Amos Long was up from Leslie on business Tuesday.

Tom Shannon of Hoskins, was a Wayne visitor Monday.

Work on the corner brick building is being pushed rapidly.

Mrs. Buffington invited a few friends on Saturday to surprise her daughter Luoy.

S. B. Soose shipped in from the west Monday morning three car loads of sheep.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mellor who have been visiting here, returned to Malvern Saturday.

Mrs. T. S. Goss went to Blair Saturday where she will visit with friends for a few days.

Miss Blanche Hitchcock went to Marshalltown Iowa, Monday morning where she will remain for some time.

Southwest Iowan, Malvern: Frank Strahan came over from Wayne Nebr., Sunday morning, returning Monday morning.

Luoy Buffington went to Chicago on Monday to complete a course in the Chicago Conservatory of Eloquence and Music.

John Krei and son Fred went to South Dakota Monday afternoon to attend the wedding of his brother-in-law's daughter.

Attend the lecture at the M. E. church Monday night. Admission 35 cents. College students and School children 25 cents.

Today take Foley's Honey and Tar. It positively prevents pneumonia, or other serious results from colds. It may be too late tomorrow.

The cold, blustering weather Saturday did not keep people from coming to the city and the merchants were kept busy during the afternoon.

Mrs. Elison Cherry who has been visiting with her sons, Sheriff Cherry of Wayne and Dr. Cherry of Winfield, returned to her Iowa home Friday.

Robt. Utter came up from Norfolk Sunday morning and visited until Monday with Wayne friends. Mrs. Utter, who has been visiting here, returned with him.

Don't wait until you become chronically constipated but take DeWitt's Little Early Risers now and then. They will keep your liver and bowels in good order. Easy to take. Safe pills. Orth.

Stop coughing, as it irritates the lungs and gives them no chance to heal. Foley's Honey and Tar without causing a strain in throwing off the phlegm like common cough expectorants. Raymond's.

J. W. Ziegler has just purchased of Fred Phillo the 23 acre tract of land just west of the city, upon which he expects to erect a beautiful home in the spring and move to the city to reside. Mr. Ziegler will make a model citizen and will be heartily welcomed.

Fred G. Phillo, E. Weber and Horace Theobald and Frank Hood went up into Pierce and Antelope counties hunting last week. Mr. Phillo returned home Saturday and reports that the hunters were having fine sport, so much so that the remainder of the party decided to remain longer.

Madison County Reporter: If any slick tongued stranger appears about the farm these days and wants to sell something and "and take your note for it" don't shoot him on the spot, but kick him clear of the place and set the dogs on him as he goes scotching down the road. There are reputable business men in your neighborhood who have everything you need to buy, and if they don't make their guarantee good, you have some sort of a chance to get at them.

Mrs. Emil Weber entertained at "Six O'clock Dinner" on Thursday. All the ladies present had at one time lived in Tekamah so they had a pleasant time talking over the good times they used to have. Laurel Lundberg recited several pieces which were enjoyed by all. Those present were Mesdames Smith, Latta, Houston, Conkling and Hopewell, all of Tekamah, and Mesdames John and Dan Harrington, Will Weber, Robbins, Misses Brookings and Spielman of Tekamah.

Homestead: The more I see of the gasoline engine, the more I am impressed that it is the coming power for farm use. At a state fair I had an opportunity to study them very carefully. They were shown in various styles and capacities, from the heavy traction engine to the little one that could be ploked up, put under the arm and carried almost anywhere. These engines now run with a smoothness and rapidity that was once thought impossible in a machine and there is positiveness and certainty of action not realized in the earlier makes of engines of this kind. They are easily understood and are in no sense unsafe, except in the most arrant carelessness; they do not require constant watching as do steam engines, the cost of operation is low, and the engine itself is of low cost.

Mens' and Boys' Overcoats.

You can make a mistake in buying an Overcoat if you don't buy here. Some people think any place is good enough to buy Overcoats, and right there is where they are mistaken. An Overcoat is like anything else; if out of style, if not made right, if not bought right, if not sold right, you will be badly disappointed in your purchase. You wear a good Overcoat a long time and if bought here you will not only save money but be satisfied with the style and wear. Our stock is complete in Mens', Boys' and Childrens' Overcoats and you can find what you want.

Fur Coats.

It may seem a little early to talk about Fur Coats but we have sold several and we wis to say that you will surely make a mistake if you fail to see our line of Fur Coats before you buy. We know what others will ask you and we know that ours are marked from ten to twenty per cent. less. It costs you nothing to see ours; why not look at them before you buy.

The 2 Johns, SPEAK GERMAN AND SWEDE.

B. F. Swan was a Norfolk visitor Monday.

The high school clubs of Wayne and Wiener played a game of ball here Friday which resulted in favor of Wiener's club. Score 9 to 6.

Billy Anderson came over from Sioux City Saturday to make arrangements to move here. He will occupy the brick building now in course of construction for O. D. Franks, with a fine restaurant and cafe, that will be on a par with any city restaurant. He is one of the cleverest chefs in the west and everything will be up-to-date.

THE NEW M. E. CHURCH.

To Be Dedicated Next Sunday, October 20. Services both Morning and Evening.

The dedicatory services at the new Methodist church will be held next Sunday morning, beginning at 10:30 o'clock. The Methodists were fortunate in securing the services of Dr. T. C. Hill, an eloquent speaker of Delaware, Ohio, for the occasion. The evening sermon will be preached by Rev. Wm. Gorst, a former pastor of the Wayne church, but now Presiding Elder of the Neligh district. Rev. U. H. Millard, for five years pastor of the church here, and now Presiding Elder of the Grand Island District will be present at these services, as will also Dr. Sisson, Presiding Elder of this district. Special invitation is given to everyone to attend these services. On Monday evening Mr. Hill will deliver a lecture at the church, talking for his subject, "The Boys of 61 '65, by One of Them—the Sunny Side of a Soldier's Life."

Miss Mary Diokey returned to Council Bluffs Tuesday morning.

John T. Bressler went to Hartington on business Tuesday morning.

Cheerless.
Among the people who revel in the lugubrious things of this world and mourn with exceeding pleasure, may safely be counted Mrs. Hankey, a character in "The Parting."

Mrs. Hankey is telling about the recent wedding of her niece Susan, and prophesying the probable end of the bridegroom with considerableunction.
"How is your sister herself?" inquired Mrs. Bateson.
"I wish that the fuss is all over, and the bridegroom's daughter left to bless her self with."

Mrs. Hankey sighed cheerfully. "Well, she did seem rather low-spirited when all the mess was cleared up, and Susan had gone off to her own home, but I says to her, 'Never mind, Sarah, and don't worry yourself. Now that the wedding is over, the funerals will soon begin. You see you must cheer folks up a bit, Mrs. Bateson, when they're feeling out of sorts.'"

Mrs. Madison's Case.
Polk City, Iowa, Oct. 14.—For over ten years Mrs. Elizabeth P. Madison, a respected lady of this place, has suffered almost severely with kidney trouble, manifested by derangements of the bowels and liver. Urthematism, another painful result of deranged kidneys, added its tortures to her burden of pain.

Treatments and medicines without number were tried, physicians also exhausted their skill, but all to no purpose.

At this stage of the case a treatment of Dodd's Kidney Pills was resorted to, and the results were simply miraculous, from the very first box an improvement was noticed and the continued treatment resulted in a complete cure.

This remarkable cure created a decided sensation in the neighborhood, because of the complications of the case as well as its severity and apparent hopelessness.

Upon investigation Dodd's Kidney Pills are found to be the only remedy that has ever cured Bright's Disease, Diabetes or Dropsy, and these hitherto incurable diseases are readily conquered by this remarkable remedy.

SULLER ADMITS CHARGES.
The city says he counseled surrender of Louisiana.

Sir Rodolph Suller, who gained prominence in the early part of the Transvaal war because he was an avowed defeatist, and by the Boers, has been stung by press critics into a tacit acknowledgment that after his defeat at Delsona, on Dec. 15, 1899, he telegraphed a message advising Sir George Stewart-White to surrender.

Now Suller has been goaded by the press for his repeated failures in the early part of the war, and his critics have been especially active since his recent appointment to command an army corps in a speech Gen. Buller denounced his critics and asserted that nobody junior to him in rank was better fitted to command an army corps.

Gen. Buller's speech has made a tremendous stir. The newspapers are filled with their opinions of it. Several papers declare that his explanation that CAREER OF JUDGE JEREMIAH M. WILSON.

Now lawyers in the United States have figured in a larger number of famous cases than Judge Jeremiah M. Wilson, who died in Washington while acting as leading counsel for Rear Admiral Schley. He was generally acknowledged to be the foremost of all the bright intellects at the Washington bar, and his appearance for the United States Supreme Court never failed to be the signal for the closest attention by the justices, who had a high regard for his clarity of mind and rare powers of analysis. Judge Wilson earned his judicial title forty years ago, when he served with distinction on the Common Pleas and Circuit Court benches in Indiana. He also served an Indiana district as Representative in Congress during the terms of 1871 and 1873, after which he went into a law partnership with Congressman Shellabarger, and took part in many famous cases, both civil and criminal. His attorney career was long and busy, and for many years, and for the Mormon Church. He acted as counsel in the Star Route trials, the Holt will case, the Breckinridge-Pollard breach of promise case, the trial of Captain Howgate, the court-martial proceedings against Gen. Swain, the Oberlin proceeding, the Venezuela, Alabama, French spoliation, and many other noted cases. In his death to country has lost one of its best legal minds.

NEW AMER BRITAIN'S FRIEND.
Assures Curzon He Will Follow in His Father's Footsteps.

Halid Ullah Khan, the new Amier of Afghanistan, has officially informed Lord Curzon, the Viceroy of India, that he will follow in his father's footsteps, hoping for the United Kingdom existing between the Afghan and British governments will continue to increase.

"According to official information from the Amier of Afghanistan," says a dispatch from St. Petersburg, "the brothers of Halid left Kabul shortly after their father's death, and therefore cannot be said to have disapproved in the accession of their brother. Halid Ullah, indignant at their flight, has taken measures to defend the capital and sent strong detachments to prevent their return, or to endeavor to capture them as rebels."

The future of Afghanistan may be said to depend almost entirely upon this new ruler's personality. His legal title to the throne could not be better than it is, as the late Amier is held to be the only one who would govern wisely. No title is good in Afghanistan without the qualities of strength and skill in the claimant.

His greatest weakness appears to lie in the fact that he is unpopular because a certain stigma attaches to his birth. Though he is the eldest of the living sons of his father, his mother, the third wife of that potentate, had been a shay girl, and it is urged that a man of such descent is not worthy of the throne.

GENERAL BULLER.
he telegraphed to Gen. White suggesting that it might be necessary for him to surrender and advising what to do in such a case was actually instruction to surrender, and they condemn him accordingly.

The people of England have generally stuck to Gen. Buller throughout, and his wife's social influence has been most powerful and has even reached the court, says a London correspondent. It had been decided that he would be elevated to the peerage on the next honor list. The Standard attacks him severely and tells him that the best thing he can do now is to resign his command of the First army corps. The Daily Mail, which considers that the speech would have been more in place on the boards of a theater, points out that the message to Lady Smith is only paralleled by Sir H. Pakenham's famous order to Admiral Nelson at the battle of Trafalgar, which was a request which he refused to obey.

Stung by the public outcry against the unsatisfactory conditions in South Africa, the government, for the first time since the war, has assumed the defensive, with Mr. Bouverie, the secretary of war, as its spokesman. In so doing he showed that in her efforts to conduct the Boer War Great Britain now has under arms the enormous force of more than 300,000 men. Mr. Bouverie insists that the government has kept its promise to Lord Kitchener that he should have a free hand in his command. He adds that he has not only been given all the men asked for, but more.

PRESIDENT'S PARENTS.

These pictures are from family portraits that belong to President Roosevelt, and they are now published for the first time.

Georgia shares with New York the first prize in the new President of the United States. Mr. Roosevelt's father was a sturdy New Yorker, but his mother was of the famous family of Bullocks of Georgia. She was a woman of beauty, grace, refinement and unusual intelligence, and as studiously adherent to her ideas of the right as was her husband, Mrs. Roosevelt, Sr., although she never left New York when she was married, retained all her Southern sympathies, and was hated among her friends as a "rebel" in Civil War times, although her husband was a staunch Union man.

WANTED TO EXECUTE CZOLGOSZ.
Capt. Christian Rath Desired That Grassmole Work.

There is a man in Jackson, Mich., who desired to be the official executioner of Leon Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley. He is Captain Christian Rath and he puts forth as his claim to this distinction the fact that it was he who officiated at the death of the conspirators in the Lincoln assassination. He was condemned for the murder of President Lincoln. It was Capt. Rath who supervised the execution of Mrs. Surratt, Paine, Herold and Alzroth, the persons who were found to be guilty with John Wilkes Booth, in the plot to take the life of the great liberator. The captain is an old soldier of the Union. At the time of the trial of the conspirators he was provost marshal of the Washington prison. He assisted in the erection of the scaffold on which the assassins died. He placed the ropes about their necks and in other ways facilitated the work of execution of the law's mandate.

Costly Suit Over $2.
Two years ago John Henry and Ghas, Reall, farmers living near Morgantown, W. Va., quarreled over the ownership of a section, which was worth about $2. The case has been in the county courts since the trouble began and the costs had amounted to $500 when Henry lost by default. Lawyers' fees add $200 more to the cost of the scow, which now belongs to Reall.

ROUTE OF THE PROPOSED TRANSPACIFIC CABLE.

The great transpacific cable projected from the United States to the Philippines will be one of the most important lines of communication between the civilized nations of the earth. The plans under consideration contemplate connection with Manila by the shortest possible route, and an examination of the above map will clearly disclose this method. San Francisco is from Honolulu, in the Hawaiian Islands, a distance of 2,083 miles. From Honolulu to Guam Island is 2,618 miles; from Guam Island to Manila is a distance of 1,200 miles, and from Manila to the Philippines is a distance of 1,300 miles for a cable, but about 1,300 miles of ocean, or 1,300 miles of the cable, will get a break in the great distance which it would otherwise have to traverse. The proposed cable will give every day information of just what is going on in the new American colonies of the far East.

COMMISSION

Majority Vote is Needed.
In France the agony of a general election is not unduly prolonged. The polling in every constituency takes place on the same day—a Sunday—and, though owing to the existence of the second ballot all the individual results are not immediately known, a general idea of the outcome of the contest is at once secured.

No political aspirant can take his seat in Parliament unless he has secured an actual majority of the votes recorded. The working of the second ballot, which secures this result, is simplicity itself.

Three candidates put up for a constituency—Bismarck (royalist), Durand (Republican) and Dupont (Socialist). Bismarck secures 3,000 votes; Durand 2,800 and Dupont 1,900. In England in similar circumstances Bismarck, although he had obtained only 3,000 of the 7,700 votes polled, would be elected; in France a second ballot is taken, and Durand receiving most of the votes given in the first instance to Dupont, who withdraws, is returned at the head of the poll.

There may be half a dozen candidates for a seat, but in practice it works out that those who are in a hopeless minority at the first ballot withdraw and leave the final fight to the two who have secured the largest number of votes. In some cases the candidates withdrawing recommend their supporters to vote for one of the two who remain; in others they either are silent or suggest that their followers should abstain from any further participation in the combat—London Mail.

Ultimately the bridge-jumper takes a drop too much.

The Trickster Tricked.
A card sharper who had evidently been doing the ruses joined a small group of farm servants in a public house. Failing to interest the company in the mysteries of three-card monte, he exclaimed in desperation: "Well, look here, gent; I'll bet any one of you 5 shillings I can cut the ace of spades, any of you to shuffle and arrange a deck of cards as you like," at the same time producing the pack, which he pushed toward a colored victim, who agreed to accept the wager, took up the pack, shuffled them, and then placed them on the table.

The sharper then took his knife and cut his pack clean through, at the same time saying: "There! I've cut the ace." "Now, you hadn't neither," quietly said the dazky gentling. "The ace o' spades is up my sleeve—see?"—Collier's Weekly.

Lightning Rod Miles in Length.
Bavaria has a most curious claim to notoriety, which is that it possesses the longest lightning conductor in the world. It rises some yards above the top of the meteorological station on the Zugspitze, the highest point in the German empire, and runs down the side of the mountain to the bottom of Hellenbach, where there is running water all the year round. The length of the rod is five and one-half kilometers—nearly three and a half miles.

Chastised Her Servant.
A British spinster, who christened her servant merely with her "list, a pluck, a clothes pole, a stick, a hammer and the arm of a chair, and by compressing her neck and kicking her," has been punished by the unusually severe sentence of twelve months' imprisonment.

Debts Inherited in India.
It is the universal custom all over India for a man whose monthly income is perhaps $3 to spend as much as $300 on the marriage of his daughter. This sum he borrows from the local money lender, a voracious blood sucker, whose minimum rate of interest is 24 per cent, which is only accorded to thoroughly well-to-do people. The ordinary peasant, small shopkeeper or domestic servant pays one anna per rupee per month in the way of interest, and as 10 annas go to the rupee it will be seen that this works out to 75 per cent per annum. As a rule it is more than the borrower can do to pay off this interest, and so the debt goes on growing, and is handed down from father to son, a terrible load which is never got rid of.

ROOSEVELT AND THE SOUTH. President Hayes made a conscientious effort to break the color line in the south and failed.

President Roosevelt now proposes to do what Hayes attempted and failed to accomplish. Circumstances are in his favor and leaders on both sides are more inclined to take a common-sense view of the political situation in the south than in 1877.

Twenty-four years ago there was a struggle for mastery between whites and blacks in the southern states. There was a division of racial lines that diverted attention from the issues of the day in national and state politics.

To such an extreme were machine methods carried that the white vote as well as the colored was reduced and the tendency was so antagonistic to the principles of popular government that the southern whites themselves became alarmed and through the popular upheaval the old Bourbon leadership in states like South Carolina was overthrown.

The result was restiveness among the leading Democrats and when war came in 1898, the defeat assertion of a national sentiment and policy. This influence made itself felt in the campaign of 1900 and has been more assertive within the last few months.

Politicians of all parties have admitted that there has been in the last three years a wholesome growth of nationalism in the south, and with it a disposition to break away from the bounds imposed by the struggles of twenty years ago.

President Roosevelt plainly proposes to protect the interests of the colored people. He proposes to break the color line by throwing against it the anti-populists, the anti-Bryanites, the expansionists, and the nationalists of the south.

Such a plan, no matter how strongly it is commended by common sense and by the interests of those most directly concerned, will meet, of course, considerable opposition in both parties.

WILLIAM M'KINLEY.

His Life and Work, by the Memorial Publishing Association.

We have made clubbing arrangements with the Chicago Inter Ocean for the sale, with that paper and ours of one of the best memorial volumes issued, containing the life of our late lamented President William McKinley.

The Inter Ocean has secured this work, which makes a good-sized octavo volume, 6 1/2 x 10 1/2 inches, containing nearly 600 pages of matter, and finely illustrated with nearly 300 copper-plate pictures, all printed on the best book paper, and bound in a most substantial manner in a finely illustrated embossed cover of cloth.

As stated above, we had several memorial volumes presented to us, and made the selection of this one from the entire list. It is the determination of this paper to give its readers the best the market afforded.

We have made arrangements with the Inter Ocean to club the same with our paper, and the volume can be secured by our readers, in addition to the clubbing rate, at the nominal price of 75 cents and 25 cents additional for postage.

Whereas, The Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs has honored our city by holding its annual meeting here, the largest in point of members in the history of the Federation, we feel that its success is largely due to the assistance rendered the town Federation by different persons and organizations of our city.

To the press for their generous amount of space given to announcing the Federation, and the flattering reports of same.

To the ladies non members of clubs, who so kindly opened their hospitable homes for the entertainment of delegates.

To the Mandolin Club who furnished such delightful music thereby adding to the pleasure of the reception.

And to all others who by their kind interest have made the Federation meeting of ninety hundred and one a pleasurable remembrance.

Such a plan, no matter how strongly it is commended by common sense and by the interests of those most directly concerned, will meet, of course, considerable opposition in both parties.

ECZEMA'S ITOH IS TORTURE.

Eczeema is caused by an acid humor in the blood coming in contact with the skin and producing great redness and inflammation. Little pustular eruptions form and discharge a thin, sticky fluid, which dries and scales off; sometimes the skin is hard, dry and fissured.

For three years I had eczeema on my hands, which caused them to swell to twice their normal size. Part of the time the disease was in the form of itching sores, very painful, and causing me much trouble. Several doctors said the Tetter had progressed so far that they could do nothing for me. I took only three bottles of S. S. S. and was completely cured.

S. S. S. neutralizes this acid poison, cools the blood and restores it to a healthy, natural state, and the rough, unhealthy skin becomes soft, smooth and clear.

How to Get a Set of Dishes Free.

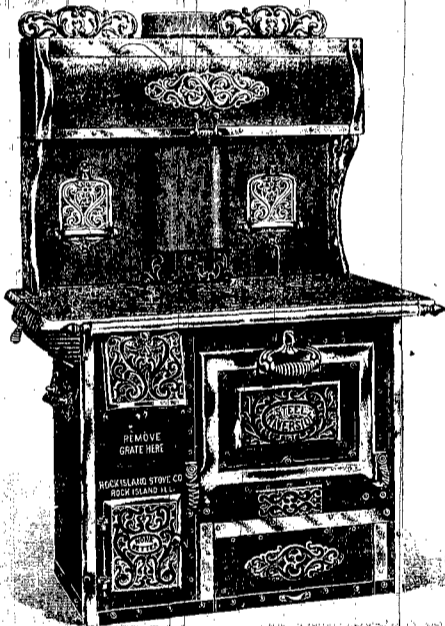

We take this opportunity to inform our many friends and patrons that we can serve them to a much better advantage if we sell more goods for cash and fewer on credit.

We submit the following reasons and ask you to consider same in a fair, business-like manner and judge for yourself whether the benefits derived from the method is not a mutual one, and whether we are not looking after the interests of our customers as well as our own. Our reputation as purveyors of the right goods at the right prices has never been questioned, but if we buy all goods for cash we can buy them much cheaper than if we are obliged to buy on time. In other words, we cannot buy bargains on time, so the cheaper we buy the cheaper we can sell. The loss occasioned by bad accounts is a large item, and a merchant must necessarily add an extra per cent to overcome this loss. If we sell goods for cash we have none of these losses. Besides, we need spend no money and time trying to collect the same. To sum the whole matter up, we can save you money and lots of it by buying for cash, putting the prices of our goods at rock bottom and selling for cash. By conducting a strictly cash business we will meet any price made by our competitors in this or any neighboring town or by any catalogue or city mail order house.

As an evidence of our intentions to secure more business, and as an extra inducement for all cash buyers to favor us with their patronage, we will agree to furnish each of our cash customers, absolutely free of charge, a complete set of handsomely decorated, hand-painted dishes. The set consists of cups and saucers, pie plates, dinner plates, sugar bowls, platters, bakers, pitchers, bread plates, etc., etc.

We now have on hand the biggest stock of shoes in Wayne county. Warm lined shoes and slippers of almost every description. Drew, Selby welt shoes and other good reliable makes as well. YOUR EYES!

Sight is the most inestimable of all blessings, blindness the most woeful of afflictions. 95 per cent of all eye trouble is primarily caused by defective eye sight. Dr. Charles McCormick, a noted oculist of Chicago, says 95 per cent. Dr. P. C. Tanycok, an oculist of New York, says 80; Dr. J. E. Brown, oculist in charge of State Institution for Blind at Cleveland, Ohio, says 97 per cent. We all agree that a larger part of all the eye troubles come from refraction trouble. My experience as an eye specialist enables me to diagnose and treat those troubles very successfully. My methods are original and new. I use no poisonous drugs; spectacle lenses are my only therapeutic. Headache, nervousness, red inflamed lids, crossed eyes, smarting, itching, or burning sensation, spots floating upon vision, dimness, blurring, etc., are all symptoms of eye strain. Examination and consultation free at Boyd Hotel Monday, October 28.

OFFICIALS HOPEFUL

BELIEVE THEY WILL YET RESCUE MISS STONE.

Know She Is Still Alive, but Beyond This and the Fact that Efforts for Her Rescue Are Active, They Are Non-Committal.

All that can be learned from the state department official at Washington regarding the case of Miss Stone, the missing woman who is held by brigands in Bulgaria, is that she is alive and that efforts are continuing for her rescue.

The official, while declining to indicate the nature of the measures they are pursuing to this end, still have hope of ultimate success.

A Chicago dispatch says: Neither Mr. Haskell nor Mr. Haskell, the missionaries, has yet been able to get in touch with the brigands in order to arrange for the amount of the ransom for Miss Stone.

The Daily Express has received the following from Vienna: "Dorador, the driver who accompanied Miss Stone when she was kidnapped, has arrived at Sofia. He says her captors are Turks. The Bulgarian police, who are not satisfied with his statements, are keeping him under surveillance."

TRACES OF LOST OIL BOAT.

Wreckage Disclosed Prochable Sink-Place of Manchester.

The wreckage of the oil tanker, the Manchester, which was wrecked in the Gulf of Mexico, has been found on Riker Island, a small, uninhabited atoll of the Marshall group, which proves that the British ship Manchester came to grief there. The Manchester, Captain P. Clemens, left New York loaded with kerosene shipped by the Standard Oil Company just one year ago. Its destination was Yokohama, but the ship has not been seen since, shipping men agreeing that it must have been lost in a typhoon.

PHILIPPINE REVENUES GROW.

An Increase of 38 Per Cent. Is Shown in the Latest Figures.

A comparative statement issued by the division of customs and insular affairs of the war department concerning the customs and revenues of the Philippines shows that the total revenue from this source for the first half of 1901 was $4,231,014, an increase of 38 per cent over the amount for the same period in 1900, and nearly double that from January to June, 1899.

WOMAN IS HELD.

Mrs. Witwer, of Dayton, O., Formally Charged with Murder.

The former charge of murder in the first degree was Tuesday morning preferred against Mrs. Mary Belle Witwer, suspected of wholesale murder, by Chief of Detectives McBride. The affidavit is based on the death of a sister of the accused, Mrs. Pugh, whose death, it is charged, was due to arsenic administered by Mrs. Witwer.

STEAMER FAST ON ROCKS.

Canadian Pacific Boat, Hating Guns Ashore at Tucker Bay.

In a dense fog the Canadian Pacific steamer Hating, from Skagway to Vancouver, went ashore Sunday at Tucker Bay, Jarvis Island, and is now hauled and fast on the rocks. The place is a small rocky islet, lying to the northeast of Vancouver Island, at the entrance to Stahab Strait, forty-nine miles north of Vancouver. When the steamer went ashore the fog was so dense that it was impossible to see ten feet in any direction. The Hating had on board 170 passengers. There was no panic when the steamer struck, and the passengers were soon made aware that no danger was to be apprehended. After examination of the steamer when it was found that the boiler did not get off the rocks by her own effort. Capt. Gause and Pilot Gunnis left the steamer with four men. He did not get on his cruise until he had rowed thirty-five miles of the distance when a tug picked them up. Upon his arrival at Vancouver Pilot Gunnis stated while the Hating was fast on the rocks he thought she was not greatly damaged. The steamer Jean was dispatched from Nanaimo to Jarvis Island to take as many passengers as possible from the Hating and bring them down to Vancouver. The collier Maude left for the scene of the wreck with a number of Canadian Pacific officials. The vessel is valued at about $210,000.

The latest reports from the steamer Hating are to the effect that a big hole has been discovered in the steamer's bottom. It is stated that at high tide the stern is under seven feet of water. The passengers have all been taken to an adjacent island.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC OFFICIALS HAVE ADVICES TO THE EFFECT THAT THE HATING WAS IN A TOTAL LOSS.

Canadian Pacific officials have been in command, was considered a most careful and successful navigator. This is his first accident.

AN INTERESTING EXPERIMENT.

French Aeronauts Trying to Cross the Mediterranean Sea.

Considerable interest is manifested in the attempt of Count de la Vaulx, the aeronaut who left Los Salientes, near Toulon, Sunday on a balloon voyage across the Mediterranean, with a view of testing the possibility of using balloons between France, Corsica and Algeria in time of war.

THE BALLOON IS CARRIED BY THE FRENCH SECOND CLASS CRUISER (IN CLAY) AND A PRIVATE YACHT.

The balloon is conveyed by the French second class cruiser (in clay) and a private yacht. The aeronaut is accompanied by two other aeronauts and a naval lieutenant. He took with him several large canisters of gas to be released in the morning. The balloon, which is decorated with the tri-color, carries accumulators for electric signal lamps and an electric pump to draw up sea water for ballast when necessary by tubes immersed in the sea.

IS LONG ON CASH.

Uncle Sam Finds to Much Money to Accumulating.

President Roosevelt is deeply impressed by the necessity of devising a way to prevent the surplus from piling up in the treasury. Secretary Calkins' purchase of bonds has afforded but partial relief, but money has been put in circulation by that method and the interest has become a burden on the country. The public expenditures all the way taxes have been reduced. The secretary will be aided in the future by the condition of the money market, and, having provided for the requirements of the sinking fund, he may take further steps in lessening the surplus by the sale of bonds.

Those who have talked with the president say that he will recommend to congress a reduction of the revenues by cutting off the war taxes as much as possible.

In fact, the president believes that if the present policy is continued the public expenditures all the way taxes will be abolished, but that will be a question for further serious deliberation.

The bad policy of piling up money in the treasury is so apparent that those who have called the president's attention to the process of money extortion from the ordinary channels find him already well advised concerning the situation. Members of the national committee have made recommendations for a reduction of the war taxes. Some, notably Payne of Wisconsin, favor their entire abolition. The war tax reduction made in the last session was estimated at $40,000,000. It is probable that not more than $25,000,000 of a reduction can be shown. This is due to the tremendous growth of business in revenue taxable goods caused by the prosperous condition of the country, and it is argued that if the conditions continue to improve, as seems likely, the reduction of internal revenue taxes already made will secure make an impression on the aggregate receipts.

STATE OF NEBRASKA

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN A CONDENSED FORM.

Mrs. John Quisenberry and Five Children Fearfully Burned—Two Are Dead and Others Not Expected to Recover.

Fire in the home of John Quisenberry, fourteen miles southeast of Grand Island, has proved to be the most horrifying affair in the history of the county. One death resulted in a few hours after the fire. Another occurred the day following and Mrs. Quisenberry and her daughters, Ida and Grace, are all expected to die. The only child of Mrs. Quisenberry, aged five years, and Edna Quisenberry, aged 14 years. Mrs. Quisenberry is so badly burned that she is unable to see. The face is so swollen that she scarcely can speak and she has had little conversation since she had her hair.

Mr. Quisenberry was awakened by screams coming from the room and hastening upstairs, burst through the door. The entire room was in flames, and the unfortunate woman and six children. Aside from the two who have already succumbed to their frightful burns there were Mrs. John Quisenberry, aged 4 years, Grace, aged 14 years, and John H. Quisenberry, aged 4 years, and John H. Quisenberry, aged 11 years. The latter is not seriously burned, owing to the fact that he jumped out of a second story window. The others are so badly burned that they are almost unrecognizable.

NEBRASKA WOMEN IN WAYNE

Two Hundred Delegates Assemble at Annual Session of State Clubs.

Practically all Nebraska representative women were in attendance at the seventh annual convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, which opened at Wayne Tuesday afternoon, and the meeting was one of the most enthusiastic ever held by the organization. The report of the state of the Federation colors throughout the town and hospitable homes were thrown open for the entertainment of not only the delegates but visitors as well. In addition to the talented women of the state Miss Margaret Evans, Mansfield, also president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and chairman of the general education's education committee, and Mrs. E. W. Peattie of Chicago were present.

Chapman and plans for a more profitable maintenance of the state organization are the issues of the convention, and the two preliminary executive sessions held Tuesday were devoted chiefly to the discussion of these matters. There was also a meeting of the Legislative memorial committee, and a discussion of the southern kindergarten project, but the proposed revision of the constitution, which is to take possible the desired extension work received first attention.

Mrs. Ernest Smith of Omaha, state president, called the convention to order at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. J. T. Bressler extended a cordial welcome on behalf of the citizens of Wayne. Mrs. Gertrude McDowell of Fairbury responded for the state federation.

HIS MONEY IS STOLEN.

A Discharged Soldier Bites on the Padlock Game.

John Kilian of Omaha, recently released from the U. S. military, was found with a young woman at Omaha and met some local insurgents at one of the depots. The first man who approached him had a curious look, one that had done service for a generation. A second man, upon seeing the first man, was also suspicious. The third man was willing to bet but at this time a third stranger approached and showed the usual stir of authority and made the usual threat in Omaha of arresting somebody for gambling. In his going toward the entire crowd, but the man with the lock and his companion readily produced papers to show who they were and that they were not gamblers. The soldier had left all his papers in his grip in the depot and the trio were good enough to hold $200 in money while he was gone. They are still holding it for this reason Kilian applied to a real policeman.

Mother Breaks Baby's Leg in Play.

While playing with her little year-and-a-half old daughter Mrs. G. H. Mendell, a mile north of Elk Creek, tossed the little one onto the bed. Afterward it was noticed that something was wrong with one of her legs. She was brought to town and Dr. Youngman found the limb broken.

Gets a Fortune from Germany.

Carl LaDare of Scott's Bluff, received a letter from his mother in Germany stating that a brother had died several years ago and left an estate, Carl's share of which amounted to 70,000 marks. This has been at interest until now amounts to about $20,000 American money.

For Violating Game Law.

Jesse and Guy King were arrested and convicted at Elk Creek, Buffalo County, for fishing with a dip net, their fines amounting to $25. In an adjoining county George Keady and William A. Gault were fined $14.35 each for having snail in their possession.

MANY POSTS DELINQUENT.

G. A. B. Commander Urges Prompt Payment of Dues.

General orders No. 7 have been issued by H. M. Wilson, department commander of Nebraska, Grand Army of the Republic. A short notice of the national encampment is given, together with a few words regarding the showing which was made by Nebraska. Concerning the dues of different veterans, the following statement was made: "A report forwarded the June consolidated report of the A. A. G. to national headquarters, this department, paid per capita tax, on 1,500 comrades. The dues have not been paid for a long time to make their report or pay dues to these headquarters. This was due to keep up our standing at the next national encampment, our representation is based on our June report, and believing those posts would certainly send in their report, we have at that date, notwithstanding special notices have been sent out, the following posts are delinquent: "Nos. 17, 26, 30, 41, 59, 58, 65, 121, 122, 124, 125, 126, 146, 158, 182, 200, 215, 221, 222, 228, 237, 245, 251, 259, 261, 262, 272, 287, 297, 311, 315, 321, 327, 328, 339, 341, 346 and 349."

The commander trusts that the simple mention of these posts will be the means of spurring up the comrades and that the department may receive reports from them before many days. We need you, comrades, and you need us. We do not desire to drop you, but unless the reports are in before January 1, under the rules and regulations, such action will have to be taken.

The winter is approaching and the commander believes that open meetings and "campfires" are of immeasurable benefit to the comrades and their friends. That it awakens fond recollections of past camps and stimulates new efforts to perform more earnest work to build up the Grand Army posts, so I would recommend that officers of posts would so arrange for these meetings. The department officers are anxious to aid in this work, and if you can, and posts should correspond with the commander, giving dates and time of arrival and departure of trains and name of road."

Old Man and Plow Fall into Ditch.

Jacob Shlager, 70 years of age, one of the oldest farmers in the Richardson County, had a leg fractured by being thrown from a bridge with a riding plow Tuesday. He was on a riding plow drawn by four mules. He tried to drive them across the bridge. When they were nearly across the bridge he tried to enter into the ditch. He fell into the ditch on top of him. Mr. Shlager had his leg badly fractured and was considered badly bruised.

Andrews on Angerichs.

"If there ever was a judicial murder it was the hanging of the alleged Haymarket rioter, John P. Andrews. There never was a Christian act performed by any official it was in the pardoning by Gov. Altgeld of the men convicted of participating in the riot." The above address is attributed to Chancellor Andrews as expressed on a Lincoln street car.

Beatrice Gets Cheaper Light.

Beatrice is once more lighted by electricity after being in total darkness for four days. At the meeting of the city council Wednesday afternoon it was decided to accept the proposition of E. J. Sullivan, secretary of the Beatrice Electric Light Company, at $80 per year for each light. This is a reduction of $31 per year light from what the city formerly paid.

Gets $264 in Silver.

A safe in the basement of Sherman & McConnell's drug store, Omaha, was forced by a burglar early Monday morning and robbed of $264 in silver. A few hours later, when the store was opened for business, the bookkeeper found the safe door open and the contents of the strong box scattered on the floor.

COURT OF INQUIRY.

PROCEEDINGS DURING THE PAST WEEK.

Seventeenth Day.
Admiral Schley's attorneys managed to establish the fact during the progress of the inquiry that the carefully prepared chart purporting to be the unanimous declaration of several navigators of the Spanish vessels was in reality a forgery. The evidence was brought out by Attorney Richard Wainwright, who produced the original chart prepared by the court and which commanded the famous "Ho! Ho!" during the battle. Commander Wainwright's testimony was given without hesitation and was very positive in character. He concluded his statement by saying that he believed that it was a forgery.

The day's proceedings brought out a number of technical matters, but the chief interest of the court never left the testimony of the Spanish witnesses. Lieutenant G. V. Henson of the Bureau of Oceanography of the Navy Department testified that he had examined the chart and found it to be a forgery. He testified that he had examined the chart and found it to be a forgery. He testified that he had examined the chart and found it to be a forgery.

Eighteenth Day.
Admiral Schley's hearing during the afternoon of the 18th was that of a man suffering under extreme excitement. He testified that he had a disagreeable duty to perform and that he was not in a fit state of mind to perform it. He testified that he had a disagreeable duty to perform and that he was not in a fit state of mind to perform it.

Nineteenth Day.
Rear Admiral Schley was the most favorable point developed at the court of inquiry on this day, inasmuch as Lieut. Holden, the watch officer of the Scorpion, testified that the Spanish fleet was not in Cienfuegos harbor on May 19 was not communicated to Rear Admiral Schley, although it was testified by Lieut. Southland.

Twentieth Day.
Captain French E. Chadwick, commander of the New York in 1898, created somewhat of a sensation when he testified that he protested to Sampson against sending to Schley a message congratulating the latter upon the character of the blockade of the Spanish fleet. He testified that he protested to Sampson against sending to Schley a message congratulating the latter upon the character of the blockade of the Spanish fleet.

Twenty-first Day.

TIME FOR ACTION.

Uncle Sam (to Roosevelt)—Now, to work. Let us show the world that America no longer will trifle with anarchy.

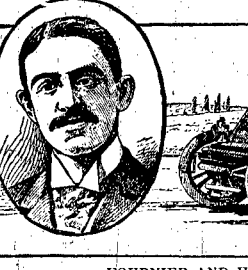

WRITING HIS FIRST MESSAGE.

President Roosevelt, according to Washington correspondents, has begun work on his message to Congress. As it will be his first message, and as the President will have to handle matters of the greatest moment, the message will be awaited with intense interest. A feature of the message, it is said, will be the announcement of the work of the Cuban legislation convention had a report of the work looking to the self-government of the island; also the date on which the American troops will be withdrawn from the island.

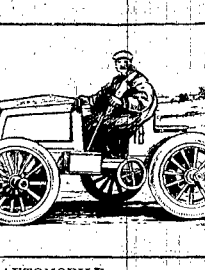

In the message, the President will call the attention of Congress to the report of the Cuban convention, and will make the recommendation in accordance with his well-known views, that this government begin the construction of the canal at the earliest opportunity. The context of the new treaty between the United States and Great Britain to re-permit the knowledge of the Panama canal, completes his message, and it is believed it is satisfactory to him. Otherwise it is declared he will urge resignation.

AUTO MILE IN A MINUTE.

Attainment of This Feat Not Only Possibility but a Probability.
A mile a minute by automobile is no longer a possibility but a probability of the near future. This was demonstrated on the Empire City track at New York by Henri Fournier of France, who in his sixty-horse-power motor racing machine a distance of six miles in 37 minutes and 47 seconds, which has been broken down to 37 minutes and 47 seconds, which has been broken down to 37 minutes and 47 seconds.

FOURNIER AND HIS AUTOMOBILE.

FOURNIER AND HIS AUTOMOBILE.

By the time the message is completed, and the Philippines and the establishment of civil government there will also be reported to Congress, with the plans of the War Department for the withdrawal of troops from the islands. Civil government will be well under way and the Philippine Islands, which were under military control, will probably have been subdued.

Some word, it is stated, will be said about the construction of the Transpacific cable. Great influence, stories have it, is being brought to bear upon the President to have the Transpacific cable owned and controlled by the government.

President Roosevelt will also report the final settlement of the difficulties in China, with mention of the prominent part played by the United States in securing a fair settlement.

One of the most important points in the President's message will be the increase in the United States navy. He will probably make a strong recommendation that a rate of increase be kept up that will keep the United States navy equal at least to that of Germany and Great Britain. A very important point will deal with the prevention of anarchy in this country.

A great deal of interest is manifested in what the President will have to say about reciprocity. His views, it is expected, will have great effect on the revival and probable adoption by the Senate of the treaties which failed last year.

K. Vanderbilt, Jr., whose thrilling ride in his own famous "white ghost" and "red rasher" were outcome by his record ride with the champion of European chauffeurs.

CAPE UNDER MARTIAL LAW.
All of South African Colony Is Now Ruled by Military.
The serious view which the British government takes of the conditions in Cape Colony was indicated by the proclamation contained in the districts of Cape Town, Wynberg, Simonstown, Port Elizabeth and East London.

The proclamation is the outcome of the recent visit of the premier of Cape Colony, Sir John Gordon Sprigg, and the other secretary of native affairs in South Africa, J. Rose Innes, and the British high commissioner, Lord Milner. It places under military control the few points in the Cape Colony hitherto exempted, and suspends the entire colony.

The action taken probably forebodes the commencement of Hlongwe's war, which those on the spot are understood to believe necessary to end the war.

ROOM IN THE WEST.

Untilled Acres of Land Aggregating 600,000,000 Acres.
It is not generally known that there are in the United States nearly 600,000,000 acres of land to the extent of 600,000,000 acres. There are many times when one is apt to think that the country is getting a trifle crowded, and one welcomes the opening of little tracts of a few hundred thousand acres of land for settlement. But all Europe does not possess the acreage which is included in the arid region west of the Mississippi. There's the rub—it is an arid region. But in these days of vast increase in the employment of irrigation, the solution of the problem of congestion appears.

This tremendous expanse of territory is capable of supporting a population of 50,000,000 people. At the increase rate of only 5,000,000 or 6,000,000 a decade, it will be long time before the population of the country has reached 125,000,000. But the preparations must be made to accommodate a population roughly estimated by these figures.

DEWEY SAYS IT'S TRUE.

He Announces His Engagement to Miss Palmer, Daughter of the Late Henry Palmer, and Granddaughter of John P. A. In 1898, he was first president of the Merchants Bank of New York City. Miss Palmer is young and beautiful, but is little known in New York society, having been married to a number of men.

To a reporter Senator Dewey said: "It is true that I am to be married. The lady who has honored me by pronouncing me her wife is Miss Palmer, whom I have known for years."

Navy Needs Wireless System.
The Bureau of equipment, of which Rear Admiral Bradford is chief, has decided that the navy must be equipped with wireless telegraphy, and if authorized by its own officers, he is prepared to purchase the Marconi system and to develop it. Admiral Bradford will recommend this in his annual report.

SCHLEY IS RETIRED.

Naval Officer Reaches Age Limit and Is Succeeded by Widley.
Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley is now on the pay retired list. Captain Frank Widley, who commands the battleship at Manila Bay, has been promoted shortly after Admiral Schley's retirement to fill the vacancy.

Winfield Scott Schley's connection with the United States navy, from 1870 to 1898, was a period much longer than the average, at sea, and twenty-five years on shore duty. He has sailed on all the seas and has fought on more of them than perhaps any other officer in the navy.

In 1859, at the age of 17, he entered the Naval Academy, from Maryland. Immediately after his graduation he was attached as a midshipman to the frigate Niagara, which conveyed home the first Japanese embassy sent to the civilized world.

The Civil War had begun when, on 30 April 1861, the Niagara returned Schley to the United States. His first war service was as commander of a big prize steamer, which he navigated from Charleston to Philadelphia. He was placed in command of the Potomac and distinguished himself by assisting, under heavy fire, in the recovery of a disabled Union vessel which lay helplessly near the shore in Mobile Bay.

His most notable service was the rescue of the Greely North Pole expedition. He beat the whalers who were inspired by a reward of $25,000 to be the first to find Greely, although to do so he sailed in the waters near Cape Sabine a month earlier than they had ever before been navigated or have been navigated since.

As commander of the cruiser Baltimore he was chosen to convey the body of John Ericsson to Sweden. He sailed then to Valparaiso, where two of the Baltimore's crew were killed and fifteen wounded by a Chilean mob. Reparation was demanded by the government. When war with Spain was declared he was made commander-in-chief of the flying squadron.

Schley's retirement, it is said, will have no effect upon the investigation now in progress.

DEATH OF THE AMER.

Hubbald Khan Is Now Potentate in Afghanistan.
The report of the death of Abdul Rahman Khan, Amir of Afghanistan, has been confirmed and Europe will have an opportunity to see a test of the theory that it was the Amer life which stood in the way of a clash between Russia and Great Britain. The Amer life, son, Hubbald Khan, has been officially proclaimed Amir and the accession has been accepted by his brothers and the soldiers. Before his death, the old Amir warned the Afghans against the Russians.

Hubbald Khan is an unknown quantity in his own country. It is possible that he has been trained to follow in his father's footsteps and will endeavor to imitate that wise oriental policy of keeping on good terms with both Britain and Russia. It is not his possible attitude toward foreign governments, however, which has been a cause of apprehension, but the fact that he would be unable to hold in check the numerous bands of semi-organized Ghilzais, Duranis, Aimaks and Tajiks who roam over Afghanistan in more or less subservience to a somewhat patriarchal government. An outbreak of disorders in the country, with a consequent menace to Russian or British interests, would be a pretext for intervention. It is with the knowledge of these conditions and of the fact that Russia's road to India and the sea lies through Afghanistan that both the interested powers have watched so carefully over the Amer's health.

FRICION IN THE PHILIPPINES.

An English correspondent who has just returned from Manila says that Judge Taft, civil governor of the Philippines, and the military authorities are at loggerheads over the treatment of insurgents.

The military authorities urge a vigorous policy, and have several times threatened to execute a court-martialed and condemned to execution insurgent natives who were convicted of treachery. Judge Taft, the merchant says, has invariably commuted the sentences of the convicted men to short imprisonment or the payment of a fine.

The military authorities claim, says the correspondent, that severity is necessary, as Manila is honeycombed with rebels, and that Malabar, the insurgent leader, is running about Southern Luzon as he pleases.

DEAR NEWS.

The adjutant general's report on the standing of the G. A. R. shows that death is making its steady inroads on the membership of the organization. The number lost by death during the year ended June 30, 1907, was 8,160, and the total membership at the end of the year was 2,307,507. This is the smallest membership given in any annual report since the early days of the organization. The death and suspension of members is partly made good by restoration to good standing and the addition of new members. But notwithstanding these, the gap grows steadily wider.

In ten years past the membership of the Grand Army has dropped from 338,617 to 2,307,507, a loss of 128,550. This annual loss in each of the seven past years is given in the following table:

Date	Members	Loss
June 30, 1897	338,617	17,439
June 30, 1898	321,178	17,439
June 30, 1899	303,739	17,439
June 30, 1900	286,300	17,439
June 30, 1901	268,861	17,439
June 30, 1902	251,422	17,439
June 30, 1903	233,983	17,439
June 30, 1904	216,544	17,439
June 30, 1905	199,105	17,439
June 30, 1906	181,666	17,439
June 30, 1907	164,227	17,439

Since 1885 the Grand Army has lost a little over 188,000 in numbers. This, however, measures only approximately the loss by death among the members of the organization. The interest in the cause of the dead among those who never joined the Grand Army. Probably not more than one-third of those who fought in the war have been enrolled among the boys in blue. The deaths among the latter have been in the larger proportion, and it is consequently within the truth to say that during the past seven years 100,000 veterans have joined the grand army in the beyond. The next seven years is likely to see still greater inroads. The advancing age of those who remain and their growing infirmities must make great gaps in the Grand Army membership and among the enrolled veterans. The falling of the army is steady and sure, and soon only a remnant of those who fought to save the Union will remain.

Homestead: In some fields of corn there will be soft ears. It will be a good plan, and one that will pay well, to attach a box on some part of the wagon at husking time in which may be thrown all the soft ears. A soft ear will help to spoil two or three sound ears next to it when put in the crib, and several of them will lower the grade materially.

There is every reason to believe the republicans will elect a majority of the officers in the county this fall, if not all of them. This can be done, and can be done without speaking ill of a single democratic nominee. It is not necessary, for little if anything can be said concerning the conduct of the county officers from the highest to the smallest office during the past two years. But in view of the fact that capable men have been nominated by the republican party, throughout, what is the duty of republicans?

Verily the life of a country editor is full of thorns. His bread is promisee, his meat is disappointment. His creditors chase him by day and the devil grineth at him by night. He sendeth a paper to a subscriber on credit and the subscriber payeth him not. Then he stoppeth his delinquent paper and the delinquent signeth tra la and borroweth from a neighbor. He worketh up the politician, and the politician getteth elected and knoweth no more. He puffeth the church fair gratis and then attendeth it, payeth his quarter and getteth two oysters. He boometh his town and all there in and yet receiveth little support. Two young people marry and he giveth them a great puff, and they go to housekeeping and taketh not his paper. Yea he is bound down with woe and his days are full of grief and vexation of spirit. But sorrow endureth only for a night and joy cometh in the morning. He ploddeh along in patience, and it is written that he will receive his reward at judgement.—Item.

Permanent homes are the units of the state. The love of home is primary patriotism. The composite of American homes is the American Republic. When the integral parts are enlightened, refined and contented, the concrete is solid, substantial and beneficent. A government with no permanent homes is inconceivable. The nomadic tribes of Indians whom we on the west side of the Missouri have succeeded, never established and embellished permanent homes. One of the most accentuated and emphasized distinctions between savagery and civilization is found in the fact that the former never has and the latter always has established domiciles. Every man and woman who cultivates a love of home in the household is doing kindergarten patriotic work. Love for a government ultimately depends for its strength upon the power of the government to protect the home, and no citizen or subject can cherish a love for a country which affords no protection to the homes of its citizens.—The Conservative.

Aside from the regular departments where garment designs for adults and juveniles are presented, there are given this month three special articles—"Furs Fashionable," "Mourning Attire" and "Fashionable Dress Sleeves," the latter under "Points on Dressmaking," "Health and Beauty" hints, "Fittings for the Dining Room," "Book Notes" and the concluding chapters of the Kentucky love story, "Faint Heart and Fair Lady," are also to be found in this number.

Though the seventh annual convention of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs closed at Wayne with Thursday evening's program, that formally by no means closed the proceedings of the meeting. Fully 100 club women gathered at the station at daylight Friday morning, a coach load of them coming to Omaha, and the throng afforded ample occasion for a thorough discussion of the convention and many suggestions if not actual plans for the meeting next year. The women are unanimously of the opinion that the meeting is a triumph in the club movement of the state, for it not only attracted the largest attendance of delegates that has ever been present, but successfully met one of the gravest crises in the history of the organization, and through all only harmony and the most friendly feeling prevailed. Through the hospitality and admirable management of the people of Wayne those elements were added that contribute so largely to the success of an occasion and nothing was left undone to add to the comfort of their guests.

Independent of the unwritten law that officers serve two terms, the convention seemed unanimous in desiring a continuance of the administration. All recognized their unselfish work of the last year and realized their fitness to bridge over the coming year until the proposed revision of the constitution will enable new officers to take up the work and carry it on effectively. During the morning it leaked out that it was only in compliance with a rule that the nominating committee, composed of the presidents of the Federation, knowing the unanimous wish of the women, presented a list of names to run against those of the old officers and, being aware of this, the hostess organization allowed the name of one of its leading workers to stand for the presidency to be defeated, but this incident was only in accordance with the courtesy of the Wayne women during the entire week. It was upon the library question, however, that the women came nearest to a decided difference of opinion. Many feeling that as the Federation library had been established and supported by the more able clubs, for those who could not obtain or afford them, it would be unwise to turn over these books for club women to a new institution for a year at least, or until it had established itself a success. Others held that as the women are the recognized prime movers in the work for the state traveling library, though they had been ignored when the fifth appointment in the commission was made, they should stand by the new institution and see that they were recognized in future, also that the promises written them by members of the commission be fulfilled. Relieved of the responsibility of the convention's dignity opinions were freely expressed.

The majority seemed pleased with the invitation to meet next year at Columbus and feel that its central location is greatly in its favor. The biennial meeting at Los Angeles next May promises to be well attended by the Nebraska federation, in addition to the delegates.—Omaha Bee, Oct. 12

The McKinley Islands.

It is a happy suggestion that the name of the Philippines should be changed to the McKinley Islands. The present title commemorates the reign of a powerful Spanish tyrant, one of the most unlovable figures in European history. There are peculiarly strong reasons why the name of McKinley should be applied to the archipelago now that it is a part of the territory of the United States. The late President faithfully represented the honor and genius of the American people when he decided that our treaty with Spain should include the acquisition of the islands by this country. No problem of his administration caused President McKinley more anxious thought than the course to be pursued in regard to the unusually populous islands on the other side of the Pacific. The situation was a new one in national affairs. Circumstances required the President personally to think out the policy, to exercise the initiative. The crisis was the most remarkable one of his term. He was weighed and not found wanting.

For his decision as to the future of the Philippines, President McKinley went, as was his invariable habit, to the American people. They were not, and never have been, in favor of shirking a just responsibility because it involves a great trouble and expense. The Philippines were not in the public mind when the war with Spain began. But they quickly fell into our hands through a brilliant feat of arms and upon us therefore rested the duty of retaining and governing them, or casting them upon the world a chaotic mass of diverse tribes, warring with each other and threatening to be a formidable danger in the Pacific to all civilization. Duty to the people and fidelity to American history dictated President McKinley's course in the Philippines. His profound insight into the American character made them a part of the United States. His name far above all others, is the one they should bear, and the one of which they will be forever proud.

Risking Life

To make a living! And we stand and stare up at the man in the clouds, wondering that any man can be so foolhardy. But what of the business man, who has barely time to snatch a hasty meal, and get it down a lunch of pie and tulk in a few minutes? He too, is risking his life to make a living. Life is sustained by food properly digested and assimilated. The result of hasty eating and irregular meals is a "weak" stomach, and a "weak" stomach means a weak man. When the stomach "wreaks" the food eaten is not properly digested and cannot be perfectly assimilated, so that there is a daily loss of nutrition, which in time will result in physical collapse.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the assimilation of all the nutritive value of the food eaten, and so builds up the body into sound health and strength.

Mr. Ned Nelson, the celebrated Irish comedian and mimic, 377 Royden Street, Camden, N. J. writes: "We suffered an eruption of twelve weeks and the constant traveling gave me a bad touch of that dread disease called dyspepsia. I had tried everything possible to cure it till last week, while playing at B. F. Keith's Bijou Theater, Philadelphia, in the Nelson Trio, a professional friend of mine advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I tried it, and, thank God, with good results."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
