In proportion to capital invested, if all accounts are true—the new organ of Bryanarchy at Lincoln is making bigger returns than stock in the Standard Oil Company.

The inauguration of President McKinley and Vice President Roosevelt on Monday was the largest, and most brilliant affair of the kind that has ever taken place in the United States.

The Nebraska State Penitentiary was destroyed by fire last Thursday entailing a loss of over $200,000.

The Herald has been in business nearly sixteen years since the present publisher became connected with it, during which time most people have found it about as independent as they cared to have it.

Protection in a Nutshell. In view of the mass of argument which inevitably grows up about any issue, it is desirable at times to get back to first principles.

Guess Ex-congressman Perkins, of Sioux City, would have a pretty good show in Nebraska judging from the way the newspaper men in northern Nebraska speak of him.

VALUE OF REPUTATION.

Quality, Not Cheapness, is What Sells American Goods Abroad.

At a time easily within the recollection of men yet in middle age, American articles of nearly every description were discredited even by American buyers and the imported article uniformly had the preference of those who pursued admitted of the purchase.

As a still more striking illustration of the good reputation which American manufacturers have, the Consul says that in the window of a stationary store in Edinburgh is the legend, "Real American Playing Cards."

As a circle of 100 miles radius, with the city of New York as its center, contains a population of 828,331 or 78 3/4 per cent of the entire population of the state, as shown by the 1900 census.

The Board of Trustees of the Normal at Peru estimates that $60,110 will be required the next two years for current expenses alone, and the sum of $75,000 is asked for additional facilities.

The Governor should veto all the abnormal demands now being made for new and not needed normal schools. The primary object of the asked for appropriations is purely a selfish and not a public one.

It used to be said: "Above all ships avoid partner ship." But that depends on your own peculiar genius, and your selection of a partner.

There's no rest for those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always busy, juggling livers, jaundice, biliousness, fever and ague.

His Faith Well Founded.

President McKinley's second inaugural address fully rebukes those who distrust of the American people's patriotism and integrity makes them prophesy evil to the republic.

Those who fear that the American people, jealous of their freedom at home, will become tyrants in their new possessions, do not comprehend the American spirit.

By the works of great men inspired by faith in the capacity of the American people this republic was founded and preserved.

Whatever the cost, whatever the sacrifice, no matter how those who will not understand their purposes may oppose, no matter how pessimistic weklings may will—to accomplish their mission, to fulfill the world's hope, the American people will march on and on, enlightening and elevating, sharing with the less fortunate the blessings that their fathers preserved and their ancestors won.

BRITISH BANKRUPTS.

PRIVILEGES WHICH ARE ACCORDED BY LAW TO PEERS.

Some English Legal Decisions as to What Constitute the Necessaries of Life—They Widely Differ From Duke to Ordinary Mortal.

Recent bankruptcy cases in London have brought up various legal decisions which have been reached in England on the subject of what are necessaries of life for men of various stations and degrees who are not in command of their own incomes.

A viscount or a baron is allowed by law to describe as necessaries things which smaller folk might struggle along without. But a viscount's income provided there is anybody to pay it—is fixed at £1,500 a year and a baron's at £1,000.

A doctor is better off than a viscount in one way—his carriage cannot be seized in most cases, nor can the expenses of it be reckoned in his income tax returns.

An ordinary man can retain nothing but his clothes, his hairbrushes and a few stern necessities of that kind.
