THE NATAL DAY

Ideal Weather for Independence Day.

NO CELEBRATION AT WAYNE

Carroll, Winslow, Wisner and Randolph attract Wayneites who observe the Day Away From Home. Reports indicate that Celebrations Were Generally Successful and Met Highest Expectations.

Ideal weather—neither too warm nor too cold, but exactly right—favored mankind on the Fourth. There was no celebration in Wayne aside from numerous picnic dinners participated in by those who did not join in the crowds of neighboring towns. The noise of firecrackers and other explosives was heard from daylight until late at night. While there was no united effort at a display of fireworks in the evening, families in different parts of the city illuminated the sky with rockets and Roman candles. A picnic under the auspices of the Baptist church, was given in Crawford's grove and attracted a large crowd, all enjoying the day.

The ladies of the Monday Club and their husbands had a pleasant lawn party at the residence of A. L. Tucker. Carroll, Winslow, Wisner and Randolph attracted most of the Wayneites who celebrated away from home. From each place come reports of big crowds, patriotic speeches, inspiring music, firecrackers and fireworks galore and a good time generally.

With perfect weather, there was nothing to hinder a day of recreation and joy. It is hoped next year Wayne will have an immense celebration and invite the participation of its neighbors.

IN THE VICINITY.

The Agricultural society of Burt county has decided to not have a fair this year.

The lodge of Woodmen at Wakefield is preparing to have a big picnic August 28 and 29.

A. F. Eimos, editor of the Stanton Picket, fell from a stepladder last week and badly sprained his feet.

Lyons is to have a gas plant, ready for operation August 1. The work of laying two miles of pipe is in progress.

Pender has adopted a curfew ordinance which will keep children off the streets after 9 o'clock in summer and 8 o'clock in winter.

The first special train that ran from Omaha to Bonesteel Tuesday ran over and killed Johnnie De Trand who was sleeping on the track at Winnetoon.

St. Elmo is the name of a promising new town in the Rosebud country. There isn't a building on the site now, but a town of 2,000 is expected to spring into existence in a few days when it starts.

E. B. Young of Wayne, a missionary for the American Sunday School Union, whose field is twelve counties in north-eastern Nebraska, was in Emerson Monday. Mr. Young recently organized a Sunday school in the Wheeler school house south of town.—Emerson Enterprise.

Prof. and Mrs. Mason returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks in Wayne and Sioux City. Mr. Mason is traveling for Heath & Co. selling school books in cities in North Nebraska and is kept busy all of the time. Mrs. Mason will remain in Stanton the rest of the summer.—Stanton Register.

The Norfolk News reports that during the sham battle at Wisner yesterday a man had his hand badly shattered by the premature explosion of a gun. A bursting cannon cracker struck a young boy squarely in the eyes and the result is that his eyesight will be seriously affected, if he is not blind the rest of his life.

It seldom happens that a season is a good one for both corn and small grain. A good corn year generally brings light grain and a good grain year brings light corn. Go back in your years of experience and see if this rule does not usually come true. An exceptional year merely proves the rule. At present oats and barley are looking tip top. In many fields east of town we notice considerable mustards, a pest that farmers will try to get rid of by careful

Dr. Blair's New Office—Enough 4th of July Accidents, but Not So Numerous as Usual—Prof. J. M. Pile Gives an Able Lecture—Methodist Conference in September—Fortune Telling Gypsies in Town.

A daughter weighing eight pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Phillo last Sunday.

Newspaper forces generally took a day off to celebrate the Fourth and thus more than one paper will have difficulty in reaching the usual standard this week. The HERALD is no exception.

A bevy of gypsies blew into Wayne last Friday and tried to work the town by means of fortune-telling. But they didn't stay long, evidently finding their line of business dull here.

Rev. Thos. J. Wright has commenced arrangements for the Methodist conference to be held in Wayne beginning September 14. It is expected that 200 visitors will be in attendance. The local pastor has planned an excellent program.

Geo. Kruger, who lives seven miles northeast of town, was in Wayne Tuesday to see about material for a barn which he expects to build for Fred Bober. Mr. Kruger reports that the hail did some damage to growing corn at his place and vicinity last week.

We are requested to announce that Rev. Van Dyke Wight of Hastings will be in Wayne next Sunday to preach at the Presbyterian church both morning and evening. He has not as yet given an answer to the call to become pastor of the church here, but it is believed he will accept it.

Prof. J. M. Pile gave an excellent lecture for the benefit of the public library Thursday night. His discourse was instructive and delivered in his characteristic, entertaining style. The library management netted $18. The lecture by Judge Norris will not be given next week on account of the carnival, but is promised for the week later.

A. L. Houser of this place had a pocketbook containing some notes stolen from his pocket while getting off the train at Winnetoon Monday. He was jostled about by three strangers, but did not suspect being the victim of theft until later when he discovered his loss. The thieves were not apprehended, though he believes he could identify at least one of them on sight. There was no money in his pocketbook, but three notes for $18.00, $15 and $7.

Accounts of Fourth of July accidents formed a part of the newspaper reports Tuesday morning, though there were not so many as usual, due no doubt to the restrictions ordered by municipal authorities on the use of cannon firecrackers. Among accidents reported was one at Norfolk where an unexpected explosion of a can of powder struck two boys in the face, being the sons of John Gildea and Rev. G. E. Oakes. The Gildea boy will lose both eyes.

Prof. Joseph Gahn, pianist, and Hans Albert, violinist, merited a much larger audience than that which greeted them at the M. E. church Tuesday evening. Their productions were thrilling and rendered perfectly and they showed themselves absolute masters of their instruments. Miss Hattie Weber, a local musician of much attainment and great promise, sang one selection with piano accompaniment by Prof. Gahn and being one of his former students, accustomed to his playing, she was able to acquit herself exceptionally well. The entertainment throughout was thoroughly enjoyed, and it is regretted that the attendance was not larger.

Dr. Blair's stylish and commodious new office building, situated across the street from and south of the Baptist church, is nearing completion and will soon be fitted for occupancy. He expects to be settled in his new quarters within a couple of weeks and ready to receive the public there. He has an office built for the convenience and comfort of himself and patients and to facilitate and perfect his work. There are five apartments—reception room, operating room, drug room and two small rooms. A cistern connects with one of the rooms for use in preparing drugs. The building is very neat as well as being up-to-date in all other respects.

LOOTS AURORA BANK.

CASHIER JACOB H. PLAIN ADMITS TAKING $90,000.

German-American National Institution of Aurora, Ill., Victim of Embezzlement of Truusted Employee—Money Lost in Speculation.

Ninety thousand dollars has been embezzled from the German-American National Bank, Aurora, Ill., and Jacob H. Plain, cashier, has confessed with...

Notice of the embezzlement posted on the bank door at first was not believed. Plain's reputation induced bank patrons to consider the notice a joke.

Thirty thousand dollars of the total embezzlement by Plain has been made up by John Plain his father, and M. E. Plain, his brother. Eight thousand dollars has been turned over by the defaulter himself.

"Yes, I took the money. If I were to live my life over again I would spend speculation as I would here. I was ruined as thousands of others have been ruined, without an evil thought in the world."

This is part of Plain's confession after he had been arrested. First suspicion of the embezzlement was aroused five weeks ago, although for three years Plain by a system of recording fictitious notes that had been paid but not destroyed, by inducing by depositors and by manipulating by adding amounts in the bi-monthly examination of his accounts had been systematically robbing the bank.

He was under $10,000 bond and is the son of the bank's president. Since May 24, when the defalcation was discovered, bank officials have been busy straightening out the accounts. That day Examiner C. B. Deworth visited the bank. After footing up a column of figures Mr. Deworth turned to Plain and said: "Jacob, there's something wrong here."

Plain, pretending first not to understand, finally admitted the crookedness.

"There's $30,000 short here, and maybe more," said Plain. Then he showed where $22,025 more was missing. Finally by his own directions it was figured out that he was $90,025 short. Directors held a hurried meeting at which the father of the cashier begged that his son be spared disgrace.

M. E. Plain, another son, was made cashier. Later it was found that it would be impossible to avoid publicity. President Plain said he was willing that a public statement should be made.

Amputation to become a "landed proprietor" in Colorado was the aim of Plain's speculation. "Everything went wrong," he said. Plain, who is 45 years old, declared he never gambled at cards or bet on horse races, except when his wife did. The first money he took was to pay for land at Greeley, Col. Three years ago his speculations began. He lost $10,000 in a corn deal. This was followed by a loss of $18,000 in the Northern Pacific corner. Speculation in United States Steel stock, he said, was his final undoing. "Steel looked like a good thing," he said. "I bought it at 40. It went down to 31. I guess I lost $30,000 there."

An ex-captain in the Illinois National Guard from 1893 to 1898 Plain served on the staff of Gen. Andrew Welsh of the Third Brigade.

Hugh McLaughlin, Brooklyn's veteran politician, has collected 1,024,000 stamps. President Woodrow Wilson has written a letter of appreciation to the "Handbook of Princeton."

WHERE THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION WILL MEET

EXPOSITION BUILDING AND COLISEUM AT ST. LOUIS.

The seating capacity of the St. Louis Coliseum for the Democratic National Convention has been fixed at 10,840, which includes delegates, alternates, representatives of the press, invited guests, officials of the convention and the general public, who will be admitted by ticket.

The arena floor will be so arranged that the delegates, in number 550, will be seated directly in front of the platform. Behind them will be the 500 alternates. The more prominent guests and the party leaders will have seats on the platform, where there will be plans for 424. The boxes will seat 424. The general tickets of admission will be for the balcony and the gallery.

Each member of the National Committee will have at his disposal one box and ten general admission tickets. Each delegate will have his own ticket of admission and three general tickets in addition. Each alternate will have one ticket. Provision will be made for 352 working newspaper men, 350 additional newspaper men.

Each Great National Party Assembly Makes Its Own Rules. Each national party convention makes its own rules of procedure. Practically one convention expresses no control over the succeeding ones. Yet present efforts every convention to a large extent.

The Republican convention of 1876 abandoned the practice by permitting a minority of the delegates from one State to vote against the candidate preferred by the majority. The convention of 1880 formally adopted a rule that if there were any exception taken to the announcement of the vote of any State the roll of delegates from that State should be called and the result thus obtained should be recorded. This rule was unsuccessfully opposed by the New York delegates who favored Gen. Grant, and declared that the anti-Grant delegates from New York should not be allowed to vote their sentiments.

The Tammany opponents of Cleveland in the New York delegation to the Democratic convention of 1884 tried to prevent the adoption of a rule which would permit them to vote as individuals instead of in a unit, but failed, and the unit rule still prevails in the Democratic convention.

The Democrats have another rule, dating from 1832, which has stood the attacks of its opponents for seventy-two years. It provides that the vote of two-thirds of the delegates shall be necessary to nominate. In the Republican convention a majority suffices. The opponents of the nomination of Martin Van Buren insisted on the adoption of the "two-thirds rule" in 1844, and although Van Buren had a majority on the first ballot, he could not obtain the necessary two-thirds. James K. Polk, the first "dark horse," was sprung on the convention in accordance with a prearranged plan, and was nominated in a stampede.

Tuesday after the first Monday in November was fixed as the date for the election by appointment of presidential electors by act of Congress in 1845, and the law took effect for the first time in 1848. Prior to that time each State fixed its own date for the election of electors. The framers of the constitution did not contemplate the selection of presidential electors by popular vote. In the early part of the last century many States chose electors by the Legislature. South Carolina continued that practice until 1820.

After all, the best hot-weather advice is to keep cool. Clear the lecture platform for action. President is free.

Perhaps after they try to get out the Russian commanders with that the Japanese had succeeded in sealing up the entrance to Port Arthur.

Gambler's luck has been abolished in Chicago, but the Mayor certainly is in charge of such a thing as arresting the Republican convention for standing still.

One knowing their cost would suppose that the Russians would think too much of their battleships to take them out where they could get at them.

"Paralitic slave or Retailer dead" appears to have done the business. There is no use temporizing with outlaws provided you have the power to bring them up with a short fuse.

Women are still in the defense of Port Arthur. Doubtless they stick their heads cautiously over the breastworks and call the Japanese mean old things. This should help some.

The judge who recently sentenced a man to a year's imprisonment for stealing a quart of whisky would have made a successful St. Louis hotelkeeper. It seems to be a pretty stiff price for it.

RUSH TO THE ROSEBUD

THOUSANDS OF LAND-SEEKERS CAMPED AT BONESTEEL.

Town Crows from One Store to a City of Thousands—Grand Rents Are Enormous—Gambling of All Kinds in Full Blast.

Bonesteel (S. D.) correspondent: There was a time when all roads led to Rome. It is changed now, and they all lead to Bonesteel. And from the looks of this town, the very newest of the entire great West, every one has taken to the road that leads, by the way of Bonesteel, to the Rosebud Indian country, which has been thrown open for settlement.

Miles and miles before the trains, which are crowded to their utmost capacity, come within sight of the town, the would be settlers on horseback, in wagons, and some even on foot, may be seen wending their way along the old Indian trail which, in later years, was made into a government road, bent on reaching Bonesteel.

In the town proper hundreds of these seekers after Rosebud lands are camped in tents and wagons, while still others are gathered in the dozens of frail rooming houses which have been hastily thrown together. Two years ago Bonesteel consisted of one lonely country store. Two months ago it was a thriving town of 1,000, with a number of good, substantial buildings. To-day it is a city of thousands, most of whom are living in tents.

Saloons there are and gambling dens galore. Never in the palmy days of Deadwood was gambling more rife than in Bonesteel. About every game ever invented can be found in one or more of the many public resorts. There are fifty policemen, ten of whom are

United States marshals. In addition, there are three companies of United States troops from Fort Niobrara, who assist in preserving order.

Grand Rents Enormous. Grand rents are something awful in this town. James Coyle owns a small lot on Main street. Three weeks ago he valued the lot at $2,000. Six months ago it was worth probably $100. To-day Coyle asks $3,200 for the ground rent for the next sixty days, any building erected to remain on the lot when it is returned to him. And he will get his price, too.

A five-room residence is rented for the next two months at $150 a month. A small space, 6x12 feet, between two stories is rented for $70 per month. Dave Forbes rented a corner lot for $300 and erected a $150 building thereon. He is now offered $500 for his bargain.

According to several professional locators Oklahoma will probably furnish more would be homesteaders than any State in the Union. Michigan and Wisconsin come next, while Iowa and Illinois will also be heavily represented. Minnesota and Nebraska will send large quotas, and numerous inquiries have been received from Kansas. In fact, these states which were settled by homesteaders originally, are sending their young sons and daughters to settle the Rosebud country. They know that the trees found for the older states, and will repeat the operations of the law old here.

Of the far Eastern States Massachusetts probably leads, with both New York and Pennsylvania as close seconds. A large number of women school teachers are coming from New England States, having arranged to take in Bonesteel and the St. Louis exposition on their vacations. Those who are successful in drawing desirable claims will probably never return to their old homes except on visits.

Charles Genant of Forest City, Mo., a harnessmaker, was drowned while attempting to swim across the Tarkio. He tied a pig to his body and it caught on to some driftwood.

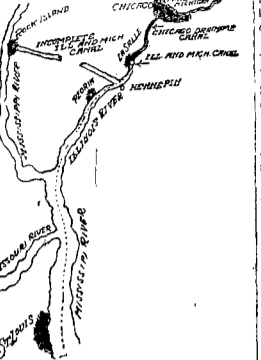

An unknown man was killed by the west-bound Missouri Pacific train at Clinton, Mo., on Monday. The body bore no marks of identification, and was removed from the track.

MAY DIG 14-FOOT CHANNEL

FROM ST. LOUIS TO CHICAGO.

A 14-foot waterway, connecting St. Louis and Chicago, to permit passage of heavy-draft lake vessels, is projected by the United States government by utilizing the Mississippi and Illinois rivers and the Chicago drainage canal. Surveys have been made and maps drafted by the corps of engineers located at St. Louis and Chicago, and the reports of the surveys are about to be forwarded to Washington. The surveys are for a 14-foot channel, which will allow the large lake grain and ore wharves to reach St. Louis, as well as some of the passenger steamers. The average draft of the lake boats is twelve feet. In the projected route the Mississippi is utilized to the mouth of the Illinois river. The channel continues up the Illinois to a point above La Salle where it runs into the old Illinois and Michigan canal, which is completed and in operation from Hennepin to a point near Chi-

ROUTE OF PROJECTED WATERWAY.

When the assistant district attorney moved that warrants be issued after the verdict had been given by Mr. McManus, counsel for the steamboat company, protested that such proceeding was unnecessary, as all the men were ready to appear and give bail when called for. The protest was of no avail.

The mate, Edward Flanagan, and Inspector Lundberg pleaded not guilty and were held on $1,000 bonds. Lundberg gave bail and was released. Bail was fixed at $5,000 each for President Barnaby and Secretary Atkinson and bonds were furnished at once. Capt. Van Schick is a prisoner in the Lebanon hospital.

That over 1,000 persons perished in the burning of the excursion steamer General Slocum is now certain. According to an exhaustive report made by Police Inspector Schmittberger, on the number of dead, missing, injured and uninjured in the disaster, it appears that 108 bodies have been recovered and that 33 persons absolutely known to have been aboard the vessel are still unaccounted for, bringing the total mortality of the disaster up to 1,031. Those injured numbering 179 and of the throng of fully 1,500 who embarked on the excursion of St. Mary's Church, but 230 escaped, were taken to the St. Louis hospital as a result of a minute inquiry made by a corps of 100 patrolmen under the direction of the inspector. In the course of the inquiry much valuable information was secured from survivors which will be used in the investigation by District Attorney to fix the responsibility for the disaster. A thorough examination of the hull by Coroner O'Grady and Berry and Inspector Albertson resulted in the discovery in the locker in which the fire started of a number of barrels which had contained kerosene and lubricating oil.

The investigation prosecuted by the coroner seems to make it clear that the Slocum had been nothing better than a death trap for years. The steamboat company admitted that since 1895 not a single new life preserver had been purchased for the Slocum. Gen. Dumont, head of the United States steamboat inspection service (the harbor of New York, asserts that the life of the average good life preserver is six years. President Barnaby was accused of bad faith and of trying to deceive the coroner's jury as to the life preservers by his false statements about the Slocum. Dumont, Capt. John A. Prase, supervising captain of the company who put the boat into commission, bluntly admitted that it was impossible to purchase a proper fire heat for 10 cents a foot. That was the price of the cutaway fire hose that was in use on the Slocum. All testimony went to show clearly that some of the officers or members of the crew of the Slocum had made the least effort to save lives on the day of the disaster. It was shown also that the only member of the crew to drown, Michael McGann, the steward, had put on one of the worthless life preservers.

MANY TEACHERS MEET. National Association Opens Forty-Third Convention at St. Louis. The forty-third annual convention of the National Educational Association formally convened Tuesday at the world's fair grounds in St. Louis when the first of the general sessions was held in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf Hotel. Later the sessions of the different educational departments were convened in various halls throughout the grounds, the whole constituting the general convention of the association.

It is only a question of a short time until practically all of the orthodox Jews will be Zionists, said Mr. Cowen. "All the Jews are in favor of the movement, but certain of them want to get the land by prayer, by some miracle, while we believe in a practical method. The one objection to becoming a Zionist—that we are not patriotic to the country in which we live—is fast fading away. We are loyal to our respective governments, but we want to establish a home state without any army or navy or any other defense except our good will for all nations."

JURY FIXES BLAME

SLOCUM OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS HELD.

Those Criminally Responsible Have Been Placed Under Arrest—Action of Mate Flanagan Stayed Cowardly and Inspector Cited for Federal Inquiry.

After a full investigation the New York coroner's jury found a verdict holding every person directly concerned in the Gen. Slocum disaster criminally responsible for the loss of the lives of the excursionists who perished on June 15.

Those directly blamed by the jury were Frank A. Barnaby, president of the Knickerbocker Steamboat Company; K. Atkinson, secretary of the company; all of the directors, Capt. William H. Van Schick, Mate Edward Flanagan, and Henry Lundberg, assistant United States steamboat inspector, who approved the fire fighting apparatus of the boat before it was placed in commission in May.

Flanagan was denounced for cowardice and for failure to perform his duty. Lundberg was held to have been incompetent, careless and indifferent. The jury found that the existing system of steamboat inspection is inefficient and recommended a radical change by the Department of Commerce and Labor.

Coroner Berry issued warrants for the arrest of the directors and officials of the Knickerbocker Steamboat Company. Inspector Lundberg and Mate Flanagan have been held in $1,000 bail each.

The charge in each case was manslaughter in the second degree. Bail was fixed by the coroner in amounts varying from $1,000 to $5,000.

The directors of the company are Frank A. Barnaby, president; Charles E. Hill, vice president; James K. Atkinson, secretary, and C. De Lacy Evans, Robert K. Story, Floyd S. Corbin and Frank G. Decker.

When the assistant district attorney moved that warrants be issued after the verdict had been given by Mr. McManus, counsel for the steamboat company, protested that such proceeding was unnecessary, as all the men were ready to appear and give bail when called for. The protest was of no avail.

The mate, Edward Flanagan, and Inspector Lundberg pleaded not guilty and were held on $1,000 bonds. Lundberg gave bail and was released. ### THE WAYNE HERALD.

Official paper of Wayne and Wayne county published every Thursday.

W. HUSE & SON, Editors.

Subscription, $1.00 a Year in Advance.

As the popular idol of democracy, W. J. Bryan has stamped.

Hon. John M. Thurston, former United States senator from Nebraska, has been accorded the honor of making the opening speech of the republican campaign in New York.

J. Pierpont Morgan is reported to have had a hand in pushing the presidential boom of Judge Parker in the interest of combinations of capital. Morgan wants to defeat Roosevelt, but he will find that he has undertaken a huge task.

The democratic circus is on at St. Louis this week and at this writing it looks as though Parker of New York would win the presidential nomination notwithstanding the open and bitter opposition given him by Bryan. The latter's influence outside of Nebraska seems to have shrunk a great deal in the last four years, and he and his followers find themselves in about the same woeful predicament of the gold-standard democratic minority in 1896 and 1900.

Thomas P. Watson, of Georgia, was made the presidential nominee of the populist national convention at Springfield this week. Thos. H. Tibbles, of Nebraska, was chosen for vice-president. Their acceptance and the continuance of an independent ticket in the field will depend on the action of the democratic convention at St. Louis. If that aggregation should nominate men and adopt a platform satisfactory to the populists, as now seems wholly improbable, the populist nominees would likely get out of the way and promote fusion.

HOSKINS.

J. F. Crosby went to Bloomfield Saturday, returning yesterday morning.

E. F. Fenner and family spent the Fourth at Neligh with a brother of Mrs. Fenner.

About sixty of our townspeople spent the Fourth at Winside and report a good time.

Several new sidewalks are being built this week which add greatly to the appearance of our village.

Miss Edith Estabrook returned to her home at Norfolk Tuesday evening after a week's visit with friends here.

Miss Frances Crosby of Packwaukee, Wis., arrived last evening and will free every afternoon and night during the carnival turning double somersaults and making fearful leaps from bar to bar, descending through the air head foremost, bridging space with their dangling bodies and many other death inviting feats. No one can determine the fine distinction of time, force and distance taken by these artists in their headlong plunges, piroettes, somersaults and intricate evolutions from one bar to another or into the outstretched arms of each other. A splendid new, big aerial display, and among all of the noted European grapple performers who have visited our village, this great troupe of aerialists stands supreme. The most astounding, the most finished and the greatest; no other amusement enterprise on the face of the earth can produce the equal of these daring performers. Don't miss this free and free attraction at Wayne, July 12 to 16 inclusive.

FROM WINSIDE.

Dr. S. J. Scroggs and wife departed Saturday for their future home in southern Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Berry and children of Sioux City, were guests of the P. S. Tracy home over Sunday and the Fourth.

Herbert Loud who will soon finish his commercial course in college at Omaha, spent the Fourth with relatives and friends in Winside.

The celebration in Winside on the Fourth was attended by a large crowd and the program was carried out successfully and to the pleasure of all. The first attraction was the parade headed by the Wayne band. Several business houses were represented in the procession by interesting displays. The Daniel band discoursed music in the park. After the parade the crowd assembled in the park where patriotic songs were sung and an able address was delivered by Hon. O. A. Irwin of Sioux City. After dinner, base ball, basket ball and foot races attracted attention, and in the evening there was a grand display of fireworks, in which was a vivid representation of the capture of Fort Arthur. Altogether the day passed off most enjoyably.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred McVey yesterday.

Nellie Baker improves slowly but is still quite sick.

F. W. Schroeder's baby has been quite sick, but is better at this time.

Rev. E. M. Eason D. D. of Norfolk was in Carroll last Monday night on business.

Joe Jones has resigned as mail carrier and accepted a position with the Peavy Elevator Co.

Orin McKay and wife of Bloomfield were among those from a distance who celebrated in Carroll.

Miss Olive and Sarah Hardy of Effingham visited here. Mrs. C. S. Hughes over the Fourth.

The glorious Fourth has come and gone and was daily celebrated in

Carroll. A more ideal day for the weather, man's standpoint could not be desired. It was neither too hot, nor too cold for comfort, and it just managed to squeeze in between two showers in such a way that no one was kept away because of rain. The program was of the usual variety, and was executed to the letter. The day's sports were begun with a ball game between the Welch settlement and Beiden which resulted in a score of 12 to 13 in favor of the Welch boys. Then followed the musical and literary program at the bowerly which was well rendered in every particular. E. R. Lundberg was chairman and did his work well. A triple quartette and the Carroll band furnished plenty of excellent music. Hon. E. K. Gurney of Fremont was the orator of the day. Mr. Gurney was already popular in Carroll but added greatly to his popularity by his splendid address. He took on the form of a free for all scrap with honor about equally divided among the umpire, both teams and the crowd. After several rounds of sparring Dixon concluded they were getting the worst of it and withdrew from the field, the game going to Carroll by a score of 10 to 8 in favor of the Welch boys. The next event of the day was the horse race; three horses were entered; Will Yaxson won first money and Ed Jones second. Foot races of various classes next engaged the attention of the crowd after which the band gave concert for an hour from 8:30 to 7:30. In the evening some amused themselves watching the display of fireworks, while others "tripped the light fantastic toe" at the A. O. U. W. hall. On the whole the day passed very pleasantly. Large crowds were present, among them a good delegation from Wayne.

NOT A PATENT MEDICINE.

Hymel, the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure, Prescribed by Physicians.

No one should confound Hymel with patent medicines that are advertised to cure catarrh. It is as far superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass. Their composition is secret, but Hymel gives its formula to all reputable physicians. It is not foolish to try and cure catarrh by swallowing tablets or liquids? The only natural way to cure this disease and all other diseases of the respiratory organs is to breathe Hymel. This treatment has been so successful, curing 99 per cent of all who have used it, that Hymel is now sold by E. J. Raymond under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. You run no risk whatever in buying Hymel. If it does not possess unusual powers to cure, it could not be sold upon this plan.

PREVENTS HAY FEVER.

All who are subject to hay fever or rose colds should use Hymel daily for two or three weeks before the time of their annual attack and thus prevent it. The worst cases are quickly relieved and cured by Hymel and Hymel Balm.

REMARKABLE CURES BY DR. CALDWELL

Help for Sick, Particularly for Those Who Do Not Delay.

Often a Few Weeks of Neglect Allows Disease to Reach a State Where They Can Not be Cured.

Dr. Caldwell heals not by Osteopathy, by Hypnotism, nor by Divine healing, but by a system of natural science in combination with the most true and reliable remedies of the age. She is a woman that cures the sick because she understands the nature, cause and the condition of circumstances which bring disease about. Her discoveries are those made from personal experience and your opinions to be influenced by other who are not interested. One does not know how to appreciate health until they have lost it.

Dr. Caldwell has studied her profession both at home and abroad, and after a thorough and painstaking investigation, has succeeded in curing the diseases of her specialty when other physicians had failed. Why not? Some of these people were blind, some were deaf, some were lame, some paralytic, scarcely able to move, others afflicted with Bright's disease, heart disease, consumption, cancer, others with kidney troubles, dyspepsia, insomnia and the thousand and one symptoms of those dreadful maladies. It is claimed by her friends that she can tell the disease of a patient without asking him a question. This is perhaps true, for since she is so learned in her profession and so experienced in treating diseases, why shouldn't she know the exact cause and true reasons of symptoms which produce disease? For years she has been visiting professionally the largest cities of the United States. Her opinions are quickly made, and if a cure can be made then and there she tells them, and if it cannot be made she is equally honest and tells them so. We know that she has cured thousands of cases of disease. We doubt if there is one hundredth of one per cent of the cases that she treats that she fails to cure. We publish by permission the names of a few of her recent cures:

Mrs. Stone, Akron, Neb., cured of consumption and nervous troubles. The treatment she took improved her so much, and she was cured of all her ailments.

O. A. Lundeen, Grand Island, Neb., was troubled with muscular rheumatism and dyspepsia. These troubles were dispersed.

Mrs. E. M. Barber, Neb., cured of...

Mrs. J. H. Sommers, Craig, Neb., cured of female troubles, general weakness and loss of flesh. Cured in three months. Mrs. Sommers had doctored with many doctors.

E. J. Blessep, Platte Center, Neb., cured of stomach trouble of long standing, nervous debility; was treated by many doctors.

Nebraska's most popular specialist, Dr. O. Caldwell, registered graduate of the Kentucky School of Medicine, will make her next visit to Wayne, Wednesday, July 14.

Among its Improvements are:

A metal-covered hub, which will not peek or spill. A combination wood and steel axle, the wood and steel going the whole length of the axle. This axle will stand twice the strain of an ordinary hickory axle. Also a bolster-stake made from heavy sheet steel.

The popularity of the MacKinnon Wagon rests not only on the above improvements, but every piece of lumber used in its construction is carefully selected from the best Wisconsin timber. The parts are fitted and put together by skilled workmen, and nothing is left undone, even in the smallest detail, to make it a perfect wagon in every particular. We manufacture our own wood stock, from the log to the wagon, and as we have been twenty-five years engaged in the manufacture of wagon material, we have gained an experience in the selection of wagon wood second to none. Our factory is supplied with the most complete and latest machinery. We have at all times a large stock of lumber carefully selected and well seasoned.

IN THE STADIUM.

The Washer Brothers, The Boxing Midgets—The World's Greatest Feature.

The Stadium, with the World's Fair Midway and Carnival company, is a complete circus, resplendent with the best acrobatic, aerial and double trapeze novelties that money can procure, clowns, grotesques, pantomimists, acrobats, aerialists, cyclists, ascensionists, unicyclists, fencers, etc. Among the many star artists to be seen in the Stadium are the famous Washer Brothers, the boxing midgets who fight five of the fastest rounds you ever witnessed at a boxing contest; the famous Lyme Bros., doubtless the greatest acrobatic act ever brought to this country and the highest salaried artists in America; Mona Zarella, the world's greatest unicycle artist and the only artist in the world to ride a unicycle on a slack wire, an act of skill and daring that is beyond description, you become electrified with amazement at this marvelous exhibition; Bennett and Price, America's greatest aerial artists in single and double trapeze; Prof. Wilbur, the famous tramp tricycle rider, the talk of the country, he starts to ride and do tricks where other champion riders leave off, Wilbur is the champion of all champion bicycle riders; the famous Sanger Bros., England's greatest pantomimists in their original trick, horse and box car act—and spore of lampers, tumblers, gymnasts, boxers, javelin throwers, swordsmen, wrestlers, etc. whom space forbids to mention, all constituting the most complete exhibition of the kind ever projected. The whole interior of our Stadium is a maze of work of glittering wires, high ropes, swinging bars, suspended trapeze, swaying rings and ready flined high post rigging for presentation of our startling and surprisingly sensational acts in the Stadium. Two performances daily in the Stadium, afternoon and evening. This is the feature attraction at the World's Fair Carnival company at Wayne July 12 to 16, inclusive.

Rain began falling again this morning, whether as a mark of sympathetic respect for the hopeless partisan assemblage at St. Louis or to further remind people that there is no "Great American desert" east of the Rockies, no one knows. Anyway, more moisture is not needed to prevent crops from being injured by drought.

Mr. Lionel C. Walling, who is in the employ of the telephone company at Leigh, was married to Miss Pearl Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harmon, at the court house yesterday morning by Rev. E. Duley performing the ceremony. They expect to reside at Leigh, and in embarking on the sea of matrimony are accompanied by the good wishes of many friends.

One in a large measure no doubt to the rush of people to Bonesteel, there are many tramps, pick-pockets and various kinds of swindlers and "grafters" in north Nebraska at this time and the authorities carrying in Wayne may be increased next week by reason of the carnival. Accordingly, city authorities should provide ample police protection and see that the laws and ordinances are strictly enforced. There should be no laxity in this matter.

M. P. Ahern has sold his store at this place to A. Rosenberg who was formerly in business at Schuyler. Involving the stock was commenced Tuesday morning and the store will soon be ready for business under the new management. Mr. Ahern expects to locate in Illinois to give his sons and daughters the advantages of the schools there. He has lived in Wayne twenty-three years, during which time he has prospered and enjoyed the confidence and respect of the public. The loss of himself and his estimable family from the community will be generally regretted, but in carrying out their plans elsewhere they will have the good wishes of all. Mr. Rosenberg who succeeds Mr. Ahern, comes highly recommended as a man of integrity and thorough business methods and should and will meet a hearty welcome.

Jessie Reed was called to her home at Aten, Neb., on Friday last, by reason of the serious illness of her mother.

A lively class in Parliamentary law meets every Saturday from 1 to 2 o'clock. Much interest is taken in this class and some splendid parliamentarians are being developed.

Fred Pile returned from Waterville, Me., Saturday evening, having been met in Sioux City by Mrs. Pile and Miss Hatcher. He had to get back to his native town, though he is enthusiastic over his year in Colby college.

The base ball boys are feeling pretty good over their fourth of July games at Winslow. They won the game with Hoskins but lost the game with Winslow by one score. It is the substantial increase in the treasury that pleases the boys.

The biological department is under great obligation to Mrs. Elming for a supply of silk worms and cocoons. The making of cocoons by the worms was a phenomenon observed with great interest by all the students. Mrs. Elming has our thanks.

The following figures may be of interest as indicating the field from which the N. N. C. draws some of its students: From Norfolk, 13; from Madison county, 28; from Bart county, 12; from Stanton county, 19; Knox county, 20; Cedar county 18.

The lecture given by Prof. Pile on "Knowledge and Power" at the college last Thursday night was one that may fairly take its place among the best lectures given in Wayne within the year, and was especially appreciated by the students, who were present in considerable number.

Prof. Wolfe's lecture on the Spanish-American war, given in chapel hall at the college last Saturday evening proved highly instructive. The illustrative views were superior and the descriptive features of the entertainment were especially strong. The Y. M. C. A. is under great obligation to Prof. Wolfe for his efforts in lifting their financial obligations.

The close observer might have noted a lack of enthusiasm in the college class work on the Fourth. Naturally with two-thirds of the students of having a "good time," the remaining third found it difficult to break the sporadic silence about the campus. Examination day next Friday may assist the students generally in getting the true perspective of life.
