Ask any good housewife the one thing necessary, next to the "know how," in making bread She will at once answer, "kneading."

Ransack the world and gather together the best flour, the best yeast, the best water and the best of every ingredient which goes to make up the best bread recipe known to womankind. Mix them together in a hap-hazard way and with only slight kneading and even the tramp will refuse it with scorn. On the other hand, get together the best ingredients, mix them in the proper proportions, knead them thoroughly and you are certain of having the kind of bread "mother used to make."

The best ingredients and best recipe, or formula, are as necessary in making mixed paint as in making bread. Thorough mixing or grinding is as necessary to make good paint as kneading to make good bread. In both cases there must be kneading or grinding or mixing until every particle has become part of a harmonious whole. It takes muscle and a good deal of it to thoroughly knead bread. In exactly the same way Heath & Milligan's best prepared paint is made. It will not chalk or peel.

EIGHTEEN ARRESTED
VIGOROUS ACTION IS TAKEN BY THE WATERBURY POLICE

A Waterbury, Conn., special states: Eighteen men placed under arrest on the charge of assault with intent to kill was the record of activity on the part of the police Monday in their efforts to discover the authors of some of the outbreaks of violence which have occurred since the beginning of the strike of motorman and conductors of the Connecticut Railway and Lighting Company eleven weeks ago. The men arrested are charged in the warrants with assaulting Wm. T. Meher and Geo. Morissette on the night of Feb. 26, with intent to kill. These two men were non-union employees of the trolley company who had charge of a car which was attacked at a lonely spot on the Waterbury line. Both were assaulted and one was beaten into insensibility and left lying on the rail. This occurred a little more than a week prior to the attack of a similar nature on a car at Forest Park, when Policeman Paul Mendelssohn was killed by a bullet from a mob of masked men.

While the arrests are nominally for the assault of Feb. 26, the officials hope from this action to learn something that will clear up the mystery of Mendelssohn's death.

Col. F. B. Burpee, attorney for the company, said Monday night that warrants for twenty-two men have been issued, and that he expected that the whole number would be under arrest before Tuesday morning.

Of the arrested men seven are members of the trolley men's union, now on strike. The others are nearly all factory workers and young men of from 20 to 30 years having homes in the west end of the city, in the neighborhood of the car barns.

ASLEEP TWENTY-EIGHT DAYS

A Salt Lake special says: The physicians of this city are at a loss to account for the condition of Miss Bessie Knecht, aged 22 years, who for the past twenty-eight days has been asleep. During that time the young lady has not spoken a word nor had to all appearances a waking moment. She lies with closed eyes, breathing naturally, day after day, night after night. At long intervals she raises her eyelids a little, but never opens them. She is fed at suitable intervals with liquid food, which she swallows automatically. Physicians believe should her present condition continue she will pass from sleep to death through exhaustion of the vital forces.

TO BE SETTLED BY ARBITRATION.

A Buffalo, N. Y., dispatch says: Nine hundred men employed at the Buffalo Dry Dock Company, who had been on a strike for several days, returned to work Monday. The troubles are being adjusted by arbitration.

A Lowell, Mass., special says: In reference to defying the textile unions of Lowell, the agents of seven big cotton mills Saturday ordered an entire suspension of work for an indefinite period. Two days ago these agents officially announced that a canvass of the hob showed that upwards of 80 per cent. were non-union and opposed to a strike. This sentiment changed, and when a second canvass was taken of the loom fixers, mule spinners, carders, nappers, weavers and beaters Saturday morning it was seen that the textile council was able to fulfill its threat and strike in the mills Monday.

Without delay notices of a shutdown, to take effect at once, were posted on the gates, and as the piece hands completed their work they were told to leave. Within an hour the mills were fully 17,000 operatives had been forced into idleness. The length of the shutdown is problematical, but it is likely to last many weeks, as the union has been promised financial support from the United Textile Workers of America, the National Mule Spinners' Association, the American Federation of Labor, and from the local Trades and Labor Council, composed of forty-five unions.

Agent Southworth, of the Massachusetts Mills, secretary of the Manufacturers' Association, says if the mill people think that the shutdown will be for a fortnight they are greatly mistaken. It will last, he said, until the agents are positively told that all the operatives want to work, and when this time comes the agents will consider the matter of resumption. President Conroy, of the Textile Council, who stands as the strike leader, says: "The action of the mill agents simplifies matters. They have simply anticipated us. If they had not declared a shutdown we would have fled them up anyway, and they know it. This makes it easier for us to handle the men. I cannot say what will happen. There may be trouble anyway."

The shutdown will affect practically the 18,000 and more operatives. In a month many hundreds of operatives in small industries supplying material to the big mills will join the army of the unemployed, and the longer the enforced idleness the better the paralysis of industry here.

TREATY IS RATIFIED.

Cuban Senate Adopts the Reciprocity Convention.

A dispatch from Havana says: The treaty of reciprocity between Cuba and the United States amended by the senate of the United States was approved at 8 o'clock Saturday night in the Cuban senate by a vote of 12 to 0.

This approval is absolute, and is not hampered by any conditions, the questionable time limit having been dispensed with through the receipt of the cable message from Secretary Bryan, in which it was positively declared that President Roosevelt would not call a special session of congress prior to Dec. 11. The purpose of this assurance was transmitted to the senate by President Palma and read at the beginning of the session.

CITY NEARLY SUBMERGED.

Backwater from LaGrange Floods (Greenville, Miss.)

A Greenville, Miss., special says: The back water from the LaGrange crevasse is slowly rising and nearly all of the city is submerged. Business is paralyzed, and people are moving out of the city in thousands. The rise in the last twenty-four hours has been two inches.

The sensational reports sent out from here that the city is in danger of destruction are highly exaggerated, and the acts do not warrant such statements.

Rumors of great loss of life are absolutely without foundation, so far as is known.

DEATH OF GUSTAVUS SWIFT

Great Packer Suddenly Passes Away in Chicago.

A Chicago special says: Gustavus Franklin Swift, president of the great packing firm of Swift & Co., the man whose efforts made possible the present method of supplying meat to every city and town in the United States and the world, died suddenly Sunday at his home, 4848 Ellis Avenue, of hemorrhage resulting from an operation for an infection of the gall bladder, performed March 22. Iron Workers to Strike.

A Chicago dispatch says: Structural iron workers, the men who build the framework of skyscrapers, threaten to tie up building operations in Chicago with a general strike because the contractors refused to grant them 60 cents an hour.

A DISASTROUS BREAK.

Serious Crevasse South of Greenville, Miss.

A Greenville, Miss., special says: A volume of water sixteen feet deep and over 1,000 feet in length is pouring steadily over a crevasse three miles south of here, and is flooding thousands of acres of the finest farming land in the celebrated Yazoo delta. The break in the levee occurred at 11 o'clock Friday morning. Only 200 feet of the embankment gave way at first, and a mighty effort was made by hundreds of laborers in charge of the government engineers to check the flood by cribbing and sinking, but it was soon apparent that it was beyond human power to successfully combat the force of the levee on either side of the crevasse were the cause.

When the first report of the break reached this city the excitement was intense, and many people began to collect their valuables and held themselves in readiness to move at a moment's notice. Friday night the backwater reached the city, but it is believed there is no danger from the flood, as the water will pass rapidly to the southward.

Major John M. Sears, who has charge temporarily of the government office, stated Friday night that the break is unquestionably the worst in the history of this levee system. The entire delta, as far south as Vicksburg, will be inundated, and the farming lands in Washington, Bolivar and Sharkey Counties will be under water for more than two weeks. This is the first break on the Mississippi since the present crisis began.

Major Sears says a desperate struggle is being made to prevent the further widening of the break by rivetting the ends of the levee and strengthening them with sandbags. It is feared that this will not be accomplished, as the break is widening rapidly.

The situation at midnight Friday night looked worse for Greenville. (Work on the protection of the levee through Main Street has been abandoned, and water has reached the highest point in the city. Appeals for help have been coming in from the Yazoo and Yazoo-Prairie sections, and relief boxes are being sent continuously to their relief.

Several lives have been reported lost, a woman and five children perished in one home, and it is feared that later returns will show more victims of the flood.

BIG MINES TO RESUME.

A Wilkes-Barre, Pa., dispatch says: The Woodruff mine, operated by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Coal Company, which has been idle for some time past, resumed work Monday morning.

The output is over 1,000 tons a day, and 1,200 men and boys are employed.

The Berwick coal mines, which were closed by the General Anthracite Mining Company when it took possession about a month ago, will be reopened in April. They will employ between 300 and 400 men.

FLYER IS WRECKED.

A Clinton, La., special says: South-bound flyer, No. 48, on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, was wrecked at a crossing four miles north of Thompson, Ill., at 4:30 Friday morning.

The Pullman sleeper and chair coach left the track and were burned. A number of passengers were injured. The train derailed and a hole through the chair car, through which the passengers were removed.

COAL MINERS ARE FIRM.

Want Commissioner's Award Carried Out to the Letter.

A Hazleton, Pa., special says: The executive board of district No. 7, of the United Mine Workers, has notified Marple & Co. and Pardee & Co., independent coal operators, that the miners will insist upon the award of the strike commission being carried out to the letter.

These two firms, according to the board, had suggested to the men that work be continued under existing conditions without regard to the arbitration.

ONE KILLED, FOUR WOUNDED.

A Lee City, Ky., special says: In a fight Sunday between the Howard and Maus families of Morgan County, Nicholas Strickland was killed and Charles McCormack and Clay Ross were fatally wounded. William Maus and Robert Howard were also wounded. No arrests were made.

May Throw an Army Out.

A New York special says: According to the officers of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers there is a possibility that the strike of structural iron workers against the American Bridge Company may eventually throw 200,000 persons out of employment throughout the country.

HER SCALP WORTH $7,000.

A jury decided at Indianapolis, Ind., Friday that the loss of her scalp by Josephine Stephens, while she was employed in this country last year, was worth $7,000. Jesse Sitarow, a barber, who had cut her hair, owned the laundry. Miss Stephens worked at a washing machine, and her hair wound about the shaft.

STATE OF NEBRASKA

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN CONDENSED FORM.

A Sheldon special says: Tim Turley shot and instantly killed N. P. Bliss Sunday. Both of the men lived on farms three and one-half miles north of Sheldon. Turley having moved on the Barent farm Sunday and was to take the dogs to his place. He was accompanied by his brother, James Barhart. Neighbors report the dog had been going to other farmers' campfires on the ground, and wasting much of its Sunday afternoon in this way. Turley, who was a pioneer settler and was a fine shot, accompanied by his 14-year-old son, and they took a prefetching dog, and as the dog was trespassing again two were killed.

Turley, with his son, about 12 years old, took his shotgun and started across the field to the Bliss farm, which is in Hall County, and where the pigs were being fed. Bliss and son had started from their home, which was some forty rods distant, when Turley and son came near and Turley took one shot at Bliss, which missed him. When Bliss turned and said: "For God's sake, don't shoot again," and faced the man with the gun.

Turley fired from a distance of twenty feet. He then took the shells from his gun and dropped them at his feet and rebounded, when the Bliss boy, seeing his father had been killed, began to cry, whereupon Turley said: "You stop crying or you will get shot, too."

Turley came at once to town and gave himself up to the marshal and was at once taken to Kearney.

Bliss has been living in this section for a number of years and bears an excellent reputation. He leaves a wife and three children and is a man in moderate circumstances. Turley is a poor man and has lived in this vicinity for a number of years and possessed a sort of roving disposition, but was always considered respectable. He has a family. The coroner of Hall County will hold an inquest.

OLD SOLDIER SUICIDES.

A Stuart special says: Frederick P. Bloom, an old soldier and pensioner of the war of the rebellion, who lived alone on a homestead five miles northeast of this city, was found dead in the basement of his house Saturday. The body was lying in about a foot of water and there was a bullet hole in the side of the head. The county coroner held an inquest. The finding of the jury was that it was a case of suicide.

The upper room was entered with blood and there was a trail of blood down the stairs. The indications were that he had lived some little time after firing the shot. He had attempted to sweep up the blood with a broom, had opened a valve and a box containing clothes in the basement. He had run to a flour sack and had put flour on the wound as though attempting to staunch the blood. The revolver was found in his pocket. The man was subject to fits and was at times mentally unbalanced.

BIG FIRE IN STELLA.

A Stella special says: Fire started Saturday morning in the basement of the Opera house and before it could be extinguished seven wooden buildings between the opera house and the postoffice had been destroyed. They were occupied by the county clerk, Mrs. Wm. Ulnor's millinery store and Bateman's harness shop.

The heat was so intense that plate glass windows on the opposite of the street were cracked. The town has no fire department, but a bucket brigade was organized and worked with great energy. The loss is estimated at $5,000. Insurance, $10,000.

HOLDS TURLEY FOR MURDER.

Coroner's Jury Says the Killing of Bliss was Willful and Malicious.

A Sheldon special says: (Coroner Recorder) held Turley in custody at the home of his brother, James Barhart, until he had inquest over the remains of N. P. Bliss, who was shot Sunday by Tim Turley. A jury of nine neighboring farmers was empanelled and after hearing the evidence of witnesses were out only half an hour in the forenoon. The verdict was willful and malicious shooting with intent to kill. Turley has been taken to the Hall County Jail for safe keeping.

Serious Accident to Hunter.

Bet Sherrett, a young man 21 years old, met with a very serious accident Friday which caused him to lose his left hand. He was hunting about eight miles north of here, using a muzzle loading gun and had loaded it very heavily, using both black and nitro powder mixed, which caused the gun to explode, forcing away his left hand and a piece of the gun striking him in the face, making an ugly gash on his forehead. He is in a serious condition.

Prisoners Break Jail.

A Bertrand special says: Two men who were wanted at Lexington on charges of theft, and who escaped from the officers at that place, were taken into custody here Wednesday and held for the arrival of the sheriff of Dawson County. They were placed in the village jail, but not in a cell, and about thirty men removed the lock from the door and quietly departed.

Holbrook Has a Bad Fire.

Holbrook had the most disastrous fire since its incorporation. Thursday morning the entire business portion of the town, including North & Miller's and Coper's general stores, was consumed by fire. The probable loss will be $200,000, with only $50,000 insurance.

GROUNDS FOR A NEW TRIAL

A David City special says: The attorney for the defendant in the Lillo matter also some time ago filed a motion for a new trial, setting out thirty-four assignments of error and in the motion referred to certain affidavits, but the affidavits were not filed until last week.

Lena M. Lillo, defendant, also makes affidavit, and says that she is entitled to a new trial. The affidavits are signed by Joseph H. Carter, Charles Carlisle, John W. Thompson and Ami C. Pool were jurors in the trial of the case; that she did not know that said jurors had ever, at any time prior to the trial, formed or expressed an opinion as to her guilt or innocence, and they had any knowledge that jurors Joseph H. Carter and Charles Carlisle had formed and expressed an opinion as to her guilt until after the verdict had been rendered and received by the court.

It is the general opinion that if a new trial is granted that the case will be taken to another county and it is not believed that a jury could be secured in this county.

If the motion is overruled Mrs. Lillo will be formally sentenced to imprisonment for life.

IT MAY BE MURDER.

An Omaha special says: John C. McCain, one of the Union Pacific strikers, was shot in the left breast by Fred Reed, a strike breaker, during a fight at the corner of Ninth Street and Capitol Avenue at noon Tuesday. His condition is said to be very serious.

The trouble started Monday evening, when strikers caused the strike breakers' annoyance as they were leaving the Union Pacific yards. This grew until Wednesday noon, when a party of the railroad's employees were returning to their work, after having partaken of lunch outside the stock pens.

When near the corner of Ninth and Capitol the strike breakers were met by the strikers and a fight ensued. During the fracas Reed drew his revolver and fired two shots. One of the shots went wild, but the second struck McCain in the breast.

SOBER AND FORGETS IT ALL.

Self-Confessed Murderer Has Nothing to Say About the Crime.

A present special says: The officers are of the opinion that James Bennett, the man who gave himself up to Sheriff Hanson Thursday evening claiming that he was the murderer of San Francisco was really a fake. Saturday morning he was ordered to return to the county jail and refused to talk about the San Francisco affair. He admitted that he might have talked considerably the night before, while drunk but when questioned about the Walnut Street murder said he had nothing to say.

He freely admitted that he was the same man who was drunk at the time and did not know what he was talking about. The San Francisco officers have been notified and he is being held to await further developments which are not likely to occur.

LANDS SAVED TO STATE.

The new order changing the uniform of the army is now getting the military department of the state as the National Guard is expected to conform to the new regulations. A representative of an eastern establishment was in the city Saturday taking orders in the office of Adjutant General Culver. Notwithstanding the general trend of the democratic order, he found at the conclusion of the deal that he had invested $300 with more to follow. The new service uniform that will be worn by enlisted men and officers is very simple and rather pleasing in appearance. It is deceptive to the eye when observe at a little distance, resembling the dead grass, and the same color as plain. A broad button takes the place of the brass button and is very much liked by those who have had an opportunity to see it.

POSITION OF LAND COMMISSIONER FURTHER IS SUSTAINED.

A Lincoln special says: The position taken by the land commissioner following the state referendum is being sustained both of which bodies concurred. It required a fight to settle the time of adjournment. The house favored one week from last Friday, while the senate wanted to prolong the session until April 10. The governor, anticipating that at the pending session, which would not be called until later in the month, he would be able to bring the session to a close before the adjournment, set his feet down firmly and declared that at all events on Sunday work would be tolerated by the chief executive of the state. This had the effect of throwing his influence to the senators and finally a compromise was reached to adjourn on the 7th.

PACKING GIRLS WALK OUT.

Twelve girls in the packing department of the National Biscuit Company at Omaha struck at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon because Manager Spitzer would not give immediate answer to their final demand for more wages. They say they are paid 1, 2, 3 and 5 cents per box now but at this rate make an average of $3.50 a week. They demand that the scale be raised sufficiently to admit of their making $4.50 to $5 per week. This is the third strike in the same department. The last one, a year ago, resulted in the striking girls securing a raise of about one-half a cent per box.

A York special says: T. P. Owens, a jeweler here, has invented and has on exhibition a clock that does not strike the hour but announces in a loud voice the time of the day. Owens has invented a self-learner that binds gratis with many and many other inventions that have been put on the market.

How to Select Seed Corn

To get the best seed is always an important question. No farmer can raise a good crop if his seed is poor. The proper time to select seed corn is when you are husking. When you find a stalk that is 14 feet and 6 inches tall and 3 1/2 inches thick, with 2 big ears 16 3/4 inches long, take one ear for seed. We don't know how that sounds to a farmer. It may sound to him as it does to us to hear some merchant who never saw the inside of a coat tell how well their clothing is made. We never raised a crop of corn and we may be mistaken about the right way to select seed corn, but that is our opinion without any experience. If our opinion is worth anything use it, if not don't try it. If you want advice that is backed by over 20 years of experience, ask us about clothing. We manufactured men's suits to order for over 20 years and know all about how a suit should be made to fit and stay in shape until worn out. We know all about the inside of a coat and any suit you buy here is made right on the inside and will stay in shape. If we are mistaken you get another suit free of charge.

No matter how well a suit may fit, if it is not made right it will soon get out of shape and look bad. It is not all to find a good looking horse but you want one that will stay good and one that has no faults. Just so with a suit. Buy of us and you will get a suit that looks well and will continue to look good as long as you wear it. Remember we save you money on clothing and you take no chance as our suits are warranted to give satisfaction.

He has "hearers" who appreciate, even though they may not heed as he would have them.

LIBRARY NOTES.
Last week was a busy one, on Wednesday forty-seven books were loaned, while on Saturday eighty-three loans were made.

The pockets for reader's cards have arrived, and will be put in the books very soon. At the same time they will be classified and catalogued, making it much easier for those in charge.

Our reader's list is continually increasing. In fact the interest manifested far exceeds the most sanguine expectations of the most enthusiastic friends of the movement.

One point brought out in favor of the Free Public Library is the fact that so many children are patrons. They are acquiring a habit of systematic reading, that will be of inestimable value to them in after years.

A prominent gentleman said, "I have been unable to get my boy to sit down and read a book through, now he gets a book and knows he can only keep it a certain time, and of course finishes it, before I will allow him to draw out another."

The Public school teachers are noticing a change already. A sad delinquency in the knowledge of many grown people, is that when young the reading habit was not acquired and now they find it very hard to often understand lectures, etc., for their knowledge of things they should have read when young, is very limited.

We cordially invite you all to come in and investigate our Millinery Dept. at this time. We promise you an unusually fine line of patterns this year, which I selected after a two week's visit to the St. Louis market.
You cannot fail to be pleased with the beautiful designs.
We are conceded to be the Leading Milliners in the city and as such extend a cordial invitation to all to visit us.
Thanking you for all past favors, I am yours respectfully.

MANY WOMEN AND DOCTORS do not recognize the real symptoms of derangement of the female organs until too late.

"I had terrible pains along my spinal cord for two years and suffered dreadfully. I was given different medicines, wood plasters; none of these things helped me. Reading of the cures that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought about, I somehow felt that it was what I needed and bought a bottle to take. How glad I am that I did so! Two bottles brought me immense relief, and after using three bottles more I felt new life and blood surging through my veins. It seemed as though there had been a regular house-cleaning through my system, that all the sickness and poison had been taken out and new life given me instead. I have advised dozens of my friends to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Good health is indispensable to complete happiness, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has secured this for me."

—Mrs. E. R. Buxton, Crown Point, Indiana, Secretary Ladies Relief Corps.

Every sick woman who does not understand her ailment should write Mrs. Pinkham, 233 East Main St., Lowell, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

THE POPULAR PULPIT

DIVINE CHRIST A NECESSITY.

A divine Christ is not only the gratification of the love of God; He is also the necessity of the human intellect and the dire necessity of the human heart. Man has always known that, and through all history we find him looking not within himself, but looking without himself, and above himself, for his Redeemer. He has always believed in a divine humanity, in a Savior who should be the perfect fusion of the human and divine. The Jews looked forward to a Messiah; Greek poetry, Greek myth, Greek philosophy is full to the brim with the conception of a Son of God.

Now, why does a man look for a Savior outside of himself? It is for this reason, that man must have an objective confirmation of the great faith in the world eternal that he finds in himself. He believes in God, but what witness has he that this belief is a reality? He believes that there is a providence that wisely orders and regulates and determines his life toward rational and noble issues. But what witness has he that this belief is a reality? He believes that there is a divine providence in the world; he believes that beyond the world visible and material, the matter world that he can see with his eyes and touch with his hands, there is an invisible world, the world our Lord had in mind when He told His disciples that in His Father's house there are many mansions. But what evidence have we that this faith of ours in an invisible world of ever-ascending and ever-ascending glories has any foundation in reality?

Man cannot, no matter what his vigor and penetration he may think, transcend the limits of the temporal. And if his faith is to pass out of the domain of glorious imagination, out of the domain of pure subjectivity; if it is to impinge upon a fact—in other words, if it is to terminate upon an objective reality—then it is quite clear, at least quite necessary, that the eternal must emerge from the silence and the secrecy of his own inability and the manifest himself. And the only way in which he can manifest himself to man—to the deepest intellect, to the highest reason of man—is through him, through the perfect man. And when the divine speaks through the perfect man we have the higher Christ, the Jesus of history.

THE HARMONIES OF WORSHIP.

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.—Psalm xxiii, 22.

Reverence is the crowning grace of life. Worship is the universal solvent that everywhere disintegrates the rock of bigotry. Reverence makes incense of the iron thorns of evil. On the horizon of human knowledge, on the mountain peaks of human aspiration, in the deep valleys of humiliation, in the lonely desires of the heart, there are no sects, parties, denominational antagonisms or race prejudices, and these are the places where worship becomes inevitable and prayer spontaneous.

Whatever we may think of prayers, however we may regard the formal words of ritual, we must all believe in prayer, for adoration in the presence of the adorable is inevitable to the spirit. Gratitude, admiration, the hunger for communion with the pure, the thirst for companionship with the divine, represent the soul at its maximum everywhere. This constitutes the power which exalts the heart that yields to its law.

Prayer is the hunger of the conscience for righteousness, the thirst of the heart for love. When by thinking we reach a zenith of the highest, when thought lands us at the feet of the unthinkingly, when the known is conscious of the that surrounds it, this is prayer, and in this realm we are all brothers.

"Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness." Holiness is wholesome. This is one element in the poetic culture of the life of the individual is fractional. It comes to its wholeness only in the community. There is no power, culture, helpfulness in the pure notes of the solitary whose voice gives adequate expression to the heart, but mighty deeds are inspired, communities acquire added momentum. The city is deflated and the nation saved under the mighty inspiration of the great chorals that roll from the throats of the unnumbered multitudes. Witness the power of the old chorals of the reformation, the battle hymns of Luther, the "Massellasse." These represent not only the mighty harmonies of the state, but the great harmonizing power of religion.

The main universal element in literature is represented by the prayers of the ages. If the selection be high enough, Catholic saint, ostracized heretic, rescued infidel, Protestant believer and pagan infidel all join in the chorus. Theodore Parker's great work was entitled "A Discourse of Religion." This book shows that the primal virtues of religion, the thought of God, of duty and of the immortal life, were present and primal in all the great religions of the world. In the great parliament of religion held in Chicago

COMMERCIAL FINANCIAL

In 1893 it was demonstrated that the "Our Father" was indeed a universal prayer. Over and over again the Catholic and Jew, the artist, Brahmin and Parsee join in this great typical anthem. They all were ready to pray for the coming of the kingdom of God. "And deliver us from evil" were words consonant and precious to the hearts and lives of the Hindu and Christian, European and American, black and white, rich and poor, learned and ignorant.

The Mohammedan calls his book the Koran "The Cry." The very title gives it a place in the breviary of mankind. All religions is but a cry of the finite toward the infinite, a cry from the seen to the unseen, a cry of the striving for virtue, a cry of the selfish for love. This cry, enforced by science, literature and travel, is bringing in a catholicism. The age of selfishness is gone or going. The sects in religion are doomed; the provincial appeal of the denominationalist fades upon unresponsive ears; age, fails of clear utterance on the part of him who leads the task of sect building.

We walk much of the combinations of trade and the trusts of capital. But they are only the reverse side of the shield—the worldly and oftentimes wicked perversion of the great law of brotherhood. A great catholicism, a church of humanity, of which the church of Rome in its mighty achievements is a feeble prophecy, is the obverse side of this shield. The word in religion, as in statesmanship, is not classism, nor partisanship, nor patriotism, but cosmopolitanism, universalism of some kind or other. In time and eternity is the demand of the heart and the head, the necessity of science, the dream of the sage, the promise of the bard, the inspiration of the prophet, the gospel of the living God, as revealed in the slowly unfolding pages of history and reflected in the ever-ascending and climbing life of the soul of man.

STRENGTHENING THE CHURCH.

By Henry T. Colestock, Ph. D. In the days of Christ many individuals were attempting to solve the problems of the inner life by regulating their conduct according to an external standard. Life was burdened with impossible restrictions. Jesus denounced this method of living because, while it gave respectability to the man who obeyed the letter of these requirements, it did not necessarily change the man himself. Things were done for no other reason than to excite their effect on the individual's character.

Thus many acts were regarded unlawful which were not in themselves unworthy or harmful; many acts were regarded with favor which did not minister to the needs of the soul nor enrich the spiritual life.

COMMERCIAL FINANCIAL

Only one distinctly unfavorable factor is reported in the business situation, and it exists more in the fear of what may happen than in anything that has actually occurred. Several strikes are in progress, but none that seriously hamper industry, although many contingencies are threatened and may interfere with the normal growth of the country.

Progress has been made in relieving trade handicaps and deficiencies are being promptly met. Facilities need much extension if they are to keep pace with the nation's growth. The foregoing is from the Weekly Trade Review of R. G. Dun & Co. It continues: "Jobbing trade is very large and the growing season stimulates retail sales in many lines. Reports from the West are especially satisfactory; agriculturists making extensive improvements, notably in the purchase of the most modern machinery. Buying of spring and summer merchandise is heavy for the interior, and mills are resuming that have long been idle because coke could not be secured."

A careful canvass of building operations at the leading cities makes a fair comparison with last year, outside of Chicago, where special conditions caused a drop in activity in 1902, returns the unanimous opinion of a decrease compared with 1901, which, however, was the banner year in this respect. High cost of material and wages of labor are undoubtedly retarding influences at the present time. Railway earnings thus far available for March show an increase of 14.6 per cent over last year, and 20.1 per cent over 1901.

Prospects in the iron and steel industry are still conspicuously encouraging. Only two drawbacks of serious importance are seen—railway congestion and the dispute. The former has greatly diminished with settled weather, and coke is moved freely to blast furnaces, while pig iron and other products reach their destination with less interruption. Quotations are fully held at Pittsburgh, and a large purchase of Bessemer iron for delivery in the last half of the year is still under consideration. Some wire products, and cast pipe are advanced in price, and as many mills are unable to deliver bills for several months, foreign steel is still purchased freely. Pig iron is continually arriving from abroad and available in the East.

Textile markets are only fairly active, the buying at first hands for home account being on a moderate scale and forward business indifferent, except in the case of a few specialties. Unquestionably the backbone of the cotton goods market is the demand for heavy weight woads has decreased, most new orders being for the cheaper grades. More cancellations of early orders are reported. Much better conditions prevail in the dress goods market, light as staples and fabrics.

Non-English slow shippers report increased sales, western buyers placing orders for August and September delivery. Leather is more active, and tanners are carrying surplus stocks. The market is in a healthy condition. Another general reduction is reported in domestic leather, but foreign leather average higher, despite larger receipts. Failures this week numbered 220 in the United States, against 209 last year, and 22 in Canada, against 21 a year ago.

DAN GROSVENOR SAYS

"Pe-ru-na is an Excellent Spring Catarrh Remedy--I am as Well as Ever."

HON. DAN A. GROSVENOR, OF THE FAMOUS OHIO FAMILY.

"Allow me to express my gratitude to you for the benefit derived from one bottle of Pe-ru-na. One week has brought wonderful changes and I am now as well as ever. Besides being one of the very best spring tonics it is an excellent catarrh remedy."—Dan A. Grosvenor.

In a recent letter he says: "I consider Pe-ru-na really more meritorious than I did when I wrote you last. I receive numerous letters from acquaintances all over the country asking me if my certificate is genuine. I invariably answer, yes."—Dan A. Grosvenor.

A County Commissioner's Letter. Hon. John Williams, County Commissioner, of 517 West Second Street, Duluth, Minn., says the following in regard to Pe-ru-na: "As a remedy for catarrh I can cheerfully recommend Pe-ru-na. I know what it is to suffer from that terrible disease and I feel that it is my duty to speak a good word for the tonic that brought me immediate relief. Pe-ru-na cured me of a bad case of catarrh and I know it will cure any other sufferer from that disease."—John Williams.

A Congressman's Letter. Hon. H. W. O'Connell, Congressman from Louisiana, in a letter written at Washington, D. C., says the following of Pe-ru-na, the best catarrh remedy: "I can conscientiously recommend your Pe-ru-na as a fine tonic and all around good medicine to those who are suffering from a spring catarrh. It has been commended to me by people who have used it as a remedy particularly effective in the cure of catarrh. For those who want a good catarrh medicine I know of nothing better."—H. W. O'Connell.

Dr. E. D. Griffith, Ogdun, Texas, writes: "I suffered with chronic catarrh for many years. I took Pe-ru-na and it completely cured me. I think Pe-ru-na is the best medicine in the world for catarrh. My general health is much improved by its use, as I am much stronger than I have been for years."—W. E. Griffith.

Congressman H. Bowen, Rusklin, Tazewell County, Va., writes: "I can cheerfully recommend your valuable remedy, Pe-ru-na, to any one who is suffering with catarrh, and who is in need of a permanent and effective cure."—H. Bowen.

Mr. Fred D. Scott, Lawton, Right Guard, Okla., writes to me, the writer: "As a specific for lung trouble I place Pe-ru-na at the head. I have used it myself for colds and catarrh of the bowels and it is a splendid remedy. It restores vitality, increases bodily strength, and makes a sick person well in a short time. I give Pe-ru-na my hearty endorsement."—Fred D. Scott.

"I have been troubled with catarrh in my head. I took Pe-ru-na for about three months, and now think I am perfectly cured. I believe that for catarrh in all its forms Pe-ru-na is the best and most effective medicine of the age. It cures when all other remedies fail."—Mrs. Elmer Fleming, Minneapolis, Minn.

Trout Catarrh in Spring. The spring is the time to treat catarrh. Cold, wet winter weather often retards a cure of catarrh. If catarrh of Pe-ru-na is taken during the early spring months the cure will be prompt and permanent. There can be no failures if Pe-ru-na is taken intelligently during the favorable weather of spring.

"As a systemic catarrh remedy Pe-ru-na eradicates catarrh from the system wherever it may be located. It cures catarrh of the stomach or bowels with the same certainty as catarrh of the head. If you do not derive benefit from any other remedy, try the use of Pe-ru-na. I will be glad to give you a full statement of your case, and will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis."—Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanatorium, Columbus, Ohio.

Bank Aids Hospital. At a meeting the other day of the directors of the Savings Bank of Milan, one of the richest and most stable financial institutions in Italy, it was decided that as the profits of the past year had been larger than usual the sum of $1,000,000 should be bestowed on the hospitals of Lombardy, to enable them to introduce the latest discoveries of science and in other ways to provide for the comfort and well-being of their patients.

Engineer's Skill Prevented Washington Monument from Falling. If there is a man in the world who might restore the pluck of Egypt, which has been so disturbed by the fall of the Campanile and the prevalent condition of its other famous types of architecture, he is the new American general who is shortly to relieve the Chief of the Philippine command. For it was General W. Davis who saved the Washington monument from destruction, and by the application of his ingenuity solved a fundamental problem that had baffled the highest engineering skill of modern times. After the great shaft to the tower of his country had risen slowly to the height of 107 feet and rested there like a rough factory chimney, an unfinished eye for twenty years, Congress determined to complete it and gave the job to the army. Built on the edge of the Potomac marsh, as unstable as the soil of the queen of the Akbarite, the shaft had already leaned five feet out of plumb and no doubt could be found to set it straight and insure its permanent stability until Davis, lately a quartermaster, then an infantry captain, volunteered to lift the hundreds of tons of masonry back to the perpendicular and build under it a foundation that would permit the lifting of its top to the highest point ever attained by a monument erected by man.

To hold the soft earth in place he built a huge barrel 10 feet in diameter around the base and drove it deep into the earth below the tidal level. It was bound together the inclined mass with pipes and braces, weighting it all down with stones and concrete, until he had secured a stability that would endure forever. Then he wedged up the monument and put an everlasting foundation under it, and finally turned the work over to the engineers under Colonel Casey, who eventually set the capstone 355 feet above the earth. Up to this day the great structure has not moved a hair's breadth and frequent inspection demonstrates how wonderfully Davis planned. But as he came to spare from Manila to save Venice perhaps it would be as well for the Venetians to come to Washington and study his triumph.—New York Tribune.

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

Postmaster W. H. The certificate is a beautiful work of art on which is given an excellent reproduction of Mrs. McKinley's favorite likeness of her husband, together with a picture of the McKinley home in Canton and of the White House. The wording below the illustrations is as follows: "This certifies that _____ has contributed to the fund for the erection of the national memorial at Canton, Ohio, in honor of William McKinley." The workmanship and artistic effects are of the very highest order, the great house of Tiffany & Co., New York, being the designers and manufacturers. The supply in the hands of Postmaster W. H. Parties who have already identified themselves with the movement will receive souvenirs direct from the office of the Association or through local committees.

TWO RURAL TELEPHONE LINES.

Arrangements have been made and organization perfected among the farmers living west of Carroll for two separate telephone lines. At a meeting held at the Morris school house Saturday evening officers for the two companies were elected and the requisite number of subscribers secured. Both lines will enter Carroll and they are to be designated as "No. 1" and "No. 2" respectively the north line being No. 1 and the south line No. 2. Each member, to start with, will be assessed $20, which amount is to be paid into the treasury by the first of May, the balance necessary, at the call of the President. It is estimated that the total cost of construction will not average $40 to each member. The future expense of maintaining the line will be small and will be covered by assessments. A small toll will be charged outsiders using the line, and twenty-seven phones on each line is a limit. It is the purpose of the organizers to incorporate both companies.

The estimate of material for line No. 2, as prepared by Surveyor Jones is as follows: 10 posts 25 ft. long, 16 posts 20 ft. long, 20 posts 18 ft. long, 420 posts 16 ft. long. The length of the line as now located being 16 1/2 miles.

The officers of No. 2, are Pres. Robt. H. Jones; Sec. F. E. Francis; Treas. Daniel Davis; together with two other Directors, viz: G. G. Williams and E. J. Davis. The subscribers to this line are: Jno. V. Francis, T. T. Thomas, Thos. C. Williams, G. C. Davis, Wm. E. James, Jenkin Davis, John Jenkins, Wm. H. Hughes, David E. James, Griff. Edwards, Ed. D. Morris, F. M. James, and L. T. Hughes, Thos. H. Jones, D. E. Francis and Thomas Harris, each subscribing for one share making 21 shares in all.—Carroll Index.

For liver troubles and constipation there's nothing better in creation than Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. They always effect a cure and save doctor bills. Little Early Risers are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but act as a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally. L. P. Orth.

Right down on the dead, now, don't you think there ought to be three or four people taken out and hanged for secretly and maliciously doing you dirt?

Herbina Cures. Fever Ague. A dose will usually stop a chill, a continuance always cures. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Texas, May 31, 1899, writes: "We have used Herbina in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we have ever used, for la grippe, bilious fever, and malaria." If a person is very energetic, every one who huddles over a fire to get warm looks lazy to him.

Beauty And Strength. Are desirable. You are strong and vigorous, when your blood is pure. Many—men, most—women, fail to properly digest their food, and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion, depart. Remedy this unpleasant evil, by eating nourishing food and taking a small dose of Herbina after each meal, to digest what you have eaten. 50c, at Raymond's Drug Store.

In a small town, people cannot become accustomed to paying for either music or advertising. They think both should be free.

Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00 Guaranteed by L. P. Orth Druggist. You are busy fooling others; others are busy fooling you. It's all a waste of time. A straightforward course would be better for everybody.

Walks Without Crutches. I was much afflicted with sciatica, writes Ed. C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefited by it." Now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c 50c and $1.00 at Raymond's Drug Store.

Robbed The Grave. A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at L. P. Orth's drug store.

At this season of the year it will not do to be deceived in the condition of the work horse. Not every fat horse is in condition to do farm work. In the work horse it is muscle that is desired. The horse that is for sale should be in good flesh and should have plenty of muscle.—Hornstead.
