. So many people die from Cancer simply because they do not know just what the disease is; they usually turn themselves over to the doctors, and are forced to submit to a cruel and dangerous operation—the only treatment which the doctors know for Cancer. The disease promptly returns, however, and is even more violent and destructive than before. Cancer is a deadly poison in the blood, and an operation, plaster, or other external treatment can have no effect whatever upon it. The cure must come from within—the last vestige of poison must be eradicated.

Mr. Wm Walpole, of Walshtown S. D., says: "A little blotch about the size of a pea came under my left eye, gradually growing larger, from which shooting pains at intervals ran in all directions. I became greatly alarmed and consulted a good doctor, who pronounced it Cancer, and advised that it be cut out, but this I could not consent to. I read in my local paper of a cure effected by S. S. S., and decided to try it. It acted like a charm, the Cancer becoming at first irritated, and then discharging very freely. This gradually grew less and then discontinued altogether, leaving a small scab which soon dropped off and now only a healthy little scar remains where what threatened to destroy my life once held full sway." Positively the only cure for Cancer is Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—because it is the only remedy which can go deep enough to reach the root of the disease and force it out of the system permanently. A surgical operation does not reach the blood—the seat of the disease—because the blood can not be cut away. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place. S. S. S. cures also every case of Scrofula, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Ulcers, Sores, or any other form of blood disease. Bert Brown will occupy the new court house as county clerk early in January. It might as well be understood now so that there will be no disappointments.

Nebraska is a republican state and her people are just as patriotic as the gallant first Nebraska regiment.
They will vote the republican ticket
this fall and thus show their patriotism for their country.

Judge Reese is a lawyer not an offi-seeker. Holcomb is not much of a lawyer but a first class office seeker.
If a good jurist is what is wanted in the supreme bench the people should vote for Reese.—Pierce Call.

If the republicans of this county
don't do the handsome thing by Judge
M. B. Reese, they ought to forever be shamed of it. The same might be said of any voter who is honest in that he wants to see an able and honest jurist elected.

There seems to be a difference of opinion these days regarding the election of a judge for the Ninth Judicial District. Wm. V. Allen is on the verge of defeat and it is conceded today. If the voters of the district have the stamens to vote their convictions, they would defeat one of the worst trusts known in the state, by electing A. A. Welch, and thereby restore W. V. Allen, one of the main spokes of the trust.

MUTUAL INSURANCE.

How Governor Holcomb Defeated
It Till He Organized a Company.

The remarkable record of Silas A. Holcomb in the matter of insurance legislation challenges the attention of the people of the state and leads at once to the inevitable conclusion that it would be unsafe to place such a man on the supreme bench. A weak man in the presence of temptation while in the gubernatorial chair, what could be expected of him as a judge? What cause would be safe in his hands?

During the legislative session of 1895 there was a determination to pass a law which would allow the organization of mutual companies for the insuring of village and town property. To defeat this there was present at the state house an organized lobby, possessed of ample means for oil room purposes. It was well known at the time that $10,000 in cash was on hand to be used in defeating mutual insurance legislation.

On Jan. 17th Mr. Brockman of Richardson introduced house roll 246, a bill authorizing the formation of mutual companies. It was perfectly satisfactory to the people who were demanding mutual insurance. The record of the introduction of the bill is found on page 261 of the house journal.

On Feb. 26th the bill was reported to the general file and was delayed there until March 27th, when it was taken up in the committee of the whole and recommended for passage. On March 30th (page 1183 of the house journal) it was passed by unanimous vote. Such reformers as Barry, Hall and Soderman were there and voted for the bill. The reason for the unanimous vote was that the insurance people had been in sight so notorious an enemy of the people against the bill would have been marked at once as a boodler.

The lobby concentrated its efforts to defeat the bill in the senate. Every method of delay was resorted to. At least one prominent clerk was bribed. Money was offered to senators to get them to delay or lose the bill. At one time the one crooked clerk and one hoodling senator carried it away, and were made to disgorge only after the senate had issued warrants for their arrests.

In the senate, as in the house, all the boodle plans failed. The bill passed with but one dissenting vote, and that one senator was politically blacklisted for that act, and has never since been allowed to hold office.

But the old-line insurance people knew what they were doing. They had delayed the final passage of the bill until the last day of the session. They knew what Governor Holcomb would do. They knew that he would wait until after the adjournment of the legislature, when all danger of passing over his head was past, and then he would veto the bill.

The record shows that on April 5th (page 1359 of the house journal), the bill was presented to the governor by a joint committee. Until it reached his hands it was carefully guarded to keep the lobbyists and boodlers from stealing it. At that late day one of the clerks was offered $1,000 if he would lose the bill or allow himself to be held up and robbed of it.

After the adjournment of the legislature Governor Holcomb carried out his part of the contract. After numerous consultations with a Lincoln lobbyist he vetoed the bill. For this action he was never able to give a decent excuse, and left himself open to the strong suspicion that he had entered into a satisfactory deal with the boodling lobby.

The defeat of this meritorious bill in such a suspicious manner caused much indignation over the state and the next legislative session with the determination to pass a mutual insurance bill and put it through so early that a cowardly governor could not head it off. Jones of Nemaha on the 18th of January, 1897, introduced house roll 183, a bill exactly similar to the Brockman bill, except that it had several more sections relating to assessments and other matters, which were also covered in the laws already on the statute books. The bill passed the house on the 18th of March by unanimous vote. It passed the senate on the 1st of April with just one negative vote and was presented to the governor on the 1st of April.

For some reason not orally explained, but which is pretty well shown up by the records, Governor Holcomb held the bill until the 8th of April, when he announced to the legislature that he had signed it.

Now the sequel: That same day the news was given out that a new insurance company had been organized under the new law and that Silas A. Holcomb was elected as its president. This action had been taken before the bill was signed and the salary of the president was fixed at $50 per month. Comment on this transaction is unnecessary. "The records are the best evidence."

From that date to the close of his official term as governor Holcomb drew money every month as follows:
Salary as governor.....$26,538
Salary as insurance president.....69.00
Kick-off in house rent deal.....19.80 over. There will be but few parties and the leaders of the Democrats to worry now will be the recognized leaders then. Submit gracefully, even tho' we have to stretch a point to do so. Find enclosed a certificate which please sign in the two places marked before a Justice of the peace or a notary public who has a seal. McNeel who has been absent in Virginia, will be at home in a few days and want to have it ready for him.

M. C. HARRINGTON,
This letter is of particular interest and significance to all Populists of Nebraska. It sets forth the avowed purpose of the Democrats to swallow the Populists next year. What concessions are made this year by the Democrats are expected to bear fruit an hundred fold next year, when Candidate Bryan and the silverplated Democracy will put the Populist party out of sight. This is the meaning of the adherence of Bryan to Holcomb in the state convention, despite the protest of many leading Democrats who objected to supporting Holcomb, but who are doing so in a desultory sort of way merely to profit by it next year, when the Populist party, just as Mr. Harrington writes, is to disappear and when leaders of Democracy now will continue to be leaders after the swallowing has taken place. Mr. Harrington's letter, which has just come to the surface, throws a strong side light on the working of Boss Bryan and his Democratic machine.

General Fred Funston, like Admiral Dewey, has disappointed the opponent's of the administration's war policy. He has confirmed what the admiral has said since his return. He denies the capacity of the Filipinos for self-government and favors going ahead in a vigorous manner to subdue the rebellion in Luzon. He characterizes Aguinaldo as a "con" man. He is confounding his followers into believing they can whip the Americans and drive them out of the islands. As a disciple of George Washington, according to General Funston, the little rebel is a miserable failure, and Nebraskans who may think they are supporting a pure and high-minded patriot by voting against the administration should open their eyes to the facts.

Silas A. Holcomb as governor repudiated Mr. Burgess, recommended by organized labor for appointment on the state commission for the Omaha exposition. United labor now has its opportunity to repudiate Mr. Holcomb and the prospects are very good that it will do so. The truth is there is positively no warrant for labor of any kind supporting Mr. Holcomb and his ticket, on general principles. All kinds of labor is in great demand all over the state, at enhanced wages, and this in no wise because there is a Populist state administration, but because the good Lord has sent big crops and the Republican party has maintained sound money and kept its promise to reopen the mills and restore prosperity.

THE WEDGE OF GOLD.

Achen stole the golden wedge,
And while he kept it

The curse of God
Who hates a thief,
Bested on Israel.
The prophet who foretold
Took Achen to the suburbs
Of the camp,
And stoned him there with stones
Till he was dead.
The curse was lifted
And Israel in the next campaign,
Carried every province
In the state.

You are the Achen, Si,
You, Si, took everything in sight,
And now
The whiskered prophets of reform
Are after
You.
They're pelting you with stones,
They've taken you to the suburbs
Of the camp,
And there they'll sling you,
Si,
As worthless rubbish, into the
Ash barrel
Of oblivion.

They're building now
A mighty wall
Around the supreme court,
With iron gate so high
And bars so close
That e'en
The slipperiest weasel of your gang,
Cannot squeeze through.
And no cunning rascal they'll carve

Tough?
You bet it's tough.
But Si,
You had your chance.
You've had your day in politics.
The people have been kind to you.
They tucked you in a carriage
And Broken Bow,
They cheered your cause,
And waved you on with banners.
And you, old fox,
You,
Zowied and smiled,
With sanctimonious mien,
Knowing full well
That all the while
You had

Oh, Silas! Silas!
Had you but served the people,
And not yourself,
They would not now,
In this election,
Remain home to husk the corn
And leave you
Naked to your enemies.

—Lindsay Journal.

The fact that Judge Allen has deemed it necessary to bring outside endorsements into his race for judgeship in the Ninth judicial district is taken by many to mean that he is in no wise sure of his election to the position. These endorsements were written during his career in congress and were in support of his work there, but cannot be taken to mean that he is the only man who can give the people of the Ninth Judicial District the service they require. The Judge's persistent desire for office in no way fits or will serve to content him with the position he is bound to occupy in private life at no distant date.—Norfolk News.

When John S. Robinson told a Plainview audience that a republican administration was trying to enslave 8,000,000 people in the Philippines, he did not believe it, not one of his audience believed it, and he did not expect any intelligent person to believe his statement; yet he pretended that he believed such nonsense, and some of his hearers applauded, thus pretending that they believed it. The democratic party is indeed hard up for au-sane, when an intelligent man like John S. Robinson must make believe things, in earnest, like little children sometimes do, in play.—Plainview Gazette.

It is a fact worth remembering that the first day's registry in Lincoln did not develop a known republican in the city, who hesitated about telling the registrars that he affiliated with the republican party. But there were scores and scores of fusionists who declined to answer the question. This silence means something and is doubtless full of significance to Slippery Si and Edmisten and Bryan. When people get to be ashamed of their party affiliations, it means trouble.—State Journal.

The question is how much longer will such men as Douglas Cones, Mr. Williams, W. M. Wright, Judge Moses, and hosts of other men in this district continue to boost men of the boggy disposition of Allen and Robinson of Madison into office. These men and hundreds of others will show Messrs Allen and Robinson that there are other men and other counties in the Ninth Judicial District, by voting for Anson A. Welch. Dictatorship and bulldozing has become distasteful to fair minded populists and democrats.

Norfolk, one of the live and progressive cities of northeast Nebraska, is building a large opera house, a much needed institution. Like other cities in this part of the state the best sugar city is making rapid strides forward and is enjoying a season of prosperity and happiness. Among the other improvements she has in view is a handsome public building. We are glad to see our sister city so prosperous.

The question in which the people should now be most interested is: "Why should Nebraska be sacrificed to Holcomb, a man wholly uncompetent to fill the position of supreme judge, for the sake of aiding Bryan's ambitions because he is a candidate for the presidency?" Is it right? Or will you vote for Judge M. B. Reese and uphold the dignity of the bench of Nebraska and the honor of the state.

On public questions Nebraska is republican by 15,000 or 20,000. The problem connected with the election next month is how far the state can be induced to vote against its principles to oblige Mr. Bryan.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The state of Nebraska has about completed its job of being run by dictator Bryan and will give Judge Reese 10,000 majority.

It is now decreed by Bryan that fusion is to be but one more year of fusion and the populists are to be swallowed body and soul by Bryanarchy. So says Mr. Harrington who was the democratic candidate for congress in the sixth district but resigned. The question is will the pops submit.

All hail Com. Umbles, the fairest of all youths, and th' joy of all lovers of sport.

This was a pretty comfortable party for a "plain man," and did not count the other perquisites he might get in the way of railroad passes, assessments from clerks and appointees and other "complimentaries," as O. W. Palm would term them.

Silas made the office pay, but the insurance scandal will be remembered. It will have another chapter.

Harrington Writes a Letter.
M. C. Harrington, Democratic nominee for congress in the Sixth district, is also a victim of the habit of letter writing, as witness the following sent by him to Juan Boyle of Kearney, chairman of the Democratic district committee:

KEARNEY, NEB.,

"You are looking at me," she says again.

"I have! I know it!" exclaims Dolly the wise, looking up triumphantly; "you are—this innocent bombshell spreads dismay on the countenance."

"Who is that pretty little girl over there?" Vera asks, with a will longing to change this embarrassing conversation, pointing to where the girl who had first attracted her eye is sitting, "quite opposite, in the red-and-white gown? Do you see her?"

"Oh! that is Mary Butler. Don't you know her? Everybody knows Mary Butler. We love her, so does everybody else."

"Mamma says Seaton does," says little Flossy, mildly; "perhaps that's why he won't marry you."

"It was true, then," thinks Vera. A great sense of disgust rises up within her, swallowing all other thoughts. And yet she would have forgotten himself! Would have—no, he would do so still. Oh, the shamelessness of her!

Perhaps something of her secret scorn communicates itself to him, because even in the midst of his apparently unreserved conversation he lifts his head suddenly and his eyes seek her and read them as though he would read her soul.

And then a curious light flashes into his face. He makes a movement, quick and unthought of, as though he would rise and go, but, as he does so, some one steps out from the shadows behind her, and, holding over her holds out his hand—a young man, tall, well favored, smiling, with an air about him of sudden, warm delight. It is Seaton, so distinctly that Seaton can hear him across the room. "To think that I should have the happiness of meeting you here—to-day—and after so many vain inquiries. How it brings back the past to see you. Venice, Rome, that last carnival. Vera, say you remember me?"

Some people walking past them, and suddenly standing still, deliberate them from Seaton's view, but when next he looks the stranger is sitting beside her, and Vera, with flushed cheeks and brilliant eyes, full of a mysterious glow, is murmuring to him in low, soft tones.

"Who is the man talking to your cousin?" asks Seaton, indicating Vera's companion by a slight gesture, and speaking in a changed tone. "Miss Butler involuntarily lifts her head to look at him.

"Lord Shelton," she says. "George Sandes he was. Don't you know him? Great hunting man. He came in for the title and the baronetcy. That brought him back from his big game in the East."

CHAPTER XXV.

Going to where Tom Peyton is diligent wedding, Griselda takes him to task.

"Why didn't you tell me your sister was the sweetest woman on earth?" demands she, in an aggrieved tone.

"Because she isn't," says Tom, striving with a giant's effort to keep his face straight, "she is a magnificent dabbler; you are a dabbler."

"Nonsense!" says Griselda; and then, "Oh, Tom! what do you think she is going to do at home? She is going to make a grand effort to make the same old Griselda as she was when she was a child. Oh! how I wish she would do it!"

"Nonsense!" says Griselda; and then, "Oh, Tom! what do you think she is going to do at home? She is going to make a grand effort to make the same old Griselda as she was when she was a child. Oh! how I wish she would do it!"

CHAPTER XXVI.

In the last four days Peyton has mysteriously disappeared, no one knows whether, except perhaps Griselda, his sister and other intimates. He was going to make a grand effort to make the same old Griselda as she was when she was a child. Oh! how I wish she would do it!

"Who is the man talking to your cousin?" asks Seaton, indicating Vera's companion by a slight gesture, and speaking in a changed tone. "Miss Butler involuntarily lifts her head to look at him.

On Lexington avenue a cable car stopped at the signal of a man by the wayside. The man was bareheaded and carried a baby on his arm. By his side stood a woman.

As the grip car halted the conductor swung from the front platform of the trailer and stepped quickly forward to aid in the loading.

When he saw his disorganized arm assisted the woman to mount the steps. Then the conductor reached forward and grasped the baby, evidently intending to pass it to the woman.

"No, you don't," said the bareheaded man, as he quickly backed away. "Get one of your own."

"Pooh," cried the grinning conductor, "I've got two! All right!"

The car rolled on.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Milk and Eggs a Bad Diet.

"People over 30 would do well to give up milk and eggs in any form as a diet," said a well-known physician. "These are the structure-forming food of animals which mature in a short time, and when taken in quantities by human beings, whose structures have already formed they tend only to the hardening and aging of the tissues. I have seen people who were beginning to find their climbing difficult, and who were losing their elasticity, much benefited by giving up these articles from their diet. That there has been a great increase in the duration of life, below the age of 30 statistics prove, but beyond that period there has been no improvement. In my opinion, the person over 30 would have a good chance to preserve life as the child, just beginning its struggle with existence if he would only stick to his diet in his years."

Preferred English.

French politeness is proverbial, and deservedly so if the following is a fair example of it.

Scene, a ship in a French city.

Briton—Vookey voo doomy mway.

The proprietor—Bardoni! Monsieur can speak the English to me.

Briton—Why so? Can't you understand my French?

The proprietor—Monsieur, I am from the south, and find it difficult to comprehend the true English accent—Pick-me-up.

THE FILIPINO SCHOOLBOY.

He Learns Very Little About the United States.

It has been frequently remarked that the Filipino could have no conception of the extent and resources of the United States or that he never would have been deceived by this hallucination that they could successfully combat us. In going through their school here I found a little manuscript volume in which, in less than a hundred manuscript pages, was comprised all of syntax and geography that was taught the children here. And it must be remembered that Malolos, before the insurrection was an important city in this part of the world, and one where the children would be expected to receive the average education. Turning to one of the pages in this book that I picked up, I found the United States of America described upon immediately after Nicaragua and just before Mexico. After is the entire list of information given to the United States. In the form of questions and answers:

"Where is this country (the United States) situated? In North America.

"What are its boundaries? To the north, British America; to the east, the Atlantic ocean and the Bahama channel; to the south, the Strait of Florida and the Gulf of Mexico, and to the west, Mexico and the Grande (Pacific) Ocean.

"What is the form of government? It is a federal republic.

"Of what is this republic composed? Of forty different States.

"What are its rivers and mountains? The most notable rivers are the Mississippi (literal spelling), the Niagara, the Missouri (again the literal spelling), the Colorado and the St. Lawrence, and the principal mountains are the Cumberland and Rockies.

"What is the capital? Washington, but the most important city is New York.

"Protestantism prevails, but there are Catholic archbishops."

And this is the sum total of what the average Filipino boy of about ten years of age knows of our country. The somewhat prosperous country—Manila Letter in Leslie's Weekly.

SOUTH DAKOTA CAVE.

ALMOST UNKNOWN RIVAL TO KENTUCKY'S WONDER.

It is Thirteen Miles from Hot Springs—Has Been Explored for Ninety-one Miles—Was Accidentally Discovered by a Deer Hunter.

Wind cave, thirteen miles from Hot Springs, S. D., is visited annually by about 3,000 people, although the place is not generally known to American citizens. At present the admissions average about 3,000 annually and do not yield enough revenue to pay the taxes who are contesting the ownership of the property.

The cave is now in the possession of a man named Polson, a distant relative of Grover Cleveland's wife. He holds the fort by virtue of a judgment on mechanic's lien, having been employed to explore the cave and failing to receive his pay therefor.

Wind cave is reached by stages over bad roads. Arriving at the cave, the first impressions are disappointing. The visitors are prepared for the top by putting on old shoes and white stiff caps, and when all are ready are taken to a small cave. Mr. Polson then locks a door which reveals a trap just large enough to cover a trap and the floor. The trap swings upward and the visitors go down in single file by a narrow, precipitous flight of steps to a depth of about 100 feet. The walks and passages are then reached, leading at intervals into the various chambers, of which there are 2,100 in the cave. There are further descents until one gets some 500 feet below the entrance.

In some of the chambers it is possible to stand erect, and some are quite lofty, but the connecting passages are very low. Ladies' dresses are decorated with the drippings of candles, and the struggle to get through the narrow passages is such as to make many declare that the visit to Wind cave is quite enough.

The cave has been explored a distance of ninety-one miles. Four years of labor and $25,000 in money have been expended upon it thus far. Like many of nature's secrets, Wind cave was discovered by accident. The story is that Mike Bingham, a hunter, shot a deer, which ran until it dropped near a clump of bushes. When Mike noticed the spot where the deer lay he noticed a strong draft of air, which seemed to come from behind the bushes. He was led to investigate, and found that it came from an opening in the side of the mountain. The wind was so strong that when he threw his hat into the hole it was blown out with such force as to fall twenty feet away.

He went home and reported what he had seen to his brother, who was incredulous and asked Mike if he had been drinking. Nevertheless, the brother was induced to visit the place and the cap experiment was tried, but meanwhile the wind had changed and the cap went into the cave as rapidly as it was blown out the day before.

An investigation of the interior, supplemented by excavation, led to the belief that the cave could be utilized as a great natural curiosity, but as it was still the property of the Government it was necessary to obtain title under the United States land laws. Hence the making of mineral and agricultural entries and the consequent litigation that has resulted.—New York Journal.

IDENTIFIED BY A SKULL CHIP.

Odd Experience of a Medical Missionary with a Native African.

"Probably the oddest case within my experience was that of a Lapland who made himself known to me through the use of a detached piece of his own skull," said a medical missionary on a furlough from his work among the heathen. "One morning I went out to look over the specimens of real or fabled injury which were awaiting treatment. There was pretty nearly every kind of tropical disease in the outfit from sore finger to dropsy. Most of the patients were well known to me, but among them was one man whose face was unfamiliar, and who seemed to belong to a different tribe. As I stopped at his place he leaped to his feet as if he were a cat and ran somewhere in his scanty apparel this up an object which he promptly handed to me. It was a circular piece of human skull as big around as a dollar, and very nearly as thick. On the outer surface some one had carefully written in ink the name Lapite. This must be, I think, the first case in which a man has used part of his own skull, instead of a visiting card."

"I looked the man over at once to find out what the trouble was. He had had some sort of a difference of opinion with his chiefs, and as a result of such proceedings he had been expelled from his tribe. One of the blows had fractured his skull, and for the time had knocked him out. When the old women who looked after the science of medicine among these particular heathen got hold of Lapite they found that a part of his skull was loose. To save difficulty they tried the loose piece off with the blade of a knife, pointed up the wound, and let nature do the rest. The patient kept the chip of his skull and the inscription on it was the work of some one else."

"When this case came under my notice there was scarcely more than the thickness of a piece of parchment left of the skull over the brain, and the wound had practically healed. It turned out that Lapite had made the long journey from his distant home to see me, because this degree of damage troubled him. He had the idea that the piece of the skull should be set in place, and he wanted to see me to get it done. He was a very intelligent man, and he was a great disappointment to him that his skull chip could not be stuck back. Although I did all that surgical science prescribes for the protection of the thin strip in the cranium, my patient kept harping on the fear that he might lose his fragment of bone which might fall into improper hands and thus play the mischief with him. The only way to pacify him was to string the chip on a copper wire and solder it about his neck."

God order is the foundation of all good things.—Burke.

Mr. Morrison of Lincoln, is here building a residence on his place. He is erecting three very fine dwellings in Wayne county.

Alex Hinb has been dangerously ill with appendicitis. He is under the care of the Randolph doctors and is reported a little better.

Rev. Davidson, our pastor of the M. E. church in Carroll, is now ordained and therefore qualified to perform marriage ceremonies for all who wish his services.

Ed Swartz received the sad news of the accidental shooting of his youngest brother, Grant, while out hunting. Later he received the news of his brothers death on Monday morning. He will be buried in the Carroll cemetery Wednesday or Thursday.

WINSIDE.

Mrs. Gue was in Wayne Thursday. John Crosby visited Wayne Monday.

W. M. Gue drove to Stanton county Monday.

W. M. Wright was in Winside, the first of the week.

M. P. Joosen is very ill, his recovery being despaired of by his family.

Gustav Boetel, living southeast of Winside, while assisting in threshing Thursday, had his right hand caught in the machinery and suffered the loss of part of the third finger.

Mrs. Todd, a mile west of Winside, has shot at wolves who were stealing her chickens lately. She wounded one as he turned a back somersault after the shot, but he managed to crawl back into the prairie.

Many of our farmers have had to stop threshing on account of the weather this week. The unprecedented hot weather and high wind Monday made this work very unpleasant, and the rain of Tuesday and Wednesday added to the discomfort. Those who are husking corn report it as being well matured, and in spite of not having had any hard freezes, it is said to come out of the husks easily.

Andrew Shinn, for many years a respected citizen here, has just completed the sale of his farm and stock, intending to leave this vicinity soon. Victor Carlson who went to Illinois some months ago, and was glad to return to us, bought the home place and Mr. Haller bought the remaining portion of Mr. Shinn's farm. "Andy" as he has been generally known, will be missed, as his integrity and good sense is beyond question.

It is not believed that the expenses of the occasion will call Col. Bryan any nearer "the enemy's country" than he was to the firing line during his heroic military career.

Dr. Martin has been quite sick the past week.

Mrs. R. W. Pritchard has been quite ill the past week.

Dr. Clark will be at the Boyd Hotel in this city Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. John Walker of Humphrey, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Pratt.

Mrs. Gamble of Ponca, and Mrs. Goodrich of Pender, are guests of Mrs. W. F. Norris.

W. W. Pritchard of Spirit Lake, Ia., was in this city the first of the week visiting with his brother, R. W.

Dr. Sisson, the new presiding elder of the Norfolk district, will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

The lecture by Col. Copeland at the opera house Monday evening was no doubt the finest lecture ever delivered in Wayne. There was a large crowd out to hear him and every one was more than pleased. There will be four more lectures in the course and if those to follow are as good as the first one, the success of the course is assured. Rev. Bithell received a telegram this noon that John DeWitt Miller would not be Nov. 1, as announced. A later date will be made.

E. J. VAUGHN DEAD.

Mrs. E. J. Vaughn received a message last Sunday afternoon from Bonesteel, S. D., stating that her husband had been found dead. The sad story of his death was not learned until yesterday, when J. P. Hoagland returned to Wayne with the remains. Mr. Vaughn had taken a vacation in Gregory county, S. D., and had been there for several weeks improving the place and making arrangements for the removal of his family to that place. At the time of his death he was hauling wood, when in some manner the team and wagon fell over an embankment twelve feet high, the wagon and heavy load of wood falling on top of Mr. Vaughn, and it is supposed, killing him instantly. This happened on Friday of last week and the terrible accident was not discovered until Sunday. Mr. Vaughn was a member of Logan Valley Camp, No. 1076, M. W. of this place, and the members of the Bonesteel, S. D., camp took charge of the dead body, made all necessary arrangements for shipment and accompanied it to Stuart, Neb., where they were met by Mr. Hoagland of the Wayne camp. The body arrived in Wayne yesterday afternoon and was conducted to the Baptist church by members of the Woodmen organization where the funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Welden. The services at the cemetery were conducted by the Modern Woodmen.

Edward J. Vaughn was born in Canada, April 10th, 1855, and died in Dakota, October, 1899, aged 44 years, 6 months and 11 days. He was united in marriage with Mary Johnson, near Harlan, Iowa, Oct. 6, 1876, and three children blessed this union—Charles, Lewis and Edna—all of whom survive him. He united with the Baptist church twelve years ago, and was a true Christian as was shown by his every day life ever ready to help those in trouble. He has been a resident of Wayne county since 1892 and was well and favorably known, having been ever a good neighbor, and a kind and considerate father and husband. The sympathy of the community goes out to the wife and children in the time of their great sorrow.

We shall miss thee for aye, till life's toils are all o'er; Then where shadows and sorrows ne'er come, Whose storms never beat and where thy name never fall, We'll join in that heavenly home.

Overland Freightling.

At the next annual meeting of the Nebraska State Historical Society, which will be held in Lincoln on the evenings of January 9 and 10, one whole evening will be devoted to the subject of the old overland freightling business 1845-1868. When the program is printed, it will be sent to all old freighters and settlers who meanwhile send their addresses to the office of the Society. The opportunity to preserve information on the subject of freightling is fast passing away. Those who know what freightling was and who can tell most about it, have long been gray, and their number is getting fewer daily. All freighters are urged to lose no time in writing what they can recall of the days and sending it to the Society. Information need not be in any special form. Diaries, notes, circulars, newspapers, anything relating to freightling—will be considered valuable and very gladly accepted by the Society. Information is wanted on such subjects as freight rates, kinds of goods hauled, wages of teamsters, profits of business, unusually large trains or hauls, time made by the trains, routes traveled, stations, condition of roads, amount of feed and water, obsolete names and expressions used by freighters, numbers of freighters, wagons, oxen, etc., and special adventures. The names of all the old freighters are wanted, as well as when and where they were employed, and when they died, or where they now live. The Society wants to place in its fire-proof rooms any paintings and pictures of freightling scenes and will be under obligation to any one sending such.

The subject of the old roads is of great importance. All who can are asked to help locate just where each of the roads used in freightling and other traffic, crossed each county. If a few men in each county will send the Society a tracing of the roads across their own county, it will be very easy to record the entire road system of this country as it existed before the time of railroads and section lines. It is desired that all freighters who can, will attend the meeting and talk over the early days. JAY AMOS BARRETT, Asst. Sec. and Librarian, Office of the Society, Lincoln, October 10, 1899.

You have been in the power house of some great plant of machinery. Did it occur to you that your body was a marvelous machine?

In the term of a natural life the heart beats three thousand million times and the lungs pump a greater weight to the lungs than the weight of a man in that time, half a million tons of blood. What care are you taking of this wonderful machine?

Shortness of breath, buzzing in the ears, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sleeplessness, stomach trouble, indigestion are only some of the evidences that the machinery is undergoing a strain which it is not designed to bear.

What the lubricant is to the machine of iron, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is to the machine of flesh and blood. It reduces friction to a minimum and keeps the great organs in proper running order. It does this by healing diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, and increasing the flow of pure and healthy blood.

It can be better said to be a Golden Medical Discovery and several wise of his "Pleasant Pellets" a year ago this spring, and he writes Mr. W. T. Thompson, of Townsend, Massachusetts, that he had felt how thankful I am for the relief as I had suffered so much and it seemed that the doctors could do no good. I got down to weight to 125 pounds and was not able to work at all. Now I weigh 150 pounds and I feel like a new man on the farm. I have recommended your medicine to several, and shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Pierce and his medicines.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. Use them with the "Discovery" when a pill is required.

We know most of the people around Wayne know the great success Craig's Indian Oil and Vegetable Cough Cure has had in removing these troubles. During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of ointment and liniment and half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by Ed. J. Raymond, Druggist.

Who is Altgeld? He is the ex-Governor of Illinois, but was badly defeated for re-election owing to his anarchistic principles, so his said, a thing that the American people abhor. He is the man who refused to uphold law and order in the Chicago riot. He is man whom the democrats repudiated as a candidate for Mayor of Chicago, and who then came "out independent" and ran against Carter Harrison, the regular democratic nominee, but was badly defeated, getting only a little more than 20,000 votes. He is chased broadcast as an anarchist, and comes here to teach Nebraska's how to vote. Such is the man whom, of the best of Bryan, has been advertised to speak here next Saturday night but the good people of this community are educated, a people who read and are enlightened so far as the political situation is concerned, and will repudiate him here while curiosity will impel them to hear him.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY!

The HERALD will cheerfully publish the names of all the carpenters, laboring men or employees who will inform us that they are dissatisfied with the present times and who will proclaim that there is no prosperity, and who desire a change. Be fair now and take this opportunity of so expressing yourself. If there is a man in the county who is out of a job and is willing and anxious to work hand in your name. If you are satisfied then you will certainly vote according to the dictates of your conscience.
