No better description of an Arizona "roping," or jessing contest, has been written than Ray Stanger Baker's Baker's story, "The Roping at Pasco's" in the June McClure's. The conditions of the contest are simple, the cowboy must who rove, throw, and tie his steer in the quickest time. In this case young Turk McGlory of Texas carries off the prize, incidentally breaking all records. If the average "roping" is as exciting as the one Mr. Baker describes, people who travel two thousand miles west for a college football game or as far west for a prize fight might find it worth their while, and not beyond their means, to hunt up Pasco's in time for McGlory's next exhibition.

DECORATION DAY.

Friday was Decoration Day, when the usual exercises of the day were appropriately carried out under the supervision of Casey Post, Grand Army of the Republic of this city. In the afternoon the business houses were decorated with flags and bunting, and during the afternoon all business houses were closed. Promptly at one o'clock the grand army boys met at the hall where the procession was formed and headed by the Grand Army Band of near Winslow, marched to the cemetery. Here the regular ritual exercises of the G. A. R. were carried out and the graves of deceased comrades strewn with beautiful flowers by a corps of young ladies. The cemetery presented a beautiful scene, as there were but few graves that were not covered with flowers and plants in memory of loved ones gone to the great beyond. The procession again formed and proceeded to the opera house where an immense crowd assembled to witness the exercises. The stage had been prettily decorated with flags, plants and flowers. After music and prayer and the report from G. A. R. headquarters, Rev. Dr. Rowland of Lincoln, was introduced who delivered a very interesting address. There are now buried in the Wayne cemetery—old soldiers—of whom died during the past year.

GRADUATING EXERCISES.

Class of 1902 Celebrates the Close of Their School Life in the Wayne High School.

Thursday evening, May 29, 1902, the graduating class of the Wayne High School held commencement exercises at the opera house, which were attended by a large audience. The stage had been prettily decorated with flowers, and the class officers, under blue and cream, were arranged back and forth across the stage, in the center of which was suspended an immense ball around which was placed the class motto, "Let the Ropes of the Past Ring the Bells of the Future."

The class of 1902 is comprised of fifteen young ladies and three young men, namely: Misses Emma E. Aditt, Valodictorlan, Margaret Aditt, Libbie Ellis, Mary Farr, Jennie Gaertner, Laurel Lundberg, Eda Myers, Alice Stringer, Clara Ahern, Jessie Tucker, Elsie Warnock, Bessie Young, Gayle Jones, Edna Relyea, and Georgia Ferwiler, and Messrs. John Bell, Frank Gerton and Edward McVay, who were seated upon the stage.

The program of the evening was begun by a pretty piano duet by Georgia Terwilliger and Gayle Jones, and the excellent manner in which this music was rendered evidenced the fact that the ladies had found time to accept their much more than the arduous duties attendant to school work. Rev. Birrell delivered the invocation, after which Misses Clara Phillips and Maude Britton addressed Walter Goldie and L. F. Holtz sang a pretty quartet, "Come O Come Where Fancy Bids."

In former years class orations and essays have been on the program, but owing to the large class it was decided this year to dispense with this work and instead Rev. W. S. Lewis of Morning Side college of Sioux City, delivered the oration for the class, after which chose as his "text" the word "Character," and his remarks were listened to with the closest attention, and contained many very valuable features that doubtless will be remembered by the graduates, or should be at least. Miss Ahern, a member of the class, pleased the audience with a vocal solo that indicated a high mark for Wayne's musical talent, as did the piano duet following by Misses Libbie Ellis and Elsie Warnock. The "Farewell Remarks" were delivered by Miss Emma Aditt, and consisted of a few remarks, presented diplomatically to each member of the class, the exercises concluding with a quartet and the benediction by Rev. Birrell.

Wayne county is entitled to eleven votes.

Congressional Convention.
The republican electors of the several counties of the Third Congressional district of the state of Nebraska are hereby called to meet in convention at Fremont, Nebraska, on Tuesday, June 10, 1902, at 2 o'clock p. m. of said day, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for representative to congress from said congressional district, and for such other business as may properly come before that convention.

REPUBLICAN CO. CONVENTION.
By order of the Republican County Central Committee a delegate convention of the Republican party is called to meet in the city of Wayne, Nebraska, on Saturday, June 7, 1902, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent the county in accordance with the provisions of the respective calls for conventions to which the republicans of the county are entitled by representation, namely, to-wit: the State Congressional, Senatorial, Representative, and for the further purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for the office of county attorney. The various precincts of the county are entitled representation as follows, one delegate for each twenty votes cast at the last general election, or major fraction thereof, for Senator, E. S. Briggs, for the office of judge of the Supreme Court, and one delegate at large for each precinct. The various precincts of the county will be entitled to following number of delegates:

Brenna	3	Plum Creek	4
Chaple	3	Strahan	4
Deer Creek	4	Sherman	4
Garfield	4	Wilbur	4
Hoskins	5	Winslow	4
Hancock	3	Wayne First Ward	4
Hunter	4	Wayne Second Ward	4
Leola	2	Wayne Third Ward	4

C. A. CHACE, Chairman.
E. A. LUNDBURG, Secretary.

Can you tell who will be the next Governor of Nebraska? Your fortune is made if you can.
John T. Bressler of Wayne has come into the race as a candidate for state treasurer. He would be an honor and a credit to the party and office, which cannot be said of the present incumbent.—Dakota City Eagle.

The election held in Oregon on Monday resulted in a victory for the republican party. All but one of the state officers were elected also two congressmen and the legislature.

The Boer war is over but in surrendering to the British the terms were such that the Boers are to be restored to their homes, given personal liberty and property. Civil government will supplant military, with autonomy to follow.
H. H. Wilson who was here last week Thursday for a few minutes between trains, is a candidate for the republican nomination for Governor. Mr. Wilson lives at Lincoln and is one of the most prominent men in the state with an excellent reputation as to his integrity and ability to fill the position. He is very highly spoken of by those who are intimately acquainted with him.
It is an odd but exceedingly gratifying circumstance that the supplies for the stricken region in the West Indies have been ample to meet all the wants of the afflicted. A greater number of persons were in need of assistance than in any calamity of the past half century, but relief came so quickly and in such large amounts that the suffering was less than in any similar catastrophe of anything like the same proportions in the world's history. The calamity appealed to the world, and the world immediately responded. The telegraph spread the news of the affliction throughout christendom within a few hours after its occurrence, and the response was almost instantaneous. Sympathy and the growing spirit of fraternity among the different races, are tending more and more toward a glowing, Tenbyson's federation of the world a little earlier than anybody expected.

HIGH WAGES ECONOMICAL.

It is Because of Them That We Are Prosperous.

A distinguished visitor to Seattle from abroad voices the European economic view when he says: "I think it would be better for the city if there were more workmen here and consequently keener competition. I find the price of labor to be exceptionally high, and the cost of establishing a new enterprise must be heavy. If prices were lower the city would develop more rapidly."

This is the feature of American industrial life which visiting Europeans find it most difficult to understand, and it is the rare exception when one of them realizes the truth that the wonderful industrial growth and prosperity of the United States is not despite, but because of the high wages which are paid in this country. As the American, with no capital save his labor, is the largest earner in the world, he is likewise the largest spender by far. He is the consumer who absorbs the greater portion of the products of American manufactures, either individually or through the great agencies which have been created to cater to his phenomenal wants.

The foreign trade of the United States is insignificant besides the great home trade. Our commerce which crosses the ocean is a very small matter beside the vast aggregate of the tonnage transported along internal lines. The higher the wages the greater the aggregate consumption, and consequently the greater the demand for labor in creating the products for the consuming market.

There is a limit beyond which wages cannot be advanced, but the limits set by past theoretical economists have long been passed. It is probable that the limit beyond which wages cannot be economically increased is when they reach such a high point as to arrest consumption and thus reduce the demand for labor.

It is, of course, true that a general reduction in wages throughout the United States would result in a decrease in the cost of all products of labor. It would also be speedily followed by a decline in consumption, probably up to the full limit of the decline in wages. The consumer could buy cheaper, but he would have less to purchase with, and consequently would buy less. Lessened consumption would be followed by a lessened market for labor, and the endless chain of retrogression would begin to revolve. The argument for smaller wages is like the argument for free trade, it has in view the benefit of one element in the community, the consumer who does not earn his livelihood in a productive industry. This is a very small class in any community.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

At the republican county convention held at Stanton last Saturday, W. W. Young, who is a candidate for congressman, was authorized to select his own delegates and the convention unanimously passed the following resolution:

Whereas, in the approaching political campaign, in order for the republican party to achieve victory in the Third congressional district, it must place in nomination a man who can ably champion republican principles and command the confidence of a united party; and

Whereas, W. W. Young of Stanton, Neb., is a candidate for the republican nomination for congress in this, the Third congressional district, Stanton county never having in the past been honored by the party with a nomination for any responsible position beyond that of state senator; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the republicans of Stanton county, in convention assembled, do most earnestly endorse the candidacy of Senator W. W. Young as our candidate for the congressional nomination and commend him to the republican congressional convention, which will convene at Fremont on June 10, 1902, as the most available man for that responsible position. During the twenty years that he has been a resident of Stanton county his honor, integrity, judgment and good name have never been questioned. His reputation as an orator is as wide as the state and in our judgment as a public speaker he is not surpassed, if equalled, by any republican in the district. Should the convention see fit to place him in nomination it will have conferred an honor upon an able and worthy man, and if such be doubted by anyone at convention time it will be admitted by all long before election that in his nomination no mistake was made.

Board of Equalization.
Notice is hereby given that the county board will act as a board of equalization, commencing Tuesday, June 10, for the purpose of reviewing the Assessors' books and hearing any and all complaints regarding the assessment of property, both real and personal. The board will continue in session for three days and all complaints must be made at this time.

WHEN BABY IS COMING USE Mother's Friend.

Woman's greatest dream of beauty and glory is when nature has chosen her to become a mother. Every faculty is keenly alert and her nature the best as she foresees the joy, the ambition, the success and the life-long satisfaction coming, coming nearer, day by day, in the dear and innocent being so soon to see light, and the very uncertainty whether she shall see a sweet girl's face or a brave boy's face beside her on the pillow, adds zest to her expectancy. When, if ever, she should take care of her physical, mental and moral health.

MOTHER'S FRIEND applied externally throughout pregnancy will relieve the pain of parturition, and no mother and child can fail to be healthy, hearty, strong, clear complexioned, pure blooded, calm, nervous and cheerful in disposition, who are mutually influenced for months by the continued use of Mother's Friend.

So many of Dick Russell's friends in the first district have been urging him to accept a renomination for the office of Commissioner, that he has decided to take the nomination again, if tendered him. A SAD DEATH

Last Thursday the friends of Mrs. H. F. Cunningham were deeply grieved to hear of her sudden death, which occurred at her home near Randolph, a telegram having been received here by Bur Cunningham, father-in-law of deceased.

Mr. Cunningham had been to the farm Wednesday evening at which time his daughter-in-law had been in good health. A child was born during the night and the next morning seemed to be all right and her husband stepped out for a few moments, but was hurriedly summoned by his little daughter who told him that "Mamma was awful sick." When he reached the house his wife was unconscious and remained so until death. The physicians in attendance pronounced death due to blood poisoning, and stated that no medical assistance could have saved her life.

The remains were brought to Wayne Saturday afternoon and taken in charge by the Ben Hur lodge. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at one o'clock at the Methodist church, Rev. Bithell, officiating.

Etta L. Ritchie was married to H. F. Cunningham about five years ago and at the time of death was about twenty-two years of age. Two children and the little babe are left the stricken husband and father.

Miss Mary McLaughlin who finished the Teacher's course last summer is again in school to remain during the summer term. She was recently elected to teach the grammar department of the Winside school next year.

Miss Grace leaves for Minnesota Saturday morning where she will spend the summer recuperating. It is her intention to attend the State University at Lincoln next year and thus gratify a long cherished desire. Her departure from the N. N. C. is a matter of severe regret among the students and faculty to all of whom she has endeared herself by the kindness and usefulness that has characterized her daily activities in the four years she has been associated as a teacher here. It is but just to say that the N. N. C. has never had a teacher that has been more loyal to the institution or more widely beloved by the students.

The Parliamentary law class closed its term's work Tuesday evening with a sitting of the U. S. Senate. Mr. Ranbach was the efficient presiding officer and among other matters disposed of by the "senate" was the laying on the table of petition of 5,000 women praying that no more women's suffrage resolutions be permitted in this country; and the passage of the Panama Canal bill after somewhat extended discussion. Owing to the careless work of the engrossing clerk the bill providing for a tariff of 20 per cent on Cuban raw sugar was made to read "Cuban rum and cigars." Some lively Parliamentary sparring was engaged in in the evening which proved highly instructive.

A light colored leather grip was missed from the depot last Thursday morning. $5.00 reward will be paid for its return to this office and no questions asked.

The candidacy of John T. Bressler has met with such general approval throughout the county that it is now practically settled he will receive the endorsement of the county convention to be held Saturday afternoon for state treasurer, and it is right he should. He is one of the oldest and most influential citizens of Wayne, with a state wide reputation, who, if elected will do all in his power for Wayne, to the upbuilding of which he has already contributed so much. Several brick business houses and other buildings testify.

If it was done to spite someone connected with the elevator, it would be a poor way to work it out, because not

MALARIA An Invisible Enemy to Health

Means bad air, and whether it comes from the low lands and marshes of the country, or the filthy sewers and drain pipes of the cities and towns, its effect upon the human system is the same. These atmospheric poisons are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood, and the foundation of some long, debilitating illness is laid. Chills and fever, chronic dyspepsia, torpid and enlarged liver, kidney troubles, jaundice and biliousness are frequently due to that invisible foe, Malaria. Noxious gases and unhealthy matter collect in the system because the liver and kidneys fail to act, and are poured into the blood current until it becomes so polluted and sluggish that the poisons literally break through the skin, and carbuncles, boils, abscesses, ulcers and various eruptions of an indolent character appear, depleting the system, and threatening life itself.

The germs and poisons that so oppress and weaken the body and destroy the life-giving properties of the blood, rendering it thin and watery, must be overcome and carried out of the system before the patient can hope to get rid of Malaria and its effects.

S. S. S. does this and quickly produces an entire change in the blood, reaching every organ and stimulating them to vigorous, healthy action. S. S. S. possesses not only purifying but tonic properties, and the general health improves, and the appetite increases almost from the first dose. There is no Mercury, Bichloride, Arsenic or other mineral in S. S. S. It is strictly and entirely a vegetable remedy. Write us about your case, and our physicians will gladly help you by their advice to regain your health. Book on blood and skin diseases sent free.

Filthy Temples In India.

Stoutsville, Mo., May 5, 1900.

Gentlemen—I have been troubled with indigestion and constipation for the last two years, and have tried everything I can think of, but have not been remedied. I have never received any relief until I was handed a trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin through our druggist, J. W. Watson, which gave me immediate relief, and I can truthfully say has given me more relief than anything I have ever tried.

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow with symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Bitters remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Bitters for torpid liver every spring for years," writes E. J. Hurd, Hardsville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." L. P. Orth.

Sweet Breath.

Is a companion to a well ordered stomach. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best for constipation, biliousness and flatulencies. Guarantees relief for the pure and sweet. Sold by E. J. Raymond.

Ready To Yield.

"I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for piles and found it a certain cure," says E. K. Meredith, Willow Grove, Del. Operations unnecessary to cure piles. They always yield to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Three skin diseases, all of which are cured. Accept no counterfeits. L. P. Orth.

It is a splendid thing for farmers to get together occasionally and swap experiences, for it very often saves the expense of going through hard trials in order to secure a certain result. This is where the experiment station is doing excellent work for the farmer. There should be a better plan of placing the information from stations in places where it will do the most good. Bulletins stored in locations where farmers cannot get them will do little good. In the absence of a station, farmers will have to get together often and exchange ideas and the results of experiments.—Homestead.

Mrs. Maggie Hooper Sends A Message.

Jeffersonville, Ind., May 15, 1900.

Pepsin Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill.

Dear Sirs:—I was bothered with Stomach Trouble and Dyspepsia for years. Nothing helped me until now I feel like a new woman. You may publish this, that all others may learn of the great benefit of your cure. Sincerely yours, Mrs. Maggie Hooper. Sold by E. J. Raymond.

It is very evident that a man will not do more than he has to do to carry his point. The savage puts forth his hand and takes the fruit upon which he lives. Some farmers do not more than they have to for a living and a little for a rainy day. We want more feeders who produce top notch steers, more dairymen who have the live hundred pound butter cow, more farmers who are growing the forty bushel wheat, more farmers who are producing one hundred bushel corn crops. Not that they do just what they have to, but that they do all they can, mastering all the forces at their command.—Homestead.

Saved From An Awful Fate.

"Everybody said I had consumption," writes Mrs. A. M. Shields, of Chamberburg, Pa. "I was no longer able to do any work, and I was getting worse every day. I had been told that I was dying, and I was ready to give up. But I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and it saved my life. I am now as well as ever, and I can do all the work I want to do."—Homestead.

The man on the stage who does the trick of escaping from firmly tied ropes, submits to the bonds with a smile. He knows he can get out of the ropes that are being knotted. But the same man in the woods and led Indian captives bind him to a tree for torture and he would struggle to the last against the bonds.

When the stomach is diseased there are bonds being woven every hour about the organs dependent on the stomach—heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, etc. The folly of mankind is to passively submit to the fastening of these bonds with no effort to escape until the pain they cause arouses fear.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures diseases of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys and other organs, when these diseases, as is often the case, have their origin in the diseased stomach.

"For a long time I was suffering and was hardly able to get on my feet," writes Andrew Jennings of Thomas, Tacker Co., W. Va., Box 104. "Was bothered with kidney trouble and had a few days, probably to-day, when I was unable to eat, and had no appetite. A friend of mine told me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I did so, and the first bottle relieved my appetite. I took six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and some of the 'Pleasant Pellets' and feel like a new person."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the clogged system from impurities.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist, P. O. Roberts of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel the cancerous microbes, and at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish.
