other day that he read our advertisements and could not see any sense in any of them. A Wayne merchant who sells clothing in connection with other lines told us we must be crazy for coming here to sell clothing. One business man said we were foolish for carrying such a large stoc's of clothing in so small a town. An influential citizen who has a business lot for sale said as we sold most of the lothing sold in town we were foolish to stay building. A man said on the street the other day that we did not have any sense because we give a written guarantee o every customer that every suit must give satisfac-A respectable looking man said we were fools to sell wool Underwear, for we could make more money selling cheaper kinds. We refused to sell a $10 suit for 9.75 and the customer told us we were foolish to let a ustomer go out for 25 cents. He came back and got the suit at our price. A travelling man told us we didn't have ense because we marked everything in plain figures and sold at one price. A man that was in the shoe business short time in Wayne told us that the reason our business was growing so fast was that we didn't know anything he said he had to sell out. One man thought we lacked sense because we carried such a large stock of Men's and Boy's We always please our customers in the shoe line. Bartley Back in His Cell Before Echoes of the Convention Had Died Away.

Joseph S. Bartley, the defaulting ex-state treasurer of Nebras ka, is again an inmate of the state penitentiary. His confinement was the result of the action of the republican state convention held at Lincoln yesterday. A resolution demanding the immediate termination of the parole was introduced and after a debate was passed by the almost unanimous vote of 998 to 168, and the action of the convention was loudly applauded. Gov. Savage immediately instructed the sheriff of Lancaster county to take Bartley into custody, which was done, and within an hour he was occupying the cell from which he had been. The convention named Hon. S. H. Sedgwick of York as the republican candidate for supreme judge vorite Prescription Doubles a Mother's Joys and Halves Her Sorrows.

It does this by a pre-natal pre-paration in which the mother finds herself growing stronger instead of weaker with each month. Instead of nausea and nervousness, there are healthy appetite, quiet nerves, and refreshing sleep. The mind's con-tent keeps pace with the body's comfort. There is no anxiety, no dread of the approaching time of travail. When the birth hour somes it is practically painless, the recovery is rapid, and the mother finds herself abundantly able to nurse her child.
