LADYSMITH IS FREE

General Buller Lifts the Long Siege.

ENDS HARD CAMPAIGN. Official Announcement of Victory Made by London War Office.

Victory Comes After Months of Fighting—Brief Account of the Siege and Efforts at Relief—Gen. Buller Panned in Ladysmith Oct. 30 After Disaster to British Arms—Reward of British General's Valor and Perseverance.

It is officially announced in London that Ladysmith has been relieved. The war office has received the following dispatch from Gen. Buller: "Ladysmith has been relieved."

The events which led up to the siege of Ladysmith began with the pouring of Boer forces into Natal by way of Lang's Nek and of Free State forces through Van Reenen's pass immediately after the battle of Mafeking Oct. 12.

On Nov. 4 the British evacuated Colenso, which guarded the bridge across the Tugela river. The Boers crossed the Tugela and raided through Natal to the outskirts of the British camp at Estcourt.

Gen. Buller began his great movement toward the relief of Ladysmith on Jan. 13. He was accompanied by the 1st Cape Mounted Infantry and the 1st Natal Mounted Infantry.

At this point in the campaign many of the English officers advised abandoning the relief of Ladysmith. On Jan. 29 the British retreated to another reconnaissance and on Feb. 2 the British recrossed the Tugela river and attacked the Boers two days later.

On Feb. 15 Gen. Buller began an advance to Ladysmith, and began to fight his way toward the beleaguered city. The Boers fought a series of battles with the British, and two days later the Boers began moving their large guns from the hills surrounding the city.
