

Can You Use One?

A Fine Eastman Pocket Folding Kodak,
$17.50 for $14.00.

A FINE PREMO, $10.00 for $8.00.

Did you know we keep a full line of Cameras and Photo Supplies which we sell at Lowest Prices.

For Schools—A Full Line of Supplies.

Tablets, Pencils, Inks.

We are saving you 25 per cent. on Tablets by furnishing full size, full count tablets of the very best grades.

Popular Books at Popular Prices.

We carry a full line of Pianos and Organs, including the Mason and Hamlin Organs and Weber Pianos.

Buy your Pianos and Organs of Home Dealers.
We have the goods and can save you money.

Jones' Book Store.

YES! YES!

These Warm Days

Everybody prefers to do their buying at home. You can do so in

THE GROCERY LINE

By calling us up over the telephone, we give you the BEST PRICE ALWAYS, and nothing but fresh goods sent out. Remember this when you buy:

D. H. SULLIVAN, The Grocer.

Phone 25. Main Street.

Ahern's Special Cloak

and Suit Sale

Next Week.

Mr. H. P. Fisher, representing Landesmann, Hirschheimer & Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, will be at our store next week with a complete line of Cloaks, Tailor Made Suits, Single Skirts, Golf Capes and Furs. This is a splendid opportunity for ladies who want something special and an exact fit. We take measures and guarantee an exact fit.

Sale One Day Only.

WATCH FOR EXACT DATE
LATER.

AHERN'S, - Wayne.

Local and Personal.

See W. L. Jones for fresh fruits.
Try Peavey Rock Spring nut coal.
See Otto Voget for bicycle repairs.
Engage your hard coal at Peavey's.
T. B. Heckert, Dentist, over Miller's.
Choloe Hocking Valley coal at Peavey's.
Oysters served in any style at W. L. Jones.
Try Peavey Rock spring nut coal. Phone 91.
For Heinz Pickle Vinegar go to Brooking's.
For fresh oysters call at the Corner Restaurant.

J. T. Bressler and son went to Norfolk Tuesday.
Miss Effie Buffington returned from Chicago Saturday evening.
For a first class meal, lunch or ham sandwich see the corner Restaurant.
Griffith Garwood and family returned home Friday from their Iowa visit.

Ivy Wreath

A great many people are going to Omaha to attend the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities.
F. M. Woodward and wife of Sioux City, are visiting with his brother-in-law, W. F. Sears.

Luther Dearborn who has been visiting with his brother Frank, returned to Chicago Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Finperty of Dakota City, were visitors in Wayne during the carnival and fair.

Rev. Davidson of Carroll, has been sent to Wausa for the ensuing year by the M. E. conference at Norfolk.

Geo. Stephens and Henry Layman returned home Monday morning from their trip along the Pacific coast.

Judge Hunter issued a license to wed Monday to Otto Eckhart of Stanton, and Miss Amelia Kant of Winside.

Monday all signs of the once pretty booths of the fair had been removed and the city resumed its natural appearance.

You can get a nice piece of chicken, egg, cheese or ham sandwich by call at the corner restaurant. O. P. Beeson, Proprietor.

W. Wagner sold his farm 12 miles northwest of Wayne one day last week for $34.4 per acre cash. Not much calamity about that.

J. S. French sold on Monday a half section of land owned by Alf Clark in Cedar county, adjoining Wayne county, for $31.25 per acre.

Miss Anna Spayger went to Omaha Tuesday morning where she will take lessons in hat trimming and millinery work during Ak-Sar-Ben week.

Ivy Wreath

Billy Anderson, Chas. C. Sutton, Chas. C. Robinson and Jake Waldron of Sioux City, all expert bartenders, assisted Oscar Franks here during the Fair.

All those who intend to go to Norfolk on October 4th to hear Governor Roosevelt will please hand their names in at THE HERALD office as soon as possible.

If you are looking for the best brand of beer for family use remember that Herman Mildner keeps A. B. C. Pabst, Schlitz, Krugs, Anheuser, Leups, and all the purest beers the market affords.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Mellor went to Omaha Tuesday morning to attend the Fair. Mr. Wilson will also attend the meeting of the State Bankers Association.

E. W. Grover

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day.

R. H. James, real estate agent, sold the John Koefoed quarter four miles southwest of Wayne on Monday for $40 per acre. He also sold a quarter section three miles west of Carroll on Saturday. Wayne county land is in demand.

Ivy Wreath

"Gov." Barrett, a brother of Iowa's State Superintendent of Public Instruction, was in Wayne during the carnival and pitched a game of ball for Ponca in the game with Wayne. "Gov." is the popular clerk at the McDonald Hotel in Emerson.

Subject of the morning service at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath is "The Wonderful Age in which We Live." Evening service: "Young Men in History." A special invitation is extended to the young men of the community to attend this service.

Perhaps there is not one woman who is not honestly trying to better herself, to leave the world from a higher level than the one on which she entered it. But they are already tired as they work. You can tell an American woman in any country before she speaks by her anxious eager eyes. Even the baby on her breast faces the world with a nervous, knowing look, while the beautiful English and Italian children are but fat, mindless, happy animals. "An American Mother," in the October Ladies' Home Journal.

Dr. Kay's Lung Balm for coughs.
Dr. Kay's Renovator for dyspepsia.
Inspect our coal and get our prices.
Peavey.

J. W. Bartlett went to Omaha Tuesday morning.

Mrs. T. S. Goss went to Omaha Tuesday morning.

E. D. Mitchell went to New York Monday afternoon.

A great many strangers were in the city during the fair.
Fresh fruits in season at Brooking's, opposite post office.

Ivy Wreath

Rev. J. C. Ringer went to Pawnee City Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Surber went to Omaha Tuesday morning.

Mrs. J. A. Love went to LeMars Tuesday for a few day's visit.

Don't forget that W. L. Jones' is the place to get oysters in any style.

Dr. Kay's Lung Balm cures coughs, colds, lagrippe, etc. Small size 10 cts.

Ivy Wreath

Call on or phone Herman Mildner for first class California wines of all kinds.

For fresh bread, buns, and rolls fresh from Sioux City daily call at W. L. Jones.

If you want vinegar that will keep pickles call for Heinz Pickle Vinegar at Brooking's.

Ivy Wreath

New stock of coal at Peavey elevator. Co. No dust, clean and bright. Phone 91.

Everybody was pretty generally tired out after the fair and were glad the next day was Sunday.

A splendid globe, just the thing for school purposes can be purchased at a bargain by calling at this office.

Stops the Cough

and works off the Cold.
Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure no pay. 25c.

Gov. Roosevelt at Norfolk, Oct. 4th. Excursion tickets will be sold to Norfolk, Oct. 4th, good returning Oct. 5th, at $1.15. T. W. Moran, Agent.

For first class California wines you will do well to call on or telephone Herman Mildner. No family can afford to be without the best file market affords.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grover's signature is on each box. 25c.

Handkerchiefs which have been contributed by many eminent persons will be offered for sale at the Handkerchief Bazaar to be given by the ladies of the Presbyterian Missionary Society in October.

"Womanhood," a valuable illustrated booklet giving best treatment for female diseases, 17 illustrations showing displacement of womb, etc. Sent free, to ladies only, in plain, sealed envelope. Dr. B. J. Kay, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

"Two Merry Tramps" Wood & Ward's splendid comedy, is pronounced by everyone to be the most refined and absolutely pure comedy on the road this season, not one suggestive word, action or scene being introduced in the entire performance. At the opera house, Wednesday, Oct. 3.

Fred Krei who lives on one of Robt. Mellor's farms northeast of Wayne, had the misfortune to lose his home and all contents by fire on Saturday. How the fire started is a mystery as no one was home at the time, the family being in town taking in the carnival. Mr. Krei's loss is about $1000.

Many of the characters in the Chinese language are very suggestive of the relationship between husband and wife, and leave no doubt as to the subordinate position which the woman occupies in Chinese domestic life. The part which the Chinaman plays in securing his bride is vigorously illustrated in the word to seize, the character for woman crouching under the Chinese symbol for claws, while the character for wife, indicated by a woman placed beside a broom, is evidence of the Chinaman's opinion with regard to the proper position of his helpmate in his household—October Ladies' Home Journal.

Norfolk Times-Tribune: The writer visited the pretty little city of Wayne Friday for the first time. Wayne is a nice, clean, substantial looking town and in holiday attire, as she was Friday, presented a very pleasing appearance. The street fair was also there yesterday, evidently for the first time. As a scheme to advertise the town it was a success but outside of the saloons and a restaurant or two it was not a great day for the business people of that town. The day was fine and everybody was out on the streets but the merchants did not have their goods where the people were and for that reason failed to get much benefit out of it. Every dealer in the town should have had a booth on the street, not merely for display, but for actual business, there he could have sold goods. The street fair as an institution will hardly become popular in this country.

Attention! Republicans!

All republicans belonging to or wishing to join the McKinley and Roosevelt club are requested to meet at the Dearborn building (Boyd annex) Friday evening, September 28th, 1900, at 8:00 o'clock p. m.

O. P. Beeson, was in Norfolk on business Tuesday.

Mrs. A. J. Ferguson was in Sioux City Monday.

Chas. Lund was in Sioux City on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Guy R. Wilbur is spending the week in Omaha.

Oysters served in all styles at Beeson's corner restaurant.

Grant Mears and Peter Nygren went to South Dakota Tuesday.

Henry Lessman and wife have returned from a visit in Illinois.

Mrs. F. L. Neely and children were passengers east yesterday morning.

Ed Cullen was here from Winside Tuesday, called by the sickness of his father.

Chas. Craven and Homer Skeen are playing with the Lyons band at Omaha this week.

Fred French went to Omaha yesterday morning to attend the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities.

Mrs. Kass and sister left yesterday for Iowa on a month's visit with relatives and friends.

The Sunday School of the Baptist church will hold Harvest Home exercises next Sunday evening.

For the best brands of bottled beer by the case or otherwise call on or phone Herman Mildner.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Burdick went to Omaha yesterday morning to attend the fair and see the parades.

Norfolk Tribune: Mrs. G. W. Smith of Denver, Colo., passed through the city yesterday on her way home from a visit with her mother in Wayne Co.

The M. E. Conference at Norfolk last week made no change in the Wayne charge and Rev. Thos. Bithell will remain for one more year's work.

There will be a special meeting of Wayne Camp No. 611, M. W. A. at the hall on Saturday evening, September 23th. Business same as regular.

E. R. Sumner, Clerk.

Yesterday was the 21st birthday of Edw. B. Philleo, and his mother invited in a number of young men to supper in honor of the event. The boys enjoyed themselves immensely.

Jas. Cullen, father of the Cullen boys, died yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. The funeral will occur at ten o'clock from the Catholic church tomorrow morning. The obituary is in this issue.

Mayor Peter Rubendall, and members of the city council A. A. Bley, O. H. Gillispie, C. S. Smith and Adam Rubendall, of Madison, were in Wayne Monday inspecting the electric light plant of this city.

R. H. Gibson returned from Hartington last Saturday where he had been engaged in judging live stock and poultry at the Cedar County Fair. We hear that his work was so satisfactory that he will be engaged again next year.

"Ragtime Lid" one of the leading musical numbers heard in "Two Merry Tramps" is a musical and comedy novelty that will deserve the name, being full of catchy music, grotesque costuming and is a laugh producer as long as the artists presenting it consent to remain on the stage. Opera house, Wednesday evening, October 3.

Republican: Link Neely bought a dog and Dr. Nelson a box of homeopathic remedies. They both came to the depot about the same time. The doctor sent John Short down to get his medicine and told him just where he would find it. Somebody put the crate containing the dog where the doctor saw his medicine and when John got there he loaded the dog into the wagon and took him to Nieman's home and when the doctor found occasion to use his remedies was very much surprised to find that they had become endowed with life, were covered with hair, could wag their tail and had a voice like a populist orator. Link didn't get the remedies, but John Short got a talking to in several kinds of languages for his blunder.

The financial showing of the North Nebraska Methodist conference held here during the past week bears its testimony to prosperous conditions: "Our report shows," said one of the members, "a remarkable increase in every thing but indebtedness. In our benevolent collections alone there is a great total of $17,689, an increase of $4,974 over one year ago. This does not include the showing on buildings and debts. The latter have been materially reduced, while new church buildings have been erected in many places." Thus everything of a financial nature goes to show improvement. Money is plenty and the people are prosperous. The gentleman who gave these figures said that if this was a republican paper it would probably like to have them, tacitly admitting that a paper of the fusion brand had very little use for figures unless they would show calamity.—Norfolk News.

1200 PAIRS

HEAVY 10-OUNCE

Men's Canton Flannel

DOUBLE ON THUMB

...6 1-4 CENTS...

A PAIR

AT
THE 2 JOHNS.

WAYNE, NEB.

OBITUARY.

James Cullen was born in Wexford Co., Ireland, Oct. 23, 1829, and died at his home one mile west of Wayne Wednesday, Sept. 26, 1900, at 1:33 p. m. He emigrated here in 1847 and in 1854 was married to Mary Welch of Erie, Pennsylvania. To this union nine children were born, eight of whom, five boys and three girls, one girl having entered into rest in her infancy, survive him. Two boys, Nicholas and William are at home; E. W. Cullen and family, reside at Winside; Marietta, Mrs. Massie, lives near Schuyler; Clara, Mrs. Healey, and Jennie, Mrs. McIntyre, live in Wayne; Joseph is married and lives a quarter of a mile west of the home place, all of whom, with the sorrowing wife, were at his bedside when the last summons came; John Cullen, a traveling man of South Bend, Indiana, being unable to be present.

Nicholas and Morgan Cullen of Maeseu, Iowa, brothers of the deceased, arrived Wednesday evening on the 7:30 train, too late to behold their brother in life.

The demise came as a shock to relatives and friends, his illness having been only of one week's duration and not until last Sunday morning did the family realize that his sickness was at all serious and it was Tuesday p. m. before he took to his bed. He knew his end was near, was reconciled, and said in death as in life, "Thy will, not mine, be done." Though death was calm, peaceful and happy, perfect consciousness being his to the very last and a prayer was on his lips when the spirit took its flight, a consistent member of the Catholic church, he died with all the consolations of his religion.

A R. R. contractor in the South at the breaking out of the Civil War he lost practically all of his property at that time and began life anew as a farmer in Peoria county, Ill. He moved to Hancock county, Ill., in 1868, to Wayne county, Neb., in 1888, to the present home. Although honest, frugal and industrious, adversity and reverses prevented the accumulation of much of this world's goods, but his life was replete with loving words, kind deeds and benevolent actions. His unswerving devotion to duty and right with his kindly, sympathetic nature especially endeared him to all with whom he was associated.

The bereaved wife, mourning children and sorrowing friends have the sympathy of the entire community in their hour of affliction.

"Be you also ready for at what hour you think not the Son of man will come."

Ivy Wreath.

OPERA HOUSE, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3.

Wood & Ward's "Two Merry Tramps."

Mines, LEADING Jeweler.

When you are ready to talk Watches you will find us on the ground floor with the largest assortment to be found in this part of the state. All the newest designs, best quality, and the greatest value for the money to be found anywhere.

MINES,

The Leading Jeweler.

Agents Wanted.

We want a live, active representative in your territory at once to engage in a very profitable business. General and local agents wanted. From $5.00 to $10.00 a day. Advancement rapid. Good references required. Those out of employment or wishing to better themselves address, Department K, Corner Perkins and Union Sts., Akron Ohio.

GIRL ESCAPED

Rev. O. Peitsmeyer, of Jolley, Iowa, informs us: "My little girl thirteen years old and I were the only ones who escaped when my wife and three children were down with typhoid fever at one time. When the rest became sick we began taking Dr. Kay's Renovator, three times a day all through and escaped. We think Dr. Kay's Renovator a God-Send!" Typhoid Fever is a fearful malady and no ordinary medicine will have the least effect upon it. Dr. Kay's Renovator exerts a wonderful influence upon the stomach, liver and bowels—an influence which drives out of your system every minute Typhoid germ and sends glorious health and vigor into every corner of your entire system. At druggists, 25c and $1.00, or if your druggist can not supply you we will send it postpaid upon receipt of price. Free medical advice, sample and book. Dr. B. J. Kay Medical Co., Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

WAYNE, NEB. PUBLISHED BY W. H. MCNEAL.

FRANCE IS WITH US

SISTER REPUBLIC ANSWERS GERMANY'S NOTE.

Paris, France's reply to Germany's note, making the punishment of the instigators of the Chinese troubles preliminary to peace negotiations, is not entirely an acceptance of the proposition.

Is Ready to Negotiate with the Chinese Without First Dealing Out Justice to the Guilty Public Officials—Other Items.

Paris, France's reply to Germany's note, making the punishment of the instigators of the Chinese troubles preliminary to peace negotiations, is not entirely an acceptance of the proposition.

There has been no word, however, from any of the governments concerning their view of the American position, and it is expected some days will elapse before there is any new movement.

MANY STRUCK IN A SALOON

Eight Persons Meet Death and Several Others Alike Injured.

Fairbank, Minn.: Meager details have reached here of a terrible catastrophe which visited the village of Morristown, ten miles west of here, shortly before 6 o'clock Monday evening.

ANOTHER TEXAS STORM.

Reports of Heavy Loss of Life Have Not Been Verified.

Dallas, Tex.: City Marshal Sexton of Durbia, Tex., Monday afternoon telephone call as follows:

Disaster at Brownwood reported here today as being a very serious one. Eight persons were drowned, and part of the town badly wrecked by water.

All efforts to get word from Brackettsville, which was swept by flood a year ago, have failed owing to the washing away of telegraph wires.

Victims Refuse to Strip.

Victoria, B. C.: As a result of an order providing that all the workmen must change clothes, both going on and off shift and pass naked before a witness, Stratton's independent gold mine has closed down.

Seven Firemen Injured.

St. Louis: A fire at 2002 S. Morgan Street resulted in the injuring of seven firemen by falling walls.

Kid McCoy's Divorce Suit.

New York: Through his attorneys, Kid McCoy had his suit for absolute divorce from his wife discontinued.

Grants Workmen's Demands.

Cleveland: The merchant tailors of this city have granted the demands of the journeymen tailors for 10 per cent. increase in wages for all kinds of work.

Eight People Injured.

Chicago: An elevator in the Fisher building, corner of Dearborn and Van Buren Streets, fell from the fourth story to the basement Sunday evening.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York: The surplus reserve decreased $4,594,873. Loans increased $9,874,400.

NOTES MADE PUBLIC.

Repulse of United States to Proposals of Other Powers.

Washington: The state department has made public the notes addressed by it to the governments of Germany, Russia and China in answer to their proposals to the United States toward the various phases of the Chinese problem, as follows:

The government of the United States has from the outset proclaimed its purpose to hold to the utmost accountability the responsible authors of any wrongs done in China to citizens of the United States and their interests.

COMPENSATION IS DEMANDED

England Will Be Requested to Pay for Expulsion of Employees.

The Hague: In the upper chamber of the state's general minister of foreign affairs and premier, Dr. W. H. De Beaufort, replying to interpellation, said the government of the Netherlands had informed Great Britain that compensation would be demanded for expulsion from the service of employees of the Netherlands railroad.

LANG GIVES UP THE KEYS.

Trouble Over the State Institution at Beatrice Has Ended.

The long fight between Gov. Poynter and Dr. Lang came to a close last week, when Dr. Lang turned over the institute for feeble-minded youth at Beatrice to Dr. Coffin, secretary of the state board of mental hygiene.

WOMEN IN PITTSBURGH BUILDING HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Pittsburgh: The lives of many women were imperiled during a fire in a four-story brick building on Pennsylvania Avenue. The lower floors of the building were occupied by the Hartz and the Exchange Employment agency, and the upper floors by Mrs. Kruger's factory and women lodgers.

ANOTHER LONE HOLD UP.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Masked Robber Goes Through a Northern Pacific Train.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Endeavors Will Meet There Under Certain Conditions.

Boston: The trustees and executive committee of the United Society of Christian Endeavorers has voted to accept the invitation of Cincinnati to hold the twentieth international convention in that city in 1901, providing that satisfactory railroad rates and local arrangements are made.

Goods of Rare Value.

San Francisco: The revenue officers have brought down from the Mare Island navy yard on a government tug 124 cases of rare Oriental goods which had been smuggled into this country on the hospital ship Salade.

Demand a Whipping Post.

Reading, Pa.: At the meeting here of the state convention of magistrates, the Magistrates' Association of this city asked the convention to request the legislature to establish the whipping post for wife-beaters.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Table with market quotations for various goods including wheat, corn, and other commodities. Columns include item names and prices.

Price of Hard Coal Goes Up.

Altoona, Pa.: The price here for coal has risen as a result of a strike. Formerly 60c, it is now 65c.

Yellow Fever in Havana.

Havana: Thirty-one new cases of yellow fever have been officially reported since Friday, making 103 now under treatment.

SHRINKAGE IN THE LEGACY

Truth About Mrs. Grace Porter's Inheritance is Disappointing.

South Bend, Ind.: Pretty Mrs. Grace Porter of Port, Iowa, has not fallen heir to $1,000,000. The report that she had been left such a tremendous legacy, circulated by the young woman's Iowa friends, is very far from being the truth.

Mrs. Porter is the grandniece of the late Mrs. Mary E. Adams of this city, whose will has just been placed in probate.

LANG GIVES UP THE KEYS.

Trouble Over the State Institution at Beatrice Has Ended.

The long fight between Gov. Poynter and Dr. Lang came to a close last week, when Dr. Lang turned over the institute for feeble-minded youth at Beatrice to Dr. Coffin, secretary of the state board of mental hygiene.

WOMEN IN PITTSBURGH BUILDING HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Pittsburgh: The lives of many women were imperiled during a fire in a four-story brick building on Pennsylvania Avenue. The lower floors of the building were occupied by the Hartz and the Exchange Employment agency, and the upper floors by Mrs. Kruger's factory and women lodgers.

ANOTHER LONE HOLD UP.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Masked Robber Goes Through a Northern Pacific Train.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Endeavors Will Meet There Under Certain Conditions.

Boston: The trustees and executive committee of the United Society of Christian Endeavorers has voted to accept the invitation of Cincinnati to hold the twentieth international convention in that city in 1901, providing that satisfactory railroad rates and local arrangements are made.

Goods of Rare Value.

San Francisco: The revenue officers have brought down from the Mare Island navy yard on a government tug 124 cases of rare Oriental goods which had been smuggled into this country on the hospital ship Salade.

Demand a Whipping Post.

Reading, Pa.: At the meeting here of the state convention of magistrates, the Magistrates' Association of this city asked the convention to request the legislature to establish the whipping post for wife-beaters.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Table with market quotations for various goods including wheat, corn, and other commodities. Columns include item names and prices.

Price of Hard Coal Goes Up.

Altoona, Pa.: The price here for coal has risen as a result of a strike. Formerly 60c, it is now 65c.

Yellow Fever in Havana.

Havana: Thirty-one new cases of yellow fever have been officially reported since Friday, making 103 now under treatment.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York: The surplus reserve decreased $4,594,873. Loans increased $9,874,400.

STATE OF NEBRASKA

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN A CONDENSED FORM.

Officials Acknowledge Mistake of Suspecting Schlatterman and Fetz, Platt County Farmers, of Train Robbery—Found to be Innocent.

The following message was received by Sheriff Kellifer of North Platte: "Lincoln, Neb.: The Schlatterman-Ertz theory of train robbery seems to be entirely exploded. Please excuse this information as much as you conveniently can."

LANG GIVES UP THE KEYS.

Trouble Over the State Institution at Beatrice Has Ended.

The long fight between Gov. Poynter and Dr. Lang came to a close last week, when Dr. Lang turned over the institute for feeble-minded youth at Beatrice to Dr. Coffin, secretary of the state board of mental hygiene.

WOMEN IN PITTSBURGH BUILDING HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Pittsburgh: The lives of many women were imperiled during a fire in a four-story brick building on Pennsylvania Avenue. The lower floors of the building were occupied by the Hartz and the Exchange Employment agency, and the upper floors by Mrs. Kruger's factory and women lodgers.

ANOTHER LONE HOLD UP.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Masked Robber Goes Through a Northern Pacific Train.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Endeavors Will Meet There Under Certain Conditions.

Boston: The trustees and executive committee of the United Society of Christian Endeavorers has voted to accept the invitation of Cincinnati to hold the twentieth international convention in that city in 1901, providing that satisfactory railroad rates and local arrangements are made.

Goods of Rare Value.

San Francisco: The revenue officers have brought down from the Mare Island navy yard on a government tug 124 cases of rare Oriental goods which had been smuggled into this country on the hospital ship Salade.

Demand a Whipping Post.

Reading, Pa.: At the meeting here of the state convention of magistrates, the Magistrates' Association of this city asked the convention to request the legislature to establish the whipping post for wife-beaters.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Table with market quotations for various goods including wheat, corn, and other commodities. Columns include item names and prices.

Price of Hard Coal Goes Up.

Altoona, Pa.: The price here for coal has risen as a result of a strike. Formerly 60c, it is now 65c.

Yellow Fever in Havana.

Havana: Thirty-one new cases of yellow fever have been officially reported since Friday, making 103 now under treatment.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York: The surplus reserve decreased $4,594,873. Loans increased $9,874,400.

FIGHTS BUY AN ISLAND.

Will Remove From Octavia to Bellevue, Near Omaha.

An Omaha dispatch states that the famous religious sensationist of the arena is to buy himself to a secluded spot. The fight has a prize fund and will make their future home on Bellevue island.

SMYTH SUES STARBUCK COMPANY

Attorney General Begins Proceedings Against Nebraska Concern.

Attorney General also has commenced action against the Argo Manufacturing Company of Nebraska City and the United States Company of New Jersey.

LANG GIVES UP THE KEYS.

Trouble Over the State Institution at Beatrice Has Ended.

The long fight between Gov. Poynter and Dr. Lang came to a close last week, when Dr. Lang turned over the institute for feeble-minded youth at Beatrice to Dr. Coffin, secretary of the state board of mental hygiene.

WOMEN IN PITTSBURGH BUILDING HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Pittsburgh: The lives of many women were imperiled during a fire in a four-story brick building on Pennsylvania Avenue. The lower floors of the building were occupied by the Hartz and the Exchange Employment agency, and the upper floors by Mrs. Kruger's factory and women lodgers.

ANOTHER LONE HOLD UP.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Masked Robber Goes Through a Northern Pacific Train.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Endeavors Will Meet There Under Certain Conditions.

Boston: The trustees and executive committee of the United Society of Christian Endeavorers has voted to accept the invitation of Cincinnati to hold the twentieth international convention in that city in 1901, providing that satisfactory railroad rates and local arrangements are made.

Goods of Rare Value.

San Francisco: The revenue officers have brought down from the Mare Island navy yard on a government tug 124 cases of rare Oriental goods which had been smuggled into this country on the hospital ship Salade.

Demand a Whipping Post.

Reading, Pa.: At the meeting here of the state convention of magistrates, the Magistrates' Association of this city asked the convention to request the legislature to establish the whipping post for wife-beaters.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Table with market quotations for various goods including wheat, corn, and other commodities. Columns include item names and prices.

Price of Hard Coal Goes Up.

Altoona, Pa.: The price here for coal has risen as a result of a strike. Formerly 60c, it is now 65c.

Yellow Fever in Havana.

Havana: Thirty-one new cases of yellow fever have been officially reported since Friday, making 103 now under treatment.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York: The surplus reserve decreased $4,594,873. Loans increased $9,874,400.

FIGHTING AT PIETANG

ALLIES VIGOROUSLY BOMBARD THE BOXER FORTS.

China Wants Winter Truce for Its Forces—Indications Are that 10,000 Foreign Troops Will Remain in Peking—Foreign Troops for Peace.

SMYTH SUES STARBUCK COMPANY

Attorney General Begins Proceedings Against Nebraska Concern.

Attorney General also has commenced action against the Argo Manufacturing Company of Nebraska City and the United States Company of New Jersey.

LANG GIVES UP THE KEYS.

Trouble Over the State Institution at Beatrice Has Ended.

The long fight between Gov. Poynter and Dr. Lang came to a close last week, when Dr. Lang turned over the institute for feeble-minded youth at Beatrice to Dr. Coffin, secretary of the state board of mental hygiene.

WOMEN IN PITTSBURGH BUILDING HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Pittsburgh: The lives of many women were imperiled during a fire in a four-story brick building on Pennsylvania Avenue. The lower floors of the building were occupied by the Hartz and the Exchange Employment agency, and the upper floors by Mrs. Kruger's factory and women lodgers.

ANOTHER LONE HOLD UP.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Masked Robber Goes Through a Northern Pacific Train.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Endeavors Will Meet There Under Certain Conditions.

Boston: The trustees and executive committee of the United Society of Christian Endeavorers has voted to accept the invitation of Cincinnati to hold the twentieth international convention in that city in 1901, providing that satisfactory railroad rates and local arrangements are made.

Goods of Rare Value.

San Francisco: The revenue officers have brought down from the Mare Island navy yard on a government tug 124 cases of rare Oriental goods which had been smuggled into this country on the hospital ship Salade.

Demand a Whipping Post.

Reading, Pa.: At the meeting here of the state convention of magistrates, the Magistrates' Association of this city asked the convention to request the legislature to establish the whipping post for wife-beaters.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Table with market quotations for various goods including wheat, corn, and other commodities. Columns include item names and prices.

Price of Hard Coal Goes Up.

Altoona, Pa.: The price here for coal has risen as a result of a strike. Formerly 60c, it is now 65c.

Yellow Fever in Havana.

Havana: Thirty-one new cases of yellow fever have been officially reported since Friday, making 103 now under treatment.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York: The surplus reserve decreased $4,594,873. Loans increased $9,874,400.

STATE CROP REPORTS

Reports have been received by the weather bureau at Washington from its correspondents in all parts of the country showing weather and crop conditions.

SMYTH SUES STARBUCK COMPANY

Attorney General Begins Proceedings Against Nebraska Concern.

Attorney General also has commenced action against the Argo Manufacturing Company of Nebraska City and the United States Company of New Jersey.

LANG GIVES UP THE KEYS.

Trouble Over the State Institution at Beatrice Has Ended.

The long fight between Gov. Poynter and Dr. Lang came to a close last week, when Dr. Lang turned over the institute for feeble-minded youth at Beatrice to Dr. Coffin, secretary of the state board of mental hygiene.

WOMEN IN PITTSBURGH BUILDING HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Pittsburgh: The lives of many women were imperiled during a fire in a four-story brick building on Pennsylvania Avenue. The lower floors of the building were occupied by the Hartz and the Exchange Employment agency, and the upper floors by Mrs. Kruger's factory and women lodgers.

ANOTHER LONE HOLD UP.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Masked Robber Goes Through a Northern Pacific Train.

Spokane, Wash.: Single handed, a masked holdup man on a west bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific succeeded in getting away with about $500 in cash, several watches and a quantity of jewelry.

Endeavors Will Meet There Under Certain Conditions.

Boston: The trustees and executive committee of the United Society of Christian Endeavorers has voted to accept the invitation of Cincinnati to hold the twentieth international convention in that city in 1901, providing that satisfactory railroad rates and local arrangements are made.

Goods of Rare Value.

San Francisco: The revenue officers have brought down from the Mare Island navy yard on a government tug 124 cases of rare Oriental goods which had been smuggled into this country on the hospital ship Salade.

Demand a Whipping Post.

Reading, Pa.: At the meeting here of the state convention of magistrates, the Magistrates' Association of this city asked the convention to request the legislature to establish the whipping post for wife-beaters.

MARKET QUOTATIONS.

Table with market quotations for various goods including wheat, corn, and other commodities. Columns include item names and prices.

Price of Hard Coal Goes Up.

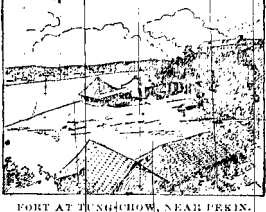

Altoona, Pa.: The price here for coal has risen as a result of a strike. Formerly 60c, it is now 65c.

Yellow Fever in Havana.

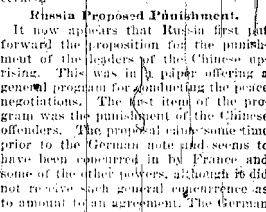

Havana: Thirty-one new cases of yellow fever have been officially reported since Friday, making 103 now under treatment.

Weekly Bank Statement.

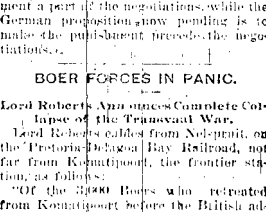

New York: The surplus reserve decreased $4,594,873. Loans increased $9,874,400.

PORT AT PIETANG, NEAR PEKIN.

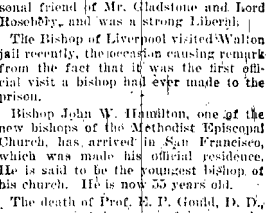

REMAINS OF THOSE WHO FELT ABROAD TO BE TRANSPORTED.

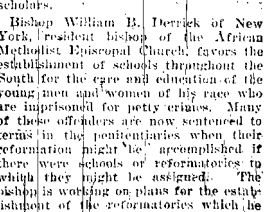

BOER FORCES IN PANIC.

CHURCH AND CLERGY.

NEWS FROM OUR COLONIES.

Some idea of the increased cost of living in the Philippines is afforded by the Manila Times, which publishes a comparative table of prices prevailing before the American occupation and at the present time. The table is as follows:

Table with comparative prices for various goods in the Philippines, showing prices before and after American occupation.

DIRT CLEARANCE.

It is a good plan for every bather to know something of the soap he uses. There is a well-founded objection to using a floor-cleaning soap upon the human body. Ivory Soap is the bather's soap. It costs more than common soaps, but the difference is in the ingredients and making. Why not treat yourself with a little respect. Is not the human skin with its marvellous delicacy entitled to pure soap? Ivory Soap—it floats.

THE WAYNE HERALD.

Entered at the Post Office at Wayne, Neb., as second class mail matter.
W. H. McNEAL, Editor.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.
REPUBLICAN TICKET.

- For Presidential Electors: John S. Nesbit of Burt, A. B. Windham of Cass, Ed. Boyce of Custer, J. L. Jacobson of Douglas, John L. Kennedy of Douglas, F. P. Langer of Saline, L. W. Plague of Buffalo, S. P. Davidson of Johnson.
- For Governor: Charles H. Dietrich of Adams, For Lieutenant Governor: E. P. Savage of Custer, For Secretary of State: Geo. W. Marsh of Richardson, For Auditor: Charles Weston of Sheridan, For Treasurer: William Stuefer of Cuming, For Attorney General: Frank N. Prout of Gage, For Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings: G. D. Folmer of Thayer, For Superintendent of Public Instruction: W. K. Fowler of Washington, For State Senator, 11th District: W. W. Young of Stanton.
- CONGRESSIONAL: For Congressman, Third District: John R. Hays of Norfolk.
- JUDICIAL: For Judge, 9th District: J. E. Boyd of Antelope.
- COUNTY: For County Attorney: Anson A. Welch of Wayne, For County Commissioner: August Wittler of Strabau.

Bryan's paramount issue seems to have become sorely afflicted with chronic inability to fool the people, and it, like Wm. J., is fast going to pieces.

A newspaper that will talk about the administration at Washington betraying the republic is edited either by a fool or a knave. Such rot was belched forth in copious doses during the administration of Abraham Lincoln; yet these same papers are now quoting continually from the martyred president.

Comparison between W. W. Young, the republican nominee for senator of this district and Mr. Tawney the fusion nominee, so far as ability is concerned is needless. There is no comparison. It is such men as W. W. Young who are needed in the legislature from a business stand point, not political, and he is a staunch republican.

Tawney Nominates Young. Since the nomination of W. W. Young for State Senator we learn that Mr. Tawney or his friends pretend that Mr. Young will be easily vanquished and seek to infer that he is a man much inferior to Mr. Tawney in ability and intellect. This being the opinion of the fusion crowd it has been suggested that Mr. Tawney challenge Mr. Young to a series of joint debates to be held in the different towns of the district, thus giving the voters a chance to judge for themselves as to the respective ability and qualifications of the opposing candidates. The question is now up to Tawney and his friends, do you hear any of them on the matter?—Please Call.

WILLIAM T. BAKER.

Chicago's Prominent Business Man and President of the World's Fair, leaves the Democrats and comes out for McKinley.

William T. Baker, ex-president of the Chicago Board of Trade, and of the World's Fair and one of the leading Democrats of Chicago, has made an open statement of his purpose to vote for McKinley this fall. In a letter made public today, he makes a powerful attack against Bryan, whom he says possesses 16 to 1 and lawlessness and is the greatest 'imperialist' since Napoleon Bonaparte.

Mr. Baker has been well known in the past for his convictions in favor of free trade and for his aggressive interest in the work of the National Tariff Reform League. Mr. Baker says, however, that even the Democratic doctrine of free trade has been abandoned for principles that mean restriction of trade, and through the populist attitude on trusts, a limitation of all successful enterprise within the state lines.

The letter follows: Hon. M. A. Hanna, Chairman Republican National Committee—My Dear Sir: The Democratic organization has passed under the control of public enemies, and no man who holds to the traditional doctrines of the party is under the slightest obligations to follow the present leaders. The policies that guided the party from Jefferson to Cleveland have been sidetracked for the sake of populists and anarchists. Even free trade has given way to Bryan's promise that he will recommend such traditional legislation at may be necessary to dissolve every private monopoly which does business outside of the state of its origin.

This would mean under populist interpretation and control the limitation of all successful enterprise within state lines; not a captivating program to suggest at the moment when American commerce is being pushed beyond the seas.

The Democratic crusade against Expansion termed 'imperialism,' is an absolute sham; a silly and hypocritical invention to divert attention from their revolutionary purposes. Expansion has been the policy and practice of the American people since the Pilgrims landed on Plymouth Rock, and no man who understands the real spirit of our institutions can be frightened by the phantom of imperialism which Bryan has conjured up for this campaign. Since Napoleon Bonaparte, there has been no greater Imperialist than Bryan himself. His will is the law of the party that supports him, and if elected, he would endeavor to rule the entire nation with the same iron hand. Napoleon deluged Europe in blood to reach a throne, and Bryan would not hesitate to wreck every industry in the land to attain the presidency.

This talk of imperialism is like the rattle of the snake that hurts nobody. It is the head of the snake that is dangerous and there you will find the free silver bile. The paramount issue is exactly the same now that it was in 1896. It is 16 to 1 and lawlessness as personified in Bryan, versus the gold standard and the security it brings. I shall vote for McKinley as representing the latter.

WILLIAM T. BAKER.
Chicago, Sept. 16, 1900.

Endured Death's Agonies. Only a roaring fire enabled S. M. Garretson of San Antonio, Tex., to lie down when attacked by asthma, from which he suffered for years. He writes his misery was often so great that it seemed he endured the agonies of death, but Mr. King's New Discovery for Consumption wholly cured him. This marvelous medicine is the only known cure for asthma, as well as consumption, coughs, colds and all throat and chest ailments. Price 25c and 50c. Guaranteed. Trial Bottles free at Raymond's.

THE STREET FAIR.

It has been held, and while from a financial standpoint so far as the business men are concerned, it was not very remunerative, caused in part no doubt by the rain Saturday, nevertheless it can be said to have been a success. No city ever presented a prettier appearance than Wayne on last Friday. The pretty booths of M. P. Ahern, F. H. Jones, Aug. Piepenstock, D. H. Sullivan, Raymond, Orth, The Raoket, Goll, Epler, and many others were models of beauty and would have been creditable to a city many times larger than Wayne. The Vandeville performances Friday were witnessed by hundreds of people both afternoon and evening, and the bands enlivened the occasion with music. Saturday morning the rain fell and for a while it looked as though the fair was at an end, and there was many a discouraged look, and while it seriously interfered with the proceedings and kept hundreds of people from attending nevertheless by noon it had cleared up and hundreds of people poured into the city in the afternoon to enjoy the occasion, and they did, in spite of the mud.

Hon. R. H. Catlin of Indiana, an able speaker, addressed a large audience at the tent on the issues of the day from a republican standpoint and he made many telling hits that made fusionists squirm. He riddled their issues "par amount" and all others to perfection and that he did the republican cause much good there is no doubt. The speaking began at 2:30 o'clock. Hon. John R. Hays, republican candidate for congress, and W. W. Young, candidate for senator, were both present and made a few remarks that were well received. After the meeting the vandeville companies gave an excellent afternoon performance on the big platform, and during the afternoon Wayne and Ponca played two games of ball, one resulting in favor of Wayne by a score of 6 to 3, and the other in favor of Ponca by a score of 5 to 0. In the evening the beautiful electric display arranged by Electrician Largen brilliantly lighted the streets which were thronged with merry makers throwing rubber balls and confetti and having a high old time, which was participated in by nearly every one. The vandeville companies also gave a very good entertainment. The ball at the opera house was very largely attended, and the fun continued until nearly midnight.

There are different opinions as to fair, but it can be safely said that if the rain had not occurred Saturday morning Wayne would have had the largest crowd ever assembled in a city of like size. The management had been able to clean up about all of the indebtedness.

For Sale. During the next 90 days offers will be received for cash or time on the B & N outlets 7 and 8, Crawford & Brown's addition to Wray, upon which are three houses, one a good 7 room building. They can be had at a bargain if purchased during the next 90 days.

A thoroughly equipped creamery can be purchased cheap for cash or on reasonable terms, if taken during the next 90 days.

We have also other bargains to offer in real estate. Call on or address, The HERALD, Wayne, Nebr.

In serving up a daily Bible lesson Col. Bryan has certainly struck a lead that is entirely new to the Democratic side.

The Bryan managers have already become afraid of Nebraska going for McKinley, and well they might be. A desperate effort will be made to save the legislature for Bryan's and Hitchcock's sake.

The liberty loving Democrats of Virginia regard it an outrage for the Republicans of that state to nominate candidates for Congress.

The career of Hon. Webster Davis is an illustration of the folly of trying to run a trip-hammer with the power engendered from a soda-water fountain.

The most dainty and effective pills made are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They are unequalled for all liver and bowel troubles. Never grip. L. P. Orth.

Ex-Congress Maorum makes a great mistake in stirring himself up again. The waters at Galveston are not a bit like Governor Pinney—they have soured.

Poisonous toadstools resembling mushrooms have caused frequent deaths this year. Be sure to use only the genuine. Observe the same care when you ask for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. There are poisonous counterfeits. DeWitt's is the only original. DeWitt's is the only original. DeWitt's is the only original. DeWitt's is the only original. DeWitt's is the only original.

Tablers Bookeye Pile Ointment relieves the intense itching. It soothes, heals and cures chronic cases where surgeons fail. It is no experiment; its sales increase through its cures. Every bottle guaranteed. Price 50c in drug stores. Write for circular at Raymond's, Boston.

Bryan says he hates a king, but he never hesitates to quote approvingly from Emperor Lincoln.

Col. Bryan has pursued the investigation far enough to determine that Absalom was a better man than his party. Large sun spots, astronomers say, and the extreme heat this summer, and doctors' reports of nearly all the people were induced by disorder of the stomach. Good health follows good digestion. Kodal Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. If you have indigestion or dyspepsia it will quickly relieve and permanently cure you. L. P. Orth.

Mr. Bryan's Warning.
"If there is any one who believes the Gold Standard is a good thing or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."—W. J. Bryan at Knoxville, Tenn., September 16, 1896.

CAUSED THE REBELLION.

The Philippine Insurgents Encouraged the Same Ways Were the People of the South.

Thomas A. Baker, a Confederate Soldier, Says Northern Democratic Sympathy and Encouragement Caused the Civil War.

Omaha, Sept. 24.—Thomas A. Baker of Memphis, Tenn., was a confederate soldier during the civil war. In a recent letter, in which he sets forth his reasons why he cannot support Bryan, he states the proposition as it is fairly and squarely. He charges that the southern states would never have seceded from the Union had it not been for the encouragement they received from the copperhead Democrats of the north, and on this hypothesis, he concludes that Aguinaldo and his followers would never have taken up arms against the United States, and would not be in arms now, were it not for the encouragement they have received from Bryan and other Democrats. In the letter he says:

"I do not believe that the southern border states would have seceded from the Union in 1861 but for the aid and comfort given them by the copperheads of the north. What one of the great orators declared that the Union army would have to march over the dead bodies of 40,000 Indiana Democrats before they reached the south, the magnificent utterance electrified Tennessee with hope. 'Thousands of men hesitated upon the brink of the awful abyss. They loved the Union and hated the abolitionists. The side of the Union was the only one with a moral and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the leap. During the war we saw Indiana regiments and brigades march through the ranks of Kentucky, and we saw the beautiful and patriotic sentiment. Slavery was a condition in which was invested the hard earnings of a life-time. At the epidemic crisis came the promises of northern Democrats that they would not let us be hurt; their bitter denunciations of the Republican party. The south made the

RURAL MAIL SERVICE STARTED BY M'KINLEY.

History of the Daily Delivery in the Country.

Democrats said that the Plan Was Impracticable, but the Republicans Have Thoroughly Demonstrated Its Value to Farmers.

Ideal free delivery of mail is the offspring of the McKinley administration of the Postoffice Department. Its development from an insignificant beginning...

A movement to broaden the free delivery of the mails was made under the McKinley administration of Gen. Harrison. It took the form of a free delivery, and was more an extension of city delivery to smaller communities than a free delivery to farmers...

It was a Republican administration that conceived and executed the idea of brightening the home of the farmer, educating his children, elevating the value of his land, stimulating the improvement of his home, and bringing the news of the markets and the weather's fit to secure him a better price for his crops by delivering daily his mail to him on his farm.

When First Assistant Postmaster General Perry S. Heath took up the rural service under the direction of the President and the Postmaster General in March 1877, it was a task of enormous magnitude...

They at once grasped his possibilities and advocated its immediate development and a Republican Congress generously seconded their efforts.

They at once grasped his possibilities and advocated its immediate development and a Republican Congress generously seconded their efforts.

The appropriations for the rural free delivery service have been increased from $50,000 in the fiscal year 1878-79 to $10,000,000 in 1900-1901.

Rural free delivery of mail has come to be a vital part of the administration which brought it into being.

Growth of Foreign Commerce. Our foreign commerce under a Republican administration in 1900 was worth $2,244,193,845.

MANUFACTURERS HAVE A VERY BUSY YEAR.

Exports Under the Dingley Law Show Vast Growth.

The Demand for Raw Material is So Great that Imports of Manufacturers' Material Have Also Greatly Increased.

The manufacturers of the United States are making their greatest record in this closing year of the century.

Evidence from Official Sources. Here are the official figures showing the importation of manufacturers' materials and operations of manufacturing in the fiscal years 1895, 1896 and 1897.

Imports of materials for manufacturing, value, 1895, $12,110,311; 1896, $13,053,173; 1897, $14,010,025. Exports of finished manufactures, value, 1895, $21,103,210; 1896, $22,521,312; 1897, $23,521,312.

The above table is worthy of careful study. We have been hearing, for years, from Democratic orators first, that free raw materials would help the manufacturers.

But now, the statistics show that the amount of raw materials imported in the three years is a crude condition for use in domestic industries.

Failures Are Fewer. The total liabilities of firms that failed in the year ending June 30, 1900, was $90,870,889.

Failures Are Fewer. The total liabilities of firms that failed in the year ending June 30, 1900, was $90,870,889.

JONES AND HIS COTTON BALE

How Did He Get His Trust Stock and What Did He Pay for It?

The composite chairman of the Populist Democracy, Senator Jones of Arkansas, is still resulting with considerable heat the charge that since he is such an important officer of the American Cotton Company...

THE POLITICAL SITUATION

Who is this Marcus Hanna, pa. That people call him great? Is he the man who holds the helm Which guides the ship of state? Is he like old Goliath tall— Like some steed in the sky, Or is he that awful wicked man Who whips the other crew?

WHO IS MARK HANNA? At the ex-cedes in connection with the presentation by the Navy Department to the city of Canton, Ohio, of a cannon captured at Santiago, the President, after repeated calls, responded as follows on July 4, 1900: 'My fellow Citizens, I will not consent to prolong these exercises beyond making acknowledgment for your generous call and expressing as well the pleasure which I have had in participating with my neighbors and fellow citizens in the observation of this anniversary...'

PROTECTIVE TARIFF APPROVED BY BRITISH.

Crockery and Glassware Manufacturing Stimulated.

The British Consul at Chicago Makes a Report to His Government Indorsing the Republican Protective Policy.

Advantages of the protective tariff system are being proved in this country to-day in the output of the British visors sent out of Chicago to his government, in which he deals with the china, earthenware and glass trade of Chicago.

The British protector has been the supplier of the American market, and he still continues to lead, but with the general increase of the production in the United States, and the rapidly growing competition from Japan, this lead cannot be maintained by a strict watch being kept on the market and the nature of the goods demanded.

The American earthenware takes a place next to that of the English and is produced in this country in quantities as heavy as the former and is more durable than the latter. The colors are not so brilliant as in the British, and the whole article is, as a rule, heavier and yet undegraded patterns and float blue have not been made successfully, and with the process the same purchases are now made from the United States.

The American earthenware takes a place next to that of the English and is produced in this country in quantities as heavy as the former and is more durable than the latter.

The demand for glass which formerly came from both an England and a United States is now almost entirely supplied by the United States, which also exports its glass to Great Britain and Germany.

The demand for glass which formerly came from both an England and a United States is now almost entirely supplied by the United States, which also exports its glass to Great Britain and Germany.

Through the Republican policy of opening the markets and creating confidence to general business, practically every workman in the United States has become wealthy since 1890, to have all the fresh meat he wants. The fact that the city workman can afford to eat more roast beef, chops, hams, veal cutlets, broom, pork, sausages, etc., than he could have afforded to buy in the past is evidence that he is getting more money in the farmer's business of raising corn to feed to cattle and pigs.

As a result of such increased demands for the products from slaughterhouses and dairies, which have been a by-product of the value of live hogs and cattle as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Item, Price per unit, Total value. Includes entries for Cattle, Hogs, and other livestock products.

SCUTTLE AND PANIC ARE BRYAN'S POLICY.

Why Richard Olney Supports the Nebraskan.

He Always Has Been a Believer in Dragging Down the Flag and Shirking Responsibilities Falling to the Country.

Mr. Richard Olney has been a public servant in the entire course of his life, and he has always been a public servant in the entire course of his life.

From their official utterances he has been noted for his persistence in these courses, and, reasonably, the country has been led to believe that Mr. Olney's policy is to scuttle and panic.

Mr. Olney objects to this policy. The American People Approve. It is a policy of scuttle and panic.

Mr. Olney objects to this policy. The American People Approve. It is a policy of scuttle and panic.

Mr. Olney objects to this policy. The American People Approve. It is a policy of scuttle and panic.

Mr. Olney objects to this policy. The American People Approve. It is a policy of scuttle and panic.

Mr. Olney objects to this policy. The American People Approve. It is a policy of scuttle and panic.

Mr. Olney objects to this policy. The American People Approve. It is a policy of scuttle and panic.

Mr. Olney objects to this policy. The American People Approve. It is a policy of scuttle and panic.

Twixt Life and Death

BY FRANK BARRETT

CHAPTER VII.—(Continued)

His wife pushed angrily past him as the light fell on the floor. He looked after her, sick with the dread of being alone. They stopped on the landing below, holding their breath to listen. The faintest sound, but the clicking of the blood in their ears. They were under a terrible fascination, possessed by an irresistible anxiety to catch the sounds that in anticipation terrified them.

They entered an adjoining room, treating the door as if a sleeper were there whom they feared to wake. He set down the light upon the table. There was a faint light in the room, but he could not find the door to the chamber that would lead to the light. She led irresolute and poured some water into the basin and splashed her face, attributing her weakness and sense of suffocation to the lack of air of the night.

Suddenly Mr. Redmond started and turned to his wife with a gasping mouth. "What is it?" he asked, but he could not hear a sound, not that they listened for. Somebody was moving downstairs.

A step in the hall. Silence. Another step. Silence. The husband and wife stared at each other, without realizing the cause of their terror. "A sharp rap, tap, tap." Somebody must be knocking at the door, but he could not see it.

He turned to Mr. Redmond, and the hall door had been left open to admit air. It was obvious someone had come into the house. But she still sat spellbound with a helpless fear. Another interval of silence, brief in itself, yet painfully prolonged to the two conscience-stricken wretches, then the handle of a door turned.

"You must go down and see who it is," Mrs. Redmond said.

Her husband shrank back, shaking his head. She snatched up the light and went out of the room. Then he crept after her. Better be down there than be found quivering up here, if that cry came, and this visitor should push up to discover the cause.

Mr. Drayton. He had walked into the living room, seeing a light there. His first words when he saw Mrs. Redmond were:

"Good gracious, madam! What is the matter?"

He had never before seen her without color on her face. But even color would not disguise her agitation from his penetrating eyes. She made some excuse about the weather and her nerves, with as much self-composure as she could assume.

Just then Redmond, reassured by her tone of voice, ventured into the room. The two ghastly faces presented a curious spectacle to the student of physiognomy, and excited odd speculations.

The weather, it was to be seen, had affected you, Mr. Redmond," said the doctor, taking his hand, wet hand.

Redmond faltered a perfectly unintelligible answer.

"If they had been doing a murder they couldn't look more guilty," said the doctor to himself, wrapping Redmond's head with inward disgust, and seating himself. "My dear lady, it was only a case of nerves," said Mrs. Redmond, with an effort.

"It is late," asserted Dr. Shaw, looking at his watch. "Half-past nine."

Only half-past nine. It should have been past midnight by the feeling of the woman and her husband.

"My husband has been ill; I was kept in the village," the doctor continued.

"How is he?"

"I have sent her to bed," Mrs. Redmond answered, recollecting Edna for the first time. "I think I frightened myself for nothing. It is only a bilious attack, and a very sorry trouble you to come out of your way, doctor."

Dr. Shaw accepted the apology with a bow that he could not see.

"And my patient—the woman—she is ill?" the doctor addressed the woman, but his eye was on the man, who, with his head turned a little on one side, seemed to be listening, and with an intense concentration of his faculties that totally alienated his mind from other considerations.

The doctor asked himself what would be the result of his visit, and with a perfect certainty that he was in mortal dread of discovery.

"She too, has gone to bed," said Mrs. Redmond, in reply to the doctor's question. "Indeed, I left her in her room to sleep, thanks to your mixture."

"It is the best mixture of herself she would never have said that. But her night was not proof against the terrible strain put upon her. It was only too clear that the doctor's suspicion was aroused by the alleged terror and mental collapse of her husband. She repeated her words the moment they were spoken.

"My mixture," he exclaimed, turning his eyes sharply upon her.

"It is the best mixture of herself she would never have said that. But her night was not proof against the terrible strain put upon her. It was only too clear that the doctor's suspicion was aroused by the alleged terror and mental collapse of her husband. She repeated her words the moment they were spoken.

"My mixture," he exclaimed, turning his eyes sharply upon her.

CHAPTER VIII.

The long-expected sound had come—a descending cry, an audible fall within the empty room. It was not the cry of a woman, but the cry of a man, and it was a cry of pain and surprise. Redmond and his wife heard it with a gasp, and they started and a sudden check in their walking brought their eyes met in a glance of mutual intelligence.

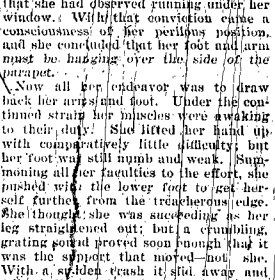

Startled to desperation by the sense of things, Redmond needed no prompting from his wife. He slipped into the hall, and he was there in a moment. He found the door ajar, and he stepped into the room. The doctor had pulled up the stool out of the room, and he was within reach, but Redmond hesitated to fire, and he held his hand at that distance. Clearly he had heard the cry; it would be fatal to let him escape with a wound. He stepped forward, crouching down, and trusting to the deep shadow of the house to avoid discovery. Suddenly the horse started, and the next minute the doctor was lost to sight in the darkness of the wood. What was to be done now? The doctor asked himself what would be the result of his visit, and with a perfect certainty that he was in mortal dread of discovery.

"She too, has gone to bed," said Mrs. Redmond, in reply to the doctor's question. "Indeed, I left her in her room to sleep, thanks to your mixture."

"It is the best mixture of herself she would never have said that. But her night was not proof against the terrible strain put upon her. It was only too clear that the doctor's suspicion was aroused by the alleged terror and mental collapse of her husband. She repeated her words the moment they were spoken.

"My mixture," he exclaimed, turning his eyes sharply upon her.

DESIGNS FOR MEN'S SHIRT WAISTS.

AN INGENIOUS MURDER.

Committed in a Professional Way by a Young Physician.

The story was told by a police commissioner of another city who was in New Orleans recently on a visit. "The most ingenious murder I ever knew anything about," he said, "was committed by a young physician. He was a rising practitioner at a place where I formerly lived, and with your permission, I will speak of him simply as Dr. Smith. About a dozen years ago, as nearly as I remember, this young man went on a visit to a relative in a neighboring city, and one afternoon, on the third day or fourth day of his stay, he started a lady member of the household by remarking that he 'had a feeling' that some mischief had overtaken a wealthy planter whom they both knew very well, and whom I will call Colonel Jones. The colonel was a prominent resident of the doctor's home town, and had a large outlying estate, which he was in the habit of visiting once a week. On the day of Smith's singular premonition he was on one of those tours of inspection, but failed to come back, and the following morning his corpse was found lying in a cornfield. He had evidently been dead about twenty-four hours, and from the appearance of the body seemed to have been seized with some sort of fit or convulsion. Of course the doctor created a great stir and the police made a pretty thorough investigation, but the only thing they found that merited any special attention was a small, round vial in the dead man's vest-pocket. It was about the diameter of a lead pencil by four inches long, and had originally contained a couple of dozen medicinal tablets, which, lying one on top of the other, filled the little bottle to the brim. A few pills remained in the bottom. Upon inquiry it was learned without trouble that the tablets were a harmless preparation of soda, and that Jones himself had bought them at a local drug store. That ended suspicion in that quarter, and for lack of anything better, the coroner returned a verdict of death from sunstroke. There was no autopsy.

INCOME OF $1,000,000 A MONTH

This is what Senator Clark gets from the United Verde Mine.

"It is the fact that he is a millionaire of $20 gold pieces," said Charles W. Akers, the secretary of the territorial government of Arizona, to a Washington Post man. The bill of $20 gold pieces which he referred to is the United Verde mine in Arizona. "It is a very good question the great mine in the world. There is so much silver, gold, and copper there that it makes one fairly dizzy as figures out how much Senator Clark is almost the sole owner of the mine. The other shareholders have merely enough for the purposes of corporate organization. The profit now is $1,000,000 a month. The profit is 5 cents too little, rather than any too much. There can be no possible doubt about the profits. Now the lowest levels at which they are working is 500 feet. You know how our very shallow workings. Yet if they go no lower, and keep working as they do now, there is enough to sight to keep the mine running with the same monthly profit for fifty years.

"If the mine should be worked to make as much money as possible, a tunnel would be projected at about a 2,500-foot level. It would cut out a river and furnish plenty of water. Borings have shown that the ore is of the same quality to this depth. It is the plan of the progressive engineers to add instead of 25,000 men might be employed at a depth of 3,000 feet. I would not even guess at what would be taken from the mine then. The ore bears gold, silver, and copper. If there were only the same quantity of one of these metals, the mine would be worth working for at least a decade.

"Not many miles away Senator Clark has owned property which the experts say is just as valuable as this. The title to this other property has been in litigation for about six years, but Senator Clark has won the final verdict. I do not know that this other property is to be developed at once. Arizona is in a very flourishing condition at present. The mining properties are getting on a much better footing. Formerly some of the Arizona enterprises had rather poor names, but the public is learning that they have real worth."

Not Play, but Pork.

The following bit of non-conformist humor is taken from "The Farringtons," an English romance. The speakers are Mrs. Bateson and Mrs. Hanky, wealthy wives, but not altogether above feeling a certain pleasure in showing up the ways of husbands.

"They're no sense, men haven't," said Mrs. Hanky, "that's what's the matter with them."

"You never spoke a truer word, Mrs. Hanky," replied Mrs. Bateson. "The very best of them don't properly know the difference between their souls and their stomachs, and they fancy they are wrestling with their doubts when really it is their dinners that are wrestling with them."

"You're right, Bateson," continued Mrs. Hanky. "I know a kinder husband or better Methodist man drew breath, yet so sure as he touches a bit of pork, he begins to worry himself about the doctrine of election till there's no living with him. And then he'll sit in the front parlor and engage in prayer for hours at a time till I say to him: 'Blessing, says I. He'd be ashamed to go propping the Lord with a prayer, when a pinch of carbonate of soda would set things straight again.'"

Longevity of Fish.

There are some gold-fish in Washington which have belonged to the same family for the last fifty years, and they seem no bigger and no less vivacious to-day than they did when they first came into the owner's possession. A few of the fish in the Imperial Aquarium at St. Petersburg are known to be 150 years old, and the age of the sacred fish in some of the ponds attached to the Buddhist temple in China is to be counted by centuries, if we are to believe the priests.

CARD PLAYERS' LUCK.

INFLUENCED BY ALL SORTS OF TRIVIAL THINGS.

Every One Who "Sits In" a Poker Game Has His Pot Superstitiously Specially Played that in its Latency Closely Approaches Gambling.

"Card players are a most superstitious set," said a business man who will occasionally "sit in" a little game when the limit is to his liking and the company of exceptional quality.

"There was a fellow one of the other night," he continued, "for one of the men when we were taking seats shifted his position because he wanted to play with the grain of the table. That is, he wanted the cards to come to him with the grain of the round table, and not crossways. This was a new one, as I said, but it recalled the fact that all of them have a weakness for superstition, where is the card player who will play cards with some outsider who has a foot on the fling of his chair? Then there is the other fellow who will get up and walk around his chair to change his luck, and the other who will never send a chip if he is winning. Why, I saw a man the other night who refused a chip or two to a neighbor in the game, but he went down in his trousers, pulled a roll, handed his friend an X, and told him to buy a few from the banker.

"Poker, too, has given the country some of the richest slang. Take the word 'bluff,' and where can you find a better word? It is completely accepted now by the best of writers everywhere in this country and England, too.

"Standing pat" was used in a country room a short time ago. Some lawyer was asked by the judge what he intended to do after a certain decision had been rendered on a motion. He said he guessed he would 'stand pat.' It wasn't strange that the judge comprehended the situation, and without a word went on after the other lawyer said that his opponent would do well to 'draw cards,' as standing pat had no reference was thoroughly understood by every lawyer within the calling. It was just at this time that the judge added to the confusion by ordering one of the bailiffs to turn on the steam, as his feet were cold. For the benefit of the uninitiated it is worth saying that the old feud refers to a habit of some small gamblers who play for the money and not for the fun. 'My feet are cold,' and getting out of the game when they are ahead.

"I know," replied a small boy before the speaker could get to his next sentence. "He crossed it because he wanted to get on the other side," and there spread over the boy's face such an innocent look of pleased triumph in having helped the orator out that it was really helpless to reprove him. But it spoiled the speech badly.—Washington Star.

NOISE ANNOYS AN OYSTER.

Slightest Disturbance Makes the Bivalve Close Their Shells in Fear.

A customer in a fish dealer's place was leaning against a barrel of oysters when he suddenly turned and addressed the bivalves.

"Hello, there. What are you gaping for? Getting tired of being chopped up, are you?"

A woman standing near peered timidly into the barrel. "Say," she asked, "are those oysters alive?"

"I should say they are," answered the man. "Look at them hustling for air. Keep still a minute and you'll see each one of them with mouth wide open—shells, which amounts to the same thing."

"Sure enough," after a spell of silence a queer rattling was heard in the barrel, and the oysters opened their shells and gaped for air, but the slightest noise closed them again as tight as a drum.

"I'm used to their performance," said the fish dealer. "Why, you'd think sometimes they were coming out of the barrel, but they are just taking a new supply of air, and they can shut up quicker than a wink. Oysters aren't so slow after all."

"I should say not," said the woman customer, moving away from the barrel as the rattling began again.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Sherlock Holmes Parallels.

A most remarkable literary coincidence is pointed out by a writer in Literature, who says it would be interesting to know if Dr. Conan Doyle, before creating "Sherlock Holmes," had read a certain anecdote recorded by the Jesuit traveler, Charlevoix, who died in 1781.

The story is of a red Indian from whose wigwag a piece of meat had been pilfered, and who promptly set out in pursuit of the thief. He had not proceeded far before he met with some persons of whom he inquired whether they had seen a little old white man with a short gun, accompanied by a small dog with a short tail. Asked how he could thus intimately describe a man whom he had never seen, the Indian answered: "The thief I knew is a little man by name, and he has a dog of the same name; and he is an old man. I know by his short steps, which I have traced over the leaves in the woods; and that he is a white man I know by his turning out his toes when he walks, which an Indian never does. His gun I know to be short by the mark the muzzle made in rubbing the bark of the tree on which it leaned; that his dog is small I know by his tracks; and that he has a short tail I discovered by the mark it made in the dust where he was sitting at the time his master was taking down the meat."

This certainly is so much like the deduction of Sherlock Holmes that it almost reads like a parody on it.—Philadelphia Press.

Jane Hadling's Eyelids.

A story is circulated about the way in which Jane Hadling's eyelids were treated when she was a child, which has given her those long, peculiarly shaped eyes, usually seen only in Turkish women. Her father, having lived some time in Turkey, had noticed how the eyelids of young children were all a little, which gave the eye of a grown person the almost shape so much admired.

SCIENCE INVENTION.

Botanists and entomologists know that dead swamps of dead trees, standing near living trees is a source of peril to them, by furnishing a refuge and breeding place for timber-borers and other injurious insects. Trees, as well as men, need hygienic surroundings.

In Mexico and our southwestern States the dreaded tarantula has been a pest for many years. It is a large, hairy, eight-legged spider, which swarms down upon the huge spider, the wasp pierces him with a single puncture from its sting, and then drags its helpless victim off to be buried, and to serve as food for a new generation of wasps. The wasp will even open the trap-door of a tarantula's nest and slay its enemy in his den.

Two writers in the National Geographic Magazine, Messrs. Garrett and Leiberg, after evidence that there is a progressive drying of the climate on the Pacific coast, being very remote, propose that the old plains of eastern Oregon were evidently covered with forests of trees resembling existing species near the coast. Mr. Garrett thinks that with the clearing away of the present forests the end of the redwood as a source of lumber will be at hand, because existing conditions do not favor its growth.

The London Optician reproduces the views of Dr. Koltz, a Russian physician, on fatigue of the eye. Whether muscular or mental, fatigue of the eye, says Dr. Koltz, may be approximately measured by the number of eyelid movements, or involuntary blinks, in a specified period. By this system, more than three movements per minute indicate a thoroughly unsuitable illumination. The experimental results obtained by this somewhat crude method are given as: Candlelight, 6.8 movements per minute; gas, 2.8; sunlight, 2.2; electric light, 1.8.

In France, M. Leboyer, trying to solve the problem of how to make photographs permanent and free from black change, has resorted to the plan of "firing" them in a furnace upon emeraldstone. He finds that the best stone for the purpose is the basal rock in prisons in the extinct volcanic district of central France. This rock, which is extremely hard and fine-grained, receives the enamel without cracks. This photographic film is deposited on the emerald surface, and after the photograph has been made it is fired until the image becomes indelibly incorporated in the emerald.

At the latest annual meeting of the Geological Society of America Prof. J. C. Russell called attention to the recent discovery that many of the swamps and lakes in the southern portion of Michigan are rich in carbonaceous matter suitable for making Portland cement. Although partly composed of shells, the Michigan marl is principally a chemical precipitate which is still being formed. "The precise mechanism of its formation is not yet understood. The supply is practically inexhaustible. Large cement works have lately been constructed, others are in contemplation, and Prof. Russell says that Michigan can easily take a leading place in this industry."

Paderewski's Hand Exercise.

How many great pianoforte players keep their hands supple has often been a matter for wonder, but Paderewski, the king of pianists, has revealed the whole secret. "The night before I play I turn my hands over to my father, and he rubs my fingers until they tingle," declares Paderewski. "Then he takes the finger after the other and turns and twists it in the palm of his hand always turning the one way. That makes the fingers supple and keeps the knuckles in good working order. Last he rubs the palm of each hand very hard—as hard as I can stand it. Just before I go on the platform to play I have a basin of hot water brought to my dressing room. In this I immerse my hands! Hot! I should say so! Just about as hot as it is possible for a man to stand it." So this is the way it is done.

Japanese Silk.

Japan is becoming a formidable competitor of the Creffelt silk manufacture, and is preparing to meet Germany and France manufacturers not only in foreign, but in their own home markets. No less than 4,000 power and 30,000 hand looms are turning out silk in Japan so cheaply as to give their rivals good cause for uneasiness.

A Gigantic Flower.

A five-petaled flower, nearly a yard in diameter, is found in the Philippine Islands. The sides at a distance look like gigantic cabbage heads. A single flower has been known to weigh more than twenty-five pounds.

If you had five good friends, or be hanged, would you feel easy?

SMOKERS' CANCER FALLACIES.

General Grant's Illness Said to Be Not Due to Tobacco.

Notwithstanding all the good arguments that have been offered against the evils of pipe smoking it can hardly be claimed that the habit is entirely responsible for the production of cancer of the lips, mouth, and throat. Since the illness of General Grant has been the popular belief that the dreaded disease from which he suffered was caused by his overindulgence in tobacco.

The facts, however, do not by any means confirm the theory. It was well settled in General Grant's case that tobacco in itself was not the initiative cause of his throat trouble, but merely induced a subsequent aggravation of symptoms by the extra irritation of the smoke passing over the already diseased surface.

It is quite true that cancer of the lip is very common among pipe smokers, but the real cause of cancer is not the tobacco or any special poison in the pipe, but the over-stimulation of the lip surface by the pipe smoke. Only pipe smokers, above all others, are particularly liable to have a rough surface for the lip, are mostly used by persistent smokers, and are usually held stationary on one side of the mouth all of which tends to focalize and intensify the irritation which determines the malignant growth. The first indication of the disease is a warty patch on the lip at the point of contact with the pipe stem. When discovered early it is perfectly amenable to surgical treatment, the percentage of cure being larger than that of any other form of cancer.—New York Herald.

VEGETABLE GEMS.

Bamboo Opals and Cocoon Pearls Found in the Philippines.

Among other queer things found in the Philippines are vegetable gems. There are not many of them though. The bamboo is empty normally. One might cut open a jungle of the giant grass and find unnumbered hollows. But once in a million times, or so, an accident brings to light in the bamboo stem a gem nature has added into a lump a little of the "lumpy material" which makes the outer stem so hard. The nature usually presents the appearance of an opal and several specimens are in the museums which reproduce the characteristic lines of that gem. These nodules are known as bamboo opals. It is interesting to note that the first chemical and mineralogical examination of them was made by the James Smithson whose name has established the first of the Smithsonian Bureau of the American government.

In the conditions in which the gems are known in the United States the opal in the cocoon is considered a fairly common thing. The really fine one, however, is called a white-bone opal, and is found in the finest oil which the plant produces. This opal is exposed to the hot sun for two or three days in a wooden trough until thoroughly dried. The last of the oil has been exhausted by squeezing the soft portion of the hands. Very rarely this opal has been discovered in the presence of small spheres which have been called the "opal pearls." Many of these opal pearls, all discovered in the Philippines, are measured to the size of a pin head, to that of a very small pea.—New York Herald.

SCIENCE INVENTION.

Botanists and entomologists know that dead swamps of dead trees, standing near living trees is a source of peril to them, by furnishing a refuge and breeding place for timber-borers and other injurious insects. Trees, as well as men, need hygienic surroundings.

In Mexico and our southwestern States the dreaded tarantula has been a pest for many years. It is a large, hairy, eight-legged spider, which swarms down upon the huge spider, the wasp pierces him with a single puncture from its sting, and then drags its helpless victim off to be buried, and to serve as food for a new generation of wasps. The wasp will even open the trap-door of a tarantula's nest and slay its enemy in his den.

Two writers in the National Geographic Magazine, Messrs. Garrett and Leiberg, after evidence that there is a progressive drying of the climate on the Pacific coast, being very remote, propose that the old plains of eastern Oregon were evidently covered with forests of trees resembling existing species near the coast. Mr. Garrett thinks that with the clearing away of the present forests the end of the redwood as a source of lumber will be at hand, because existing conditions do not favor its growth.

The London Optician reproduces the views of Dr. Koltz, a Russian physician, on fatigue of the eye. Whether muscular or mental, fatigue of the eye, says Dr. Koltz, may be approximately measured by the number of eyelid movements, or involuntary blinks, in a specified period. By this system, more than three movements per minute indicate a thoroughly unsuitable illumination. The experimental results obtained by this somewhat crude method are given as: Candlelight, 6.8 movements per minute; gas, 2.8; sunlight, 2.2; electric light, 1.8.

In France, M. Leboyer, trying to solve the problem of how to make photographs permanent and free from black change, has resorted to the plan of "firing" them in a furnace upon emeraldstone. He finds that the best stone for the purpose is the basal rock in prisons in the extinct volcanic district of central France. This rock, which is extremely hard and fine-grained, receives the enamel without cracks. This photographic film is deposited on the emerald surface, and after the photograph has been made it is fired until the image becomes indelibly incorporated in the emerald.

At the latest annual meeting of the Geological Society of America Prof. J. C. Russell called attention to the recent discovery that many of the swamps and lakes in the southern portion of Michigan are rich in carbonaceous matter suitable for making Portland cement. Although partly composed of shells, the Michigan marl is principally a chemical precipitate which is still being formed. "The precise mechanism of its formation is not yet understood. The supply is practically inexhaustible. Large cement works have lately been constructed, others are in contemplation, and Prof. Russell says that Michigan can easily take a leading place in this industry."

Paderewski's Hand Exercise.

How many great pianoforte players keep their hands supple has often been a matter for wonder, but Paderewski, the king of pianists, has revealed the whole secret. "The night before I play I turn my hands over to my father, and he rubs my fingers until they tingle," declares Paderewski. "Then he takes the finger after the other and turns and twists it in the palm of his hand always turning the one way. That makes the fingers supple and keeps the knuckles in good working order. Last he rubs the palm of each hand very hard—as hard as I can stand it. Just before I go on the platform to play I have a basin of hot water brought to my dressing room. In this I immerse my hands! Hot! I should say so! Just about as hot as it is possible for a man to stand it." So this is the way it is done.

Japanese Silk.

Japan is becoming a formidable competitor of the Creffelt silk manufacture, and is preparing to meet Germany and France manufacturers not only in foreign, but in their own home markets. No less than 4,000 power and 30,000 hand looms are turning out silk in Japan so cheaply as to give their rivals good cause for uneasiness.

A Gigantic Flower.

A five-petaled flower, nearly a yard in diameter, is found in the Philippine Islands. The sides at a distance look like gigantic cabbage heads. A single flower has been known to weigh more than twenty-five pounds.

If you had five good friends, or be hanged, would you feel easy?

SMELL IT.

NEW STREET FAIR ATTRACTION.

THELMA

The New Perfume,

A 75 cent quality 50 cents an ounce at

RAYMOND'S DRUGSTORE

Wayne, Nebraska.

LI TIENS

SMELL IT.

SMELL IT.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Mr. Childs of Norfolk, was a college guest Saturday night.

Mr. Mattison with some friends from Ponca, visited several classes Monday.

The exercises of the literary societies are held each Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

We had no classes Friday afternoon. Most of the students attended the carnival.

The meetings of the Y. M. C. A. are quite well attended. Prof. Gregg is president of the society this term.

The Y. W. C. A. meets each Sunday at 3 p. m. Miss Dodge is president and Miss Reeves is vice-president. The attendance is good.

Miss Amelia Reeves of Madison, was a college visitor during the carnival. She returned home Monday but thinks of returning to attend college during the winter.

Fred Pile returned home Saturday after spending a month visiting his grandfather in Ohio, and his uncle in Chicago. He had a pleasant time, and will now enter his classes for a year of hard study.

Miss Hinkens of Kingsley, Iowa, came over to visit her sister at the college and take in carnival sights. She was much pleased with our city, the college, as well as the various entertainments of the fair.

The college had a large number of visitors Friday and Saturday. Some friends and acquaintances called, but several strangers called to look over the buildings and learn something of the work we are doing.

Mr. Tawney of Pierce, called Saturday and was shown through the buildings by Prof. Pile. He is a very pleasant gentleman who is interested in school work. He is a member of the State Normal School Board.

Mr. Young of Stanton, candidate for state senator, was a caller on Saturday morning. He was pleased with the college. He met several of the teachers and students about the buildings but as no classes meet on Saturday, he was not able to witness our work.

All the teachers report the best of work in the various classes, and if all hold out as they start in we may expect the best year's work the college has ever had and that means something for the college has always had the reputation of doing a great amount of work.

Our classes begin reciting at 7:20 and continue till 5:30. Most of the classes recite between 8 and 4. But little study is done in the college building as we are only required to be there at class time and so much better work can be done at our rooms that not many remain at library to study.

A number of the students are planning to organize a class in parliamentary law to meet weekly. Prof. Gregg will instruct the class and as some of our members were in the class last year we know something of the practical value of the class. Prof. Gregg is a fine instructor in this branch as well as in his regular work.

CARROLL

Some farmers are now husking corn.

Mrs. Honey's brother is visiting here this week.

J. R. Manning shipped in nine cars of feeders last Saturday night.

M. S. Merrill of Vermillion is looking after business in Carroll this week. The carpenters are now busy outfitting out the frame for the new school building.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Xarx are visiting relatives and friends at Ottumwa, Iowa.

The Wayne carnival is over and the next in order is the big Sioux City show.

Station Agent Aton reports the sale of 118 tickets to Wayne last Saturday. (It was Republican day you know.)

Tom Williams is clerking in M. S. Linn's store during the absence of Harry Garwood, who is now visiting in Ohio.

Rev. C. W. Davidson, who has been pastor of the M. E. church at this place the past two years has been appointed to Wausa. A Mr. Carter, we understand has been assigned to this field.

Mrs. West takes charge of Prof. Kelly's room tomorrow and Myrtle Robinson supplies for Miss Manning. The change is made so as to permit Mr. Kelly and Miss Manning to be present at the Manning-Reynolds nuptials, which takes place at Creighton tomorrow at high noon.

HOSKINS.

Shannon shipped in four cars of feeders this week.

Mrs. A. L. Howser of Wayne is visiting at Hoskins this week.

Carl Keuz and Andrew Johnson returned from Idaho Saturday.

R. E. Templin is having an addition built to his house in the south part of town.

Six cars of grain and fat stock have been shipped from here since our last report.

There was not a drunk, fight or accident to mar the peace and quiet of our town this week.

Mrs. Peter Jensen returned from Blair last Monday where she had been visiting for a week.

There was quite a delegation went from here to the carnival at Wayne last Friday and Saturday.

On last Saturday this valley was literally flooded by one of the heaviest rains of the season putting the ground in splendid condition for winter.

The demopocrate held their precinct caucus here last Saturday evening and put Geo. Weatherbolt in nomination for all the precinct offices.

George is a good man and deserves a better fate than to be driven to destruction by so many nominations.

The hoodoo and hoboes played a game of ball last Sunday which wound up with a tally of 18 for the hoodooes and 30 for the hoboes. The game was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic crowd.

We are still living in hopes that one of the political aspirants will call a halt at our town and give us a roundup on the duties of American freemen. So far we have been given the go-by and we feel rather lonesome.

Married. BROWN-McRAE.—On Wednesday evening, September 19, at the home of W. S. Brown, Rev. Weiden performed the ceremony that made Ledy Mae Brown and Mord M. McRae husband and wife.

The ceremony took place in the parlor window of the bride's home, which had been most beautifully and tastefully decorated for the occasion, and was witnessed by a goodly number of invited guests, who showered congratulations on the happy couple.

Following the ceremony all repaired to the dining room and partook of a most excellent wedding supper. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable presents. —Republican.

Republican Caucus. A caucus of the republican voters of the city of Wayne is called to meet at the court house at 7:30 p. m., Friday evening, September 25, for the purpose of nominating precinct officers and transacting any other business that may come before the caucus.

NELSON GRIMSLEY, A. T. WITTER, FRANK GAERTNER, Committeemen.

He Looked Forlorn. "The most isolated, solitary and forlorn looking individual while on my outing to Hartington, was John S. Robinson on the train after delivering his speech the night before." R. H. Gibson.

An Unreliable Adage. "I suppose you pay a great deal of stress on the adage 'Money talks,'" said the man who gets familiarly facetious.

"No, sir," said Senator Sorghum. "If you had observed as many investigations as I have, you'd know that the success of pecuniary enterprise frequently depends on the ability to keep perfectly still."—Washington Star.

Kind of Her. May—"The girls were all crazy to know whether you are engaged." Marlon—"But you didn't tell them, did you?"

May—"Oh, no!" said that when the time came you wanted to announce it yourself.—Detroit Free Press.

The hardworking laborers and coolies seen everywhere in Japan wear only a narrow loin scarf and straw sandals. In cold and rainy weather they wear a makeshift of loose straw over their shoulders and a mammoth rubber hat.

The annual expenditure in England and Wales on funerals probably exceeds 10,000,000.

Ivy Wreath. Dr. J. C. Clark, Eye Specialist, will be in Wayne October 29th, at Leave Hotel.

Probate Notice to Creditors. In the County Court of Wayne County, Nebraska.

In the matter of the Estate of Charles A. Jones, deceased, before the County Court of Wayne County, Nebraska.

Notice is hereby given, that the creditors of the said deceased will meet the Executor of the said estate, before the County Court of Wayne County, Nebraska, at the County Court Room in said county, on the 5th day of October, 1900, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Order of Hearing. In the County Court of Wayne County, Nebraska.

The County Court of Wayne County, Nebraska, do hereby order, held at the County Court Room, in and for said County, August 1st, A. D. 1900.

In the matter of the estate of Robert Clark, deceased.

Reading and filing the petition of Andrew H. Clark, praying that the instrument purporting to be a last will and testament of the late Will and Testament of said deceased, and of the probate thereof by the County Court of the County of Marshall, State of Illinois, and this day filed in this Court, may be allowed, filed, probated and recorded at the law, will and testament of said deceased, and for the State of Nebraska.

That September 20th, A. D. 1900, at 10 o'clock a. m., is assigned for hearing and return of the said petition to said Court, and that any and all parties interested in said matter may appear at a County Court to be held, in and for said county, and show cause why the prayer of said petition should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereon, be given to all persons interested in said matter, by publishing a copy of this order in the Wayne Herald, a weekly newspaper printed in said county, for three successive weeks prior to the said day of hearing.

E. H. BERRY, County Judge.

One Fare Plus $2.00 for the round trip. Tickets limited to 21 days for return and good for stop-over at villages at certain points within a going (limit of 15 days).

A. G. F. A., L. O. B. S. BRUNNEN, Iowa.

THE EVIL SPIRIT. Often seems to possess those who drink evil spirits. That is only natural. Now if you wish to be possessed by a good spirit—and most people do—drink only good spirits. No brand of Rye could be purer, better or more wholesome than our Old Homestead Bourbon and Planet Whiskies. Try a bottle. It contains more spiritual consolation than one would expect inanimate glass to be capable of. In the opinion of choice spirits they are the choicest spirits distilled.

Marshalltown Buggies, Lacross Wagons, X-Ray Sulky and XX-Ray Gang Plows are the Best. Look at them. E. P. OLMSTED, Hardware and Implements. Wayne, Nebraska.

Rail Road Time Table

Table with columns for Trains Going East, Trains Going West, and BLOOMFIELD LINE. Includes destinations like Sioux City, Black Hills, and Omaha.

Railway Farm Lands For Sale

In Northern Wisconsin the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Railway has for sale, at low rates and easy terms of payment about 400,000 acres of choice farm lands.

Illinois Central Railroad HOMESEEKERS' EXCURSIONS

Twice Each Month During 1900. SOUTH. The Illinois Central will run Homeseekers' Excursion Trains from all their stations west of and including Yara and from points on the Lytle, Cedar Rapids, Onawa and Iowa Falls branches, on the first and third Tuesday of each month.

ARE YOU AWARE THAT?

The season is approaching when you will be obliged to lay aside your summer wearing apparel and put on clothes of a heavier grade. And are you aware that the best place in town to get your fall and winter suit is at the Tailoring Establishment of Tweed & Reed.

Our samples of Fall and Winter Clothing are the very best and latest patterns turned out by eastern and foreign manufacturers, and we can make you up a stylish and guaranteed first-class suit for a mere trifle more than you must pay for store clothes. Call early and get our prices.

Our Fall Goods Are Here.

Don't pay more than we charge you for Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Mens' and Boys' Clothes, etc. If you do you are paying too much. We have a larger and better stock than ever in these lines and are prepared to give you the best there is for the least money.

Our stock of Groceries is always fresh, and it doesn't take as much money here as at other stores to buy them.

Furchner, Duergig & Co. Highest Market Price for Produce.

Dr. Kay's Renovator. FREE ADVICE. Cures the very worst cases of Dyspepsia, Constipation, Headache, Liver and Kidney diseases.

We Wish it Understood THAT Crary & Fleming Have the largest and best stock of CARRIAGES in the Northwest which for the NEXT 30 DAYS We will sell at a very close figure. Crary & Fleming, Wayne.

A New Man At the Helm.

Having purchased the stock of goods formerly owned by W. C. Parsons I will endeavor to treat you in a way that will make you a permanent customer. My stock of

Dry Goods, Groceries, Hats, Caps, Shoes

will always be kept so complete and the prices so reasonable that you will be satisfied to trade at Hoskins. I am going to handle at all times a full line of

Hardware, Tinware

So that you need not go elsewhere to supply any of your wants. I sell barrel salt at $1.50 per barrel and have just received a car load.

Butter and eggs will buy goods just as cheap as spot cash. Come and see me and get prices.

CHAS. GREEN, Hoskins, Nebraska.

ROBERT H. JONES, County Surveyor.

Is fully prepared to do all kinds of work in the surveying line.

Address Box 36, Carroll, Neb.

Dr. Kay's Renovator. GUARANTEED to cure the very worst cases of Dyspepsia, Constipation, Biliousness, Headache, Liver and Kidney. At drug stores, 25c and $1.00. Send for Free Sample, Free Book and Free Advice. Dr. B. J. Kay, Saratoga, N. Y.

Kidneycure. CURES all Kidney Diseases, Backache, etc. At drug stores, 25c and $1.00. Send for Free Sample, Free Book and Free Advice. Dr. B. J. Kay, Saratoga, N. Y.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Digests what you eat. Artificially digests the food and aids Nature in strengthening and reconstructing the exhausted digestive organs. It is the latest discovered digestant and tonic. No other preparation can approach it in efficiency.

PUBLIC SALE.

On October 4, 1900, I will sell at public auction, at my home two miles south of Carroll, all my horses, cattle, hogs and farming implements, also household furniture. Sale will begin at 1:00 p. m. GEO. F. SCOTT, Agents Wanted.

Live, active men and women can earn from $5.00 to $10.00 a day by canvassing for Frank G. Carpenter's book, "South America: Social, Industrial and Political." This book is just out and is having an enormous sale. Everybody wants it. As it is being sold by subscription only, we desire representatives who are hustlers at once to introduce the work in your territory. Most liberal terms. Write today for territory and full particulars to The SAALFIELD PUBLISHING COMPANY, Akron, Ohio.

NOTICE.

Parties having 32 cattle and up, and would like to send them to London, Liverpool, Glasgow or Bristol, can secure space by writing to Ewart Bros. Ewart, Iowa, who have sent 1000 of their own cattle at a profit, and have more to follow; or write to A. C. Baker, their agent, care H. D. Copeland & Co., Live Stock Commission Dealers, Union Stock Yard, Chicago, Ill.

Reference: First National Bank, Montezuma, Iowa; or First National Bank, Charleston Iowa.

Editor's Awful Flight.

Editor F. M. Higgins, Seneca, Ill., News was afflicted for years with piles, no doctor or remedy helped until he tried Booklin's Arnica Salve, the best in the world. He writes two boxes wholly cured him. Infallible for piles. Cures guaranteed. Only 25 cents. Raymond's.

Superintendent's Notice.

Examinations the third Saturday of each month and Friday preceding, Saturdays—office days.

E. A. LUNDBERG, County Supt. of Public Instruction.

For Sale.

Pete Witt, living 12 miles southeast of Wayne, has 60 head of feeders for sale, cheap; for cash; weight about 1,000 pounds each.

MONEY TO LOAN.

$500 can be had at once on good city property with buildings thereon. Inquire at this office.

Fresh oysters at W. L. Jones' National Convention, Christian Church, Kansas City, Mo., October 11 to 18. For the above excursion tickets will be sold October 11, 13 and 15, good returning until and including October 21st. Fare $11.70. T. W. Moran, Agent.

You can spell it: Cough, cough, cough, cough, huff, huff, cough, or cough but the only harmless remedy that quickens your throat is One Minute Cough Cure. L. P. Orth.