Among a large list of students at the State University receiving diplomas in the law class we notice the name of Elmer Lundberg, formerly a "devil" in the HERALD office. It makes us feel the very best to note the success Elmer is meeting with as he gradually climbs the ladder and we trust his career will be one of splendid achievements, and we do not doubt that it will.

What is the secret of the popularity of the Modern Woodmen of America? The following incident will tell the tale: Neighbor Holte, a charter member of Camp 5966, at Erskine, Minn., was a pretty good fellow, but shiftless. Finally he drifted away, leaving a wife and four small children. Mrs. Holte was paying $5 per month house rent. She owned a lot and had money enough to buy lumber. The members of Camp No. 5966 turned in and built the house for her with their own hands. An architect member of the camp drew the plans for nothing, and the carpenter and mason members did the skilled work, the unskilled labor being done by the members of the camp generally. This is just an incident, but it speaks volumes.

CELEBRATE?

Well we guess yes

and in regular old fashioned style. Several hundred dollars have been raised and the eagle will scream the like of which has never been heard before.

Two Bands will furnish music.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The fourteenth annual commencement of the Wayne High School was held at the opera house last Friday evening to which an admission of 10 cents was charged, and notwithstanding the storming weather, the opera house was well filled with a crowd of admiring friends and relatives to witness the graduation of four young people comprising the class of 1901 and the fourteenth graduating class of the Wayne High School. Their orations ranged high in merit and were exceptionally well prepared. Especial attention to thought was more noticeable than any attempt at oratory and delivery. The subjects of the orations were as follows: Salutatory (True Education), Robert Graham; "Our National Inheritance," Lulu Cook; "I Told You So," Mamie Feather; Valedictory, ("Inequality of Man"), Elsie Ringer.

The program was opened with splendid drills by pupils from the rooms of teachers, Misses Stocking, Brookings, Morgan and Mettlen, and W. F. Howard. Their work was exceptionally well done showing that the teachers had devoted much time and attention to training them. The second part of the program, aside from the orations, consisted of the invocation by Rev. Ringer, a beautiful solo by Anna Gamble, accompanied by Otto Vogel, piano, and Carl Burdick, violin, and a superb piano duet by Misses Bertha Armstrong and Mando Britton that was greeted with an encore. Miss Nellie Stewart of the college rendered an excellent piano solo, after which Prof. Conn, in a few remarks, presented the diplomas to the class. A beautiful trio was then rendered by Misses Lulu Cook, Blanche Hitchcock and Anna Gamble, when the exercises concluded with the benediction by Rev. Bithell. The floral decorations were very pretty.

MANY ARE ENTOMBED

MORE THAN THIRTY MINERS OUT OFF FROM ESCAPE

Rescuers Caught in a Trap—At First Only Six Were Endangered and Others Went to Help—Small Chance of Any Escaping.

More than thirty miners were entombed in shaft No. 2 of the Pittsburg Coal and Coke Company at Port Royal, Pa., where an explosion occurred Monday, June 10, and it is feared that all have perished.

About 11 o'clock in the evening smoke was seen to be issuing from the shaft.

When a rescue party arrived two men, who were nearly overcome by afterward, were brought to the surface. They could give no information as to what had caused the fire, and told the rescuers that four other men were entombed.

At 11 o'clock Monday night four men volunteered to go down No. 1, but it is not known that they have succeeded in making a rescue.

At 1 o'clock Tuesday morning heavy volumes of smoke were still issuing from the mine, and hope of saving any of the entombed men, miners or rescuers, was fast disappearing.

At 3 o'clock Tuesday morning heavy volumes of smoke were still issuing from the mine, and hope of saving any of the entombed men, miners or rescuers, was fast disappearing.

UNCLE SAM ACTS.

Not to Join in Guaranty Payment of Chinese Indemnity.

The government at Washington has formally communicated to the foreign powers the impossibility of its joining in a joint guaranty for the payment of the Chinese indemnity.

The difficulties in the way of such an arrangement are set forth in a communication June 10, particularly those relating to the constitutional restrictions on the president in making a joint guaranty of this character.

View of the determination of the United States not to be a party to a joint guaranty, there is anxiety shown in diplomatic circles as to the outcome of the question of indemnities.

A majority of the powers, being favorable to indemnity, will execute the joint instrument with characteristic carry on a concern of their own.

The track of the tornado fell with terrific force upon Tonkawa. Thirty dwellings and business houses were scattered like to match loose lumber.

At Blackwell, a few miles north of Tonkawa, F. H. Crawford, a carpenter, who was working on a house, was struck by lightning during the storm and killed.

HEARING HELD IN GROVE.

Unusual Scene at Murder Investigation in Missouri.

An unusual scene is presented at Galena, Mo., at the preliminary hearing of Mrs. John Stallion, her father James Crabtree, and his two sons, Frank and Charles Crabtree, for the murder of Alice Stallion, the woman's 16-year-old stepdaughter.

The hearing is being held in a grove, the two justices sitting at a table under a tree, and 2,000 people attracted from points for miles around, forming a circle about the court and defendants.

It has been decided to examine the body of the girl that it may be examined by the doctors to investigate a theory of the county prosecutor that a criminal assault was made upon her by one or both of the Crabtree boys, and that they killed her to hide the crime.

EVIDENCE OF A TRAGEDY.

Headless Body of a Young Woman Found in the Woods.

The headless and decomposed body of a young woman was found in a heap of brush in a patch of woodland near Chelmsford, Mass., Sunday. Murder had been committed in a horrible fashion, for the head had been separated from the trunk by a series of slashes with a dull weapon.

The meager clothing affords no clue to the identity of the unfortunate, and the circumstances offer a case of interest, outside rather than in the direct community, as the theory quickly set up is that the body had been taken into the woods and thrown in a spot that offered some concealment.

A Boston special says the Lawson yacht Independence in her second trial met her first accident, a not very serious jamming of the steering gear, but sufficient to stop the trial after an hour and a half of splendid sailing, during which she attained a speed on each of her two over three miles of 13 1/2 nautical miles an hour.

The accident led very unexpectedly to a most thorough test of the yacht's rigging and her big steel mast, and the result showed that it would take a pretty severe blow to dismast the Boston yacht.

Nothing was said in the notification about the withdrawal of the large German military contingent in China, but it is believed in official circles that Count von Walderssee will be coincident with the reduction of the German forces. There is some ground for this belief in reports from China and Count von Walderssee has been endeavoring to charter transport.

VICTORY FOR MRS. EDDY.

Verdict for the Defense in the Famous Christian Science Libel Suit. Mrs. Eddy will not have to pay Mrs. Woodbury $50,000 or any other sum. NO EXTRA SESSION.

ANNOUNCED THAT CONGRESS WILL NOT BE CALLED.

Cabinet Holds that President's Military Authority is Ample for All Purposes in the Philippines—Methods in Conformity with Court Decisions.

Washington correspondence. There will be no extra session of Congress. That much at least was decided at the cabinet meeting Tuesday. Secretary Root and Attorney General Knox united in expressing the opinion that there was nothing to be done by the decision of the Supreme Court which need alter in any material degree the plans already laid down for the government of the Philippines.

There will be no limit to the free exercise of the civil government in the Philippines, and after a while it will be entirely independent of a military commander. It has been held that the President governs the islands without question by the exercise of his military authority, while it is an open question how far he can go in this direction under the delegated authority he acquires from the Spooner resolution.

For the present at least the Dingeldey matter will be referred to the President and other United States parts between Manila, and the rates of duties in the islands will be those fixed by the old Spanish tariff as modified by the military orders of Gen. Otis and his successors.

It will be remembered that the Supreme Court, in its decisions, held that the tariff provided for by the Spooner resolution, which vests their authority from the commanding general, although the people themselves administer them. In this respect, the Philippine government will be distinctly different from that created for Porto Rico under the Foraker law.

It will be analogous to the municipal government provided for by the Foraker law, which vests their authority from the commanding general, although the people themselves administer them. POINTS IN HERRON'S LETTER TO THE CHURCH.

That Herron's letter to the Church Council contained three striking sentences. Such a crisis might come to a man without any warning morally to himself.

I have long held it a privilege that I have been able to do so much for the church. I do not believe the present marriage system is sacred or good. I will not live with a man who is not my husband, and I will not be kept together, those who are not vitally and essentially one.

HERRON IS CAST OUT.

Council of Congregationalists at Grinnell Denies Him. The Congregational council of the Grinnell (Iowa) district reached the unanimous verdict in executive session that George D. Herron is guilty of immoral and unchristian conduct; that he be expelled from the membership of the First Congregational Church at Grinnell, and that he shall no longer be considered a Congregational member of the gospel in good and regular standing.

Spurred from the indignity of his church, repudiated by the college faculty of which he was a member, expulsion from the church, and the loss of his position, George D. Herron stands convicted of immoral and unchristian conduct, inhuman treatment and heartless rejection of the wide and loving spirit which should be shown to him. The Congregational council, a jury of his peers in the church, after reading the charges against him, declared in their belief that he had convicted himself.

Next to-day, after the usual reading of the minutes of the first meeting, the congregation met for the purpose of voting on the resolution of the council. In this respect, the Philippine government will be distinctly different from that created for Porto Rico under the Foraker law.

DAMAGE BY DROUGHT

LACK OF RAIN IN THE NORTH-WEST HURTS WHEAT.

Effects of Drought Aggravated by the Ravages of Fly-Lowest Lake Region and the East Gulf Coast Suffer from Too Much Rainfall.

Practically an entire absence of rain over the Missouri valley has made very dry conditions in the District of Columbia. There is only one plot of less than one acre set aside as a play ground for boys.

The northern Rocky Mountain and Pacific coast districts experienced a favorable week. On the whole the week has been unfavorable to corn, which owing to low temperatures, has made very slow progress.

A BATCH OF BISCUITS.

LOVE, busy at a picture!

Just at first Elsie had given Fairleigh a distant look, but although she quickly glanced away, she had seen a new look in his eyes—a look of questioning admiration that brought the roses blossoming out on her cheeks.

Elsie, busy at the table in the kitchen of the apartment house was quite unaware that she was being observed. How could she know there was anyone in that long vacant house next door?

"No, she is a harmless little creature," Miss Isabel Burns had said to Elsie, apropos of her cousin Elsie. "An orphan, whom we keep out of our charity. She is quite a burden in a way, being so idle and incapable. When we are without a maid, an occasional help, all the hardship of the kitchen falls on my shoulders."

And straightway Fairleigh, who had an old-fashioned feeling that the domestic woman was the kind he wanted for a wife, ignored, except in so far as courtesy went, the existence of the little cousin, and devoted himself to Isabel. "What a lovely young girl," he said, "Ally love is like a red hot iron. Again?" she said. "She was like the rose she sang of in that instant."

Fortunately, when he called with his new team the day following, Isabel was not Elsie's cousin. "But he had called for her," he explained. "He had called for her to drive a drive that was his. I have the story of his own hand. It was a happy girl who persuaded that if his was not love at first sight, it was love all right, and would make his life a melody that's sweetly sung in tune—Chicago Tribune."

Small pox and scarlet fever are chasing each other around promiscuously throughout the state.

Elmer B. Stephenson of Lincoln, has been commissioned to be collector of internal revenue for Nebraska, vice J. E. Houtz.

The prospects are favorable for a hot time when the bull fights begin down in South Omaha. Here's a case where a Savage for Governor may be just the thing.

It appears now that the U. S. Supreme court forgot to consult Bryan before rendering their decision in the Porto Rican tariff affair. What a sad mistake!

A. L. Brande of the Pierce Call, has just been reappointed postmaster at that place. All newspaper men who are not jealous of the success of others will congratulate Editor Brande over his reappointment.

About one of the best things the republican party ever done in this state was the election of Wm. Steuffer as state treasurer. Almost every day he does something for the good of the state and the party, and brings tears to the delighted fusionists.

Chas. Towne is to be the head of an oil company with a capitalization of $2,000,000. Isn't that a warm proposition for the fusionists to confront? Just think how easy it will be to oil the hubs of the fusion trust—but Towne says he's gone out of politics.

General Grant thinks that Aguinaldo is very small prey and should be treated with contempt. He is also of the opinion that Aggie would be a good subject for jail and the stone piles. There doesn't seem to be anybody disputing the opinion of the General.

The balance sheet of the United States treasury shows a surplus of $10,500,000 for May, and for the eleven months of the fiscal year the surplus has been about $58,000,000. But the surplus for May far exceeds that of any previous month. You don't notice any fusion papers commenting on this fact. As a matter of course, they don't know it and don't want to.

Blacklisting is the agreement of a large number of corporations in the same business not to employ a man who has offended one of these corporations, and amounts to a cold-blooded conspiracy to ruin that man and starve his family. And yet a Chicago judge has held blacklisting to be lawful. Both it and the boycott should go, and go forever.—Fremont Tribune.

The fusion leaders are all pale as struck by reason of the insular decisions. They have good cause to be, for the supreme court officially confirmed the verdict returned by the jury of the American people last year, and from it there is no appeal. We are told the country is standing on the brink of ruin, that hope is dead, that McKinley is an emperor, that the rights of the people are being subverted, that a plutocracy is putting its iron heel on the necks of the humble, that hellscraping and that only a few of the richest will survive. We have heard this doleful tune before. It comes from the same source every time the nation takes a step forward. It ceases no forbidding among those who have become used to the refrain. Indeed it cheers the heart to reflect that the Jerusalem of politics are always happiest when they groan.—Fremont Tribune.

Old Glory is aging rapidly, like the rest of us. June 14th will be 124 years old. And it is proposed to celebrate the day by a conspicuous display of flags everywhere. R. S. Wilcox, Department Commander of the G. A. R., has issued an order to all posts urging that no effort be spared to have the flag displayed on that day. It is appropriate that the men who carried over so many fields to final victory and saved it intact at so much sacrifice should take the initiative in honoring it now. It was on the 2nd day of January, 1776, that General Washington first hoisted the flag of the United Colonies. It bore thirteen stripes, as now, representing the thirteen colonies but still retained the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew, on the corner in a blue field, where the stars now appear, representing the states of the Union. The first "Union" flag was a recognition of British supremacy, which was abandoned after another year of fighting for nationality, and the new flag, with its crosses supplanted by the stars, was adopted June 14th 1777. The beautiful flag unfurled on that memorable day, with its thirteen stars, created the greatest enthusiasm, not only for its bright and glowing colors, but because, the change meant absolute independence or death, a sentiment to which the bravest and best throughout the colonies had already subscribed.—York Times.

Far More Important Than All The Outside World Markets Put Together.

It is well to reach out in every direction and by every intelligent means of peace and honor for new markets for the products of American toil and skill. But let us not neglect the home market—the greatest market of all, the one that is most easily reached, the one capable of the vastest development.

Here are 75,000,000 of the most widely enlightened mass of human beings on earth, and therefore the greatest consumers. For the more intelligent a man is the more varied his wants, the more goods he needs or wants.

The average income of an American family—and that measures the average capacity for buying goods—varies from about $1,300 a year in Massachusetts to less than $200 in some Southern States. In the total the average is about $750 a year.

Now, the higher this average income gets, provided it represents diffused wealth, the larger will be our capacity to consume manufactures. Anything which tends to raise this average tends to develop the home market, tends to enable the people to enjoy more and more of the comforts and luxuries which their toil and skill produce.

On the contrary, anything which tends to lower this average, anything which tends to the concentration instead of the diffusion of wealth, tends to destroy the home market and to make the masses producers of comfort and luxury for others.

The chief ways for developing the home market are: Education, which increases man's desires and also his capacity to earn the means of satisfying his desires.

Higher wages—the logical result of better capacity to labor. Against these forces is any force which tends to make the laborer a helpless dependant and to enable a few men to control prices.

And therefore these combinations which are selling to foreigners more cheaply than they sell at home need attention.—New York Evening World (Free-Trade.)

A Pleasing Guest.

For the first few months after the election of President McKinley in 1896 on the Protection and Prosperity platform we heard frequent inquiries on the part of the enemy as to why prosperity was lagging so long behind its advance agent. Faeotious suggestions were made in respect to the advisability of inserting in the newspapers a "lost, strayed or stolen" notice for General Prosperity. Scintillating Free-Trade witticisms no longer shined forth to dazzle a long suffering public. It has been many a day since any Free Trader cared to assert that prosperity had not come in with Protection. Now instead of making faeotious inquiries as to the whereabouts of General Prosperity, the Free-Traders devote themselves to claiming that the formerly much praised General Prosperity is an unattractive gentleman of protruding stomach, who appeals to men's appetites instead of to their hearts and brains. The great majority of the people of the country, however, have found him to be a very pleasing guest and are more than willing to entertain him for an indefinite period. Four years more are already arranged for, and at the end of that time the invitation, will, without doubt be renewed.—Economist.

Topsy-turvy.

That's a favorite attitude of the small boy (and in this again the child is the father of the man). The man does not essay to walk through life on his hands, but he creates for himself a kingdom of topsy-turvy. He turns right into day. He cares regardless of time and physical necessities. He makes a pleasure of his business and a business of his pleasure. In fact he effectually reverses the order of natural living. The result is physical disability generally introduced by "weak" stomach. The food he eats does not nourish him because the stomach and its associated organs are not able to extract the nourishment from the food. Hence, the body is under nourished and diseased conditions develop in one form or another. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures through the stomach diseases which originate in a diseased condition of the stomach and its allied organs. Hence, it cures "weak" lungs, "weak" heart, "weak" nerves and other forms of so-called weakness. "I had been troubled with catarrh of the stomach and heart troubled," writes Mr. W. D. Merchant of Yerington, Nev. "I had discovered for some time without relief, then I began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took seven bottles. Before I began to take it I weighed 190 pounds, and now weigh 176. I am working steadily and feel like a well man. I send you many thanks." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.

Omaha Markets.

June 12, 1901. Receipts of cattle some lighter than week ago but market is about steady with last Wednesday. Today offerings about $500, include good many heavy cattle. Market opened about steady but trading was rather slow and close is weak with buyers taking a dime off early bids. Top today $5.85, the highest of the year. Cows and butcher stock in usual light supply and of good dry low stock that is fat market is active and strong. There is not much business in the stocker and feeder division owing to limited supplies but the tone to the market is weaker. Hogs keep coming liberally and market is within shilling of the high time last April. Today with about 11,000 received market opened steady on best grades but after dressed meat orders were filled it eased off and close is weak $5.30 to $5.95, but $5.87 to $5.90. Provision market is active and strong and feeling is strong on the hog proposition. Sheep receipts light. The quality coming is not very good and market is steady, demand active. NYE & BUCHANAN CO. An Address to the American People.

June 14th will be the 124th anniversary of the Birthday of the American Flag. When it is considered what it cost to give birth to this flag, what it has cost to maintain it and what it means to this Nation and to the world, there is no honor too great that should not be conferred upon it.

Our Flag was born in the throes of Liberty, wounded in the battles of Freedom and sanctified in the cause of Humanity. It should be honored for the Security it guarantees: all the Mercy it proclaims; all the Power it implies.

It is the Flag that has ever been raised in honor and never lowered in disgrace. It is the flag that represents Liberty of thought and religious rights and floats today, beautifully hovering in the breeze around her Cuban protégé, a protectorate against "man's inhumanity to man." The Flag that gracefully waves in the Orient, a respected monitor in the Celestial Empire, guiding the word in the solution of a Divine problem, remonstrating against avarice and admonishing against treachery.

It is the Flag that must not be disgraced in an advertisement of merchandise not displayed for idle purpose.

It is sacred! It is sublime! Next to Holy Writ it should be our guide, standing for the equality of man, and of woman to man. It is now the peace-maker between hitherto domestic foes. It is a guard against foreign interference. It forgives the past, and points to the future, grandly; with more grandeur than our pre-vision can encompass. It is the Flag of our Re-union.

The Flag of the New Possessions which Providence has bestowed. So let the American People, with one hand on the ensign of the Golden Rule and with the other saluting the emblem of our Liberty and Strength, do honor to our banner as it stands for loyalty between ourselves and the elevation of all mankind.

As the day dawns on June 14th let the morning breeze kiss the fluttering flag from every house-top, and as the school bell sounds the assembly hour let there be glad hearts among the children as it is made their festival day to sing praises to the Flag and to cheer it as it floats in the air above a token of their noble birth.

Every school may fittingly honor this day with special exercises as a day of rejoicing, adopting a program suitable to the occasion:

- 1. Prayer. 2. Salute to the Flag. 3. National Hymns. 4. Addresses by Soldiers and Patriots. 5. Flag Drills. 6. Quotations from eloquent orations on the Flag. 7. Ringing of Bells.

Every child waving a flag and possessing it for himself as a treasure to be admired and revered. There are no school children too young to love the Flag, none too old to be ashamed of it. Patriotism is a sentiment—an emotion, capable of being cultivated to a high degree by inspiration. It is not an incentive to military action with a tendency to war, rather a promoter of peace, and no nobler sentiment can be created than love for the Flag, which is the mantle of Columbia standing in the foreground beckoning to the oppressed of all mankind to come under the folds of the Robe of Love, to dwell in harmony and security in this land of Peace, the Canaan where the wanderer may rest, the oppressed find relief and all be the equal of his fellow-man.

The 2 Johns are not Alike.

They are not twins and don't look alike. They are not the same size, and they don't talk alike. One speaks Swede and the other speaks German. One don't talk much and the other talks all the time. One always speaks the truth and the other can't tell a lie. If one asked you ten dollars for a suit you can buy it from the other for ten hundred cents, and no less. This reminds us that all men are created equal, but no two alike. Right here is where we come in. If all men were alike you might be able to buy clothing in any store, but as all are different you must have a large stock to select from. Well, we have the large stock and you will have no trouble to get a fit and what you want here. Then, too, you will find only the best clothing here, and at prices lower than elsewhere. No matter if you don't know good clothing, if you buy here you will have the benefit of experienced clothing salesmen and you can't make a mistake. If you should change your mind you can get your money back. If the clothing you buy here don't give satisfaction you get another suit. Don't forget that we have everything that men and boys wear. Our shoes are the best made in America, and our stock is the largest. We are practical shoe men. Having had twenty years' experience in fitting men's shoes. If your feet hurt, see us. If your pocket book is light, come here to buy shoes. If you want the best shoes this is the place to come to. IF IT'S RIGHT YOU WILL FIND IT AT THE 2 JOHNS. No clothing fits like ours.

Yesterday's Norfolk News says that Judge W. F. Norris has been reappointed to his position at Manila. His family, who are now at Wayne, will leave this month to join him. Mr. Norris will undoubtedly be reappointed, but Mrs. Norris has not yet been so informed. A. W. Flathers, about the largest shipper of fat cattle to this market, brought in thirteen cars from Wayne, Neb., and four cars from Winside, Neb., on a special train about noon. Mr. Flathers is the shipper who had the branded westerns last Saturday for which he received $5.65, which was the top on this market for this kind of cattle - Sioux City Journal, June 9.

Fourth of July Notes. If you want to be in the push celebrate at Wayne this year. Almost everything has already been arranged for the big celebration at Wayne on the Fourth. A base ball game between the college and another club will be played at 1:00 o'clock. EXCHANGE NOTES.

Ponca Gazette: Mrs. R. Philleo and Mrs. Norris and daughter Ethel, arrived in the city from Wayne Tuesday morning.

Blair Republican: Mr. Scadden of Wayne, a son-in-law of Wm. Southwick, came here last week to visit and try a change of scene and climate for his health.

Tekamah Journal: Mr. and Mrs. J. Harrington of Wayne, visited friends and relatives in Tekamah over Sunday. Mr. Harrington returned to Wayne while Mrs. Harrington remained for a more extended visit.

Wakarusa Republican: John T. Breester of Wayne, was a Wakarusa visitor Tuesday morning and admired our numerous improvements. He was on his way home from Hartington where he is erecting a fine building for Searing, the grocer.

Homestead: Considerably over a billion dollars worth of American products were exported last year, and a sixty-one per cent of these were from the farm. Whole Sam has his shingle hanging out in Europe and on it are placed these words, "Dealer in Everything."

Wiener Chronicle: Mrs. Ed Sellers and daughter of Wayne were in attendance at the graduating exercises Monday evening. Prof. E. M. Snodgrass went to Wayne Tuesday to look over his new field of labor in the public schools of that place which closed yesterday. From there he went to Omaha on Wednesday to attend the sessions of the Masonic grand lodge.

In Friday's Bee, in the column on "Nebraska and Nebraskans" appeared the following: "Walt Goldie of the Wayne Democrat, was worked for a shirt by a tramp printer. Goldie explained that he had two shirts and the man put up such a pitiful talk that he gave him one. At the next meeting of the editorial convention he will probably be called upon to explain how he came to possess two shirts."

Homestead: Weather that is good for small grain is not always best for corn and vice versa. How often we hear farmers say this is good corn weather but small grain is not doing so well, or that it is good small grain or hay weather but not so good for corn. Some kinds of weather may be very good for weeds and not so good for corn. All these conditions, we have to meet and make the most of, for no one has control over the weather. The thing to do is to be well up with the work and be able to get some good out of the weather at hand. Many a time we have felt that we would like to have a whole field of corn so situated that we could run it down in a cave or a hot house while cool and adverse weather was at hand with little prospects for a change.

Madison Chronicle: The schedule for the Nebraska junior league of base ballists has been adopted and the first ball will be pitched next Monday afternoon at the fair grounds when Stanton will oppose the locals. The boys have been practicing diligently and play a good article of ball. Every one who can take up 15 cents should be at the grounds to give support to the boys in their maiden effort.

The schedule adopted is as follows: At Madison—Stanton vs. Madison June 10th; Madison vs. Norfolk July 4. At Winside—Winside vs. Wayne June 13; Norfolk vs. Winside August 5th.

At Norfolk—Madison vs. Norfolk June 17; Stanton vs. Norfolk, June 17; Madison vs. Wayne July 1; Wayne vs. Norfolk July 20; Norfolk vs. Winside,

Emerson Enterprise: Forest B. Smith and Miss Nellie Spears were united in marriage at Wayne Wednesday evening. After the ceremony they drove to Emerson and occupied their house in the western part of town and took the 5:30 train south Thursday morning without many people knowing that the "event" had happened. The groom has lived in Emerson for about ten years past and occupies the responsible position of manager for the Western Union Telegraph Co. and train dispatcher for the railroad company. The bride is an estimable and accomplished young lady of Wayne who has taught in the Emerson schools for two years. Sometime ago Mr. Smith purchased the Paulger property, one of the prettiest places in town, and has it nicely furnished for his bride. The Enterprise joins their many friends in extending congratulations.

Homestead: There is one thing that I look upon with favor in teaching agriculture in the public schools. It is to impress the young with the fact that successful farming does not consist entirely of hard labor, but that thought and acquired knowledge can be made to replace much of the drudgery of farm work with something more satisfactory. It is quite true that farming cannot be carried on without some hard work. But that hard work may be applied in such a manner as to make it more effective. Well applied hard labor is one thing and working to no avail is another. When agriculture is admitted into the public schools, it will be necessary to have teachers who will know more than the pupils; agriculture is a science and teachers will have to make themselves acquainted with the science when that time comes.

Excursion Rates to the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo.

It was said when the World's Fair closed that this country would not see its equal in fifty years. In all but the space occupied, however, the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo this year will excel the great show of '03. This means that more can be seen in the same length of time at the Pan-American, and with less fatigue and weariness than was unavoidable at the World's Fair.

The exhibits will be varied, interesting and instructive, and the improvement in their selection and the manner in which they are displayed, due to the experience gained by exhibitors at the recent great Expositions, will be very noticeable. In the variety, quality, novelty and number of its entertainment features, the Buffalo Exposition will surpass all others.

There are different rates for tickets with different limits, and if you expect to visit Buffalo, and will send your address to the undersigned, the rates now in effect will be quoted you, and you will be kept advised of any changes.

An artistic booklet, beautifully illustrated and giving a concise description of this great Exposition, will be mailed free to all inquirers.
