We will never see such a wonderful attraction again, as this renowned Becker Family. So attentive was the audience, that it was a delight for the orchestra to work to them. They are all very young, pretty and talented children. The violinist is a clever little artist, and the young opera singers are simply O. K. and the music rendered is the very best.

"According to newspaper reports," says the Homestead, "fourteen hunters were accidentally killed while hunting deer as against ten foot-ball players killed while playing ball and three farmers were gored to death by bulls. Lead seems to take the lead of the pig's skin and bulls that are not dangerous seem to have in them an element of danger to human life. In life there is danger."

DIED.

Celia A. Saxon, born at Lee Center, N. Y., Aug. 15, 1842; united in marriage to C. C. Brown, in 1861. Six children blessed this union, one of whom preceded the mother to the better land. Deceased was a resident of Wayne county, since 1881, having moved here from Indiana with her husband and family.

During her recent illness she suffered patiently and seemed to understand that all loving hands could do was being done for her. She was one of nature's noble women, and loved by all that knew her. A true member of the church, an affectionate wife, a devoted mother, a kind neighbor and friend, she will be sincerely mourned.

Deceased had been seriously ill but a few days, and Sunday morning surrounded by her children and a kind and faithful husband she fell asleep in Jesus.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dawson, from the Methodist church in Wayne, on Monday, Dec. 22, and the remains were laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery.

"Pale withered hands, that for so many years had wrought for others, soothed the hurt of tears,

Rocked children's cradles, eased the fever's smart,

Dropped balm of love, in many an aching heart;

Now, airless folded, like wither'd leaves pressed

Above the snow and silence of her breast; In mute appeal they told of labors done,

And well-earned rest that came at set of sun. From the worn brow the lines of care had swept,

As if an angel's kiss, the while she slept. Had smoothed the cob-web wrinkle quite away,

And given back the peace of childhood's day, And on the lips the faint smile almost said: 'None know life's secret but the happy dead. So gazing where she lay, we knew that pain, And parting could not cleave her soul again.'"

THIS STORE

Is closing the year of 1902 with the greatest sales record in history. Every month, excepting one, our sales are ahead of all previous years, for the corresponding months.

We believe this result is not only because that this has been a year of general prosperity, but that more and more people are finding out that THIS store is a satisfactory place to trade.

At all times we have tried—and think we have succeeded—in showing the most complete assortments found in this vicinity, and at prices universally lower than found in most stores.

Our prices are not so much lower because we ask less profit, but because we are in a position to buy our goods at a less price than other stores.

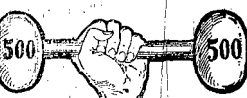

Our method of buying direct from the factory for cash has saved our customers many dollars this year, and it will be our earnest effort to save them an even greater amount in this year, 1903.

We thank you, one and all, for your patronage, and wish for you a Merry Christmas, and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

A Deplorable Affair.

Last Monday morning John Hufford entered his store and was just putting the money taken from the safe in the cash drawer when he was attacked from behind by Edwin Bartlett, who began to beat him. Mr. Hufford thought he was attacked by a burglar and put up a strong resistance possible and in the struggle fell to the floor, finally discovering that the person who was struggling with was Edwin. The latter gave as his reason for attacking Mr. Hufford that 'heir advertising in the papers cast a reflection upon him and he (Bartlett) was taken into custody charged with insanity and taken before the Board Tuesday at which time the matter was postponed until Friday. The affair is deplored by everybody, which is a very unfortunate one, and one in which all will hope for a satisfactory adjustment.

Mr. Bartlett took exception to the first three paragraphs of the 2 Johns last week's ad, published in the HERALD in the issue of Dec. 18. Following are the paragraphs:

"What are we here for? This is a question that often comes up in one's mind. If we are here for no other purpose than to satisfy our own selfish desires, it is not necessary that we make many efforts either physical or mental.

"Man needs but little here below and don't need that long. One's needs are very few if we have no other ambition than to get what we need to eat and what we need to wear.

"We are hobnob if we have no other desires than these. Enough to eat and wear will satisfy any tramp."

RHEUMATISM

CURED AT LAST

Good News for all who Suffer with Rheumatism, Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatment on the rheumatism ever published.

No matter what your form of rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, fibrous, muscular deformity, sciatic, neuritic, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "cure" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how my mother was cured.

I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a Cure for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are wearied and discouraged with "doctors" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experience. Surely, if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, anyway, and prove yourself these claims I make.

Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have an extreme suffering with Rheumatism no matter where located send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is Victor Rainbolt, Bloomfield, Indiana.
