A NEW SCHOOL BUILDING FOR WAYNE

Number 9.

Subscription $1.00 in Advance.

HOW TO BUILD IT.

HOW TO BUILD II. Before commencing to build a public school it is necessary to have sufficient funds to pay for it when completed. When citizens agree there is always a way to get the cash. Now right here all good people agree—that is, all will say, get some expert architect to make the plans, and let the contract to a good mechanic, and make him responsible by giving a bond. That is the proper way to build a school building, and every person holding office knows that tax payers will not be satisfied with a building built in any other way. Did you ever stop to think that you pay out more every year for clothing than you do for school purposes? Do you use the same judgement in buying your clothing of us you will use the same judgement, for our suits are designed and cut by experi-cutters, are made by skilled tailors, and are sold to you by experienced clothirer, and our bond secured by a responsible clothing manufac-turer is sewed in every coat pocket.

This Garment Guaranteed by the Makers B. KUPPENHEIMER & CO. The absolute satisfac tion afforded by the KUPPENHEITER Clothing is vouched for by this Guarantee Label which is sewn in the Date inside coat pocket.

J inside coat pocket. (sn't that fair? What more can you ask? In buying your clothing here you not only get better looking clothing, but you get proper clothing, made in a clean factory and free from all conta-gious disease. It costs no more than cheap shoddy clothing such as you usually find in general stores, which is made by the "sweat-ing system" and is not clean and free from contagious.disease. You take no chances in buying your clothing of us and you will have the satisfaction of knowing that it is clean and free from disease. Our spring stock is now nearly complete and you will find here what will please you and at the lowest price.

Furnishings for the Boys.

One doesn't commonly find as much attention paid to furnish-ngs for boys as we give here—there are many attractive movelies that are not to be found elsewhere (except in large cities) and they add wonderfully to the attractiveness of dainty suits Whatever as ight in furnishings for the boys—whether its neckwear, shirts, suspenders, sweaters or hose, you are sure to find here, and its sure to be just what you want, at the right prices. add y right

Free Trade between us is the idea condition. This party in the house was forced from this position by the radicals on the other side, reinforced by a few of its own extremists. By the speeches the own extremists.

the dther alde, reinforced by a few of its jown extremists. By the speeches of thesemen another leave that expedi-ency was introduced. It was contended by them that Porto Rice must have absjute Free-Trade, not in fairness but is a legal right. It was held to be the due of those people under the Con-stitution; and acquestence in this doc-trine would have bound us for all time to dome with reference to the Philip-phies as well as to Porto Rico. It was impossible to ratify this the-ory. Yet the course of the delate and the attitude of the press were such that there was only a choice left be-tween two extremes. Either we must impose such trifling duty, or we must impose that all territory acquired came within all of the provisions of the Constitution as applied to the States this Union, reverse the policy and pre-cedents of a contury, and the our hands in the important why the area to do.

In the important work that we have to do in the Far East. This is the argu-ment which constraints President Mo-Kinley, as it has constrained us, to agree to the imposition of a slight tax to vindicate a general principle rather than to hold to Free-Trade with Porto Rice at the price of conceding the new faise and faint theory of the Constitu-tion which the Demodratio party have bound up with it.

tion which the Demogratic party nave bound up with it. It is still possible that the senate may find a way of this bhoice between evils. It would seem practicable to amend the House bill by abdishing the duty, if there were incorporated in itaclause deuying in the wtrongest terms any constitutional compulsion, and assert, It there were incorporated in it at a using design in the strongest terms any constitutional compulsion, and assert, ing the unimpaired right of Congress to legislate at its will on all matters re-lating to new territory. Or if this is not done, a decision of the Supreme Court will settle their question present-ry, and the Porto Richan Tariff may be repealed without danger. As matters stand to day, however, the president in right and he is consistent. We suggest that those Republican newspapers in the State of Washington that have completing of this course and the pol-uer olearly stated should study the samplest anew in the light of his utter-ances and of the explanations that have appeared in our columns.—Seattle "Post Intelligeher."
