BURNED TO DEATH.

A frightful accident which caused the death of Mrs. Osse, occurred last Friday at the home of M. Benedict, better known as Melvin post office, south west of Carroll. The woman who was the mother of Mrs. Benedict was in the act of starting the fire with kerosene preparatory to getting supper, when the can exploded, spreading the oil over her clothing and setting it on fire. The daughter who was in an adjoining room at the time, rushed to her assistance, but was unable and prevented from extinguishing the flames, as her mother fought her away. She then ran to the door and called her husband, but before help reached her, the fire had done its deadly work. When the doctor arrived he found the body so badly burned that the nails fell from her fingers at a touch. The woman lingered in intense suffering from six o'clock Friday until 2 a. m. Saturday when she died. Mrs. Osse was about sixty years old. The funeral took place at Hoskins Monday.—Carroll Index.

E. P. QUVEY, State Sup't. House Roll No. 134, by Gregg, of Wayne, provides for an increase in the compensation of county superintendents. The writer has not "lined up" on this matter yet, but when taken in addition to the four year term proposition, the two together certainly make a big thing to support—considering the discouraging conditions at home.—Wausau Gazette.

George, the fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hunter, who has been an invalid all of his life, enduring a great deal of suffering constantly, died last Saturday morning at the home of his parents in this city. For years the patient and loving mother had given tender care to the sufferer until the Almighty saw fit to relieve him. The funeral was held Sunday the remains being buried in the Wayne cemetery.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Mrs. Wright has arrived in Lincoln to spend a few weeks with Fred, who is attending the University.

The Nebraska Live Stock Association met in the University Friday. The matter that interests the University most was a request of the association to the legislature for a $200,000 appropriation for improvement of the State Farm.

This is the closing week of the first semester, a general reckoning period, when past transgressions become manifest through grades, approaching the "zero" standard in which class record and attendance have but little weight when a person is "swearing" over some abstract proposition, and then comes the general complaint of unfairness in the examining professor.

The past week has witnessed dairy meetings of various organizations in which questions of marked importance were discussed, both from a theoretical and practical point of view.

These associations were composed almost wholly of farmers, who have awakened to the community of their interest and the unanimity in opinion for a closer union of interest, in view of these facts it becomes plainly manifest that the era of agriculture supremacy is at hand, when agriculture shall be reduced to scientific basis and the former isolation of the farm shall be brought into communication with the business world, then the tide of emigration that is depopulating the rural districts, and swelling the slum shops of our cities, will be turned back to more congenial country life.

The Irrigation Association held their annual meeting to the University, for the promotion of irrigation in the arid parts of the state, in the interest of which a committee on legislation was appointed to enlist the support of the state.

Questions as to storage of water were discussed and the possible opposition encountered from surrounding states in diminishing the volume of interstate streams, but in this they hoped to bring about an amicable settlement through the Inter-state Commerce Commission.

This is made possible by reducing the heretofore haphazard way to a scientific method of storage and distribution. The former brought about by a system of reservoir to collect and hold the immense volumes of water annually discharged each spring from the melting snow on the mountains. The presence of such large bodies of water would have a marked effect on the humidity of the atmosphere making an increase rainfall possible.

You will miss a rare treat if you do not attend the great Majestic Cooking exhibit at Terwilliger Bros. Don't get left.

Don't send to Kansas City, St. Louis or St. Joe for your liquors when you can get them at O. D. Franks for the same money. See him about it.

Mrs. C. J. Nalin was a Wayne visitor Tuesday morning. Miss Wallace came up from Wayne Wednesday on a few days visit at the S. Hague home.—Carroll Index.

The entertainment to be given at the opera house Feb. 2, consists of Richly Illustrated songs, Life Motion Pictures, Duet on the Organ Chimes, Four in hand Swiss Bell Ringing Duet on the steel Marimbaphone, Magic and Comic pictures and many other amusements all for the low prices of 15, 25 and 35 cents, the best low priced entertainment ever given in Wayne.

The Two Johns had a Dream.

We had a dream and we saw a great army mounted on white elephants rushing through this country and dealing death and destruction to all combinations and trusts. You may not believe in dreams but we do. We are going to shape our business to meet the great change that is going to take place in this country. To do this it will be necessary for us to make some sacrifice and all that do not believe in dreams can take advantage of the great reductions we make. We are going to clean up everything we have in heavy winter goods. This is no dream. Good are going up but we believe in dreams and are going to sell all our winter clothing at a great reduction.

We will commence this sale Monday, Feb. 2. For Two Weeks we will give a Discount of 20 Per Cent on all winter clothing except on Staley Underwear. This sale will positively close Saturday Feb 14

This is not all, but will we sell odds and ends on our bargain table and in the windows at 1/2 price. Every person knows that our goods are all marked in plain figures and sold at one price, therefore you know that our goods are not marked up, but you get the reduction if you buy now, and this is no dream.

Have Been Waiting. All that have been waiting for a reduction on Fur Coats now have a chance to get what they want, as our stock is still complete. Fur coats have advanced and you can save about 40 per cent on next year's price. Don't wait if you want one. We commence this sale with all kinds but they will not last long. Men's Ulsters and Overcoats have been reduced in price and with the 20 per cent off, you buy them at less than cost. This is no dream. This sacrifice sale will cost us hundreds of dollars but we believe in dreams and are willing to lose if we are mistaken. All non-believers in dreams are requested to make this a visit during this sale.

THIS IS NO DREAM

do you see the difference between the two before you buy?

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST

Good News For all who Suffer with Rheumatism, Free.

To all who suffer with rheumatism, will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on rheumatism ever published.
No matter what your form of rheumatism,
whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflamatory, deforming, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "cure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how my mother was cured.
I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor, simply a plain man of justice—but I have a Cure for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this story of mine. I appeal especially to the "helplessly ill" who are worried and discouraged with "doctors" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about rheumatism may be wrong.
Let me tell you my experience. Surely, if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, anyway, and prove yourself these claims I make.
Send me your address today—a postal card
will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with rheumatism let me hear from them. Send me your address and I will mail them a copy.
My address is VICTOR BAINBRIDGE, HOOVER BLD., INDIANA.

Dr. J. C. Clark

EYE SPECIALIST

Sioux City, Iowa.

During the past year it has been frequently reported to me that some unprincipled person has been traveling from house to house representing himself to be Dr.
J. C. Clark of Sioux City, Iowa, and by such representation has defrauded many persons by selling them worthless spectacles. To protect the public from such frauds, I publish this, offering a reward of $50.00 for the arrest and conviction of such person.

I have been making regular trips to Wayne during the past six years and my patients are my best friends.
If you are troubled with headache, nervousness, red inflamed eyes, dizziness, crossed eyes, itching burning lids, spots floating before the vision, abnormal growths called Pterygiums, loss of memory, inability to see distant objects distinctly, lines or letters running together, pains running from base of brain down spinal column, convulsions which precede the menstrual period, do not poison your system with drugs which have left thousands confirmed invalids, when by having the cause removed nature will do the rest. The exhaustion of nerve forces produced by eye-strain are the cause of troubles above mentioned. My work is all guaranteed.

I use no drugs of any kind, spectacle lenses are my only therapeutic.

I Will be at Wayne Feb. 2, '03.

The treaty was signed at the home of Secretary Hay in Washington. The principal business for some time to the conclusion of the treaty. It is understood that the price that the United States was to pay for the way of annual rental for the strip of territory along each side of the canal right of way.

Some time ago there was a hitch over the question of the extent to which control of the canal should be given to the United States. The provisions requested in the treaty by the United States would mean a relinquishment of sovereignty by Colombia over part of her territory.

This matter, however, was amicably adjusted, as was a difference as to the amount of the lease of the strip of land in question, the final result being a three-tenal session in perpetuity of the strip to the United States for canal purposes and incidental police control and protection of the canal right of way. The treaty goes into effect on the ratification of the United States.

The estimated cost of completing the Panama canal is $144,233,358. The total length of the Nicaragua canal route is 183.00 miles; that of Panama 49.00. It will take a steamship of the average size and speed twelve hours to pass through the Panama canal if one with fuel contained the soldier or four hours if the canal is at sea level.

DEATHS IN TRAIN WRECK.

Two Great Western Trains Plunge from Track Within a Week.

Three persons were killed and twelve or fifteen were injured in a wreck of the Chicago and Minneapolis limited train on the Chicago and Western Railroad at South Procop, Ill. The engine, baggage car, buffet car and three Pullman sleepers were derailed.

The train was running at a high rate of speed and struck a defective switch. The engine rolled on its side and crushed the engineer and fireman. Engineer Sheridan was making his last run on this train. He was 33 years old and is survived by his widow and two children.

The train left Chicago at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening and was a fast train to Minneapolis. The speed was about fifty miles an hour at the time of the accident and there was no warning of danger. The engine and the two forward Pullman cars rolled on their side.

The wreckage was soon in flames and the illumination from the wreck was sufficient to attract the attention of the local police. The few available persons were unable to do much to avert the injury. None of the passengers were near enough to be affected by the wreck.

The train was not scheduled to stop at South Procop. A clear track is allotted to the train and no thought was given to the fact that the train was to stop there. The wreckage was soon in flames and the illumination from the wreck was sufficient to attract the attention of the local police.

CONGRESS

Some of Them Are Funny, Some Sad, and Many of Them Are Absurd—Last Labor and Much Time Consumed in Handling Them.

Washington correspondence: THE quantity of mail received at the White House in Washington, is enormous. Since President Roosevelt has been in office the mail addressed to the chief magistrate has been the heaviest in history, and it is steadily growing.

The first step in the handling of the White House mail at its destination is taken by the trusted employee of the White House who makes three or four trips daily to the postoffice to secure the mail. Upon the arrival of the letters at the White House they are turned over to a clerk whose sole duty is to open the envelopes and unfold the letters.

The communications next pass to a clerk who sorts the missives. Many of the letters pertain to what might be termed routine governmental matters, and are turned over to one member of the executive department. The great bulk of the President's mail goes to his secretaries, and most of it they answer over their own signatures without troubling the busy chief magistrate with the matter.

The President does not peruse personally one-third of the letters which are addressed to him. Indeed, fifty communications a day is a liberal estimate of the number which comes under his eye. The letters which are not read by the secretaries are to their proper disposition but finally pass the gauntlet and come into the hands of the President himself are disposed in one of three ways.

In the cases of many of them he turns the matter over to the secretaries with an indication of the character of the reply to be sent. To a few of the letters the President dictates replies which he signs personally, and to a very limited number of personal friends he pens confidential letters.

Naturally such inscriptions as "Personal" and "Private" cannot be regarded in opening the White House mail, but there are many instances in which the initials may insure their communication to the President personally. The great bulk of the President's mail goes to his secretaries, and most of it they answer over their own signatures without troubling the busy chief magistrate with the matter.

The day after Congress suspended foreign duties on coal the British dealers marked up the price on coal shipments for the United States 12 cents a ton. A few more advances will wipe out the entire rebate of 67 cents.

Rural route patrons must keep a supply of stamps on hands and stamp their own letters before placing them in the boxes and thus save the carriers much inconvenience during the cold weather.

Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh, we say give them Scott's Emulsion. It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something tonicising about it.

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

We will send you the penny, i. e., a sample free. Be sure that this picture in the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion is you.

Simple Colds.
Cease to be simple, if at all prolonged. The safest way is to put them aside at the very beginning.
