HE careful buyer examines the inside .\("VITALS") tailoring. It is strange what little attention men give to this feature of their clothing and yet it is the most important. Why it's the very foundation on which permanent perfect shape and fit depend. When you wear our clothing you are not taking chances, as it is the "VITALS' Brand,--the only ready-to-wear clothing tailored honestly on the insides. There is an individuality about our Clothing that you will not find in the ordinary and what is more, you pay less for it!

Well, if you will not explain it to me J. will explain it to you. The healthlest, the most recuperative thing of early to do is to stop thinking so much about ourselves and go to thinking about the welfare of others. Job had been studying his misfortunes, but the more he thought should his bankrunety the poorer he scemed, the more he thought of his carbuneles the worse they hurt, the more he thought of his carbuneles the worse they hurt, the more he thought of his howhold had been the conjugal relation to be undertuned to the more he thought of his hows blowyldown the more terific scemed the cyclone. His misfortunes grew blacker and blacker. But there was to come a reversal of these sad conditions. One day he said to himself: "I have been dwelling too much upon my bodily aliments and my wife's more than a high dis so the last shackle of his kenptiving of troubles spanged and fell off. Neither series apply nor archanged eyer flew swifter or alpha nor archanged eyer flew swifter or outselves and, like Job, raying for others? Why not oftened better hopes would we entertain, if we multiplied and intensified our prayers!

My heaven, I will tell you the time that you can afford to cease praying. If will be when you have no sins to be fairfound, no sorrows to be conforted.

Now, it God has during these remarks shown us the uses, the importance, the diseasedness of prayer, suppose we try to do what Joh did when he prayed for this exapterators. Many or us at the beginning of this exapterators. Many or us at the beginning of this subject felt that, while we could pray for ourselves and fray for those who were kind to us, we never could reach the high point of religious experience in which we could pray for those who annoy us and make us feel worse instead of feeling better. That was a Matterhorn, that was an Alp, to the top of which we fered we could never climb, but we thank God that by his omnipotent grace we have reached that height at last. Let us pray! O Christ, who didst pray for those who despitefully us no works and all manner of cell water.

ONE MAN IN THE AUDIENCE.

In ager Made i Lucky Strike.

Oddly enough, it so happened that almost everybody in the group had some analogous experience to relate. We frequently see jokes in the papers about troupes playing to an audicince of one," said a theatrical advance agent, "and such a thing really happened a few years ago in a place up in Ohlo. The company was a fair stock organization, playing a line of standard dramas, but it struck town in the teeth of a hardble snowstorm, and when the doors opened oily one solitary man put in an appearance. He lought a ticket and took a seat exactly in the center of the house. A good many compiliation of the house of the solitary in the center of the house of the solitary of the long and the manager was about to give the lone spectator his money back and turn out the lights when he happened to think that the company needed an extra rehearsh" in the play which had been billed, and on the spur of the moment he ordered the show to go on. The people entered into the spirit of the thing and pit up a thoroughly first-class performance, much to the apparent, delight of the nudicine, who was an elderly gentleman and evidently knew what was what. After it was all over the manager made his acqualitance in the lobby. He turned out to le du cecenire furniture manufacturer, with lots of money and a robust sone of human.

The manner had exhausted every respure and was at his wit's end, when he happened to think of the rifeddy oil bod in Ohlo, and, nfowed by a purely freakish impulse, he sent him he telegram explaining the situation and begging assistance. In an hour's time the got a money order by wire for $434. That represented the entire downstair scatting capacity of the Ohlo theater, at 75 cepts a head, less the one ticked which the dil gentleman had bought himself on the night of the storm. There were exactly 685 chairs on the floor. I am sorry my story isn't more exciting, but it has the merit—if it is medit—for being strictly true."—New Orleans Times Democrat:
