Roy Jeffrey was a passenger least Monday morning.

Jno. Elliott of Winside, was a Wayne visitor on Friday.

H. J. Felber of Laurel, was an over Sunday visitor in Wayne.

Claus Holtgreen was an east bound passenger Saturday morning.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Olmsted, on Friday, August 2, a daughter.

Walter Goldie went to Lake Okoboji Saturday morning for a few days' outing.

Miss Anna Gamble went to Essex, Iowa, last Tuesday morning for a visit with relatives.

Frank Nye went to Essex, Iowa, Tuesday morning for a visit with relatives and friends.

R. J. Steineman of Fonda, Minn., visited a few days last week with Geo. Lehmkahl, south of Wayne.

S. R. Theobald returned from Colorado Springs Thursday evening, having had a most enjoyable outing.

Rev. F. M. Sisson of Norfolk, held the fourth quarterly conference at the M. E. church in this city Friday evening.

The thermometer weakened Saturday morning and went down several notches as the gentle rain fell from the northeast.

A bad complexion generally results from inactive liver and bowels. In such cases DeWitt's Little Early Risers will produce gratifying results. L. P. Orth.

E. F. Crane, son of Frank Crane, who lives south of Wakefield, was one of the lucky ones in drawing a quarter section in the El Reno district in Oklahoma.

A Mr. Grant of Omaha, a reservoir builder, was in the city the latter part of last week, figuring with the Mayor and city council in regard to building the reservoir at the water works here.

A delightful evening was spent by a number of Wayne's young people at the home of David Cunningham Saturday evening. Vocal and instrumental music was the feature of the entertainment.

It is easier to keep well than get cured. DeWitt's Little Early Risers taken now and then will always keep your bowels in perfect order. They never gripe but promote an easy gentle action. Orth.

Mr. Clyde Crawford Mabon, of Klester, Minn., is here visiting his college friends, A. L. and E. W. Tupper. Mr. Mabon is a gentleman interested in agriculture and reports the crops between here and LeMars in a critical condition. He leaves here for Cape Nome next Wednesday, where he will spend the winter.

From the quantity of rice on the depot platform Tuesday morning one would judge there had been a wedding and that the bride and groom had departed for some cool resort on a honeymoon, but not so. The young friends of Frank Nye and Miss Anna Gamble had gathered to bid them good-bye and had only perpetrated this joke on them when they boarded the train.

It began to rain early Saturday morning about four o'clock and continued steadily for several hours, and the temperature was several degrees lower than for many a day. It had been 32 days since rain of any consequence had fallen, and the parched pastures and corn fields needed it badly. The rain could not have been finer as it fell steadily with a light breeze from the northeast. As a result the pastures have been greatly benefited and while much corn had passed beyond redemption, inquiry from the farmers in general confirm the opinion that there will yet be a good fall crop of corn.

There is no greater revealer of character than the human voice. It is the first thing that strikes us in a stranger or in a new acquaintance. If it has that spontaneous ring of truth that no training can impart we recognize its appeal for confidence. Some voices have the jar of falsehood, and are as full of warning as the hiss of a serpent. The unconscious natural voice is to be regarded as the index of character. To speak promptly and positively is generally to act promptly and positively, to speak politely is to act politely, and to speak gruffly and rudely is a good way to make rude action easy.—Antonia E. Barr, in the Ladies' Home Journal for August.

PROHIBITION.

The Patriot, of Lincoln, which is the authorized and aggressive mouth-piece of prohibition in Nebraska, in its issue of July 25th, has something to say about the editor of the Conservative, and his action as a mediator to bring about peace between beer-drinking and non-beer-drinking citizens, who have been litigating over Sunday laws and saloons with much asperity and bitterness. But the Patriot fails to tell the truth as to the danger of riot and blood-shed arising from the "spotters."

The "spotters" were men furnished with money, by the "Law and Order League," with which to lure saloonists to sell to them malt, wines or spirituous liquors on Sunday. The rage against these hired spies made the danger, and the employers of the spies were the direct cause of the peril.

A man can not be called honest merely because he sees nothing to steal nor temperate because he can get nothing to drink. Ninety men out of a hundred can taste or not taste, drink or not drink, as they will to do. Ten out of a hundred can not safely taste or drink any stimulant. Prohibition promises to make a law to save the ten matter how much it may inconvenience or wrong the ninety. Men cannot be made honest by legislation, neither can legislation make them temperate. To abolish all horses because horse-stealing is such a common crime would be as logical as to abolish all stimulants because drunkenness is likewise a common crime. Because, in Utah, there was an epidemic of polygamists matrimony, and some sinned had the very delirium tremens of uxoriousness, is no reason for prohibiting marriage.

But our prohibition friends reason in such a way that, logically and consistently, they would prohibit anything which, under any possible conditions, can bring, by its abuse, harm, crime or sorrow to the human race.

No law-making can confer brain and will-power upon those born without it. As free agents, men may drink to drunkenness or not drink to drunkenness. When they do get drunk nature punishes the offender with head-aches, sickness and crime upon them. Nature grants no pardons. Nature commits no sentences for the violator of her laws.

Prohibitionists propose to punish those who do not get drunk, by taking from them all beverages containing alcoholic stimulants, thus to prevent from drinking those who do get drunk. The drunkard, say the prohibitionists, is not to blame. Society is to blame. The social structure is imperfect. We divide on the drink habit into two classes. One class can and does use but never abuse stimulants. Another class does abuse them and get drunk and commit crime, and according to prohibition doctrine, the class which does not get drunk is the cause of the class which does get drunk.—Casper vative.

EXCHANGE NOTES.

Homestead: Wheat and oat, straw possess but very little fertilizing value; the chief benefit from its use being to add humus to the soil, and as sorbents for stable manure. Its greatest value is as a rough forage for live stock and may be used liberally as fodder and bedding. To have it for such purposes it will be necessary to have it well stacked and not piled at threshing time. Don't burn the straw this year.

York Times: Men do not get any real happiness by pulling others down. They may, if they succeed, satisfy the baser motives, which they should suppress and not humor, if they wish to be happy. Spite, envy, jealousy and revenge create no pleasant emotions. They make no friends, they do not satisfy the heart. To cultivate them is to make trouble for yourself and others, to overcome them will make you better and happier. Rise to the level of others instead of pulling them down to your own. That is an ambition worthy yourself and one that will be applauded by the world.

Homestead: The crop of wheat is a big one in America this year. The quality is also very good. High priced records will hardly be touched, nor do those of the other extreme seem in danger. There is partial failure abroad. A great many will sell as soon as threshed to get some ready money. It may be that wheat will be fed again to some extent should corn fail to make a crop. Over a doublehenge corn was selling at a very low price and wheat was selling high. These crops have come much closer together as regards price since that time. The days of low priced corn may be at an end. High priced wheat is not probable except when there is a wide spread failure.

Randolph Times: E. E. Norris has received his certificate of patent on the Norris Aome Spool Holder. The device is designed for use by fallers on sewing machines and prevents silk thread from getting down under the spool and drawing around the pin and breaking. The device is nickel plated, adjustable to any size spool, simple, durable and useful. F. G. Hoffman and W. R. Boughin are associated with Mr. Norris in putting the spool holder on the market, the firm being known as Norris, Boughin & Co. The patent is numbered 678,756, issued July 16th, 1901, and gives the full right to manufacture to Everett E. Norris, Fred G. Hoffman and W. R. Boughin. The papers bear the names of Emil C. Aegerter and G. W. Cottrell as witnesses. The first order for the device is for 1650 and has been placed with E. Konigslow & Bro. of Cleveland, O., who will soon have the first consignment out. Already 20 wholesale wooden houses have agreed to sell the Aome to their customers and the outlook for success is rather bright. One dollar is the price of the new article.

Ponca Grit: Our friend E. R. Gurney of Winside, in a recent meeting of the Iowa Bankers' association at its banquet responded to the toast, "From the Other Side of the Counter," and made a very favorable impression upon his new friends and old ones. Ed has been recognized for a long while as a close student of politics and public questions and his said that the constant burning of ambitious fires in his very American breast was annoying to the staid and indifferent Curtis Stimpson, whose watchful and very frugal eye surveyed everything material from a dividend paying standpoint and that as we all know he is no longer an employee in the chain of McCarnock-Stinson banks but, preferring the freedom consistent with possession he purchased the Winside bank about a year ago, and is drawn where flows good will and savings of intellect come, bubbling up as truly as good steel flies to the active magnet. We quote the Cedar Rapids Gazette account of Mr. Gurney's toast: "The next toast was: 'From the Other Side of the Counter,' which was responded to by E. R. Gurney of Winside, Neb. Mr. Gurney is a brilliant after-dinner speaker for a man of his years and opportunities. He was born and raised at Monticello, Jones county, and about ten years ago went to the little village of Dixon, Neb., as a clerk in a bank owned by gentlemen at Sioux City and other points who controlled a chain of financial institutions in Northwestern Nebraska, all of which survived the terrible panic of '33 in fine shape. Mr. Gurney has made a reputation and a comfortable competence, but had time to respond to many invitations to make addresses. He made a splendid hit at the O. R. C. banquet in the city last July. Mr. Gurney undertook to tell his fellow bankers what the people on the other side of the counter expect of them. As the basis of his remarks he read an original poem, purporting to be the sage observations of an old farmer on the train that brought Mr. Gurney to Cedar Rapids. He quoted the farmer as saying that of all products Iowa turns out the best and then hesitated long enough to say that he was not in a position to deny the statement, since he himself was born in and driven out of Iowa. In a humorous and original way Mr. Gurney made the farmer say that the people on the other side of the counter expect the strictest integrity, a cordial handshake, the utmost courtesy and fair treatment.

On August 15, The Conservative, a weekly western review, edited by J. Sterling Morton of Nebraska City, Neb., will publish a symposium upon the subject, "What are the Young Man's Chances?" The contributors to this special, enlarged edition of the Conservative are all representative, successful and eminent men of the West. Among them will be found such names as W. C. Brown of the Lake Shore railroad, E. D. Kohnke of the Santa Fe, Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, H. H. Kohlsaat, Editor Chicago-Record-Herald, President John R. H. Latchaw, of DeWitt College, Robert C. Clowry of the Western Union Telegraph Co., Frank Owen Lowden, M. E. Ingalls, president Big I R R and many other prominent citizens. The inspiration afforded young men by such eminent business men should not be lost. The Conservative is desirous that all of the young men in the country should read these articles. J. Sterling Morton has always been known as a staunch friend to young American manhood, and the publication of this symposium is consistent with his attitude, towards the growing generation, for many years. No symposium upon this subject so comprehensive, broad and complete has ever been attempted. It not only marks an epoch in this character of literature, but also evidences that The Conservative is of invaluable assistance and encouragement to the citizenship which is now in the course of development.

Republican State Convention.

The republicans of the state of Nebraska are hereby called to meet in convention at the auditorium in the city of Lincoln, Neb., on Wednesday, August 28, 1901, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices, to be voted for at the next general election to be held in the state of Nebraska, on November 5, 1901:

One judge of the supreme court, two regents of the university of the state of Nebraska, and for the transaction of such other business as may regularly come before said convention. The basis of representation of the several counties in said convention shall be the vote cast for Hon. John F. Nesbit for presidential elector at the regular election held on Nov. 6, 1900, giving one delegate for each 100 votes or major fraction thereof, so cast for John F. Nesbit, and one delegate at large for each county. Said apportionment entitles the several counties to the following representation in said convention:

It is recommended that no proxies be allowed in said convention, but that the delegates present thereat from each county be permitted to cast the full vote of the county represented by them.

Notice is hereby given that each of the seven numbered senatorial districts in the state is entitled to select a member of the state committee to serve for a term of two years.

Signed, H. C. LINDSAY, Chairman Republican State Com. JOHN T. MALLALIE, Secretary.

Now is the time to stand up for Nebraska. You do not hear many farmers around here grumbling. They're all right.

And now the back bone of the droith has been broken, and likewise the back bone of Billy Bryan in Nebraska.

Lack of rain has advanced the price of the California prune. The California prune, be it remembered, is absolutely valueless without a good soaking.

The Progressive Democratic party just organized in Ohio must be prepared to face the fact that the unprogressive element of the organization is still the biggest.

Tim Sedgewick says: "Oh Lord! Go right on making the best weather you can and we will be satisfied, but do not fail to let the contract to anybody in Nebraska or elsewhere. Amen."

Church How is again at home in Nebraska. As a diplomatist he has made an enviable record and returns with honors to his country for a visit with his relatives and legion of friends.

Phillips of Chicago, known as Corn King, Phillips, who cornered May corn and made an immense fortune, met his Waterloo just west and down he went to the bottom. A fortune in hand ought to satisfy man, but it does not, always.

Speaking of the Bartley parole the Grand Island Independent wants to know "what shall the harvest be." That matter is entirely in the hands of Governor Savage. There is a pretty general opinion that he can be trusted.

Populism and democracy have parted company in this county. So it appears as about all the populists leaders have taken themselves to other parts, while a few others are enjoying the blessings of prosperity under a good old republican administration.

The Damage Overestimated.

Probably the reports of the damage to the corn crop were exaggerated. Some of the reports sent out ten days ago figured that there would be a reduction of about four hundred million bushels in the yield this year, as compared with last year's total. This would make the production of 1901 about one billion seven hundred million bushels. As rains have fallen once or twice in the corn belt, however in the past four or five days, the outlook for the crop has greatly improved.

There is a possibility that the yield will be one billion eight hundred million or one billion nine hundred million, providing the elements be moderately favorable from this time onward. For the past six years the corn yield has not varied much from the two billion mark. In four years of this time the crop went above the two billion line, and in two years it dropped below that mark. The largest crop in this period was in 1896, when it was 2,283,000,000 bushels, and the smallest one was in 1897, when it was 1,903,000,000. The years of the greatest and the smallest crop coming close together made a shrinkage in one year of 380,000,000 bushels. This was the broadest recent variation in the crop in successive years, except in 1894 and 1895. The abnormally small yield of the former year was followed by a crop 300,000,000 bushels greater, or 2,161,000,000 bushels. But the smaller crop in those years was worth $10,000,000 more on the farm than was the greater one.

A falling off in the corn yield, while it does not commonly injure the producer seriously, strikes both the consumer and the railroads. The consumer makes up the loss to the producer in advanced prices. But the railroads lose a great deal of freight through the shortage, their earnings are decreased and sometimes they are reduced to straits thereby, and are obliged to discharge some of their employees or cut wages. Then, too, a corn shortage tells in a reduced pork product and higher pork prices. Corn is the United States' imperial crop. Commonly it is double the value of wheat, and is far ahead of that of cotton, hay or any other agricultural product. It is satisfactory to know, therefore, that, from present indications, the reduction in the corn yield will not be so great as was feared a week ago.

Another Variety of Democrats.

"The Progressive Democratic party" has been born in Ohio and has put a full state ticket in the field. It is composed of friends of Mr. Bryan and the Kansas City platform and has a special sympathy for Gold Democrats. In one respect the new party holds the vantage ground. It sticks to the Democratic national leader of 1896 and 1900 and to the platforms of the same years. It calls for the issue of all forms of money by the government, which includes the greenback idea. Gold Democrats are advised by the "Progressives" to join the Republicans, and this may be pronounced good advice on general principles. Public ownership of utilities is another plank in the platform. One of the avowed objects of the new party is to run a candidate for the legislature in close counties, the purpose of which is to narrow McLean's small chances of election to the Senate. This suggestion is due to Mr. Bryan himself in a recent issue of his paper.

Mr. Bryan recently approved the regular Democratic candidate for governor in Ohio, but denounced the platform on which Kilbourne is running, and he is also bitter against McLean. In the nature of things Bryan will have a kindly feeling for the Progressive Democratic party. Its platform suits him and its endorsement of himself is at least a grateful incident when the reorganizers are at such pains to give him the cold shoulder. Bryan polled more votes in Ohio in 1896 and 1900 than any other Democrat has ever received in the state and received, for his personal popularity is beyond dispute. The new party is an indication of his hold upon a large number of democrats. It may cut far more deeply into the Democratic vote than the reorganizers are willing to admit.—Globe Democrat.

Hon. A. B. Cummings of Des Moines was nominated for governor on the first ballot by the Iowa republican state convention held at Cedar Rapids yesterday. Mr. Cummings is one of the ablest men in that state and the choice of the convention was no mistake.

The populist and democratic state committees met yesterday and decided to file. The conventions will be held at Lincoln, Sept. 12. The free silver republican committee passed a resolution dissolving that party in Nebraska. "Requiescat in pace."

Mrs. Pile attended the reception of the Wakefield Woman's Clubs Wednesday. She reports an interesting and enjoyable session.

Robt Elliott and Archie Dittell went down to Hoskins last Thursday, the latter securing a contract for a school near that village.

The base ball boys go to Norfolk on Saturday. The game is likely to be hotly contested and exciting. The "bookies" will put up clean sport in any event.

A few students have already returned to their homes and others will go this week. For all this the falling off in attendance near the close of the summer term has never been so light as during the current one.

Mrs. Mamie Wallace of the scientific class of '03, spent Sunday in visiting class rooms and teachers. Miss Wallace returns to the Pierce schools next year, this being her third year. Evidently her work in the school room must give satisfaction.

Some musicians are born great, others achieve greatness, others still have their musical attainments thrust upon them. Ross Cunningham plans playing in chapel, Friday morning indicates that he represents a happy combination of the first two conditions. With no painful wet flourishes or frenzied attack on the piano's vitals he is yet able to extract from the instrument a sweetness of melody that is exhilarating in a rare degree.

WINSIDE.

The Commercial hotel has changed hands. Sidney Price has bought the hotel and property, taking possession today. J. E. Hayes moves into his house he lately bought in the west part of town. Mr. Hayes says he is out of the hotel business to stay.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL

Excursion Rates to the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo.

It was said when the World's Fair closed that this country would not see its equal in fifty years. In all but the space occupied, however, the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo this year will excel the great show of '93. This means that more can be seen in the same length of time at the Pan-American, and with less fatigue and weariness than was unavoidable at the World's Fair.

The exhibits will be varied, interesting and instructive, and the improvement in their selection and the manner in which they are displayed, due to the experience gained by exhibitors at the recent great Expositions, will be very noticeable. In the variety, quality, novelty and number of its entertainment features, the Buffalo Exposition will surpass all others. There are different rates for tickets with different limits, and if you expect to visit Buffalo, and will send your address to the undersigned, the rates now in effect will be quoted you, and you will be kept advised of any changes.

An artistic booklet, beautifully illustrated and giving a concise description of this great Exposition, will be mailed free to all inquirers.

Market Reports.

Table with 2 columns: Commodity, Price. Lists items like Wheat, Corn, Oats, Barley, Rye, Flax, Hogs, Fat cattle, Butter, Eggs, Potatoes.

Market Reports.

Receipts of cattle fairly liberal and market is from 15 to 25c lower than a week ago. Fat cattle have suffered considerable the past week although choice corn fed calves sell well but on anything common that comes in competition with western grass calves are slow sale at unevenly lower prices. Market today is about steady at the weeks decline. Cows and butcher stock not in very active demand, and while prices are fully 15 to 25c lower than last week, market today is about steady. There are a good many western grass cows commencing to come that nearly all go to the killers at from $3.00 to $3.85. Trading in stockers and feeders has livened up the last week as western cattle are beginning to come although shippers complain that they are not finished but are very soft and do not stand the ride well. Most of the cattle to be shipped from the grass country this fall will go to killers. Country buyers are in an unsettled mind as to what to do and trading is rather slow at its best.

Receipts of hogs very liberal, yesterday 11,300, today about as many. Market today is 10 to 15c lower and slow at that. Range of prices $5.50 to $5.85 with bulk of sales $5.60 to $5.65. The average is about 5c higher than last Wednesday after having been 25c higher. Sheep receipts liberal and market lower all around.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL

Excursion Rates to the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo.

It was said when the World's Fair closed that this country would not see its equal in fifty years. In all but the space occupied, however, the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo this year will excel the great show of '93. This means that more can be seen in the same length of time at the Pan-American, and with less fatigue and weariness than was unavoidable at the World's Fair.

The exhibits will be varied, interesting and instructive, and the improvement in their selection and the manner in which they are displayed, due to the experience gained by exhibitors at the recent great Expositions, will be very noticeable. In the variety, quality, novelty and number of its entertainment features, the Buffalo Exposition will surpass all others.

An artistic booklet, beautifully illustrated and giving a concise description of this great Exposition, will be mailed free to all inquirers.

J. F. MERRY, Aest. Gen. Pass. Agent. Dubuque, Iowa.

Market Reports.

Table with 2 columns: Commodity, Price. Lists items like Wheat, Corn, Oats, Barley, Rye, Flax, Hogs, Fat cattle, Butter, Eggs, Potatoes.

Market Reports.

Receipts of cattle fairly liberal and market is from 15 to 25c lower than a week ago. Fat cattle have suffered considerable the past week although choice corn fed calves sell well but on anything common that comes in competition with western grass calves are slow sale at unevenly lower prices. Market today is about steady at the weeks decline. Cows and butcher stock not in very active demand, and while prices are fully 15 to 25c lower than last week, market today is about steady. There are a good many western grass cows commencing to come that nearly all go to the killers at from $3.00 to $3.85. Trading in stockers and feeders has livened up the last week as western cattle are beginning to come although shippers complain that they are not finished but are very soft and do not stand the ride well. Most of the cattle to be shipped from the grass country this fall will go to killers. Country buyers are in an unsettled mind as to what to do and trading is rather slow at its best.

Receipts of hogs very liberal, yesterday 11,300, today about as many. Market today is 10 to 15c lower and slow at that. Range of prices $5.50 to $5.85 with bulk of sales $5.60 to $5.65. The average is about 5c higher than last Wednesday after having been 25c higher. Sheep receipts liberal and market lower all around.

Slip your foot into this Shoe and give it a rest.
It's Drew, Selby.

Shoes for Ladies and Walk-over $3.50 for Men.

The best shoe that ever graced our shoe stock and that means the best shoe that has ever been sold in Wayne county. These shoes are made of the best material that can be found. The lasts are the celebrated and can't be beat. At first sight you'll hardly like some of the shapes. But the more you see it the better you'll like it, and when you SLIP YOUR FOOT INTO IT that settles the question of buying and settles it in favor of the shoe, too, for it is the natural shape of the ordinary foot and a shape that is sanctioned by fashion. Think of it—good sense and fashion united—rather an unusual combination we'll admit, but we know you will not object to the shoes on that account.

We keep Whittemore's Polishers.

The HERALD believes that the republican county convention should be comprised of not less than 100 delegates at any time. It would prove beneficial to the party and increase the interest that should be taken in the county election the same as at any other time, and the convention should not be a two or three man convention.
For the tourists and those seeking recreation, visit the cool retreats in Yellow Stone Park. Best reached via the Union Pacific R. R. Very low rates, best equipment—solid vestibules, sleeping cars and day coaches. Fastest time from Sioux City. If you are contemplating taking this trip, call on D. M. Collins, General Agent Union Pacific R. R., 603 Fourth Street, Sioux City, before making final arrangements with any other line.

- A cement sidewalk running from the southeast corner of the square diagonally to the court house and thence west and north to the two main entrances will be put in, the commissioners deciding to do so at their last meeting. They have certainly made a good move and one that will meet with the approval of every citizen interested in Wayne county. The best is the cheapest even if it does cost more and the fact has been demonstrated by trial on Main street. The old board walk will have to go.

PUBLIC SALE.

On the afternoon of Aug. 17, I will sell at public auction on my lawn just east of the court house, my household goods—consisting of beds, tables, chairs, lounges, and in fact all my household goods.

Don't forget the first annual meeting and picnic of the pioneer and old settlers association of Wayne county to be held at Bressler's grove, one mile north of Wayne, on Thursday, August 15th. Everybody is invited to attend.
Grant Meeks, Charley Jeffrey and Geo L. Cook are mentioned in connection with the republican nomination for sheriff and there is little doubt that any one of them would fill the office creditably, whether the office would them or not.
Maude Bressler was at home to a number of her girl friends on Friday afternoon in honor of Edith Moses. A very pleasant time was had chatting and doing fancy work. At five a delightful lunch was served by Ruth and Kate Bressler. Those present were: Misses Moses, Tucker, Cook, Gamble, Olmsted, Girten, Jones, Holtz and Bressler.
There is so much news that even if it comes by telegraph we overlook some of it. Isn't it a fact that you have seen Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin advertised several times and have neglected to try it? Ah ounce of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is as good as a three weeks vacation. Ask any druggist or anyone who has taken it. Sold by Raymond.
Democrat: A little interest is now being taken in the approaching fall campaign. It is difficult to determine just what the republicans will do as to nominees until their convention is called and it is known which fraction of the party is going to draw the lines. The democrats, as the Democrat understands the situation, will put up a straight democratic ticket, and from the best information obtainable the republicans will not name a local ticket. H. E. Miller has left the county, John Heeren, another stalwart, moving to Minnesota, and other members of the party do not appear to be enthusiastic. That Treasurer Volpi will be renominated is a foregone conclusion, and his re-election appears just as sure. Jack Cherry and P. H. Kohl will divide honors for the nomination for county clerk. Ed Reynolds is the more prominently candidate for sheriff and Ed Cullen of Winside, will be the winner for county commissioner. No democrat wants Judge Hunter's job so will give that and the superintendency of the schools to the populists. The Democrat can see no cause for special alarm no matter whose candidates win out. Of course we'd like to see our clerk there and will want to help them, but they are all entitled, to our sympathy.

The premium lists are out. Did you get one?

Cherley Stahnke was here from Wakefield yesterday.
John T. Bressler went to Winside on business Tuesday.
C. A. Chace went to Lake Okoboji, Wednesday morning.
Rev. Sam'l Jones of Carroll, was a Wayne visitor yesterday.
Have you a cement sidewalk? If not get one. It's a solid investment.
Mrs. H. E. Myers and daughter were east bound passengers yesterday morning.
Rev. F. H. Sanderson, D. D., will preach in the M. E. church next Sabbath evening.
WANTED: A position by an experienced workman, on a farm. Inquire at HERALD office.
Attorney H. E. Siman and Walter Gaebler of Winside, were in Wayne Tuesday afternoon.
Miss Clara Burson has accepted the position as teacher in the intermediate department of the Winside school.
Having returned from my summer vacation, I will be in my office every day, Monday excepted. W. A. Ivory.
Miss Ethel Brown returned home Saturday evening from a few weeks' visit with friends at Vermillion, S. D.
Judge Evans of Dakota City, was in Wayne yesterday afternoon on his way to Wausa to institute a lodge of Masons.
Mat Coyle came home this morning from Litchfield, Minn., having been obliged to leave his station on account of illness.
Tekamah Journal: Miss Goldie Brookings, as her share of the Bee valuation contest, secures a trip to Buffalo and the Exposition.
Miss Emma Slater and Myrtle Walters arrived from Chicago last evening to visit with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. E. A. Slater.
C. C. Brown and wife left yesterday afternoon for a six weeks visit in Indiana and other eastern points, including the Buffalo exposition.
A single ticket, for the usual price, will admit the holder to the combined Great Eastern Railroad Shows here next Wednesday, August 14th.
At the fourth quarterly conference held at the M. E. church last Friday evening, a resolution was unanimously adopted asking for the return of Rev. Bithell to the Wayne charge for the fifth year.
Fremont Tribune: Eastern papers are treating the dry spell in Nebraska in the same old way. Every breeze here is a blizzard and every clear day a blistering drought. It is due largely to western space writers whose stories, if truthful, would not be published.
The young folk of the college had a jolly "bee" last Thursday evening at the home of Earl Gibson. Roll call showed a few absentees on account of the "drone tap" on the girls' dormitory, but quite a number of the queens were out and they report a humming time.
Republican: Frank Russell had a horse step on one of his ankles Monday and sprained it so severely that he is obliged to use crutches in order to get about. Mrs. C. B. Gearhart of Newman Grove, was an arrival in the city Thursday, to visit her parents David Cunningham and wife. It is said that a cat disturbed the slumbers of the Kohl family to such a degree that Phil got up and went after the feline. Soon from the kitchen came a piteous appeal for help and when Mrs. Kohl got out there she found a sheet of sticky fly paper had been knocked on the floor by the irate husband who in his mad race after the cat had succeeded in planting both his bare feet on the paper at about the same time when locomotion ceased and Phil rolled over on his back with his feet in the air calling to his good wife to come and take the busted stiff off.
The Designer for September abounds in attractive advance styles for autumn apparel and millinery, both of which are lucidly described and artistically displayed. Of especial interest to mothers should be the articles "Aprons for our school girls," and "Preparing a Child for Boarding School," the former prettily illustrated. The Kentucky love story, "Paint Heart and Fair Lady," by Henry Cleveland Wood, is continued in this issue, and two short stories, "Her Grandfather's Clock" and "A Bit of Fire," the latter a tale for girls, are also given. Amateur camera snappers should gladly avail themselves of the suggestions given in "Caricature Photography," for thereby they may employ their spare time pleasantly and with possible profit in a monetary sense. "A Colonial Minuet Drill" gives instruction for a particularly dainty little entertainment, suitable for raising money for church or society, and "Off for a tramp" by H. L. Holcomb, will be welcomed by feminine lovers of fresh air and sunbathing. Numerous designs for fancy work are supplied in this issue, and the latest in literature is discussed in "Notes of New Books." Under "Health and Beauty" are furnished reliable recipes for beautifying the hands and arms, while "The Ideal Bathroom" shows how many comforts in the watery line are possible for those who can afford them. "The Cultivation of the Voice" especially considers the elocutionist this month, and "Points on Dressmaking" treats of the finishing of the fashionable skirt. Selections for parlor or schoolroom recitation, Etiquette Hints, Nursery Lore, Household Advice, recipes for Pickling, Canning and Preserving, and "Among Others," the latter a resume of current topics interesting to women, are also presented in this very entertaining number, the price of which is 10 cents.

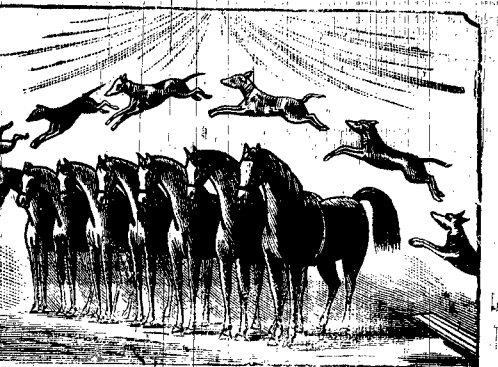

Wayne County Teachers Institute.

The county Teachers' Institute will be held in this city the last week in August, beginning on the 26th. Its sessions will be held in the district court room.
Prof. Pile will have charge of the work in dictations, grammar and arithmetic. The work in arithmetic will be conducted as a mental arithmetic class almost entirely.
Miss Lucy S. Williams will conduct the work in Primary Methods, covering the work in primary reading, number work and elementary language lessons for beginners.
Miss Celia M. Chace will instruct in the methods of presenting the work in U. S. History and Literature.
Mrs. Jean Boyd Richmond, recent supervisor of music in the South Omaha public schools will instruct in music.
It can be said without question that the instructors secured for the work in this institute this year are exceptionally strong, each being a specialist in the branches taught, and that the institute will result in much benefit to the teachers of the county goes without saying.
There will be no lectures or evening entertainments this year, the benefit derived hardly justifying the expense.
Under the school laws of the state, every teacher may be compelled to attend institute, and it is the duty of the county superintendent to close any school in session to enable every teacher to attend. These regulations will be complied with to the fullest extent. To books and song books will be furnished the teachers without expense.
It is intended to make the work practical and beneficial in every detail. Beginners who do not expect to teach the coming year but desire to prepare themselves for the work later, will be allowed to enroll at one-half the usual fee, which is one dollar.
Beaten, But Not Badly.
Our second nine went up to Winside one day the first of the week and engaged in a game of ball with the aggregation at that place bearing the same name. A HERALD reporter, though, says that a number of the Winside players looked old enough to have played in a first nine for ten years, in fact, "his said," that one of them played with a league team at one time. Nevertheless our boys were beaten in a fair and square game, but not until three extra innings had been played. At the close of the ninth inning the score stood nine to nine and the tenth inning found the score still tied, likewise the eleventh, but in the twelfth the Winside boys ran in two more scores than Wayne could find, making the score 12 to 11.
It was an exceptionally good game and perhaps our boys may fare better next time—on the return game. Battery for Wayne, Sherbahn and Armstrong.
The boys play a game here this afternoon with the Stanton team on the college ground. Admission 15 cents. Ladies free.
Attention Workmen.
Don't forget that the A. O. U. W. and D. of H. Northeast Nebraska Picnic will be held at Harrington, Nebr., next Tuesday the 13th, (G. M. W. Jaskulek, Supreme C. of H., Adelia Harding, D. C. of H., Anna Koerber and D. G. M. W. O. J. Vaudyke will be there and make addresses. Among the attractions will be an exhibition drill by the Herman drill team, D. of H. drill contest, boys and girls foot races, fat man's race, bicycle race, tug of war, basket ball by two girl teams, base ball, Harrington vs. Bloomfield, balloon ascension and parachute leap by Prof. Winterhager and other attractions too numerous to mention. Remember there will be a special train, arriving at Harrington at 9:30 a. m. and leaving at 3:00 p. m. One fare on all Nebraska lines of the Northwestern. Take a day off and come whether you belong to the order or not.
Albert Jacobs, S. B. Scaee and E. K. Williams went to Omaha Tuesday afternoon with cattle.
The Pacific house at Norfolk is closed because it doesn't pay to run it. Chas. Vail seems to have struck it at the Oxford. Well, Charley ought to.
The pumpkin show part of the fair does not promise to be as large as it ought to be owing to the drought, but everything else will be the best that can be had.
L. Ziemer of Hoskins, J. H. Porter of Sherman, E. C. Brooks of Garfield, and J. R. Manning of Carroll, attended the republican county committee meeting here Tuesday.
Oliver Barson informs us that he harvested three crops yesterday. Results: half bushel of potatoes, peck of tomatoes and two quarts of beans. Owing to the extreme wet weather the weeds got most of the crop.
Ponca Journal: Having traveled during the past week from central New York to Ponca, we can state that we saw no crops on the entire route that equaled those of Dixon county. Farmers in Nebraska who are dissatisfied with their condition, ought to look upon some of the farms that are to be seen in the east, where the soil is thin and yellow, the crops correspondingly short and the ground so rough and stony that the farmers have to hold the sheep up by the hind legs in order that they may get their noses down between the stones and get an occasional spear of grass. Of course conditions are not like this everywhere, for there are some very good farms, but the general average falls far short of the Nebraska standard. If we were to speak our feelings to our Nebraska friends we would say: Don't be simply satisfied with your present condition, but be jubilant and glad your lot is cast in such pleasant places.

GREETING.
To our Old Friends and Neighbors—The First Annual Reunion and Picnic of the Pioneers' and Old Settlers' Association of Wayne county, Nebraska, will be held at Bressler's grove one mile north of Wayne, Nebraska, on Thursday, August 15, 1901.
The Old Settlers of Wayne county send greeting to you and request your attendance with them on that occasion. We will be pleased to meet you and your friends, whether old or new settlers, and will endeavor to make the day one long to be remembered. Come and grow young again in rehearsing the doings of pioneer times. It will be your last opportunity to meet some of us.
JOHN T. BRESSLER, President.
J. D. KING, Secretary.
