Obtaining a stand of corn is one thing and maintaining it is another. It is very evident that a stand of corn has to be obtained before it can be maintained. I have known a perfect stand (as near perfect as it is possible to be obtained) to be ruined by after attempts at cultivation. I have also seen poor stands make a good yield by having the very best cultivation. Seasons differ, farmers' methods differ and yields differ. Find the difference and make the best of the stand obtained. —Homestead.

M. S. Merrill is at his home in this city with a big gash cut in his head and other bruises on his body, the result of trying to stop a run-away team on lower Main street last Monday morning. Dora Larson, a daughter of J. P. Larson was driving near the railroad, when the team became frightened by a train. The team ran west by the Capital saloon, and seeing the danger of the young lady, Mr. Merrill made an endeavor to stop the frightened animals. He was knocked down and the buggy ran over him, and was unconscious for some time. The team was finally stopped by Chauncey Sewell.

MEMORIAL DAY.

National Memorial day, or Decoration day, as it has become to be popularly known, has been set apart as the day on which to pay special tribute to the soldier dead, and to place flags and flowers upon their graves. Nearly 300,000 soldiers of the civil war lie buried in the 79 national cemeteries established and maintained by this government. The liberality of the United States towards its living soldiers, and its faithfulness in the care of its dead soldiers, are unique and unheard of in the history of nations. After no war, whether of ancient or modern times, have any such systematic exertions been made to secure the collection of the dead and their interment in permanent resting places, as have been made by the government of the United States. But the national cemeteries do not hold all the dead soldiers, for thousands lie buried in public cemeteries throughout the country, and their graves are visited annually and decorated in loving tribute to bravery and patriotism. The soil of this nation has been made sacred by the bodies of the dead heroes who now sleep within its bosom. The life of this nation has been enriched by the blood which has been freely shed in defense of its honor and its unity. It is well that we have provided an annual national Memorial day. It is important, yes, even vital, that we fail not to faithfully observe it, and remember in gratitude and love the sacrifice which gave us the nation in which we are so proud to claim citizenship. —Publishers' Auxiliary.

Dullest Publicity, but—
 "Young man," the rising statesman said to the reporter, "newspaper publicity is exceedingly distasteful to me, but since you have asked me to give you some of the particulars of the leading events in my life I will comply. I do so, however, with great reluctance." Here he took a typewritten sheet from a drawer in his desk and handed it to the reporter. "I suppose, of course," he added, "you will want my portrait, and, although I dislike anything that savors of undue publicity, I can do no less than comply with your wish." Here he took a large photograph from a pile in another drawer and gave it to the reporter. "A portrait of me concerning myself," he added, "you will find in this printed leaflet, as well as particulars of my hobbies and tastes. When this appears in a paper you may send me two hundred and fifty copies of the paper."

Miss Gannon, Sec'y Detroit Amateur Art Association, tells young women what to do to avoid pain and suffering caused by female troubles.

"I can conscientiously recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to those of my sisters suffering with female weakness and the troubles which so often befall women. I suffered for months with general weakness and felt so weary that I had hard work to keep up. I had shooting pains and was utterly miserable. In my distress I was advised to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it was a red letter day to me when I took the first dose, for at that time my restoration began. In six weeks I was a changed woman, perfectly well in every respect. I felt as if I had been charged that I want all women who suffer to get well as I did."—Miss GULIA GANNON, 359 Jones St., Detroit, Corresponding Sec'y Mich. Amateur Art Association. FAITH AND SERVICE.
 By Rev. Louis Albert Banks.
 Trust in the Lord and do good—
 Psalm, xxxvii, 3.
 Trust and service go together. The man who believes in nothing, who has no faith and confidence, is bankrupt of good cheer and courage in efforts to help others. No man is well fitted to do good until he trusts in the strength of an arm greater than his own, in the goodness of his heart upon which he may rest with perfect peace.

An elderly merchant in a western city was in sore trouble. He had one of those living sorrows which are infinitely harder to bear than the grief which death brings. He had a son who had been caught in the toils of strong drink. One Saturday night the father had been trying to help him and had fainted. It seemed as though his heart would break.

At midnight he was still staying on in his office on the brink of despair. For two years he had been working and praying, and it seemed to him that he was losing everything at last. Almost unconsciously he took up from his desk a paper lying there, and his sad eyes fell upon Katrina Trask's little poem, and he read these words:

Lie down and sleep.
 Leave it with God to keep
 This sorrow which is part
 Now of thy heart,
 When thou dost wake
 It still 'tis time to take,
 Utter no wild complaint;
 Work while the hands,
 If thou should'st faint
 God understands.

The words of the poet so met his desperate need that they aroused the merchant from the lethargy of despair that was settling down upon him and he said out loud: "I will."

He went home and slept in peace. He arose the next morning refreshed and full of power. "It was the Sabbath, and setting himself to work with new devotion, his boy was brought to trust in the Savior and was redeemed from his sin that very day."

There are two thoughts suggested by our text and by this story which I have already indicated; that is, that useful service nearly always has its foundation in personal faith in God. The man who trusts God is at peace; the man who is worried and fretted, and desperately anxious cannot serve you much. He is too worried about his own affairs. It is the man whose heart is stayed on God, whose faith is sure and steadfast, who has in his inexhaustible store of good cheer in his own soul, who can give you comfort and inspire your confidence in God when you are in trouble.

It is also true that only the man who trusts God has a proper appreciation of the desirability of serving others. The man who loves and trusts the Heavenly Father by that very fact has his love and sympathy for his fellow men deepened and made more sacred. He feels that he is not only helping his fellow men but is pleasing God, and, in the only way he can, making some return for the infinite blessings and mercies of God to him.

The other thought suggested by our theme is that service is necessary in order that we may keep faith and trust. We will not continue to get the joy and gladness which come from a living faith in God unless we do good. Trust is not given to us to fold up in a napkin and put away as a keepsake. The man who undertakes to hoard up his faith in God and thus save it from being lost and thus lose it. The only way to keep confidence and trust and faith is to use them generously, giving them away in loving service day by day.

It was Paul's great joy as he neared the end of his life that he had kept the faith. But he did not keep it by putting it away in the safe deposit vault of his own inner consciousness. He kept it by telling it to everybody he met on the street, by carrying it under every conceivable circumstance into all sorts and conditions of men; and so the only way we can keep the kind of a faith and trust in God that will be a fountain of good cheer and song in our hearts is by serving our fellow men with unselfish love.

PAY THE GIRLS TO SAY "NO."

How Young Men in Argentine Republic Evade Bachelor Tax.
 A new and lucrative field for women's work has been opened in the Argentine Republic, by which the daughters of that favored land are enabled to earn good incomes. It is a business requiring no capital, and all the work can be done at home, but one which is essential, in the nature of things, to widows and maidens.

The women who engage in this easy and lucrative calling are known as "professional lady rejectors," and their business is giving much concern to the Argentine authorities.

It all came about by the passage of the law taxing bachelors in the Argentine. As the law was thought to bear too hard upon young men who really tried to get married and could not do so from the fact that nobody would have them, a clause was inserted by which a man was exempt from the tax if he could prove that he had proposed and been rejected. They are not so slow in those Latin-American countries as we people up North imagine. The professional lady rejector at once made her appearance on the scene.

The fair daughter of the South who chooses the "rejector" business in preference to typewriting or becoming a saleslady does not hang out a sign nor send cards engraved with "Carmenita Suarez, Professional Lady Rejector. Office Hours, 2 to 10," but she causes it to be known that she is in the business and will warrant a rejection every time. For a certain stated sum she will consent to be wooed by any eligible bachelor tax dodger for a reasonable length of time. He can take her to the theater, buy her lilies, and pay for her bouquets and bonbons until the expiration of the time limit, when he asks her to be his, and, according to contract, she promises to be a sister to him. But her work is not yet over, for when the tax on bachelors is due and Jose goes to the alcalde to swear off his taxes, Carmenita has to go with him and make out the rejected list. This seems an easy and pleasant way of making one's living, but the girls engaged in the business say that it really is one requiring the greatest self-control, and frequently causes the greatest agony of spirit to the practitioner, especially if she has a large and wealthy clientele. For a splinter whose chances of matrimony are on the wane, or a luxuriant widow who longs to be colonized, to resist the temptation to violate her contract and say "Yes" for some nice young man with a nice fortune proposes, requires phenomenal business integrity, and is a severe wrench to the feelings.

It readily will be seen that it is not every woman who can succeed in the calling of lady rejector. She must have the faculty of convincing men that her rejection is certain, or they will not trust her, and she cannot get business. The young girl just entering the profession has a hard time of it; it is only the old, reliable lady rejectors who are able to accumulate fortunes.—New York Press.

BALL PLAYING IS POPULAR.

American National Game Has Spread to All Parts of the World.
 Base hits were made all over the world to-day, for American sportsmen are carrying the national game of baseball to foreign lands just as their British brethren have the manners and customs of old England.

Some of the New York stars who draw fat salaries for playing comparatively few games on specially prepared grounds would feel abused if they were asked to pick grounds in any of the passed balls out of cactus plants as the players in old Mexico, where the game has just begun to take root.

In and around the city of old Mexico is a league of four clubs, composed of American and Mexican players. Two games are played every Sunday, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. It must be a truly wonderful sight to see a lot of excited Mexicans at a ball game on a hot Sunday, yelling up and down the foul lines like Yaqui Indians, when in the ordinary course of events they would be at home taking a self-contented-bringing siesta.

Baseball has followed the flag, the constitution, incidentally the army and other things to Manila, and in that excitable clime the position of umpire is not only dangerous in the funny papers.

In Cape Town, too, the residents leave off winning diamonds now and then to play a game of American baseball. The Cape Town Argus of recent date tells of a game between the Columbus, ex-residents of the United States, and the Maple Leaves, who were transplanted Canadians. The Americans won, 18 to 14.

A Beautiful Young Society Woman's Letter.
 ST. PAUL, MINN.,
 821 Wabasha St.
 Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O.,
 Dear Sir:
 "I took Peruna last summer when I was all run down, and had a headache and backache, and no ambition for anything. I now feel as well as I ever did in all my life, and all thanks is due to your excellent Peruna."
 —Bess F. Healy.

The symptoms of summer catarrh are often met in different cases, but the most common ones are general lassitude, played-out, tired-out, usual, is run-down feelings, combined with more or less heavy, stupid, listless, mental condition. Refresh for food and the ability to digest food seems to be lost.

Skin eruptions, sallow complexion, biliousness, coated tongue, flatulence, etc., will help to complete the picture, which is so common at this season.

Peruna so exactly meets all these conditions that the demand is so great for this remedy that it is nearly impossible to supply it.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable personal attention. Address, Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Luxury and Good Health.
 There never was a time, perhaps in the history of the world when there was such a determined effort to find and keep good health as at present. Young and old are beginning to realize, apparently, that something must be done to preserve bodily vigor. Foods almost by the hundred are offered as sure promoters of vitality and attractive advertisements contain more or less learned discussions upon the value of strong nerves, pure blood and a clear brain.

Those who do not live upon health foods are devoting much of their time to physical culture and nearly every house in which there are young people contains its quota of gymnasium apparatus. Outdoor and indoor sports have more devotees than ever before. Golf, baseball, football, tennis, basketball, bowling and other forms of amusement which induce perspiration and increase the action of the heart are depended upon to supplement mere physical culture, so called, in building up strong bodies and laying the foundation for good health and long life.

The O'Neill Frontier again asks: "What are Democratic policies?"
The flowers will bloom in June from May rains this year, but where will the cherries be?
With gasoline and ice to purchase can it be any cheaper to live in the summer than to purchase fuel in the winter?

If Cleveland can go fishing what's to hinder common humanity from engaging in the service "strenuous" work. President Roosevelt enjoys hunting bear.

"This said that Missouri is going to turn over a new leaf. If the leaf ever gets turned over there'll be a hot time in the old state as they brush away the bugs.

There can be no disputing the fact that Grover Cleveland is still a factor in democratic politics, at least to the extent of being much talked about. This must cause Mr. Bryan much grief.

The total captalization of new large concerns incorporated in the United States is at the rate of $185,000,000 a month, against $207,000,000 a month in 1902 and $500,000,000 a month in 1901. There is as much prosperity as ever, but water is scarcer.

A bright idea has struck the editor of the Kearney Hub; not that this is anything unusual, but this one shows such fine discernment and shrewd insight that it will bear repetition. "In his plea for good roads W. J. Bryan knows what he is talking about. He has traveled two pretty rough roads for the White House, neither of which got him in sight of the goal."—Nebraska City Tribune.

Of course, it will be expected that Mr. Bryan will take the stump for the Republican ticket if Mr. Cleveland should be nominated next year. The Republicans could win without Bryan's help on the stump, but we presume Mr. Hanna or the manager of the canvass, whoever he chances to be, will not put the Nebraska man off the track if he wants to aid the Republicans. The outlook for the Republicans seems especially bright for the canvass of 1904, yet the campaign leaders should be willing to accept a two-thirds majority in the electoral college if Mr. Bryan and his friends are willing to help them to get it. As an assailant of the ex-President, the ex-presidential candidate would be at his best. He would be able to attract as big audiences as greeted him when he was getting his ovations in 1896 and 1900.

No matter how much you think of a person nor how high an opinion you may have of him, you will find sooner or later that he has some fault, so grave as to put him almost if not quite on a basis with the rest of mankind. Idols are broken every hour. Sometimes we forget for a moment that all men are human and elevate some one upon a pedestal and look upon him with awe and admiration. If we just let him alone however, he soon kicks himself off and drops to the common level. These reflections are not cheerful nor encouraging but on the other hand, the worst people in the world have some redeeming qualities and many whom we have written down as bad have fully as many virtues and fewer vices than some who pass unchallenged as respectable and good. A man appears different from different points of view. A good deal depends on how you look at him and what you are looking for.—York Times.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION
The Norfolk district Epworth League Convention held at Carroll this week was not so largely attended as usual on account of the fact that it was held a month earlier than common in the hope of securing the attendance of Bishop Isaac W. Joyce, D. D. L. L. D., the General President of the Epworth League. His attendance however, was prevented by the death of a family relative in Kansas.

The District President was transferred to another state some months since, leaving the Convention without a head. This difficulty was speedily overcome by the election of Dr. F. M. Sisson, the Presiding Elder of the District, President pro-tem.

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock the convention was called to order and after brief devotional exercises conducted by Rev. John F. Poncher, Rev. F. H. Sanderson, D. D., of Fremont, Nebraska, was introduced and delivered his very interesting and instructive lecture on "The Romance of Methodism."

On Tuesday morning at 8:30 the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by the Presiding Elder assisted by Revs. C. M. Griffith of Stanton, and J. L. Phillips, the pastor of the local church. This was followed by the appointment of the usual committees after which a valuable paper was read by Mr. Wm. Robinson of Carroll, an "Rewards of Self-Sacrifice for attendance at church services." This was followed by another paper by Rev. W. R. Warren of Wisner, on "Questionable Amusement." These papers and topics were discussed in open convention, and the convention adjourned for dinner.

At 1:30 p. m. Rev. W. G. Fowler of Humphrey, conducted devotional exercises and the program was resumed.

In the absence of H. H. Bassler of Lyons, Rev. C. N. Dawson of Wayne, opened the discussion of "The Successful Business Meeting." His remarks were followed by general discussion, disclosing the fact that the business meetings in many localities do not receive due attention.

Hon. M. O. Hazan, Mayor of Norfolk, read an excellent paper on "The Best Methods for promoting Temperance Reform."

Rev. McDonald of South Sioux City, delivered an interesting talk on "The Relationship of the Pastor to the League," after which a paper written by Mrs. S. T. Myers of Ponca, on "The Relationship of the League to the Pastor" was read by proxy, as was also a paper on "The Ideal Junior League" written by Miss Emma Besst of Decatur.

At 8 in the evening, Rev. O. P. Mueller of Wausa, led the devotional services, after which Rev. S. T. Weaver of Sioux Falls, was introduced to the large audience assembled to hear his popular lecture on "The Loose Sorew." The committee deserve great credit for having secured two such able and interesting lecturers as Drs. Sanderson and Weaver.

A short session was held on Wednesday morning at which time Rev. C. T. Watson of Hartington, led the devotional exercises. The election of officers for the ensuing year was the principal business of the hour, Rev. J. F. Poucher of Norfolk, was elected President; Miss Alice Brown of Wayne, Recording Secretary; Mr. Chase of Stanton, Corresponding Sec. The place for holding the next Convention was left in the hands of the Executive Committee.

Suitable resolutions were adopted touching the death of Rev. A. L. Gray. Mrs. J. L. Phillips and the little child of Rev. and Mrs. Hughes.

Everybody was delighted with the unbounded hospitality of Carroll.

MORE BY DADLETS.

By dad's a daisy.
It's a fact by dad.
"By dad" did you notice how Goldie roasted McNeal? Wasn't it a corker?
"By dad" did you notice the fat strut of the slop jar boss as it spreads its wings and murmured—I fixed Mac that time?
Goldie and his consorts may have thought Mac dead. Mac isn't looking for any more "pie," and the villagers will find him a lively corps.

If by dad has anything "up his sleeve" for the HERALD publisher, let it come. We'll try and meet it and those interested half way. See?

By dad, McNeal is not posing as a saint but he's as good as any Goldie that ever held reign over the Wayne slop jar, and don't you forget it.

By dad, now that all has been said and done, the great "grashtioner" of the slop jar has rolled McNeal in the "dirt." Well wouldn't that cork you?

Goldie says he "didn't get justice." "Way if he had," said a substantial Wayne business man, "Uncle Sam would have made him borne the expense."

By dad, we're aware that a few cowardly skunks have tried to get McNeal down in the dirt, but they had best remember that—it is a game more than one can play at.

By dad, many people in Wayne are of the opinion that if the slop jar boss had justice he would look like 30 cents run over by a train instead of a freak for a dime museum.

A man standing near by, as by dad was strutting up the street like a peacock with its tail feathers spread to the winds, noticed it shaking its head and murmuring, "I fixed Mac that time, I fixed him that time."

The Democrat, by dad, exploded Friday and did you see McNeal going skyward. The explosion was original, you know, the seventh one of the same kind, only not so much so, as the ozone in that print shop was too much for the daisy during its severe attack.

By dad is about to have a fit over McNeal's past history. Most everybody has a history, past and future, but by dad's wouldn't establish him as a first class applicant for the ministry. Neither would that of some of his "pushers."

By dad, if Cunningham or the ham, O'Leary, who made his exist in so short a time, or the boss pusher of the Democrat behind the scene, ever got satisfaction through their underhand methods in trying to down McNeal, they are welcome to it.

By dad if Goldie or his pushers and his slop jar want to hand it to us in the manner prescribed, we are ready for them, and we beg the indulgence of our readers for the time being. By dad we have taken a good deal and we are ready to let the rip shorter have a few lessons of his own style.

By dad, if the lean, lank hypocrite known as by dad, knows of any monstrous crime or terrible act in McNeal's life, why doesn't he do something about it. Mac is patiently waiting for that event. By dad doesn't know a thing about McNeal's past life and its none of his business, but if he has any pals that want to do so trot them out. Two or three former citizens of Le Mars, and Sioux City, could recite a little of Goldie's obnoxiousness in the past, but there are none who care to hear about it. God help the poor in mind who resorts to such tactics to injure his fellowmen. Only the lowest of miserable curs would stoop to such methods. Wayne has many people against whom a number of unpleasant things might be said, some of whom are doing their best to lead a creditable life and do right. Such people should not be rebuked at every turn to please the whim of a man little better along the line of humanity than the most vicious canine, by dad.

The Commoner ought to be pretty interesting reading if Cleveland should be put up for President. While Mr. Bryan has a grudge against Hill and despises Gorman, he hates Cleveland with an intensity of hatred such as no Democrat has had for another member of his party since the Brckinridge supporters of 1890 rejoiced at Douglas' overthrow in the Northern states and Lincoln's election. A ghost dance in Nebraska would take place on the night when the news would come of Cleveland's defeat at the polls. This fact may not deter the Cleveland boomers. They are not saying that he could be elected. They only insinuate that he would come as near election as any man whom the Democrats could name.

One of The 2 Johns Got It Bad.

We got it bad because we was a fool. We got the Grip and got it bad. About two weeks we got it into our mind that spring had come and we took off our Staley underwear and the result was just what we had preached for years, we caught cold and got the Grip. Now don't get it into your mind that we don't know how to dress so that such troubles can be avoided. The most expert man fails to take advantage of his knowledge to save himself. Gen. Grant was a great General and could handle thousands of men to an advantage, but was himself an easy victim among the thieves of Wall Street. Napoleon could conquer nations but failed to conquer his own appetite. Doctors can tell you to keep well, but fail to take care of their own health. Christ raised the dead, but died on the cross. We can clothe you so you will keep well. We locked the barn after the horse was stolen, but we think if we hadn't had on Staley we might have died. It is right proper that you should see us before you buy anything to wear. Not only because we are experts in the clothing business, but because you will save money by trading here. Always remember if it's good you can find it here. Our good clothing is sold at the same price others get for inferior kinds. Just think of the list of good things we have that other merchants in Wayne fail to carry. Kuppenhimer clothing, warranted to give satisfaction; Hawes hats, you get another hat if a Hawes fails to give satisfaction; Elgin shirts, the best in the world for one dollar; Bull Dog shirts, none other made as good for fifty cents; Sweet Orr Overalls have stood the test for fifty years; Staley Wool underwear, the only wool underwear worth buying; "Good For Bad Boys" shoes, the kind that boys cannot wear out; Royal Blue, the best dress shoe made and costs one dollar less than others ask. You may wonder why other merchants in Wayne do not sell these lines. It is easily understood when you know that we pay more for every dollar's worth of goods you buy here than any other merchant pays. That is the reason you get more for a dollar here than elsewhere. We save our profit because our expense is less and our trade is larger. Come and see us before you buy. It will pay you.

CROP OUTLOOK GOOD.

WARM WEATHER NEEDED, BUT PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT.

Corn Planting Continues Late—Hard and Cloudy Ground Has Made Work Difficult—Winter Wheat Average Condition Is Very Satisfactory.

The crop report issued by the weather bureau says the Ohio valley, middle Atlantic and Southern States have experienced a very cool week, and the seasonal average in the more northerly districts, the reports generally indicate the need of warmth. In the lower Missouri, central Mississippi and Ohio valleys and the Atlantic States, including the southern portion of the east Gulf States, rains would be of much benefit. In Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin, the conditions have been generally favorable. Corn planting continues very late, but is now in general progress throughout the central and northern districts. This work has been carried on with much difficulty in the lower Missouri, central Mississippi and Ohio valleys and portions of the middle Atlantic States, owing to hard and cloudy ground. Germination and growth have been very slow in all districts. The crop has recovered rapidly from the effects of the cold of the previous week. An improvement in the condition of the soil is reported from Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Ohio, but the crop has suffered deterioration in Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and Missouri. In the southern portion of the last mentioned State having been greatly damaged by insects. Wheat is now heading in the north as Kentucky and southern Missouri. On the Pacific coast winter wheat continues to flourish in Oregon, but in Washington and California it is in a backward stage. Spring wheat is now practically finished, and the early sown is coming up to good stands and is in healthy condition. The seeding of oats is nearly finished in the more northerly districts, where good stands are promised, and from the middle and western portions of Missouri and the crop has improved much since last week, but from the lower Missouri valley eastward over Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, the stands are uneven, and the growth is much in need of rain. Although much too cool, hereby the wheat in the northern regions has received the benefit of a rainfall, which was of the greatest benefit in the central and western districts. In the Carolinas, northern Georgia and Tennessee, germination and growth have been very slow. No tobacco has yet been transplanted north of the Carolina and Tennessee. The reports concerning apples are somewhat more encouraging than in the previous week, but the outlook for most of other fruits continues very poor.

State Reports. Unfavorable weather for germination and crop development; warm rains highly desirable, yet not promising, uneven and not near; plowing for corn and planting in progress; ground hard and heavy; previous reports of injury to fruits of various kinds; wheat and grapes damaged by insects. Good work for farm work, but not for germination of seed and growth of crops; damaging frosts on two dates; heavy rain on 21st; corn and pasture crops and winter cereals made very slow growth; in some instances deteriorated; prospects for fruit of all kinds, poor; plowing progress slow; wheat and grapes damaged by insects; ground hard and heavy; rain needed in all sections. Heavy frost in west and north and light frost in the south; corn planting begun in most counties; pasture, grass, oats, barley and winter cereals making slow but uneven growth; many birds badly needed; wheat prospects for fruit of all kinds, poor; plowing progress slow; wheat and grapes damaged by insects; ground hard and heavy; rain needed in all sections. Heavy frost in west and north and light frost in the south; corn planting begun in most counties; pasture, grass, oats, barley and winter cereals making slow but uneven growth; many birds badly needed; wheat prospects for fruit of all kinds, poor; plowing progress slow; wheat and grapes damaged by insects; ground hard and heavy; rain needed in all sections.

When on a cruise Captain Charles J. Sigsbee, United States navy, always takes a bicycle with him, and has had the pleasure of wheeling in nearly all the civilized countries of the world. When the ill-fated Maine was sunk in the harbor of Havana in 1898 Captain Sigsbee, who commanded the vessel then, had on his bicycle, which he took with him to the post on the ship. A few weeks later Sigsbee was working in the sunken vessel came across this bicycle, which they brought to the surface, and later it was exhibited as not the least interesting of the Maine's relics.

Congress appropriated $12,500,000 for the rural delivery service during the next fiscal year, beginning July 1, and the department will establish 15,000 new routes on the money. On March 15 there were 14,935 routes already in operation, and by July 1 this number will be increased by the natural growth of the service to 15,000 routes. Thus it is expected by the end of the next fiscal year which will be July 30, 1904, to have 30,000 rural carriers in motion, and 15,000,000 people living outside of towns and cities will be getting their newspapers delivered daily at their doors.

Notice is given the unsuspecting public by the commissioner of patents that no patent has been or will be granted for perpetual motion machines. An effort is apparently being made to work a settlement by a newspaper paragraph, launched in the South, which is now going the rounds of the press, announcing that a perpetual motion machine has been patented, giving the name of the alleged inventor, and saying that the inventor of the machine. The commissioner of patents hopes the unwary will take warning and not permit themselves to be swindled.

Admiral Dewey and Gen. Miles, though the best of friends, like to "josh" each other. Recently they visited Mount Vernon together, and the general was much impressed by the sight of Washington's grave. As they were leaving the place Miles said: "I wonder what Washington would say if he were suddenly to appear here in the flesh. Dewey answered together and in a friendly way: "I really don't know, Nelson, unless he asked how the devil you ever succeeded in getting the job he once held."

WASHINGTON BOSS

The grand total of appropriations made at the second session of the Fifty-seventh Congress is $775,850,000, according to a summary given in a volume just compiled by Thomas P. Cleaves and James C. Courts, chief clerks respectively of the Senate and House appropriations committees. In addition to the specific appropriations made contracts are authorized to be entered into for carrying out projects requiring future appropriations by Congress, in the aggregate of $34,980,859, the principal item of which is $20,425,000 for additions to the navy. The new offices and employees specifically authorized are 11,316 in number, at an annual compensation of $7,427,650; those authorized for carrying out projects at an annual compensation of $41,481, a net increase of 9,501 in number and $6,980,158 in amount. The total appropriations made by the Fifty-seventh Congress amount to $1,553,483,002, an increase over the Fifty-sixth Congress of $118,198,507. This amount is for an increase by increases in the appropriations for the postal service of $54,000,000; for the naval service of $17,500,000; for rivers and harbors, $23,500,000; for the institution called $30,000,000; for the Agricultural Department, $2,500,000; for legislative, executive and judicial expenses, $15,200,000; for public buildings throughout the country, $10,000,000, and for the Philippine Islands $8,000,000. Reductions are made in the appropriations for the military establishment of $60,000,000, and for pensions $10,000,000.

According to the records of the War Department, Harry E. Mason is the duplicitous deserter of the army and it has been found necessary to instruct all recruiting officers to be on the lookout for him. His record shows eight enlistments and an equal number of desertions in the period from 1875 to 1903. In 1893, while in the service of the army, his operations as shown by the fact that he deserted at Philadelphia May 3, 1902, and re-enlisted the next day at Louisville, Ky.; and having enlisted at Mobile, Ala., March 21, 1893, under the name of Harry E. Bates, he again enlisted at St. Louis, Mo., in 1895, under the name of Harry E. Hastings, and then deserted while on route to Columbus Barracks. In addition to the names given, Mason was also enlisted under the names of Harry B. Low, Harry Edwards, Harry Briggs, Harry Dubois and Harry Lewis.

A deficit of $20,000 has been discovered in the appropriation for rural free delivery. Postmaster General Payne has ordered that no more rural routes be established during the remainder of the present fiscal year, and that retrenchment be practiced in the budget for July 1. The deficit will be recovered. It has been common since the beginning of the service to end the fiscal year with a deficit in the rural free delivery, and Congress has annually been called upon to make good the shortage. The growth of the rural service has been phenomenal. In 1890 the number of routes was 14,935, and 1,275 routes were established. The appropriation for the present fiscal year was $8,029,400, and 15,002 routes are in operation. The appropriation for next year is $12,621,700, and it is estimated that by July, 1904, there will be 27,022 routes.

A Washington photographer who makes a specialty of the portraits of President Roosevelt is authority for the somewhat surprising statement that the photographs of Mr. Roosevelt do not sell. "There is no demand for them," said the photographer, "not tell why, but the fact is that the man who has taken in a large stock of various photos of the President, anticipating the liveliest sort of a demand. They are still on hand. I tried to work them off by sending out several thousand circulars to people I thought would be interested in the President. As a result of this I have had the postage on the circulars. When Mr. McKinley was President we sold every one of his photographs where we now sell one of Mr. Roosevelt. Photographs of McKinley still outsell those of Roosevelt."

When on a cruise Captain Charles J. Sigsbee, United States navy, always takes a bicycle with him, and has had the pleasure of wheeling in nearly all the civilized countries of the world. When the ill-fated Maine was sunk in the harbor of Havana in 1898 Captain Sigsbee, who commanded the vessel then, had on his bicycle, which he took with him to the post on the ship. MONTHLY CROP BULLETIN. PLEADS FOR EXPANSION.

Wheat Area May 1 Is 904,000 Acres Less Than Last Fall. The monthly crop bulletin, issued by the Agricultural Department, is as follows: Returns to the statistician of the Department of Agriculture made up to May 1 show the area under winter wheat in cultivation on that date to have been about 23,878,000 acres. This is 904,000 acres, or 3.7 per cent, less than the area sown last fall, and 4,255,000 acres, or 15.8 per cent, in excess of the area of winter wheat harvested last year. The percentage of abandoned acreage in all the important winter wheat growing States is unusually small, abandonment, including the area to be cut for hay, reaching 100,000 acres only in Kansas, Texas and California.

Roosevelt Raves, Enthusiasm by Improvement of the Policy. President Roosevelt spoke to a monster gathering at Mechanics' Hall in San Francisco, arousing great enthusiasm by his plea for American expansion. He said: "In the century that is opening the commerce and the progress of the Pacific will be factors of incalculable moment in the history of the world. Now, in our day, the greatest of all the seas and the last to be used on a large scale by civilized man, this fair to become the first in importance. Before I saw the Pacific slope I was an expansionist, and after having seen it, I fail to understand how any man confident of his country's greatness, and glad that his country should challenge with proud confidence our mighty future, can be anything but an expansionist."

For the area remaining under cultivation the average condition on May 1 was 92.5, against a condition of 97.3 for the total area sown, reported on April 1, 1902, and 76.3 on May 1, 1902, 94.1 at the corresponding date in 1901, and 82.5, the mean of the averages of the last ten years, for the areas remaining under cultivation on May 1. While there has manifestly been some deterioration of condition during the month, special agents dispatched to the principal winter wheat States on the occurrence of the frost of April 30 and May 1 report the wheat crop as generally uninjured by the cold snap.

The following table shows for the principal States the averages of condition on May 1 for the corresponding averages on May 1, 1902, and two years ago, and the mean of the corresponding averages for the last ten years.

Table with columns: State, May 1, 1903, May 1, 1902, May 1, 1901, Mean of last ten years.

Legally Dead, Really Alive. A queer question of law arises in an Alabama county. Two weeks ago, runs the story, a negro was hanged for murder in due process. The body was cut down and pronounced dead by the physician attending, and was then turned over to the relatives, who took it away. They observed signs of life in it, whereupon a physician was called in, who applied restoratives, and the man came back to his former existence, in which he now abides in health and strength. The question is whether the law can again lay hands upon him for that crime, since officially he has paid the full penalty, and stands as dead in the legal record by the chief of the British consular service. "Learn never to lit if it can be helped, but never to lit soft."

Britain Still Leads in Trade. Up to now British exports from 20 to 25 per cent of the total trade of the universe. No other nation has yet come within half of this remarkable percentage. Nearest is Germany, with nearly 11 per cent; France claims about 9 per cent; the United States secures rather more than 6 per cent. If we add the output of the colonies the British empire shows a record of about one-third of the trade of the whole world.

Money More Plentiful Than in New England. A significant feature of the financial situation is that money is higher in New England than in the interior of the middle West. The price of money is generally more plentiful here, because the East has paid high rates for money, are able to furnish money cheaper than it is lent in the East. The loan agents of eastern savings banks and cities are all making a slow time just now, and a leading financial Kansas correspondent, the other day, "I lend a great deal of money for Vermont. They write me that they can get 6 per cent for their money at home. From central and eastern Kansas they can get but 5 per cent. The result is that they are not anxious to make western loans."

SLAUGHTER OF JEWS LET US ALL LAUGH.

SHOCKING ATROCITIES REPORTED FROM KISCHINEFF.

Horrible Details of Fiendish Barbarities by Russian—Woman Disemboweled in Street—Children Slung from Windows and Trampled by Mob.

The victims in the Kischineff massacre number 1,000, according to the latest information received by the Jewish Chronicle of London. Of these at least sixty-five were killed and more than 300 maimed or crippled for life, while hundreds escaped with serious injuries from which they will eventually recover. The damage to property is estimated at 1,000,000 rubles, about $340,000. This amount, however, may be largely increased by later news. The Jewish Chronicle says editorially: "We charge the Russian government with responsibility for the Kischineff massacre. If Europe does not on the present occasion stand dissociate itself from the heinous stain of this barbarian power it writes humanity down a blind and its civilization is realized by a hypocrite. The cardinal fact of the whole tragedy is that the massacre was organized and abetted by Russian authorities. The killing and pillaging was done under cover of the troops and the police. During the two days the massacre lasted the government did not leave its capital without graphic communication with St. Petersburg was stopped. "All the participants in the slaughter—who were chiefly important hirings—were red shirts. An eyewitness is quoted as saying: 'The police and troops formed circles in the streets and the slaying and looting was going on, the police pointing out the houses of the Jews to the mob.' "The newspaper Woschod of St. Petersburg was suppressed for printing this fact. "Jew hating is now spreading throughout Russia, and has reached the stage of so-called ritual murders. The judicial inquiry into the massacre is not intended to disclose the facts, but to smother them up."

Tortured by Fiends. Dr. Doroschewski, the head physician of the National hospital at Kischineff, after examining the dead and wounded, has given the following specific instances of hideous cruelty, says a dispatch to the New York World: "A Jewish woman was brought here with two ribs, seven inches long, driven into her brain through her nose. "One Jew was brought in with one hip, both ankles and wrists broken, his severed hands and feet dangling by the skin. "A Jew named Chariton had lost his upper and lower lips, which had been cut away with a kitchen knife, after which his tongue and windpipe had been pulled out through his mouth with pliers. "The ears of a Jew named Solzer had been cut away and his head battered in twelve places. He was a young man. "A carpenter was surprised at work and both of his hands were saved off with his own saw. "A Jewish girl was assaulted by several brutes, who then cut her eyes out with a pocket knife. "A woman, after trying to defend her children, was thrown upon the pavement, dismembered and feathers and horsehair from her bed were stuffed into her body. "Small children were flung out of windows and trampled upon by the mob. "Forty-seven were killed on the spot, eighty died of their injuries and several under treatment. Many will be crippled for life. "Four thousand Jews are without food or shelter and it is impossible for them to get away. "The central committee of the relief of the Kischineff sufferers, upon the treasurer's report that there is on hand in the treasury the sum of $12,000, has decided to direct the treasurer to forward an additional 25,000 rubles by cable to Kischineff.

Bakers at Albany, N. Y., have inaugurated a movement to abolish night work. Schenectady, N. Y., has 8,500 trade unionists, an increase of over 6,000 in two years. Electrical workers in Ohio met in Cleveland recently and formed a State association. In Austria women are employed as hod carriers, and receive from 25 to 30 cents a day. Bricklayers and masons employed on State contracts in Holland receive 7 cents an hour. Blast furnacemen in Lancashire, England, have been given notice of a reduction of 3 1/2 per cent. Laundry workers at San Francisco, Cal., will insist on a nine-hour day, with no decrease in pay. Iron and steel workers in Wales have been granted an increase of 3 1/2 per cent, dating from April 1. Of the total number of skilled workmen in printing trades in Germany, 25 per cent are organized. Flexible operatives in England have formulated a new wage schedule calling for an increase in wages. A movement has been inaugurated in Germany for the restriction of night work in some laborious industries. Peoria, Ill., printers demand 40 cents an hour and a forty-four-hour week, instead of 31 cents an hour and a forty-eight-hour week. Ages of Brooklyn union bricklayers are 85 cent an hour. Eight hours come a day's work during five days of the week, and on Saturdays, work ceases at noon. The union will make no demand for change of existing conditions.

A meeting of business men of Vermont was held in Rutland to form an organization known as the Employers' Association of Vermont, aimed at a business men's organization formed in Ohio. The recently completed census of the United States reveals some singular facts relative to the towns and cities that compose the nation at large. There are quite a number of so-called "cities" which are so ridiculously small in population that they are not even recognized for anything but a matter of record. The populations of a few such cities may be given as illustrations. The city of Johnson, Kan., has a population of only 17 men and the population of the city of Coronado, in the same State is even less, being only ten. There are several cities in Kansas which have very primitive populations, as follows: Bird, 83; Brainerd, 90; Ford, 82; Freeport, 83; Horace, 90; Bugtown, 54; Richmond, 61; Tribune, 62; Glyndon, 50. The city of Sion Springs, Mo., has a population of 98. The city of Brightwater, N. J., has a population of 99, but, small as is the population of that city, it is nearly five times as large as that of the city of Lafayette, in the same State, which has a population of only 21. The city which exceeds all the others in the diminutiveness of its population is the city of Ruby, Lake Michigan, which has only 17 inhabitants.
