TEACHERS MEET

Institute in Progress and a Signal Success.

ABLE INSTRUCTORS EMPLOYED

Sixty-two Teachers Enrolled—Deputy State Superintendent McBrien Adds Interest to the Session—His Lecture Tuesday Evening on "Optimism vs. Pessimism" was Interesting and Instructive.

The Wayne county teachers' institute began here Monday morning under the management of Superintendent Bright. Sixty-two teachers are in attendance. They manifest lively interest in the daily program, and seem bent on deriving all possible benefit from the instructors and exchange of ideas.

The different branches of study are handled with marked ability as follows: W. M. Kern of Columbus, is instructor in didactics, literature and history; F. M. Gregg of Wayne, in agriculture, psychology and geography; Anna Vander Cook of Council Bluffs, in reading, language and numbers.

Deputy State Superintendent McBrien gave a lecture before the teachers and others Tuesday evening. Many did not attend on account of the rain and therefore his audience was not so large as was expected or as his lecture merited. His subject was "Optimism vs. Pessimism." He described the characteristics of the two extremes in the different professions and enlivened his line of thought with appropriate illustrations. He discouraged pessimism and especially showed its ill effects in the school room. He impressed the idea that teachers should not harbor suspicion nor ascribe wrong motives to their pupils. They ought to show confidence in the young. The dull boy should be encouraged, instead of scolded and neglected. His lecture was interesting and instructive throughout.

Tonight another lecture will be given for the institute at the court house by Rev. Thos. J. Wright of the M. E. church, and not only teachers but the public generally is invited. His theme is: "American Diplomacy."

Superintendent Bright is to be congratulated for having secured able and experienced instructors, and for the generally efficient and successful manner in which he had planned and has managed the session.

Names of teachers:

- Nellie Rose, Ida Heyer, Christina Lundquist, Emma Richardson, Adeline Garahime, Harry Ziemer, Verne Ziemer, Bert Wright, Nell Palmer, Josie Carter, Jeanette Perry, Mrs. Lush, Nellie Horner, Jessie Lovitt, Elizabeth Hayes, May Preston, Myra Preston, Clara Whitney, Vera Embree, Nellie Lauman, Ella Lauman, Minta Lewis, Anna Kuper, Geraldine Davis, Lizzie Williams, Nettie A. EIGHTH GRADE GRADUATION.

On Tuesday afternoon the graduating exercises of the country schools were held at the court house in this city, and all who were present unite in pronouncing the event one of the most pleasant affairs in the history of our schools. The court room was filled to the limit with fathers, mothers and friends of the graduates. The Wayne orchestra furnished music for the occasion and Deputy State Superintendent McBrien delivered the address. He chose for his theme, "The Greatest Products of the Farm." He showed in a very pleasing but emphatic manner that these products are not hogs, cattle and corn, but boys and girls who grow up into strong men and women, forming the solid and substantial citizens in every community. He congratulated the graduates upon having completed their course of study, upon having passed the first milestone in their educational careers, and expressed the hope that they would not be content with victories already won, but that they would push forward and

HAVE FESTIVAL EVENT LATER

Neighboring Towns Planning to Observe the Fourth, and With the Celebration in Wayne for That Day Declared off it is Expected they will Return the Favor in August by Swelling Our Crowd.

The executive and finance committees having in charge the proposed celebration for July 4th, met with a crowd of business men Tuesday evening and decided, in view of preparations for observance of that day in neighboring towns, to abandon the enterprise here, with the intention of having a big festival occasion in August, perhaps at the time of the old settlers' picnic. An effort is to be made to unite with the management of that picnic and prepare for an event of unusual interest.

IN THE VICINITY

The farmers north of Dixon are trying to promote a rural telephone line.

Wakefield had a balloon ascension and parachute leap Saturday afternoon.

Most of our exchanges announce preparations for big celebrations July 4th.

Laurel citizens are urging their town board to establish a curfew ordinance.

Coleridge feels that it hasn't been considered on the map in the distribution of rural mail routes. The town now, however, has the prospect of getting one.

Lewis Robbins, an old Tekamah resident, but now of Wayne, came down to Tekamah Saturday evening and spent several days visiting his many old acquaintances—Tekamah Journal.

Jay Gibson, a brother of Editor Gibson of the Republican, was reported lying at the point of death at Fruitville, California, last week. His father at Dixon hastened to his son's bedside.

The Nebraska Live Stock association has $2,000 to pay transportation charges on Nebraska live stock to the St. Louis exposition. Those who wish to participate in this offer should write O. E. Mickey, at Osceola, Neb., prior to July first.

The Advocate complains that a crowd of Laurel boys of tender years spend the time on rainy days in empty box cars, smoking and playing cards. Parents are reminded of their duty to keep in closer touch with the whereabouts and habits of their children.

Jesse Wilson returned to Tekamah, Monday evening, from Casper, Wyoming, where he has been holding a position with the Western Union, as telegraph operator. He does not like Casper, and is now considering a proposition of going to the Pacific northwest and enter the government employ in the "wireless" service.—Tekamah Journal.

Some fishermen from Ponca found an overturned buggy hitched to two dead horses buried in water and sand in the Missouri river a few miles northwest of that town last week. It was thought further search might reveal the unfortunate driver who had fallen victim of the treacherous river. The vehicle and horses had not been identified at last accounts.

Did you ever sit at an entertainment behind a lady with a Dutch windmill for a hat? Say, did you swear? No? Then you are a minister for sure! We like to see nice ladies with nice hats—outdoors. Hats were originally made for outdoors. No one can have any objection to a lady wearing a millinery clearing sale on her tile, provided she stays out of one's light. But say, did you ever get spinal meningitis from trying to see in a curve around an imitation ostrich feather that was Columbus based on a bargain counter marked down to 70 cents? Of course you have. It ought to be just as polite for a lady to wear her awning unfurled in a public hall as for a man to remain tiled in the presence of ladies. This is not a knock. It is a wall. Our neck is all stretched out and tied in bow knots from rubbering around a hat at a recent entertainment. Let's take our hats off.—Bancroft Blade.

MR. VOLPP SPEAKS AT NORFOLK

The Norfolk Daily News gives the following account of Fred Volpp's address at the annual picnic of the Sons of Herman: "The address of the day was by Hon. Fred Volpp of Wayne, grand president, and proved interesting and instructive both to members of the order and outsiders. He spoke of the advancement of the order and of its substantial character. There are now 1,700 members in Nebraska and there is cash on hand to pay benefits and other expenses, the sum of $17,000, making now in the treasury $10 for each member. This is the result of but six years in growth, and prospects for the future are most flattering. While being true Americans Mr. Volpp was desirous that the mother tongue be preserved in the American families and the children taught to speak the language of the fatherland. The address was well received by the assembled people."

Tuesday was Flag day, being the 127th anniversary of the adoption of the stars and stripes as the national emblem for the United States. The only change in the original flag has been made by the addition of stars in accordance with the increase in number of states.

Hearst as the democratic presidential nominee would undoubtedly mean the distribution of more cash than would the choice of any other man, with the same result in any case. Therefore, Hearst may be the most feasible, because he would be the most profitable, candidate the St. Louis convention can center on.

The fact that M. Warner of the Lyons Mirror, allowed himself to be carried along in the same vehicle with Gov. Mickey has been regarded a symptom of that editor's recovery from populism and dreams of calamity. But the diagnosis was wrong. He explains that he could consistently ride with the governor and still dislike his administration as hard as ever.

J. L. McBrien, republican nominee for state superintendent, and present deputy of that officer, was in Wayne Tuesday to take part in the teachers' institute. Mr. McBrien is a pleasant gentleman to meet and possesses the education, refinement and experience essential for the office to which he aspires. At the polls Wayne county should and will contribute a generous share to his majority.

The fiftieth anniversary of the creation of Nebraska as a territory was appropriately celebrated in Omaha last week. Nebraska has made wonderful strides in growth in the last half century. The state is no longer regarded a part of the Great American desert, but proof compels universal recognition of the fact that it has become one of the richest and thrichest spots in the United States. Nebraska has not only forged ahead in developing its resources and accumulating wealth, but stands second to none in high citizenship and broad education.

NOW IS THE TIME TO USE HYOMEI.

Cures Catarrh and Prevents Colds, No Stomach Dosing, Just Breathe It!

At this season of the year, catarrhal troubles are very prevalent, and nearly every person suffers to a certain extent. Catarrh is not only the result of a succession of colds and can be easily prevented if the proper treatment is followed.

Hyomei is a natural yet scientific cure for the colds and grip troubles that lead to catarrh, as well as a positive cure for the disease itself.

The balsamic air of Hyomei, breathed through the small pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit is filled with germ-killing and health-giving qualities that penetrate to the inmost air cells of the head, throat and lungs. It kills all catarrhal germs, frees the mucous membrane from poisonous mucus, and make a perfect and complete cure of catarrh.

The complete outfit costs only $1, while extra bottles of Hyomei can be prepared for 50c. E. J. Raymond sell Hyomei on the "no cure, no pay" plan, and will refund the money if it fails to give perfect satisfaction. You take no risk whatever in using Hyomei. It is the only treatment sold under a guarantee of this nature where a leading local druggist agrees to return the money if the treatment fails to cure.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in coughing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Emphysema, and Grip. Guaranteed by F. A. FOR A HUNDRED YEARS.

For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. Dewey & Co. of Chicago, to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other substances, in the form of a salve. Dewey's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name "De Witt" on the wrapper, and never use any other. Sold by Druggists and Grocers.

A SAFE PLACE

This question always comes up in your mind when trading at a store, "is it a safe place." A store may have a few articles in sight that look like bargains and may be real bargains but that does not make the place safe to do much buying. Some merchants sell a few things for less than cost to draw crowds and charge the loss to articles that the price is not so well known. Such a place is not a safe place to buy clothing. A pair of overalls marked fifty cents may look all right, hung up in a store, but when you wear them you will find out they are not all right. A shirt marked thirty-five cents may look good in a window but when it has passed through a washing it may look different. When you buy anything to wear at this store it is all right when you wear it. It will stand the test. It will look well after you have worn it a long time. This is a safe place to trade. Every article is marked so you can see what it is worth, and it is worth what it is marked every day in the week. If you buy your clothing here you get them in style and they are warranted to give satisfaction. There can't be any money saved buying clothing at an unsafe place. Any clothing you buy here will please you and be worth the amount you pay for it. A trial will convince you.

Among its Improvements are:

A metal-covered hub, which will not check or split. A combination wood and steel axle, the wood and steel going the whole length of the skids. This axle will stand twice the strain of an ordinary hickory axle. Also a bolster-stake made from heavy sheet steel.

The popularity of the MacKinnon Wagon rests not only on the above improvements, but every piece of lumber used in its construction is carefully selected from the best Wisconsin timber. The parts are fitted and put together by skilled workmen, and nothing is left undone, even in the smallest detail, to make it a perfect wagon in every particular. We manufacture our own wood stock, from the log to the wagon, and as we have been twenty-five years engaged in the manufacture of wagon material, we have gained an experience in the selection of wagon wood second to none. Our factory is supplied with the most complete and latest machinery. We have at all times a large stock of lumber carefully selected and well seasoned.

Sunday was observed as children's day at the Presbyterian church where an appropriate program was rendered in the evening. An attractive floral display was made from cut flowers. The gathering filled the church and there was especially a large attendance of children. Sunday was children's day at the Baptist church and the young people acquitted themselves with great credit to the program that was given in the evening. On the program was a large cross; back of which was a bank of ferns and flowers. The main part of the program was an impressive scene, participated in by the young ladies, showing the transforming power of love—the change wrought in the individual by the spirit of selflessness giving place to that of unselfishness. The recitations and music were appropriate and rendered without a flaw.

AT HYMEN'S ALTAR.

Witnessed by a large assemblage of invited friends, the marriage of Miss Maude Bressler, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bressler, of Wayne, to Mr. Oliver Albert Harker Jr., son of Judge and Mrs. O. A. Harker of Carbondale, Ill., last evening, was one of the notable events in the social circles of this city. From the time the initial wedding march rang out in the Presbyterian church until the guests expressed "good night" at the close of the reception at the Bressler home, the occasion passed off without a single jar to disconcert the elaborate arrangements. Though many details executed perfectly, there was no ostentation. The event was brilliant without excessive display.

About the altar in the church were clusters of ferns and blossoms of aytzing. Green and white were the colors used in the floral decorations at the church and in the hall and dining room at the residence. American beauty roses and peonies adorned the parlor.

By 8 o'clock the guests had gathered in the church, and promptly at that hour Prof. M. S. Davies, presiding at the organ, announced the arrival of the bridal party by rendering Lohengrin's march. The maid of honor, Miss Winifred Harker, and bridesmaids, Misses Alice Jose, Inez Jose and Ruth Bressler, preceded the bride, who followed on the arm of her father, Frank Hewitt, Louis Clements and John Neely ushered the groom and his best man, George Harker, to the altar through another aisle. The bride was gowned in white Lousino silk, trimmed with chiffon and lace, over which hung a long veil. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was attired in light green silk with short veil and carrying a bouquet of sweet peas. The bridesmaids wore gowns of white mull, short veils and carried maidenshair ferns. The groom and his attendants were dressed in black aside from white vests and white gloves.

At the altar the father gave his daughter into the hands of the groom, the music changed to the Flower Song in subdued tones, and Rev. P. F. Baker D. D., of Chicago, stepped forward and solemnized the wedding, using the impressive ring ceremony. At the close, and after the bridal party had returned, keeping step down the aisle to Mendelssohn's famous march, the crowd dispersed and guests, to the number of 140, gathered at the spacious and beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bressler to participate in the reception.

In the parlor the bridal party, with the bride's and groom's mothers and fathers, received the guests, and to the happy young couple were expressed congratulations and hearty good wishes.

Mrs. B. E. Gribble of Hubbard, and Mrs. P. H. Kohl of Wayne, presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Harry Jones, Mrs. H. F. Wilson, Mrs. P. M. Northrop and Mrs. Henry Beckenbauer assisted in entertaining the crowd. A spirit of sociability pervaded the house and all seemed to partake of the happiness of the two hearts newly cemented in wedlock. The many valuable gifts, arranged in a room on the second floor, were viewed and admired by all. Among the presents were generous remembrances in the way of money from Judge Harker and Mr. Bressler. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening, and shortly after 10 o'clock the guests took leave of the household, renewing felicitations to the bride and groom, and expressing to the host and hostess high appreciation of the excellent manner in which the event had been carried out.

The bride is a graduate of Fairy Hall seminary of Lake Forest, Ill., where she met and was wooed and won by Mr. Harker. She is high-minded, possesses many worthy accomplishments, has been intimately and prominently associated with church and social circles in Wayne and is eminently deserving of the encomiums bestowed by her host of friends. The groom is a young man of education, refinement and good habits. He is a prosperous dealer in live stock at Carbondale, Illinois, near which place he has prepared a neat and comfortable cottage for the reception of his bride.

The newly wedded couple departed from here this morning for St. Louis, where they will visit the exposition for a week and then go to Carbondale. They expect to spend the summer at a pleasure resort near Lake Michigan, and will be at home to their friends after September 1. The best wishes of all accompany them.

Names of out-of-town guests: Judge and Mrs. O. A. Harker, Miss Winifred Harker, George Harker, Frank Hewitt and Louis Clements of Carbondale, Ill., Misses Alice and Inez Jose of LaJosa, Pa., Miss Gertrude Fair of Dakota City, Mr. and Mrs. Gribble of Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hanson of Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sneath and F. D. Bressler of near Pender.

Fancy Table Butter

There is usually kept in a modern up-to-date grocery between three and four hundred different kinds, grades and sizes of articles which are used about the household. Many of this number, people have little discretion when they are bought, while on the other hand there are items in which some certain store excels.

The question of "where can the best butter be obtained?" confronts many a housewife. I have solved this question to the satisfaction of the most particular purchaser. Having secured contracts for butter from the best makers, from people who have mastered the art and have all modern facilities, I am prepared to offer Fancy Table Butter in two, three and five pound jars at a moderate price. A trial order will not fail to please.

SHIPS IN COLLISION

FIVE PERSONS LOST ON THE ST. LAWRENCE RIVER.

Hundreds in Imminent Peril—Steamer Canada Had 110 Passengers on Board—She Was Almost Cut in Two by the Cape Breton.

The Bichelieu and Ontario Navigation Company's steamer Canada, bound from Quebec for Montreal, came into collision with the Dominion Coal Company's collier, Cape Breton, six miles below Sorel, Ont., early Sunday. Twenty minutes later the Canada went to the bottom. At the time of the collision there were 110 people on board the Canada; five were lost, the others were rescued.

The collision occurred just as dawn was breaking. The Cape Breton lay at the entrance of the lake St. Peter, and was waiting for daylight so as to finish her way through. She was getting underway when the Canada, making for Sorel at full speed, came into view. Just what the collision was due to and who is responsible for it has not yet been made known, the officials declining to talk, but from the statements given out it would appear that the Cape Breton had not got headway on enough to answer her rudder, and that she swerved across the path of the passenger boat, her bow striking the Canada just forward of the paddle box on the starboard side, and tearing its way half way through. Then the Cape Breton swung clear and the two steamers came alongside each other.

The shock of the collision caused the sleeping passengers. The Canada at once began to settle, and as the Cape Breton did not appear to be seriously damaged, the passengers were hurriedly transferred to this steamer. In the excitement some of the passengers jumped overboard and were picked up by boats from the Canada and the Cape Breton.

THIRTY FIREMEN OVERCOME Bothered by Tobacco Smoke and Alcoholic Fumes.

Thirty firemen were temporarily overcome by tobacco smoke and the fumes from alcohol early in Broadway while fighting a fire in Holtz cafe in Sunday, New York.

During the fire an ambulance was stationed near by to care for the firemen, whose eyes caused them intense pain after each rush into the smoke. The damage to the restaurant was $100,000.

The upper floors of the building were occupied by wholesale milliners, and the loss on their stock, which was practically ruined by the smoke, is also placed at $100,000.

Another early morning fire in the washhouse and storage house of the Jacob Hoffman Brewing Company, in East Fifty-fifth Street, caused a loss estimated at $200,000.

DID NOT FIRE FIRST. Miners Deny They Shot at Militia at Danville.

Coal miners who were in the skirmish at Danville, Colo., when John Carley, one of the Cripple Creek miners, was killed by the militia, deny the published report that the miners were the first to fire. Neither were they entrenched behind rocks, waiting for the militia, according to their statements, but they appeared on the scene and fired immediately. They were fired upon. The men denied having fired a shot. They say it would have been easy for them to have annihilated the small squad of militiamen had they so desired.

Worry Over Their Families. Ten of the departed miners from Cripple Creek, Colo., left Holly for La Junta, Pueblo and Denver. The remainder are staying in town and are quiet and orderly. They are worrying over the welfare of their families who were left behind at Cripple Creek.

Chase Abandoned. A Greenwood Springs, Colo., dispatch announces that the chase for the two Denver and Rio Grande train robbers who escaped from the posse which surrounded them in Garfield canyon after shooting their companion several days ago, has been abandoned.

Nesterly started to draw a revolver, but Bundren got his rifle and shot him dead.

Snow in Colorado. A Leadville, Colo., dispatch says: Four inches of snow fell here Thursday.

Surrounded by Pack of Dogs. Surrounded by a pack of yelping curs a young man, believed to be the son of wealthy parents and a graduate of Peckard University of Virginia, has been found unconscious in the woods near Rushing, L. VERDICT IS SPECIFIC.

Coroner's Jury Blames Federation of Miners.

A Victor, Colo., dispatch states that investigation by the jury empaneled by Coroner Hall into the explosion at the Independence station Monday, when over twenty men were killed or injured, was concluded Friday.

Several witnesses testified as to the finding of the wire with which a revolver was discharged exploding the dynamite under the depot platform.

Arthur Board, a boy, told of finding a bull dog revolver near the scene of the crime.

A sensation was caused by C. C. Hathaway, a carpenter, who lives within 200 feet of where the explosion occurred. He said he hurried to the place. He met a man and asked him what was the matter, to which he received the reply, "Oh, nothing only a lot of 'scabs' gone to hell." At that instant witness in stepping over a gully fell directly onto one of the victims. He did not know who the man who had used the language was, as it was still dark, but later on heard him use about the same words to another person.

He inquired the man's name and was told that it was Joe Craig.

The coroner's verdict, in substance, follows: "That said persons came to their death by an explosion of dynamite or other explosives at the Florence and Cripple Creek depot at or near the town of Independence, Teller County, Colo., on the morning of June 6, 1904, about 6.30 a. m."

"We further find that said explosive was exploded by an infernal machine, purposely and artfully set and discharged by some persons to the jury unknown for the purpose of willfully, maliciously killing and murdering said persons and others; that said crime is one of similar crimes designed and committed in the Cripple Creek district during the past few months and perpetrated for the purpose of intimidating non-union miners and thereby preventing them from working, and said crimes are the result of a conspiracy entered into by certain members of the Western Federation of Miners, and incited and furthered by certain officers of the organization."

NOISELESS FOURTH DOOMED. Chicago Will Likely Have an Old-Fashioned Celebration.

The "rum show" Fourth of July seems destined to fail in Chicago. The noiseless, well regulated, disciplined Fourth is now but an iridescent dream.

The distribution of $10,000 worth of illuminated declarations of independence has been abandoned. There will be no free distribution of firecrackers, torpedoes and harmless pyrotechnics. It is likely that the whole scheme will be abandoned by the Chicago Amusement Association.

It is largely a matter of money. It is estimated $50,000 would pay the bill. Thus far nearly $7,000 has been subscribed, and of that sum nearly $2,500 has been expended for office help and for the work of promulgating the new idea.

COST OF STRIKE. Colorado's Loss Placed at Twenty-Two Millions.

The cost of the various strikes in Colorado during the past sixteen months, according to a Denver special, is estimated at $22,000,000. The state has paid $338,000 for maintaining troops in the field. The loss to the strikers and others directly affected in wages, etc., and to the employers is placed at $22,400,000.

A Cripple Creek, Colo., dispatch says: Excitement throughout the district is gradually subsiding. Work was resumed Friday at the mines employing non-union men, which had been closed since Monday.

The Portland mine remained closed by order of Gen. Bell, and its 500 employees will be compelled to abandon the union or leave the district.

NO DANGER OF GREAT FLOOD. Weather Forecaster Scouts Alarm-Ing Rumors in St. Louis.

Rumors that St. Louis, Mo., is threatened with a flood in the near future having become persistent and widespread, Edward H. B. Bowie, local forecaster of the United States weather bureau, has made a statement assuring the public that there was no foundation for such fears. He said in part: "Any prediction no matter what its source, of a great flood at St. Louis at some indefinite time this summer is absolutely without basis and unworthy of belief."

Knox-Made Senator. Gov. Bennypacker, of Pennsylvania, on Friday, appointed Philander C. Knox, attorney general of the United States, successor of the late Senator Quay. The governor also announced he will not call the legislature in extra session. This means the appointment of Knox is for the unexpired term ending March 4, 1905.

OPENING OF ROSEBUD.

Execution of Arrangements in Washington.

The general land office at Washington continues to perfect arrangements for the opening of the Rosebud country, and Thursday it was announced that plans for the use of soldiers and sailors forms for the purpose of employing an agent to make registration for them have been received from the government printing office and are now ready for distribution.

These forms may be obtained on application addressed to the commissioner of the general land office, Washington, D. C.

In this connection it may be well to warn veterans against allying advertisements. At least one of such character has been called to the attention of the land office officials and the attorney in question warned. What may be done by an ex-soldier or sailor in regard to the employment of an agent or attorney is thus set forth in the president's proclamation:

"Registration cannot be effected through the use of the mails or the employment of an agent, excepting that honorably discharged soldiers and sailors entitled to the benefits of section 2304 of the revised statutes of the United States, as amended by the act of congress approved March 1, 1901 (31 Stat. 847), may present their applications for registration and due proofs for their qualifications, having duly executed power of attorney, but no person will be permitted to act as agent for more than one soldier or sailor. No person will be permitted to register more than once, or in any other than his true name."

FIGHT WITH BANDITS. Sheriff's Posse Has an Encounter with Three Men.

A sheriff's posse has had an encounter nine miles southwest of Newcastle, Colo., with three men supposed to have been the train robbers who held up the Denver and Rio Grande passenger train near Parachute, Tuesday night. It is reported one of the bandits was killed and the other two surrounded.

A Denver special says: A posse under a deputy sheriff of Grand Junction followed the course of the river until it reached Rifle. There it discovered the trail of the robbers who held up a train on the Denver and Rio Grande, indications showing that they must have passed the point but a few hours before. It is believed that the bandits are heading for the "Hole in the Wall" country in Wyoming.

It is definitely learned that about $10 was secured in the holdup. This is accounted for by the fact that only small coin on low land has been damaged by high water.

DENNISON WINS OUT. Scores Point in Fight to Escape Extradition.

Judge Redick at Omaha, Thursday morning, handed down the decision of the court in the motion to quash the apprehension of Tom Dennison for a writ of habeas corpus.

The three judges were unanimous in the opinion that the testimony submitted to Gov. Mickey was not sufficient to warrant the removal of Dennison from the state. The motion was accordingly overruled.

Evidence will be received later on the question of fact as to whether Dennison was a fugitive from justice.

Dennison is accused of complicity in the Shercliffe diamond robbery, and was indicted at Logan, Iowa.

SHOT HER HUSBAND. Nearly Escaped from Jail.

A young fellow, who gives his name as Clyde, being charged with burglary at Spalding, who has been in jail at Gretna for a week or two, nearly escaped the other evening. He had burned a hole in the floor of his cell with a poker, tungeled under the foundation of the court house and made his exit to liberty. STATE OF NEBRASKA

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN A CONDENSED FORM.

Denison Fighting Hard—Trying to Prevent His Extradition to Iowa Battle Before Courts at Omaha.

An Omaha special says: The application of Tom Dennison, accused of complicity in the Shercliffe diamond robbery, for a writ of habeas corpus, issued by Gov. Mickey, came up for hearing before Judges Day, Troup and Redick Monday morning.

Albion Harry C. Bromie, who appeared with Elmer A. Thomas, opposing the application, supplied the time of the court until the noon recess with an argument to show the sufficiency of the requisition papers and objecting to the attempt of Dennison's attorneys to force the production of witnesses at Omaha.

He cited a number of authorities in support of his position, claiming that an application for a writ of habeas corpus was not the proper place to try the question of guilt or innocence.

C. J. Smyth appeared with W. J. Connell in support of Dennison's application.

Mr. Connell, on behalf of Dennison, took up the argument of the afternoon session. He quoted authority after authority to prove his contention that unless evidence be introduced to show that a person accused is a fugitive from justice he cannot legally be extradited into Iowa.

Mr. Connell's statement was frequently interrupted by interrogatories from the bench.

CROP OUTLOOK IN THE STATE. Corn Has Grown Slowly and Fields Are Becoming Weedy.

The Nebraska bulletin says: The past week has been cool and wet. The mean daily temperature has averaged 3 degrees below the normal. The rainfall has exceeded one inch in nearly all portions of the state, and exceeded two inches in the northern area in the central and northern counties.

The cool, moist weather has been very favorable for the growth of small grain and grass. Rye and winter wheat are heading. Oats and spring wheat have grown well and further improved in condition. Grain in forward condition is in unusually good condition. Alfalfa has made a rank growth in most counties and is ready to cut for the first time quite generally, but very little has been cut yet.

Corn has grown slowly and the fields are beginning to be weedy. Cultivation has been retarded by the wet condition of the soil, and the country crop on low land has been damaged by high water.

RIDE PROVES FATAL FOR BOY. Jumps from Moving Train and Skull Crushed.

Tuesday night a crash of Stuart went on a little diversion and boarded the blind baggage of the westbound passenger to go a couple of stations west, intending to return on the 2 a. m. train. Among them was Edwin Haskin, aged 13, son of J. N. Haskin. Returning home on the 2 a. m. train, he was crossing a siding four miles west of Newport, and at that juncture Haskin jumped from the train. He was hurled with such force that his skull was fractured and he died in a short time.

The supposition is that he mistook the sliding of the switch at Newport and jumped from the train just as it was being moved by the crew. An inquest was held at Newport and the verdict was that death was accidental.

INJURED IN A FIGHT.

Two Laborers at Stone Quarries Assault Fellow Workmen.

An affray at a boarding house at the stone quarries near Wynore promises to be fatal to one of the participants. Those engaged were all of them Bohemians. Wehm and Fraska were intoxicated and in this condition went to the boarding house, where they assaulted another laborer named Blaska, using a hammer and knives. Aside from being seriously beaten Blaska is stabbed in several places with knives. It is not thought possible he can recover.

After committing the assault Blaska and Fraska fled, taking refuge in some timber. Officers from Wynore were summoned and arrested the two, who are now confined in the Wynore jail.

Albert Brehm and Fred Flaska, who stabbed and beat a man named Blaska near the stone quarries at Wynore, Sunday night, were bound over to district court at the preliminary hearing at Wynore on a charge of assault with intent to kill, their bond being fixed at $1,000 each.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT. Two Boys Nearly Blinded by Enslaked Lame.

Clarence McKay, son of George McKay, merchant of North Platte, and Harry Hughes, son of Thomas Hughes, Alameda county, at Wynore, Sunday, at North Platte, two little boys 10 or 11 years of age, met with a painful and serious accident through which both of them may lose their eyesight.

The little fellows in their play got possession of some unslaked lime and placed it in a bucket and it fell into water in which it exploded, the contents of the bucket striking them in the face and eyes and bruising them in the most shocking manner. The McKay boy is the most seriously injured of the two, one of his eyes being totally ruined and the other eye in great danger. It is feared blindness will be the result to both of them.

Physicians were immediately summoned and prompt measures taken to relieve the intense pain of the little sufferers, but they are in a very precarious condition, as the accident is likely to leave them both blinded for life.

MEN ENGAGE IN FATAL DUEL. E. C. Lewis Resents with Bull-Attentions to His Wife by Another.

Lewis, who is a married man, had been absent from home for several weeks and during his absence young Sharp, it is said, paid undue attention to his wife.

On his return he went out to see Sharp. The two met on the road and the shooting followed.

Lewis shot twice, the first bullet going through Sharp's jaw. The second went through the body and lodged near the breastbone.

After the shooting both came to Kimball. Lewis was taken to the sheriff and Sharp was placed under the care of Dr. Mockett, who extracted the bullet. The chances for recovery are small.

Bishop Bonacum Continues His Legal Fight Against Priest. Attention to His Wife by Another.

On application of Bishop Bonacum the supreme court at Lincoln Thursday evening granted a rehearing in the long pending suit of the bishop against Rev. William Murphy, a priest at Seward.

The supreme court recently affirmed the decision of the district court giving Rev. Murphy possession of the parish property after his dismissal and ex-communication by the bishop.

The rehearing is granted on the allegation of Bishop Bonacum that the ruling of the district court is in opposition to the ecclesiastical rule at Rome.

Mrs. A. K. Lutz Hangs Herself at Stanton. Mrs. Andrew K. Lutz, aged 49 years, committed suicide at Stanton by hanging herself to a rafters in a corn crib.

Rarely have the streets of Humboldt presented so deserted an appearance as during the first few days of last week, the reason being that the exceptionally fine weather has caused a great many of the farmers to get into their fields and finish corn planting, which was delayed by the rains, and also to cultivate for the first time since the crops began to grow.

ONE WEEK OF WAR.

FIGHT IN WATER WAIST DEEP.

LITTLE NEWS HAS LATELY COME FROM THE FAR EAST.

Only Events Recorded During Week Are Unimportant Skirmishes—History in the War Dispatches, Has Given Place to Speculation.

During the last week there was little news from the far East, and in the next columns of the newspaper's history page way to speculation. The only events recorded were several skirmishes between the outposts of Kuraki's army, which is concentrated at Feng wangcheng, and Cossacks thrown forth by the Russians at Port Arthur. On the main, midway between Fengwangcheng and Liaoyang, the skirmishes were intended only to develop the position of the enemy, and signify nothing as is evident from the small number of casualties resulting from them. Other skirmishes occurred between Cossacks and the rear guard of Gen. Oku's army at Vangunguan, about forty miles north of Kichon on the railroad.

Later news of the storming of Kichon and Nanshan hill shows that the Japanese lost 4,300 men in that success. To lose 4,300 men in the taking of an outpost may seem at first to be magnificently through her war. However, the taking of the hill seems to have given the Japanese a clear road to the gates of Port Arthur, and to have enabled them to take Hainy and its harbor without a struggle. In view of these later events, the taking of Nanshan hill may turn out after all to have been as wise as it was courageous.

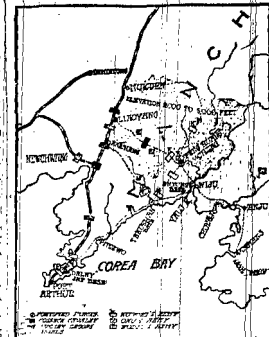

The two questions which are most thoroughly agitated by the prophets at present concern the Russian fleet in Port Arthur and Kuropatkin's reported attempt to raise a siege of that town.

If the Japs seem about to storm the due to Port Arthur for the Russian fleet make a run for it? The result of this run would be the destruction of the Russians, but also the severe crippling of the Japanese fleet, which would open the way for the Baltic squadron's appearance in central waters. If the Russian ships held in the harbor their fleet would be destroyed just the same, but no incident dawn.

BANDITS ROB TRAIN.

Denver and Rio Grande passenger train 5, west bound from Denver, was held up Tuesday night by five masked men armed with revolvers and shotguns. The train was stopped at a small fruit station between Grand Junction and Glenwood Springs. One scaled bag containing specie was taken from the express safe, which was dynamited. The express car was wrecked, but the robbers were forced to take to the mountains before they could gather up the valuables in the car.

THE THEATER OF WAR.

The Osaka men, from the right wing, while advancing through the water along the shore, encountered a body of Russians, also in the water. A fierce fight ensued, both sides being badly hurt in the process. When the Russians finally retreated the water was crimson. Both sides lost heavily.

JAPS RETURN TO TAKUSHAN.

Chinese Sea Army of 20,000 Does Not Join Gen. Kuroki. Chinese who have arrived at Chee Foo from Takushan say that the Japanese army of 20,000 men which landed at Takushan last month and proceeded to force Fengwangcheng, presumably to capture Gen. Kuroki, returned to Takushan.

SEARCHLIGHTS USED AT PORT ARTHUR.

The illustration shows the high-power searchlights in use at Port Arthur and the manner in which they are operated by the Russians. Each lamp is mounted on a stand specially constructed and is moved from place to place behind the batteries on a railway track. Storage batteries supply the electricity for the intense light, and the power of the lamps is so great that objects miles out at sea can be discerned by their aid.

What would be done by the Japanese. There is one consideration in this respect which must not be overlooked. It is expected that the big Russian guns have been removed from the ships and stationed in the land fortresses.

When Kuropatkin tries to relieve Port Arthur? If he does he must march down the railroad from his present position at Liaoyang and strike Oku in the rear. It is fair to suppose that Oku has fortified his rear, and his base is the sea. If Kuropatkin marches in any force southward from Liaoyang his left flank would be exposed to attack from the third Japanese army at Takushan, which is under command of Lieut. Gen. Nodan, while his rear would be open to a simultaneous attack from Gen. Kuroki, whose forces are now concentrated at Fengwangcheng. That is the situation as it stands up to Tuesday's dispatchers.

WORLD'S FAIR EXPENSES.

Cost of Seeding the Big Show for a Week Need Not Exceed $25. What will it cost to see the St. Louis fair? This is the question hundreds of thousands of people are asking. And there are as many answers as there are questioners. It will cost you as much or as little as you choose.

By careful economy and by making arrangements in advance, one should be able to see the fair on the most economical basis without trimmings—for $25. This does not include railroad fare, the like, the theaters, the purchase of souvenirs. It does include just this:

Room, six days at $1.50..... $9 00 Admission, six days..... 3 00 Breakfasts, six days at 25 cents..... 1 50 Luncheons, six days (on grounds)..... 4 50 At 75 cents..... 4 50 At 75 cents..... 4 50 Car fare to grounds, 10 cents a day 60 Total.....$23 10

By arranging in advance, a pleasant room may be secured for $1.50 or $2 per day. By good luck, this may include breakfast. Of course a breakfast at 25 cents will not be very elaborate. But it should consist of good coffee, good rolls and fruit.

RIO AT VICTOR.

Colorado Dynamite Outrage Followed by Fatal Battle.

The authorities at Victor, Colo., have arrested and are holding 250 union miners prisoner, as a result of the riots and clashes with the troops in the labor war. These men have been arrested throughout the district and taken to the military prison in order to save their jobs.

PASSENGER ON DENVER AND RIO GRANDE HELD UP.

Denver and Rio Grande passenger train 5, west bound from Denver, was held up Tuesday night by five masked men armed with revolvers and shotguns. The train was stopped at a small fruit station between Grand Junction and Glenwood Springs. One scaled bag containing specie was taken from the express safe, which was dynamited.

Members of the train crew were ordered to remain with the passenger coaches under threat of being shot. When the point selected for the dynamiting of the express car was reached the engineer and fireman were ordered down. One of the robbers covered the engineer with two revolvers while the remainder of the gang went to the express car. Messenger D. M. Shea refused to open the car and piled the baggage in front of the door. The robbers placed a stick of dynamite at the side door and it was blown away and half a dozen trunks piled up against it were demolished.

The large iron combination safe was the only one in the car. The robbers showed that they were familiar with conditions on the road, for they did not even ask the messenger to open the safe. This safe can be opened only in Denver or Salt Lake City. A stick of dynamite was placed against the lock of the safe. At this point brakeman Schellenbarger, who had been ordered to remain with the passenger coaches, two miles behind, came running up the track carrying a lantern. One of the robbers shot at him. He was wounded in the leg.

When the robbers saw the train crew coming they fled to the mountains. One of them, as he jumped from the express car, seized one sealed bag which had been blown out of the safe. This is the only plunder which was taken. The scene of the robbery is only 600 yards from the Grand river, and it is believed the robbers had a boat hidden in the Grand and used this to cross the river, destroying it after they had crossed.

A VICTIM OF MOONSHINERS.

Body of Missing Philadelphia Millionaire Found in the Mountains. The mystery surrounding the disappearance of the young Philadelphia millionaire, Edward L. Wentz, last October, was partially cleared up the other day, when his body was found in the mountains near Kellyville, Wise County, Virginia.

But for 75 cents one may obtain a simple meal, including a roast, coffee and a small dessert. An elaborate dinner in the high-grade restaurants will cost you as much as you wish to spend. By remaining six days, you can devote one-half day to each main building. Your guests may spend on the Pike, witnessing the illuminations or inspecting the State buildings.

This is the minimum one should expect to spend. There will be many things to tempt you to exceed the limit, and it will require great strength of mind to resist them. However, it is a fair basis upon which one can estimate what it will cost to see the fair.

By writing to the bureau of information, Louisiana Purchase Exposition, people can arrange for rooms or learn how it can be done.

SPOTTED FEVER'S RAVAGES.

Disease Has Caused 436 Deaths in 16 Weeks in New York. An alarming increase in the death rate from cerebro-spinal meningitis has caused concern in the New York department of health. Physicians in all parts of the city are combating the disease and urging the public to use vigilance in the diet and general health of their children.

During the past week last year there were 53 deaths from the malady. In the same period this year the board of health has recorded the deaths of 436 persons. Each week the percentage has steadily increased, ranging from seven deaths of March 12 to 34 last week last year. The outbreak is the worst since 1872.

While it is more common with infants it is readily communicated to adults. Indeed the figures show that many persons over 15 years of age have succumbed to the fever. When attacked by cerebro-spinal meningitis a child has little chance for its life. There are many cases on record where children and adults have survived, but in nearly every instance the child has been left with some permanent affliction, blindness, deafness and paralysis being the more common impediments which the dread disease has left behind.

Short News Notes. Terrell Thomas, local manager of a lumber company in Pasadena, Cal., killed his 8-year-old son, a paraplegic, by stabbing him in the back with a hunting knife. He then shot himself to death. Thomas is supposed to have become suddenly demented.

John N. Butler, the well-known Kansas prohibition agitator, died at his home in Topeka of cancer of the stomach. He had spent the past ten years trying to reform things in Kansas. He lectured on temperance and ran a temperance paper.

One-half of the $1,000,000 estate which Solomon T. Chandler of New Gloucester, Maine, originally willed to the American Board of Foreign Missions has been awarded by the Probate Court to his four nephews and his brother's widow, residents of New Gloucester.

Harry W. Kelley, a plumber at Work Point, Va., was killed by a falling log on a main line trolley car, which was a swiftly moving engine struck him in the back, tossing him outside the right of way and instantly killing him.

IF LIFE WERE ALL.

If life were all, Where were the recompense For all our tears? The troubled toil Of all the long drawn years, The struggle to survive The passing show Were scarce worth while. If life were all, What were it worth to live? To build on pain, So soon to learn, Our building were but vain, And then to pass, To some vague nothingness Were scarce worth while. If life were all, Life is not all, I do not know the plan, I only know that God is good And that his strength sustains. I only know that he is just, So in the starless, songless night I lift my face and trust, And God my spirit witness bears— Life is not all. —Los Angeles Herald.

ELVIRAH'S TREASURE.

THE good barque, Belle Brewster, was one hundred and twenty-seven days on the voyage between San Francisco and Boston. Captain Starbuck was much pleased with the readings of his log, but to Zenas Handy in the forecastle, the trip had seemed an interminable one. It had seemed so until Hatteras was sighted. Then the watches fairly flew, whether the wind blew fair or foul. Then his mind perceived the urgent necessity of furnishing some plausible reason for his return after twenty years of almost silent absence. Of course, there was the conventional and sentimental one of "seeing the old place again," but in his case it seemed hardly sufficient.

Had his return been actually whimsical, he might have been less embarrassed for an excuse. But dominated as he was by a motive, powerful enough to send him home before his mast, which motive must remain his absolute secret, at least for some time to come, he felt that he would not do to be ambiguous or mysterious. He had nothing to brag about, nothing to show for those many years of toil and adventure. Nothing but a scrap of a yarn overheard in the wild remoteness of Big Bluff Canon in the Duckwater Range.

How vividly the scene returned to him. The rude shanty with its rough bar and a table or two, the half-score of rougher men, miners now but likely enough for any job promising money, from poker to piracy. A wiry, gray-bearded man was speaking.

"Yes," he said, "just over yonder by the big boulder where that quiet pool is, Zeke Fuller cleared up twenty thousand in three weeks, and then lit out lively for Cape Cod, and by jinks a twelve-month later I met him in 'Prisco with a leg the leg he was part owner of. I wasn't worth an ounce, but he set 'em up several times and lent me a hundred for old time's sake. Said he had 'other half the swag buried in his cellar at home. Quaver over, 'Zeke Fuller. 'Lowed as he'd never trust no bank."

Zenas had nearly dropped his glass at the story. Captain Fuller had gone down in his new brig the "Two Nuggets" off Turks' Island, on his way back to New Bedford that first and only voyage of his beautiful vessel. Sarah had written him about it many years ago, but never a word had come to him of the finding of the buried gold, and his sister would surely have reported that to him, seeing that he had broken off a much approved match with Elvira Fuller, and run off to the Golden State—Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee. It is wild, mountainous land, rich in undeveloped coal and other minerals. Its mountain strongholds are peopled with squatters, who have lived there for generations and who have furnished the material for the iron and steel of the Hatfield-McCoy feud. This territory was owned by the Wentz family, and the sons a few years ago organized a company to develop the property. They built a mansion on the scene and went there from Philadelphia to live.

Early last October a big illicit distillery in the neighborhood was broken up. One of the revenue officers was killed and the leader of the moonshiners mortally wounded. The responsibility for the whole affair was placed upon the shoulders of Edward Wentz by the moonshiners. He was warned by friends that his life was in imminent danger.

Oct. 10 he rode out on a horseback, and that was the last seen of him until his body was found recently. The whole country roundabout was thoroughly searched, and the spot where the body was found was gone over again and again. Rewards aggregating $10,000 were offered for information concerning him.

Edward L. Wentz, with whom he was not on good terms. The body was found by a boy who was searching for a stray cow. The front teeth were missing. His revolver, from which three shots had been fired, and his eyeglasses were lying beside the body. What was supposed to be bullet holes were found in the coat and vest. There was a bullet wound about the heart, which was probably the cause of death.

His revolver, from which three shots had been fired, and his eyeglasses were lying beside the body. What was supposed to be bullet holes were found in the coat and vest. There was a bullet wound about the heart, which was probably the cause of death.

The vast property on which the scene of the tragedy is laid covers several counties and extends in part over the borders of four States—Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee. It is wild, mountainous land, rich in undeveloped coal and other minerals. Its mountain strongholds are peopled with squatters, who have lived there for generations and who have furnished the material for the iron and steel of the Hatfield-McCoy feud. This territory was owned by the Wentz family, and the sons a few years ago organized a company to develop the property. They built a mansion on the scene and went there from Philadelphia to live.

Early last October a big illicit distillery in the neighborhood was broken up. One of the revenue officers was killed and the leader of the moonshiners mortally wounded. The responsibility for the whole affair was placed upon the shoulders of Edward Wentz by the moonshiners. He was warned by friends that his life was in imminent danger.

Oct. 10 he rode out on a horseback, and that was the last seen of him until his body was found recently. The whole country roundabout was thoroughly searched, and the spot where the body was found was gone over again and again. Rewards aggregating $10,000 were offered for information concerning him.

Edward L. Wentz, with whom he was not on good terms. The body was found by a boy who was searching for a stray cow. The front teeth were missing. His revolver, from which three shots had been fired, and his eyeglasses were lying beside the body. What was supposed to be bullet holes were found in the coat and vest. IF LIFE WERE ALL.

If life were all, Where were the recompense For all our tears? The troubled toil Of all the long drawn years, The struggle to survive The passing show Were scarce worth while. If life were all, What were it worth to live? To build on pain, So soon to learn, Our building were but vain, And then to pass, To some vague nothingness Were scarce worth while. If life were all, Life is not all, I do not know the plan, I only know that God is good And that his strength sustains. I only know that he is just, So in the starless, songless night I lift my face and trust, And God my spirit witness bears— Life is not all. —Los Angeles Herald.

ELVIRAH'S TREASURE.

THE good barque, Belle Brewster, was one hundred and twenty-seven days on the voyage between San Francisco and Boston. Captain Starbuck was much pleased with the readings of his log, but to Zenas Handy in the forecastle, the trip had seemed an interminable one. It had seemed so until Hatteras was sighted. Then the watches fairly flew, whether the wind blew fair or foul. Then his mind perceived the urgent necessity of furnishing some plausible reason for his return after twenty years of almost silent absence. Of course, there was the conventional and sentimental one of "seeing the old place again," but in his case it seemed hardly sufficient.

Had his return been actually whimsical, he might have been less embarrassed for an excuse. But dominated as he was by a motive, powerful enough to send him home before his mast, which motive must remain his absolute secret, at least for some time to come, he felt that he would not do to be ambiguous or mysterious. He had nothing to brag about, nothing to show for those many years of toil and adventure. Nothing but a scrap of a yarn overheard in the wild remoteness of Big Bluff Canon in the Duckwater Range.

How vividly the scene returned to him. The rude shanty with its rough bar and a table or two, the half-score of rougher men, miners now but likely enough for any job promising money, from poker to piracy. A wiry, gray-bearded man was speaking.

"Yes," he said, "just over yonder by the big boulder where that quiet pool is, Zeke Fuller cleared up twenty thousand in three weeks, and then lit out lively for Cape Cod, and by jinks a twelve-month later I met him in 'Prisco with a leg the leg he was part owner of. I wasn't worth an ounce, but he set 'em up several times and lent me a hundred for old time's sake. Said he had 'other half the swag buried in his cellar at home. Quaver over, 'Zeke Fuller. 'Lowed as he'd never trust no bank."

Zenas had nearly dropped his glass at the story. Captain Fuller had gone down in his new brig the "Two Nuggets" off Turks' Island, on his way back to New Bedford that first

SCACE VS. WAYNE COUNTY.

Following is the supreme court's opinion in the case of Scace vs. Wayne county, as reported in the Omaha Mercury:

"The provisions of Sec. 21, Art. 1 of the Constitution, allow a person whose property has been taken for a highway not only the fair market value of the land actually taken, but also such additional damages as accrue to the remainder of the tract by reason of the opening of the road.

2. Where a highway is laid out by which a tract of land is divided into two parts the depreciation in value if any of the entire tract, after deducting any special benefits which may accrue by reason of the opening of the road, is a proper element of damage.

3. The rights of the owner of land over which a section line extends are the same with reference to the assessment of damages for the location of a highway thereon as those of the owners of other real estate. The statute making all section lines public roads merely disposes with the necessity of a petition and other formal proceedings before the county board is authorized to open the road.
