WAYNE CELEBRATES IN ROYAL STYLE

A Magnificent Parade.--J. J. McCarthy Delivers the Oration.--Races Many and Exciting.--Splendid Vaudeville Entertainment, Concluding with Brilliant Illuminated Parade and Fireworks.

Patiently had the younger generation been waiting for the coming of the nation's natal day, which dawned bright and beautiful, and was ushered in by the roar of the cannon in charge of Geo. Savidge, and the roar of cannon crackers at the hands of young America. His patriotism was at fever heat and that of the older folk was a close second. The morning trains brought in delegations from neighboring towns and by ten o'clock a pretty good sized crowd had assembled in the city and the business houses and many residences throughout the city were prettily decorated with flags and bunting. The Wakefield and Danish bands supplied music until the parade formed promptly at ten o'clock, headed by marshal of the day, Ed Reynolds, and aides, Geo. Shaw and Nels Grimsley. The procession went west on First two blocks, thence north to Fourth, thence east to Nebraska, then north to Fifth, then west to Main and down Main to First. The procession was headed by the Wakefield Band, followed by Mayor Ley, speaker of the day McCarthy, President Volpp and Frank Fuller in a carriage. The floats in the parade were simply fine, every firm represented doing themselves proud and it was an event of which all can feel a pardonable pride. The decorations of the ladies carriages was superb and to them much credit is due for the happy success of this feature of the day's doings. First came the ladies in decorated carriages: Mrs. Ley, decorations yellow; Mrs. O. D. Franks, blue; the Bayer sisters, white; Mrs. Frank Strahan, red. All were handsome rigs. Then came a little Arthur Neely, representing Uncle Sam in 1776, and Geo. Devine, representing Uncle Sam in 1901. It was a hit. The floats then came in the following order: Wilson Bros., dry goods; L. P. Orth, druggist; C. M. Craven and Harry, photograph gallery; Mr. C's little daughter placed in a frame and beautifully decorated with flowers and bunting, the two brothers on bicycles drawing the float; Volpp

Bros, meat market; the Two Johns, clothiers; M. S. Davies, music and book store; O. D. Franks, liquor house; Danish Band; Ralph Rundell, groceries; D. E. Newton, wind mills and pumps; D. S. McVicker, bakery; H. Milder, liquor house; E. J. Raymond, drug store; The Racket, dry goods; P. L. Miller, groceries; Roe & Fortner, meat market; Dan Harrington, clothier; F. H. Jones, music store; M. P. Abern, dry goods and millinery; E. P. Olmsted, hardware; The HERALD, represented by Bruce Spears as the office boy; and citizens in carriages and rickshaws. The procession disbanded on Pearl street and the crowd rejoined on the big tent west of Roe & Fortner's. After the Wakefield and Danish bands had discoursed selections and the Glee club sang Frank Fuller introduced J. J. McCarthy of Ponca, who delivered a strong address that was closely listened to, at the conclusion of which the crowd dispersed for dinner. In the afternoon Main street was roped in and the races begun. The boys race was won by Louis Lundburg with Guy Strickland a close second and Henry Tangeman third. In the free-for-all an unknown, giving his name as F. Henry, won 1st, Gettis Williams, 2nd, Delos Reynolds 3rd. There were about 20 in the race, a few of whom did not get started. The fat men's race was captured by a Mr. Barta of the College, James Keenan 2nd, A. E. Surber 3rd. Agnes Savidge, a little girl aged 12 years, was successful in the woman's race, Mrs. M. A. LeCroix of near Winside being 2nd. It was a pleasant feature of the races. The Wayne Hose team organized for a contest against Wakefield, made a pretty run, made the proper couplings and threw water in less time than has been made by some professional teams. C. J. Wright came out 1st in the sack race, Mr. Barta 2nd, and Riley Ruth 3rd. The potato race was a hummer and was won by Geo. Kellogg, M. Coleman 2nd, H. Tangeman 3rd. Henry Goll captained the Wayne team in the tug of war with Dixon county and won it, but it was no easy thing to do. At the close of the races the vaudeville show on the large platform was begun and splendid entertainment was given to a large crowd, although the threatening weather caused many to start for home. Luckily it did not rain, however, and the weather turned much cooler. No better entertainment was ever given here than that given by the Ledger trio of Minneapolis, but the quartette of coons was not up to the expectations of the committee. The bands furnished some music during the afternoon. In the evening the illuminated parade was a decidedly successful feature and greatly pleased everybody. Main street being fairly alive with colored torches, roman candles, sky rockets, etc. It was a great day for ice cream, lemonade, etc., and the bowery was well patronized. In fact, we have only heard good words for the celebration and for the committees. There were no arrests, no drinks, brawls and no accidents, hence Wayne has no reason to feel other than O. K. concerning the celebration.

The Sunday Fraud. The man who goes to church today. And worships in a pious way, Who wears a sanctimonious look While buried in his prayer books, And on the morrow lays aside His Christian face so sanctified And cheats his trusting fellow-man In every seeming way he can, Who deals in falsehood and in fraud, And bows before the dollar god, Will find when he has passed away, To his unspeakable dismay, That two-faced Christians cannot pass The golden gateway, but alas! He'll get a painful turning down When Peter tells him with a frown To go and chase His other face Down to his proper camping place! —Ex. Call at W. L. Jones and see his fine line of samples of general merchandise. He says it will pay you.

Vail of Norfolk over Sunday. Not a single arrest nor any bad drunks, nor any fires is the record for Wayne's celebration. Not so bad. The improvements at the depot will be greatly appreciated by the people of Wayne and the public in general. The work on the residences of D. C. Main and Patrik Coleman is being pushed rapidly; also the building of the M. E. church. Miss Dolly Holtz came up from Pender Sunday morning and visited at home until Monday morning when she returned to Sioux City. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey of Ponca, came over Wednesday evening and spent the Fourth with Mrs. D's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Skeen. A bad complexion generally results from inactive liver and bowels. In such cases DeWitt's Little Early Risers will produce gratifying results. L. P. Orth. Everybody smokes the Wayne Leader manufactured at home by Wm. Unsmeyer. Why? Because it is the best cigarette in the city and most smokers who have tried them say so. Bad Thunder, an Indian on the Winnebago Agency quarreled with his squaw and then committed suicide on Wednesday by shooting his head off with a shot gun. It was lightning work. Special excursion to Black Hills, excursion tickets to Hot Springs, Deadwood and Lead, S. D., will be on sale July 10th to Aug. 31st, good returning until Oct. 31st. One fare plus $2.00. T. W. Moran, agent.

In the crowd on the streets the 4th we noticed many people from Winside, Wakefield, Laurel, Randolph and other surrounding towns while many people had relatives here from far away towns to spend the day with them. The next thing is a county fair, a matter which is of interest to every live citizen in the county who has any property interests whatever. It is the year for a fair and can be made a success in every particular. J. W. Evans & Son, the well known piano tuners will be in our city, shortly on their regular semi-annual trip. Owners of pianos will do well to wait for them as their work is well known here to be strictly reliable. Mr. Chester Brown was married to Miss Ella Doring last Wednesday. They have commenced keeping house for L. W. Brown while they are at Lyons. They are both well known and the people of Wayne county wish them happiness. The HERALD acknowledges the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the race meeting of the Telemah Speed Association to be held at that city July 23 to 26 inclusive. The purses for the meeting amount to $2800. J. R. Sutherland is secretary. Special excursions to Northern Pacific Coast, on July 6 to 13, inclusive, excursion tickets to Tacoma and Seattle, Wash.; Portland, Ore.; Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. will be sold, good returning to August 31st. Fare $45.00. T. W. Moran, agent.

The night before the Fourth burglar entered O. D. Franks' saloon and helped themselves to $10 in change in the cash register and took the pains to smash a music box to get the few nickles in it. If they had taken enough liquor to get stone blind drunk they might have been taken in. You can never cure dyspepsia by dieting. What your body needs is plenty of good food properly digested. DeWitt's Little Early Risers take you now and then will always keep your bowels in perfect order. They never gripe but promote an easy gentle action. Orth.

POSTOFFICE POINTERS.

"When the postmaster tells you there is nothing for you just say "there ought to be," says an official. "None know better than he that things are not always as they 'ought to be,' and it does him good to feel that you think he is not telling you the truth about it." Spoiled postage stamps are not redeemed at the postoffice, neither can one kind of stamp be exchanged for another. Stamped envelopes that have been spoiled in addressing, when presented in an entire condition, may be exchanged for their face value in stamps. The postage on newspapers when sent by persons not publishers is four ounces for one cent. Such matter is not forwarded to the address until the postage is fully prepaid. A one cent wrapper will only carry one ordinary newspaper, consequently many of them are held at the office where mailed until the short postage can be collected from the addressee. First class mail matter requiring postage at the rate of two cents for each ounce consists of envelopes or packages that contain writing or that are sealed or in any way fastened so that they can not be easily examined. Photographs in sealed or letters in unsealed envelopes are first class, many of which improperly stamped, are daily held for postage at the local post office. A letter or postal that is worth writing is certainly worth signing your name to in full. Failure to do this is the cause of so many letters being forever lost to the sender. If undelivered and containing no return address then they are sent to the dead letter office, and if unintelligently signed, nothing remains but to destroy them. If properly signed they are returned to the writer in an official envelope.

Special excursion to St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth. Tickets on sale July 1st to 9th, and Sept. 1st to 10th, inclusive, good returning until Oct. 31. To St. Paul and Minneapolis $8.55; to Duluth $12.55. T. W. Moran, agent. Meeting State Volunteers' Firemen's Association, Fremont, Neb., July 16th to 18th, 1901. For the above excursion tickets will be sold July 15, 16, 17 and 18, good returning until and including July 19. Fare $4.50. T. W. Moran, Agent.

Do You Wish to Make Money?

Here is your opportunity.

The directors of Convention Hall have received so many letters from persons desiring to act as agents for the sale of tickets for the great series of entertainments and GUESSING CONTEST to be held in the fall, that they have decided to make a very liberal proposition to those residing outside of Kansas City who wish to get up clubs or act as agents for the sale of tickets. With every order for ten tickets, which is accompanied by the proper amount of money, there will be sent eleven tickets. Each of these tickets admits one person to one of the entertainments and entitles the purchaser to register one guess on the total vote of the State of Ohio at the election to be held November 5, 1901, thereby securing a chance to carry off the big prize of $5,000.00 in cash or any of the other prizes, ranging from $1,000.00 in cash down to $50.00 in cash. The total value of the prizes will be more than $20,000.00 and you will find it the easiest thing imaginable to sell tickets. The price of the tickets, 25 cents each, is so low that you can dispose of them without difficulty in blocks of five, ten, twenty and thirty, and each time you sell ten you receive one ticket, which you can sell for 25 cents or which you can fill out with your own guess and thus have a chance to get the $5,000.00 prize. Remember, that no tickets will be sent out until the money is received. Send your money by Bank Draft, Postoffice Order or Registered Mail, to Convention Hall, Kansas City, Mo. No stamps taken. For each remittance of $2.50 you get eleven tickets. For each remittance of $5.00 you get twenty-two tickets. For each remittance of $10.00 you get forty-four tickets. Every newspaper in the West will have advertisements of this Guessing Contest and your work will be easy. Start now and you can make money. This enterprise is legitimate in every way, and is conducted by the most prominent business men of Kansas City. Opportunity is knocking at your door. For particulars, address.

U. S. Senator Kyle of South Dakota, died at his home in Sioux Falls on Monday.

Bryan, Bryanism or free silver was not mentioned by the Ohio state democratic convention held yesterday.

The republican party has not yet outlined its usefulness and will not for at least another quarter of a century, if at all.

The Bart County Herald issued a handsome, illustrated edition last week, giving an elaborate write-up of Tekamah and Bart county.

Marion Butler accuses the Kansas Populists of selling out to the Democrats. Mr. Butler has been misinformed—it was a give-away.

Now that Minneapolis has had a downpour of frogs, it is said that St. Paul proposes to vigorously kick until she has a downpour of eels.

Politics will soon begin to warm up, although its a little one-sided thing to the demoralized condition of felonism and the talk of a new party.

President McKinley has issued his proclamation opening to settlement the lands ceded by the Indians in Oklahoma placing the date on August 6.

Now that the Fourth is past the crops are celebrating and the way they grow is a caution. Indications now point to a bumper crop in this region.

In spite of Bryan's prediction, the glorious Fourth of July, the nation's natal day was celebrated royally throughout the length and breadth of the land.

Near Crookston, Minnesota, the grasshoppers are being destroyed by grasshoppers. That's about the first consolation the funtionists here had and may cause them to grasp a ray of hope for their cause.

Uncle Sam's surplus of $76,000,000 for the fiscal year that ended June 30 is a fine showing. France ran behind $100,000,000 last year and there are deficits in England, Germany, and in fact the majority of nations.

The Davenport Republican has faith in the good sense of Iowa women, and asserts that a majority of them do not want the ballot. "What they want," it continues, "is good husbands of good morals, pleasant homes and domestic happiness."

Mr. Alfred Norlin, the treasurer of Kearney county was arrested at 5 o'clock Tuesday charged with embezzling over $10,000 of the county's money, pleaded guilty, had his trial, was convicted and sent to the penitentiary all in side of 24 hours.

It is little wonder the republicans of Iowa continue to roll up colossal majorities year after year. The big men over there don't get jealous of one another. Governor Shaw and Senator Allison have each just written a letter endorsing the other for president in 1904.—Fremont Tribune.

Will Nebraska never cease to rub it in on the calamity howler? It is now announced that, instead of being a borrower from the east Nebraska banks have actually loaned over $1,000,000 to New York. The poperaic orator must hunt up a new song, the one about the "poor, poverty-stricken farmer" will not answer this season, for it is from the rural districts that this surplus money comes.—Bee.

Uncle Sam's Greatest Year. Last Sunday ended the Government's fiscal year, and though it will be a few weeks before we have the exact figures concerning commerce and finance, enough is known to show that it will prove to be Uncle Sam's greatest year. Our export trade of $1,500,000,000 is not only a home record but a world's record, and Uncle Sam is the greatest salesman on earth.

But that $1,500,000,000 is not so great after all, when we consider the Uncle Sam's folks have traded among themselves to the amount of over $100,000,000,000, as shown by bank clearings. Why, Johnny Bull and the Czar and Emperor William and the frog-eaters just stand amazed at these figures. And how they would like a slice of it, wouldn't they? They just get a taste as it is, for Uncle Sam has learned to make about every thing he needs, and he not only feeds himself but half the rest of the world.

So he is paying off his debts at home and abroad and filling up the surplus for a rainy day. He has done so well that on July 1 he stopped internal taxation to the amount of about $45,000,000 a year. And all the time John Bull is squeezing his subjects as hard as he can and yet he cannot begin to meet expenses.

Not only has Uncle Sam had the greatest year since he has been in business, but all his great industrial family and breaking records too. The farmers never did so well, nor the manufacturing. The railroads are as busy as they can be hauling all kinds of freight while the millions of laborers are busy and well paid, happy and prosperous. If anyone ever doubted that Protection and prosperity went together he has only to study the figures of 1898, 1899, 1900, 1901.—Hobnob.

A New Political South.

A recent address by Hon. H. A. Herbert of Alabama, who was secretary of the navy in the second Cleveland administration, on political conditions in the south, has received a good deal of attention as indicating a democratic revolt in the south. The address was a large part a plea for independentism in southern politics. Mr. Herbert declared that there was a need of freer thought and freer action in the south that the time has come when no man should support the nominees of his party unless the platform and the man are such as he approves. If the party puts out a platform and nominee which a man does not approve he should reject them all. He especially mentioned the growing readiness to party revolt among the Alabama newspapers and commended those which refused to stand by the democratic platform and candidates in 1896.

Former Representative Springer of Illinois, who at one time was prominent in the councils of the democratic party, believes that a political revolution is pending in the south. Referring to Herbert's address he said he considered it the keynote for the organization of a new party in the south. "The time is rapidly approaching," said Springer, "when there will no longer be such a thing as the solid south. The movement, which has been gradual, to amend the state constitutions so that the negro will be eliminated from politics is responsible for just such speeches as those of Herbert and McLaurin." He thought that now that the south is getting back politically to her old moorings there will be witnessed a gradual division among the intelligent white voters and that element which believes in the doctrine of protection will eventually drift into the republican party.

There is undoubtedly a very considerable sentiment among southern democrats hostile to the doctrines to which the democracy was committed in the last two national campaigns. These men want the party to return to its early principles and cast aside wholly the populist doctrines it has embraced. Then the number of southern democrats is large who approve the policy of expansion, believing it to be in the interest of the development and prosperity of the south. These endorse the policy of the national administration, as Mr. Herbert did in his address. They realize that the new democracy, commonly described as Bryanism, is not only unprogressive, but reactionary, and that its success would so unsettle and disturb things as to put a check upon national advancement and perhaps destroy much that has been accomplished. Any extensive revolt, however, is not likely in the near future, because those who are prepared to make it are held in line by the race question and that is far from settlement. Meanwhile there seems little reason to expect that the south will not remain solid, though it may be hoped that through the influence of such influence of such democrats as Mr. Herbert the party in that section will be led to repudiate the financial and political heresies to which the democracy has been committed in recent years.—Bee.

The statement of the state treasurer shows that he has invested $922,787 of the permanent school fund during the past six months, as against $289,203 by his predecessor during the corresponding period last year. Not only have the investments doubled, but the receipts show almost as large an increase. While these large receipts are gratifying it opens up a serious problem in state finance. The money is only of use to the schools of the state when it can be invested and with the restrictions thrown around its investment there is necessarily a large amount of money idle all the time. Every legislature in years has been applied to for relief but it has not been given. The time is rapidly approaching when it will be necessary to cease piling up the money or provide some means of making it earn something.—Bee.

Rev. Dr. Sheldon has not given up his idea of a Christian daily newspaper. He must be hard to discourage.

His Wife's Weak Heart. It is a singular thing that in the popular view of disease the interdependence of the several organs of the body is lost sight of. The heart, for example, is diseased and it is treated as if it were entirely separated from, and independent of, every other organ. The fallacy of this opinion is shown by the cure of heart trouble, liver trouble, kidney trouble and other so-called "troubles," effected by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Primarily the "Discovery" is a medicine for the cure of diseases of the stomach and blood. But it cures diseases of organs seemingly remote from the stomach, because these diseases have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and its associated organs of digestion and nutrition.

The exhibits will be varied, interesting and instructive, and the improvement in their selection and the manner in which they are displayed, due to the experience gained by exhibitors at the recent great Expositions, will be very noticeable.

There are different rates for tickets with different limits, and if you expect to visit Buffalo, and will send your address to the undersigned, the rates now in effect will be quoted you, and you will be kept advised of any changes.

White Man Turned Yellow. Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. MARKET REPORTS.

So. Omaha, July 10, 1901. Receipts of cattle are liberal including stock cattle from Kansas City. Beef Steers: The demand is good for the best heavy cattle and trading active at nearly steady prices but on medium and common kinds, prices are inclined to be lower, anywhere from 10 to 25 cents and trade slow.

Cows and Butcher Stock: Receipts of this class are rather light and while there is a good demand, prices are steady to weak. Stockers and Feeders: Aside from a string of Kansas City cattle, offerings are light and while there is fair inquiry and a ready sale for anything with flesh and quality, common grades are hard to move at anything like a decent price.

Receipts of hogs some 6000 lighter than corresponding period last week and market averages about 10c higher. Receipts today about 7500. Market opened slow but steady and closed strong and will average a shade higher than yesterday. Range of prices, $5.70 to $5.85, bulk of sales $5.82 to $5.87. Provisions are coming a little stronger and prospects look encouraging for balance of week.

Sheep receipts liberal and prices are a little easier than a week ago. Nye and Buchanan Co. HOSKINS. Joe Benish returned from Lead, S. D. Tuesday. Agent Schramm drove to Norfolk last evening. Mrs. H. Ferris is visiting relatives at Battle Creek. Rev. Mueller of Wausau, preached here Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hecht returned to Holden Sunday evening. Mrs. O. H. The building occupied by P. Kautz' saloon is being remodeled and built out to the street. The German Evangelical Sunday school held a picnic yesterday in Mrs. Soeberli's grove. Mrs. F. Metyer returned from Washington county Monday where she had been visiting relatives. The Bega ball team came up Sunday to play Hoskins, but our boys didn't do a thing to them. Score 36 to 13 in favor of Hoskins. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Rohrke left Tuesday evening for Hot Springs, S. D., where they intend to stay about three weeks. They were accompanied by Miss Maggie Reed of Wausau.

Mrs. Nation denies that she has been divorced. It's up to her husband to retract or move on. If the weather is the same in San Francisco as elsewhere no one will blame Gen. Shafter for retiring from active military duty. The ghosts of a dead fireman and engineer are accused of holding up a train in Arkansas. At least they spirit away the money. Extremes have a habit of following each other. For instance, the coldest May on record was succeeded by the warmest June the almanac has ever been guilty of.

Nearly fifty years have been consumed in making Commodore Perry's name a household word in Japan, but there is to be no further delay about his monument. Mrs. Maybrick, the alleged poisoner of her husband, has been pardoned by everybody except the official whose signature is necessary to obtain her release from prison.

No Excuse for Buying Patent Nostrums When Individual
Treatment and Medicine May be Had from

AT $5 A MONTH.

The Shepard and Hedrick system of medical practice is based upon the idea that business principles should govern doctors in their dealings with their patients. Over nine years of success in Omaha has proven that our plan is endorsed by the people. We deal directly with the sick, making the fee in every case as low as possible for good service and the best of medicines. We know we can cure diseases that strike at nine-tenths of our people and we know, too, that by advertising this fact and treating patients on a grand scale, we can afford to work for a very low fee, which always includes professional services and medicines.

The treatment at $5.00 per month includes all medicines for the cure of Catarrh, Deafness, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all affections of the Nose, Throat and Lungs; also Stomach, Liver, Bowel, Kidney and Bladder troubles. Consultation free by mail or at office.

Dr. C. S. Shepard, Omaha, Neb.
Dear Doctor:—For about seven years I was afflicted with an almost constant headache connected with nervousness and indigestion. The result of your treatment, which I kept up for several months, were remarkably good. I have been practically free from all my troubles since. Accordingly I can comment most strongly to the public.

Dr. Shepard & Hedrick, Omaha, Neb.
Sirs:—You gave me a course of three months at my home about a year ago. It entirely cured me of chronic indigestion with catarrh of the throat and nose. I can only thank you for this cure.

The Herald is very well satisfied with the advertising patronage of the merchants of Wayne. We believe they do as well or better than in many other towns. It is true, however, that there are a few who do not aid the papers in representing the growth of the city and its business interests. To them penitence is a habit and they cannot help it. Perhaps the spirit of live and let live does not dwell within them, but the many others should not be blamed for their selfishness.

AN INSANITY TRUST.

MOST PECULIAR FORM OF CRIME AT INDIANAPOLIS.

Persons With Alleged Normal Minds Have Been Arrested, Examined and Confined, So That Physicians and Others Might Profit Thereby.

A new and original offense is under consideration at Indianapolis. It is believed that an "insanity trust" exists there, through the operation of which lunatic proceedings are brought against sane persons and are conducted in such a way as to deny to the subject the full rights given by the law.

The belief is based upon the fact that 75 per cent of the insanity cases held in the Hoosier capital are before a certain justice of the peace, that the witnesses in these cases are nearly always the same, that the physicians also are the same, and that these inquiries have cost the county many hundreds of dollars.

The particular case upon which the Attorney General is acting is that of a domestic girl who had been confined in the Hoosier capital. Her mistress had procured anything peculiar in her actions.

Another case in which charges are to be preferred is that of John Ross, which presents the salient features of those of many who have been adjudged insane without proper compliance with the law.

Describing the procedure, Dr. Fletcher says: "This is the way the law is followed. Let us suppose that a man is an epileptic. For a short time he has mental confusion. He is picked up by the police and taken to a hospital. Some one because he has had a fit. Some one of the dispensary physicians or others in the business files a complaint. In my records the name of the madman figures over and over again as a witness and as the one thing a complainant.

BOLT SLAYS ELEVEN.

LIGHTNING STRIKES PIER WITH FRIGHTFUL RESULTS.

Boys, youths and a man comprise the Victims—Bodies Found Twisted Into hideous Shapes by Force of the Electricity.

Six boys and five men were instantly killed shortly after noon Monday by a lightning bolt that struck an old pier, a short distance north of the marine hospital in Chicago. The victims ranged in age from 12 to 45 years.

When a terrific storm broke over the city the lads and men sought refuge under a zinc-roofed shelter at the end of the pier nearest the shore. A party of twelve was crouching in the narrow space when the bolt of lightning struck the roof.

The force thunderstorm which came up about 12:15 o'clock, accompanied by a heavy rain, was the most violent of the season in the city and about the pier to the little hole in the timber, which some fishermen had used in past seasons as a lodging place.

Terrible Heat at New York Leaves Trail of Death. New York like a fiery furnace Monday, a brazen sun poured scorching rays upon the great city, brought death and desolation and almost succeeded in paralyzing commerce and industry.

Nineteen persons died from the effects of the heat and the ambulance service proved inadequate to remove all who were prostrated in the streets. The deaths reported do not nearly represent all lives sacrificed by the sun.

Deaths. (Continued.) Baltimore 14. Total 109. The Rev. J. H. Randall of Grand Rapids, Mich., has been persuaded by his people at the Fountain Street Baptist Church to withdraw his resignation and to decline a call to Yonkers, N. Y.

TARIFF ON IRON AND STEEL.

Evils Which Would Follow Any Rash Dealing with Protective System.

Partial reports of what President Schwab, of the United States Steel Corporation, said on the subject of the Tariff, in his examination before the Industrial Commission at Washington last Saturday, have been widely published in newspapers. In fact the "policy" which has built up the industries of the United States, and made this country the most prosperous of all the countries of the world.

The report of what Mr. Schwab said before the Industrial Commission shows that Mr. Schwab admitted that American manufacturers often sell their products in foreign markets at a lower price than they obtain at home.

What the President Did Not Mean. The President is a cautious statesman, and he has yet to make a serious mistake in his conduct of the Government. Quick to take advantage of changing conditions, he is still firm in his adherence to principles.

Protection Gains Foreign Markets. Our increase of exports during the fiscal year 1901 over the preceding year will approach $100,000,000. This, too, has been done without the sacrifice of a single job.

Expanding Home Market. Bank clearings throughout the country continue to show about 25 per cent increase over last year. This is outside of New York City, where the increase is over 50 per cent.

Fancy Cottons. In a Washington dispatch to the Philadelphia "Press" is given the story of the contest which has just ended in a decision of the United States Circuit Court sustaining the action of the appraising department of the New York Custom House in the matter of valuation of and import duties upon a large line of what are known as fancy cotton goods.

HOLD THEM BY THE EYE.

Public Speakers Have a Way of Talking at One Position in the Crowd.

"I have noticed a rather singular thing about public speakers," said a gentleman who had attended one of the big meetings in New Orleans, "and I have had occasion to observe the peculiarity several times in my life. In some instances the observation has been attended with some embarrassing results. Several days ago I attended a meeting in this city. I was seated well up to the front, and in fact within a few yards of where the speakers stood.

But my own experience in these matters brings back an incident at one of San Jones' big meetings eight or ten years ago, when he had reached the high tide of his evangelic reputation. A young friend of mine took a young lady around to hear San Jones, and the church was jammed to the floor.
