J. P. Gaertner is one of forty undertakers in the United States, who recently received a fine $15 pocket set of ivory handled undertakers instruments from Prof. Clark Embalming School of Cincinnati, Ohio, the largest establishment of the kind in existence. The set was a present and John is proud of the fact he was one out of only forty thus recognized.
Miss Ollie Elliot is in receipt of a letter from Wayne inviting the Winside basket ball girls to play against the Normal team July 4th. Inasmuch as the Winside girls have only recently organized and have had no practice, to speak of, they had to decline the invitation. But one of these days they will be ready to meet them on the battle field; we do not refer to Hoskins.
Dr. Struges Jr. returned home Sunday night after a months absence visiting in the south and in the Hoosier state. He reports a fine time and says his visit was principally in Kentucky where the people will quit work any time to visit.—Winside Tribune.
Accordion playing and smoking will again aid in beautifying garments for women and children. To know all about either process one should read "The Designer for August," which, in addition to illustrating and describing the above, pictures all that is stylish in millinery and fashions for this season of the year. "How and Where Perfumes are Made," by Katherine Louise Smith, "Woman Who Make Money," by London Knights, and "Floral Stand of Honorata" are three interesting articles to be found in this issue, which also contains three excellent short stories, "A Sunflower Drill," illustrated pages on "Woman's Fads and Fancies," "Fashions and Fabrics," and "Fans and What to Make of Them." Opportunities for money making are supplied in the departments "What Women Are Doing," "Helps Along the Way" and the Puzzle Page, while practical and helpful suggestions are given in "Etiquette Hints," "Toilet Table Chat," "In Motherland," "Floriculture" and "The Kitchen Kingdom."

M. W. A. PICNIC.

IN SPITE OF THE BAD WEATHER LARGE CROWDS ATTEND.

Much Excitement For Visitors and Good Time For All. Next Year's Picnic To Be Held at Wakefield.

The M. W. A. picnic and celebration held here last Friday and Saturday, the 3rd and 4th of July, was a success, when the bad weather of that time and the exceedingly hard downpour of rain which fell all day Friday, are taken into consideration.
In spite of the rain there were a few people in town Friday, who huddled in under the awnings to keep out of the rain, and who between showers were out making things as lively as possible under the circumstances. Even the merry-go-round was forced to quit business for the day.
On the 2:10 train the band arrived from Wisner, and discoursed some very pretty music. In the evening a dance was held at the opera house, where the people enjoyed themselves by dancing to very fine music furnished by an orchestra from the Wisner band. Friday evening was most too damp for the display of many fire works.
Saturday was different. The discharge of cannon and the explosion of fire crackers awoke the population to see the bright and beautiful morning. The sun was shining brightly and not a cloud was to be seen in the sky. Soon the people began coming to town, the 7:30 a. m. train from the west brought in large crowds as did all of the trains the rest of the day. The roads were in too bad condition, owing to the rain, to allow the holding of the parade as per the program, but the speaking was held at the tent. Mayor James Britton delivered the address of welcome with very well chosen words, and responses were made by Hon. J. J. McCarthy, U. S. Representative from this district, and Hon. A. A. Kearney of Stanton, Nebr. Excellent vocal music was furnished at these exercises by Misses Anna Gamble and Hattie Weber of this city, and was thoroughly appreciated.
The races as advertised, were held on Main street in the afternoon, and in the wrestling match between a number of Camp No. 6314, (Fred Ben-shoff) the challenge was accepted by Flen Cunningham, who was victorious. The Nebraska Normal College ball team won from the Hancock ball team, score 8 to 3. At 7 o'clock p. m. the most beautiful balloon ascension ever witnessed in Wayne was made by Pr. F. Wilson of Omaha.
In the evening came a pretty display of fireworks by the Woodmen as well as by private parties, and from dusk until midnight there was a continuous display which greatly delighted the visitors. Another dance was also held on Saturday evening, with music by the Wisner orchestra.
The Wisner band of 12 pieces is an organization under the directorship of Prof. Compton, and is without exception the best band in this part of Nebraska. Many friends here hope to see the band made one of the regimental bands.
The business session of the association was held at the tent Saturday afternoon at which time H. P. Shumway and Captain J. H. Brown were elected president and secretary of the association and Wakefield named as the place for holding the next picnic.
While there were few people in the city on Friday, the crowd on Saturday was very large, and the business men as well as every one else are satisfied with the attendance. What might have been the outcome of this picnic had the weather been first class is a curiosity of the Woodmen, but Wayne certainly would have had the largest number of visitors in her history. As it is, everyone is satisfied, and people in this part of the state are becoming more and more convinced that Wayne is a good place for a good time at a celebration.

STORK TIME

to women is a term of much anxiety, serious thought and sweet anticipation. Pain and dread, love and joy, come ever changingly.

With the cessation of pain necessary to childbirth there comes calm nerves, sleep, recreation.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

diminishes the pain accompanying maternity. With its aid mothers can bring healthy babies into the world. Take away the pain of childbirth and you have bliss and ecstasy. Morning sickness, sore breasts and excruciating pains caused by the gradually expanding organs, are relieved by this remarkable soothing balm.

When the maternal aids to childbirth have gained a prestige among rich women as well as poor it is found and welcomed in the mansion as well as the cabin.

Childbirth is a duty every pregnant woman owes society.

By lessening the mother's agony of mind and diminishing pain a beautiful influence is wrought upon the child, and instead of peevish, ill-tempered and sickly forms you have laughing humanity that remains a blessing ever after to you and its country.

Try a $1 bottle. Druggists everywhere sell Mother's Friend.

Republican Judicial Convention.

To the Republican Electors of the Ninth Judicial District of Nebraska. Notice is hereby given that a republican judicial convention will be held at Norfolk, Nebraska, on the 17th day of August, 1903, at 11 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for judge of the Ninth Judicial District, and the transaction of such other business as may regularly come before it. The several counties of said district are entitled to the following representation, based on the vote of J. H. Mickey (governor) in November, 1902.

Antelope	13	Wayne	10
Knox	16	Total	65
Pierce	9
Madison	17

It is recommended by the committee that no proxies be allowed in said convention, but that the delegates present be allowed to cast the full vote of the county represented by them.

By order of the committee.

Geo. F. Boyd, Secretary.

J. B. Barnes, Chairman.

Uncle Sam's men behind the guns are having as good a Fourth of July time in European waters as if they were home.

If there is anything that makes corn grow it is hot weather. Corn makes the mare go, so let the weather get hotter if it wants to.

No one can blame the Iowa Democrats for the desperate effort they are making to get away from the record they made in 1896 and 1900.

Forty warships for the United States are under construction in thirteen different yards. The President and Congress are of one mind in keeping the navy up to date.

A riot at Evansville, Ind., has caused great excitement and considerable loss of life. The national guard has been called out and the citizens of the city are armed to the "teeth."

Walter Wellman is booming Adlai Stevenson for the Presidency, which leads the Cedar Rapids Republican to suspect that the supply of live material has been exhausted.—Lincoln Star.

Every time a republican state convention is held this year a strenuous resolution declaring for Roosevelt in 1903, is passed and each time, "said, democracy, or whatever you call it, is stricken with a pain."

The competition for the location of the Normal school is warring up and there is a great amount of rivalry between Nebraska's lively and enterprising cities. One place will be selected and that is all. Therefore competitors should prepare to be good natured.

The Tariff as a Business Proposition.

No industry can flourish without a demand of its product, and the greater the demand for its product the more it will flourish. And this is true of the tire-massed industries of the country. The greater the aggregate demand for their aggregate product, the more they will all flourish. But the massed industries of the country are simply the country itself, wherein every American finds employment and wages. So the greater the demand for the products of domestic industries the greater the comfort and the happiness of the whole people.

But what is "demand"? Merely the expression of a want of some commodity. What is the commercial representative of this demand? Simply money. Money, representing all forms of goods in a universal barter, is practically the only form in which commercial demand finds expression in these latter days. Therefore, the greater the volume of the country's sound money, and the more widely it is distributed as wages, the more facile, fluent, abundant and certain is the demand on the products of our industries. Now anything which lessens the volume of our sound money in domestic circulation, or narrows the circle of its distribution, lessens the demand for the products of our industries.

Open the ports by Free-Trade, and out goes your demand in a wasteful stream of the country's money to be soaked up by the cheap supply of the rest of the earth, and both its volume and the circle of its distribution are lessened at home. Close the ports by protection, and not only does our own money remain within the gates, to flow in a liquid demand upon all our industries, and so distribute itself more and more widely, but more money flows in from abroad to avail itself of investment in our rich domestic market, and we not only get sound national prosperity in universal domestic employment, but we get our goods in the end at the price which will return to us a rate of interest as low as that found anywhere on earth. This is a question for business men to settle as economists.

And it rained the 3rd day of July.

Rev. Pritchard went to Wayne Monday.

A. A. Chanos went home Friday to spend the 4th.

Howel Reese and D. M. Davis were at Wayne Tuesday.

Jas. Hancock spent the 4th with friends in Carroll.

A big crowd of people went from here to Wayne the 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morris returned Tuesday from their Iowa visit.

Chas. Robbins went to Wayne Wednesday morning returning at 10:45 the same day.

E. W. Closson went to Soo City Tuesday to see a brother who would be there at that time.

Miss Anna Pavlok started Friday for Crookston, Neb., to spend the 4th with her mother, brothers and sisters.

Mr. Grovjohn and wife drove to Stanton the morning of July 4, and from there will go to Omaha for a few days.

Carroll is making some good improvements in the way of street grading, new side walks, street crossings, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Merrill accompanied by Miss Preston and Mr. Manning, started Tuesday for Denver, Colo.

Paul Walters returned Saturday from a trip to Center Knox Co. near which town he owns a quarter section of land.

J. A. Jones and wife, Fred McVay, Chas. Williamson, Gay Manning, Geo. Kingston and A. J. Honey went to Soo City Thursday.

The band boys returned Monday morning from Bloomfield where they dispensed music the 4th. The boys say they were royally entertained by the Bloomfield people.

J. W. Porter and Wm. Belford, two of our village councilmen started Wednesday for Elk Point, South Dakota, to inspect a system of water works they have in that town.

A large fire cracker buried in the mud with a fire at one end of it blew a window light out of R. D. Merrill & Co.'s store front, so you see we had some excitement in Carroll the 4th.

J. W. Porter, our livery man, sent three teams to Wayne the evening of the 4th to bring home about nine Carroll people who wanted to stay in Wayne a little later than the train would bring them home.

Death of Guy R. Wilbur.

Death of Guy R. Wilbur.
Guy R. Wilbur was born August 11, 1856, in Boone county, Ill., and died July 9th, at 5:00 o'clock a. m. in St. Louis, Mo., of kidney and liver trouble. In 1859 with his parents he moved to Sioux City, Iowa, and from there a few years later to Dixon county, Nebraska. His early life was spent on a farm. He studied law with J. B. Barnes, now one of the Supreme Court Commissioners, at Ponca, Nebr., and was admitted to the bar in 1878. He practiced for a short time at St. Helena, Nebr., and afterwards moved to Hartington, Nebr., and served two terms as County Judge. In 1884 he was elected and served as District Attorney of the 7th Judicial District for one term, and although a young man for the position he filled the office with credit to himself, and retired with a state reputation as a prosecuting attorney.
He removed to Wayne in 1892 and soon afterwards was elected county attorney. On June 1, 1901 he became senior member of the law partnership of Wilbur & Berry, the firm being recognized as one of the strongest in north eastern Nebraska.

He was married to Ella J. L. Seargeant of Ponca, Nebr., in 1875, who, with their son George, survive him.
Very few men in Wayne county had as many personal friends as Guy R. Wilbur. He was a man who cared but little for the laying up of wealth, but received great satisfaction in extending a helping hand to those in need and few appeals to him for aid were turned down, his nature being such that it seemed impossible for him to say no. In his practice he was careful, conscientious and absolutely faithful to the interests of his client and was considered one of the most successful practitioners in the state. He was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church of this city.
The people of Wayne and surrounding country will long miss Guy R. Wilbur. During the last night of his illness he was much interested in the comfort of his family and friends who were at his bedside, often imploring his wife to retire that she might secure some much needed rest, being more interested in their welfare than his own.

He was a member in good standing of the Masons, I. O. O. F., M. W. A., Woodmen of the World, A. O. U. W., and Fraternal Union.

PAPERS BY THE PEOPLE

HOUSEWIVES IN AMERICA AND EUROPE.

By Della Austrian.

Many American women declare that the trials of housekeeping are becoming so manifold that after a few years of arduous labor they are soled with nervous prostration.

The French woman is probably the best housekeeper in the world. She is devoted to her home and to her family.

The English are exceedingly simple and unaffected in their homes. They desire comfort more than luxury.

Constancy in love is a virtue much lauded of romancers. Yet it may be carried to excess.

A beauty with brains is one definition of the word anomaly. A synonym for it is Mrs. Iva E. Tutt.

The scheme is Mrs. Tutt's own. While on a visit to Arizona she discovered two unused water rights which could be had at a fair price.

Small Society Share in Trust Benefits.

By Frederick M. Taylor, Professor of Political Economy.

The utterances of President Roosevelt regarding the trusts emphasize the question whether or not their permanence is fully assured.

It must be admitted that the trust leads to a vast saving in human effort. The great consolidation saves in the utilization of materials.
