

State Historical Society

THE WAYNE HERALD.

Twenty-Fourth Year.

WAYNE, WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA, NOVEMBER 23, 1899.

Number 42,

McNeal & Beebe, Publishers.

REPUBLICAN—LEADING AND OFFICIAL PAPER OF WAYNE AND WAYNE COUNTY—REPUBLICAN.

Subscription $1.00 in Advance.

NOVEMBER 30 THANKSGIVING DAY

The Holiday gift from the Pilgrim fathers to this nation. The President commands and Brother Jonathan complies. Thursday, November 30, all the members of our great family will dine.

OUR CLOTHING

Has character of style, fit and tailoring that distinctly individualizes it from the ordinary. Considering the superior qualities of our Clothing our prices are decidedly lower than elsewhere.

Quality Comes First. Price Next:

Our success was made by selling satisfactory Clothing. Clothing rightly tailored and Perfect Fitting. You are willing to pay more for this kind of Clothing but, you do not have to as we believe in selling our Clothing on a small margin of profit for the sake of a large volume of business.

Mens Absolutely All-Wool Suits and Overcoats from $7.50 to $15.00.

Harrington & Robbins.

W. A. Ivory, Dentist, over 1st Nat'l Bank.
Duchess Pears by the peck or barrel at Brookings Grocery.
M. S. Linn of Carroll, was a passenger for Sioux City this morning.
Ed Raymond visited a few days in Dakota City the first of the week.
When you get Chase & Sanborn's Coffee, Heinz' Preserves and Mince Meat, Log Cabin Syrup, you get the BEST to be had. EPLER & Co

Rick-baugh & Son, are having their bath rooms remodeled and fitted up in a handsome manner and when completed will be much better than ever before.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold a box social at the home of Mr. E. E. Reed, Friday, Dec. 1st, at seven o'clock; boxes to hold supper for two. Everyone is invited.

On Nov. 16 a rule went into effect on the C. St. P. M. & O. road whereby all passengers to Sioux City from points between Norfolk and Emerson must change cars at the latter place, on the afternoon train.

A number of young ladies, composing the Monday club of Wayne, were in the city this morning on their way to Stanton to attend a reception to be given by Miss Chase at her home in that city this evening.—Norfolk News.

Now look here, Bro. Huse, these young ladies are not so young as they used to be, and they are married ladies, too.

Vice-President Garret A. Hobart died at his home in Patterson, New Jersey, at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning after an illness of several weeks. Deceased was not only one of the shrewdest of politicians, but he was one of the brightest and best business men of this country. In his death the nation loses one of its ablest men.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES.

Blank Books,

Bibles,

Musical Goods,

Pianos, Organs, Guitars, Mandolins, Violins, Accordeons, Etc. Strings and repairs.

SHEET MUSIC,

Popular Pieces at Popular Prices

WALL PAPER ALWAYS IN STOCK

Window Shades,

NEWS DEPOT, TOYS, ETC.

JONES,

Bookstore, Wayne.

CORN CRIB TIME is now here.

See E. M. Smith before you buy.

New York Buckwheat and Log Cabin Maple Syrup now on hand. Epler & Co.

Shredded whole wheat Bisquit, the new cereal, can be found at P. L. Miller & Son's, the Star Grocers.

Lueders & Wheaton are located next to Krugers. If you need a hair cut, shave or shampoo, go and see them; everything is neat and clean.
Every subscriber to THE HERALD who pays up back subscription for one or more years and pays one year in advance will be presented with a years subscription to the Kansas City Journal or one of Dr. Kendall's Perfected Receipt books. This offer is good until January 1st.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas it has pleased the Alwise Ruler to call from our midst Neighbor E. J. Vaughn, therefore be it
RESOLVED, That we loose in Neighbor Vaughn, an earnest active member and his family a kind and loving husband and father.
Resolved, that we tender the family our most earnest sympathy in their bereavement.
Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge No. 1078, Wayne, Neb., a copy be furnished the family, and the resolutions be published in the Wayne Herald and Republican. And be it
Resolved, that we, as a camp, extend our thanks to the Bonesteel Camp for their kindness in caring for the remains of the late E. J. Vaughn. Be it further Resolved, that we extend our thanks to Neighbor Walt H. Smith for his kindness and assistance in caring for the remains of the late E. J. Vaughn.

J. P. HOAGLAND, { Com.
J. L. WINTERBURN, {

Goldie vs Pawleski.

A few weeks ago Editor Goldie loaned his horse to J. C. Pawleski with the agreement that the latter was to retain the animal for some time and have the use of it. A few days ago Goldie became convinced that Mr. Pawleski was guilty of the charge of cruelty to animals and forthwith went to Pawleski's and took his horse and placed it in Richards livery stable, without notifying Pawleski. The latter went to the livery stable and took the horse, and locked the animal up in his stable. This aroused Goldie's indignation and he had Pawleski arrested on the charge of stealing the horse from the barn. The case was tried before Judge Hunter Monday afternoon and continued until Tuesday morning, when the arguments were presented for the plaintiff and defendant, with the result that Pawleski was fined $1.00 and costs, which he paid. He still retains the horse, claiming that he bought it and that the money was due in ten days.

A Very Commendatory Article.

Pipestone Star, Nov. 15: John Hanger, of Ruthton, brought his little 5-year-old son, Harry, down to see Dr. Clark at the Calumette. The little boy was fitted with glasses last May by Dr. Clark at Sioux City for crossed eyes. The result is more than pleasing both to the parents and Dr. Clark. Harry's eyes are perfectly straight.
We are glad to make mention of this as Dr. Clark is a regular visitor at Hotel Union and has many patients all of whom recommend him highly.
The doctor will be at the Hoyd Hotel November 23 all day.

Nebraska Woman Suffrage Convention.

The State Convention of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage Association, will be held at Lincoln, Nov. 23 and 29. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York, Miss Mary G. Hay of San Francisco, Rev. Ida Hulton of Illinois, Mrs. E. H. Belden of Iowa, and other national speakers will be present. Delegates will be entertained, and all expecting to attend should communicate with Miss Helen Goff, Lincoln, Neb., stating the time of their arrival.

DIED.

McVICKER.—At the home of the parents in this city November 21st, Wilbur the five-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. McVicker. The sympathy of a host of friends is extended to the stricken parents in their hour of sorrow. Mr. McVicker who has been in the east for several weeks, will reach home this evening. The funeral will be held at two o'clock Friday afternoon at the M. E. church.

The post office will be closed on Thanksgiving day from 10:30 till 2:00, and will close at 9:00 in the evening.

Prof. Pile informs us that he expects the number of students enrolled at the college this term to reach 350. This is a most excellent showing and one of which the citizens of Wayne can well be proud.

Mrs. E. J. Vaughn on Saturday, Nov. 18th, received a check for $1,000 from the Modern Woodmen Aid Association, of Lincoln, in payment of the policy held by her husband who was accidentally killed a few weeks ago. The payment of the policy was made in less than thirty days after his death.

The HERALD has received a communication from Rev. F. P. Baker of Chicago, requesting us to send his paper to No. 2400 N. 42 Ave. He says he has a fine church and an elegant parsonage, but can't keep house without the Wayne paper. They arrived there on November 10th.

The following is the weight of the matter mailed at the Wayne postoffice during the 35 days the mail was weighed:
Letters..... 382 lbs. 10 oz.
Newspapers..... 1910 lbs. 2 oz.
Mice..... 152 lbs. 0 oz.
Together with the government free matter, pouches, locks, foreign matter, etc., a total of 7385 lbs. 13 oz.

Dr. J. E. Bumpus has removed to Sioux City, and is located at 406 Superior Bk building, as sponsor to Dr. C. O. Hook. Dr. Bumpus will be in Wayne every Tuesday and Friday from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. and in Winside every Tuesday and Friday night.

How About The Boys?

* * *
Is your boy Fixed for Winter in the way of

Warm Clothing

As well as you wish to have him; if not call on us and let us fit you out.

We carry the Best Known Brands

of Boys and Childrens Clothing at Medium Prices.

JUST GLANCE AT OUR NORTH WINDOW

And see if this statement is not correct, and then come in and inspect the Goods.

Little Gents Vestee suits from 3 to 7 years, at $1.25 to $3.50.

Boys two piece Suits, 7 to 14 years at $1.50 to $5.00.

Boys long pant Suits, 11 to 14 years at $3.75

Young Mens Suits, 14 to 19 years, $4.00 and up.

A Nobby Line of Top Coats and Ulsters from $2.50 to $6.00.

The Goods and Prices cannot be duplicated elsewhere.

They are Right.

Yours for Good Values and Square Dealing

The Racket.

FOOTWEAR!

A few good things we call your attention to

- Our Mens Dress Shoes.....$1.50 to $4.50.
  - Our Mens Work Shoes..... 1.00 to 2.00.
  - Our Boys Fine and Heavy Shoes, 1.00 to 2.00.
  - Our Ladies Fine Shoes..... 1.25 to 4.00.
  - Our Ladies Heavy Shoes..... 1.00 to 2.00.
  - Childrens fine and Heavy Shoes .50 to 1.75.
- All Kinds of Over Gaiters; Leggings; Overshoes and Rubbers; the VERY BEST in WAYNE at Prices that can't be matched elsewhere.

AT MAUTE'S SHOE STORE.

The Markets for Today.

New Wheat.....	$ .46
Corn.....	.194
Oats.....	.154
Cattle.....	4.70
Hogs.....	3.40

For Sale or Rent.

My dwelling house west of the High school building is for sale or rent.
CHARLOTTE M. WHITE.

FOR SALE.

A cook stove and a heater, one bedroom set, four rockers, an extension table and five chairs and other furniture. Inquire of Mrs. Fred Stockwell.

NOTICE.

If you are going to have a public sale leave your order at THE HERALD office at any time. Any date they set I will fill. Rates reasonable. ED REYNOLDS.

Dental Notice.

Having discontinued my weekly trips to Winside, my patients will now find me in my office each day in the week.
T. E. HECKERT, D. D. S.

WELL BORING.

I am prepared to do all kinds of well boring in a first-class manner and guarantee absolute satisfaction. Rates reasonable. Call on or address Asher Hurlburt, Wayne, Nebr.

Superintendent's Notice.

I will be in the office Mondays and Saturdays. Examinations the third Saturday of each month and Friday preceding.
CHARLOTTE M. WHITE, Supt. of Public Instruction.

New Invoice of Buggies.

Eli Jones the leading dealer in buggies and carriages in Northern Nebraska, has just received a large invoice of new buggies, the very best line he has ever been able to purchase. Call and see them before purchasing; it will be profitable to you to do so.

Headquarters FOR WATCHES, CLOCKS, Jewelry, Etc.

J. G. MINES, Leading JEWELER.

Watches, Clocks and Jewelry repaired in a skillful manner.

All work Warranted.

Lagrippe and the worst coughs and colds speedily cured by Dr. Kay's Lung Balm. 10 and 25 cents at druggists.

FOR SALE
Ten fine spring calves and a two year old white faced bull for sale. Inquire of J. H. Goll.

FOR SALE
Thirty-eight head of fine three-year feeders. Inquire of or write W. H. Buetow, Wayne, Neb.

Cattle for Sale.

We have on hand and for sale at all times stockers and feeding cattle and are prepared to give good terms to responsible parties. Come and see us when in need of anything of the kind or when you have fat hogs or cattle to sell.
STRAHLIN & FRAZIER.

Local and Personal.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Rev. Blithell and Miss White were College visitors last Thursday.
The enrollment exceeds that of last year for corresponding date by 46.
Misses Meek and Kirk, teachers at Fallerton, visited Mrs. Pile last week.
Mr. Hebdylokson of Lime Grove, and Mr. Deloy of Dixon, enrolled Monday for the winter.
Miss Blockman of Foster, returned to College last week and will complete the Teachers' course.
A number of new students have come in this week for the winter terms and others are expected next week. The enrollment will reach 350 this term.
Miss Nelson, a former student, visited us Saturday. She is engaged with Miss Phillips in evangelistic work this year. They are holding meetings at Randolph.
As usual, the classes begin reciting at 7:20 and continue until 5:30. All classes are well filled. Both teachers and students are kept busy and all are enjoying the work.
Our own county and adjoining counties are well represented this term: Wayne county has 81 students, Dixon county has 21, Madison county 15, Holt county 12, Stanton county 11. Twenty-eight counties of the state send students.

WINSIDE.

F. A. Berry was in Winside Monday.
W. M. Gue was a Wayne visitor on Wednesday.
County Commissioner Russell was in Winside Monday.
Mrs. Ella Cherry went to Malvern to visit among old friends for a while.
F. W. Burdick and Mark Stringer Sr. were in Winside the latter part of the week.
Mrs. J. L. Nelson, now of Mitchell, S. D. was calling on friends here this week.
J. B. Cookus moved into the building occupied as a butcher shop, on Main street, Thursday.
Eller J. B. White of Wakefield, preached to a large audience in the M. E. church Tuesday evening.
A good many of our farmers are still husking corn, though some finished before the rain of this week.
S. O. Lane and family have moved into their residence on Minor street recently purchased of Dr. A. B. Cherry.
Rev. Mary A. Safford, now of Des Moines, delivered a very interesting lecture on John G. Whitler in Masonic hall, Winside, on Monday evening.
Mrs. Mary Needham was called to Sioux City Saturday on account of the illness of her son, Geo., who, with his wife, had been staying for some months at Hot Springs, Arkansas, for Mr. Needham's health.

Mrs. Groninger, Mrs. Mielke, Mrs. E. A. Smith and Alva McCloskey came over from Sioux City Friday night to attend the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Needham.

O. B. Bright's father died on Thursday, and Mrs. Bright left here to join her husband in Grand Island on receipt of the news. The school was closed in the rooms taught by Mr. and Mrs. Bright for a few days.

P. L. Miller & Son sell full patent Flour for 90 cents per sack.

Iowa Honey in bulk at Brookings. Go to Goll's for excellent Mince Meat.
John Harrington went to Craig on Sunday.
Smoked White fish at Brookings Grocery.
J. H. Porter was down from Carroll on Friday.
A fine line of nuts of all kinds at Brookings.
Jacob Reichert was down from Winside on Saturday.
Hand-picked Navy Beans wanted at P. L. Miller & Son's.
W. H. Gildersleeve was an Omaha visitor on Monday.
Attend the 15-cent tea at Rev. Welden this evening.
The "White Star" coffee is the best at Sullivan's Grocery.
Frank Francis and Thos Evans were down from Carroll Thursday.
Miss Batchelor of Norfolk, was an over Sunday visitor at the college.
We have the finest NUTS, both in variety and quality, to be found in the city. EPLER & Co.
Miss Etta Culler went up to Randolph Saturday and visited with friends over Sunday.
Herman Mildner went to Omaha this morning where he will remain at the hospital for several days.
A literary meeting of the Federation of Womens' Clubs will be held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Robbins this evening.
The ladies of the Baptist church will serve one of their 15-cent teas at the home of Rev. Welden this evening. Everybody invited.We now have in Wisconsin Buckwheat Flour, and Ohio Maple Syrup and we guarantee both to be absolutely pure. P. L. Miller & Son.

HANDSOME PRO-BRUSSELS RUGS!

In our Exclusive Carpet Room; size 9 by 12 feet.

HARRINGTON & ROBBINS.

Editor Baird of the Cedar County News, has been appointed deputy sheriff of that county, and we can just see Zack wading into the business knee deep.

The newspapers that were so ready to publish the films stories concerning Ted Ackerman, Deputy United States Marshal, are falling over themselves in their hurry to correct the matter.

The Knights of Pythias Lodge of Wayne will entertain the Winside Lodge next Tuesday evening. All members are requested to be in attendance. There will be 2nd and 3rd degree work.

Norfolk Times-Tribune: Nine members of the Monday Club of Wayne, Mesdames Dearborn, Cunningham, McNeal, Chase, Fuller, Harrington, Northrop, Norris and Welch, passed through the city yesterday enroute for Stanton to attend a house party given by Mesdames Chase and Horton of that city.

200 BRUSSELS SAMPLES!!!

1 1/2 Yards in each, for Rugs. Very Cheap, In our Exclusive Carpet Room. HARRINGTON & ROBBINS.

We Have Enlarged our Stock

WITH MANY

NEW AND NICE GOODS.

Now is a good time to come in and look around.

WE ENGRAVE GOODS

And put them aside for you so they will not have to be done in a rush for the Holidays.

H. S. WELCH,
Jeweler and Optician. Wayne, Nebraska.

Full Patent Flour at P. L. 90c.

Miller & Son's for only 90c.
The Best Hog Fence on earth at E. M. Smith's.

Have you tried Grandma's Sweet Pickles at Epler & Co's.

Rev. E. B. Young returned home from Chicago the first of the week.
Nice Mince Meat, Sour and Sweet and Dill Pickels, and Sour Kraut at J. H. Goll's.

None Such Prepared Pumpkin makes the nicest pies with the least trouble; so does New England Mince Meat. Epler & Co.

An effort is being made to have every business house in the city close its doors on Sundays. A petition is being circulated and will be presented to the council at the next meeting.

Following is a list of letters, etc., remaining in the post office for the week ending Nov. 22: Job Berger, Miss Jane Blair, W. P. Brown (3), C. C. Burnall. When calling for above please say advertised.

The members of the Methodist Sunday school are making preparations for Christmas exercises. A literary program will be given at the church on Christmas eve and the opera house will be secured for Thursday evening following Christmas and refreshments and entertainment provided for every member of the school. The little folk are preparing for a big time.

Republican: It is the expectation of Henry Roy to build a fine two story double room store building on the lot now occupied by the German store and the one to the north of it, in the early spring. The probabilities are the local lodge of Odd-fellows will have the upper part for a hall for their meetings. The two store rooms on the ground floor will be occupied by the merchantile firm of Frobner, Duerig & Co, the "German store" who find their room far too small for their trade.

Tone up and renovate the system with Dr. Kay's Renovator. Druggists sell it.

Rutland Improved Fire Clay fits any stove. Guaranteed. For sale by Otto Voget.

See the new ad of Harrington & Robbins, and the change in the Racket at this week.

Ray Reynolds has been confined to the house the past week with an attack of the lung fever.

L. C. Gildersleeve has moved into the house recently built by L. J. Hanson, just west of J. W. Mason's.

There seems to be considerable sickness in and around Wayne. A little cold weather would no doubt be a good thing.

Mrs. Clyde Oman who was taken to Omaha for medical treatment some time ago came home last week greatly improved in health.

A small sum of money was found in the clothing store of John H. Kates a week ago Saturday. The owner may have same by calling at the store and paying for this notice.

A large audience listened to the lecture on "To and Fro in London," by John R. Clark, Tuesday evening. It was an excellent lecture but did not seem to take quite so well as the Copeland lecture. The next number in the course will be given by Dr. Hensen on December 32. His subject will be "Pools."

The Woman Suffrage convention held in Wayne last week seemed to create considerable interest in the subject. A number of the Wayne ladies took part in the discussion of the different subjects and some very good papers were read. On Wednesday evening Mrs. Belden of Sioux City, delivered an excellent address, and on Thursday evening Rev. Ida Hulton, of Illinois, spoke to a large audience. A city and county organization was effected and officers elected.

Contributors to the Home Fund Are Very Angry and Declare that He Has Disappointed the Whole County—His Right Not Questioned.

Washington: It developed Nov. 21 that Washington may become excited and greatly so over something else besides politics. Admiral Dewey has stirred up all the trouble by disposing of his own property to suit himself or his wife.

INDIANS ARE ROUTED

Defeat of the Yaquis by the Mexican Battalions. GUANAS, Mexico: After the engagement of Nov. 11 between Mexican troops and Yaqui Indians at Jaduna de Coyot.

WHOLESALE MURDER

St. Louis: The Post-Dipatch says Mrs. Henrietta Bomberger, midwife, has been arrested on the charge that she has knowledge of the murder of at least three babies.

WOMEN ARE HIS VICTIMS

Dangerous Swindler is Arrested by the New York Police. New York: The police have at headquarters James C. Hart, who spent eight months in Sing Sing for swindling a woman out of $10,000 worth of diamonds.

CHARGED WITH BARBARITY

Advocate that Col. Metcalf Shot a Supplicating Prisoner. Topeka, Kan.: Lieutenant Hal of Lawrence, formerly of the Twentieth Kansas Regiment, in a letter to a Topeka paper, makes the charge that Col. Metcalf, recently brevetted brigadier general for gallantry in the capture of Big Horn.

MONSIGNOR BAUER DEAD

Prominent Episcopal Prelate Passes Away at St. Cloud, Minn. St. Cloud, Minn.: Monsignor Bauer, administrator of the diocese of St. Cloud, Episcopal church from the resignation of Bishop Zardetti to the appointment of Bishop Marcy, and from the death of Bishop Marcy to the appointment of Bishop Tropea, died at St. Raphael's hospital, Nov. 21 of diabetes. He was 67 years of age and prominent in church work.

Victory for Scientists

MINNEAPOLIS: In the district court the Christian Scientists scored a victory by the dismissal of the grand jury indictment of Mary Broekings and Albert P. Meyer on a charge of practicing medicine without a license.

Fatal Kentucky Political Quarrel

MEMPHIS, Ky.: Deputy Sheriff Neil Venning shot John Lee at Blackwater, Nov. 17. The fighting was a continuation of the Tate-Biedson trouble, three men having now been killed since the trouble began.

Bollinger Is Hanged

Chicago: Michael Emil Bollinger, who murdered his wife and set fire to the house to hide his crime, in order that he might marry another woman, was hanged Nov. 17. His neck was broken. In an unprepared speech from the gallows he protested his innocence.

Preparations for Trial Trip

New York: The new United States battleship Kentucky has arrived here to prepare for her trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

James Has No Date Fixed

Little Rock, Ark.: Chiefman James K. Jones, of the democratic national committee, delegates the statement that President James has no date fixed for a trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

ACCIDENT NEAR HUMBOLDT

Five Men Were Killed and as Many More Badly Hurt. SIOUX FALLS, S. D.: Five men were killed and five seriously injured in an accident Nov. 19 on the Omaha railroad at Humboldt, twenty miles west of this city.

At 2:30 p. m. on Nov. 19 the train was derailed and the train wrecked. The men were killed and five were injured. The wreckage was carried to the Omaha hospital and the bodies were buried in the city.

REVOLUTION IN COLOMBIA

Government Recruiting Army by Impressive Means. KINGSFORD, Jamaica: The steamer Atrato, from Colon, reports a widespread revolutionary movement in Colombia.

The steamer Atrato, from Colon, reports a widespread revolutionary movement in Colombia. The government is recruiting an army by impressive under martial law, and is levying forced loans in Colon, Barranquilla, Panama and Cartagena.

WHOLESALE MURDER

St. Louis: The Post-Dipatch says Mrs. Henrietta Bomberger, midwife, has been arrested on the charge that she has knowledge of the murder of at least three babies.

WOMEN ARE HIS VICTIMS

Dangerous Swindler is Arrested by the New York Police. New York: The police have at headquarters James C. Hart, who spent eight months in Sing Sing for swindling a woman out of $10,000 worth of diamonds.

CHARGED WITH BARBARITY

Advocate that Col. Metcalf Shot a Supplicating Prisoner. Topeka, Kan.: Lieutenant Hal of Lawrence, formerly of the Twentieth Kansas Regiment, in a letter to a Topeka paper, makes the charge that Col. Metcalf, recently brevetted brigadier general for gallantry in the capture of Big Horn.

MONSIGNOR BAUER DEAD

Prominent Episcopal Prelate Passes Away at St. Cloud, Minn. St. Cloud, Minn.: Monsignor Bauer, administrator of the diocese of St. Cloud, Episcopal church from the resignation of Bishop Zardetti to the appointment of Bishop Marcy, and from the death of Bishop Marcy to the appointment of Bishop Tropea, died at St. Raphael's hospital, Nov. 21 of diabetes. He was 67 years of age and prominent in church work.

Victory for Scientists

MINNEAPOLIS: In the district court the Christian Scientists scored a victory by the dismissal of the grand jury indictment of Mary Broekings and Albert P. Meyer on a charge of practicing medicine without a license.

Fatal Kentucky Political Quarrel

MEMPHIS, Ky.: Deputy Sheriff Neil Venning shot John Lee at Blackwater, Nov. 17. The fighting was a continuation of the Tate-Biedson trouble, three men having now been killed since the trouble began.

Bollinger Is Hanged

Chicago: Michael Emil Bollinger, who murdered his wife and set fire to the house to hide his crime, in order that he might marry another woman, was hanged Nov. 17. His neck was broken. In an unprepared speech from the gallows he protested his innocence.

Preparations for Trial Trip

New York: The new United States battleship Kentucky has arrived here to prepare for her trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

James Has No Date Fixed

Little Rock, Ark.: Chiefman James K. Jones, of the democratic national committee, delegates the statement that President James has no date fixed for a trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

AWFUL DEED OF A FATHER.

Kills His Children and Then Ends His Own Miserable Life. CHICAGO: Carrying out a plot he had apparently planned with deliberation, Cornelius Corcoran on the 18th inst. shot four of his children, killing three of them, and then ended his own life. The tragedy occurred in his home, 501 Dearborn street.

CORNELIUS CORCORAN, 40 years old, MARGARET CORCORAN, 5 years old; died; JOHN CORCORAN, 7 years old; died at Mercy hospital; LIZZIE CORCORAN, aged 3 years. The woman: Kate Corcoran, aged 42 years; may die. If she recovers will live her left eye. The police are convinced the man was insane.

FROM PAUPER TO PRINCE. Inmate of Illinois Poor House Falls Heir to a Fortune. SPRINGFIELD, Ill.: Maurice Meehan, who is an inmate of the Morgan County poor house, has fallen heir to $20,000 which was bequeathed to him by his son, William Meehan, who went to the Black Hills in 1879 from Louisiana, Mo., where he was then living, and was very successful in prospecting.

WHOLESALE MURDER

St. Louis: The Post-Dipatch says Mrs. Henrietta Bomberger, midwife, has been arrested on the charge that she has knowledge of the murder of at least three babies.

WOMEN ARE HIS VICTIMS

Dangerous Swindler is Arrested by the New York Police. New York: The police have at headquarters James C. Hart, who spent eight months in Sing Sing for swindling a woman out of $10,000 worth of diamonds.

CHARGED WITH BARBARITY

Advocate that Col. Metcalf Shot a Supplicating Prisoner. Topeka, Kan.: Lieutenant Hal of Lawrence, formerly of the Twentieth Kansas Regiment, in a letter to a Topeka paper, makes the charge that Col. Metcalf, recently brevetted brigadier general for gallantry in the capture of Big Horn.

MONSIGNOR BAUER DEAD

Prominent Episcopal Prelate Passes Away at St. Cloud, Minn. St. Cloud, Minn.: Monsignor Bauer, administrator of the diocese of St. Cloud, Episcopal church from the resignation of Bishop Zardetti to the appointment of Bishop Marcy, and from the death of Bishop Marcy to the appointment of Bishop Tropea, died at St. Raphael's hospital, Nov. 21 of diabetes. He was 67 years of age and prominent in church work.

Victory for Scientists

MINNEAPOLIS: In the district court the Christian Scientists scored a victory by the dismissal of the grand jury indictment of Mary Broekings and Albert P. Meyer on a charge of practicing medicine without a license.

Fatal Kentucky Political Quarrel

MEMPHIS, Ky.: Deputy Sheriff Neil Venning shot John Lee at Blackwater, Nov. 17. The fighting was a continuation of the Tate-Biedson trouble, three men having now been killed since the trouble began.

Bollinger Is Hanged

Chicago: Michael Emil Bollinger, who murdered his wife and set fire to the house to hide his crime, in order that he might marry another woman, was hanged Nov. 17. His neck was broken. In an unprepared speech from the gallows he protested his innocence.

Preparations for Trial Trip

New York: The new United States battleship Kentucky has arrived here to prepare for her trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

James Has No Date Fixed

Little Rock, Ark.: Chiefman James K. Jones, of the democratic national committee, delegates the statement that President James has no date fixed for a trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

TRAIN IN A BOER TRAP

OVER A HUNDRED BRITISH SOLDIERS ARE CAPTURED. Armored Train Falls Into an Ambush. Lieut. Churchill Among Prisoners. Burglers Tore Up Tracks and Wrecked the Train and Its Armament.

Intelligence from Natal by way of London Friday was reassuring as regards the safety of Ladysmith, but conveyed the report that the Boers successfully assailed a scouting party in an armored train and captured over 100 British, including Lieut. Randolph Churchill's son, Lieut. Winston Churchill. Reports indicate that the Boers are moving southward in the hope of cutting off the British communication. The reported death of Gen. Joubert is discredited at the war office. The armored train which the Boers attacked was practically destroyed.

WHOLESALE MURDER

St. Louis: The Post-Dipatch says Mrs. Henrietta Bomberger, midwife, has been arrested on the charge that she has knowledge of the murder of at least three babies.

WOMEN ARE HIS VICTIMS

Dangerous Swindler is Arrested by the New York Police. New York: The police have at headquarters James C. Hart, who spent eight months in Sing Sing for swindling a woman out of $10,000 worth of diamonds.

CHARGED WITH BARBARITY

Advocate that Col. Metcalf Shot a Supplicating Prisoner. Topeka, Kan.: Lieutenant Hal of Lawrence, formerly of the Twentieth Kansas Regiment, in a letter to a Topeka paper, makes the charge that Col. Metcalf, recently brevetted brigadier general for gallantry in the capture of Big Horn.

MONSIGNOR BAUER DEAD

Prominent Episcopal Prelate Passes Away at St. Cloud, Minn. St. Cloud, Minn.: Monsignor Bauer, administrator of the diocese of St. Cloud, Episcopal church from the resignation of Bishop Zardetti to the appointment of Bishop Marcy, and from the death of Bishop Marcy to the appointment of Bishop Tropea, died at St. Raphael's hospital, Nov. 21 of diabetes. He was 67 years of age and prominent in church work.

Victory for Scientists

MINNEAPOLIS: In the district court the Christian Scientists scored a victory by the dismissal of the grand jury indictment of Mary Broekings and Albert P. Meyer on a charge of practicing medicine without a license.

Fatal Kentucky Political Quarrel

MEMPHIS, Ky.: Deputy Sheriff Neil Venning shot John Lee at Blackwater, Nov. 17. The fighting was a continuation of the Tate-Biedson trouble, three men having now been killed since the trouble began.

Bollinger Is Hanged

Chicago: Michael Emil Bollinger, who murdered his wife and set fire to the house to hide his crime, in order that he might marry another woman, was hanged Nov. 17. His neck was broken. In an unprepared speech from the gallows he protested his innocence.

Preparations for Trial Trip

New York: The new United States battleship Kentucky has arrived here to prepare for her trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

James Has No Date Fixed

Little Rock, Ark.: Chiefman James K. Jones, of the democratic national committee, delegates the statement that President James has no date fixed for a trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

NAVAL DISASTERS RECALLED.

Wreck of the Charleston Brings Sinking of Others to Mind. The wreck of the cruiser Charleston recalls many other disasters which have befallen floating fortresses, carrying various ships into the depths of destruction.

The most startling two such disasters, so far as the American people feel concerned, were the blowing up of the United States battleship Maine in Havana harbor Feb. 15 of last year, in which 260 men perished, and the loss of the British battleship Victoria off Dripoli in 1803. The Victoria was rammed by the British battleship Campden during maneuvers, and Vice Admiral Tryon, twenty-two officers and 330 men went down with her.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN FRIENDLY. Minister Panoff Declares the Rumors of a Conflict Are Ridiculous. The London story of preparation for war between Russia and Japan over Corea is pronounced by both the Russian and Japanese legations in Washington as ridiculous.

WHOLESALE MURDER

St. Louis: The Post-Dipatch says Mrs. Henrietta Bomberger, midwife, has been arrested on the charge that she has knowledge of the murder of at least three babies.

WOMEN ARE HIS VICTIMS

Dangerous Swindler is Arrested by the New York Police. New York: The police have at headquarters James C. Hart, who spent eight months in Sing Sing for swindling a woman out of $10,000 worth of diamonds.

CHARGED WITH BARBARITY

Advocate that Col. Metcalf Shot a Supplicating Prisoner. Topeka, Kan.: Lieutenant Hal of Lawrence, formerly of the Twentieth Kansas Regiment, in a letter to a Topeka paper, makes the charge that Col. Metcalf, recently brevetted brigadier general for gallantry in the capture of Big Horn.

MONSIGNOR BAUER DEAD

Prominent Episcopal Prelate Passes Away at St. Cloud, Minn. St. Cloud, Minn.: Monsignor Bauer, administrator of the diocese of St. Cloud, Episcopal church from the resignation of Bishop Zardetti to the appointment of Bishop Marcy, and from the death of Bishop Marcy to the appointment of Bishop Tropea, died at St. Raphael's hospital, Nov. 21 of diabetes. He was 67 years of age and prominent in church work.

Victory for Scientists

MINNEAPOLIS: In the district court the Christian Scientists scored a victory by the dismissal of the grand jury indictment of Mary Broekings and Albert P. Meyer on a charge of practicing medicine without a license.

Fatal Kentucky Political Quarrel

MEMPHIS, Ky.: Deputy Sheriff Neil Venning shot John Lee at Blackwater, Nov. 17. The fighting was a continuation of the Tate-Biedson trouble, three men having now been killed since the trouble began.

Bollinger Is Hanged

Chicago: Michael Emil Bollinger, who murdered his wife and set fire to the house to hide his crime, in order that he might marry another woman, was hanged Nov. 17. His neck was broken. In an unprepared speech from the gallows he protested his innocence.

Preparations for Trial Trip

New York: The new United States battleship Kentucky has arrived here to prepare for her trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

James Has No Date Fixed

Little Rock, Ark.: Chiefman James K. Jones, of the democratic national committee, delegates the statement that President James has no date fixed for a trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

STATE OF NEBRASKA

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN A CONDENSED FORM. There is a Possibility that the Republican Candidate for Regent of the State University is Elected by a Small Majority.

According to the Lincoln Evening Post from the returns received at the secretary of state's office and by the Populist and Republican central committees up to Nov. 17 it appears that there is a possibility that William B. Ely, the Republican candidate for regent of the State University, is elected by a small majority.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN FRIENDLY. Minister Panoff Declares the Rumors of a Conflict Are Ridiculous. The London story of preparation for war between Russia and Japan over Corea is pronounced by both the Russian and Japanese legations in Washington as ridiculous.

WHOLESALE MURDER

St. Louis: The Post-Dipatch says Mrs. Henrietta Bomberger, midwife, has been arrested on the charge that she has knowledge of the murder of at least three babies.

WOMEN ARE HIS VICTIMS

Dangerous Swindler is Arrested by the New York Police. New York: The police have at headquarters James C. Hart, who spent eight months in Sing Sing for swindling a woman out of $10,000 worth of diamonds.

CHARGED WITH BARBARITY

Advocate that Col. Metcalf Shot a Supplicating Prisoner. Topeka, Kan.: Lieutenant Hal of Lawrence, formerly of the Twentieth Kansas Regiment, in a letter to a Topeka paper, makes the charge that Col. Metcalf, recently brevetted brigadier general for gallantry in the capture of Big Horn.

MONSIGNOR BAUER DEAD

Prominent Episcopal Prelate Passes Away at St. Cloud, Minn. St. Cloud, Minn.: Monsignor Bauer, administrator of the diocese of St. Cloud, Episcopal church from the resignation of Bishop Zardetti to the appointment of Bishop Marcy, and from the death of Bishop Marcy to the appointment of Bishop Tropea, died at St. Raphael's hospital, Nov. 21 of diabetes. He was 67 years of age and prominent in church work.

Victory for Scientists

MINNEAPOLIS: In the district court the Christian Scientists scored a victory by the dismissal of the grand jury indictment of Mary Broekings and Albert P. Meyer on a charge of practicing medicine without a license.

Fatal Kentucky Political Quarrel

MEMPHIS, Ky.: Deputy Sheriff Neil Venning shot John Lee at Blackwater, Nov. 17. The fighting was a continuation of the Tate-Biedson trouble, three men having now been killed since the trouble began.

Bollinger Is Hanged

Chicago: Michael Emil Bollinger, who murdered his wife and set fire to the house to hide his crime, in order that he might marry another woman, was hanged Nov. 17. His neck was broken. In an unprepared speech from the gallows he protested his innocence.

Preparations for Trial Trip

New York: The new United States battleship Kentucky has arrived here to prepare for her trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

James Has No Date Fixed

Little Rock, Ark.: Chiefman James K. Jones, of the democratic national committee, delegates the statement that President James has no date fixed for a trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

NEARING THE DARK VALLEY

Senator Hayward's Condition Is Very Critical. Senator Hayward's illness, which was at first not looked upon as serious, is now passing into the acute stage.

Senator Hayward's illness, which was at first not looked upon as serious, is now passing into the acute stage. Dr. Bridges of Chicago writes the following: "I have seen Hayward and his condition is very serious. A consultation of physicians was held Nov. 15 and at its close it was thought that the physicians could hold out no longer. It is generally conceded that even a temporary improvement in his condition would be fatal."

There is no regular session of the legislature this winter, and in case of Mr. Hayward's death the governor will appoint a successor. It is generally conceded that in this event Gen. Postner would name ex-Senator Allen.

WHOLESALE MURDER

St. Louis: The Post-Dipatch says Mrs. Henrietta Bomberger, midwife, has been arrested on the charge that she has knowledge of the murder of at least three babies.

WOMEN ARE HIS VICTIMS

Dangerous Swindler is Arrested by the New York Police. New York: The police have at headquarters James C. Hart, who spent eight months in Sing Sing for swindling a woman out of $10,000 worth of diamonds.

CHARGED WITH BARBARITY

Advocate that Col. Metcalf Shot a Supplicating Prisoner. Topeka, Kan.: Lieutenant Hal of Lawrence, formerly of the Twentieth Kansas Regiment, in a letter to a Topeka paper, makes the charge that Col. Metcalf, recently brevetted brigadier general for gallantry in the capture of Big Horn.

MONSIGNOR BAUER DEAD

Prominent Episcopal Prelate Passes Away at St. Cloud, Minn. St. Cloud, Minn.: Monsignor Bauer, administrator of the diocese of St. Cloud, Episcopal church from the resignation of Bishop Zardetti to the appointment of Bishop Marcy, and from the death of Bishop Marcy to the appointment of Bishop Tropea, died at St. Raphael's hospital, Nov. 21 of diabetes. He was 67 years of age and prominent in church work.

Victory for Scientists

MINNEAPOLIS: In the district court the Christian Scientists scored a victory by the dismissal of the grand jury indictment of Mary Broekings and Albert P. Meyer on a charge of practicing medicine without a license.

Fatal Kentucky Political Quarrel

MEMPHIS, Ky.: Deputy Sheriff Neil Venning shot John Lee at Blackwater, Nov. 17. The fighting was a continuation of the Tate-Biedson trouble, three men having now been killed since the trouble began.

Bollinger Is Hanged

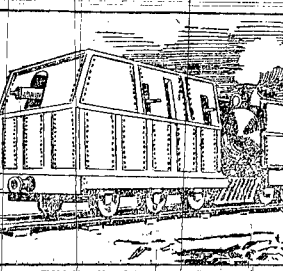

Chicago: Michael Emil Bollinger, who murdered his wife and set fire to the house to hide his crime, in order that he might marry another woman, was hanged Nov. 17. His neck was broken. In an unprepared speech from the gallows he protested his innocence.

Preparations for Trial Trip

New York: The new United States battleship Kentucky has arrived here to prepare for her trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

James Has No Date Fixed

Little Rock, Ark.: Chiefman James K. Jones, of the democratic national committee, delegates the statement that President James has no date fixed for a trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

TYPE OF ARMORED TRAIN WRECKED BY THE BOERS.

FROM PAUPER TO PRINCE.

Inmate of Illinois Poor House Falls Heir to a Fortune.

WHOLESALE MURDER.

St. Louis: The Post-Dipatch says Mrs. Henrietta Bomberger, midwife, has been arrested on the charge that she has knowledge of the murder of at least three babies.

WOMEN ARE HIS VICTIMS.

Dangerous Swindler is Arrested by the New York Police.

CHARGED WITH BARBARITY.

Advocate that Col. Metcalf Shot a Supplicating Prisoner.

MONSIGNOR BAUER DEAD.

Prominent Episcopal Prelate Passes Away at St. Cloud, Minn.

Victory for Scientists.

MINNEAPOLIS: In the district court the Christian Scientists scored a victory by the dismissal of the grand jury indictment of Mary Broekings and Albert P. Meyer on a charge of practicing medicine without a license.

Fatal Kentucky Political Quarrel.

MEMPHIS, Ky.: Deputy Sheriff Neil Venning shot John Lee at Blackwater, Nov. 17. The fighting was a continuation of the Tate-Biedson trouble, three men having now been killed since the trouble began.

Bollinger Is Hanged.

Chicago: Michael Emil Bollinger, who murdered his wife and set fire to the house to hide his crime, in order that he might marry another woman, was hanged Nov. 17. His neck was broken. In an unprepared speech from the gallows he protested his innocence.

Preparations for Trial Trip.

New York: The new United States battleship Kentucky has arrived here to prepare for her trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

James Has No Date Fixed.

Little Rock, Ark.: Chiefman James K. Jones, of the democratic national committee, delegates the statement that President James has no date fixed for a trial trip over the official course between Cape Ann, Mass., and Cape Cod, Me.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN FRIENDLY.

Minister Panoff Declares the Rumors of a Conflict Are Ridiculous.

WHOLESALE MURDER.

St. Louis: The Post-Dipatch says Mrs. Henrietta Bomberger, midwife, has been arrested on the charge that she has knowledge of the murder of at least three babies.

WOMEN ARE HIS VICTIMS.

Dangerous Swindler is Arrested by the New York Police.

CHARGED WITH BARBARITY.

Advocate that Col. Metcalf Shot a Supplicating Prisoner.

MONSIGNOR BAUER DEAD.

Prominent Episcopal Prelate Passes Away at St. Cloud, Minn.

Victory for Scientists.

MINNEAPOLIS: In the district court the Christian Scientists scored a victory by the dismissal of the grand jury indictment of Mary Broekings and Albert P. Meyer on a charge of practicing medicine without a license.

Fatal Kentucky Political Quarrel.

JOHN A. LOGAN SLAIN.

SON OF THE "BLACK EAGLE" DIES IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Major J. Shot Down While Leading a Victorious Charge Upon Rebel Troops at San Jacinto—President Commends Mother and Widow.

Maj. John A. Logan, namesake son of the "Black Eagle" of Illinois, has been killed in battle in the Philippines. The official announcement of his death came in a dispatch from Gen. Otis Tuesday. The report was a severe blow to his publisher, his wife and to a large circle of friends.

When the news reached the War Department that Maj. Logan had fallen Gen. C. (Chick) Johnson, assistant adjutant general, telegraphed a message to Mrs. Logan. She was nearly prostrated with grief when Maj. Johnson informed her of her son's death, but soon recovered sufficiently to order her resistant to the White House in the belief that she might learn from the President that there was some mistake in the dispatch and that her boy might still be alive. At the door she broke down completely. An usher supported her to the parlour. Mrs. McKim, wife of the President, who is at the White House, hastened to Mrs. Logan and tenderly comforted her. President McKinley left the cabinet meeting when the news of Mrs. Logan's presence, and with kindly words, tried to soothe the grief of the heartbroken mother.

MAJOR JOHN A. LOGAN.

Consented by the President. The President sent this telegram to the widow of the dead soldier at Youngstown, Ohio, and invited duty to convey to you the sad intelligence of the death of your husband while gallantly leading his battalion in the charge at San Jacinto. His splendid services as a soldier and high courage and gallantry in this war have distinguished the heroic man of the war, and it will be a consolation to you to know that he died for his country on the field of honor. You have in this fighting hero for your son and the children of the future. Mrs. McKim, wife of the President, and Mrs. Logan have been notified.

WHERE MAJOR LOGAN WAS KILLED.

The announcement of the death of Maj. John A. Logan fell with crushing force upon his widow and children. Two of them are still mourning for the father who died on March 22, 1899, in a brilliant battle at San Jacinto. The widow, Mrs. Logan, is now residing in Youngstown, Ohio, and her mother, Mrs. Andrews, had completed preparations for going abroad, expecting to spend the winter in the south of France, and were participating a pleasant trip to Europe. Mrs. Logan is now residing in Youngstown, Ohio, and her mother, Mrs. Andrews, had completed preparations for going abroad, expecting to spend the winter in the south of France, and were participating a pleasant trip to Europe.

Maj. Logan while in Cuba gained the reputation of a soldier who knew no fear, and he said to a friend prior to leaving for the Philippines: "If it is ordered that my life goes out on the battle field, I will be leading my men against the enemy." In view of his death the words seem to have been prophetic. The body of the son will probably be brought home for burial beside his father, whose remains lie in a tomb in Old Soldiers Home Cemetery in Washington.

Told in a Few Lines.

Mrs. Meek, Catlettsburg, Ky., killed John Warren in a political row.

John Adkins, Olympia, Ky., was shot and killed in a drunken political brawl.

Engineer Downing and Fireman Barrett were killed in a wreck at Saratoga, Tenn.

President Thomas of the Erie Railway says the Vanderbilt line not fobbed up that road.

Gen. Nunez, who succeeded Gen. Rivera as civil governor of Havana, has assumed office.

A candidate is being organized in Texas to control the wool and sheep industry of the Southwest.

Flies have been lighted in the new steel mill of the Alabama Shipbuilding Company at Easter.

Mr. Collins, a teacher, is said to be using Mosley rifles in their energetic warfare against the Mexicans.

Senator Luz Diaz, daughter of President Diaz, Mexico, was married to Francisco Alvarado at Saratoga.

Mrs. Jane Semmes, 80, Elizabeth Fields, 80, of Roxbury, Mass., were found dead in bed at Boston. They had been suffocated by gas.

William Malahan, 20, Jersey City, N. J., was fatally shot by Policeman Johnson while resisting arrest.

Joseph B. Foy, who works insurance money on the election.

King Martin, colored, Kankakee, Tex., under sentence of death, tried to escape and was killed by Sheriff Keller.

Fred E. Clarke, president of the Boston & Lowell, died in Lawrence, Mass., died from heart disease.

MILES' ANNUAL REPORT.

Relieve Present Army Force Is Appeal for the Services Required.

The annual report of Maj. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, commanding the army, was made public at the War Department Tuesday. It is extremely brief and formal in character. It announces the transmission to the Secretary of War of reports of the adjutant general, made public at the War Department Tuesday. It is extremely brief and formal in character. It announces the transmission to the Secretary of War of reports of the adjutant general, made public at the War Department Tuesday.

The report is extremely brief and formal in character. It announces the transmission to the Secretary of War of reports of the adjutant general, made public at the War Department Tuesday.

The report is extremely brief and formal in character. It announces the transmission to the Secretary of War of reports of the adjutant general, made public at the War Department Tuesday.

The report is extremely brief and formal in character. It announces the transmission to the Secretary of War of reports of the adjutant general, made public at the War Department Tuesday.

The report is extremely brief and formal in character. It announces the transmission to the Secretary of War of reports of the adjutant general, made public at the War Department Tuesday.

The report is extremely brief and formal in character. It announces the transmission to the Secretary of War of reports of the adjutant general, made public at the War Department Tuesday.

The report is extremely brief and formal in character. It announces the transmission to the Secretary of War of reports of the adjutant general, made public at the War Department Tuesday.

The report is extremely brief and formal in character. It announces the transmission to the Secretary of War of reports of the adjutant general, made public at the War Department Tuesday.

REBELS ARE ROUTED.

Desperate Battle Fought with Filipinos Near San Jacinto.

The Thirty-third Infantry in one of the bloodiest battles of the war with an equal force of insurgents, five miles from San Jacinto, Saturday lost one officer and six privates killed and one officer and twelve privates wounded. The Americans killed 100 Filipinos and captured 200 rifles and 100 rounds of ammunition. Many more Filipinos, doubtless, were killed or wounded.

The insurgents opened the fight two miles from San Jacinto with the leading American battalion was passing a clump of locusts in the midst of a coconut grove, knee deep in mud. The Filipino sharpshooters, hidden in trees, bushes and small trees across the road, began firing and the Americans were close to them. When they began firing other Filipinos opened fire from thickets, right and left, and everywhere.

The regiment then moved under fire, but Maj. John A. Logan's battalion in the center. Capt. Green on the right and Maj. Marshall's on the left. The skirmish line, which was a mile long, advanced rapidly, keeping up a constant fire. The Filipinos made an unexpected retreat, and the Americans were within twenty feet of them. The insurgents are supposed to have retreated toward Dagupan. It is impossible to pursue them, as the American troops were exhausted and their supply of ammunition was low.

Maj. Logan was shot through the head and mortally wounded early in the fight while stopping to attend a corporal who was wounded. He was carried to a hospital where he was killed while trying to drag the major to the side of the road. Shortly afterward, in the same spot, Capt. Green and a non-commissioned officer were wounded. At this was the end of the war of sharpshooters, who killed the officers by their uniforms. Half a dozen of these men were spotted in the trees and killed by our sharpshooters. The firing on the front hospital line had ceased, however, and our army returning to San Jacinto to convey the dead and wounded to San Jacinto cleared the country of insurgents.

Maj. March's battalion was the first to enter San Jacinto, judging from the reports made by the adjutant general. It is believed the insurgents were veterans from Farley, under command of Gen. Miao.

Some of the Filipinos' Vagaries.

A Philadelphia woman sent her rival poisoner to jail.

A New York woman had her sweetheart arrested for theft and then married him.

An Atchison man is suing his wife for divorce because he found her examining mourning styles.

The divorced wife of a Jersey City man is now coming in the employ of her ex-husband's secretary.

W. B. Fife married Mrs. Vanhooker in Independence, Kan. It was her fifth trip to the altar and his third.

In spite of the strict rules of celibacy in the Amuna colony, two members fell in love and were married.

The eye of his wedding the mother and son of a woman named the groom's death. Three days later she married another man.

McKINLEY'S MESSAGE.

AN OUTLINE OF WHAT THE PRESIDENT WILL SAY.

Peace Committee's Report the Basis for His Political Suggestions—Cuba, Porto Rico and Hawaii—The Army and Navy—Currency Reform.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World gives what purports to be an accurate outline of the main points in President McKinley's forthcoming message to Congress.

The recommendations of the Philippine peace commission, this correspondent says, will form the basis of the suggestions relative to the Philippines. He will urge their retention as an integral part of the United States, and the present success of the army in the Philippines, if continued, will influence the President to make recommendations at this time which would have otherwise been reserved for a special message. A form of government will not be recommended, but the President will suggest that it be learned what will be best for the natives of the Philippine-Archipelago. The Philippine situation will also be treated historically.

The substitution of civil for military government in China and the appointment of a civil governor. He may recommend the appointment of a chief justice and the election of a native Legislature, but coupled with this will be a suggestion that a congressional committee be appointed to ascertain what extent local officers may be filled by natives, the President believing that the customs and postal service may be filled by Cubans with beneficial results. A military force will be retained in order to maintain the preservation of pacific conditions.

For Porto Rico the President will recommend a territorial form of government when he believes the natives can conduct their own affairs. Reports give the President a very high opinion of the progress to civil government on this island. But he will make suggestions relative to tariff laws which should apply to Porto Rico.

The establishment and maintenance of schools, the Hawaiian situation is needed which will give the islands a status, and it will be recommended that laws be enacted along the lines of the report of the special commission sent by the President to Honolulu.

The arrangement by which the United States secured one of the most important islands of Samoa, with its harbor, Pago Pago, will be pointed to with some pride as a most satisfactory settlement of what has been a vexatious international question. It is not expected that the President will dwell to any extent upon the standing army. It will be difficult to make suggestions as to the physical strength required until it is determined what force will be required to maintain the islands. Then, too, the present force of 100,000 men may be maintained until 1901, and no legislation is necessary until the next session.

As the expenses of maintaining the army and navy will be increased, the President will suggest that the present war revenue law until conditions in the Philippines permit of the reduction of the forces there.

Secretary Logan's recommendations will be embraced within the message, which will include a suggestion that the maximum price for armor metal be increased to enable the Navy Department to successfully construct warships. The chief concern of the President is that the Navy will be the great need in our armed forces, and the addition of such other vessels as the naval budget will permit to be constructed.

Recommendations for currency reform will closely follow the lines adopted by the special point committee which devoted a major part of the summer to a consideration of finance legislation. In order to protect the public interest, the President for the gold reserve, the establishment of national banks with small capital and the issue of national bank circulation to the full value of the gold deposit, the committee will recommend the ending of the gold dollar at a lower rate of interest than now paid. This would save the Government $7,000,000 to $12,000,000 annually.

Congress will again be advised of the urgent need of the construction of waterways, and special recommendations for some other desirable route, providing the Nicaragua Canal Commission will have given the President something tangible upon which to base recommendations, which it does not appear will be made. Special recommendations for the event will be reserved for a special message.

Attention will be called to the temporary arrangement between the United States and Great Britain relative to the Canadian boundary, with a view to the effect that the prospect for the solution of all differences between the United States and Canada are bright.

Reference to the war in South Africa will be made in language which can give no offense to either party.

If the Chinese question develops sufficiently to warrant it, an announcement will be made of the protection to be afforded to American trade in that quarter, but all the suggestions asked by this Government are given in writing, the information which would be imparted to Congress would not be sufficiently definite to require treatment at this time.

TO CRUSH LABOR UNIONS.

Chicago Cops Would Take All Union Rights from Toolers.

War upon the building labor unions of Chicago was declared formally Friday night by the Chicago building contractors council in a communication laid before the building trades council. The union men referred the matter to their business and labor organizations, which are the most respected in the city, sent to the city council a resolution that no one should be allowed to perform during his working hours any work which is not a part of the regular duties of his occupation.

"Any restriction of the use of machinery, the right of any person to interfere with the workmen during working hours, or any sympathetic strike, or any other act which will interfere with the employment of apprentices."

"COOKED" FOR $200,000.

Chicago Dealers Suffer Heavy Loss in Apple.

Chicago commission merchants mourn $60,000 lost in apples. Three weeks of exceptionally hot weather when the cream of the winter stock is shipped by Michigan, New York and Indiana growers, has ruined the fruit. The crop is so badly that even cold storage could not save them from decay.

McKINLEY'S MESSAGE.

AN OUTLINE OF WHAT THE PRESIDENT WILL SAY.

Peace Committee's Report the Basis for His Political Suggestions—Cuba, Porto Rico and Hawaii—The Army and Navy—Currency Reform.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World gives what purports to be an accurate outline of the main points in President McKinley's forthcoming message to Congress.

The recommendations of the Philippine peace commission, this correspondent says, will form the basis of the suggestions relative to the Philippines. He will urge their retention as an integral part of the United States, and the present success of the army in the Philippines, if continued, will influence the President to make recommendations at this time which would have otherwise been reserved for a special message. A form of government will not be recommended, but the President will suggest that it be learned what will be best for the natives of the Philippine-Archipelago. The Philippine situation will also be treated historically.

The substitution of civil for military government in China and the appointment of a civil governor. He may recommend the appointment of a chief justice and the election of a native Legislature, but coupled with this will be a suggestion that a congressional committee be appointed to ascertain what extent local officers may be filled by natives, the President believing that the customs and postal service may be filled by Cubans with beneficial results. A military force will be retained in order to maintain the preservation of pacific conditions.

For Porto Rico the President will recommend a territorial form of government when he believes the natives can conduct their own affairs. Reports give the President a very high opinion of the progress to civil government on this island. But he will make suggestions relative to tariff laws which should apply to Porto Rico.

The establishment and maintenance of schools, the Hawaiian situation is needed which will give the islands a status, and it will be recommended that laws be enacted along the lines of the report of the special commission sent by the President to Honolulu.

The arrangement by which the United States secured one of the most important islands of Samoa, with its harbor, Pago Pago, will be pointed to with some pride as a most satisfactory settlement of what has been a vexatious international question. It is not expected that the President will dwell to any extent upon the standing army. It will be difficult to make suggestions as to the physical strength required until it is determined what force will be required to maintain the islands. Then, too, the present force of 100,000 men may be maintained until 1901, and no legislation is necessary until the next session.

As the expenses of maintaining the army and navy will be increased, the President will suggest that the present war revenue law until conditions in the Philippines permit of the reduction of the forces there.

Secretary Logan's recommendations will be embraced within the message, which will include a suggestion that the maximum price for armor metal be increased to enable the Navy Department to successfully construct warships. The chief concern of the President is that the Navy will be the great need in our armed forces, and the addition of such other vessels as the naval budget will permit to be constructed.

Recommendations for currency reform will closely follow the lines adopted by the special point committee which devoted a major part of the summer to a consideration of finance legislation. In order to protect the public interest, the President for the gold reserve, the establishment of national banks with small capital and the issue of national bank circulation to the full value of the gold deposit, the committee will recommend the ending of the gold dollar at a lower rate of interest than now paid. This would save the Government $7,000,000 to $12,000,000 annually.

Congress will again be advised of the urgent need of the construction of waterways, and special recommendations for some other desirable route, providing the Nicaragua Canal Commission will have given the President something tangible upon which to base recommendations, which it does not appear will be made. Special recommendations for the event will be reserved for a special message.

Attention will be called to the temporary arrangement between the United States and Great Britain relative to the Canadian boundary, with a view to the effect that the prospect for the solution of all differences between the United States and Canada are bright.

Reference to the war in South Africa will be made in language which can give no offense to either party.

If the Chinese question develops sufficiently to warrant it, an announcement will be made of the protection to be afforded to American trade in that quarter, but all the suggestions asked by this Government are given in writing, the information which would be imparted to Congress would not be sufficiently definite to require treatment at this time.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World gives what purports to be an accurate outline of the main points in President McKinley's forthcoming message to Congress.

The recommendations of the Philippine peace commission, this correspondent says, will form the basis of the suggestions relative to the Philippines. He will urge their retention as an integral part of the United States, and the present success of the army in the Philippines, if continued, will influence the President to make recommendations at this time which would have otherwise been reserved for a special message. A form of government will not be recommended, but the President will suggest that it be learned what will be best for the natives of the Philippine-Archipelago. The Philippine situation will also be treated historically.

The substitution of civil for military government in China and the appointment of a civil governor. He may recommend the appointment of a chief justice and the election of a native Legislature, but coupled with this will be a suggestion that a congressional committee be appointed to ascertain what extent local officers may be filled by natives, the President believing that the customs and postal service may be filled by Cubans with beneficial results. A military force will be retained in order to maintain the preservation of pacific conditions.

For Porto Rico the President will recommend a territorial form of government when he believes the natives can conduct their own affairs. Reports give the President a very high opinion of the progress to civil government on this island. But he will make suggestions relative to tariff laws which should apply to Porto Rico.

The establishment and maintenance of schools, the Hawaiian situation is needed which will give the islands a status, and it will be recommended that laws be enacted along the lines of the report of the special commission sent by the President to Honolulu.

The arrangement by which the United States secured one of the most important islands of Samoa, with its harbor, Pago Pago, will be pointed to with some pride as a most satisfactory settlement of what has been a vexatious international question. It is not expected that the President will dwell to any extent upon the standing army. It will be difficult to make suggestions as to the physical strength required until it is determined what force will be required to maintain the islands. Then, too, the present force of 100,000 men may be maintained until 1901, and no legislation is necessary until the next session.

As the expenses of maintaining the army and navy will be increased, the President will suggest that the present war revenue law until conditions in the Philippines permit of the reduction of the forces there.

Secretary Logan's recommendations will be embraced within the message, which will include a suggestion that the maximum price for armor metal be increased to enable the Navy Department to successfully construct warships. The chief concern of the President is that the Navy will be the great need in our armed forces, and the addition of such other vessels as the naval budget will permit to be constructed.

Recommendations for currency reform will closely follow the lines adopted by the special point committee which devoted a major part of the summer to a consideration of finance legislation. In order to protect the public interest, the President for the gold reserve, the establishment of national banks with small capital and the issue of national bank circulation to the full value of the gold deposit, the committee will recommend the ending of the gold dollar at a lower rate of interest than now paid. This would save the Government $7,000,000 to $12,000,000 annually.

Congress will again be advised of the urgent need of the construction of waterways, and special recommendations for some other desirable route, providing the Nicaragua Canal Commission will have given the President something tangible upon which to base recommendations, which it does not appear will be made. Special recommendations for the event will be reserved for a special message.

Attention will be called to the temporary arrangement between the United States and Great Britain relative to the Canadian boundary, with a view to the effect that the prospect for the solution of all differences between the United States and Canada are bright.

Reference to the war in South Africa will be made in language which can give no offense to either party.

If the Chinese question develops sufficiently to warrant it, an announcement will be made of the protection to be afforded to American trade in that quarter, but all the suggestions asked by this Government are given in writing, the information which would be imparted to Congress would not be sufficiently definite to require treatment at this time.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World gives what purports to be an accurate outline of the main points in President McKinley's forthcoming message to Congress.

The recommendations of the Philippine peace commission, this correspondent says, will form the basis of the suggestions relative to the Philippines. He will urge their retention as an integral part of the United States, and the present success of the army in the Philippines, if continued, will influence the President to make recommendations at this time which would have otherwise been reserved for a special message. A form of government will not be recommended, but the President will suggest that it be learned what will be best for the natives of the Philippine-Archipelago. The Philippine situation will also be treated historically.

The substitution of civil for military government in China and the appointment of a civil governor. He may recommend the appointment of a chief justice and the election of a native Legislature, but coupled with this will be a suggestion that a congressional committee be appointed to ascertain what extent local officers may be filled by natives, the President believing that the customs and postal service may be filled by Cubans with beneficial results. A military force will be retained in order to maintain the preservation of pacific conditions.

For Porto Rico the President will recommend a territorial form of government when he believes the natives can conduct their own affairs. Reports give the President a very high opinion of the progress to civil government on this island. But he will make suggestions relative to tariff laws which should apply to Porto Rico.

The establishment and maintenance of schools, the Hawaiian situation is needed which will give the islands a status, and it will be recommended that laws be enacted along the lines of the report of the special commission sent by the President to Honolulu.

The arrangement by which the United States secured one of the most important islands of Samoa, with its harbor, Pago Pago, will be pointed to with some pride as a most satisfactory settlement of what has been a vexatious international question. It is not expected that the President will dwell to any extent upon the standing army. It will be difficult to make suggestions as to the physical strength required until it is determined what force will be required to maintain the islands. Then, too, the present force of 100,000 men may be maintained until 1901, and no legislation is necessary until the next session.

As the expenses of maintaining the army and navy will be increased, the President will suggest that the present war revenue law until conditions in the Philippines permit of the reduction of the forces there.

Secretary Logan's recommendations will be embraced within the message, which will include a suggestion that the maximum price for armor metal be increased to enable the Navy Department to successfully construct warships. The chief concern of the President is that the Navy will be the great need in our armed forces, and the addition of such other vessels as the naval budget will permit to be constructed.

Recommendations for currency reform will closely follow the lines adopted by the special point committee which devoted a major part of the summer to a consideration of finance legislation. In order to protect the public interest, the President for the gold reserve, the establishment of national banks with small capital and the issue of national bank circulation to the full value of the gold deposit, the committee will recommend the ending of the gold dollar at a lower rate of interest than now paid. This would save the Government $7,000,000 to $12,000,000 annually.

Congress will again be advised of the urgent need of the construction of waterways, and special recommendations for some other desirable route, providing the Nicaragua Canal Commission will have given the President something tangible upon which to base recommendations, which it does not appear will be made. Special recommendations for the event will be reserved for a special message.

Attention will be called to the temporary arrangement between the United States and Great Britain relative to the Canadian boundary, with a view to the effect that the prospect for the solution of all differences between the United States and Canada are bright.

Reference to the war in South Africa will be made in language which can give no offense to either party.

If the Chinese question develops sufficiently to warrant it, an announcement will be made of the protection to be afforded to American trade in that quarter, but all the suggestions asked by this Government are given in writing, the information which would be imparted to Congress would not be sufficiently definite to require treatment at this time.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World gives what purports to be an accurate outline of the main points in President McKinley's forthcoming message to Congress.

The recommendations of the Philippine peace commission, this correspondent says, will form the basis of the suggestions relative to the Philippines. He will urge their retention as an integral part of the United States, and the present success of the army in the Philippines, if continued, will influence the President to make recommendations at this time which would have otherwise been reserved for a special message. A form of government will not be recommended, but the President will suggest that it be learned what will be best for the natives of the Philippine-Archipelago. The Philippine situation will also be treated historically.

The substitution of civil for military government in China and the appointment of a civil governor. He may recommend the appointment of a chief justice and the election of a native Legislature, but coupled with this will be a suggestion that a congressional committee be appointed to ascertain what extent local officers may be filled by natives, the President believing that the customs and postal service may be filled by Cubans with beneficial results. A military force will be retained in order to maintain the preservation of pacific conditions.

For Porto Rico the President will recommend a territorial form of government when he believes the natives can conduct their own affairs. Reports give the President a very high opinion of the progress to civil government on this island. But he will make suggestions relative to tariff laws which should apply to Porto Rico.

The establishment and maintenance of schools, the Hawaiian situation is needed which will give the islands a status, and it will be recommended that laws be enacted along the lines of the report of the special commission sent by the President to Honolulu.

The arrangement by which the United States secured one of the most important islands of Samoa, with its harbor, Pago Pago, will be pointed to with some pride as a most satisfactory settlement of what has been a vexatious international question. It is not expected that the President will dwell to any extent upon the standing army. It will be difficult to make suggestions as to the physical strength required until it is determined what force will be required to maintain the islands. Then, too, the present force of 100,000 men may be maintained until 1901, and no legislation is necessary until the next session.

As the expenses of maintaining the army and navy will be increased, the President will suggest that the present war revenue law until conditions in the Philippines permit of the reduction of the forces there.

Secretary Logan's recommendations will be embraced within the message, which will include a suggestion that the maximum price for armor metal be increased to enable the Navy Department to successfully construct warships. The chief concern of the President is that the Navy will be the great need in our armed forces, and the addition of such other vessels as the naval budget will permit to be constructed.

Recommendations for currency reform will closely follow the lines adopted by the special point committee which devoted a major part of the summer to a consideration of finance legislation. In order to protect the public interest, the President for the gold reserve, the establishment of national banks with small capital and the issue of national bank circulation to the full value of the gold deposit, the committee will recommend the ending of the gold dollar at a lower rate of interest than now paid. This would save the Government $7,000,000 to $12,000,000 annually.

Congress will again be advised of the urgent need of the construction of waterways, and special recommendations for some other desirable route, providing the Nicaragua Canal Commission will have given the President something tangible upon which to base recommendations, which it does not appear will be made. Special recommendations for the event will be reserved for a special message.

Attention will be called to the temporary arrangement between the United States and Great Britain relative to the Canadian boundary, with a view to the effect that the prospect for the solution of all differences between the United States and Canada are bright.

Reference to the war in South Africa will be made in language which can give no offense to either party.

If the Chinese question develops sufficiently to warrant it, an announcement will be made of the protection to be afforded to American trade in that quarter, but all the suggestions asked by this Government are given in writing, the information which would be imparted to Congress would not be sufficiently definite to require treatment at this time.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World gives what purports to be an accurate outline of the main points in President McKinley's forthcoming message to Congress.

The recommendations of the Philippine peace commission, this correspondent says, will form the basis of the suggestions relative to the Philippines. He will urge their retention as an integral part of the United States, and the present success of the army in the Philippines, if continued, will influence the President to make recommendations at this time which would have otherwise been reserved for a special message. A form of government will not be recommended, but the President will suggest that it be learned what will be best for the natives of the Philippine-Archipelago. The Philippine situation will also be treated historically.

The substitution of civil for military government in China and the appointment of a civil governor. He may recommend the appointment of a chief justice and the election of a native Legislature, but coupled with this will be a suggestion that a congressional committee be appointed to ascertain what extent local officers may be filled by natives, the President believing that the customs and postal service may be filled by Cubans with beneficial results. A military force will be retained in order to maintain the preservation of pacific conditions.

For Porto Rico the President will recommend a territorial form of government when he believes the natives can conduct their own affairs. Reports give the President a very high opinion of the progress to civil government on this island. But he will make suggestions relative to tariff laws which should apply to Porto Rico.

The establishment and maintenance of schools, the Hawaiian situation is needed which will give the islands a status, and it will be recommended that laws be enacted along the lines of the report of the special commission sent by the President to Honolulu.

The arrangement by which the United States secured one of the most important islands of Samoa, with its harbor, Pago Pago, will be pointed to with some pride as a most satisfactory settlement of what has been a vexatious international question. It is not expected that the President will dwell to any extent upon the standing army. It will be difficult to make suggestions as to the physical strength required until it is determined what force will be required to maintain the islands. Then, too, the present force of 100,000 men may be maintained until 1901, and no legislation is necessary until the next session.

As the expenses of maintaining the army and navy will be increased, the President will suggest that the present war revenue law until conditions in the Philippines permit of the reduction of the forces there.

Secretary Logan's recommendations will be embraced within the message, which will include a suggestion that the maximum price for armor metal be increased to enable the Navy Department to successfully construct warships. The chief concern of the President is that the Navy will be the great need in our armed forces, and the addition of such other vessels as the naval budget will permit to be constructed.

Recommendations for currency reform will closely follow the lines adopted by the special point committee which devoted a major part of the summer to a consideration of finance legislation. In order to protect the public interest, the President for the gold reserve, the establishment of national banks with small capital and the issue of national bank circulation to the full value of the gold deposit, the committee will recommend the ending of the gold dollar at a lower rate of interest than now paid. This would save the Government $7,000,000 to $12,000,000 annually.

Congress will again be advised of the urgent need of the construction of waterways, and special recommendations for some other desirable route, providing the Nicaragua Canal Commission will have given the President something tangible upon which to base recommendations, which it does not appear will be made. Special recommendations for the event will be reserved for a special message.

Attention will be called to the temporary arrangement between the United States and Great Britain relative to the Canadian boundary, with a view to the effect that the prospect for the solution of all differences between the United States and Canada are bright.

Reference to the war in South Africa will be made in language which can give no offense to either party.

If the Chinese question develops sufficiently to warrant it, an announcement will be made of the protection to be afforded to American trade in that quarter, but all the suggestions asked by this Government are given in writing, the information which would be imparted to Congress would not be sufficiently definite to require treatment at this time.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World gives what purports to be an accurate outline of the main points in President McKinley's forthcoming message to Congress.

The recommendations of the Philippine peace commission, this correspondent says, will form the basis of the suggestions relative to the Philippines. He will urge their retention as an integral part of the United States, and the present success of the army in the Philippines, if continued, will influence the President to make recommendations at this time which would have otherwise been reserved for a special message. A form of government will not be recommended, but the President will suggest that it be learned what will be best for the natives of the Philippine-Archipelago. The Philippine situation will also be treated historically.

The substitution of civil for military government in China and the appointment of a civil governor. He may recommend the appointment of a chief justice and the election of a native Legislature, but coupled with this will be a suggestion that a congressional committee be appointed to ascertain what extent local officers may be filled by natives, the President believing that the customs and postal service may be filled by Cubans with beneficial results. A military force will be retained in order to maintain the preservation of pacific conditions.

For Porto Rico the President will recommend a territorial form of government when he believes the natives can conduct their own affairs. Reports give the President a very high opinion of the progress to civil government on this island. But he will make suggestions relative to tariff laws which should apply to Porto Rico.

The establishment and maintenance of schools, the Hawaiian situation is needed which will give the islands a status, and it will be recommended that laws be enacted along the lines of the report of the special commission sent by the President to Honolulu.

The arrangement by which the United States secured one of the most important islands of Samoa, with its harbor, Pago Pago, will be pointed to with some pride as a most satisfactory settlement of what has been a vexatious international question. It is not expected that the President will dwell to any extent upon the standing army. It will be difficult to make suggestions as to the physical strength required until it is determined what force will be required to maintain the islands. Then, too, the present force of 100,000 men may be maintained until 1901, and no legislation is necessary until the next session.

As the expenses of maintaining the army and navy will be increased, the President will suggest that the present war revenue law until conditions in the Philippines permit of the reduction of the forces there.

Secretary Logan's recommendations will be embraced within the message, which will include a suggestion that the maximum price for armor metal be increased to enable the Navy Department to successfully construct warships. The chief concern of the President is that the Navy will be the great need in our armed forces, and the addition of such other vessels as the naval budget will permit to be constructed.

Recommendations for currency reform will closely follow the lines adopted by the special point committee which devoted a major part of the summer to a consideration of finance legislation. In order to protect the public interest, the President for the gold reserve, the establishment of national banks with small capital and the issue of national bank circulation to the full value of the gold deposit, the committee will recommend the ending of the gold dollar at a lower rate of interest than now paid. This would save the Government $7,000,000 to $12,000,000 annually.

Congress will again be advised of the urgent need of the construction of waterways, and special recommendations for some other desirable route, providing the Nicaragua Canal Commission will have given the President something tangible upon which to base recommendations, which it does not appear will be made. Special recommendations for the event will be reserved for a special message.

Attention will be called to the temporary arrangement between the United States and Great Britain relative to the Canadian boundary, with a view to the effect that the prospect for the solution of all differences between the United States and Canada are bright.

Reference to the war in South Africa will be made in language which can give no offense to either party.

If the Chinese question develops sufficiently to warrant it, an announcement will be made of the protection to be afforded to American trade in that quarter, but all the suggestions asked by this Government are given in writing, the information which would be imparted to Congress would not be sufficiently definite to require treatment at this time.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World gives what purports to be an accurate outline of the main points in President McKinley's forthcoming message to Congress.

The recommendations of the Philippine peace commission, this correspondent says, will form the basis of the suggestions relative to the Philippines. He will urge their retention as an integral part of the United States, and the present success of the army in the Philippines, if continued, will influence the President to make recommendations at this time which would have otherwise been reserved for a special message. A form of government will not be recommended, but the President will suggest that it be learned what will be best for the natives of the Philippine-Archipelago. The Philippine situation will also be treated historically.

The substitution of civil for military government in China and the appointment of a civil governor. He may recommend the appointment of a chief justice and the election of a native Legislature, but coupled with this will be a suggestion that a congressional committee be appointed to ascertain what extent local officers may be filled by natives, the President believing that the customs and postal service may be filled by Cubans with beneficial results. A military force will be retained in order to maintain the preservation of pacific conditions.

For Porto Rico the President will recommend a territorial form of government when he believes the natives can conduct their own affairs. Reports give the President a very high opinion of the progress to civil government on this island. But he will make suggestions relative to tariff laws which should apply to Porto Rico.

The establishment and maintenance of schools, the Hawaiian situation is needed which will give the islands a status, and it will be recommended that laws be enacted along the lines of the report of the special commission sent by the President to Honolulu.

The arrangement by which the United States secured one of the most important islands of Samoa, with its harbor, Pago Pago, will be pointed to with some pride as a most satisfactory settlement of what has been a vexatious international question. It is not expected that the President will dwell to any extent upon the standing army. It will be difficult to make suggestions as to the physical strength required until it is determined what force will be required to maintain the islands. Then, too, the present force of 100,000 men may be maintained until 1901, and no legislation is necessary until the next session.

As the expenses of maintaining the army and navy will be increased, the President will suggest that the present war revenue law until conditions in the Philippines permit of the reduction of the forces there.

Secretary Logan's recommendations will be embraced within the message, which will include a suggestion that the maximum price for armor metal be increased to enable the Navy Department to successfully construct warships. The chief concern of the President is that the Navy will be the great need in our armed forces, and the addition of such other vessels as the naval budget will permit to be constructed.

Recommendations for currency reform will closely follow the lines adopted by the special point committee which devoted a major part of the summer to a consideration of finance legislation. In order to protect the public interest, the President for the gold reserve, the establishment of national banks with small capital and the issue of national bank circulation to the full value of the gold deposit, the committee will recommend the ending of the gold dollar at a lower rate of interest than now paid. This would save the Government $7,000,000 to $12,000,000 annually.

Congress will again be advised of the urgent need of the construction of waterways, and special recommendations for some other desirable route, providing the Nicaragua Canal Commission will have given the President something tangible upon which to base recommendations, which it does not appear will be made. Special recommendations for the event will be reserved for a special message.

Attention will be called to the temporary arrangement between the United States and Great Britain relative to the Canadian boundary, with a view to the effect that the prospect for the solution of all differences between the United States and Canada are bright.

Reference to the war in South Africa will be made in language which can give no offense to either party.

If the Chinese question develops sufficiently to warrant it, an announcement will be made of the protection to be afforded to American trade in that quarter, but all the suggestions asked by this Government are given in writing, the information which would be imparted to Congress would not be sufficiently definite to require treatment at this time.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World gives what purports to be an accurate outline of the main points in President McKinley's forthcoming message to Congress.

The recommendations of the Philippine peace commission, this correspondent says, will form the basis of the suggestions relative to the Philippines. He will urge their retention as an integral part of the United States, and the present success of the army in the Philippines, if continued, will influence the President to make recommendations at this time which would have otherwise been reserved for a special message. A form of government will not be recommended, but the President will suggest that it be learned what will be best for the natives of the Philippine-Archipelago. The Philippine situation will also be treated historically.

The substitution of civil for military government in China and the appointment of a civil governor. He may recommend the appointment of a chief justice and the election of a native Legislature, but coupled with this will be a suggestion that a congressional committee be appointed to ascertain what extent local officers may be filled by natives, the President believing that the customs and postal service may be filled by Cubans with beneficial results. A military force will be retained in order to maintain the preservation of pacific conditions.

For Porto Rico the President will recommend a territorial form of government when he believes the natives can conduct their own affairs. Reports give the President a very high opinion of the progress to civil government on this island. But he will make suggestions relative to tariff laws which should apply to Porto Rico.

The establishment and maintenance of schools, the Hawaiian situation is needed which will give the islands a status, and it will be recommended that laws be enacted along the lines of the report of the special commission sent by the President to Honolulu.

The arrangement by which the United States secured one of the most important islands of Samoa, with its harbor, Pago Pago, will be pointed to with some pride as a most satisfactory settlement of what has been a vexatious international question. It is not expected that the President will dwell to any extent upon the standing army. It will be difficult to make suggestions as to the physical strength required until it is determined what force will be required to maintain the islands. Then, too, the present force of 100,000 men may be maintained until 1901, and no legislation is necessary until the next session.

As the expenses of maintaining the army and navy will be increased, the President will suggest that the present war revenue law until conditions in the Philippines permit of the reduction of the forces there.

Secretary Logan's recommendations will be embraced within the message, which will include a suggestion that the maximum price for armor metal be increased to enable the Navy Department to successfully construct warships. The chief concern of the President is that the Navy will be the great need in our armed forces, and the addition of such other vessels as the naval budget will permit to be constructed.

Recommendations for currency reform will closely follow the lines adopted by the special point committee which devoted a major part of the summer to a consideration of finance legislation. In order to protect the public interest, the President for the gold reserve, the establishment of national banks with small capital and the issue of national bank circulation to the full value of the gold deposit, the committee will recommend the ending of the gold dollar at a lower rate of interest than now paid. This would save the Government $7,000,000 to $12,000,000 annually.

Congress will again be advised of the urgent need of the construction of waterways, and special recommendations for some other desirable route, providing the Nicaragua Canal Commission will have given the President something tangible upon which to base recommendations, which it does not appear will be made. Special recommendations for the event will be reserved for a special message.

Attention will be called to the temporary arrangement between the United States and Great Britain relative to the Canadian boundary, with a view to the effect that the prospect for the solution of all differences between the United States and Canada are bright.

Reference to the war in South Africa will be made in language which can give no offense to either party.

If the Chinese question develops sufficiently to warrant it, an announcement will be made of the protection to be afforded to American trade in that quarter, but all the suggestions asked by this Government are given in writing, the information which would be imparted to Congress would not be sufficiently definite to require treatment at this time.

McKINLEY'S MESSAGE.

AN OUTLINE

He sells cheap soap; the sale, once made, Brings larger profits for to-day. The soap, when used, offends his trade, Which deals, henceforth, 'cross the way. Both purchaser and seller lose; But Ivory Soap makes steadfast friends; 'Tis best to sell, and best to use, And brings best profits in the end.

A WORD OF WARNING.—There are many white soaps, each represented to be just as good as the Ivory, but they are NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

COPYRIGHT 1905 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO., CINCINNATI

THE WAYNE HERALD.

Entered at the Post Office at Wayne, Neb. Second class mail matter.

W. H. McNEAL, Editor.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

Bryan, Allen and Holcomb seem to have a stand in with Providence, or something else. It certainly can't be Mark Hanna.

We suppose our populist friends in Wayne county who were set upon at the late election, will thank Mark Hanna for the beautiful weather this fall. We can not think of anything else they have to be thankful for.

The French exposition will be furnished with a telescope that will magnify 6,000 times. It would be almost possible to see Bryan's chances of election next year with a tool like that.—St. Paul Dispatch.

Bryan seems to be satisfied with the recent elections, and so does President McKinley. Mark Hanna sizes it up as being all right, and so does Altgeld, and why should the rest of us mortals look at it in a different light?

The American army and navy keep the Filipino insurgents on the dead run. In fact, the rebels can hardly keep out of the way. When the voters get after the Tweeds in this country next fall, there will be some tall running.

Nebraska and Kansas produce more than one-fifth of the total corn crop of the country this year, Nebraska's portion being 222 million bushels, and corn is a good price. In fact, farm products of all kinds except wheat, are in demand at good prices.

In every state in the North except Nebraska, McKinley was endorsed at the recent election, and he will again be the republican nominee for President. As to the result, with Bryan as his opponent, there can be no question. Bryan will be defeated worse than in 1896.

The republican national committee will meet at Washington the 15th of December for the purpose of selecting the time and place for holding the national convention next year. Omaha would like to secure the convention but it will undoubtedly be held in Chicago.

When the Spaniards blew up the battleship Maine, little did they dream that with that torpedo they set in motion a movement which will result in the United States becoming the greatest nation on the face of the earth, and who is there to object to its becoming so?

The Fifty-sixth Congress meets in regular session one week from next Monday. The republicans will have a majority of sixteen in the Senate and thirteen in the House. A vast amount of work devolves upon the Fifty-sixth congress, and if the work be as well done as the work of the great war session, the nation will have been well served.

Surely the world is growing better and the milk of human kindness is becoming thicker and sweeter as the years come and go. We used to call them "foes-bred-republicans," when men were blunt and speech was coarse, but we call them "silver republicans" now. It is the old story of the rose that might change its name but not its odor.—York Times.

This is a good year for fusion county treasurers. In nearly every county in the state the candidate for that ticket was elected. Even Lancaster, the stronghold of republicanism, elected a fusion treasurer by 1,000 majority and came very near defeating several other republican candidates.—Bloodfield Journal.

The fusionists were after the money, was? Bryan will need a boost next year and he will get it, too.

Some people might be happy if there were no government at all, but the number would be very few and we doubt if any one would like such a condition. Still there are men today who advocate the theory that all government is oppressive and ought to be abolished. Under a government like ours the person who does not feel the yoke of all that enjoys the protection to life and property it affords with experiencing the least inconvenience. Leaving out of consideration the noble sentiment of patriotism which is one of the most elevating and inspiring, it pays in the most sordid sense to have a strong government. But with humanity as it is, selfish, greedy, cruel and licentious while men still murder, rob and ravish and trample on all the natural rights of their fellows, it is simply preposterous to suggest that any number of them could live together at all without wholesome restraint. This being true, it naturally follows that an intelligent, just and humane government is much better for any people than a crude, cruel and chaotic one. No greater blessing could be bestowed upon a half savage, ignorant, superstitious and inexperienced people, such as the Filipinos are, than a government like ours. They will receive the full benefit of the intelligence, wisdom and experience of a highly civilized people, which, under the most favorable circumstances it would take centuries to attain, and they will step at once from the darkness of the dark ages into the full sunlight of christian civilization, without the intervening centuries of crime and oppression and blood that have everywhere marked the footsteps of the human race as it toiled onward and upward. It is simply nonsense to talk of enslaving them. There is no such purpose and no possibility of doing so. They will be liberated and made free men, such as we are, a condition so far above their own ambitious dreams that they cannot realize what it means for them. Civilization and christianity have their drawbacks, to be sure. There are men who are made worse by them, perhaps. Our whiskey may be a little worse than the intoxicating juices brewed by the heathen, and men in the garb of christianity may deceive and wrong them, but few intelligent people in this age and generation will question their superiority over heathenism.—York Times.

Aguinaldo predicted victory for his friends, the Democrats, at the recent elections, and, of course, he feels as badly about the result as does Bryan or any of the other American Tagals. What Aguinaldo wanted the Democrats to win for was his belief that this would compel the government to withdraw the troops from the Philippines and allow him to murder all the American civilians in the islands, and start a dictatorship, with himself as dictator. The recent defeat which the "great party" which Aguinaldo prayed for was nothing, however, to the crushing which it will get twelve months hence, but Aguinaldo will be as dead politically before that time as Bryan will be immediately afterward.—Globe-Democrat.

The blatant charge by several "pop" organs that every newspaper supporting the government in its war upon the insurgents in the Philippines is siding with the English in their attempt to wipe out the little South African republic is a job-lot of mendacity too silly to notice. We have failed to hear of a single reputable journal in the United States but what is with the Afro-landers heart and soul and has been from the beginning and will be to the end.—Columbus Times.

Hon. Chas. Curtis, member of congress from Kansas, whose home is at Topeka, makes an excellent report as to the political condition of the Sunflower state. Assuming that the contest next year will be between McKinley and Bryan, Mr. Curtis says Kansas will give McKinley 35,000 majority. Kansas seems to have concluded with considerable definiteness that reform is necessary.—Journal.

Hon. Chas. Curtis, member of congress from Kansas, whose home is at Topeka, makes an excellent report as to the political condition of the Sunflower state. Assuming that the contest next year will be between McKinley and Bryan, Mr. Curtis says Kansas will give McKinley 35,000 majority. Kansas seems to have concluded with considerable definiteness that reform is necessary.—Journal.

MERCHANT MARINE.

The fifty-sixth congress will consider some legislation concerning an ocean marine. It may prefer not to do so in a year immediately preceding a presidential election, for shipping bills have usually been so unfortunate as to split the country into envious factions; it may not care to revive a dissonance of the Hanna-Payne bill of last session, and its consequent wrangling. But the United States must have a merchant marine. Congress would choose deliberate blindness should it close its august eyes to the fact.

We pay daily to foreign ship owners—at least our manufacturers and merchants—$500,000 to carry our goods to and from market. This vast sum of five hundred thousand dollars a day goes into the pockets of European rivals. It not only pays the interest on foreign capital invested in vessel property and ship-building machinery and the labor of foreign employes, but aids every foreign industry relating to ship building and leaves our own staggering or stagnant. Under a judicious policy an American merchant marine might grow to world-importance instead of being, as it now is, utterly beneath the consideration of commercial rivals. We have the raw material which we can produce better and cheaper than is done abroad. We have skilled American ship builders, and if the laborer in our shipyards is paid higher wages than those at Clyde or Armstrong's, their superior skill and swiftness more than compensates.

The value of United States commerce in 1895 was $1,800,000,000. Its weight was 37,000,000 tons. The transportation of this commercial contribution is no small prize to be bid for by the merchant marine of the seas. The industrial commission at Washington has taken testimony to the effect that the United States has 125 vessels, steam and sail, with a shipping tonnage of 236,185 tons.

Our South American trade is handicapped, our African trade reduced to a minimum, our Asiatic trade threatened at its birth. Without independence of carrying power we cannot hope to achieve commercial eminence. The United States lies in a position of commercial advantage such as is and can be possessed by no other nation of the earth. We are midway between the two continents where humanity is congregated in swarms; our territory borders on the two oceans, one of which has been, the other must become, the only waters of possible commercial importance. In the nation itself, locked in its forests and mountains and plains, are the riches demanded by all the nations. America has taught the world the only valuable lessons in railroad building and engineering it has ever learned. Her great mission is to provide, by example and actual construction, the world's carrying plant. We are now third among the world's naval powers. Already the activity at the Atlantic coast, the two on the Pacific, the three or four of the great lakes means a struggle against the bonds which have restrained American ship-builders for sixty years. The advantage is not alone to the builders. The farmers, the manufacturers, the miners, are interested in seeing that their products are carried to the best ports at the best rates. The railroads realize the necessity and more notable examples are those which are connecting with their roads their own steamship lines. Parallel with the commerce of the expanding nation must come the carrying power.—St. Paul Dispatch.

AN IMPORTANT FOOD LAW.

Heavy Penalties for Selling Articles of Food Containing Unhealthy Ingredients.

The following law was passed at the last session of the Missouri Legislature taking effect August 20, 1896:

SECTION 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person or corporation doing business in this state to manufacture, sell or offer to sell any article, compound or preparation for the consumption of being used or which is intended to be used in the preparation of food, in which article, compound or preparation there is any arsenic, colomel, bismuth, ammonia or alum.

SEC. 2. Any person or corporation violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than one hundred dollars, which shall be paid into and become a part of the road fund of the county in which such fine is collected.

The operation of this law will be mainly against alum baking powders. But the manufacture or sale of any article of food, or article intended to be used in food which contains any of the substances classed by the law as unhealthy—from Arsenic to Alum—is absolutely prohibited.

Poor old Nebraska has her full share of woes. It's pretty tough to have all of the neighboring states pointing at her with scorn.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm

Cures others, why not you? "My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well.—A. L. MILLER, Manchester, N. H. For sale at Raymond's drug store.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Made from pure cream of tartar.

Safeguards the food against alum.

Alum baking powders are the greatest menaces to health of the present day.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Aguinaldo's Alias.

In his address at Central Music hall on Wednesday evening, Dean C. Worcester answered fully all the extravagant pleas put forth for Aguinaldo's "government" in Luzon.

When Admiral Dewey destroyed the Spanish fleet Aguinaldo had no standing in the Philippines. Under the pretense of winning his people over to the Americans he organized what he called a government in opposition to American authority. He declared himself dictator. He named a "cabinet." He convoked a "congress" composed of members named by himself. He removed the men in this "congress" who refused to obey his orders. In short he was the whole self-constituted "government."

Yet Aguinaldo's "congress" has been compared with our Continental Congress, which was composed of delegates chosen directly or indirectly by the people of the several American colonies, which represented the constitutions of the colonies and which never was dominated by any one man.

On the testimony of Dean Worcester Aguinaldo's "government" is in no sense representative even of the one tribe of Tagalogs. There has been a single delegate from the other Filipino tribes in the "congress" or "cabinet." Moreover, such as they were, the "congress" and "cabinet" were not even advisory. This was shown by the fact that the petition, adopted by the Filipino "government," to President McKinley, urging him not to abandon to Philippines, was pigeon-holed by Aguinaldo.

The dictator with his "congress" accomplished nothing in an administrative way even in the Tagal region. All the provinces which his "government" pretended to control were overrun with thieves and murderers. No attempt was made to enforce law and order. From all sides came reports of intolerable abuses practiced by the insurgent troops and by bands of robbers made up of deserting soldiers. In a word, the insurgent "government" failed to maintain law and order, to punish crime, to provide for public education, or to perform any other function of real government except the collection of taxes.

This is a sham that has been paraded before the American people by the anti-expansionists as a republic struggling for existence. Stripped of all the glamour of sentiment and romance of distance, it stands revealed as a mere alibi of the hoodlum and blood-sucking adventurer, Aguinaldo.—Inter Ocean.

Geo. Noland, Rockland, O., says: "My wife had piles forty years. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her. It is the best Salve in America." It heals every thing and cures skin diseases. Orth.

IMPROVED SERVICE TO NEW ORLEANS, MEMPHIS AND THE SOUTH, VIA ILLINOIS CENTRAL.

By the inauguration of its winter schedule, effective Sunday, November 22nd, the Illinois Central has made important changes in its train service to the south, including the time of departure of its fast through trains and the addition of a new train.

NEW EAST TRAIN

From Chicago and St. Louis to Memphis and New Orleans. As outlined heretofore.

FROM CHICAGO: NEW ORLEANS SPECIAL No. 1 leaves Chicago daily at 8:30 a. m.; arrives at New Orleans at 10:30 p. m. the same evening. From Memphis at 7:30 p. m. From St. Louis at 10:30 a. m. the next morning. It is an overnight train making the run from Chicago to New Orleans in 25 hours and 30 minutes.

The Chicago and New Orleans Limited leaves Chicago at 8:30 a. m. arrives at Memphis at 10:30 p. m. and New Orleans at 7:30 p. m. This train will carry through equipment for Nashville via Memphis and the St. Louis, N. Y. & N. O. It contains its connection for Paducah, arriving at 7:45 p. m.

From St. Louis: NEW ORLEANS SPECIAL No. 211 leaves St. Louis daily 1:10 p. m., arriving Memphis at 10:30 p. m. the same evening and New Orleans at 7:30 p. m. This train will carry through equipment for Nashville via Memphis and the St. Louis, N. Y. & N. O. It contains its connection for Paducah, arriving at 7:45 p. m.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE PATENTS TRADE MARKS DESIGNS COPYRIGHTS & C. McLean & Co. Patent Attorneys, 635 Broadway, New York.

U Need A BUGGY

WE HAVE 'EM.

Why buy elsewhere when you have an opportunity to select from the many different styles we carry. The celebrated Columbia Buggy is the best on the market; call and see them.

Fine Line of Wagons!

You will need a new wagon this fall and now is the time to buy. We can sell you a GOOD wagon and sell it Cheap.

ELI JONES, Wayne, Neb.

H. G. LEISENRING, Surgeon and Physician. Wayne, Nebraska. My office is over Maute's Shoe Store.

TWEED & REED, Merchant Tailors

New Shop.

J. J. WILLIAMS, Physician and Surgeon. Wayne, Nebraska. Office over the Wayne National Bank.

Open For Business

With an unusually large and choice line of samples—Latest and prettiest Patterns in Fall and Winter goods.

EDWARD S. BLAIR, M. D. Wayne, Neb. Wayne Nat'l Bank Building. Residence 1 block east of opera house.

Best Work. Prices Reasonable.

Tweed & Reed.

Give us a call.

A. A. WELCH, Attorney at Law. Wayne, Neb. Office up stairs over the Citizens Bank.

FREE ADVICE by our Physician and a FREE SAMPLE of our medicine and a Free Book treating all diseases with so excellent results are some of the reasons why you should write us.

Dr. Kay's Renovator

Cures the very worst cases of Dyspepsia, Constipation, Headache, Liver and Kidney diseases. Send for proof of it. We guarantee it. Write us about all of your symptoms. Dr. Kay's Renovator is sold by druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, 25 cents and $1.00. Address Dr. E. J. KAY MEDICAL CO., (Western Office) Omaha, Neb.

MARK STRINGER & SON, General Blacksmithing. First-class repairing. All Work Guaranteed. Wayne, Nebr.

The German Store

Our Fall and Winter Stock is now complete in

MENS' SUITS

Fine Top and Dress Over Coats and Ulsters. Youths', Boys' and Childrens' Suits and Overcoats, Fur Coats, Hats, Caps, Gloves, Mittens, Boots, Shoes, Felts and Overshoes. DRESS GOODS, Ladies and Childrens Jackets and Capes. All that constitutes a first-class General Store. We are in a position and will sell you a Goods Cheaper than any Store in Wayne.

ROE & FORTNER, Wayne Meat Market. First-class meats always on hand. Also dealers in hides, furs and pelts.

Bring your Butter, Eggs, and Poultry, get highest market price, and buy your goods the same as if you had the ready money in your hand. No schemes, all straight and legitimate dealing. Goods marked in plain figures. One Price to all.

N. I. JUHLIN, Boots and Shoes. The best repairing done. Uses nothing but the best of Leather.

OUR motto:—Live and Let Live.

I. W. ALTER, Bonded Abstractor. Real Estate and Loans. Insurance and Collections. Office over State Bank. Wayne, Neb.

Furchner, Duerig & Co.

A. L. HOWSER, REAL ESTATE. County Surveyor. Notary Public. Office at the Wayne Steam Laundry.

Bring your Butter, Eggs, and Poultry, get highest market price, and buy your goods the same as if you had the ready money in your hand. No schemes, all straight and legitimate dealing. Goods marked in plain figures. One Price to all.

CHAS. M. CRAVEN, PHOTOGRAPHER. Cabinet Photos a Specialty. Gallery over Wayne Democrat Office.

OUR motto:—Live and Let Live.

CITY MEAT MARKET, J. H. GOLL, Proprietor. Wayne, Neb. First-class Meats kept always on hand.

OUR motto:—Live and Let Live.

HUGH O'CONNELLS, Pool and Billiard Hall. In the Boyd Building, south of Hotel.

OUR motto:—Live and Let Live.

L. S. WINSOR, BLACKSMITH. Wayne, Neb. Horse shoeing a specialty. Guaranteed.

OUR motto:—Live and Let Live.

B. F. FEATHER, NOTARY PUBLIC. Land Loans and Insurance. Conveyancing a specialty. Wayne, Neb.

OUR motto:—Live and Let Live.

THE CITIZENS' BANK, INCORPORATED. Capital and undivided Profits, $100,000. A. L. Tucker, President; E. D. Mitchell, Vice President; D. C. Main, Cashier; Gilbert French, Asst. Cashier. Directors:—E. D. Mitchell, A. Weiler, J. S. French, D. C. Main, G. E. French, A. L. Tucker, James Paul. General Banking Business Done.

BETWEEN TWO LOVES

BY CHARLOTTE M. BRAEME.

CHAPTER I.

The walls of the pretty country town of Harbury, in Kent, were all placarded with the name of Martin Ray—Martin Ray, the Reformer; Martin Ray, the Voice of the People; Martin Ray, the champion of the oppressed; Martin Ray, the teacher of Queen and Rector; the teacher of the poor; the man who worked for, and lived upon the people; the man who had great, half-mad, half-poet, full of grand thoughts, all distorted, of grand ideas, all grand whose lips had been touched by the divine fire of eloquence, who could stir the hearts of the people as the wind stirs the leaves; a man who had magnificent conceptions of what the world might be made, yet almost childish in their practicality.

Legend had tracked easily as the flaming fire that lit bare the prairie; wherever he went he was followed by loud murmurs of popular discontent, and then came riot and imprisonment. In quiet times he was busy with his pen, writing his words, and set fire to those who listened.

It was said there had been a trial for robbery at the gaol. There is no story of it in the papers. "What a pity," thought Martin Ray, "the very place for a young man to be the 'workingman's friend.'" So the walls of the old town were placarded with the name of Martin Ray, and the people thirsted to see the new champion of popular rights.

At the house of Amos Hatton, the wealthiest and most powerful family in the county, there had passed a day of great excitement. The guests were all of the profession. He was a solicitor, with a small but paying practice, and being a staunch Conservative, the name of Martin Ray in large letters opposite to his door, was a great annoyance to him.

When he came down to breakfast on this fine May morning, there were words were looking him defiantly in the face, while his pretty daughter Doris was gazing at him intently.

"What is the matter, what is a Radical?" she asked, "what is a Radical?"

The old lawyer's face flushed hotly. "I will not answer you until I feel calmer; to say the least of it, it is most atrocious to place that name there."

"The girl looked at it with softened eyes. 'Martin Ray is not a bad name, papa. I should like to have it,' said Doris. 'You have heard a really eloquent speaker, Mr. Ray, go to the lecture?' 'What is he called if you do,' replied the lawyer.

But Doris smiled. "Mr. John Darke is going to lecture on the rights of the poor. I will go to go all right."

Radical, came to the rescue. He sent the children to a boarding school kept by a poor relative of his own—Miss Fairfax—who resided at Kew. He forbids any mention of their father's imprisonment; and the children were told that he was away from home—absent on special business, and would not return for a few days.

Amos Hatton was in Manchester. He intended to educate the girls after his own fashion. Leah, who was gifted, clever and brilliant, he had meant to bring out as a lecturer; a beautiful young woman lecturing on political economy of the no-birds-of-the-kind. As for Hattie, there was plenty of time to think over what should be done with her.

Leah was well read and thoughtful. She was a girl of magnificent talent, full of energy and the restless fire that proclaimed itself in her eyes. Her father's intentions were with regard to her; but one day he called her into the miserable little room he dignified by the name of study to communicate his plans to her.

He had grown very beautiful, Leah, he said, looking at her quite calmly—"very beautiful; and it is time you knew for what purpose heaven has sent you that same beauty."

The girl smiled and blushed. She did not remember that her father had ever used such words to her before. "You have a grand mission in life, Leah. You must not be as other girls; you must not think that dress, gawdy, enjoyment, love and marriage are the end and aim of your existence. You have a far more important future in store for you."

She looked up at him in wonder. "I did not know that I had any mission, father," she said quietly. "What is it?"

"The greatest, Leah, that ever fell to a woman's lot. I have given up everything in this world for the cause of the people—all my hopes, my ambition. I have served them, lived for them, spent my life for them; and now, Leah, you are to be a woman of the world, and you are to have a far more important future in store for you."

"What do you want me to be, father?" she asked slowly.

"A teacher of the people," he replied, grandiloquently.

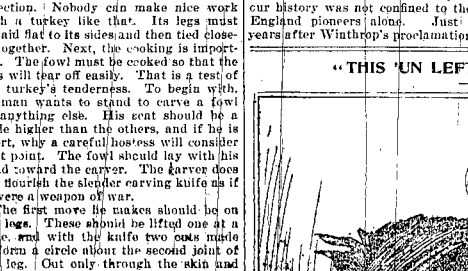

(To be continued.)

How to Carve the Thanksgiving Turkey.

A young man who despises Thanksgiving after it is over is the one who meets the turkey, and is subdued by the bird. In plain English, about the most miserable swain in town Thanksgiving night is he who has been asked to carve a turkey and the turkey has objected. When a turkey object to being carved there is no telling what the bird will do. Engagements have been broken as the result of the bird's antics in the hands of the inexperienced carver.

Mothers-in-law have protested against carving a turkey and the turkey has objected. When a turkey object to being carved there is no telling what the bird will do. Engagements have been broken as the result of the bird's antics in the hands of the inexperienced carver.

The best carver on earth can't carve a turkey unless the bird is properly arranged and well cooked. It takes a good cook to properly fix a turkey for table carving.

HOW THE LEG SHOULD BE PULLED OFF. It should be fixed with its legs sprawling, and one arm shoots out in one direction while the other goes in a contrary direction. Nobody can make nice work with a turkey like that. The legs must be held flat to its sides and then tied closely together. Next, the cooking is important. The fowl must be cooked so that the legs will tear off easily. That is a test of the turkey's tenderness. To begin with, the carver should try to carve at the joint or anything else. His cut should be a trifle thicker than the others, and if he is short, why a careful shaver will consider that point. The fowl should lay with his head toward the carver. The carver does not flourish the slender carving knife as if he were a woodman.

The first move he makes should be on the legs. These should be lifted one at a time, and with the knife two cuts made to form a circle about the second joint of the leg. Cut only through the skin and then the leg should tear off easily, leaving the meat light and flaky at the end. After the legs are taken off the fork is plunged into the breast as near the center of the breast as possible and need not be removed if the correct place is found and the carving is practically done. The white meat on the breast should be the second portion attacked in the carving act. The meat should be cut in the thinnest, flakiest of slices so that while they will not break to pieces still be tempting to the diner. The carving is practically done when the turkey is practically done.

The next notable Thanksgiving day in history fell in 1788. On that date the British and colonial army, numbering 80,000 men, and commanded by Gen. Forbes, attacked and captured from the French, after a fierce struggle, Fort Duquesne, at the junction of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers. The name of the place was changed to Fort Pitt, and was the nucleus of the city of Pittsburgh. Thus in a special sense the history of the great capital of the coal and iron industries is connected with the celebration of Thanksgiving day.

At the time that the British were conquering Fort Duquesne, Whitefield, the famous Methodist preacher, called upon all his adherents in London to join a fast of prayer for the cessation of the victories of the English arms of land and sea. This British Thanksgiving was more of a religious observance, and was especially popular. There was at first great reluctance in regard to the day selected for the fast. Governors proclaimed the chosen date arbitrarily, and no effort was made to keep the anniversary of Winthrop's proclamation. Some of the first Thanksgiving dinners in this country were held in 1630, at Plymouth, Massachusetts, and in 1633, at Boston, Massachusetts.

It is all our own. It is the year of 1630, at Plymouth, Massachusetts, and in 1633, at Boston, Massachusetts. It is the year of 1630, at Plymouth, Massachusetts, and in 1633, at Boston, Massachusetts.

times Thanksgiving occurred in July, sometimes in midwinter. At length through the efforts of the president and professors of Harvard College, it was practically fixed upon the last Thursday in November. The last Thursday of the month was the coldest, and, influence being brought to bear upon the colonial governors of New England, proper arrangements were made for that day the regular Thanksgiving.

SONG OF THE TURKEY. I look my last on fields all here, My fond wife shares my sorrow, I bid to the Turkey, my fare, To-morrow, oh, to-morrow. The cheerful sunlight works me so, It seems not gloomy weather, Turkeys may come, and turkeys go, But I'll be gone forever.

Thanksgiving is a Festival Peculiar to This Country. It is the year of 1630, at Plymouth, Massachusetts, and in 1633, at Boston, Massachusetts. It is the year of 1630, at Plymouth, Massachusetts, and in 1633, at Boston, Massachusetts.

Thanksgiving with Soldiers. Veteran of the Civil War Tells of Some of His Experiences. "There is no day," said Gen. J. E. Atkinson recently, "that brings up the old memories as does Thanksgiving. It is the contrast, I suppose, Thanksgiving depicts for its enjoyment upon home surroundings, and its very mention suggests festivity. Now, if there was anything more sadly lacking in the camps of both the Union and Confederate armies than these two items, I can't guess what it was. It might easily have become a great dreary and homelike day, and to guard against that the boys used to get up all kinds of schemes to make it pass off pleasantly and seem more like the days at home. Those who were fortunate enough to get boxes from home usually shared the good things with their comrades, but when we had just been in action or were on the march it sometimes happened that no boxes could reach us, and we were thrown wholly upon our own resources. Some of the forms of diversion that were originated then seem very laughable as we look back upon them from this distance.

"I remember that on the Thanksgiving day, when we had been on the move for several days, the men organized a Thanksgiving celebration, beginning with a fantastic dramatization, and ending with some impromptu tableaux, and the singing of army songs. Discipline was usually relaxed a little on holidays, and officers gave permission for the affair. Considering the makeshift and tattered condition of the men and the accumulation of Virginia mud which adorned them, it was not difficult to get up a sufficiently grotesque parade by turning coats inside out and wearing skittles and such other articles of camp furniture as could be had. One of the features of the entertainment that followed was a caricature of our bill of fare for the preceding two weeks, which was announced as 'coffee and crackers for breakfast, salt horse for dinner, for supper crackers and coffee.'

But Thanksgiving in the early days of our history was not continued to the New England States until just fifteen years after Winthrop's proclamation, i. e.,

"THIS 'UN LEFT OVER FOR CHRISTMAS."

Highest Ideal of Culinary Art. There is no higher an art comparable with a pumpkin pie. Not only for the deliciousness of the article itself, but it recalls the pleasant days and memories of boyhood. It is a song of youth and a poem of old age. It awakens memories of past pleasures and cheers the present with delight. No man, unless he be a heathen, ever eats a genuine pumpkin pie without thinking of his mother, home, Thanksgiving and schoolboy days. Then, all hail to the delicious pumpkin pie, the highest ideal of culinary art. The bird entitled to sit on the top half of the world's great pantry. Thou art a jewel more golden than the nuggets of Klondike.—Exchange.

A Program. Thanksgiving is in glad array, The poet's second day, With turkey and pie one day, And billows the next.—Washington Star.

A Nice Prospect. Gobbler—Oh, you feel very tired over Thanksgiving coming, don't you? Boy—Yes, and when it gets here you'll feel very much cut up over it.

THE ORIGINAL RIP. One of Joe Jefferson's Stories of His Experience. There is a junction near Bucyrus, Ohio, which is the worst in the country, at least that is the verdict returned by Joseph Jefferson, actor, and Gus Williams, character, who happened to meet there last season. In order to pass away the time between trains, Mr. Jefferson told Mr. Williams a personal experience, which Gus repeats in his unctuous way. "Some time ago, it appears, Mr. Jefferson received a large 'certainly' for a single performance of 'Rip Van Winkle' at Catskill, N. Y., by the Washington Irving Society, then meeting there. The idea was to give a ripper's Rip upon his native beach on the evening succeeding the business meeting of the society.

Well, the comedian arrived there with the members of his company about 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the day and repaired to the hotel for dinner. Seated in the crowded dining room with the swell Kluckersbechers he heard a conversation between two of the colored waiters just behind his chair.

"What's all dis crowd here for?" one asked of the other. "F'ithal meetin'."

"Now," was the reply, "it am a meetin' ob de Henry Irving sashley."

"Who's Henry Irving?" "De man who wrote 'Rip Van Winkle'."

"An 'un who lived in dis yere town once." "I guess not. I've bin here fifteen years an' I know everyone in dis yere town. Advahn knew no Rip Van Winkle."

"Aw, dis man lived beah befo' yo' was born. He was a Dutchman. One night he went up in de mountains back yonder an' got some sassafras, an' he got drunk wid dem an' fell asleep, an' he slept for twenty years. Den he woke up an' came right down to dis village, right where dis hotel am."

"Sleep for twenty years?" exclaimed the colored man. "You don't believe dat yam, does yo'?" "F'ish," whispered the second waiter, jerking his thumb toward Mr. Jefferson. "Dees de man now, eatin' his dinner."

BUTCHERS EXPERT AT WEIGHT. Ability to Guess by Ounces Is One of Their Accomplishments. It is his business, of course, and he becomes expert at it. A man might in any work, but the customer pays no attention to it at all in sure to be interested, nevertheless, in the accuracy with which the butcher cuts off just the required amount of meat. Whether it is two pounds of steak, or four pounds of chops, or six pounds of corned beef, it's all the same to him. He cuts without long dwelling upon where to set the knives. He slices away sort of casual like and piles the saw, and lays the meat on the scales, and it does not vary more than a quarter of a pound from the weight required. An even man and the accuracy on the higher side, he can give you an ounce or two, or hits it right on the nail.

A man, for instance, goes into a butcher shop and asks for three and a half or four pounds of say, corned beef. The butcher gets a big piece but of the piece, lays it on a block, and picks up a knife, and, without the slightest hesitation, with one strong, smooth sweep, cuts off a piece, which he lays on the scales. It weighs three pounds and three-quarters; it is in weight exactly midway between the limits set.

The expert butcher gets his ability to do this naturally, coming from good judgment to start with, backed up by long experience; but when he cuts things as close as this, even the customer, familiar with his skills, looks upon him as a wizard.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Athletic Person's Mistake. Athletic persons are not always lucky in their attempts to show their prowess. While a strong curate in the Southeastern district, who can use his fists when required, was making a parochial visit, he heard screams from a side street and learned that a woman had been assaulted. "Where is the blackguard who did it?" he exclaimed, and a polite little boy pointed out a man who was leaning a corner stone distance away. The curate promptly ran after him, seized him by the coat collar, and dragged him back to the place of the assault, amid the applause of a considerable crowd. "Why, that ain't the party that did it," said the woman when the victim was shown to her—"that ain't my husband. And, besides, what are you interferin' in other people's affairs for?" The curate apologized to the inoffensive man he had seized, but is treated with an action for illegal arrest.—London Telegraph.

His Usual Grace. A preacher was called upon to "say grace" at the table the day after Thanksgiving. He was a little of the family blurted out: "That isn't the kind of grace papa says sometimes."

"What kind does he say, my little girl?" inquired the minister. "He sometimes says: 'My God, what a supper!'"

Her father at once had a fit of coughing, and the minister choked, while the mother flashed all kinds of steady lightning out of her blue eyes at the little innocent.—Nauvoo Independent.

"Yankee." The first English settlers in America, in Elizabethan and Jacobean times, called themselves "English," not "English." Hence they became known to the Red Indians as "Yankees," or "Yankees." In time the white settlers, like their countrymen at home, changed the pronunciation of "English" to "English." The Indians, however, did not change "Yankees" in "Yankees." Hence the white men soon forgot their own word "English" (now pronounced "English"), and from this came the word "Yankee."

Safety Behind an Ostrich. An ostrich cannot kick backward. When the time has come for the bird to be despoiled of his feathers his head is inserted in his wings and he makes a stand behind his feathers. A blow from the foot is vigor enough to kill a man. What can be cured puts money into the doctor's pocket.

"He That Any Good Would Win"

Should have good health. Pure, rich blood is the first requisite. Hood's Sarsaparilla, by giving good blood and good health, has helped many a man to success. Besides giving strength and courage to women who, before taking it, could not even see any good in life to win.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

Cures a Cough or Cold at once. For the cure of Croup, Whooping Cough, and all other Coughs. Mothers praise it. Doctors prescribe it. Small doses, quick results.

FOR ALL LUNG TROUBLE

CARTER'S INK

Used by millions, sure proof of its quality.

WALDO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION

Rejected. "It was such a good joke on me," said the girl in the gray velvet top to the girl in the blue velvet shoulder cape, who had just returned from the chocolate factory. "I must tell you."

"You know how John has been proposing to me at regular intervals ever since he was out of his college books?"

"Did it again the other night?"

"No, in his usual fashion. I hope an angel will be his witness. I told him I was a little more quickly than usual, but he was so persistent that I finally yielded. He was so sure of himself that he thought I would not refuse him. He was so sure of himself that he thought I would not refuse him. He was so sure of himself that he thought I would not refuse him."

He who matched wits with the author of "The Ancient Mariner" and indeed a lively talk before him, for Coleridge was never caught napping. The poet was so awkward a horseman that his riding often attracted comment of anything but a complimentary nature.

One day he was riding along the turnpike road in the county of Durham, when a man who met him, mentioned upon him as an excellent subject for sport. Consequently he drew rein and said in an imperious drawl:

"My graceful friend, did you happen to meet a tailor on the road?"

"I'm inclined to think I did," said Coleridge, meditatively; "I was not sure at the moment, but he said something about my meeting a goose farther along the road."

The wag put spurs to his horse, and the poet jogged calmly on his way.

NO MORE GRIPS

New Line Now Open to the Public.

Take the C. C. Route to Certain Relief Without a Trip or Detour—Get Passage at Any Drug Store.

No more grips. Russian or any other kind. That is the verdict of the traveling public who have grown tired of the old-fashioned grip. It is the verdict of the traveling public who have grown tired of the old-fashioned grip. It is the verdict of the traveling public who have grown tired of the old-fashioned grip.

EVERY-DAY TALKS WITH WOMEN

your Vegetable Compound has done for me. It has helped me more than anything else. I suffered for a long time with nervousness, pains in back and limbs and falling of the womb; also had neuralgia in my head and could not sleep. I told my husband that something must be done for me. It has helped me more than anything else. I suffered for a long time with nervousness, pains in back and limbs and falling of the womb; also had neuralgia in my head and could not sleep. I told my husband that something must be done for me.

MRS. PINKHAM says that irritability indicates disease. Women who are nervous and snappish are to be pitied. Their homes are uncomfortable; their dispositions grow constantly worse. Such women need the counsel and treatment of a woman who understands the peculiar troubles of her sex.

MRS. ANNA E. HILL, of Milldale, Conn., was all run down in health and had completely lost control of her nerves. She wrote to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Now she writes:

"I wish to thank you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. It has helped me more than anything else. I suffered for a long time with nervousness, pains in back and limbs and falling of the womb; also had neuralgia in my head and could not sleep. I told my husband that something must be done for me. It has helped me more than anything else. I suffered for a long time with nervousness, pains in back and limbs and falling of the womb; also had neuralgia in my head and could not sleep. I told my husband that something must be done for me."

The Woodchuck's Name.

Woodchucks are familiar creatures on every farm in New England, and they have extended their settlements beyond the Mississippi. One of their most noticeable traits is the throwing up of large piles of dirt in front of their burrows. According to the author of "Familiar Life in Field and Forest," it is from this practice that the woodchuck got his name.

In olden times—probably the time of Aesop—the lower animals used to live in one happy country with a judge over them—the dog, the cat, the rabbit, whose burrow adjoined that of a marmot, complained to the latter that the little rabbits' eyes were continually filled with the dirt which he threw out of his burrow.

"The marmot paid no heed to this remonstrance, and the rabbit was compelled to appeal to the judge. His honor immediately sent word to the offender that greater care must be taken in the future. But the insolent marmot, notorious for his inebriety and indifference, replied to the messenger that he would chuck his dirt just where he pleased."

"That settled it. The dog has been hunting for the gross offender ever since, and the name 'woodchuck' has stuck to the whole tribe of marmots."

WALDO'S SERMON

Copyright, Louis Klopsch, 1890.

ADDED AN ADDRESS to the famous address of Christian workers and describes what he thinks will be the modes of preaching the gospel in the future; text, Romans xii. 7, "Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering."

While I was seated on the piazza of the Lexington, Ct., one summer evening, a gentleman asked me, "What do you think of the coming sermon?" I supposed he was asking me in regard to some new discourse of Dr. Cumming of London, who sometimes preaches startling sermons, and replies have not been seen it. But I found out afterward that he meant to ask what I thought would be the characteristics of the coming sermon of the world, the sermons of the future, the word "Coming" as a noun pronounced in the word "coming" as an adjective. But my mistake suggested to me a very important and practical theme, "The Coming Sermon."

Before the world is converted the style of religious discourse will have to be converted. You might as well go into the modern Sedan of Gettysburg with bows and arrows, instead of rifles and bombshells and parks of artillery, as to expect to conquer this world for God by old-fashioned exhortation and sermons. Jonathan Edwards preached the sermons now adapted to the age, in which he lived, but if those sermons were preached now they would divide an audience into two classes—those sound asleep and those waking to sleep.

But there is discourse of the future. Who will preach it? I have no idea. In what part of the earth it will be born I have no idea. In what denomination of Christians it will be delivered I cannot guess. That discourse of exhortation may be born in the country meeting house or the banks of the St. Lawrence or the Oregon or the Ohio or the Tombigbee or the Alabama. The person who shall deliver it may himself be a layman, or a New England farmer, or a man of the free fields of southern savannas, or in some of our theological seminaries, in the junior or middle or senior class, or in some of our universities, or in some of our seminaries, or in some of our churches, so that those of us who now stand in the watch-towers of Zion, waiting for a realization of our present benediction, may preach it ourselves. That coming sermon may be of the nature of a new baptism of the Holy Ghost in the churches, so that those of us who now stand in the watch-towers of Zion, waiting for a realization of our present benediction, may preach it ourselves.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

WALDO'S SERMON

When the religious discourse of the future arrives in this land and in the Christian Church the discourse which is to arouse the world and startle the nations and usher in the kingdom, it will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it. It will be a brief discourse. Hear it all through, and you will be glad to hear it.

Ayer's PILLS

Look at your tongue! If it's coated, your stomach is bad, your liver out of order. Ayer's Pills will clean your tongue, cure your dyspepsia, make your liver right. Easy to take, easy to operate. 25c. All druggists.

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE

For the hair. It is the best dye for the hair. It is the best dye for the hair. It is the best dye for the hair. It is the best dye for the hair. It is the best dye for the hair.

SYRUP OF

It is the best syrup for the cough. It is the best syrup for the cough. It is the best syrup for the cough. It is the best syrup for the cough. It is the best syrup for the cough.

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3 & 3.50 SHOES UNION MADE.

Worth $4 to $6 compared with the cheap shoes. Induced by over 1,000,000 wearers.

ELY'S CREAM BALM

Cures CATARRH. It is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane, and is absorbed. It is not drying, does not produce sneezing.

WE WANT MEN

Get Your Pension DOUBLE QUICK! Write Capt. P. H. BELL, Pension Agent, Washington, D.C.

PENSIONS

Get Your Pension DOUBLE QUICK! Write Capt. P. H. BELL, Pension Agent, Washington, D.C.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS GIVEN AWAY

Like finding money. The gift of the Endless Chain Starch Book in the purchase of "Red Cross" and "Hubinger's Best" starch. It is the best gift for the Christmas season.

JOHN M. MYTH CO.

The Best Sewing Machine on Earth. At the Price, $14.25 for Our "MELBA" Sewing Machine. A high-grade, high-speed machine equal to what others sell for $20 to $25. Guaranteed by us for 20 years.

THE NEW DIAMOND, TOM THUMB ABROAD.

FRANK KRUGER, Prep.

ASK FOR Schlitz

THE BEER THAT MADE

WISCONSIN FAMOUS

IS CALLED FOR TABLE

Everybody knows that Schlitz Milwaukee Beer is the Best. For sale by FRANK KRUGER, Agent.

J. F. BUMPUS, Osteopath,

Nebraska, every Tuesday and Friday evening.

Headquarters: Sioux City, Iowa.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, WAYNE, NEB.

Capital & Surplus, $90,000

J. M. STRAHAN, President. F. E. STRAHAN, Vice-Pres. H. F. WILSON, Cashier.

DIRECTORS: J. M. Strahan, Frank E. Strahan, Jas. Paul, George Bogart, Frank Fuller, John T. Bressler and H. F. Wilson.

J. W. JONES, President. HENRY LEY, Cashier. C. A. CHACE, Vice-Pres.

THE STATE BANK OF WAYNE

Will do a General Banking Business.

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS.

Capital Stock Paid In, $75,000.

Wayne, Nebraska.

ELI JONES, PALACE LIVELY STABLE

On Second Street one-half block east of Main.

Wayne, Nebraska.

Many Hours Quicker...

VIA Pacific Coast

Only 60 Hours to San Francisco 58 Hours to Portland

For time tables, folders, illustrated brochures descriptive of the territory traversed, call on your nearest agent or address:

E. L. LOMAX, G. P. & T. A. Omaha, Nebraska.

Union Pacific

WORLD'S VICTORIAL LINE

Burlington Route

Four Hours Quicker

From any other line to Seattle and Tacoma to Spokane, the saving in time is still greater.

Only one out of Omaha operating daily sleeper cars to Butte.

Thrust sleepers to Seattle and intermediate points along the Northern Pacific on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Very low rates now in effect. Ask about them.

J. FRANCIS, Gen'l Pass. Agent, Omaha, Neb.

MONY To PATENT Good Ideas

may be secured by our firm. THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.

Subscriptions to The Patent Record $2.00 per annum.

The Observance of Thanksgiving

with its traditional good cheer generally, is honored by outward expression also—its a time for dressiness.

Even the turkey is dressed. A little money, coupled with sound judgment, will attire a man becomingly for this or any other occasion. To quote an instance:

Not so very long ago we fell in with one of those individuals laboring under the fallacy that nobody but a high-priced tailor could do him justice. He was persuaded to try on a KUPPENHEIMER suit costing about half what he usually paid. Result—a perfect fit—a surprised man—an idol shattered. Fifty per cent. saved and an additional cause for thanksgiving.

This Garment Guaranteed by the Makers

B. KUPPENHEIMER & CO. CHICAGO.

Mr. _____

Date _____

We have unlimited faith in the KUPPENHEIMER clothing because it is always accompanied by this guarantee.

It Pays to Look!

If you keep in the same beaten path in search for goods you'll be the loser. In these days of bright ideas, bright thoughts, bright merchants, bright stores and good judgements you should look around. It will pay you to look at our winter clothing as they are lower in price than ever sold before in Wayne and are intended to SAVE YOU MONEY.

Underwear Trouble

Comes from buying garments that feel woolly and are half cotton, that ought to fit and don't, that are long in the legs and too small in the waist, and the reverse. We have underwear to fit you, to comfort you. We believe we have a better stock than you'll find elsewhere. We are exclusive agents for the celebrated Staley Regular Made Underwear. We are specialists in men's wear, Shirts, Underwear, Furnishings. All prices, all kinds. Money back if not satisfied.

THE 2 JOHNS

One Price Cash Clothing House.

Speak German and Swede.

GUARANTEED TO CURE

every kind of Cough, Cold, La Grippe, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, and all Lung and Throat troubles. Send for proof if it does not cure you or disagree with the stomach. Safe for all ages.

Dr. Kay's Lung Balm.

Write us, giving all symptoms plainly and our Physician will give FREE ADVICE. A single bottle of Dr. Kay's Lung Balm costs 10 cents and 25 cents. Address DR. B. J. KAY MEDICAL CO. (Western Office) Omaha, Neb.

was the play. Mrs. Sloan, an old fashioned actress, dressed Lady Macbeth in the manner which prevailed in her early life, in black velvet, point lace and pearl beads. In the murder scene part of his dress caught on the tassel of her pearl girdle. The string broke and the beads fell to the floor softly with a pretty rhythmic sound, distinctly heard through the intense silence of the scene.

This so exasperated Mr. Macready that he was almost frantic, until, with the final lines of the scene, "Wake, Duncan with the knocking, oh! Woe, woe, woe!" he threw Mrs. Sloan off the stage, with words which I hope were unheard by the public and were certainly unfit for publication. "Autograph sketches," by Mrs. John Drew, in Scribner's.

THE OLD TIME BELLE.

The Busy Modern Girlhood smiles over her trivial interests. An extract from the "Journal of a young lady of fashion" several centuries ago makes one feel quite relieved that it is not really a part of elegant living nowadays to keep journals, remarks an exchange. Poor little faded journal! The delicate little hand that penned these cramped lines, maybe, was given to "John Grey." For romance's sake, let's hope that it was "7 o'clock—Went to walk with the lady, my mother, in the courtyard."

"10 o'clock—Went to dinner; John Grey; a most comely youth—but what is that to me? A virtuous maiden should be entirely under the direction of her parents, John ate but little and stole a great many tender looks at me; and women would never be handsome, in his opinion, who were not good natured. I hope my temper is not intolerable. * * * Rose from the table; the company all desirous of walking in the fields; John Grey would lift me over every stile, and twice he squeezed my hands with vehemence. I cannot say I should have any objections to John Grey; he plays at prison bars, as well as any of the country gentlemen and is remarkably dutiful to his parents, my kind old lady, and never misses church on Sunday."

A sample of poetry dedicated to "a young lady" shows what women were served with in the way of literature:

And he whose lot is blessed,
As only man's can be,
Will find his own a rest
On earth with thee.
Where all is bright and fair
And sunny joys abound,
Thou'lt be transported there
And ever bloom.

O've shades of our ancestors! What would you think of the contents of some of our library shelves? What would you think of the rosy cheeked girl who would consider such poetry as you read simply too insipid and stupid for any use.—Baltimore Herald.

It will be a surprise to any who are all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by Raymond's Drug Store.

Where It Was Needed.
McSwitters—No, I don't want the encyclopedia.
Agent—Do you know any one around here who might?

McSwitters—The man next door. He's one of these fellows who know it all.—Syracuse Herald.

An Illustrative Newspaper.

The guests at my table at the luncheon were Professors Gaebel and Hoffman and Von Bunsen. While thus refreshing ourselves, both physically and mentally, Hoffman told the following story of a lady, whom he had known very intimately. They were walking one day together through the streets of London, where both were then professors, when Parady stopped a newsboy and bought a paper. Hoffman asked him why, with his house supplied regularly with all the papers he needed, he stopped to buy a paper from a boy in the street. Parady replied, "I was once a newsboy myself and sold papers on the street."—John Blyslow's Recollections in Century.

MACREADY ON THE STAGE.

The Tragedian Was Not a Pleasant Man to Act With.

Macready was a dreadful man to act with. You had the pleasant sensation of knowing that you were doing nothing that he wanted you to do, though following strictly his instructions. He would press you down with his hand on your head and tell you in an undertone to stand up. Mr. Macready was a terribly nervous actor. Any little thing which happened unexpectedly irritated him beyond endurance.

One night at the Park "Macbeth"

Election is Over!

Not so with Our Cloak Trade.

Its Booming Right Along.

Prices don't always make the Bargains. Ladies appreciate

Quality, Style and the Make-up

OF A

Cape, Jacket or Collarete,

And Know they can always find the best at

Ahern's, Wayne, Neb.

Agent for Butterick Patterns

Winter Millinery!

JUST IN. A Very Large and Extensive Line of New Winter Millinery!

STREET HATS. A LARGE VARIETY OF TRIMMED HATS.

KID GLOVES.

Warranted to give good satisfaction, FROM $1.00 TO $1.50.

Miss H. Wilkinson.

WM. PIEPENSTOCK,

Calls your attention to his big line of

Saddles

At all Grades and Prices.

Our stock in Light and Heavy Harness is complete

See our FUR and PLUSH ROBES, also BLANKETS, and get PRICES before buying elsewhere. Repairing promptly done at REASONABLE PRICES.

WM. PIEPENSTOCK, Wayne, Neb.

UNTIL JANUARY 1, 1900

We can make the following Remarkable Offer

All The Wayne Herald,

Until Jan. 1, 1901.

For Kansas City Journal,

For One Year.

$1.25 Kendall's Receipt Book

Subscribe at once and get the full benefit of the papers.

THE HERALD—The Leading Newspaper of the county. You get all the local news and everything of interest to the citizens of Wayne county. Published Thursdays.

KANSAS CITY JOURNAL—A first-class republican weekly paper. Eight pages of the latest news and good reading matter every week. Subscribe now and get this paper all through the presidential campaign.

DR. KENDALL'S RECEIPT BOOK—A valuable collection of recipes for diseases of man and domestic animals. Also a large number of cooking recipes. A 200 page book; just the book for family use.

Remember that you get a 200 page Receipt Book. The Kansas City Weekly Journal for one year and The Wayne Herald until January 1, 1901.

OLD SUBSCRIBERS Who pay up all back subscription to the Herald and one year in advance may have their choice of either the Receipt Book or the Kansas City Journal without extra charge.

C. S. Benney, Agent.

Peavey Elevator Company

Desires to inform the Public that they are again handling

HARD AND SOFT COAL

Of the Best Grades the market affords.

PRICES RIGHT.

C. S. Benney, Agent.

Peavey Elevator Company

Peavey Elevator Company

Peavey Elevator Company