IN THE VICINITY.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Seibert, living near Laurel, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on the 8th inst.

The Index reports that John R. Morris, an enthusiastic sheep grower living near Carroll, received an Oxford Down ram by express last week.

Grading is proceeding at the rate of a mile a day for the proposed new electric railway from Sioux City to Homer via South Sioux City and Dakota City.

The Emerson Cresson is a new paper started last week with I. C. Trumbauer as editor. It begins with a healthy lot of advertising and is a bright, new paper, whose publisher we wish success.

Editor Nelson of the Hartington Herald attributed his defeat for judge of Cedar county to a republican ring, which he proposes to remember in a spirit of retaliation.

Dollie M. Hertz who ran away from home on the Winnebago reservation with an Indian with the intention of marrying him, has had a change of heart and wedded a white man, a laborer employed in the agency service at Homer.

The village board of Emerson has let a contract to Leeburg & Batoke for the construction of a system of waterworks, the cost being $10,258.15. The town has a $5,000 on hand and expects to raise the balance by selling warrants to local business men.

Bert Valentine, well known about Carroll and who served a ten days sentence in the county jail for trifling with the patience of Carroll's marshal last spring, is reported under arrest at Niobrara on the charge of running away with a 14-year-old girl named Hill of Bloomfield.—Carroll Index.

Geo. W. Ashford of Homer, and G. H. Goodfellow, of Jackson, are to be named before the county judge in Dakota City to show cause why they did not serve on election boards, to which they had been appointed. They violated a new law which provides for a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $50.

The Winside Tribune corrects the report that its proprietor, J. C. Ecker, has returned to Nebraska from Washington. It says he is still on the coast in quest of health and that his wife is still occupying the editorial chair. And, by the way, she is dishing up a paper that would be a credit to the genius of Mr. Ecker himself.

The business men of Fairbury have provided a neatly fitted room for the accommodation of farmers' families when they go to town. This gives them comfortable quarters, centrally located, where they can find rest after doing their shopping. It is an excellent idea which other towns would do well to follow.

The sugar beet crop about Randolph is nearly all in now, and returns show that the crop has been profitable. J. O. Sandberg had a little over five acres in beets and sold 75 tons, or 18 tons to the acre. He received $1.20 to $1.30 per ton, or about $276 for the five acres. His expenses for his seed and all hired help was $75, and he sold the tops for $30 on the ground. By those figures it will be seen that Mr. Sandberg realized $44 per acre for his five acres of beet ground. It takes some work to tend beets, but it can be made to pay pretty well.—Randolph Times.

August Jacobson, a farmer living six miles northwest of Oakland, was defrauded out of $500 in cash by traveling sharks last week. He thinks they hypnotized him. The bilks represented themselves to be land speculators and in that way secured the acquaintance of the farmer. Finally they made a demand on him for $1,500 with which to carry out a proposed land deal and he complied by giving cash and a check for $1,000, which latter was returned to him by mail. He believes he yielded to the power of hypnosis, instead of being "worked" in the ordinary fashion.

and to encourage him to think he is not a common "stoker," the public should be persuaded to take the same view of the matter.

An exchange contains the following advice in regard to feeding soft corn to live stock: "Those who have had experience with the feeding of soft corn are warning those who have not to be careful with their feeding of the article in question. It is said that it generally gives rise to disease of stock and is fed with great care. Last year many farmers had experience in this line that will be a warning to them for all time to come, but there are others who have not yet learned the important fact that the soft feed is dangerous. Much of the sickness at that time among the hogs was attributed to cholera, but investigations by eminent veterinarians determined that the trouble was from feeding too much soft corn. The feed is as dangerous to cattle and horses, and the wise feeder is one who will be giving the undeveloped corn in small rations, to increase later as the stock becomes accustomed to the change in diet."

The Advocate reports that J. W. Booth, who resides near Laurel, has bought a farm in the vicinity of Albany, Oregon, and expects to move there next spring. Others have gone to that state from this part of Nebraska and still others are thinking of doing so. The HERALD would suggest to those who can't be persuaded to remain in Nebraska, that there are more desirable parts of Oregon than the Willamette valley for residence, farming and money-making opportunities. The Willamette valley has too much rain and is better suited for a cranberry marsh than an agricultural district. Besides, its inhabitants, who settled there forty and fifty years ago, are slow and sluggish and indifferent to development and progress. It would take a long time for an eastern man to become accustomed to and satisfied with conditions there. The Portland Oregonian treated the "pioneer spirit" of Oregon editorially some time ago, its words really applying to the Willamette valley, and among other things said: "The pioneer spirit is planted deep down in Oregon soil, and no waves of immigration will uproot it. In six months a stranger can get citizenship in this state, but not fellowship." Along the Columbia river is a good country, and the Rogue river valley is desirable. But better than either for investments, with a prospect of growth and enhanced values, is the great Klamath section, with its lakes, rivers, timber and rich soil, made productive by irrigation. If you are determined to leave Nebraska and experiment on the Pacific coast, steer clear of the fogs, bogs and mists of the Willamette valley and investigate Klamath, a country as large as the state of Massachusetts.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

In the absence of Dr. Williams, coroner, Sheriff Meigs was called to Wakefield last Friday by the death of Otto Fink who accidentally shot himself in Wayne county. The sheriff found the facts too apparent to need an inquest and promptly gave the boy's family charge of the remains. The Wakefield Republican gives the following account of the shooting:

As Otto Fink was coming to town yesterday afternoon he noticed what he thought to be the body of a dead man lying on the bank of the Logan near Geo. Child's farm 2 1/2 miles south-east of town. He drove up to Mr. Child's farm and together with W. A. Childs and W. W. Daniels went to investigate and found the dead body of Rola Compton on the north side of the bank about twenty rods west of the bridge in Wayne county. He had a gun-shot wound under his chin and a gun in his hand and from all appearances his death was accidental. The coroner was telephoned for to hold an inquest but as he was out near Carroll the sheriff was sent for. Rola was living with his brother Elmer on the Sals farm five miles southeast of town where they were "bushin' it." The dead boy was about 16 years old.

COUNTING ELECTION RETURNS.

This is a clumsy way of doing business not to have the election boards count the returns until all the voting is done. It frequently happens that a lot of wooden heads and dead ones are on the board and these are slower than molasses in winter, so that the result cannot be told until the next day. There ought to be a speedier method. If voting machines are not employed a portion of the election board should be counting as the voting progresses. Then when the polls are closed it is only a short while until the ballots are counted, the perspiring candidates know their fate and the public knows the extent of the disaster that has been wrought. Counting in the night after a day of tobacco and other stench around the polls is a hard restraint and should be avoided.—Fremont Tribune.

BIG STRIKE NOW ON MORE THAN TEN THOUSAND COAL MINERS GO OUT.

Serious Problem in Colorado—Denver is Practically Out for Coal Already—Mine Workers Plan to Send Men to Other Fields to Work.

A Denver, Colo., special says: More than 10,000 coal miners in Colorado went on strike Monday for an eight-hour day, increased wages and better conditions.

A few independent properties in the northern coal fields elsewhere will not stop work, since the operators have agreed to concede the eight-hour day and also the increase in wages.

The Colorado Fuel and Iron, and Victor Fuel and Northern Coal and Coke Companies are the largest producers.

It is estimated that there are about 140 coal mines in the state, with an output of about $100,000,000 a year, and about 1,000,000 tons.

It will be the policy of the United Mine Workers, to denigrate the various coal districts by sending the idle men and their families to Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, Iowa and other states.

STATE OF NEBRASKA

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN CONDENSED FORM.

Robbed White in a Trance—August Jacobson Retrieved of $1,000 by "Con" Men—Says He Was Hypnotized—Thought He Got Gold Brick.

A strange story of a gold brick condition was worked out at Fremont Monday night August Jacobson, 45, a wealthy Nebraska farmer, of Oakland.

It is stated that a week or so ago two men arrived at Oakland, Minn., a lively town and drove out to Mr. Jacobson's farm west of the town.

They carried the body to the surface and once more entered the workings to rescue their comrades if possible.

Mr. Turner had been connected with the company for several years as superintendent of the Kearns mine and then of the Kearns mine, and it was due to his management that the latter mine has become one of the best known mines in southern Montana.

Col. J. B. Barnes has been elected judge of the supreme court by a majority of 12,000. W. H. Witbeck and C. S. Allen, Republican candidates for the bench of regents have been chosen by a majority of 20,000.

McLellan's plurality, with 36 days' rest, was estimated at 61,573. The Republican ticket, headed by Seth Low, was defeated by a landslide vote of 122,000 against 60,000 for the Republican candidate, Seth Low.

President Jefferson was authorized by Congress to take possession of Louisiana territory. The territory of Louisiana was declared a public land for at least ten years of the United States with all the sugar it yielded, the annual yield then being 45,000 hogsheads.

Over 9,000 tracts of land in Illinois were advertised for sale for taxes, most of the owners residing in other States. Gen. Thomas P. Shreve, U. S. A., commanded the war with the Florida Indians.

THE POPULAR PULPIT

HOW IS AN AMERICAN CITIZEN.

By the grace of God I am an American citizen. The reason why I became an American citizen was because I disliked the monarchical form of government, and after years of study decided to renounce English rules and live under United States protection.

While the republican form of government is not by any means perfect, it is, in my opinion, superior to that common in Europe. Kings, queens and emperors do not have the interest of their subjects at heart. Their own lives are selfish, narrow and incomplete.

My mind cannot be said to have been made up suddenly in this matter. I have studied the question for fifteen years in this country and for more than that in England.

As a voter in the United States, with my influence, I feel I can accomplish great good.

SERMONETTES

Electron Frades—The one thing in our civil life that we should regard with apprehension is the brazen frauds committed at the elections. I am convinced and have been for years that they are committed with not only the knowledge but with the satisfaction of some of our citizens who are prominent in political and business circles.

Christian Church—We can build cathedrals if we have money and we can build schools and we can teach the boys the catechism and church history, and the thirty-nine articles, if we choose, and the Bible, yet in the end we cannot say of the boy that he is a Christian. No, but what the church school can and must do is to give the means for the building of the Christian character.

Every day we pass by a thousand graves of buried hopes of youth who had never seen the light of day, and the stone that the light of day may shine in to save life to the soul. How wonderful would it be if we could fully realize that Christ stands on the human side of every trial and every trouble and every disappointment and every sorrow and says: "Do you part with it with difficulty? I will remove all that the human hand can take away and I will furnish the rest as with a word I put death to Lazarus' tomb."

It may not be much that you can do, but if it is ever so little it must be done before the living power can work. The world can never be made better without possible effort. The cheerful face, the willing hand and the Godlike purpose make the journey of life a grand march of triumph.

But we are also to remove the stone of indifference. Many people were there that day who did not seem to care much whether Lazarus' tomb lay open or not, and even Martha seemed indifferent to any effort on the part of the Savior. So we find in the world today the head shaking and hand wringing people who say: "It will do no good, there is no use trying."

It is your place and mine to lift him at this world's weight of sorrow that the resurrection power of God may give life to a dead world. Magnified be those who were with him when he lay in the tomb and have the power of new and greater life with which he sustained and douled the world. "I had not unto thee that if thou wouldst have been thou shouldst see the glory of God?"

Then can we not see the glory of God without believing? No, we cannot. It is the only way. There is many a man who is a dejected, faithless, soulless creature because he didn't believe. There are thousands of them in this city.

When they believed and removed the stone what matchless glory did they see? It is by faith that you may see the glory of God. When you hear that an astronomer has discovered a new planet we do not read that he found it with the unaided eye. He saw it with his telescope long before the rest of us knew anything about it. When a man announces a mighty truth of God that has been seen by his deity and felt its power, though we do not see it, we know that it has been made known to him by the wonderful truth and revelation of faith. When we were in the observatory searching for the stars and did not find them the teacher said: "Get the focus set that you are on the right line of vision, then you will see." Then do we in religious things turn and ask: "What has the focus to do with it? Can't I not see? Have I not eyes?"

The answer comes: "Yes, you have eyes, but they are not by service; they are by faith for the sword of the angels." "Yes, you have eyes, but they are not by service; they are by faith for the sword of the angels."

So, as we who teach the high and eternal things of the everlasting kingdom, first clear away the difficulties in the divine path, obeying the command, "Take ye away the stone, then turn and see faith, God's eternal Master and watch himself."

So, as we who teach the high and eternal things of the everlasting kingdom, first clear away the difficulties in the divine path, obeying the command, "Take ye away the stone, then turn and see faith, God's eternal Master and watch himself."

Five of the six Nebraska representatives in congress are new and inexperienced men.

The election of a senator to succeed Chas. H. Dietrich, more than a year hence, is already arousing attention and a few good citizens of the state are already beginning to show their willingness to be thrust into the office.

Congress met Monday in special session in accordance with the call of President Roosevelt whose reason for so doing, as set forth in his message, is to secure the necessary legislation to make effective the Cuban reciprocity treaty.

Tampabay must have at least made the appearance of having been renovated and purified in order to have caught the favor of enough voters to lift it out of the rut of defeat, into which it fell some years ago under the weight of its own barnacles of corruption.

The big department stores of the cities make little headway in gathering trade from territory where local merchants advertise. The foreign store-build up their business by advertising and thereby successfully invade a country whose dealers do not make a similar effort to attract attention to their goods and prices.

W. J. Bryan did not do much talking for democracy during the late campaign. He had his voice in use doing in a New Haven probate court most of the time, devoting it to the benighted purpose of compelling the authorities to carry out the intent of the Bennett will, which bequeaths to him the comforting sum of $60,000.

The chilly weather of late is a mild form of winter compared to the variety prevailing in states north and north-east of here. In parts of Minnesota and North and South Dakota, a genuine blizzard has been raging, flavored with an Arctic temperature. Of course mid-winter in Nebraska is apt to be given a little spice in the way of blizzards, but they seldom appear this early in the season.

Ten thousand coal miners in Colorado quit work Monday by the refusal of their employers to grant an eight-hour day, increased wages and other concessions. Thus, while the mine owners and strikers contend for advantages, the greatest sufferers from their differences and their suspension of work are the coal consumers. Neither side to the controversy shares all the blame. There is a good deal of arch-devilishness in both, with little or no regard for either for the welfare of the innocent public.

President Roosevelt has urged Senator Mark Hanna to continue as chairman of the republican national committee and manage the campaign next year. Senator Hanna talks as though he wanted to retire from the chairmanship, but he may be persuaded to stick to it to his ambition for the presidency does not get control of his better judgment. As chairman of the committee, he is acceptable to the people, but as a presidential aspirant in opposition to Roosevelt, his boom would meet a chilly reception on every hand.

Mr. R. H. Bryan Leavitt, daughter of Mr. J. H. Bryan, is said to have yielded to the temptation to write a book, which will be illustrated by her husband. It would undoubtedly be more readable if she could wait, in preparing her literary effusion, until after the mental effervescence and dreamy flights, prompted by an inordinate affluence, incident to early stages of married life, had worn off. However, the disaffection of her father, who she has brushed aside in marrying, will make it possible for her to get her book published and read.

Senator Bourke, of South Dakota, has placed before congress a bill to give to settlement the lands of the Escalado, Sioux Indians in Gregory county. These are the lands that have lately excited much public interest, many people having their eyes on the enjoyment with the expectation of acquiring tracts of it at small cost as soon as made available. The measure proposed by Senator Bourke fixes the price of the land at $3.50 per acre, while the treaty with the Indians calls for double that amount. Thus it is believed that bill, as it now stands, will meet the opposition of the Indian office.

President Roosevelt's message, made public on Tuesday, deals exclusively with the object for which the special session of congress was called—rapid action of the treaty creating reciprocity relations between this country and Cuba. The president urges the imperative necessity of taking immediate action looking to that end, the only course he thinks will be consistent with honor and fairness. He maintains that recognition of Cuba in the manner proposed will be a commercial benefit to this nation, if there were no higher considerations at stake. Those interested in the domestic sugar industry seem to fear injury from the treaty, but their apprehension is believed to be unwarranted. It is urged with good reason that commerce generally will be strengthened by prompt ratification.

HAVE WE HEATHEN AMONG US.

(PORTLAND OREGONIAN)
A writer in the Meth-dist Magazine, a discovers, literally speaking, a type of people—very numerous, but still enough to form with their characteristics a distinct type—in the Ozark Mountains Southwest, Missouri and Northwest Arkansas, that represents human happiness unalloyed and contentment that never suffers lapse or abatement. These people are described as "destitute and ignorant, almost perfectly uneducated." The adjuncts to this contentment are "rude huts to shelter them, game in the mountains to hunt, fish in the rivers to catch, a few razor-backed hogs to climb the hills and feed upon nature's acorns and combined energy enough in a large family to tend a large enough patch of tobacco, sorghum and corn to furnish them all the 'long green' they need for smoking and sufficient 'lasses and corn bread for their daily food." Thus equipped these mountaineers "drome out the years of their lives in contentment, and when they die they are laid away in cheap coffins, covered with tabby velvet in a brush-overgrown graveyard on some lonesome hillside."

This picture, unattractive as it is, is in a sequestered life beyond the sheltering Ozarks. It is difficult to conceive that such stagnation in human affairs exists anywhere on earth. The mountaineers of Kentucky and West Virginia are densely ignorant, but they are restless, energetic and vigorous, almost past belief. The pursuit of fudge, rifle in hand, is their pastime; though uncivilized they are not sluggish, though lacking in ambition, they are by no means stolidly contented.

Whether one type or the other of these mountaineers is considered, it is evident and must be conceded that the American missionary need not go to foreign lands to find exercise for his talents as a "fisher of men." True, these people do not need spiritual advice as much as they need bodily uplifting; not so much to be brought to a state of concern about the future life as to be given a knowledge of some of the possibilities of the life that now is.

These Ozark hill people are "white" in the sense that they belong to the Caucasian race, but stamped with that which they fed upon, they have a peculiar type of physiognomy and complexion of a pasty, sallow order, the result of a steady diet of bacon and corn bread. The men are long, lanky and lean from the over-use of strong home cured tobacco. The women age rapidly. Marrying at thirteen to seventeen they settle down to a hum-drum life utterly devoid of intellectual pleasures. Whether they become shapeless masses of flesh or gaunt, flat-chested, long-waisted creatures at twenty-five, their comeliness is gone. A woman who appears to be fifty or sixty is often no more than thirty-five or forty. They teach their children to use tobacco at an early age, because "it is good for their 'stomachs,'" and let them go practically without clothes until they are seven or eight years old to "use" them to the climate.

The writer, who has given these facts concerning this type of Ozark hill folk to the world says: "As a whole, our mountain people are quick and keen of wit, with the lower stratum, docile and shiftless have shriveled in brain and muscle." Yet without they live in peace with their neighbor, and contentment with themselves. Perhaps after all it would be a species of cruelty to attempt to introduce among them the leaven of unrest—the virus of aspiration, the work or "taking" of which would forever dispel the contentment that possesses them, which is the only admirable feature of their character.

HOW DO THESE REASONS STRIKE YOU?

Some of our customers have given the following reasons for trading here: "I used to trade at — but they failed to fit me and I always get a fit here," is the reason given by a customer last week. "If I buy arctics here they last me all winter, but it takes two pair if I buy them anywhere else," was the way a customer put it. "I used to have trouble every winter with rheumatism until I bought Staley underwear of you," is the language used by a man that has worn Staley four years. "I don't like to trade where they trust everybody until they are ready to pay. I want to get all I can for my money." That is the way a customer put it at us today. "You fellows don't sell any cheaper than the other stores but everything I buy here wears better than anything I can get at other stores." The farmer was honest when he made the above remark, but as he says our goods wear better we think it is cheaper. "Every other store in Wayne has two prices and I don't like that way of doing business; that's why I trade here." How do you like that man's reason? "I like to buy clothing of a man who understands his business; that's why I trade here." This man is one of the most successful farmers in Wayne county. If it was proper we could give the name of every one that made these remarks. Don't you think it will pay you to give this store a fair trial? Come in and let us explain to you why we desire your patronage.

WAYNE NEB

NEW PRECEDENT FOR DOCTORS.

The contract given by Dr. J. C. Clark, the special oculist of Sioux City, to his patients is a new precedent for doctors who treat human ailments and it establishes Dr. Clark upon a plain above the crowd in those which are practiced by so many who claim they can do, but never secure results. Dr. Clark gives a contract which guarantees a cure or money refunded. It is a fair and straightforward proposition. Dr. Clark is an eye specialist of more than ordinary ability in his line, having been in practice more than twenty years and this is his eleventh year in Sioux City. His hundreds of patients in and around Wayne recommended him to the highest terms. Any person suffering from headache, nervousness, inflamed or watery eyes, floating specks, dizziness, weak memory, pains running from base of brain down spinal column, constant irritability of the mind, etc., will do well to call upon Dr. Clark, no matter how long he has failed in your case before. The exhaustion of the nervous forces caused by eye-strain produces such troubles. If Dr. Clark cannot help you in your case it will be up to an absolute certainty as to what is wrong. Dr. Clark uses no drugs or medicine in his practice. He will examine and give attention to the only eye trouble in the world, crossed eyes straightened without operation.

Miss Louisa Crane of Durbin, Neb., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. The great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by A. P. Lane's Drug Store, Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Rev. J. H. Karpenstein and the Hexald men saw a celestial phenomenon in the eastern sky Monday night. Others here may have beheld the same sight. It was seen from Papillion and doubtless from other points. It was probably a meteor, though it went out of business with a few more trimmings to its spectacular exhibition than is usual.

I used it, and got two more bottles. It cured me. I feel any rheumatism now. I can recommend Snow Liniment to be the best liniment on earth for rheumatism." DISTRICT COURT.
The regular fall term of district court began here Monday, Judge B. D. prevailing. Among the cases thus far receiving attention are the following:
There were three criminal cases growing out of the burglary of a store at Hastings, August 1. The general store of Geo. Mack was entered and a quantity of goods taken. Kane Erickson, Geo. Mack and John Soltzberger were charged with the crime and bound over to the district court, the first named giving bonds and the other two remaining in the custody of the sheriff. Erickson's trial took place Tuesday and the case was given to the jury yesterday morning. The jury was still out at noon today with little prospects of agreement. E. A. Lundberg represented the defendant and County Attorney Simon prosecuted. Geo. Mack was tried yesterday and after being out all night, the jury returned a verdict of acquittal this morning. Messrs. Welch & Davis defended the accused. John Schiller pleaded guilty and became a witness for the state.
The action of Anna Jorgensen vs. Richard Reese to recover alleged damages of $502 by reason of personal injuries claimed to have been inflicted by the defendant was placed on trial this morning. An interesting spade and club, souvenirs saved from the tariff from which this and a few previous cases grew, formed a part of the evidence.
The state vs. Christopher Weible, charged with a misdemeanor, will be tried next. This will be followed by a civil action titled Thomas Lound and Frank McElrath vs. W. C. Wightman and Chris Weible. In legal parlance, it would be called a case of "forcible entry and detainer," but, simplified, it develops from a row over the line of a fence.
All the cases of the county against the banks were dismissed.

Miss Helen Pile spent the interval between terms with an aunt in Omaha, returning Monday evening.
The Misses Brauchemtn had a short visit with home folks at Elk Point, S. D., during the inter-term vacation.
The enrollment of students at the outset of the new term is a little in advance of last year's enrollment and is in line with the general expansion of the school.
Friday evening of this week, both literary societies will combine to give a unique program. We are pleased to note that the society spirit is running high this term.
Sunday afternoon, there will be a joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. A good program has been prepared, to the enjoyment of which the general public is cordially invited.

The following are among new students enrolling this week: Miss Brandt of Lincoln; Miss Brown, Pender; Miss Holger, S. D.; Miss Armour, Dakota City; Misses Sletten, Hartington; Miss Lambert, Foster; Mr. Drager, Poncha.
Among old students entering school again this term we have noticed the following: John Taubel, Hader; Mae Weiburn, Winside; David Heilman, Dakota City; John Kerwin, Emerson; Grace Gos, Wayne; John Wente, Newcastile.
Henry Ranbach has taken his de- feat for the office of clerk of court in Pierce county the most philosophically of any defeated candidate we have yet seen. He spent a day or two at the college last week en route to Tekamah whether he was going on business (?)
Of the various N. O. boys making the race for Co. Sup., Messrs. Bright, Baker, Brookings and Marshall were the successful ones. Mr. Malone lacked only twelve votes of carrying Holt county, but running nearly five hundred ahead of the rest of his ticks.

The new song books with responsive scripture readings provided for use in chapel exercises are proving a most welcome addition to morning exercises. The volume includes songs both religious and patriotic and is widely used by the normal schools and colleges throughout the country.

SPECIALIST OF REPUTATION YEARS OF SPECIAL PRACTICE
APPOINTING EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITIES

FAMOUS WORLD RENOWNING BY DR. CALDWELL

Several years ago, while in private practice, I thought it wrong to advertise simply because I had been told so and had not had experience enough to know better. After a while I discovered a valuable plan of treatment in certain cases, and fortunately obtained a large number of patients, enough to fully test my plan and prove its success. I thereupon prepared a lengthy paper upon the subject and read it before the state medical society. What was the result? A number of members took the floor to say what the treatment had been for a hundred years back, and to claim that the old treatment, though unsuccessful should be continued, notwithstanding that the new treatment had been successful. I thought that I had been told to not use the new method, and made remarkable cures of cases that had been pronounced incurable. My business increased rapidly as each person that I cured told some friend, who came in turn and was cured. Each person advised me to advertise. What then? Instead of larger or more than 100 cases of this kind, I cured every case that came to me and then had nothing to do except the ordinary business of a local physician. I know there were hundreds and thousands of others observing me and they were cured if they only knew and I advertised. Cured hundreds of others, and have adversaries ever since. I have relieved more suffering, cured more patients, made more people happy, and done more good generally because I have told all the people what I know, and I shall go on telling all the people as long as my strength will permit.

I have been advised to have something written about my business. I have made my competency known by my study and experience, and by the expenditure of large amounts of money. By advertising I have been able to get the best of the country to get what I can do. I thereby reach thousands, who, given up by local physicians, or some study treated, give the medicine as incurable.
I cure them and then by enlarge my field of usefulness. By no other way than advertising could I have done this.
Every thirty and fourth business in life
save those of law and medicine, advertise freely. Days do not come, for they only use in their business what others have made for them. They do not do this. To be successful he must pay his own bill. Make his own prospectus, and do it to fit his best room and opportunity. He must have cases, hundreds of them, and compare results. If he does not do this he is a machine without novelty, skill or originality, still plowing with a wooden plow, still dragging his feet or horseback, and ignoring the advantages of considerable tract of land in that state.

CURED OF PILES AFTER 40 YEARS.
Mr. C. Haugy, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Last year he failed to get any relief from his Dewitt's Witch Hazel Cure and Dewitt's Ointment. He was permanently cured by using Dewitt's Ointment, hemorrhoids, ecz-ma, tetter, salt rheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name D-Witt on the package—all others are cheap imitations. Sold by Raymond's Pharmacy.

NOT A SICK DAY SINCE.
"I was taken so severely sick with kidney trouble, I tried all sorts of medicine, but none of them did me any good. I was an invalid for three months and did not get any relief until I used your medicine. After using a few doses I felt better, and soon thereafter was nearly cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of kidney trouble, rheumatism, liver and kidney troubles and General D. W. Taylor's Pills. I am B. F. Bass, of Peoria, Ill., writing you, July 30th, at A. F. Lane's Drug Store."

A REMARKABLE CASE.
One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated in the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Ge-rude E. Peiner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "This cougher and I were both weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 93 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by Raymond's Pharmacy.

DOESN'T RESPECT OLD AGE.

reversible of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Dizziness, or indigestion all yield to this powerful pill. 25¢ at A. F. Lane's

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.
"Kolik Dyspepsia Cure does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly dis-ordered or over-loaded. Kolik Dyspepsia Cure supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relieving the nervous system, while the inflamed mucous membrane is allowed to rest and heal. Kolik Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, pure blood." Sold by Raymond's Pharmacy.

A GOOD NAME.
From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are as equalled as a liver pill. They are richly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and efficient. They cure biliousness, torpid liver, jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Raymond's Pharmacy.

BEAUTIFUL CLEAR SKINS.
