PIERCE COUNTY MURDER.

Gotlieb Niegenfnd Murders His Divorced Wife and Her Parents.

The quiet and peaceful German settlement east of town, as well as this community, were greatly horrified last evening to hear that a murder had been committed on the farm of Albert Breyer, six miles east of Pierce. Gotlieb Niegenfnd committed the cold blooded act and two lives paid the penalty of his madness. Niegenfnd married Anne, a daughter of Breyer's and widow of Rudolph Peters, but they did not get along together and about a year ago the wife obtained a divorce, Niegenfnd leaving the country. He returned from Kansas a few days ago and has been in this neighborhood vowing vengeance to neighbors against both his former wife and her parents who he blamed with being the cause of their separation.

This feeling culminated last evening in the shooting by Niegenfnd of Mr. and Mrs. Breyer and the daughter Mr. Breyer was in the barn yard when Niegenfnd appeared and was ordered off the place. Niegenfnd thereupon shot several bullets into Mr. Breyer and going behind the barn reloaded his revolver and returned to the attack. Mr. Breyer was struck seven times, two bullets taking effect below the heart, one going through one of his kidneys, another into his forehead and three in the shoulder and arms. The women folks appearing Niegenfnd turned his revolver on his former wife sending a bullet into her head and killing her instantly. He also shot Mrs. Breyer in the shoulder, making a painful wound and then caught Lena, the youngest girl of Mr. and Mrs. Breyer, aged 17 years, and snatched the gun at her head, but all the cartridges had been fired and the girl's life was spared, though the fiend tore off her clothing and attempted to rape her. Mr. Breyer was able to get to the house and neighbors alarmed and word was brought to Pierce immediately. Doctors Pheasant and Woodworth were hurried to the place, but examination of the wounds of Mr. Breyer showed that they were fatal and his partner, Hofus, was called and his will made. He sank slowly during the night and passed away this morning just at dawn. Niegenfnd left immediately after committing the crime and a posse of men, heavily armed, went out during the night to search for him. No traces of the murderer had been found up to noon but the Lincoln blood hounds are expected on the passenger and it is to be hoped that they will soon run him to cover.—Pierce Call.

Yesterdays papers stated that a man who is believed to be Niegenfnd, was arrested by the sheriff of Gering county, two miles south of Dodge, where the man had hired out to a farmer. He tallies with the description, but the identification is incomplete. A reward of $500 has been offered for his arrest.

Insure in the German of Freeport. Phil H. Kohl, Agent.

CRAVEN BROS.

CROP AVERAGES HIGH

GOVERNMENT MONTHLY REPORT GIVES FIGURES.

These Are Well Above the Ten-Year Level—Corn Percentage is 84.3—The Outlook Is Bright, but Much Yet Depends on the Weather.

The monthly report of the statistician of the Department of Agriculture shows the average condition of corn on Sept. 1 to have been 84.3, as compared with 86.5 on Aug. 1, 1922, 81.7 on Sept. 1, 1921, 80.0 at the corresponding date in 1920 and a ten-year average of 73.8.

Except in Kansas and South Dakota, which report a decline of 12 points and 10 points respectively during August, no material change of condition is reported from any of the principal crop States, and except those of the South and the State of Michigan they again report condition averages in excess of their respective averages for the last ten years. The report continues:

Notwithstanding its marked decline since August, Kansas reports a condition of 81, or 25 points above its ten-year average, while Nebraska and Missouri exceeded their respective ten-year averages by 35 and 22 points respectively.

Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Illinois reported 79, 75, 73 and 72 points, respectively, above their ten-year averages, and Missouri 29, 27, 25 and 25 points respectively above their ten-year averages.

The average condition of corn when harvested was 82.1, against 82.3 last year, 79.6 in 1920 and a ten-year average of 73.8. Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Illinois reported 73, 71, 69 and 68 points, respectively, above their ten-year averages.

Of the ten States having 1,000,000 acres or upward in corn, Iowa alone reports a condition comparing favorably with its ten-year average. New York reports the phenomenal high condition of 107, the highest reported from that State since 1877 and 21 points above its ten-year average.

The average condition of corn when harvested was 87.7, against 83.8 last year, 70.7 in 1920 and 82.0 the mean of the averages of the last ten years.

The average condition of buckwheat on Sept. 1 was 84.1, against 93.4 on Aug. 1, 1922, 90.1 one year ago, 89.5 on Sept. 1, 1921, and 84.7 the mean of the averages of the last ten years.

Solvent of the principal tobacco States show conditions ranging from 1 to 14 points above the ten-year averages. While in Kentucky, New York and Tennessee conditions are 2, 5 and 6 points respectively below such averages.

The average of clover seed has been considerably reduced since last year, only two of the principal States—Maryland and Ohio reporting even a small increase.

Of the States having 4,000,000 trees and upward in apples, California reports an improvement in apple-bearing condition. All but six of the important apple-growing States report conditions ranging from 7 to 32 points above their ten-year averages.

In all but eight of the States having 2,000,000 trees and upward in 1889 a production exceeding the ten-year average is probable.

There is a decrease in the number of stock hogs now being fattened as compared with the number a year ago in every important hog-raising State.

From Far and Near. Railroad property in Iowa was assessed this year at $4,316,726 more than last year.

Much suffering and loss among stock cattle is reported from Oregon on account of drought.

COMMERCIAL FINANCIAL

New York

"Steady progress in reported in trade and industry. Distribution of merchandise is heavy and a healthy tone is evident. Prices are well maintained by liberal consumption, which more than neutralizes the effect of enlarged facilities for production.

Advancing raw material aroused much anxiety among purchasers of cotton goods and there were numerous inquiries for forward contracts, but the volume of business was not greatly increased.

Exports of Grain. Wheat, including flour, exports for the week ending Sept. 4 aggregated 6,276,230 bushels, against 5,430,530 last week, 4,500,000 the previous week and 3,777,000 in 1921.

Chicago. The Northwest has had another week of unseasonable weather. In spite of this, however, traders reported good and increasing crop.

THE MARKETS

Chicago—Cattle, common to prime, $4.00 to $7.75; hogs, shipping grades, $4.25 to $5.00; sheep, fair to choice, $2.50 to $3.00; wheat, No. 2 red, 73c to 74c; corn, No. 2, 50c to 51c; oats, No. 2, 29c to 30c; butter, creamery, 32c to 34c; eggs, fresh, 17c to 18c; potatoes, 20c to 26c per bushel.

Indians Carry the Stake by Unexpected Margin. The returns from the Maine State election indicate a probable Republican parity of 27,500, a result, dispatches say, that is a surprise to the party.

WEEKLY SUMMARY OF CROPS

Frosts. Though General in Northern District, Do But Slight Harm.

Although the week was cool in the central valleys and lake region, with more than the average rainfall in portions of the upper Mississippi valley, muzzling crops have made generally favorable conditions, though not rapid. The greater part of Texas, in which severe drought prevailed at the close of the previous week has received abundant rainfall, and drought conditions in the middle Atlantic coast districts also have been largely relieved.

Notwithstanding the prevalence of low temperatures throughout the corn belt and copious rainfalls in portions of the Mississippi valley, the corn crop has made very satisfactory advancement toward maturity and widely advanced in the States eastward of the Mississippi river from frosts occurring on the 4th and 5th, with but slight injury in the States to the westward.

President Roosevelt likes the people as well as the people like the president.

The democratic party doesn't propose to make an effort to obtain the lower house of congress this fall. What would be the use?

Over seventy lives have been lost as a result of the raging forest fire in Oregon and Washington, and nearly $2,000,000 worth of property.

Governor Mikey gains in popularity daily wherever he goes throughout the state. Nebraska will probably do like Maine, double her oil year piracy, and then some.

Strikes are a warm thing generally, but this strike in the coal regions is liable to make things decidedly chilly this winter—but there'll be coals galore in Nebraska.

Governor Savage will try and make mine meat, or something to that effect, of Edward Rosewater, when the former's term of office expires. But can he afford to try it?

The argument that John S. Robinson should be kept in congress because he is an experienced member, isn't good. If he was in harmony with the administration there would be some sense in it.—Fremont Tribune.

Oregon, Vermont and Maine have elected solid Republican delegations to the next House, and in some cases, by increased majorities over the presidential heavy vote. There are no signs that this is to be an off year with the party of prosperity.

A terrific fire has been burning in the timber lands of Washington and Oregon for several days covering a distance of more than a hundred miles. Many people have been burned to death and hundreds are homeless and many without even clothing to protect them.

There is but one thing to do in the Third district, and that is to elect McCarthy. North Nebraska may then become recognized as being situated on the map of the state and nation. What good would it do to elect Robinson under the circumstances if he was ever so good and able a man.

"I tell you, Robinson will have to wake up if he hopes McCarthy this fall," said a prominent Democrat the other day. "I wasn't aware that he was such a campaigner, nor that he had become so popular with the people of the district but it looks as though the wind was going to take a summersault; this fall."

McKinley Memorial Day was observed in all the churches throughout the length and breadth of the land last Sunday. A year ago on that day, occurred McKinley's death, a president who was revered by the people. On the date above mentioned their way mourning hearts and bowed heads everywhere.

The Central Star of Empire edited by Moses H. Sydenham, who is one of the oldest Nebraska editors—a paper which is independent of any political party is out on enthusiastically in support of H. H. McKinley for governor because it says he "is a people's man; a man of the people, and will do good service for every one regardless of party." It also says, "he will open up a new era in politics in Nebraska, representing, as he does, the best element of Nebraska people." Mr. Sydenham and his paper were supporters of Governor Poynter during his candidacy.

Dr. J. M. Alden of Pierre, nominated by the republicans of this Eleventh senatorial district for state senator, is a leading citizen of his country, an earnest and enthusiastic republican and is supported by his many friends but he will make an energetic campaign that will entitle him to success at the polls. He has a large following of friends in the counties of Wayne, Pierce, Stanton and Madison who will work for success early and late. He is a man who will represent his constituents with energy and effect during the coming important session of the legislature and the district will be honored by his presence on the floor of the senate.—Norfolk News.

The painful fact is, that to reach to every man's country, you have only to cross the Missouri river. We can prove this by showing a copy of the left platform adopted by the Iowa Democrats.—Nebraska City Weekly, (Dem.)

The above is no dream. But Bryan and the Iowa democrats are dreading and towards, because they dared to condemn his policies and seek to place a check on a demagogue who thrives at the hands of a deluded people, who have followed his whims, in the face of the fact that every platform he has made has been to the wrong, and prosperity has followed instead. He calls them fools, but what will Iowans care for the "Jim Jams" of a platform com-

Hon. John L. Webster is being favored by the republicans for the appointment of a new circuit judge in the place of A. W. D. White.

The President Tribune says: "The Nebraska Pioneer has cut loose again from the republican party, it is reported. 'This doesn't rise to the dignity of being important, if true.'"

Ex Governor Boise is going to run for Congress in Speaker, Henderson's district over in Iowa, this fall, but there is no prohibition question to settle there this time and Boise will be miles behind in the race.

Speaker Henderson of the House has declined to be a candidate for congress to succeed himself owing to the fact that he is not in harmony with the platform and many people of his district on the tariff question. The platform seems to modify the tariff, but Mr. Henderson does not believe in any modification tending toward free trade. He does not believe the trusts can be curbed or the people benefited by free trade in whole or in part.

Gehring of Winfield started to Green Leaf, Kansas, last Monday where they will attend Lutheran conference. They expect to return sometime next week. It seems queer that none of the farmers around here have silos. Around Dixon they are common and the owners claim they are a great money saver. Those who own milch cows find that it makes a great difference to feed green food all winter and is a saving for the cattle eat up every particle of the cornstake.

SOFT CORE

Like the running brook, the red blood that flows through the veins has to come from somewhere.

The springs of red blood are found in the soft core of the bones called the marrow and some say red blood also comes from the spleen. Healthy bone marrow and healthy spleen are full of fat.

Scott's Emulsion makes new blood by feeding the bone marrow and the spleen with the richest of all fats, the pure cod liver oil.

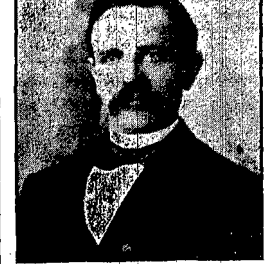

For pale school girls and invalids and for all whose blood is thin and pale, Scott's Emulsion is a pleasant and rich blood food. It not only feeds the blood-making organs but gives them strength to do their proper work.

REV THOS. BITHELL.

Next Sunday marks the fifth year of the Lutheran church of this city.

Next Sunday morning will bring to a close five years of earnest and faithful labor by the Rev. Thomas Bithell of the Methodist church of this city. When the Presiding Bishop sent Rev. Bithell to Wayne, it was thought by some that a great mistake was made, but Mr. Bithell's record as a church builder, financier and spiritual worker more than justified the wisdom of the appointing power.

When Rev. Bithell came to Wayne he found an old church building on which there had always been a debt and which was too small to accommodate the large audiences. However the church soon paid off the remaining debt and then the pastor inaugurated the building fund which soon became so popular that nearly every department of his church from the Junior League to the Board of Trustees had a share in the fund. The building fund increased until $2000 was accumulated and on interest at 6 per cent. Then it was found that the time had come to strike the iron while hot and strike he did until $17000 was subscribed and a new church erected, the finest Methodist church in the conference outside of Omaha, and on which there has been paid nearly $15000.

One of the best authorities of the church says: "As an organizer Rev. Bithell has but few equals in the church built, bought or paid the debt on ten churches and parsonages in ten years," indicating that he is an indefatigable worker. During the five years of his pastorate here about $24000 has been raised and paid out, the balance yet due on the church having all been subscribed.

While looking after the financial affairs of the church Rev. Bithell has never neglected the spiritual and social departments, about 200 new members have been added to the church memberships, by letter and from probation.

The congregations the past year have been about twenty-five per cent larger than ever before and the year has been the most successful in every way of Rev. Bithell's pastorate here, every department of the church being in excellent working condition.

Mrs. Bithell too has done her share toward making the work a success especially in the Junior League and missionary departments of the church where she has taken an active and prominent part.

Mr. Bithell leaves next Monday morning for Grand Island, where the annual conference will be held, and it is hoped by his many friends here, that the Bishop in charge will return him to Wayne for the coming year. Mr. Bithell has had several calls to other conferences, from Vermont to Wyoming, but prefers to remain in this conference.

STALEY UNDERWEAR.

STALEY UNDERWEAR.

This is our third season in Wayne with the Staley Underwear and our twenty-third year in selling this celebrated underwear. You might suppose that we have advertised this underwear sufficiently that every one would know about it, but as there are yet some men in Wayne County that are not yet wearing Staley Underwear we wish to remind them that it will be to their interest to look at this underwear before buying this fall. To those that have bought Staley Underwear we need only to say that Staley Underwear has each year some improvement and that we always have a full line in stock.

We have Staley Underwear in every grade and can satisfy your taste. Considering the length of time it wears it is the cheapest underwear made. But some will say: "I can't wear wool." We will say right here that we have never found a man who can't wear Staley all-wool underwear. Staley underwear is not like any other, the wool is treated different and Staley uses a different kind of wool than other manufacturers. Wool doesn't hurt any one. It is the foreign matter that hurts people, and all foreign matter is taken out of the wool used in Staley Underwear. Some say: "All my wool underwear shrinks so I can't wear it." We give printed instructions with Staley Underwear, and if you obey instructions in washing Staley underwear it will never shrink. It will cost you nothing to see Staley Underwear. We can fit anyone, no matter how large. We will be glad to explain to you, your entire satisfaction why Staley underwear should be worn by all, and can satisfy you that you can wear it comfortably. Ask anyone wearing Staley all-wool underwear and they will recommend it. Ask any doctor if you ought to wear Staley underwear and he will recommend it. Ask us to show you Staley All-Wool Underwear and you will be pleased to buy it. Staley Underwear Cures Rheumatism.

Are You A Coming Mother?

Are You Expectant?

MOTHER'S FRIEND

makes childbirth easy and almost painless, by preparing the system for parturition, thus insuring Nature, and shortening labor. The painful ordeal of childbirth is not so fearful, and the danger thereby lessened, to both mother and child. The use of this medicine is also fully substantiated by the mother's rest, and the child fully developed, or nausea arising from pregnancy is prevented by relieving the stomach from the pressure brought to bear on it by the expanding organs, and by which it is influenced through sympathy.

As pregnancy advances, the breasts enlarge, become warm, hard and tight. Long before the child is born, they are preparing for the secretion of milk. This important to successful child rearing, that these glands receive early consideration. Mother's Friend softens the skin, relieves the pressure, and facilitates the secretion of Milk. Underdeveloped and accented ducts, will break hard, clogged shortly after delivery, and cause much suffering and discomfort. The functional organs permanently impaired.

"Mother's Friend" is a safe and effective remedy, and rubbed into the flesh over the region of pain. Softness, pliability and expansion are given to the muscular tissues, direct and steady, the elasticity necessary to being necessary to the child's free play. (Of all druggists $1.00. DR. FOWLER'S LECTURE.

"It is not often that I am permitted to lecture to an intelligent and appreciative audience," was what Bishop Fowler said of the people who assembled to hear him last Monday night. It was in truth a magnificent audience of nearly four hundred, representing the cream of Wayne, and neighboring counties, and we have yet to meet the persons who did not feel that he was more than repaid for his coming. The lecture was very happily introduced by Dr. Stesen of Norfolk, and then followed two hours and a half of marvellous portrayal of the times and the character of Abraham Lincoln. Every sentence was significant, and was made impressive by rare diction, perfect emphasis, and fitting gesture.

The lecture differed from others of its kind in that it was spoken with the voice of an authority, prepared by a man who was in close touch with the times of which he spoke, and who has taken the pains to go to original sources for his information.

It is but just to say that much credit is due to Rev. Bithell and his associates for giving the people an opportunity to hear such a rare intellectual treat. The receipts of the evening amounted to $100, one hundred of which went to the speaker and that in turn goes to missionary interests in Cuba. The remaining sixty dollars, after expenses are taken out, goes toward the liquidation of the Methodist Sunday school obligations for the new church.

NIEGENFIND CAPTURED

The Brutal Murderer of The Bryor Family in Pierce County, Taken After a Fusillade of Shots by Himself and Captors.

PRISONER IS WOUNDED.

Shoots Seven Shots at His Captors But Falls to Hit Them.—Many People From Neighboring Towns Go to Winside To See the Arch Fiend.

A scene of excitement occurred at Winside last night when the news of the capture of Gottlieb Niegenfind became known, and the tragic manner in which it was accomplished.

The prisoner is the fiend who brutally killed his father-in-law, his divorced wife, wounded his mother-in-law, and assaulted the 17-year old daughter of the parents, as appears in an article on the front page of the HERALD.

The crime was committed six miles east of Pierce last Thursday, since which time Niegenfind had eluded the officers though reported to have been captured near Dodge and other points.

The day after the deed was committed he rode with Ed Cullen, of Winside, some four miles, who did not know of the murder. Near Winside he got out of the buggy and went south. Yesterday Mr. Cullen drove into the country southeast of Winside and passed Niegenfind driving cattle for Gustave Rehms to Fred Barholtz farm about five and a half miles

President Roosevelt likes the people as well as the people like the president.

The democratic party doesn't propose to make an effort to obtain the lower house of congress this fall. What would be the use?

Over seventy lives have been lost as a result of the raging forest fires in Oregon and Washington, and nearly $2,000,000 worth of property.

Governor Mickey gains in popularity daily wherever he goes throughout the state. Nebraska will probably do like Maine, double her off year plurality, and then some.

Strikes are a warm thing generally, but the strike in the coal regions is liable to make things decidedly chilly this winter—but there'll be coals galore in Nebraska.

Governor Savage will try and make mince meat, or something to that effect, of Edward Rosewater, when the former's term of office expires. But can he afford to try it?

The argument that John S. Robinson should be kept in congress because he is an experienced member, isn't good. If he was in harmony with the administration there would be some sense in it.—Fremont Tribune.

Oregon, Vermont and Maine have elected solid Republican delegations to the next House, and in some cases, by increased majorities over the presidential heavy vote. There are no signs that this is to be an off year with the party of prosperity.

A terrific fire has been burning in the timber lands of Washington and Oregon for several days covering a distance of more than a hundred miles. Many people have been burned to death and hundreds are homeless and many without even clothing to protect them.

There is but one thing to do in the Third district, and that is to elect McCarthy. North Nebraska may then become recognized as being situated on the map of the state and nation. What good would it do to elect Robinson under the circumstances if he was ever so good and able a man.

"I tell you, Robinson will have to wake up if he faces McCarthy this fall," said a prominent Democrat the other day. "I wasn't aware that Mo was such a campaigner, nor that he had become so popular with the people of the state but it looks though the wind was going to take a summer's rest this fall."

McKinley Memorial Day was observed in all the churches throughout the length and breadth of the state last Sunday. A year ago on that day, occurred McKinley's death, a president who was revered by the people. On the date above mentioned there were sorrowing hearts and bowed heads everywhere.

The Central Star of Empire edited by Moses H. Sydenham, who is one of the oldest Nebraska editors—a paper which is independent of any political party is out enthusiastically in support of J. H. Mickey for governor because it says he "is a people's man; a man of the people; and will do good service for every one regardless of party." It also says, "he will open up a new era in politics in Nebraska, representing, as he does, the best element of Nebraska people." Mr. Sydenham and his paper were supporters of Governor Forney during his campaign.

Dr. J. M. Alden of Pierce, nominated by the republicans of this Eleventh senatorial district for state senator, is a leading citizen of his county, an earnest and enthusiastic republican and is predicted by his many friends that he will make an energetic campaign, that will enable him to succeed at the polls. He has a large following of friends in the counties of Wayne, Pierce, Stanton and Madison who will work for success early and late. He is a man who will represent his constituents with energy and effort during the coming important session of the legislature and the district will be honored by his presence on the floor of the senate.—Norfolk News.

The painful fact is, that to reach the enemy's country, you have only to cross the Missouri river. We can prove this by showing a copy of the last platform adopted by the Iowa Democrats.—Nebraska City Weekly, (Dem.)

The above is no dream. But Bryan views the Iowa democrats as traitors to the cause, because they dared to condemn his policies and seek to place a check on a demagogue who thrives at the hands of a deluded people, who have followed his whims, in the face of the fact that every prophecy he has made has followed instead. He calls them fools, but what will Iowa care for the "Jim Jams" of a platform committee.

REV THOS. BITHELL.

Next Sunday morning will bring to a close five years of earnest and faithful labor by the Rev. Thomas Bithell of the Methodist church of this city.

When the Presiding Bishop sent Rev. Bithell to Wayne, it was thought by some that a great mistake was made, but Mr. Bithell's record as a church builder, financier and spiritual worker more than justified the wisdom of the appointing power.

When Rev. Bithell came to Wayne he found an old church building, and which was too small to accommodate the large audiences. However the church soon paid off the remaining debt and then the pastor inaugurated the building fund which soon became a popular fund that nearly every department of his church from the Junior League to the Board of Trustees had a share in the fund. DR. FOWLER'S LECTURE.

"It is not often that I am permitted to lecture to an intelligent and appreciative audience," was what Bishop Fowler said of the people who assembled to hear him last Monday night. It was in a magnificent audience, nearly four hundred, representing the cream of Wayne, and neighboring counties, and we have yet to meet the first one who did not feel that he was more than repaid for his coming. The lecturer was very happily introduced by Dr. Sigson of Norfolk, and then followed two hours and a half of marvelous portrayal of the times and the character of Abraham Lincoln. Every sentence was significant, and was made impressive by rare diction, perfect emphasis, and fitting gesture.

The lecture differed from others of its kind in that it was spoken with the voice of an authority, prepared by a man who was in close touch with the times of which he spoke, and who has taken the time to go to original sources for his information.

It is but just to say that much credit is due to Rev. Bithell and his associates for giving the people an opportunity to hear such a rare intellectual treat. The receipts of the evening amounted to $100, one hundred of which went to the speaker and that in turn goes to missionary interests in Cuba. The remaining sixty dollars, after expenses are taken out, goes to the liquidation of the Methodist Sunday school obligations for the new church.

NIEGENFIND CAPTURED

The Brutal Murderer of The Bryer Family in Pierce County, Taken After a Fushlade of Shots by Himself and Captors.

PRISONER IS WOUNDED.

Shoots Seven Shots at His Captors The But Falls to Hit Them.—Many People From Neighboring Towns Go to Winslow To See the Arch Fieard.

A scene of excitement occurred at Winslow last night when the news of the capture of Gottlieb Niengenfind became known, and the tragic manner in which it was accomplished.

The prisoner is the bandit who brutally killed his father-in-law, his divorced wife, wounded his mother-in-law, and assaulted the 17-year old daughter of the parents, as appears in an article on the front page of the HERALD.

The crime was committed six miles east of Pierre last Thursday, since which time Niengenfind had eluded the officers though reported to have been captured near Dodge and other points.

The day after the dead was committed the rider with Ed Cullen of Winslow, some four miles who did not know of the murder. Near Winslow he got out of the buggy and went south. Yesterday Mr. Cullen drove into the country southeast of Winslow and passed Niengenfind driving cattle for Gustava E. Enns at Fred Barsholtz farm about five and a half miles southeast of Winslow, Barsholtz having employed him last Friday. Driving back Mr. Cullen passed him again, so he drove to the farm of Amos Laese nearby where men were threshing and told them of the fact. Three men, Frank Laese, Dave Leary, and Perry Borrum, volunteered to go after Niengenfind. A shot gun, a 22 calibre rifle and a 32 calibre revolver were secured, the only fire arms that could be obtained, and started after their man. Laese accompanied Mr. Cullen in the buggy about a quarter of a mile in the lane before turning, to keep their man in sight, while Leary and Borrum cut through the cornfield to intercept Niengenfind. In coming out of the cornfield into a pasture, near the road, they saw that their man was coming, whom they ordered to throw up his hands. An old German man with Niengenfind, whom he caught and placed between him and his pursuers, and drawing a revolver, began firing on them. The men shouted to the old German to run, who finally did and they began firing at the murderer, Laese coming up from the rear also began shooting, and in a few moments Niengenfind fell, but not until he had fired seven shots, none of which took effect, the last one being fired while he was down and trying to reload his revolver. When the men came up, their man was unconscious and apparently dead, and in fact was reported dead. He was taken to Winslow and placed in the care of Physicians Scruggs and Cherry. An examination revealed that many bullets had penetrated his face and body, and two bullet wounds were found on his right arm, one on his left, and two on his hips, besides a number of others, none of which were fatal. About a dozen people went from Wayne, while forty or more came from Pierre, among whom was the son of the man killed by Niengenfind. It was feared an attempt would be made to lynch the prisoner and guards were put on. This afternoon Niengenfind passed through Wayne on his way to Lincoln, being taken there for safe keeping, rumors of a lynching having become current. Identity of the prisoner is absolute.

HIS LADY OF DREAMS

HE came suddenly into his sight, dispelling his brown study and interrupting his pipe. She stood behind the table, behind the door, tall and slight, in a white gown that clung to her arms and shoulders and rounded waist, and swept about her feet in heavy folds. Across swung from her neck by a long silver chain, and she wore a broad-brimmed hat with a gauzy white veil, so her face was in shadow. She leaned slightly toward Ashie as he clutched the arms of his big chair and sat forward in amazement.

"Am the Princess Constanta Gregorius," she said gently.

"Of Russia?" he asked, trying to fan away the haze of tobacco smoke.

"There are other lands," she said in answer. "And not so far away. Great Caesar!" he breathed, heartily, and his pipe dropped from his unfastened fingers. With the feeling that it was the only bond between him and the woman, he stooped to pick it up, and as he rose he struck his head sharply against the corner of the library table. Dizzy from the blow, he staggered to his feet and looked toward the door. She was gone, as mysteriously as she had come. He rushed quickly around the table and across the room, stumbling over easy chairs and footstools, and sending a revolting high-sock spinning around. The hall was also empty. No trailing gowns had turned up the edges of the rugs, nor could he hear any hurrying steps on the polished stairs. He blinked at the sun pouring red and purple through the painted window for a moment, and then turned back and sat down on the nearest chair. "Good heavens! what a dream! Who was she? What was her motive in appearing and announcing herself in that way? And he hadn't seen her before. Well, if it was as pretty as her figure—oh, confound his head; and he was still feeling it gingerly, too dazed to think of more than one thing at a time when he heard his friend's cheerful whistle in the hall.

"Well, old chap," said Thurston, coming in.

"I knew but that pipe of yours is a right! If we don't hit this room before the inter-upter gets into it, your goose is cooked."

"Why, what will she do?" cried the other uncertainly.

"You'll never get another bid for Sunday," said the first, throwing open one of the windows. "See! I didn't realize how rank Cissy is getting. But here he, Billy, and get another. But say, what's the matter, old man? I left you composing a sonnet and going to sleep over it. What's wrong?"

Ashie looked down at his mangled pipe, and then up at his friend.

"Say do you suppose she thought it was rank?" he asked.

"The matter," said Thurston, puzzled. "Hasn't been here already, has she? If so, well better go back to-night. Did she wake you up?"

"No, I dreamed it," said the owner of the pipe, and began to feel of his blimp with a frown of pain. His friend looked at him for a moment curiously, and then aimed a heavy leather cushion from the nearest Morris chair at him.

"Wake up, you idiot!" he said. "This is no sleeping-car." The idiot parried the cushion.

"Dick, has your sister a friend visiting here?" he inquired.

"No," said the other.

"Well, there was one in here, any way," pursued Ashie.

"One what?" demanded Thurston.

"One princess," said the other. His host surveyed him in silence for a moment.

"Ashie, you're crazy!" he said at last. "Come out and take a walk."

Mr. Wilmore Ashie was making for himself a fatherly reputation with readers of current magazines as a writer of clever little occasional verses. Among his friends at his club he was considered a good fellow, and they chose to assume that somewhere he kept hidden away the person who wrote his verses for him. His mother's friends approved of him because he paid his calls, and he was chiefly famous with the young ladies of his father's general acquaintance, as a master of the arts of Welsh rhapsody and lullaby. But no one was prepared for the almost oriental beauty and mysticism of his latest verses, which appeared in one of the best of the monthly periodicals under the name of "My Lady of the Realm of Dreams," and which would have done credit to a much more ambitious poet than Billy Ashie. Ashie himself thought rather a lot of them; he felt that it in some way commended him for the very many knock on the head that the lady had the means of giving him, and that he had turned a most perplexing dream to very good account. It was better than taking it to the Society of Psychical Research, which he had thought of doing in the vividness of his first impression, but six months without any further developments, waking or sleeping had dulled his keen conviction of his psychic value. Meanwhile, a comfortable check from the magazine had seemed to take the thing out of the province of psychic research.

Ashie was a modest man, but not too much so to have a little honking quite to his taste, and he went to afternoon teas and cocktails with a feeling that he might receive the same one some day; and he must gather his roses while he might. So he entered Mrs. Foster's long drawing-room prepared to smile as he listened to his verses misquoted by fair flatterers; he retained that serene attitude of mind while he shook hands with Mrs. Foster, and not one minute longer. For beyond Mrs. Foster, standing just outside the ring of light from a tall lamp, was the Lady of his dreams, with her white gown that clung to her shoulders and round waist, and flared with heavy folds at her feet. This time she wore a fan on the long silver chain around her neck, and she had no hat nor veil, so he could see that she was regarding him with the frankest interest from a

"A princess, Constanta Gregorius, an astral body—let me see a dream and now a fan!" she said. "Oh, dear, Mr. Ashie!"

"I have $50 that belongs to you," said Ashie irrelevantly.

"I beg your pardon?" said the girl blankly.

"By rights," asserted Ashie with a nod. "Half of what I got for that poem you know. I calculated that my thought and labor are good for half, but you furnished the idea, you see."

Miss Gregory sat down on the nearest chair and laughed aloud. Ashie slipped his chocolate meditatively and watched her.

"For a poet," she said at last, "you are most unexpectedly practical."

"When I've offered to share my income with a comparative stranger—a chimerical, elusive dream-lady at that," he asked, raising his eyebrows.

"I'm not sure about chimeras, but I think they were monsters of some kind," said the girl. "And your income is too small to be alluring, Mr. Ashie. If you don't wish any more of that chocolate, won't you have something else? No. Well, then come back to Mrs. Foster. I'm afraid you'll be borrowing money of me next, to say nothing of the way in which you are scribbling your poems. She took his cup and turned away. Before he could follow he was seized upon and carried off in triumph by some fair admirer, and a quick glances showed him that a young lady of good family had taken possession of her; so he resigned himself to the inevitable, and did not see her again until just as he was leaving. He had looked for her to say good-bye, but in vain, and Mrs. Foster did not know where she had hidden herself, so he was springing off, disappointed, but resolved not to let the thing drop, when her voice stopped him with his hand on the door.

"An ever, Mr. Ashie," she said, leaning toward him from the lowest step of the stairway. "An ever."

"Thank you," he responded heartily. "And very soon, most fair lady of the realm of my dreams."

"That is really a lovely thing, Mr. Ashie," she said, "and I am very proud to think that you think that I had any part in it."

"But didn't you?" he demanded.

"Do I believe in telepathy?" she asked mockingly. "Am I an astral body, or a bad dream?" He shook his high hat threateningly at her.

"The truth is not in you, Mademoiselle Sapphirine," he announced.

"Hear the bon voyage," she retorted, with a sen-gool, and turned to go upstairs. He took a step toward her.

"Miss Gregory?" he said impudently. "Seriously, now?" she looked at him over her shoulder with dancing eyes.

"Do you know, until to-day, I always supposed it was Dick Thurston that I woke up that afternoon," she said confidentially, and ran lightly upstairs.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Height of the Atmosphere.

One thing may be said about the new atmosphere. That of old was supposed to be not over six miles high. Its ratio of density at sea level is now five. The atmosphere is now believed to be fifty miles high. This belief is based upon a study of the fall of meteorites. These free wanderers of space plunge into the upper air at so great a speed that their friction even with the extremely rare gas at that high altitude, soon heats them to incandescence, and they flame into light. They have been observed to flash out in this way at a height of over 100 miles. At this elevation the air must be so exceedingly rare as to render it certain that friction with several hundred miles of it would be needed to heat a meteor to the incandescence point.

From this it is estimated that the upper limit of the atmosphere cannot be less than 500 miles above the surface. It may be much more, says Charles Morris in Lippincott. The air may extend upward as far as the force of gravity is capable of overcoming its centrifugal force, which steadily increases with height. How high that is no one can tell.

Ruined by Aeronautes.

Count Von Zeppelin, who has the distinction of having built the largest of all dirigibles, has been financially ruined by his aeronautical experiments. Unable to obtain means for carrying out his new projects, he is now breaking up the old framework of his affairs in order to sell the aluminum of which they are composed. Zeppelin is 67 years of age. He was a military attaché of the German embassy in the United States during the civil war, and used several balloon ascensions from battlefields of the South in 1863. He was the leader of the famous cavalry raid in France in 1870 which marked the commencement of hostilities of the great Franco-Prussian war.

The Sexton's Retort.

The village sexton, in addition to being grave-digger, acted as a stone-cutter, house-repairer, and furniture-re-mover. The local doctor, having obtained a more lucrative appointment in another county, employed the sexton to assist in his removal. When it came to settling up accounts, the doctor deducted an old contra account due by the sexton. He wrote at the same time, objecting to the charge made for removing his furniture—"This was steady, it would pay much better than grave-digging." The sexton replied: "Graves, O, and he gave a steady job, grave-digging is very slack since you left."

Commonplace Names.

It is not uncommon for a Japanese girl to bear the name of a flower. On the other hand, however, many girls in Japan bear the name of some domestic utensil, as frying pan, or dust brush. This results probably from the custom common among some people of naming a child from the first object that strikes the eye after the little one has come into the world.

Quite Unpardonable.

Edmonia—Mrs. Toppotch is what I call impudent.

Edmonia—In what way?

Edmonia—Why, she is not a colonial dame, but when she came to the colonial reception she had on a more elegant frock than any one of the dames.—Detroit Free Press.

SERMONS OF THE WEEK

Sin.—Sin nailed Christ to the cross. Rev. H. L. Proctor, Congregationalist, Atlanta, Ga.

Heart Service.—The kind of service that is needed is heart service.—Rev. A. B. Coats, Baptist, Akron, Ohio.

In God's Hands.—The lives and final judgment of all men are in God's hands.—Rev. J. P. Strother, Williamstown, Ky.

The Greatest Fact.—The greatest fact about Christianity is Christianity itself.—Rev. R. L. Cullman, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Arbitration.—The call for arbitration is a call to put ourselves in others' places.—Rev. F. A. Hingsley, Mt. Airy, N. C.

The Four Gospels.—The four gospels are the four pillars of the Christian religion.—Rev. Dr. E. E. Hale, Unitarian, Boston, Mass.

Training.—Training will make a man not only a money maker, but it will give him character.—Rev. P. M. Lar-kin, Methodist, San Francisco, Cal.

The Daily Paper.—The daily paper is a humanitarian factor. She sends forth her appeal to humanity in defense of the oppressed.—Rev. E. E. Wilson, Methodist, Akron, Ohio.

Endowment of Power.—If we would have the endowment of power that we so much need we must seek it through some divine and with unwavering faith.—Rev. H. Hartley, Baptist, New York.

To Strengthen Faith.—If the pupil wants to strengthen faith it must hold up Christ. Christ will draw men into the church if held up in the pulpit.—Rev. L. M. Zimmerman, Lutheran, Baltimore, Md.

Great Purpose.—How long the race will wander in sin and error I know not, but I follow the great purpose of God who has been reborn and the world perfected.—Rev. G. B. Vosburgh, Baptist, Denver, Col.

The Needs of Humanity.—Any man who today does anything to satisfy the needs of humanity must have deeply imbedded in his nature the thought of the glory of service to men, which is his way forward.—Rev. W. J. Hutchins, Presbyterian, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Education.—Education includes more than any question with which we have to deal. It presents itself from the three we could lay the world. What ever the goal of an individual it may only be reached largely through education.—Rev. H. H. Root, Dayton, O.

Natural or Spiritual.—If a man finds himself in the midst of conflicting opinions and feelings, and the storm clouds of doubt and indecision and fear gather about him, observe whether it is from natural causes or spiritual difficulties.—Rev. H. H. Kepp, Swedenborgian, Atlanta, Ga.

World's Ideals.—The world sometimes thinks it believes in Jesus, but the world's ideals are as far away as ever. The church calls itself Christian, but it is only Christianized. You and I call ourselves Christians, we have not yet begun to take faith in Jesus.—Rev. Dr. Hall, New York.

Efface Self.—It is not righteous to efface self. You can serve God best not by looking with fear and contempt upon any faculty of your nature, but by making the most of it; not by wrapping up your talent and burying it, but by putting it to the best use.—Rev. Dr. Smyth, Swedenborgian, New York.

Glorify the World.—Never before was the world so usable. Man, in the infinite power awarded him by God, can use the world, and in its use glorify the work of his Master. The individual has come to the front in the teaching of God's Word, and the men have developed rapidly.—Rev. H. P. Raymond, Methodist, Middleton, Conn.

Two Forces.—There are two forces in the world—one is the power of life, manifested in progress; the other, the negation of death, manifested in retrogression. The power of life acts through men of faith and imagination; the negation of death through the scribbles and paraphrases.—Rev. Dr. Meeser, Baptist, Worcester, Mass.

The Sabbath.—When Christ came to this earth he made the Sabbath a day of worship, intending that it should be a purer and happier day by explaining to us more fully its meaning. You and I shall rest on this day. It is to be more than a day of rest, so that to-morrow we shall go to work new duties with higher purposes, with a deeper assurance of God. The first thing we are to remember is that the Sabbath is a gift from God. He intended it for the highest good of man.—Rev. E. R. Willard, Reformed, Akron, Ohio.

Love of Christ.—To believe that the love of Christ, from which nothing can separate us, is no other than the divine love at the heart of things the same that created all things and created them for himself; to believe that the sacrifice is more other than a divine sacrifice—the one event that reveals God most perfectly—surely this is the faith; so wide, so high, so deep that the more we try to put it into words the more we realize that it can not be spoken. It is not a doctrine; it is a life. It can not be explained; it must be lived, and if we live it, we know we shall never die.—Rev. Dr. Van Dyke, Presbyterian, New York.

Milk in Paper Bottles.

A Massachusetts concern has commenced the manufacture of paper milk bottles. It is said that they are air proof and water proof, and the great advantage is in their cheapness, which will permit them to be thrown away after using once.

What an old man would like in the way of birthday cakes is one with candles showing how many more years are left to him to live.

Speaking of sad signs, an old woman at a ball in decollete costume is nearly the limit.

There was a brilliant reception at the house of Mrs. Amory. Among the guests was a certain Mr. Mackenzie, a man of grave and somewhat taciturn demeanor, whom several of the young ladies present had tried to engage in conversation, but without much success.

One of them spoke to the hostess about him.

"He seems to be rather unenjoyed and out of place at a party like this," she said.

"Yes," replied Mrs. Amory, with a bright smile, "he can't talk anything but sense."

Don't Give Up.

Don't be discouraged by past efforts to find relief and cure from the migraines of this kind that come from sick kidneys. You may pass your life in a constant struggle, but your back may be like a toothache or sudden twitches and twinges of backache pain make life a misery. Perhaps you have nervous spells, are weak, tired out, depressed. There is cure for all of this and for every trouble of the bladder and kidneys. Read this case and note it tells how well the cure was tested.

Charles Lindgren, sufferer of frequent pain on the L. S. & M. S. R. L. La Porte, Ind., says: "I have greater faith in Dodd's Kidney Pills to-day than I had in the beginning of 1897. I began taking them and made a public statement of the result. At that time I had suffered with lameness and soreness of the back which was so excruciating that I could scarcely turn in bed, and Dodd's Kidney Pills completely cured this trouble. I had already ready to endorse Dodd's Kidney Pills personally to anyone requiring a kidney remedy. After a lapse of three years I make this statement which shows my undoubted faith in the preparation."

INSURANCE CLAIMS.

It almost goes without saying that accident and other insurance companies have some curiously absurd claims made upon them, but none surely more singular than the following:

"Removing my shirt to starched portion struck my right eye, scratched the eye-ball, causing the same to inflame."

"Riding bicycle, and when about to raise my hat, lost control of bicycle and collided with a fence."

"It is with much pleasure that I take in hand my pen to inform you of my accident to my finger." etc.

A physician certifies that the symptoms of death were "cramp, assemblage of friends and notices in paper."

Another "had brain fever in my head with a hy fever and a kind of Delirium."

Accident policy holder "came in contact with clap-board saw."

"Attempting to kick a dog off porch of my residence my foot struck a nail."

"Being in a room dancing, one of the men dancers slipped and fell and in doing so kicked me violently over the shinbone."

A Summer Preference.

"Do you think there is anything serious to be apprehended from seven-year locusts?"

"No indeed," answered the Millinerville girl; "they stay quietly in their trees. They are not nearly so bad as caterpillars."—Washington Star.

Tim in a Quandary.

"Good morning, Tim. I just heard that your daughter-in-law has a baby. Is it a girl or a boy?"

"I don't know, son. You just go to the house now to find out whether I'm a grandfather or a grandmother."

Hall's Catarrh Cure

Outdoor Sports.

Once upon a time an automobilist ran down a golfer.

"Hot, mon!" said the latter, with asperity.

"What, and let people know I'm coming?" snarled the former disdainfully.—Huck.

Washington Farm Inlets. Tracts and terms to suit. Over 100,000 acres irrigated. White Ayrshire-Devers Co., New York Block, Seattle.

Mike—"Why, that old gentleman I was telling you of, that died so sudden last winter."

In Bed Three Months.

Coltice, Ind., Sept. 15th.—Mr. W. A. Terry, of this place, suffered for months with a very severe case of Kidney Trouble.

He was so very bad that he was almost confined to his bed for three months.

He tried many medicines, but he could not get any relief till he commenced to use a remedy introduced here some time ago as a cure for Kidney Trouble, the name of which is Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Terry says that the second day after commencing to use this remedy he could notice a very marked improvement in his condition, and in a short time he was able to go about again.

He is naturally filled with gratitude to Dodd's Kidney Pills for the immense amount of good they have done him and says:

"I would recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to every sufferer from kidney or bladder trouble, for from my experience I am sure they are the best medicine to be had for all diseases of this nature."

Paradoxical.

Cholly—"Say, old chap, I think, aw, that aw Miss Rich is stuck on me."

Harley—"Well, I guess she is. I noticed last night that she tried hard to get away from you, but she couldn't."

CATARRH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected.

S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the Stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects. Write us about your case and get the best medical advice free. Book on blood and skin diseases sent on application.

Geo. Palmer and wife were here from Sioux City the latter part of last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Palmer's father, Mr. W. Skadden. Mrs. Palmer returned to Sioux City Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Jennie Bayer of Wayne, was in the city yesterday calling on friends. She was on her way home from Chicago where she had been selecting goods for the fall and winter millinery trade. —Tekamah Herald.

Noah Wallbaum, who has been ill for nearly a year with hemorrhoids, went to Omaha last week to have an operation, but the physician at the hospital advised him to undergo medical treatments, for a time at least, and he will go to South Dakota to the treatment for cancer.

While Allen girls were badly beaten by Wakefield girls, they can console themselves with the fact that all the newspapers said the Allen girls were the prettiest, which is certainly a great compliment for the Wakefield girls are an exceedingly pretty bunch, and were conceded to far surpass the Wayne team as to looks. —Allen News.

KIDNAPPED AND ASSAULTED.

Welch Lowry, of Stanton, kidnaped and assaulted Anna Billows, of that town, last Saturday night. Lowry made his escape from a corn field across the river near Stanton and no trace of him has been secured, blood hounds were sent for. There was strong talk of lynching, should Lowry be found. His victim, Miss Billows, has nearly recovered from the effects of her experience. When she arrived at the home of her brother she presented a pitiable appearance. Her clothing was torn almost into shreds, the remnants of clothing and her hair were matted with sandbars and she was utterly exhausted.

21 Years A Dyspeptic.

R. H. Foster, 318 S. 2d St. Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years; tried many doctors without relief; recently I got a bottle of Herbine. One bottle cured me, I am now tapering off on the second. I have recommended it to my friends; it is curing them, too." 50c at E. J. Raymond.

The enemy of the man you hate, can do no wrong.

Croup.

Usually begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 50c at E. If horses could talk they would advocate all kinds of improved machinery and would only ask that their collars fit and that the days be not too long and the loads too heavy. No good horse will object to doing his duty. He will not object when doing more than he should, but his owner should have the good judgment to do no for him. —Homestead.

The Western Stock Food.

Peter Coyle has secured the agency for the Western Stock Food Company of Omaha, Nebraska, manufacturers of the Western Stock Food which is recognized as the best on the market. When in need of stock food it will pay you to see Mr. Coyle or address him at Wayne, Nebr.

Devoured by Worms.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inanition, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 25c at E. J. Raymond.

The land craze is at its height in some localities. There are land boomers on every side and in every locality. Some farms have never proved valuable for anything else than selling and many men have made money on them in that way. Land seekers are looking into every nook and corner of the agricultural West for good farms. The burnt over lands of Wisconsin where the pine timber has been cut off to the great northwest, over the line of the British possessions, are receiving attention by speculators as well as others. The man who has a good farm in a good farming community had better hang on to it as long as he has use for a farm. —Homestead.

It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that gripe and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and act as tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never gripe or distress. L. P. Orth.

Blindfold a woman and she loses all confidence in herself. Her step is slow, hesitating and uncertain. Her hands are raised to ward the imaginary blows which threaten her. When a sick woman seeks the means of health she is often like a woman blindfold. She has no confidence. She cannot tell what her effort will lead to. She turns now to this side and then to the other in uncertainty and doubt.

The sick woman who uses Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription may do so with absolute confidence. It invites open investigation. There need be no hesitation in following the hundreds of thousands of women who have found a perfect cure for womanly ills in the use of this medicine.

"Favorite Prescription" cures irregularity and dries weakening drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"With a heart full of gratitude to you for sending out over the land your wonderful medicine I send these few lines, hoping that some poor suffering woman will try Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. Cora L. Koot, of Greenspring Furnace, Washington Co., Maryland. "I had suffered severely from female weakness and had to be in bed a great deal of the time. Had headache, backache, and pain in left side when lying down. I commenced using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and had not taken two bottles when I was able to be around again and do my work with but little pain. I now eat anything and it never hurts me any more. Have taken seven bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and one of his Compound Extract of Smart-Weed and several vials of his Pleasant Pellets. Feeling better every day. My husband says I look better every day." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

His Slight Threatened.

"While porpoising last month my 11-year old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Ia. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wound insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is sure cure. Relieves bites at once. Beware of counterfeit. L. P. Orth.

To My Friends.

It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words cannot tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it. —Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa.
