It will be remembered that this couple were married by Judge Henter admetime ago and after itsing together a short time, the woman left for Dakota where she had another husband. This didn't just exactly suit Kimball and he had her arrested. She was arranged before the judge where she pland guilty and was bound over to the district court. Kimball was also placed guinty and was soluted over the tax struct court. Kimball was also placet under bonds to appear as prosecuting witness. He failed to secure the bond and had to go to jell. When the east was called in the district court the woman entered a plea of guilty and the judge sentenced her to one year in store for him. He was arrested on the charge of adding and abbetting in the crime of bigamy, having known before he married, the girl that she had another husband. After consulting an attorney and fully considering the matter Kimball decided to plead gull-ty, and was given a sentence of one year in the pen.

CAMPBELL BROS. CIRCUS.

Early yesterday morning the sn boys and the big men assembled boys and the big men assembled in numberless unmbers to view the in-coming of the trains carrying Camp-bell Bros, celebrated consolidated shows, which reached the city about 6:30 in the morning. The day dawned bright and beautiful and a model day bright and beautiful and a model day for a circus followed. The parade in the morning was a very creditable af-fair, witnessed by a large concourse of people along the street. In the atter-noon to their credit be it said, Camp-bell Bros gave their show almost as advertised. It was a first class per formance in every respect and credi-table managed and free from anything that would tend to injure the the feel Bros. will receive a large audience admated between the Rev. Peter Birrell and the Wayne church the Moderator propounding the question to pastor and people. Rev. W. M. Devore gave the charge to the pastor and Rev. E. P. Wigton the charge to the people. The union was most happily formed and many warm expressions of loyalty voluntarily given. The prospect is very encouraging, and the motto of the present pastor is "co-operation." I he choir rendered some inspiring selections and the abdience was large and appreciative. The clergymen present were Revs. S. Light, W. T. Findley, S. Shapeless, H. S. Morripson, O. A. Elliott, W. S. Kunz, W. M. Devors, E. P. Wigton, T. Scudder, and H. Hyder; Elders D. Cunningham and and S. Molsane.

Lloyd Cunningham was reared from childhood in this church and endearing its fittingly inspired him to seek Lincoln country, S. D., May 12, 1885, being at the time of his death 17 years and 11 days old.

In August, 1889 he came with his parents to Wayne, Nebr., where the has since resided.

At the age of five he started to school, continuing his work each year and st the time of his death he was an honored member of the tenth grade of the Wayne High School.

For the last three years he has not been very strong but never gave op until the latter part of February, and since that time the decline was gradinal until the end came.

John was a lood boy, kind gnd loving to all and beloved by all who knew him, and his smiling face, will be missed by all. He was a devout Catholic, always attending church as long as his health would permit.

The funeral was held Monday morning 3t half gast ten, conducted by Rev. Father English of Hubbard. The fioral tributes were many and beauth fall, showing the love and esteem with which the deceased was held. A large concourse of friends followed the remains to the connectery where they were tenderly laid to rest.
