UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Thanksgiving recess continues from Wednesday until Monday.

Junior and Senior classes met on the gridiron to decide class championship. Neither side succeeded in scoring.

The city is negotiating for the purchase of the post office building, to be used as a city hall. It is understood an offer of $50,000 has been made, with the privilege of the government retaining possession until a new building is erected.

Professor Michelson, of the chemical department, has received a sample of the syrup manufactured from beets by a company in Sioux City, Ia., with requests that he test and analyze the same and report to the company. This company believes they have solved the problem of obtaining syrup directly from the beet.

Public interest has been greatly aroused in the discovery of Mrs. Seehrest at the home of her parents, since her mysterious disappearance succeeded the murder of her husband. She has been diligently sought for by detectives. Her "fake" suicide only intensified the mystery which seemed to shroud her since her flight from St. Louis.

The university has declined to debate with Albion College, a denominational college in Michigan. The board thought it would not be advantageous for Nebraska to debate with the Michigan college, as all the efforts of the university will be concentrated in the debates with Colorado, Missouri and Kansas. These states were defeated last year and are making strenuous efforts to retaliate.

The work has been devoid of interest on the gridiron, all interest centered in the Thanksgiving game, although Northwestern's defeat is certain, nevertheless the players are being put through their daily routine. Football enthusiasm seems to increase as the season advances, from all parts of the state requests are received daily for reserved seats for the coming game. The athletic board has added "bleachers" on either side of the grand stand, which are being rapidly pushed to completion to be used in the coming game.

This week has been one of unusual activity in Lincoln, it has witnessed the advent of the Thanksgiving festivities, with all its bustle and excitement, in the midst of which we often forget what we have to be thankful for, in considering our disappointment we overlook the minor blessings, but the aggregation of which swell the magnificent gifts of an All Wise Providence into a mighty and overwhelming realization of our dependence. Lincoln society has taken the initiative to glad in the homes of many of her poor on Thanksgiving morn. The proceeds were large, greater indeed than its promoters hoped for. The proceeds of the ball were turned over to the ladies to be used by them in charity work.

Publicity in corporate affairs was discussed by Prof. Robbins, of the law school, at convocation Tuesday morning. He regards legislation rather than economic conditions as the chief factor in the development of modern corporations. If it were necessary for the individual to become personally responsible for its debts, under such conditions people would hesitate to become stockholders. Any individual or set of individuals, without respect to their responsibility may form a corporation under existing laws. Prof. Robbins summed up the evils of trusts in the following manner:— First, overcapitalization, which makes unjust profits possible; second, unjust discrimination; third, irresponsibility in corporate affairs; fourth, public corruption. He believes publicity in corporate affairs would only in a measure remedy these evils.

RIOTING IN HAVANA

TWO KILLED AND EIGHTY-TWO PERSONS INJURED.

Ultimatum Issued by President Palma—Mayor Must Control or State Will Interfere—High Officials Are Blamed—Other News.

Havana dispatches state: As the result of conflicts of a serious nature Monday between the police and the men on strike here, two strikers were dead and eighty-two other persons were injured. Five of the wounded, one a lieutenant of police, whose throat was cut by a striker, have very serious injuries. Eight other policemen are wounded.

The police had the rioters well under control in the evening, and every precaution has been taken to prevent a further outbreak of disorder. All the police and rural guards in the suburbs have been summoned to concentrate in Havana.

The strike, which at first only concerned the cigar workers, became general Monday morning by the calling out of all trades in sympathy with the cigar-makers. All the trades people closed their doors, clerks and every class of workmen having obeyed the demand of the union except the motion and conductors of the electric cars, who refused to join in the general strike.

Trouble began early by the holding up of the electric cars by the strikers, whose wrath naturally was directed against the street railroad employees.

A mob of strikers drove the men on the western railroad from the trains during the morning.

The mayor of Havana, and the secretary of government, Diego Tamayo, had during the past week deeply sympathized with the strikers, and had given orders to the police not to use force in dispersing the crowds, and under these conditions the police were unable to cope with the strikers.

The situation was approaching a critical point at noon, serious disorders having taken place in front of the palace itself, in which a police officer named Maso and a number of policemen and strikers received injuries, when President Palma sent word to the mayor that unless the city authorities could preserve order and protect the railroad company the state would intervene. The mayor then took drastic measures and issued an edict prohibiting commands from going into the streets, and authorized the chief of police to kill, if such action should be necessary, to preserve order.

BIG SUM STOLEN.

Forty Thousand Dollar Package is Taken at Lincoln, Neb.

A Lincoln, Neb., special says: The most mysterious robbery in the annals of Nebraska history occurred last Friday night at the Burlington depot, in this city. The Adams Express Company is loser to the extent of $40,000.

Officials of the Adams Express Company refuse to discuss the robbery in any manner whatever. It became known Monday through the indiscretion of a local train dispatcher.

The facts in the case are as follows: A package containing $40,000 in currency was consigned last Friday from the Kansas City office of the Adams Express Company to parties in Portland, Ore. The train which carried the money arrived in Lincoln at 2 o'clock Saturday morning. All the express but this one package was transferred safely. The express messenger laid this package down on the floor of the car and turned to get his receipt book. When he reached for the package a moment later it was gone.

ADMITS SHE KILLED TWO.

Woman Under Arrest Clears Up Montana Murder Mystery.

A Butte, Mont., special says: Mrs. Hank Naffling, who is believed to be demerolized, and who is held in the prison hospital at Phillipsburg on suspicion of being the murderer of Mrs. Patience Cona and James Cona, has made a confession in which she declared she killed Mrs. Cona with a hammer and then shot the man. She had made her home with the Conas.

Twenty-five years ago, while in a rage, she shot and killed her husband, and was cleared on the ground of insanity.

FOR BIG ROBBERY.

Two Suspects Are Arrested by Chicago Police.

A Chicago special says: Two men who registered at a hotel as E. H. and E. B. Fuller, of Minneapolis, were arrested Sunday evening, and are said to be wanted in connection with the $74,000 Chicago postoffice robbery last year. It is said that E. B. VULCAN PRINCE DEAD.

Herr Krupp, the Great Gunmaker, Suddenly Dies.

A Berlin special says: Herr Krupp, the great gunmaker and the wealthiest man in Germany, died suddenly of apoplexy Saturday afternoon at his villa at Hobege. Herr Krupp had been ill for several days, and a report of his condition was telegraphed to his wife, who had been several months in Java under medical treatment. Concerned by the latest dispatch regarding her husband, Frau Krupp left Java Friday, accompanied by Prof. Reussinger, of the medical faculty of the university there.

According to the medical reports, his physicians succeeded in restoring Herr Krupp to consciousness, but their patient soon relapsed into insensibility. He died at 3 o'clock. In the meantime the directors of the Krupp gun works and Herr Krupp's solicitors had been summoned. They held a consultation after his death and caused a bulletin announcing his demise to be posted at the works at 6 o'clock.

At about noon rumors were in circulation in Essen that Herr Krupp was dying, but the public had no accurate information regarding his condition until the great works which dominate the city and furnish employment to 43,000 men were closed.

The first question that everybody asked was "Did Herr Krupp commit suicide?" There seems to be no testimony to support this suggestion, the physicians in attendance resolutely asserting that the cause of death is somewhat obscure. Near friends of the dead man, who were aware of the great mental stress into which the recent publication in the Vespers had thrown him, reproduced as it was in a daily edition and telegraphed all over the world, are confident that the charges contained in the story induced his death.

A late dispatch states that Herr Krupp died from a stroke of apoplexy.

DYNAMITING OUTRAGE.

Saloon is Completely Wrecked at Mahanoy City, Pa.

A Mahanoy City, Pa., special says: The most destructive dynamiting outrage that has occurred in the coal regions since the strike began was perpetrated here at 5 o'clock Sunday evening. The dynamite, with fuse attached, was placed under the bar of the saloon of Christopher Portland. The front part of the building was blown across the street, and the adjoining buildings on either side were badly wrecked. Windows were broken in every house on the square.

Portland and the other members of the family were sleeping on the third floor and escaped without serious injury, although all were thrown from their beds.

THREE MEXICANS ARE SHOT.

Convicted of Murder of Robert Emmott, an Englishman.

A Mexico City special says: On the spot near Zacatlán, Mexico, where two years ago they murdered Robert Emmott, an Englishman, the manager of a mine, three Mexicans were shot to death, and their accomplices, nine in number, sent to prison for long terms. The Mexican authorities have spent over a year in tracing the robbers, all of whom were captured. They were given a fair trial. The judge in the case was sent from this city. Gov. Villada, of the state of Mexico, put forth special orders in the matter.

Result of Dock Fire at Ashland, Wisconsin.

A Davenport, Ia., special telegram says: Rock Island passenger No. 11, running from Chicago to Fort Worth, Tex., was held up near midnight Friday night, two miles west of this city. Five masked men heavily armed boarded the engine, after signaling the train with a red lantern, uncoupled the mail and express car, ran them two miles farther southwest, where the express car was blown up with dynamite and left a total wreck.

The robbers are said to have got into the safe containing a large amount of money, through the express car. They mounted the engine and escaped down the track.

The entire police force of this city was sent after them, but there was no word of the capture of the robbers at 3 a. m. Saturday.

The express people here are confident that their safe will be found to be intact. A London dispatch says: When the hearing of the charges of cruelty against Mrs. Annie Pennelocke of Compton Park, Wiltshire, was resumed at Old Bailey Friday, the defendant was placed in the witness box and made a sweeping denial of all the charges brought against her. STATE OF NEBRASKA

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN A CONDENSED FORM.

Hanging of Niengens—It Will be the First Execution Under the Nebraska Law—Murderer is 28 Years Old and Does Not Use Tobacco.

A Lincoln special states: Gottlieb Niengens, of the Pierce county, murderer recently convicted of killing his wife, bids fair to be the first man to be executed under the law enacted by the last session of the legislature requiring that all executions in the state shall take place in the penitentiary. He was lodged in the state's prison system on the 25th of last April until the first Friday in July next. Thus it is that Niengens will not get out of the state until the first of his fellow criminal, and that Gov.-elect Mickey will have the friends of two condemned men bombarding his susceptibility soon after he is inducted into office.

The commitment papers of Gottlieb Niengens disclose that he was born in Nebraska, is 28 years old, a farmer by occupation and a Lutheran in religious affiliation. They also show that he is temperate in his habits and has not been addicted to the use of tobacco.

WILL IS SET ASIDE.

He had been insanely jealous of his wife. A complaint was once brought before the commissioner of insanity, but it was believed that he might be cured.

After his death it was found he had made a will in which he left nothing to his widow. Mr. H. Abbott was named as executor in the will. Mrs. Meade contested in her own behalf and as the next best friend of the child and upon a hearing Judge Mullen found that the will had been executed while the testator was afflicted with mental derangement and the instrument was therefore null and void.

The work was done in the day time and whenever the jailer came in he had it covered with paper so that it was not noticed. Wooly said inside jail it became dark and then he crawled out and made his escape. The woman around whom the plot was hatched and it is probable that he will soon be caught.

Dixon County Girl Weds Grand-mother's Brother.

An Emerson special says: During the past year Emerson has had several elements and one abduction case, but the latest matrimonial venture is that of Miss Callie Butler, aged 19, who on September 17, was secretly married to her grand uncle, A. A. Palmer, aged 65. The groom is a brother of the bride's grand-mother, and an old uncle of her father, Henry A. Butler, a prosperous farmer west of the county seat.

Mr. Palmer has been making his home with the bride's father for a year or more, and he and his grand-niece frequently drove to church together. In September they went to Omaha to attend the Anniversary festivities. On account of the relationship existing between the parties, the county clerk refused to issue a marriage license, and they were married by the county judge in Omaha.

It was kept a secret until Wednesday, when the girl confessed the facts to her parents.

The parents of the bride are very much incensed over the action of the uncle, whom they had given a home and he frequented.

BOY MURDERERS ARRAIGNED.

Boys Who Killed Young Girl Thought to Have Planned Crime.

A Columbus dispatch says: Herman and August Borchers were arraigned late Wednesday on the charge of murder, pleaded not guilty, waived examination and were remanded back to jail to await the action of the district court. William G. Smith, aged 17, a Washingtonian, appeared for them in the justice court. An appointment of counsel for the further trial of the case will be made by Judge Hollenbeck.

The filing of the complaint against the two youths is the result of an investigation made over the past few days by one or more persons older in years and far more probably planned the cold-blooded tragedy, but the officers are practically convinced that the boys are alone implicated.

Herman, the older, is charged with the infliction of the mortal wound and August as an accessory, being present and assisting in the act. The murder, John, the boy of 8, who was with them at the time and who is the only son of the murdered man, was not held in custody and is not mentioned in the complaint.

Winter Wheat Looks Fine.

A Lincoln special says: It began raining here about 1:30 p. m. Monday and rained nearly all the afternoon and evening. About two inches of water fell, which places the ground in excellent condition for winter wheat. The winter wheat is turning out a better quality than was expected. It is averaging about fifty bushels to the acre.

Handle Kids by Muzzle.

A Silver Creek special states: Monday Clarence Beckwith, the 35-year-old son of Frank Beckwith, a farmer living one mile west of town, undertook to shove a 32-caliber rifle into a wagon, holding the muzzle of the gun in his left hand. The usual result followed, the ball entering the palm of his hand and coming out in the wrist. His hand will be saved.

The state library commission met Tuesday afternoon to formulate a report to the legislature. In the main the report consists of the one made at the meeting by the secretary, Miss Bullock. She says that the commission, which has charge of traveling libraries, has aroused great interest in the various cities and towns that are without library facilities. The total circulation has been very large. At the present time thirty circulating libraries are in use throughout the state and several are in process of arrangement. Forty-four places in thirty-one counties have had traveling libraries so far. Five thousand five hundred and twenty-one persons have been served with books, making an average of six and a half persons to a book. This, says the secretary, is a far higher average per book than obtains in any public library of the state.

The gang of burglars which is making a specialty of robbing stores and banks in country villages invaded Lawrence County Monday evening. At Waverly they were caught in the act of breaking into the store of A. A. Palmer's store, but escaped after exchanging shots with Marshal Wong. Later in the night they pried open the store of W. J. Welton at Raymond, and got away with $200 worth of stuff. They repaired to the Union Pacific tracks and stealing a hand-car rode towards Lincoln. The abandoned store was found a mile west of W. J. Welton's store. The hand-car was left, and followed it to the railroad yards, where it was lost. It is presumed the men escaped on a freight train.

In supreme court Monday arguments were presented in the case of the writ against Charles Russell, who has twice been convicted of the murder of Alvis Standen in Sioux County in May, 1890. Russell is a young ranchman, and Standen is said to have been a cattle rancher. The latter was found lying dead upon the prairie under circumstances which led to the arrest of Russell for his murder. On the first trial, which occurred in Sioux County, Russell was convicted of murder in the first degree. His case was brought to supreme court, a reversal secured and a change of venue taken to Dawes County where he was again convicted, but for simpler in the district court. It is upon this conviction that the case is now in supreme court the second time.

Marie Northrup is not notified, according to the supreme court decision, to recover from the city of Lincoln for damages sustained by a fall on a sidewalk. The supreme court has granted the writ for the city, and one of

For a century the White House has been a show place for the people and there is probably no other building in the world used as a residence which has been visited by so many persons...

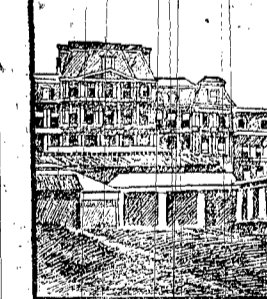

OUTWARD CHANGES.

The expenditure of $500,000 might be expected to make a notable impression in its appearance. But the outward evidence is found principally in the addition of wings which will give the mansion a more imposing and dignified appearance...

A feature of this plan, as well as that of the east terrace, will be a beautiful balustrade. The terrace has parapet walls about two and a half feet high...

On the east side of the White House will be a similar terrace, the main purpose of which will be the comfort and convenience of the President's family...

The changes in the interior of the old building are yet in a state of incompleteness...

FAST TRAIN HELD UP.

ROCK ISLAND FLYER STOPPED IN DAVENPORT, IOWA.

Express Car Dynamited and Six Aged Aboard—Twelve Men Do-Deed—Conductor Cut Off and Engineer Forced to Haul Safety Two Miles to Sidings.

The fast Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific train No. 11 was held up two miles west of Davenport, Iowa, at 12 o'clock today night by a gang composed of from twenty to fifteen men.

The express car was blown to pieces with dynamite, and the gang, after securing the contents of the express safes, fled.

The train was stopped as it was slowing up for a crossing inside the city limits, within a mile and a half of the center of the city.

Three men suddenly sprang into the express car and, after a moment's hesitation, they fired into the faces of the engineer and fireman.

As soon as the train came to a standstill part of the robbers stood guard over the passenger coaches, preventing any interference, while the rest forced the engineer to start on.

The trainmen were held at the point of departure while two men blew open the express car with dynamite and proceeded to wreck the safes.

The two explosions that wrecked the car were heard in Davenport, and it was not long before the cause was known.

It was at first thought some of the trainmen had been killed, but no one was injured.

How much was secured is not known, but it is known that the company was carrying a large amount.

Train No. 11 is the through train that left Chicago at 6:45 Friday afternoon. It split in Davenport, care being sent to Kansas City over that division of the Rock Island road.

The train held up is the Colorado Springs express, consisting of a combination baggage and express car, two day coaches, two chair cars and two sleeping cars, which run through to Colorado Springs.

The train passed through the city at 10:40, being made up, and it left the city on time at 11:43.

No notice of the holdup was received in Davenport until the train dispatcher failed to locate the train at a junction where it is always reported.

The police of Davenport were notified at once and a big squad was rushed to the scene at once on a special engine.

It is believed the robbers, after committing the crime and securing the booty, returned to the city.

The Rock Island holdup Friday night is the eleventh notable affair of its kind during the present year.

More men were captured in the present year than in any other year, and the number of robberies has been committed in this band of from three to five men.

This is the third time a Rock Island train has been robbed since the beginning of the present year.

Work for Congress.

Congress will find a large amount of business to be disposed of in a short time.

Undoubtedly there will be an earnest effort on the part of the national lawmakers at the last session of the present Congress to leave no tail ends for the Fifty-sixth Congress to pick up.

The first subjects to be taken under consideration are the regular appropriation bills, without the enactment of which the wheels of the government must stop.

There are eleven of these measures, and all will be disposed of with the greatest expedition. The time remaining will be devoted to the consideration of the appropriation bills awaiting action.

The urgent deficiency, the general deficiency, the army, the navy, the legislative, the executive and judicial, the pension, the postal, the fortifications, the District of Columbia, the agriculture and the sundry civil measures.

Some of these bills are of great importance, and if they are passed with little debate, a river and harbor appropriation bill usually is passed, but the measure for the Fifty-seventh Congress was enacted at the first session.

With the appropriation bills passed, the Senate and House will be expected to enact legislation touching subjects of great importance.

Some measures already have been passed by the House and await action by the Senate, while in other cases the Senate took the initiative at the last session.

Of special importance is the Cuban question, which will be taken up at the first session. This bill, it will be recalled, was halted in the Senate by the action of the best sugar Republicans.

Of importance also are the general reciprocity treaties which rest before the Senate for ratification.

These conventions are of great importance, and if a serious attempt is made by the administration spokesmen to force a conclusion an interesting and probably prolonged debate will take place.

Then there is the House bill before the Senate for a restricted immigration. Senator Henry C. Lodge in a letter to a senatorial friend in the House will try to secure action on this measure.

There is objection to the bill on the ground that it would limit the amount of desirable labor to be secured in the United States and that it contains other alleged unjust features.

This measure is bound to precipitate a fight. It is an important question, and it will be authorized seems agreed upon by Republican leaders, but whether by a permanent commission or by members of the houses has not been determined.

There is a wide difference among Republican Senators regarding the pending reciprocity treaties.

Senator Aldrich is opposed to the treaties and advocates maximum and minimum rates of tariff that can be put in force by the executive when the actions of foreign governments warrant it.

He advocates the retention of the tariff in its present form, but with certain modifications, and he is in favor of a permanent commission to study the question.

BOOTH ADDRESSES BIG THROU.

Salvation Army Founder Speaks at Chicago Auditorium.

Not since the last visit of Dwight L. Moody to Chicago has such an audience filled every inch of space in the Auditorium Theater as that which crowded the aisles to hear Gen. William Booth speak Monday night.

When the venerable founder of the Salvation Army stepped from the ranks of a half-hundred honorary vice-presidents of the meeting, numbering more than 100 of Chicago's leading citizens who were present as a tribute to the evangelist, he walked to the front of the rostrum and was cheered by the audience.

The general told of his work, covering a period of thirty-seven years, of launching and leading a movement which has numbered its adherents by the million and is known throughout the whole world.

"Eleven years I worked to get it well started in London, but to-day, at the end of thirty-seven years, we have spread into all the countries of the world," said the general.

"I sometimes tell my geographical friends that if they don't watch out we will be first to get to the north pole. What is the mission of the Salvation Army? It is in the words of Ian MacLaren, to 'make religion where there was none before.'"

That is what we do. We do not want to be a religion, but we want to be a religion where there was none before. We do not want to be a religion, but we want to be a religion where there was none before.

COMMERCIAL.

Lower prices for railroads.

Lower prices for railroads than at any time since last March do not necessarily indicate less of traffic nor a setback in business.

On the contrary, coincident with the collapse of the stock market, there were many evidences that manufacturing and transporting interests have not sufficient facilities to meet demands, and that the country is now of greater efficiency than at any previous time.

The foregoing is from the Weekly Trade Review of R. G. Dun & Co. It continues:

Distribution of merchandise is fully maintained, preparations being made for a heavy holiday trade, and frequent complaints of tardy deliveries testify to the heavy consumption.

Prospects for continued activity are bright because of anticipated harvests, prosperity in the agricultural sections, assurance of a good demand for other products.

Threatened labor controversies have been averted, in some cases wages being advanced, while a number of increases were voluntarily given.

Railway earnings continue to advance, the first week of November showing a rise of 4.8 per cent over 1901 and 15.2 per cent over 1900.

High temperatures retards retail trade in seasonal goods. Aside from the expected decline in prices of pipes and tubes there has been no evidence of weakness, and all the recent concessions have been made by competition of new plants rather than diminished business.

Many purchasers are delaying orders, however, in the hope that the market will go lower in other departments, but there is abnormal activity in the light movement of coke.

Rail mills are fully booked up to next September, and a Canadian road placed a large order in Germany, while structural shapes are in great request, especially for bridges.

Eastern manufacturers of foot wear are offering no inducements to buyers, and, while no actual advances in prices have occurred, the market is decidedly strong.

Western shops are also busy, deliveries in both sections coming so slowly as to cause much complaint. Sole leather is active and firm, both domestic and export sales being brisk.

Some western tanners advanced prices, which checked business. Foreign dry hides are abundant and weaker. Limited supplies in first hands and with jobbers have sustained cotton goods, despite the sharp decline in the raw material.

Export trade is dull, Chinese business showing an effect to counter the effect of foreign orders are in the market and could be secured by slight concessions.

It is between seasons in the market for woolen goods, though there is some inquiry for heavy weights for quick delivery. Clothing sales being brisk.

The official Republican plurality in Illinois is 66,678, which gives entire satisfaction for an off year.

The great central west and west is President Roosevelt's country. The people idolize him.

Hon. W. M. Robertson is mentioned as one of the foremost candidates to succeed Senator DeWitt in the U. S. Senate two years hence.

The Wauna Gazette is jubilant over the prospects of the building of the Norfolk-Yankton railroad through the city of Wauna.

W. W. Quayle, the defeated candidate for county attorney in Pierce County has filed contest papers in the office of the county judge.

How pleasant it is, "how that the smoke of battle has cleared away," for republicans to reflect that they gained a victory without heaping personal abuse upon their opponents.

J. J. McCarthy has demonstrated the possibility of a man being elected to congress without tapping a barrel or seeing the bottom of a long purse.

Every democrat and populist in the legislature who can show at the end of the session that he has used no transportation will, upon application, this office in person, be presented with a copy of Driftwood and a cabinet photograph of Samuel L. Cady.

A woman by the name of Mrs. Gertrude Young, tried living without eating any food for forty days, with the result, she died.

Carrie Nation has broken out at the last time at the New York show. She irreverently approached the box occupied by the Vanderbilts and advised the ladies of the group to go and throw off their delectable garments and put on something that would be more modest.

The Wauna Gazette strikes the situation about right in the following: "County treasurer of Nebraska are at present limited by law to two terms, four years in office."

The way in which a few democratic papers are beginning to praise Gorman is very pleasing to the republicans. The republican party, of course, feels that it can sweep the country in 1904, no matter who the democrats put up.

Secretary Hitchcock will win the country's plaudits for the vigorous way in which he is enforcing the law against the cattle kings who have illegally fenced in tracts of the public domain.

Wayne M. Veagh, one of the greatest lawyers in America and leading counsel for the mine operators, and John Mitchell, president of the miners' union, had a brilliant tilt of words before the Anthracite opal commission at the sitting of the arbitrators at Scranton, Pa., last Monday.

The defeat of Meiser for congress emphasizes the principle that it is folly to nominate a man for office who has a scrap on his hands.

When it comes to a matter of resigning President Roosevelt there are no sectional lines anywhere in the country. His welcome in Memphis and in the other points in the South which he has just visited was as cordial as any he would have received in the North or West.

The movement in Nebraska among people of Swedish birth to relieve the distress of their kinsmen in the home country is just what might be expected. There is no harder or thriftier class of people, none who more loyally and successfully accept citizenship in this country, than that which comes from Sweden.

The annual report of the Treasurer of the United States is a great showing of our material prosperity. The report of the Treasurer does not, like the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, deal specifically with the fiscal policy of the nation.

NOT READY FOR RACES.
James Hurst, of Wayne, Neb., who is a well known breeder and the owner of the horse flesh, sent a challenge to E. H. Dymont, manager for the Robe and Tanning company, and Frank Hagan, of this city, which was tempting in details. He said, with much truthfulness, that he would race his yearlings against theirs a quarter mile or one-eighth of a mile heats, for from $25 to $100 a side.

Mr. Hurst heard that Mr. Dymont and Mr. Hagan had been to Chicago and bought some young horses. In his own stables he has some of the best youngsters that ever felt the touch of a harness. These teething colts he would like to race, and he sincerely believed that in this town he could not get a game. To show his eagerness for a race Mr. Hurst offered to pay all the shipping expenses both to and from the Wayne track.

The Sioux City horsemen read the challenge with much interest, but are not in a position to accommodate Mr. Hurst. Out of the four horses bought at the sale there are only two yearlings. One of these is Finewood, a Birchwood filly owned by Mr. Hagan. This colt in shipping was badly bruised. She was knocked down in the cars and severely out about the legs, and will not be ready for the road before spring. The other yearling bought is the property of P. H. Dymont. His name is The Patchen, by Patchen Wilkes, and up till this day he has never felt the back pad of a harness saddle. In other words, he still is unbroken.

The other horses bought were Katie Allerton, a green 8-year-old trotter, by Allerton, now in Hagan's stables, and Alta Gamalson, a 5-year-old pacer with a mark of 2:24 1/2, now the property of W. J. Couler, of Elk Point. Sioux City Journal.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST

Good News For all Who Suffer with Rheumatism, Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published.

No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformant, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "cure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how my mother was cured.

I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a Cure for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are wearied and discouraged by "doctoring" and to those who have been told as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experience. Surely, if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, anyway, and prove yourself these claims I make.

Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you the wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism no matter where located send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR RAINBOLD, Bloomfield, Indiana.

We are glad to see the Wayne Herald in line for its full block at last, even if it waited until after election to do it. Having carefully ignored Harry Simons although the campaign extended some when it gave him a striking notice, it now "limbs into the road wagon" and drools over the qualifications of the man it tried to defeat. The republicans of Wayne county, particularly those in the western part, must be awfully proud of their post office organ, inside Tribune.

We are not aware that the HERALD has trampled upon the toes of the Tribune editor, personally, or otherwise, therefore are unable to account for the rancor that exists in his bosom (if he has one) for the editor of the HERALD. However, as we do not propose to mince matters we will at once inform the Tribune that the HERALD did support and McNeal did vote for Harry E. Simons for county attorney as well as for every other republican on the ticket and the Tribune editor or anyone else who asserts that such are not the facts, deliberately lies. Is that clear, Ecker? THE HERALD is aware that election has been over for some time, yet begs the indulgence of its readers for an issue or two. It has never been the purpose of the HERALD to treat its political opponents with other than respect, never abusing or berating them personally, but, at all times striving to attain success for the republican party nominees. Therefore, this paper, we assert is the only paper in the county, and we have them on file, that did support Mr. Simons, so far as the files show. Several weeks before election the columns of the HERALD were tendered to Harry Simons, who, at that time, said he wished to make a quiet campaign, would do nothing until two or three weeks before election and then only in the west half of the county and thought it best not to agitate the matter, all of which the HERALD acquiesced in and said little except in short items in three issues of this paper, when we touched on the matter of county attorney. For proof of McNeal's support of Mr. Simons, we refer you to W. K. Heister, Wm. Dammeier, Chas. S. Beebe and numerous others we may name if necessary. Now then, Ecker, be man enough to acknowledge you knew nothing of what you were talking about, or furnish the proof, a thing you nor no one else can do, or stand branded as a deliberate falsifier. No republican nominee at Winside ever did have or ever will have cause to complain of the HERALD's course in their behalf. We have urged and plead with the republicans of Wayne, to stand by the nominees of the party, but because they do not, we do not propose to be held responsible for it. However, it has become decidedly evident that a republican nominee can be elected without the republican majority in Wayne.

Best Liment on Earth.
I. M. McHaffey, Greenfield, Tex., writes, Nov. 2nd, 1900: "I had rheumatism last winter, was down in bed six weeks; tried everything, but got no relief, till a friend gave me a part of a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liment. I used it and got two more bottles. It cured me and I haven't felt any rheumatism since." I can recommend Snow Liment to be the best liment on earth for rheumatism. For rheumatic, sciatic or neuralgia pains, rub in Ballard's Snow Liment; you will not suffer long, but will be gratified with a speedy and effective cure. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at E. J. Raymond.

How are Your Legs and Feet.

This is a very important question and unless you understand the importance of this question you are going to suffer. What would you think of a general if he did not look after the outposts of his army? The legs and feet are the outposts to health. If you neglect the proper care of these your body will suffer. Now it is our business to keep legs and feet in proper condition, but we must have the consent of the owner before we can do our duty. How are you prepared to resist the cold weather that is now about to take possession of this part of the globe? Remember that you dress the other part of your body with about five thicknesses of cloth while your legs and feet are dressed with but two. Now, the important thing is to have these thicknesses made of the right material. If you will take our advice you will not suffer with cold legs and feet this winter and will be free of rheumatism and colds. Remember we dress feet as well as legs, and it is very important to have your feet dressed proper. We know how to do these things. Will you give us a chance to show you how you ought to dress in this climate? It will cost you nothing to find out what we have learned about proper clothing during our long experience in the clothing business. If you have never worn Staley wool underwear you should not put it off any longer, but investigate the merits of Staley underwear at once. It may save you a doctor bill. It surely will do no harm to see it. How about a fur coat? Don't buy one until you have seen our large stock. Now don't neglect your legs and feet, dress them proper and you will be well and enjoy life. If you don't know how see us, it costs nothing to find out.

CATARH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cod-liver oil as the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane of inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the stomach, kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected. S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects. Write us about your case and get the best medical advice free. Book on blood and skin diseases sent on application.

I have lived long enough to learn that some of the improvement in all kinds of stock comes by feed. When a man says he uses but little feed and his stock looks fine there is something suspicious about the transaction. The beginner usually brags about how little feed he gets along with in the management of his stock; later he changes to how much feed he can use. The best plan is to feed more and haul less. Saving feed is sometimes wasting money.—Homestead.

He lived in Iowa, had a splendid farm of 320 acres, lots of stock—registered Shorthorns, Percherons and the like—a good wife and a fine home, was a good business man and a hustler, but he would get full when he went to town. He had always managed to find his way home until one evening not long since, when in his chronically fuddled condition he made a miscalculation as to the distance of the fast mail train as he started to cross the railway track. The tragedy was complete in a moment of time. Crushed and mutilated almost beyond recognition, what was left of him formed the center of interest at a big funeral, not even the kind hearted person deemed it necessary to draw any moral.
