There is an exhibition at Jones' Book Store the Ludwig piano. The Ludwig received the silver medal at the Paris Exposition this year. Also in stock the Weber and Kingsbury pianos. Will be glad to have you call and see these instruments.

There will be a republican rally at Altona, Saturday evening, Oct. 27. An able speaker will be present on that evening and will discuss the issues before the public. The McKinley and Roosevelt clubs of Plum Creek will furnish good music. Be present and hear.

We would like to have Attorney General Smythe show us a single republican paper that did not condemn Bartley and Moore and urge their prosecution. Smythe simply lied, plainly speaking, but he seems to be accustomed to it the same as all other demagogues.

Surber & Towner have painted on the front of their office in large black letters the words "Farm Loans at 5 per cent." The farmers of this county should think of this before voting. Doesn't it indicate prosperity and better conditions? Are you going to vote for a continuance of the present conditions or are you going to listen to the tommy-rot of a few local political office-seekers and vote to destroy present conditions?

If you wish to send to the United States Senate loyal republicans from Nebraska to aid this grand administration then you will cast your vote for Louis Smithberger for representative. Friendship is a good thing but it should not carry you so far as to cause you to cast your ballot for Walter Gaebler, who, if elected, would send or try to send G. M. Hitchcock of the World-Herald to represent this state in the United States Senate. Think of it!

Attorney General Smythe preached to a fair sized audience at the opera house last Saturday night his remarks being chiefly devoted to arraigning the republican party and lauding the fusionists, arraying class against class and touting Bryanism galore. He endeavored to make it appear that the fusionists were to be given the credit for prosperity in Nebraska, but didn't say what was the cause of prosperity in Kansas, Iowa, Illinois and other great States. His speech was one that would tend to make it appear that all republicans were dishonest and that only in the fusion ranks were to be found the true marks of honesty. But people are tired of listening to such harangues.

There are other Clothing Stores

SOME who sell good clothing—others that we know do not! We don't think we have a monopoly on the business by any means, but, there is one feature of our store which we know is far superior to any other store, and that is our liberal methods. We don't want you to keep a single article bought of us that is not perfectly satisfactory to you. We give you your money back and do it cheerfully.

If we did not sell thoroughly reliable clothing it is not reasonable to suppose that we would be so anxious to let you know that you can get your money back.

We find it a pleasure to treat people squarely—it's the only satisfactory way of doing business.

For fall and winter we have outdone our previous efforts in showing the greatest stock of Men's Suits and Overcoats in America, and at such Low Prices that we are bound to greatly increase our business.

Dr. Taylor, the Ophthalmic Specialist, arrived last night to remain over Sunday. His professional success is evidenced in the fact that he has been making regular visits here for several years while many others have come and gone, and he is strongly endorsed by such men as Dr. Leisuring, Prof. Pile and other men who know him the best. That Dr. Taylor's success is not confined to Wayne is evidenced by such reports as the following, dated:

Levidio, Minn., Oct. 12, 1900.—If in need of the services of an Ophthalmic Specialist, no one need hesitate to employ Dr. C. H. Taylor. Having devoted a great deal of study to the eye, I know whereof I speak when I recommend Dr. Taylor. During my 25 years of practice I have met many eye specialists, but not one the equal of Dr. Taylor. Cases he has had coming directly under my observation have been many and the skill he has displayed in work done for them mark him, in my opinion, as an expert of high order. I have not only found the Doctor up-to-date in his line, but thoroughly trustworthy in every particular.

Most respectfully,
CHAS. E. ROGERS, M. D.

Extract from a letter written by Gen'l W. H. H. Beadle, Pres't of the State Normal School, Madison, S. D., March 24th, 1899, after Dr. Taylor visited the school regularly for over seven years:

"Please permit me to introduce to your favor and confidence Dr. Taylor of Yankton, an Ophthalmic Specialist whom I have invited to visit our school and whose work and advice have been very useful with our students.

"Dr. Taylor has almost without exception done great good, seldom if ever missing the most exact results. He has a most ready practical insight into causes of eye troubles and often the corrections of eye strains and other difficulties of vision has proved the key to a situation and given us better students. He will not deceive any one and will never advise glasses unless the need is positive. His general advice is valuable and often cures without cost of glasses. Sincerely,
W. H. H. BEADLE, Pres't.

Not a Matter of Dollars Alone.

While it is true that you can make a considerable saving in dollars and cents by making your purchases at this store, that is not the whole of it. There is more than money in trading with us. There is satisfaction. There is style. There is a reliability about the goods, that won't make you wish you had bought something else.

There are people who are looking for bargains. The style is something, but they want a bargain in it—that is, a little more than their money's worth. To accommodate this trade we go to market and work hard to secure the bargains there. We have them—the bargains—in every department, and what is more they are bargains in stylish and reliable goods, a fact that makes them the more desirable.

There is another class of trade that deals with us largely to quote what we heard a gentleman say recently: "I always go to THE TWO JOHNS because I know their goods are reliable and in style, and that is what I want." The price never occurred to him, but he is buying his goods as cheap as if he was looking for price along with reliability and style.

In conclusion we will add that our stock was bought to satisfy the demands of our trade in Wayne and vicinity, and that our cases is in your hands. See and compare goods and prices and give your decision.

OVERCOATS.

We show a large line of Men's Overcoats and at lower prices than you will find in any other store in Wayne.

NEW MILLING FACILITIES.

Weber Bros Now Have The Hard Star Grinders in Operation.

The bakers and culinary artists of Wayne and vicinity have reason for much joy over the fact that the Wayne Roller Mill's have recently placed in operation the famous Hard Star Grinders. This new mill is a great improvement over the old way of grinding flour and is much more simple in construction. It is a two dress disc, has ball bearings, and requires only one-fourth the power of the ordinary grinder to keep it in operation. It is free from all heat and therefore does not rob the flour of its natural flavor. It turns out a patent grade of flour from a product that is not patent. The mill is the invention of Edw. Hard, of Fremont, Neb., and has been in operation here for about two months. Mr. Hard has been in Wayne for a few days making arrangements for putting in place two more mills in the near future. A reporter of the HERALD called at the mill on Monday and inspected broad baked of the flour ground in the mill and can say it is equal to any bread we have seen the loaves being very light and sweet. The Weber Bros. say they are well satisfied with this mill, and propose to give their patrons a flour product superior to any that can be brought in Wayne. This enterprise should be recognized more liberally by the consumers of flour in and around the city. Home industry should be encouraged as much as possible.

The conference between the individual operators and the representatives of the miners to arrange a settlement of the coal strike was held in the private office of President Harris of the Reading Railway Company at Philadelphia. The meeting was secret. The conference resulted in an agreement to accede to the demands made by the miners.

The Reading Coal and Iron Company, which issued the statement, withdrew the notice of Oct. 3, 1900, and to bring about a general uniformity in the advance of wages in the several fields, will suspend the operation of the siding scale, will pay 10 per cent advance on September wages, till April 1, 1901, and thereafter will pay the same as the miners.

Governor Poynter as a grantor of pardons to criminals does not justify occupancy a very enviable position.

Can it be possible that the only Jew left who is talking about to do great harm to the people are dressed in the clothing of republicanism.

When any paper or any man tells you that McKinley stands for an empire it is he deliberately lies. That is the plain unvarnished truth.

In the joint debate between Edward Rosewater of the Bee, and G. M. Hilkof of the World Herald, at Omaha and Lincoln, Mr. Rosewater seems to have had decidedly the best end of it.

The principle issue does not consist of issues, but the proposition is, do you wish a continuance of the prosperous times? If so you will cast your ballot for the McKinley electors. That is the only way. Don't make a mistake.

Poynter would make people believe that the prosperity in Nebraska is because of populism. But he doesn't say what causes prosperity in Kansas, Iowa and all the rest of the country. Why do such humbugs succeed in fooling the voters. There is no reason unless it be that some people like to be humbugged.

The campaign is on in all its glory in Nebraska and the apathy of the past has been brushed away and extreme interest is manifest in the campaign. Nebraska may yet give her electoral vote to McKinley. If she does—well there will be a hot time in many towns throughout the grand old commonwealth.

FOR STATE SENATOR.

Reasons Why Voters Should Cast Their Ballots for W. W. Young.

It is with genuine pleasure that the HERALD addresses its readers soliciting their support of the subject of this sketch, W. W. Young of Stanton, the republican nominee for State Senator.

Some among us had the honor of Mr. Young's personal acquaintance previous to his nomination. Others have since met him in person or have been permitted to listen to one of his masterful addresses. Others may not have done so and, owing to the size of the district and the short time intervening before the election, may not be able to do so. Those who have made his acquaintance or heard him speak appreciate his ability to creditably fill the position of State Senator. It is to those who have not that, this article is particularly addressed, and to them we say unhesitatingly that no more capable or deserving man ever stood before the voters of the Eleventh Senatorial district as the nominee of any party soliciting your support.

Physically he is an excellent specimen of robust American manhood, commanding in appearance and dignified in bearing. Mentally he is equally strong, thinks and acts readily and with decision, and grasps ideas readily and clearly.

The coming session of the legislature of Nebraska will be one of unusual importance. The work to be done calls for men of brains and perception. The election of two United States Senators, though important, is but one of the many important acts which that body will be called upon to perform. Work of importance to the state and which rises above politics must be done. The state must be reeducated for Congressional, Judicial and Legislative purposes. There are laws to be made matters of utmost importance to the state must receive their consideration and action. It is to the direct interest of every citizen that this district be well represented, as it will be with Mr. Young as its senator.

His opponent may possess some clerical ability, so does Mr. Young. More than this he is an orator, a statesman and a scholar, who possesses a clear and penetrating vision. As senator his voice will be heard on all subjects of importance calling for arduous discussion. In framing laws, in council chambers, wherever there is important work to do, wherever brains and sagacity are required he is sure to be in demand. Such men as he always command the respect of their associates and are never "pigeon holed" and heard of only when a ballot is cast and then by a simple yea or nay.

Elect Mr. Young and no senatorial district in the state will be more ably represented than the Eleventh. No constituency will have greater cause to be proud of their representative in the upper house of the state legislature than will the Eleventh.

RESORTING TO FALSEHOOD

Fusion Campaigners in Their Desperation to Save Poynter Resort to Base Slander.

Charles Towne's Oratory Never Raised the Price of a Bushel of Grain or a Pound of Meat.

Omaha, Oct. 15.—In so-called temperance districts in the state and among temperance people some of Governor Poynter's friends are trying to make votes for him by telling falsehoods about Charles H. Dietrich, the Republican candidate for governor. When they are talking to these people they tell stories about Dietrich being a saloon man, part owner of a brewery and of making a "saloon campaign." When they speak of Mr. Dietrich to the saloon element they tell them that he is a rank temperance man and is in favor of prohibition. There are 50 different places in the city of Omaha where the millions of Governor Poynter have been and represented that Charles H. Dietrich was not a saloon man, but a prohibitionist. They have gone into many saloons of this city and campaigned against Dietrich on the ground that he is a temperance man.

In other communities, among church and temperance people, they have taken just the opposite tact and circulated reports that Dietrich is part owner of a brewery and is in league with the saloon element.

Democrats and Progressives, some of them holding office, are going over the state in the temperance districts in the guise of temperance advocates attacking his record and spreading vicious falsehoods about him. It is known that one of the state bank examiners has devoted a great deal of his time to this class of work the last few months. He has kept his identity covered up and has been instrumental under the pretense of working for the good of the temperance cause, in organizing temperance clubs against Dietrich and in misleading by false statements members of churches and kindlers of the gospel.

The statement that Charles H. Dietrich the Republican candidate for governor, now or at any other time owned an interest in a brewery, saloon or any other establishment where liquor was made or sold, or that he is what is termed a drinking man, is as false and malicious a statement as any one could possibly make. There is not a word of truth in it and it is absolutely false in each and every particular. Dietrich has been in business and resided for many years, he is recognized as an exemplary citizen, temperate, industrious and a liberal giver to the churches and to charity.

Since this question has been raised it may be appropriate to give the good temperance people some inside history concerning Governor Poynter and the liquor element. The statements here in made can be easily verified. Here they are:

Governor Poynter appointed as collector on his staff Walter Moise of Omaha. Moise is in the liquor business on Fourteenth street, between Farmin and Douglas, in this city, and owns and controls upwards of 30 saloons in different towns in the state. He sells whisky all over Nebraska, as much if not more than any other liquor dealer in the state. Until about a year ago he was connected with one Jack Norton, alias John Rosenstein. In the saloon business in the south half of the building occupied by his wife's liquor house, Norton is a desperate character and his photograph is in the rogues' gallery in the Harrison street police station at Chicago. The resort run by Moise and Norton was a veritable dive. Moise stood in with the police commission at that time and blackmail was levied on dives, gamblers, thugs and thieves. These desperate characters made Norton's saloon their headquarters and the "license" thieves and thugs met there and divided up the plunder. The place became such a resort for bad characters that the authorities finally had to close it. During a city campaign which occurred about that time there was a falling out between Moise and some of his "heelers" and the result was that a public circular was issued in which Moise was openly charged with being a hoodler and the names of gamblers were given, together with the amount of money they had to pay each week for the privilege of breaking the law. It was even charged that Norton made a deal or demanded $75 per day from two well-known pickpockets for the privilege of robbing the people on street cars during the expedition. He so starved the police from arresting them. This is the Moise who is colonel on Governor Poynter's staff.

Last spring, just before the city election, Governor Poynter called for a number and made a deal with the brewers of this city to appoint a police commission that would permit them to run their saloons all night and with back and side doors open on Sunday and the brewers in turn were to give up $1,500 to the Democratic city campaign fund. This deal was made in secret and the names of the brewers paid and the police commission was appointed, but the whole deal was so fraudulent and unlawful that the supreme court declared the acts of the governor null and void and knocked out the commission appointed by him. Any one who disbelieves these charges has only to consult the docket of the fusion supreme court to ascertain that the commission was appointed and knocked out, and there are any number of people in Omaha who know of the deal between Poynter and the brewers. It is a fact worthy of note, too, that one of the commissioners appointed at that time by Poynter was and is in close and confidential friend of Moise and was aid is a gambler on the board of trade. Another of his appointees on the commission was a lawyer whom Judge C. H. Scott of the district court disbanded for attempting to bribe him. Governor Poynter appointed as superintendent of the state jail hatchery at South Bend and also as Omaha saloonkeeper, Stoup still retains his half interest in a saloon at Fourteenth and Williams streets in the city of Omaha. Stoup keeps nothing of the fish-stampy business and the property is practically ruined.

The official salaried attorney of the State Liquor League is Matthew Geary of Plattsmouth, a prominent figure in the state councils of the Democratic party.

One of the fusion regents of the university, elected at the last election, was at the time of his nomination the question the locally retained attorney of a well-known Milwaukee brewing company.

This is only part of Poynter's record on the liquor question. There is no "they say" or "so-and-so told me" about these statements. Some of them are matters of record and all of them can be easily verified.

Reverting to the reports concerning Mr. Dietrich, it may be well to state that there is a G. H. Dietrich in the wholesale liquor business at Crawford and there is a man named Dietrich who represents the C. H. Dietrich company, and it is possible that some people have confused these names and unintentionally done the Republican candidate for governor an injury. But these gentlemen are in no way related and are separate and distinct individuals. While some may have unintentionally confused these names they know the facts and their confusion is not only intentional, but it is malicious.

If the earnest temperance workers who are members of the Anti-Saloon League think they are helping their cause by supporting Poynter and by feeding Dietrich they are very much mistaken.

IS POOR COLLATERAL.

Charles A. Towne, has abandoned Minnesota and Michigan, the two states he agreed to deliver to Bryan, and has come to Nebraska to help stem the tide.

It is claimed for Towne that he is a great orator and has a happy faculty of making auditors believe that black is white whenever the occasion requires.

When Towne is all right in his speech, but it never filled an empty stomach, bought a crust of bread, raised the price of a bushel of grain or a pound of meat, paid off a mortgage, created employment for labor or a market for farm products.

All the oratory from Demosthenes to Towne never provided any one with a day's labor or afforded means of paying a dollar's worth of indebtedness. It is not bankable, you can not check against it, you can not use it as collateral security. It is a thing that even a slave might find it difficult to the slave to keep yourself and little ones warm. It never put a shingle on a roof, bought a pair of baby shoes or protected the man, woman or child from the cold.

Yes, oratory is all right in its place, but its place is not on the bill of fare when you want to order something for an empty stomach. Like the plumage of the peacock, oratory is intended for a display, but it adds neither value nor worth to anything. It is simply gay plume, nothing more.

There is nothing in the attraction between orator and logic. Oratory is the spray of logic. In politics it is often used as a bridge to span wide gaps and chasms in the chain of reason. Orators arouse the ecstatic admiration of their auditors and then, while they are in this hypnotized condition, lead them across these bridges without their knowing it. Though beset with danger, these poor, misguided victims of affluent humanity never realize it. Mr. Towne is no more of a hypnotist than a statesman. It is a certain thing for hypnotists to make their subjects believe that wrong is right. Under the will of the operator subjects have gone so far as to respond to every suggestion. They have given up their own minds because the hypnotist, through the process of telepathy, told them to. When they recover from their spell they realize their mistake. No doubt Mr. Towne now and then finds the laws and those who are speaking them. Here the hypnotized subject, swallow all he says as gospel truth. In the face of conclusive evidence to the contrary he permits Mr. Towne to lead him to conclusions manifestly absurd.

Mr. Towne's oratory did not prevent the hard times of 1896. His oratory did not bring the good times of today. This is something for the Nebraska farmer and a Towne to think about.

Let the farmers of Nebraska throw Mr. Towne's oratory and the logic of experience into the same scuffle and weigh them both. Do this before you vote. Remember that Towne's is Brypanian and Brypanian means low price and hard times. You do not have to be told by Towne or any other man that the Brypanian means hard times. This nation could live forever without an oratory, but it would go to pieces in a very short time without statesmanship. One ounce of McKinley statesmanship in the matter of erasing new markets for the products of Nebraska farms and employment for American labor is worth a train-load of Towne's oratory.

MEN WHO HAVE DESERTED BRYAN FOR MCKINLEY

GENERAL LEW WALLACE OUT FOR MCKINLEY

General Lew Wallace, of Crawfordsville, Ind., who has frequently criticized the Republican administration, has declared in favor of electing President McKinley. He says: "I shall vote for Mr. McKinley, and I shall vote for the entire Republican ticket. I shall vote for Mr. McKinley because the thought of the election of Mr. Bryan is abhorrent to me for several reasons. In the first place, I hold the officers for a candidate can take nominations from three parties without intending to feed some one in case of his election. In the next place, Mr. Bryan's financial policy is one which, if put in effect, would bring disaster and ruin on the country. Free silver is a menace to the business interests of the country. Finally, I am opposed to Mr. Bryan, as I hold him directly responsible for the death of every one of the brave American soldiers slain in the Philippines. It is the encouragement held out to the rebels by Mr. Bryan and others of this line that keeps up the struggle there. The war was over, but the sympathy and promises held out by Mr. Bryan have caused the fighting to break out afresh, and it will from this time forward be fought with more disaster to our boys, for they have slowly and surely been teaching their adversaries how to fight. For each man who falls there, he is inspired by the sense of duty or the love of war, Mr. Bryan is responsible. The thought of electing such a man as this to the presidency is utterly repugnant."

WAYNE MCVIEGACH CANNOT SUPPORT BRYAN

Wayne McVeagh, whom President Cleveland appointed minister to Italy, has decided to support McKinley and Roosevelt. His reasons are given below: "The controlling reason is the unwillingness I feel to trust the government of the country to the man who now represent and control the Democratic organization, standing as they do upon the Chicago platform of 1896. I fully appreciate the desirableness of having two great political parties to either of which the destinies of this great and growing republic can be safely committed, but in my judgment, the Democratic party does not at present meet that requirement. "It seems to me the present tendency of President McKinley's mind as to a foreign policy can be discerned in the true American policy he is now pursuing in China. "With the arduous question I have always advocated a single gold standard of value, and at last I find myself in harmony with the Republican platform on that subject."

FORMER CONGRESSMAN PAGE FLAYS BRYAN

Ex-Congressman Charles H. Page, Providence, R. I., writes: "What choice have I except McKinley? There are candidates besides McKinley, but I guess I won't have to look far. "Bryan—I know Bryan. That's why I won't vote for him. I am just as good a Democrat as any man in the South, but I am a Democrat only because I was with him in Congress. I knew him there, and I watched then all the populist tricks he had. "I am against Bryan because I do not believe in denouncing the Supreme Court, because I believe in upholding the Supreme Court. There is no longer a place in the Democratic party for men who think like I do. Men like King, who are called Democrats are letting things go along and helping this man in his course to get rid of him. They think they know in fact—that the only way he can be gotten rid of is to have him beaten thoroughly. "That's what I think of Bryan. I am still a Democrat, understand."

"MCKINLEY SOMETHING MORE THAN A MAN AFTER AN OFFICE"

James S. Evans, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I come of a long line of Democrats who have been conspicuous in the political history of the Gulf States. I cannot subscribe to the teachings of Mr. Bryan. Believing them to be dangerous and especially detrimental to the interests of the South, I shall cast my vote for the first time in the history of a member of my family, for the Republican National ticket. "It seems to me to be the very acme of insincerity for a Southern Democrat to profess to be an American, to love liberty, the right of the governed to be consulted about matters of state issues, to be a Southerner by birth; in politics a Democrat; an American by the grace of God, I shall, in the absence of a Democratic nominee, vote for William McKinley because he is something more than a man after an office."

MORE MICHIGAN MEN RALLY TO REPUBLICANS

Professor Ferris S. Fitch, Pontiac, Mich., formerly chairman of Democratic party committee, writes: "The election is now larger than at any other time in the history of the country. The McKinley administration has been such as to inspire and retain the confidence of the nation and the confidence of the business world. The result has been a period of commercial expansion, of trade balances, of thrift and prosperity, such as was never recorded in the history of any country. "John E. H. Norton, of Platte City, Mo., ex-member of the Missouri Supreme Court, an old-time Democrat, did not approve his party's platform on the money question in 1896 and he did not take in the cry of imperialism in this campaign. He regards it as a false issue and says: "I regard it as a mere blind behind which to hide the real issue, viz., the free and unlimited commerce of silver as a means of 16 to 1. The charge of imperialism is based by Mr. Bryan upon the action of President McKinley in endeavoring to maintain the authority of the United States in the Philippines by putting down the armed rebellion of Aguinaldo. I regard the silver plank in the platform, together with the assault on the integrity of the courts, as revolutionary in the extreme—as fraught with evil—promotive of disorder and bloodshed—destructive to the best interests of the law-abiding—at war with good government, and an invitation to the lawless to commit unwholesome acts with impunity. "John B. Doolittle, district attorney of Siskiyou County, Cal., and a leading Democrat of northern California: "The great civilization which we have acquired and are enjoying is the result of the discipline of expansion. I believe the action taken by the government of the United States in regard to its foreign policy is right, just, progressive and proper. "John B. Binsoades, proprietor and operator of the cotton and woolen mills at Aston Mills, Delaware County, Pa., former times chairman of the Delaware County Democratic Committee: "I am glad to see that McKinley has the support of Bryan. He is a man who is always trying to cause a dissatisfaction between the laboring classes and the capitalists, and in my judgment, these two forces should always be harmonious. I consider any man who endeavors to make these two forces clash, is nothing short of a demagogue and not a safe man to be entrusted with the important position of President of the United States. "John Warren Hardenbergh, Jersey City, N. J.: "Sound money. "Judge R. J. Graham, a well-known lawyer of Ottawa, Kan., was one of the strongest Bryan men of the city in 1896. He served as Justice of the Peace by appointment of Gov. Leedy and was nominated by the Democrats for the same office a year ago. Judge Graham has campaigned all over Franklin County for McKinley. "The only question of importance to me in this campaign is the question of 'expansion' or as the Democrats are pleased to term it, 'imperialism.' On this question I am fully in accord with the present administration and have been from the beginning. We have as much right to own, control and govern the Philippine Islands as we have the territory embraced in Texas or that acquired by the Louisiana purchase."

COLONEL MORTON, DEMOCRAT, IS AFRAID OF BRYAN

Colonel Morton of Fargo, S. D., an old-time Democrat, is out against Bryan. He was once on General Sherman's staff during the civil war and a few years ago was chairman of the Democratic State Committee of Minnesota. He is now one of the leading farmers of South Dakota. He says: "I note that (some) Democrats are making the mistake of claiming that the country who voted against Bryan in 1896 are lined up for the free-silver advocate now. I don't know how it may be, but it is not true in this section. I have been a Democrat all my life, but the free-silver heresy drove me—as it did thousands of other life-long Democrats—to the support of McKinley. The farmers of the West cannot afford to have a change in our financial conditions, with the election of Bryan and a Democratic Congress—of course I mean both houses of Congress being Democratic—a change would be inevitable. That it would be suicidal for our people of the Northwest to hazard even a remote chance of a change is evidenced by the fact that to-day our farmers can borrow on their rich acres from 40 to 50 per cent of their value, at four years to 6 per cent interest. From 5 years ago the prevailing rate was 8 and 9 per cent, and loans were much more freely made. The difference is all the better for the former. Mr. Bryan is a young man of ability, a young man of promise, and while I respect his powers of oratory, I should not care to be a member of a team in which he managed the finances. I don't believe that Mr. Bryan will be elected. I should regard his election as a great calamity. "So far as imperialism is concerned, I don't think that many of us are worried over the situation in that regard. I wonder whether these anti-imperialists believe that we should have allowed Spain to have sunk the Texas after sinking the Maine—destroying three or four hundred more of our sailors—before declaring war. I have a supreme contempt for the fellow that thinks more of his dollars than of the national honor, or fears that his cowardly excess might come in contact with foreign lead in case that he should be drafted and sent to the Philippines."

LEADING COAST BANKER DECLARES FOR MCKINLEY

I. W. Hellman, President of the Nevada Bank, of San Francisco and Farmers' & Merchants' Bank of Los Angeles, writes: "I am a life-long Democrat, but I shall not vote for Mr. Bryan for President. The 16 to 1 idea is, if put into practice, would upset all values. Everybody would be injured; the mechanic and laborer as well as the banker and merchant. America is today a creditor country and will continue to be so unless we change our monetary system. Let the ratio of 16 to 1 be adopted and it will drive out what gold there is here. Our securities will be sent back from abroad to be sold here in immense sums. One crisis would follow another. Manufacturing interests would be ruined; labor, which is now in good demand, would suffer. "Another objection Bryan is that he is not a Democrat. "I am a moderate expansionist. Without expansion I believe that this country would stand still, just as any large corporation does which does not expand and keep up with the times. I believe in holding on to every foot of land that the American flag flies over, and would not give up one bit of it. "California has been much benefited by this expansion. Our trade has grown and is growing continually by reason of the policy of the present administration. I believe that this trade will keep on expanding if Mr. McKinley is re-elected. It would be lost if Mr. Bryan were elected."

W. A. PAULSON OF THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE CO. NEW YORK

W. A. Paulson of the New York Life Insurance Co., New York: "Republicanism stands for all that will benefit trade, commerce and the industrial growth of this country. I believe in letting well enough alone. "Morgan Green, cashier of the Bank of McKenzie, McKenzie, Tenn.: "I will cast my first Republican vote this fall for McKinley and Roosevelt and the straight Republican ticket. I have voted for Bryan for twenty years without a scratch, and have always given liberally to the campaign fund. I voted against Mr. McKinley four years ago because I believed that the gold standard would take away the money which was in circulation. This was what my party said would be the result, and I believed it. Mr. McKinley was elected, and all have profited by the result. The gold standard restored confidence and opened the mills, furnaces and shops and farms. I do not propose to experiment any more. I am going to vote for the policy that prospered us under Harrison and McKinley. I shall vote for McKinley and Roosevelt. I am an all-wool, yard-wide Republican. "Jay Williams, leading attorney, Salisbury, Md.: "I could not vote for Wm. J. Bryan in the presidential campaign of 1896. I have now the same reasons. I believe that Mr. Bryan. His letter of acceptance and oft-repeated declarations on the subject show his desire to give up free silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 just as he did when he was in the Senate with the present administration, with the progress we have made under it, with the present splendid financial condition of this country."

W. S. MCCHESNEY, SR., VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE MEXICAN VETERANS' ASSOCIATION

W. S. McChesney, Sr., vice-president of the Mexican Veterans' Association and past president of the Union Ky., under Grover Cleveland, will support McKinley in the presidential race this year. Mr. McChesney has been a consistent Democrat for years and was in this section of the country during the late war with Mexico. He says: "The soldiers and honor of our country should follow the flag. No patriotic citizen can fail to support the party that is for the prosecution of the war against the United States. We are for fighting it out when we begin. When the Philippines are brought under control and the honor of the flag vindicated it will then be time enough to talk of the kind of government that can have."

JOHN F. MOORE, FULL RIVER, MASS.

John F. Moore, Full River, Mass.: "I am a sound money Democrat and an anti-imperialist. Let the nation dream big dreams; let it seek high ideals, but let it not forget that the rule of 70,000,000 people is a mighty responsibility, not to be idly entrusted to a young man with hallucinations, who always appears with a cure-all. Do not let Bryan's managers smile as he changes his last and draws into his net the anti-imperialists."

JOHN P. VALLE, DENVER, COLO.

John P. Valle, Denver, Colo.: "It is manifest that the present Democratic idea is not bimetallicism, but inflation, with rat inflation preferred. There is a war on the part of the smelters and the stamp mills, and not to the pulp mills, for money material."

W. H. BRIGHT, FORMERLY OF THE DAILY TIMES, PORTSMOUTH, D.

W. H. Bright, formerly of the Daily Times, Portsmouth, D., who has been an active Democrat for many years: "Prosperity. "James Malack, Scovell, of Philadelphia, the veteran of many Democratic campaigns: "The administration is all right. Bryan is a demagogue."

JOHN GREGG OLSON OF FORT RANSOM, N. D.

John Gregg Olson of Fort Ransom, N. D., one of the brightest young men in the West, who has recently abandoned the Bryan cause. Mr. Olson is a teacher and farmer and is an influential member of the community. Prosperity and expansion. "J. E. Defobough, editor, American Lumberman, Chicago: "Mr. Bryan is well willed to the party and the principles which he represents. His prophecies, and even his absolute assertion of four years ago, have been proved false, but he learns nothing. He would subject the Supreme Court to executive influence wielded by himself; he is the apostle of every financial fallacy; he is the champion of every foolish or dangerous dogma; he would subject the Democratic Party to social anarchy. Such principles suit a party, and such a candidate, I cannot support."

EX-ASSEMBLYMAN LYMAN W. REDINGTON OF NEW YORK

Ex-Assemblyman Lyman W. Redington of New York, a bred-in-the-bone Democrat: "The Philippines are legally the property of the United States and any of its natives opposing our sovereignty are rebels. Hence I maintain that legally, morally and commercially our Philippine policy must be maintained and the Democratic party defeated in the campaign. "S. L. Smith, mine owner, Detroit, Mich.: "Four years ago I thought Bryan was sincere. Now I think he has proven himself an arrant demagogue. I am a Democrat and Mr. Jas. H. Becker, Treasurer of the National Comptroller of the Currency, has expressed my views to a nicety."

George F. Weston, Belchertown, Mass.: "I have voted the Democratic ticket since Franklin Pierce was our President, but the pull down the Herald's 'split home' policy is too big a pull for me. I shall vote for McKinley and any American in whose soul dwells one spark of national pride who is willing to humiliate his country in the eyes of the world should be stood up and shot. "M. M. Huntington, farmer, living near Ottawa, Kan.: "Four years ago I was for Bryan. I shall vote for McKinley and the straight Republican ticket this fall. I am satisfied with conditions. I don't want any change. "J. W. Verkes, near Ottawa, Kan.: "Four years ago I voted for Bryan. I am satisfied with present conditions and think a change would be disastrous. I notice that all the Populist predictions of four years ago have proven false and every promise that Bryan made has been kept. "Wm. Marks, farmer near Ottawa, Kan.: "I was a Republican until four years ago. They got me off then, but they can't get me off again. I was convinced two months after McKinley's election that he had been misled. I have had enough of Bryanism to last me."

H. F. Shively, Leota, Kan., a school teacher, and one of the most effective mission workers in the campaign of 1896: "I voted for Bryan and he has shown that I shall vote for the straight Republican ticket this fall. One of the causes for my change is the expansion issue. "Chas. McMullen, Lane, Kan., a farmer: "I voted for Bryan four years ago. I notice that we have had times when the Democrats are in and good times when the Republicans are in, and am done with the Democratic party. "J. H. Wadsworth, banker, Leota, Kan., who has supported McKinley for two years and who is a man of wide influence in his community: "Of course I shall vote for the Republican ticket this fall. There isn't anything else for a man to do. "E. S. Smith, farmer, near Ottawa, Kan.: "I am for McKinley and the straight Republican ticket. I was a Bryan man in 1896, but you bet your life I'm a silver man now. "William Wheeler, near Ottawa, Kan., a well-known farmer: "I have voted the Populist ticket for ten years. I have been a Populist ever since the party was organized. A farmer can't afford to vote for a change in his government, so I vote for the Republican ticket. "J. H. Wadsworth, near Ottawa, Kan., farmer: "I was a Republican until ten years ago. I left the party when I saw that the Populist party was nothing more than a bunch of men who were set up in the Philippines with Company K. Any man who reads General Lawton's words to the people of the Philippines, and which he said: 'I am killed by a Filipino bullet, my death will be as the door of the Philippine sympathizers in America,' and then votes the Democratic ticket, he is a traitor to his country. My vote is for McKinley this year."

B. P. Sessions, Ottawa, Kan., undertaker: "You may put me down as one of the men who voted for McKinley in 1896 and will vote for McKinley this fall. McKinley's administration has been superior in every respect. The people do not need a change. "E. F. McNeill, near Ottawa, Kan.: "The things we expected to happen didn't come about. Instead of disaster we have had good times."

ANOTHER COLORADO PAPER IN LINE

The Boulder County (Colo.) Herald has decided to support the McKinley administration. The Herald left the Republican party in 1896. It says: "On the issue of imperialism, it is a misnomer the Herald believes in standing by the present administration. It believes in the light of events that the administration is pursuing the proper course. It looks upon the cry of imperialism as a foolish play upon words which should not be indulged in at all. The Herald has the highest admiration for Mr. Bryan. It believes him to be sincere, but it also believes him to be in error in this instance. Further than that the cry of free silver still has an effect upon the business interests of the East similar to the shaking of a seed in a ball. The fear of it would so frighten business interests as to cause a financial collapse equal to, if not greater in extent to, that of 1893."

PALACE LIVERY STABLE

On Second Street—Hall Block—next to Court House. "Mr. Carr has politics when he made the above statement to us and which does not seem to be his will, but it is another matter for him to settle with his own conscience. This way industry and progress the party of progress, we do not doubt. But we pass long enough to ask: Why do not the brothers display the picture of old copperhead, Knight of the Golden Circle, Adlai Stevenson—Wagner free Press. Mr. Young has never been an office seeker. On the contrary, he has been adverse to such preference and such positions as have come to him have come uncollected. On three or four former occasions he has been solicited by Republicans to accept the nomination."

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1900.

EVOLUTION OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

FROM "KICKER" TO "CROAKER."

Aggie to William. (An intercepted letter.)

Dear William: I'm still in a terrible strait, and yet they tell me that I'll have to wait.

Will you put the flag down in the fair Philippines. And I will divide when I get this Omaha.

My love give to Atkinson when him you see. And when you meet Wellington, kiss him for me.

Success, only make me the "paramount issue."

McKinley won't do," are the words that I hear.

Now, keep up the battle, I'm looking to you.

I pray for you daily—that all I can do. I keep out of sight, for I'll never be taken.

Remember, that in 1892 you voted for a change, and had no change in your pockets afterwards.

"DEAR BOY" LETTERS, No. 10

My Dear Boy:

I want you to do a little work in politics before election. I want you not only to vote right, but to get two or three others to vote right.

In 1848, Martin Van Buren failed to get the Democratic nomination for the presidency. He and his friends bolted the ticket and accepted the nomination of the Free Soil party.

"Hello, John, where have you been?" "In Massachusetts, making Free Soil speeches for father."

"Yes, and, d—n it, they believe it, too." "My boy, this nation's safety depends largely upon the political work of men who work because in their very heart of hearts they believe that their political principles are founded in truth and rightness."

Now I will tell you what I want you to do. I want you first to go down and see Barney Croaker. They have been stuffing him with the statement that the Republican party is the rich man's party, and that the Democratic party is the poor man's party.

I want you to go down and tell him that when a farmer raises a thousand bushels of corn, the farmer is richer and no man is the poorer, but some poor man will get the job of cutting that corn and be the better off.

Then go and see Will Barton. A Democratic neighbor is trying to get him to trade with the farmer. Tell him that this is not the year for a Republican to monkey with his ticket.

Department of Agriculture's Figures, Year. Amount. 1895. $709,875,731 Dem. 1897. 837,101,121 Dem. 1899. 711,764,297 Rep. 1900. 859,810,000 Rep.

WHICH? WHEN? WHY? WHAT?

Suppose we do make the Philippines independent, are we also going to make the Macnebbes independent?

To establish a Viscayan government and a Sulu republic?

How about the Negroites and the severity of eighty different tribes that speak different languages?

Are we to establish an independent government for each?

We must do one of two things. We must either establish from seventy to eighty independent republics or else impose the government of one tribe on all.

As such a number of independent republics is an impractical proposition, are we to impose a Tanager government on the Macnebbes? a Moro government on the Viscayans? a Sulu government on the Negroites, and so on?

If we are to impose one government on another, is it not better that we know beforehand what it is to be in other words, try our own government?

WHERE NON-ENGLISH PAPERS STAND

Ninety-two of the leading papers published in foreign languages, in the United States, show their presidential preferences as follows:

Table with columns: Year, Amount, Dem., Rep., Ind. for various countries like German, Italian, French, etc.

REMEMBER!

Remember, that in 1892 you voted for a change, and had no change in your pockets afterwards.

YOU GOT EVERYTHING THAT YOU ASKED FOR.

(From the Colorado Springs Gazette.) To the People of the United States, Greeting:

Four years ago you demanded work for your idle sons. You got it. You never had so many people employed as now.

You wanted your ill capital to be employed. You got it. You wanted to see the army of tramps mustered out. They are gone.

You wanted your soup houses closed. They are closed. You wanted to get rid of the receivers of your railways and banks. They are gone.

You wanted to see the smoke coming from the stacks of your smelters, mills and factories. It came. Many have since been kicking about the smoke nuisance. You wanted the savings bank deposits to increase. Never so large in your history as at present.

You wanted to see interest rates decrease that your people could borrow more cheaply wherever to develop your resources. You got it. Interest has never been so low as now.

You demanded more money. The circulation must be increased per capita. You got it. Got it so suddenly it almost dazzled you.

You demanded that one dollar be just as good as another. You got it. That is the kind we have now, and you can get all the silver paper you want at any bank.

You demanded the markets of the world for your surplus products and goods. You got it. Got it so suddenly it almost dazzled you.

You wanted us to stop borrowing money in Europe. We stopped it, and Europe is now borrowing money from us.

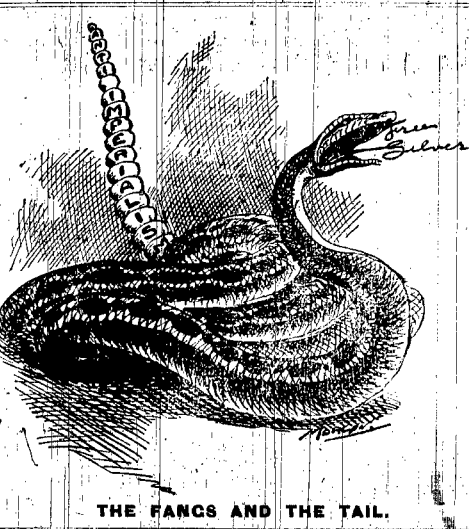

You wanted the government to collect every dollar of the Pacific railroad debt, instead of a PORTION, as Mr. Cleveland proposed. Mr. McKinley made them pay every cent, principal and interest.

You wanted Cuba liberated. It was done. You wanted the rights of our people maintained at home and abroad. It has been done.

What you really wanted the worst was what Mr. McKinley promised. "AN HONEST DOLLAR AND A CHANCE TO EARN IT."

You got both. Not from the Bryanites, but it was none the less acceptable to the man behind the dinner bucket.

If you want more things of this sort you can get them from the same source. Yours devotedly, AMMI PETTIGREW.

THE FANGS AND THE TAIL.

WHICH REPRESENTS REAL PROGRESS?

Anti-Free Silver Countries. Free Silver Countries.

- The United States. Austria-Hungary. Belgium. Brazil. Canada. Chile. Costa Rica. Denmark. Egypt. Germany. Great Britain. Greece. Japan. Norway. Portugal. Russia. Spain. Sweden. Switzerland. Turkey. Uruguay. Venezuela.

Mr. Bryan wants to transfer the United States from the first column to the second. Does it look as if it would pay?

WAGE EARNERS.

"The whole free silver movement is a conspiracy against wages." (Bourke Cockran, 1896.)

Table: WAGES UNDER FREE SILVER. CHINA: Unskilled labor 10 cts. to 20 cts. per day; Skilled labor 20 cts. to 40 cts. per day. MEXICO: Unskilled labor 45 cts. to 60 cts. per day; Skilled labor 50 cts. to $1.80 per day.

IN THE U. S. UNDER GOLD BASIS. Unskilled labor $1.00 to $1.50 per day; Skilled labor $2.00 to $5.00 per day.

WHICH IS THE BEST FOR YOU?

"Now, Simon," said Cynthia, "don't pretend just because your people are rich that we are still as poor as to his feet."

"Mr. Chairman," he said, "I feel sorry about the money that you have made before this assembly of wise men. I must disown all traitors in my family. I have always tried to treat my children right and to train them up in the way they should go, but I see my efforts have been in vain."

"What are you saying?" "I am saying that I have always loved the way that at one time the price of our family, but if she has turned out to be a cold-hearted traitor and have her name written with those infernal goldbugs, who could blame me if I discovered her?"

"I will therefore give to Miss Cynthia Grey, with the honorable convention for witness, that you are no longer a welcome guest at the home of your father; that you shall never enter my home again, nor plant your feet on my land, nor come where I can ever look into your face. I have no use for traitors, even if they bear the honorable name of Grey?"

SIMON GREY'S FAMILY. A STORY OF COUNTRY LIFE. BY ALMA L. PARKER. GUIDE ROCK, NEB.

CHAPTER VII.—(Continued.)

All eyes now turned toward Simon. All eyes now turned toward Simon. All eyes now turned toward Simon.

"I don't know," said Simon, "I haven't had a chance to take you to market yet. I've been too busy with my own affairs."

"Wages are good, but they are not what they were. They are not what they were. They are not what they were."

"Why, they're not altogether good to suit me. Why, it's enough to break a farmer up to live help."

"It's a sign of good times, Simon. I see you are prospering despite the gold standard."

"Will, Ezra, I am sure, in favor of free silver as I ever was, in spite of your so-called gold times, but that is not the main reason that my confidence is on the side of Republicanism."

"The principal question now is the Philippine war. It is a dispute as to this nation's honor and its future greatness."

"So you are an anti-imperialist, are you, Simon?"

"I am not an anti-imperialist, but I am not a pro-imperialist either. I am a realist. I am a realist. I am a realist."

"I am not a realist, but I am not a dreamer either. I am a realist. I am a realist. I am a realist."

MAGNIFICENT INCREASE FOR AMERICAN FARMERS.

Crop and Live Stock Gains of Over a Billion Dollars in Value.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PROSPERITY AND DEPRESSION.

A Marvelous Statement by the Department of Agriculture, Which Shows Why Farmers Are with the Administration.

The United States Department of Agriculture has just issued its statement of the value of the principal crops of the United States, comprising this year, with the value of the same crops in 1890 and adding the increased value of the same crops, published this year in its annual report. There is an increase of over one billion two hundred million dollars.

It is the difference between prosperity and depression—between Republicanism and Democracy.

The increase is given below:

Increase in Live Crops $ 710,722,017
Increase in Live Stock $ 331,444,474

Total Gain to Farm-
Increase in Live Crops $1,212,167,001

Corn	$13,877,912
Cotton	$2,674,437
Wheat	$62,098,000
Oats	$20,248,889
Potatoes	$7,673,362
Barley	$18,294,004
Rye	$6,546,390
Livestock	$60,225,544
Hickory	$4,311,424

The American farmers received almost $13,877,912 more money for their wheat this year than in 1890. Republican prosperity has done this. In 1890 under Democratic rule they received only $1,010,000 for their wheat. In 1896, thousands of them were starving and begging for bread.

The American farmers received $46,000,000 more money than last year for their corn this year. In 1896...

SOUTHERN PROGRESS AND PROSPERITY.

Shown by the Activity of Railroads and Factories.

The increase of earnings of the Southern and Southwestern railroad systems of the South and Southwest is an excellent indication of the improvement of business conditions in that section of the country. The advance from 1896 is shown in the table below:

Earnings	1896	1898
Southern	$6,584,257	$9,588,057
Southwestern	$1,541,770	$3,322,063

Total $8,126,027
Increase $2,184,957

Money has loaned at lower rates of interest, both agricultural and manufacturing interests have been stimulated, thereby and what stimulates these interests already stimulates the business of railroads. The one hundred shipments of the new cotton may not have been heavier because more was used in the Southern mills, but the out-bound shipments of textile goods have greatly increased. Also the increased shipment of the products of life have increased enormously, and this step of freight is the best paying of all.

Opening up new markets in Cuba, Porto Rico, and the Philippines for the products of the South, give great additional stimulus to the Southern railroads, which, geographically considered, derive unusual advantages from the expansion policy.

The extent to which new factories have been erected in the States of West Virginia, Kentucky, and Virginia is shown by the number of establishments started during the year of the Norfolk and Western road during the past year. These include:

- Three new cotton mills.
- One silk mill.
- Three knitting factories.
- One pulp mill.
- One cotton and linen mill.
- One cotton and woolen plant.
- Five new and steel works.
- One shoe factory.
- One flour mill.
- Two paper mills.
- Three sawmill factories.
- One tin mill.
- Four wagon and buggy works.
- One handle factory.
- One stove works.
- Three planing mills.

The future of the South is in developing its manufacturing interests and there are thousands of Southerners who already realize this and who are alive to the value of the protective tariff.

To Govern the Philippines.

They (the Philippines) will not be governed as vassals or serfs or slaves; they will be given a government of liberty, regulated by law, honestly administered, without oppressive exactions, taxation without remedy, justice without benefit, without distinction of social condition, freedom of religious worship, and protection in life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY'S MODEL OHIO FARM

Not a Political Farm, but Managed in an Able Manner, and the Place is a Noted One in the Countryside.

President McKinley owns a farm. A great deal has been written about Mr. Bryan's farm, but heretofore no description of Mr. McKinley's broad expanse of corn fields, meadows, cow pastures and orchards, which comprise 102 1/2 acres. His well-kept barns, cow cribs and waggon sheds show care and thrift. The wool on the backs of 200 sheep shines with cleanliness, for McKinley's farm is a model one and a modern one. Unlike the famous Nebraska farm of the Democratic candidate for President, the public knows little about it. Two miles from Minerva, one mile from Bayard, Ohio, it stands on a sloping parcel of ground surrounded by the orchards of Baldwin grapes. The Cleveland and Youngstown Railroad crosses a corner of the farm and the Big Sandy canal courses through the field at one side of the main road.

The man who has charge of Mr. McKinley's farm is W. J. Adams, formerly of Canton, but who was raised in Pennsylvania. He is a farmer who understands his business, and it is said, in the vicinity, that there is not a more prosperous farm in all that section. He has a half interest in everything. The fences are all kept up and there is an appearance of neatness which marks his work. Mr. Adams has lived on this place for the past twenty years, and Mr. McKinley is delighted with him.

THE MAIN BARN ON PRESIDENT MCKINLEY'S FARM.

McKinley's farm is a profitable one. In any season when crops are good it yields nicely. "This year's potato crop will probably aggregate 2,000 bushels. The corn fields have been known to produce as high as 3,500 bushels in a single year. Last year the meadows produced 100 tons of hay. The oats crop this year aggregates some 700 bushels.

This is ample fodder making time in this section of the country. Many of the apples on McKinley's farm, just at the present time, are being made into apple butter. The large orchard is an important part of McKinley's farm. One good year 1,700 bushels of Baldwin were gathered and as many more of other kinds kinds, making a total yield of nearly 3,500 bushels. Part of the produce of the farm has been shipped to Canton from time to time to the McKinley home, but none has ever been sent to Washington. Canton is about twenty miles from the farm.

The residence is a two-story structure, built sixty years ago. It is now getting quite old in appearance. It shelters eleven rooms. The porch is about the size of McKinley's famous front porch, at Canton, and then on to the upright part there is a wing which is a story and a half in height. The lawn is well kept, and morning glories grow upon the fences at one side.

Besides the house, there are six buildings on the farm. There is the main barn; the sheep barn, the two large wagon sheds, the scale house and the pig pen. The accompanying picture shows the main barn to the right and the main wagon shed to the left.

The McKinley farm is visited each year by people who, on passing through that section, hear of the President's farm and are anxious to see what kind of a farmer he is. One visitor once asked for a fence rail for a souvenir of his visit. The Adams family has become used to the kind of people that come to see the President's farm and are anxious to see what kind of a farmer he is. One visitor once asked for a fence rail for a souvenir of his visit. The Adams family has become used to the kind of people that come to see the President's farm and are anxious to see what kind of a farmer he is.

These views, I know, are not held by many able lawyers. It is a legal question—one that the political departments

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON SUSTAINING M'KINLEY.

Issues Are Now Just the Same as They Were Four Years Ago.

WHY HE WILL BE UNABLE TO MAKE ANY SPEECHES.

Bryans Get No Consolation from the Former President, Whom They Claimed Was Lukewarm in the Campaign.

Gen. Benjamin Harrison is emphatically for the re-election of President McKinley. He silenced all statements to the contrary by his slow and steady march through the medium of an interview.

Campaigning Days Over

"No, that statement has not been authorized by me," was his answer. "I have said to everyone who has spoken or written to me on the subject that I could not do any more campaign work. I began to make legislative speeches the year I began to vote, and have had a laborious life since, part in every campaign, State and national, since 1850.

"In 1896 I submitted myself to very hard usage, and then made up my mind and so said to my friends that I would do no more campaigning. Following this conclusion I declined to take a speaking part in the campaign of 1898. My retirement dates from that year, not from this."

His Work for Party

"Few men have made more speeches for their party than I have, and no ex-President, I am sure, has made more. Since I left Washington my retirement from all participation in party management has been complete. All that I have left to do, and I think they have very generally and kindly accepted, is the sense of the propriety of the case—attitude between campaigns."

"I was glad I have vacated the choir loft and taken a seat in the pew—with a deep sense of gratitude to my fellow countrymen."

As to Porto Rico

"Well, I have heard that my silence was imputed by some to that cause. Now, the only public utterance I have made in criticism of the policies of the party was contained in the interview, consisting of one rather short sentence, that I gave to the newspapers while the Porto Rico bill was pending.

"It was, in substance, that I regarded the bill as a grave departure from right principles. I still think so. I do not believe that the legislative power of Congress in the territories is absolute, and I do believe that the revenue clause relating to duties and imports applies to Porto Rico."

Is a Legal Question

"These views, I know, are not held by many able lawyers. It is a legal question—one that the political departments of the government cannot fully adjudicate. The final and controlling word upon this question is with the Supreme Court of the United States. I feel strongly on this question, and I understand, pending and a decision in which we must acquiesce cannot be made."

Firm Against Bryan

"The general reasons I gave in my Carnegie Hall speech in 1896 why Mr. Bryan should not be elected still hold good with me. His election would, I think, throw governmental and business affairs into confusion."

"We should not aid the election of a President who would, admittedly, if he could, destroy the gold standard and other things that we value even more. Our destructive suggestion that he has been bound and that a Republican party will, after defeat, still have strength enough to save the temple."

Quotes From the Past

"Perhaps it will save you some trouble if I give you, and underwrite as this case, this extract from my Carnegie Hall speech: "When we have a President who believes that it is neither his right nor his duty to see that the railroads are not obstructed, and that interstate commerce has its free way, irrespective of State lines, and counties that tend to use their ancient and familiar ways to restrain and punish lawbreakers, free trade and free silver will be appropriate accompaniments of such an administration and cannot be added appropriately to the national progress or the national disaster."

Prosperity is Cited

"The economic policies of the Republican party have been indicated by the remarkable and general prosperity that has developed during Mr. McKinley's administration. Such a period of great depression—such a period of great depression—such a period of great depression in this fall would almost certainly renew conditions from which we have so happily escaped."

"This fall dinner banquet is not a social occasion. It has a special significance for the Republican party. It means more comfort for the wife and family, more schooling and less work for the children and a margin of savings for sickness and old age."

PROTECTION FOR THE CATTLEMAN.

How it Helps the Northwestern Stock-Raiser to Compete with Canada.

Every one in Cass County, S. D., knows James S. Landis of Argusville, and he is pretty well known in the State. He has lived here some twenty years; is a most successful farmer, and attends closely to his farm interests. Being of English descent, however, it would be natural that he might favor free trade ideas, but he has evidently been studying the effect of protection and free trade on the farmer, and he sends in the following letter for publication, which is worthy of close perusal by all.

Argusville, Oct. 5.

I came down to Fargo to hear the Hon. J. D. Benhall, and his speech was the most argument I ever heard of a political topic; there was no gas and no wind; just solid facts.

I can give you a good illustration of his arguments, which I picked up on the train going to Fargo; it was a freight car, and I was sitting in a car from Mantoloking and he was along with 102 head of 2-year-old steers. He had shipped those from his home, eighty miles west of Winnipeg, to find a market in this country. He had sent him $500 for duty to enter this stock; his freight was 25¢ cents per hundred from Neede to St. Paul, and then he had to ship to Chicago. He had been five days on the way when he reached Fargo.

Now here is the point for it: brother farmers to study a little! This Manitoba farmer ships his cattle from the other side of the line to Chicago, pays heavy duty, pays the freight, feed three times on the way, suffers heavy shrinkage, and then sends a better profit to the city than he can get at home—and after paying all these expenses.

Here is where we free trade farmers are blind to our own interests, when we want the cattle to come to us, and if this was allowed what would we get for our stock? They would not be worth the raising and we would return to leggary, where thousands were before, under free trade.

Now, I am interested in cattle, and I have been considering starting in stock raising in the Canadian Northwest, where you can raise a steer until he is three years old for a dollar and half, and what can you get for him then? He's worth about two cents a pound, and he has to be a good one to bring that.

Oh, no, I guess I'll not try that, but I'll try to raise a few more and vote for McKinley and protection. That is good enough for me.

JAMES S. LANDIS.

DANIEL WEBSTER'S WARNING TO THE POOR.

Only Demagogues Will Try to Incite a Contest of Money.

I see in those vehicles which carry to the people sentiments from high places, plain declarations that the present Congress is but a strife between one part of the community and another. I hear it boasted that the poor hate the rich. I know that under the cover of the roofs of the capital within the last twenty-four hours, among men not used to despise means for the public safety and the public good, it has been vended forth as a matter of hoist and triumph that one cause existed powerful enough to support everything and to defend everything; and that the natural hatred of the poor to the rich, I pronounce the author of such sentiments to the guilty of attempting a detestable fraud on the community; a double fraud; a fraud which is no cheat men of their property, and out of the earnings of their labor by first cheating them out of their understanding.

The natural hatred of the poor for the rich! It shall not be until the last moment of his existence that I will believe the people of the United States capable of being financially deluded, exploited and driven about in herds by such plausible frauds as this. I admonish the people against the import of countries like this. I admonish every industrious laborer to be on his guard against such a delusion. I tell him the attempt is to pay off his passions against his interests and to prevail on him in the name of liberty to injure and afflict his country and in the name of independence to destroy the independence and to make him a hegger and a slave.

—Daniel Webster in the United States Senate, Jan. 31, 1834.

Held by Protection.

Mr. Bryan went to Salem, Ill., the other day and his remarks have been followed forth the following letter from a Chicago man:

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 1, 1900.

To M. A. Hanna, Chairman Republican National Committee.

Dear Sir—In notice in Mr. Bryan's Salem speech that he says "The Republicans are going to buy every vote that can be bought and have every vote that can be bought." etc. I feel that I have a right to ask you to get for him then? He's worth about two cents a pound, and he has to be a good one to bring that.

That interests me, and from my very humble walk in life I must confess I have been helped myself. The three years of unparalleled prosperity has bought, my friend, I think, but what you please, but I depend that it is about all that has been here need be in this campaign.

MARK HANNA

Address: A Multitude of People from the Band Stand.

The special bearing Mark Hanna and Senator Frye reached here Friday on scheduled time, 10 a. m. The distinguished American was once driven to the band stand near the Boyd where he looked out on a multitude of people that had come from the country for miles surrounding Wayne, while a good sized delegation came in from the branch on the morning train.

Senator Hanna's remarks which lasted 10 minutes, was listened to with the closest attention. After answering the question as to "where were his horns," which he said he had shed, he devoted his time to a clear statement of the fact of existing prosperity and as to whether the people should declare for a continuance of the same as the paramount issue. His talk was well received and frequently greeted with applause.

Large crowds also heard Mr. Hanna at Emerson, Wakefield and Winslow. At the conclusion of his remarks here C. F. Reavis of Falls City, was introduced who made a strong and logical speech in regard to Bryan's several paramount issues. The speaker was frequently greeted with applause during his address of nearly one hour which was a masterly effort.

"One of the best places I ever found in which to think, was while plowing a nice piece of clean stubble ground," says the Iowa Homestead. "Some of the most difficult problems of life have been solved while walking between the plow handles. The walking invigorates the thinking apparatus."

At the conclusion of Mark Hanna's address here Friday, an old soldier, with gray hair, who had come all the way from Cumock county to see Mr. Hanna, rushed up to the senator and said, "Senator, I want to shake hands with you; I think you are the most vilified man in the world."

W. W. Young, republican candidate for State Senator, is pledged to no man, for United States Senator, either directly or by implication, and all assertions that he is so pledged are but false representations of his opponents, who realize the desperateness of the situation they are in, and accordingly should meet the condemnation of every honest voter of the district. —Stanton Picket.

Augusta has witnessed some good entertainments but no one has performed upon the stage that was so thoroughly master of his art as Victor Lee! His feats of juggling and tricks of legerie main were simply perfection. Columns might be written in praise of his feats but time does not permit the writer to go into details—at least not this week.

"The Jack in the Box" trick were Lee allows himself to be securely tied hand and foot, placed in a solid box and is bound with rope and sealed and in two minutes appear in the doorway back of the audience while the box and sack are securely tied and sealed, is unexplainable. —Augusta Journal.

The Democrat says to make a very liberal estimate 800 to 1000 people heard Mark Hanna here. So far as we are concerned it matters not how many people there were, but one thing is sure, Wait is putting the population of Wayne too low. The schools were closed, excepting the primary department, and there were few people in the city who did not make an effort to see Hanna, numbering at least from 1200 to 1500. There wasn't a hitching post in the business part of the city that did not have a team tied to it, on 1st, 2nd, 3rd, or Pearl St., besides the many teams that were put up at the livery stable, so that at least not less than 2500 people saw Hanna here, notwith standing the fact that he was at the nearby towns of Winslow and Wakefield. Of course in the eyes of the fusionists, republican meetings are not successful. It won't be but one week from next Tuesday until it will develop whether such is the case or not.

Talk about the name of Mark Hanna throwing pops and demo-pops into it! The sight of the picture of Abraham Lincoln in a cornered meeting comes just about as near throwing republicans into it. These disciples of democracy claim that democratic principles are the same yesterday, today forever; if so, why is the "tyrant" Lincoln, of the democratic party of 1864, the painted Lincoln of the democratic party of 1900. Abraham Lincoln stood for "free homesteads; against American slavery; for sound, honest money and the redemption in full of all obligations; protection to all American industries, and loyalty to the flag under all circumstances, and that is the position of the republican party today.

When the immaculate Bryan takes snuff, Mike Harrington, W. H. Thompson and the Kronicle man sneezes; although the Kronicle man sneezes he is the only true and genuine "Abe Lincoln" republican. —Abraham Lincoln was called by the ancestors of these democrats the "tyrant" and "labour" the "imperialist," the "emperor," the "king," the "dictator," the "usurper," and God knows what they did not call him. Will Wm. McKinley be the same democratic saint thirty-six years hence? The way democracy trails along behind the party of progress, we do not doubt it.

But we pause long enough to ask: Why do not the brothers display the picture of old copperhead, Knight of the Golden Circle, Adlai Stevenson? —Wiener free Press.

WILLIAM W. YOUNG.

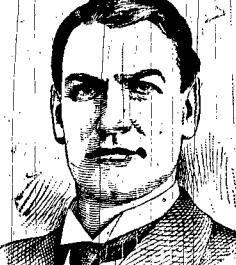

Republican Candidate for State Senator in Eleventh District.

SKETCH OF HIS CAREER.

Character and Standing of the Well-Known Attorney Make Him an Ideal Candidate.

W. W. Young of Stanton county is the man nominated for state senator by the Republicans of the Eleventh senatorial district of Nebraska, at their convention held at Norfolk, Wednesday, Sept. 12, 1900.

No conviction has ever shown harmony and enthusiasm prevailed. Mr. Young was not an aspirant for the position, and in fact had previously refused to allow the use of his name in the convention, but as a true Republican accepted the honor which was tendered him by unanimous voice of the convention over his protest, and

In a short speech expressed his appreciation of the confidence thus expressed by his fellow Republicans.

SKETCH OF THE CANDIDATE.

William Wallace Young is a native of Illinois. He was born on a farm in Warren county near Monmouth, of that state. His parents were John Young and Mary Wilson Young, both natives of Scotland who came to America and settled in the Sucker state shortly after their marriage in 1849, where they resided, filled the soil and reared a large family. W. W. Young being the third son and fifth child of a family of 14 children and five daughters.

At the age of 5 years Wallace, as he was called at home, received a fall, which resulted in a physical injury which confined him to his bed for nearly four years, and on his recovery it was his parents' wish that he should never be able to do much hard manual work, and they at once set about to give him a good education, the rudiments of which were acquired at the district school of which the Young homestead formed a part. At the age of 14 years he entered the Monmouth Presbyterian college as a student in the sub-freshman year, being at that time the youngest student in the college. After a three years' course in that excellent institution of learning he became the teacher of the district school where as a hard-foot urchin he had gone as a pupil only a few years previous. Here his work was such that the taught, for four terms, and had contracted for another year when, at his father's request, his plans were changed.

The elder Young was a devout Methodist and it was his desire that his son, who had already developed such marked ability in the grasping of ideas, should become a minister of that denomination. To this plan the son did not take kindly, preferring law to theology, and parental consent was finally given and arrangements made for his entering a law college. This plan was, however, changed at the advice of a prominent lawyer who was also a personal friend of the family, and instead of going to a law college he entered the office of Stewart, Phelps & Greer, at that time regarded as among the strongest law firms in western Illinois.

In April, 1880, he was admitted to the bar and located at Mt. Airy, Ia., where he established an office and followed the practice of his chosen profession for two years, meeting with good success for a young attorney.

At Mt. Airy he was united in marriage to Miss Clara Belle Keller, second daughter of Judge Keller, and at once came to Nebraska and located in Stanton in the spring of 1882, where he has since resided.

Aside from his farming interests his entire attention has been devoted to law, with marked success, so pronounced in fact has been that success, that, locating at Stanton as he did, without money and with only a few law books, he soon established a lucrative practice and has retained it to the present time, and now has one of the best furnished law offices in the state, and a pleasant home.

Having been reared on a farm his desires turned in that direction and as soon as he possessed the required means invested in farm-lands, and for the past eight years has owned and operated a farm of 640 acres, which is under the management of a younger brother, Joseph, with his now aged mother, and youngest sister as house-keepers. The land is all under good cultivation, and from 150 to 250 head of cattle are fed there annually.

Mr. and Mrs. Young's family consists of four bright children, three daughters and one son. Their home life and home surroundings are most pleasant and agreeable, and this home is noted for its hospitality.

NOT AN OFFICE SEEKER.

Mr. Young has never been an office seeker. On the contrary, he has been averse to such preferment and such positions as have come to him have come unsolicited. On three or four former occasions he has been solicited by Republicans to accept the nomina-

ECZEMA = SATANIC ITCH.

This most aggravating and tormenting of all skin diseases is caused by an acrid condition of the blood, and unless relieved through certain instrumentalities too much of this acid poison reaches the skin and it becomes red and inflamed. The itching and burning are almost unbearable, especially when aggravated by any cause. The skin seems on fire, sleep or rest is impossible, the desperate sufferer, regardless of consequences, scratches until strength is exhausted. This burning, itching humor appears sometimes in little pustules, discharging a sticky fluid, which forms crusts and scales. Again the skin is dry, hard and fissured, itches intensely, bleeds and scales over. This is a painful and stubborn form of the disease.

THERE CAN BE NO EXTERNAL IRRITATION WITHOUT AN INTERNAL CAUSE.

If the blood is in a pure, healthy condition, no poisonous elements can reach the skin. External applications of washes, lotions and salves sometimes mitigate the itching and soothe the inflammation, but cannot reach the disease. Only S. S. S., the real blood medicine, can do this. S. S. S., the only purely vegetable remedy known, is a safe and permanent cure for Eczema and all deep-seated blood and skin troubles. It goes direct to the seat of the disease, neutralizes the acids and cleanses the blood, re-inforces and invigorates all the organs, and thus clears the system of all impurities through the natural channels; the skin relieved, all inflammation subsides, and all signs of the disease disappear.

Mrs. Leta M. Hoffman, of Carlington, Ohio, says she was afflicted with Scrofulous sores and Eczema from birth. Her face at times became so badly swollen that she was not recognizable, and her limbs were so distorted that she was treated by all the doctors in town without being benefited, and in the end, after a year's treatment, she was told by an old physician to take S. S. S. She followed his advice and was promptly cured, and has never had a return of the disease. This was seventeen years ago. She sincerely trusts that she would have been in her grave years ago had not S. S. S. been used, which it has done for her. It will do for others.

Send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases, and write our physicians fully about your case; they will cheerfully give any information or advice wanted. We make no charge for this. Address, Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

HOSKINS.

Geo. Kantz and Aug. Garz started for Idaho, Tuesday.

Cattle and hogs are still leaving here by the carload.

John Shannon went to Omaha with stock Tuesday.

The city duds are having some more street grading done.

Preaching at the M. E. church next Sunday morning and evening.

The terrible downpour of rain that lasted thirty-six hours has passed over and it now looks like Indian summer.

Wm. Wright spoke to fair sized audience on Monday evening. Had there not been a pour down of rain the hall would have been full.

The Stone culvert men on the railroad are with us this week and so far have proved themselves to be an industrious and civil company of men.

Louis Smithberger and W. W. Young stopped at the depot on Tuesday while the engine does some switching and had a special greeting with some of our leading citizens.

Our people of town, country and school turned out in a mass to greet and welcome Mark Hanna, the man who according to pop theories is possessed of both hoofs and horns.

W. W. Young, candidate for state senator had a full house the evening he was here last week and from all appearances Hoskins precinct will do her part to send him to the senate this winter.

There has been a gang of horse traders with a drove of inferior horses in this vicinity for a week but from all that we can learn they had rather slim picking and yesterday started for greener fields.

CARROLL.

Mrs. Baker was at Wayne yesterday.

Geo. Merrill was at Randolph yesterday.

Fred Wilcox drove to Wayne Saturday.

Sam Williamson was in Wayne Monday.

Roy Johnson was over from Winside Saturday evening.

Fred Schaefer is suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

Mr. Tawney and Walter Gaebler were in Carroll Saturday.

J. R. Manning returned home from Omaha Tuesday evening with ten cars of stock.

Miss Neff received word that her mother had lost her eyesight and was very ill.

Quite a number of Carrolls went to Wayne Friday to see and hear Mark A. Hanna.

Carroll will in all probabilities, be well represented at the political meeting in Wayne tonight.

Farmers are busy hocking corn and the field is reported all the way from 20 to 30 bushel per acre.

O. H. Wolf took advantage of the excursion to Minneapolis Saturday and spent Sunday in that city.

Hunking 25 cent corn seems to be the immediate and paramount issue with farmers just at present.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Manning have gone to house keeping in the residence lately vacated by Ma. Cronk.

M. S. Merrill has disposed of his store at Vermilion, S. D. and has opened up a clothing store in Carroll.

Ben Bardwell who has been confined to his home the past week with a sprained knee is able to be around again.

Republican: F. A. Berry of Carroll, has purchased the residence of Frank Hood and will move to Wayne.

Frank is moving to day.

The Philippine view exhibition, in the hall last Thursday evening was excellent and gave one a good idea of the people of those islands their mode of living, dress, etc. The hall was filled to overflowing and everybody seemed very well pleased with the entire entertainment. Proceeding the Philippine View, Mr. Mathews of New York made a short speech which was filled with rousing words of patriotism from beginning to end. Mr. Mathews is a forcible speaker and convinced his hearers that 'he knew where off he spoke.'

The Bloomfield train was polled last Friday on the way west after Mark Hanna's speech in Wayne and showed 55 republicans and five democrats.

W. M. Wright failed to reach Carroll Tuesday evening and the few who had gathered to hear that gentleman discuss the political issues from a non-partisan standpoint were quite disappointed.

Some of our citizens have had the Canadian fever pretty bad the past week, but when they learned that that country was buried under two feet of snow their ardor for a home in Canada cooled very materially.

An Attempt to Mislead Firemen.

An anonymous circular has been issued, addressed to the "Firemen of the State," appealing to them to vote against F. N. Prout, republican candidate for Attorney General, for the reason, as alleged, that "he was the inventor of Senate File 183, which meant to repeal the tax now taxed against insurance companies to maintain fire departments."

This circular is a miserable rookback calculated to deceive voters on the eve of election. Volunteer firemen will not be misled by a cowardly circular. The official records of their last annual meeting at Norfolk are the best evidence. The annual report of State President, John L. Schick was unanimously adopted by the state association, and in that report, printed on page 19 of the official proceedings, the insurance bill is discussed as follows:

"It is but fair to say in this connection that this bill with a large number of others, was prepared by parties interested in the compilation of the statutes, and were what were known as 'curative measures' and were presented to be bills to correct inaccuracies in the statutes, and to conform to decisions of the supreme court in constructing them." A number of these, including No. 180, were introduced by Senator Prout without investigation on his part, and with the assurance that it was a curative measure only. As soon as Senator Prout's attention was called to the bill, and the section it repeated, he at once made a statement of the senate and had the bill recommitted to the committee of the whole, where on this statement and motion it was indefinitely postponed."

The report of the legislature was also unanimously adopted by the state firemen and is printed on page 43 of the proceedings. This report says that "Mr. Prout agreed, and very gladly, to ask that the bill be withdrawn" as soon as he found out its nature."

The state firemen will accept their own records in preference to an unsigned circular issued on the eve of election.

Died.

From the Republican.

ANSON—At the family home a few miles southwest of this city, on Monday evening, October 22, Mrs. A. Anson passed from earth to the great beyond, the cause of death being enlargement of the liver. Mrs. Anson had been in poor health for sometime, but was expected until within a few days that she was so near the other land. She was born in Mason county, Illinois, September 27, 1854, being at the time of death a little over 40 years of age. She was married to A. Anson in Nemaha county, Nebraska, in 1870. To them have been born four sons and one daughter, all of whom survive their mother. She will be greatly missed in the home where she has ever been a faithful wife and loving mother. The stricken husband and children have the sympathy of all in their great affliction. The funeral services will be held at the Baptist church today at 11:30.

DAMME—The 2-year-old son of William Damme, living southeast of the city, died on Sunday. The unusual occurrence yesterday. The stricken parents have the sympathy of their friends and neighbors in their time of bereavement.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 23.—Assistant Secretary of War Melkielejohn arrived in Omaha this morning in an exhausted condition, as a result of five hours' frightful experience in a cloudburst. Mr. Melkielejohn narrowly escaped with his life, and lost all of his personal effects, which he had with him at the time. He was proceeding from Stromsburg, Neb., to Clark's last night, after a weeks campaign in Southern Nebraska.

Five miles from Stromsburg, in the valley of the Little Blue, a cloud burst directly over them. The darkness was intense and the road was soon five feet deep in water. The driver lost his way and the horses kept their feet with the greatest difficulty. The buggy threatened to collapse any moment, and was only held to the ground by the team. The men did not have a lantern but Secretary of War Melkielejohn found three matches and to these and the ingenuity of the man the two owe their lives.

The whole country was a raging torrent. The trail was absolutely obliterated and every moment the whole outfit was threatened with destruction. After standing on the open plains three hours, expecting every moment to be carried into the river, the rain ceased, but the team could not proceed for fear of going into ravines caused by the storm.

Mr. Melkielejohn took from his valise his night shirt, and, smearing a bottle of grease over the article, wrapped it completely around the handle of the driver's wheel. This was lighted and by the improvised torch held high above the raging torrent, by Secretary Melkielejohn the driver slowly made his way forward. For an hour the two proceeded in this manner, several times the horses being forced to swim for their lives. At midnight they arrived at Clark's, the Secretary covered with mud, minus his valise, overcoat and hat. Many times the water was so high in the buggy that the men were forced to stand up to avoid being drowned.
