MR. HYATT'S INJURY.

The Randolph Times explains the misfortune of Mr. Hyatt, formerly of Wayne, as follows:

Our well known citizen A. J. Hyatt of West Randolph came very near losing the sight of his good eye Tuesday forenoon. He had melted a quantity of barbit metal in a fire shovel for the purpose of pouring the molten mass in a part of the washing machine that had become loosened. He dried the parts, as he thought from all water that might be collected there, but as he poured in the liquid metal, some remaining dampness generated steam and caused the red hot metal to explode, the particles going directly into Mr. Hyatt's face.

Some years ago Mr. Hyatt had the misfortune to lose the sight of one eye, by a piece of steel lodging in it from a file he was pounding, and for a while it looked as though this last accident would leave him blind. Dr. Kelley dressed the injured member and found that the vision was not destroyed and advised the services of a specialist. Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt and their son G. W. Hyatt went to Omaha Wednesday, and there they found grounds for great encouragement. The sight is not gone and Mr. Hyatt, who has returned to Randolph, is as happy as a school boy. The pain for the first day was so great that cocaine had to be constantly kept on the injured eye. Friends of the injured man will hope for a favorable outcome.

ADVERTISING RATES.

The three Wayne papers have made an agreement to charge a uniform price for all advertising and job work. Rates have not been advanced, especially, the object being to avoid "cutting prices" and give every patron of the papers equal service for the money expended.

Hereafter we will charge 25 cents for cards of thanks; 5 cents per line for all letters of condoleance, resolutions of respect, etc.; 3 cents per line for all church entertainments, dinners, suppers, etc., where the object is to raise money.

The rate to transients for display advertisements will be: 10 cents per inch per issue for a month, and 20 cents for single issue. Locals 5 cents per line.

Absolutely no deflation made from above rates.

The Gns Sun American Minstrels traveling in their own private $10,000 Pullman cars, with superb band and symphony orchestra, will appear at the opera house, Wayne, tonight, for one performance only. The company ranks among the best on the road and is certainly worthy of a packed house. The beautiful spectacular first part "A dream of Mars" the superb music and the six star feature also acts go to make up the strongest and most elaborate minstrel performance that has ever been witnessed in this city. The scenery and music are a lone worth more than the admission fee. Seats now on sale at the usual place.

A PROMINENT CHURCH WORKER SAYS SHE OWES HER LIFE TO PE-RU-NA.

HER GREAT FORTUNE. A Woman Saved From Life-Long Misery and Made Happy and Useful.

Mrs. Hattie La Fountain, Treas. Protestant Home Circle and Catholic Ladies of Ohio writes from Gallon, O., as follows:

"After my first child was born I suffered for several months with bearing-down pains accompanied by dreadful headaches. I was afraid my health was ruined for life, and felt very downcast about it. One day when a friend was visiting she told me of Peruna and what it had done for her when she suffered with irregular menstruation. My husband procured a bottle the same evening and I began to take it daily according to directions. Before the first bottle was used I was entirely well and very certainly have one grateful word to say for the advice my friends to use it."

Mrs. Hattie La Fountain, Treas. Protestant Home Circle and Catholic Ladies of Ohio writes from Gallon, O., as follows:

"I have known several women who were little better than physical wrecks, and who were in need of the most painful assistance, but were made well and strong through the use of Peruna. I have known of cases of chronic catarrh which were cured in a short time, who a dozen different remedies had been tried without success, but who were cured by the use of Peruna. I use it myself when I feel nervous and worn out, and have always found that the results were most satisfactory." JULIE M. BROWN.

Secretary Woman's State Federation Says: "Pe-ru-na Does More Than Is Claimed for It."

Mrs. Julia M. Brown, Secretary of the Woman's State Federation of California, writes from 2015 Fifth St., Los Angeles, Cal., as follows: "I have known of cases of chronic catarrh which were cured in a short time, who a dozen different remedies had been tried without success, but who were cured by the use of Peruna. I use it myself when I feel nervous and worn out, and have always found that the results were most satisfactory." JULIE M. BROWN.

Why a Dog Turns Around.

A dog turns round several times before lying down simply because his far-away progenitors did it in order to make a bed in the grass or the straw. In doing his nose on his paws he is placing what those same progenitors did to keep their nostrils protected. The careful cleaning of her fur for the modern cat imitates her remote ancestors, which were able in this way to remove odors likely to betray their presence to their enemies and to the animals they were hunting.

Give your vote to Sheriff Mearns and help us win the majority.

August Writter has the qualifications to make a first class assessor and deserves a good majority.

Chas. H. Bright has done so well in the county superintendent's office that there is no appreciable opposition to his re-election.

There is every reason to expect that the city of Wayne will roll up a good sized majority for every man on the republican ticket.

Let it go out from Wayne county next week that it has given an overwhelming majority to the entire republican ticket. It will strengthen the party's future.

In his latest sensational tirade against newspapers and people, outside of Zion, Elijah Davis exposes the secrets of his past life and tries to prove that he is the son of his father.

Beware of campaign lies circulated at the close of the campaign. If a story, injurious to a candidate, deserved credit it would have been peddled around weeks ago.

All the cards of democratic candidates, we have seen, avoid mentioning the party to which they belong. The omissions may be charitably attributed to oversight, rather than to lack of party pride.

Next Tuesday will end the anxiety of the candidates and their friends. However, there is so little question about the result that democratic office-seekers might as well begin feeling bad now.

According to the new law, the whole county votes for one commissioner this year. Incidentally, we may add that Ed Owens is the man to vote for. He is a good, business man and will serve the county faithfully and efficiently.

Republicans will cheerfully concede that Chas. Reynolds, democratic candidate for clerk, is well educated and a good citizen, but he is thoroughly fitted to hold any clerical position and his political defeat will not make him uneasy about lack of employment.

Judge John B. Barnes, twice endorsed for commissioner by his opponent, Judge Sullivan, should receive the united support of the republican party for supreme justice. He is among the foremost lawyers in the state and none can discharge the duties of his highest tribunal more learnedly or fairly.

Governor Mickey truthfully says that the result of this fall's election will largely determine whether or not Nebraska will be counted in the Roosevelt column next year. Thus, it is important that all voters be on hand to cast their ballots and that every republican candidate for major supreme judge down receives a large majority.

Popular Joe Jones, one of the most reliable men in the county, ought to be an easy winner for the office of county treasurer. He is not only well fitted for the important trust, but comes from a part of the county which has never been properly represented in public offices. Let the voters see that he rolls up a majority in every precinct.

The self-assumed second edition of Elijah, John Alexander Dowie, who is now storming New York, seems to have anticipated an inevitable grand for gold since he was on earth the first time. Unless he kicks Manning aside, he cannot expect to close his earthly sojourn by a glorious ascension in a chariot of fire. He will be in luck if he ascends at all.

Petty differences, usually more imaginary than real, should not be fanned and allowed to influence republicans against their nominees. If you feel that you have been injured by any one of them, go to him and talk the trouble over frankly and you will doubtless find that you have been harboring a foolish wrong. The candidates are all competent, deserving men and are entitled to the party's hearty and unanimous support.

Imagine Candidates Moses and Obery voting the republican ticket. Did they ever do it? Do you remember a single instance when they even showed symptoms of supporting a republican candidate? Are they not uncompromising partisans who would scorn the idea of helping a republican into office? Still they want republican votes next Tuesday and their only hope of election rests in being able to get them. They figure that they can persuade enough republicans to "flip" to elect them, thus expecting others to do what they wouldn't dream of doing themselves. The fact that they are pronounced and unyielding in their party fealty is in their favor from a democratic standpoint, but is a powerful argument why every republican in the county should vote against them.

Wm. J. Bryan has been in New Haven lately wrestling in a protracted court for $20,000 left him in a will by the late Rhilo S. Bennett, his right to the gift being contested by the widow through her legal advisers. Bennett was an admirer of Bryan and doubtless thought he would fix him so he wouldn't ever want for daily rations. Bryan has amassed enough of a fortune, however, to paddle his own canoe, and yet he wants to see the wish of his old friend carried out and has proposed to have the bequest if he can get it.

In some Oregon counties, before the coyote bony law was repealed, hunters develop it the business by merely removing the scalps and then turning the coyotes loose. The animal became so well disciplined that they would come to the hunter's cabin to be scalped at the end of every six months, that time being required to renew the growth. The coyotes are easily trained and get so they like to be scalped, appearing as regularly and cheerfully as a family cow imbued with the habit of going home to be milked. They relish the approving smiles of the hunter and trot off after yielding $2 worth of hide apiece, feeling that they have gained a mark of good character and can plunder chicken coops and sheep corrals undisturbed. The HERALD suggests this profitable pursuit of the industry for the consideration of hunters in Dixon county in case the proposed bounty is granted by the voters there at the coming election.

OUR NEXT COUNTY CLERK.
As the nominee of the republican party for county clerk, Chas. S. Beebe has endeavored to make a thorough canvass and meet the citizens of all sections. In doing so, he has been fair and honorable to his opponent, and will leave his case with the voters next Tuesday, knowing that he has conducted a clean campaign, free from undressing or reflections of discredit on those who seek his defeat. His congenial temperament and obliging manner, coupled with ability and long experience, are recognized by voters with favor and cannot fail to swell his majority.

Mr. Beebe was born in Dodge county, Nebraska, and came to Wayne in 1882, a year after the town was started. He has been here almost continuously since then, always identifying himself with the progress of public interests and lending a helping hand in any enterprise looking to the welfare of the town or county.

No one can make a mistake by voting and working for the election of Chas. S. Beebe, in whom the public will find one of the most efficient clerks the county has ever had.

ATTEMPT TO INJURE JUDGE BOYD
A recent issue of the Nebraska Pioneer published a glaring falsehood concerning Judge Boyd, growing out of the Neigenfand murder trial at Pierce. The Pioneer stated substantially that Judge Boyd forced County Attorney Barnhart of Pierce county to secure the assistance of Judge Jackson of Noliich in the prosecution of the case. Barnhart, who by the way is a democrat, announces over his signature that the Pioneer's report is false, that Judge Boyd did not influence him in asking for the appointment of Judge Jackson to help him with the case. County Attorney Barnhart concludes his published letter, regarding the matter, with these positive words:

"While I may be politically opposed to Judge Boyd, I challenge the right of any man, political party or newspaper to manufacture quotations as coming from me and publish them for the purpose of advancing a political purpose, and will not bow, and have never been a party to such demagogism."

To win in any election it is necessary to wear Staley underwear. 2 Johns.

CLERK OF THE COURT.
Otto H. Kuhl, republican candidate for clerk of the district court, is one of our highly respected German citizens, residing at Hoskins. He is a man of exemplary habits, affable manners and thorough education, and has had experience as a clerk and accountant. While a resident of Cedar county, a number of years ago, he officiated as deputy clerk of the district court for two years, and later served a year as deputy in the county clerk's office. He gives perfect satisfaction and was well liked by all who had business relations with him. Thus, he is fully qualified for the trust to which he aspires, and there is every reason to expect that he will triumph at the polls with a big majority.

WAS IT A GRAFF?

In reply to the article in the Democrat of last week, in which he devotes an entire column to something that he admits he knows nothing about, I have this to say: As shown by the letter from the head clerk of the M. W. A. to Mr. Mansfield, it is the duty of the beneficiaries to pay the necessary expenses connected with the preparation and execution of death proofs. This of itself shows that I had a perfect right to make a charge for my work. The Democrat says the beneficiary was in favor of the children, which is not true, for the certificate was made payable to his wife, who died before he did and that caused an extra amount of work. The entire family left Wayne, shortly after the death of W. R. Jones and I was obliged to do all the work by correspondence. Instead of one affidavit, as stated, there were not less than twelve, first to last. It is my candid opinion that I saved the children money in the transaction, for where would you find an attorney for any one else who would collect the sum of $200.00, for a fee of less than one per cent. Besides I advanced the sum of $1.10 for his May assessment which had not been paid. As for the amount being "paid under protest," it was not. There was not a word of protest from any of the beneficiaries, and Mansfield did not enter protest when he was here, and at that time the fees I asked had all been paid. I did not demand that they pay me, but asked them to pay if they thought it was all right. Demanding a sufficient refutation of the garbled account in the Democrat, and with the intention of placing myself right before the M. W. A. and others interested, I submit this for their consideration.

Respectfully,
E. HUNTER.

TO THE TAXPAYERS OF WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

Wayne, Nebraska, Sept. 16th, 1903. The new Revenue Law which went into effect makes it compulsory with the County Treasurer to collect all personal taxes, before the 1st day of February following the year for which they were levied.

You will therefore please read the following, which is Section No 154 of said New Revenue Law enacted by the last legislature:

Section 154. The County Treasurer is hereby required, during the month of December of each year after the personal taxes for the year have become delinquent, to notify by mail all persons of the amount they shall be required to pay, and that unless the same is paid by February first next following, distress warrant will be issued therefor. The treasurer shall, on and after the first day of February next after the personal taxes for the last preceding year have become delinquent, collect the same, together with interest and costs of collection, by distress and sale of personal property belonging to the person against whom levied in the manner provided by law for levy and sale of personal property and execution of distress warrants shall be issued against all persons having delinquent personal tax for the year 1903, and for each year thereafter, and each such warrant shall include all delinquent personal taxes of the person against whom levied, unless such person shall, on or before February first, file with the treasurer an affidavit that he is unable, by reason of poverty, to pay on such tax, in which case distress warrants shall not issue until ordered by the County Board.

I would therefore ask all people who were assessed by their respective assessors, for any personal property last spring, to call at the office in this month of November and pay the said personal tax, or if not convenient for you to call, write for statement, which will be sent you on application. Hoping that you may assist me in the enforcement of this law without resorting to execution, I beg to remain most respectfully yours, Fred Volpe, County Treasurer.

We do not know what size family you have, but we had a customer for 20 years in Iowa that had 12 boys and six girls. A father with that many boys must make some arrangement that will keep twenty-four feet shod without taking all the money he can make. We shod those twelve boys for years with our shoes that the boys "Kant Wear Out" and did it for less money than many fathers spend on one-half that number of boys. If you will buy a pair of our shoes that the Boys "Kant Wear Out" you will have no further trouble about boys' shoes, no matter how many boys you have. OPINIONS OF GREAT PAPERS ON IMPORTANT SUBJECTS

The Dangerous Philocrat. It is not only the danger of the accumulation of great riches in the hands of one man, but the multi-millionaire, the man who has amassed three sums of money, himself, soldier or mercenary, that it knows its value, he must be a good business man to have become rich, and good business men do not buy luck and stakes with what they have hard earned.

Chera is King. Chera is king of American goods. Its yearly output is much greater than that of any other country. It seems also more secure against rivalry than any other. Canada, Russia and other lands compete with us in wheat. Competitors in cotton are growing in many places at an ominous rate.

Canning Peas for Market. The industry of putting up canned goods is rapidly growing, and the processes by which the different crops are made ready for the market form an interesting sight.

Japs Invade Fisheries. It is asserted that they are despoiling the waters of the West. The Japanese are great fish eaters, and a very large share of their constant diet is made up of fish.
