W. J. BRYAN HERE

Makes a Speech That is Nearly Non-partisan.

IDEALISM TREATED AT LENGTH

Urges the Candidacy of Berge and Gives Some Attention to Congressional and Legislative Nominees—Concedes Nebraska to Roosevelt—Much of Speech Free From Politics—McKillop Speaks.

A large crowd greeted W. J. Bryan in Wayne yesterday afternoon. Many gathered to see and hear him from motives of curiosity, while others were drawn by faith in one or more of the various brands of democracy. Bryan is an accomplished orator, endowed with brains, and people are glad of an opportunity to hear his eloquence, though usually not agreeing with him politically.

Mr. Bryan came down the line from Randolph, arriving here at 1:15, and was accompanied by E. P. McKillop, democratic candidate for congress. They were met at the depot by the brass band and several hundred people and were taken in charge by a reception committee, consisting of J. M. Cherry, Prof. J. M. Pale and Dr. H. G. Leisenring. In Dr. Leisenring's automobile the distinguished guests were conveyed to the Hotel Boyd amidst the music of the band and the plaudits of the people.

The speaking was scheduled to take place in the opera house at 3 o'clock and long before that hour the building was thronged. Many were unable to gain entrance. Mayor Britton presided and introduced each speaker with a few well chosen words.

P. J. McKillop made the opening speech, presenting his usual argument and stories. He placed great stress on the trusts and thought the republicans had been in power long enough to correct them. He told over and tried to again apply the same story that he related at the old settlers' picnic, showing how he once had to spit a cat's tongue to keep it from sucking. He condemned the state revenue law and tried to make it appear that the railroads had not been raised in assessments in accordance with the increase of other property, but did not show the matter up exactly true to the facts. He endeavored to show that the government, both state and national, could be pulled into proper running order by giving control into the hands of the democrats. He finally quit to give W. J. Bryan a chance.

Bryan looked well and his voice was strong. Much of his address was non-political. He devoted his introductory to boosting Berge for governor, McKillop for congressman and the legislative ticket. He said it was a good experience for a man to be sent to Washington, that McCarthy had had two years experience and that it would be a great help to McKillop if he could be sent there. He forgot to mention that a congressman is sent to Washington to benefit his district and not solely to be educated. In this connection he made brief reference to national politics. He did not ask people to vote for Parker, but conceded Nebraska to Roosevelt. He expressed dislike for the policies of both, but said nothing to encourage the candidacy of Tom Watson.

The most interesting part of his speech was non-partisan and non-political, treating of idealism. It was an intellectual treat and of high moral standard. It was a most acceptable substitute for party politics. He told of his personal experiences and ambitions, and held the close attention of his hearers until he dipped into "imperialism" as the concluding feature of his discourse.

From Wayne Mr. Bryan went to Norfolk where he was to speak last evening.

WAYNE COUNTY PIONEER DEAD.

August Miller, a pioneer settler of Wayne county, living two and one-half miles northeast of Hoskins, died Saturday morning after an illness of about six months and his funeral is to be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Hoskins Lutheran church.

Mr. Miller was about sixty-one years of age and leaves a large family of sons and daughters to mourn his loss. But two children remain at home. The others are grown and have homes of their own in the vicinity.

Mr. Miller homesteaded and the years since the opening up of the country have added to his wealth until he was one of the well-to-do farmers of that locality, and has established his sons on valuable farms.—Norfolk Daily News, October 3.

CLYDE BENSHOOF.

Clyde Benshoof, aged about 18 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Benshoof, died of blood poisoning Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Thos. J. Wright in the M. E. church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and were attended by a large number of sympathizing friends. Clyde contracted the fatal disease by wading, barefooted, in stagnant water, and was taken sick about two weeks before his death. All that medical skill and careful nursing could do, could not stay the deadly progress of the poison. The sorrowing family have the sympathy of all.

HENRY GISE.

Henry Gise, aged about 28 years, died of Bright's disease at the home of his father-in-law, Olaus Kay, south of La-

Porte, Sunday morning at 4 o'clock. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Karpenstein in the German Lutheran church, Wayne, Tuesday at noon. Mr. Gise has been in America thirteen years, ten of which he has spent in Wayne county. Early last spring he was taken sick and finally went to an Omaha hospital where his complaint was pronounced Bright's disease. He gradually grew worse until four weeks ago when he was compelled to remain in bed, never to get up again. He leaves a wife and one child who have the sympathy of many friends.

S. E. Auker's cattle sale took place Saturday when 250 head of stock were sold. He will have another one the last of this month.

Fire Breaks Out in Store of L. F. Vaughn.

CHECKED BY FIRE COMPANY

Building Belonged to M. S. Davies—Fire started in a Rear Room During Absence of Proprietor—Strong Wind Blowing and Large Loss Was Threatened—Property Was Insured.

Fire was discovered in the building belonging to M. S. Davies and occupied by the confectionery store of L. F. Vaughn, on Main street, Tuesday evening at about 8 o'clock. Crowds thronged the street and the fire fighting apparatus was hurried to the scene. Mr. Vaughn was absent and no one was in the store when the fire started. It originated on the floor in a rear room, but how, is unknown, though thought to have been caused by a cigar stub carelessly thrown among some excelsior. The flames leaped up between the walls and it became necessary to chop holes in the roof to reach and extinguish them. There was considerable injury to the building and stock from fire and water, but both losses are covered by insurance. A strong wind was blowing from the north at the time, and had the fire made much headway before being discovered it could not have been checked before doing great damage.

EXPLANATION.

As announced in the last issue of the HERALD, the paper has passed from the ownership of Huse & Son to E. Cunningham who has purchased it and also the subscription list and good will of the Republican and the latter will cease to exist some time during the present month. The delinquent subscriptions of the Republican will be collected by W. H. Gibson, except a sufficient number to offset those paid in advance. Persons who have been subscribers of both papers will have their advance subscription to the Republican credited on the HERALD books and receive the latter for that much greater length of time and hereafter will get but one instead of both papers. The policy of the HERALD will be one of fairness and just treatment to all persons and it will not lend itself to the engendering or perpetuation of any element of factionalism or discord within the ranks of its chosen political party. The paper will be outspoken in its republicanism but in doing so will treat those of opposite political faith in a spirit of fairness. It will always stand up for what it believes to be for the best interest of the city and county of Wayne and their people, because it candidly believes there is no better spot or more worthy people anywhere on the face of God's green earth. The very best efforts will be put forth to make the HERALD a better newspaper than it has ever been and in saying this we fully realize the task undertaken. The HERALD will not lend itself to the rewarding of friends or punishment of enemies, neither will it indulge under any circumstances in a dirty war with other newspapers, because it fully realizes that its readers are of a class that demand something of an entirely different nature and it proposes to be a newspaper in the truest sense of the word. The business management of the paper will be in the hands of E. W. Huse and we have faith to believe that he will accord fair treatment to all who have business transactions with him. E. C.

COLLIDED WITH A COW.

In the inky darkness of Tuesday night of last week an accident occurred, three miles from Henry Lessman's place, injuring that gentleman's head and breaking one of John Krei's arms. The team behind which Mr. Lessman and Henry Henrichs were riding collided with a cow which was being led by Mr. Krei. The horses reared and Henrichs fell out of the vehicle, carrying one line with him. Lessman was powerless to check the frightened horse without both lines and accordingly jumped. Mr. Krei was struck in some manner on the arm, resulting in the fracture. Henrichs escaped uninjured. His team ran a couple of miles before being caught. How far the cow, the HERALD is not informed.

SUND-GRIEM.

Mr. Herman Sund of Randolph, and Miss Alma Griem of Wayne, were united in marriage in the German Lutheran church at this place on Sunday at noon, Rev. J. H. Karpenstein officiating. Mr. Sund is employed as section boss at Randolph where he and his bride will live and whither they went on Monday, accompanied by the good wishes of many friends.

David Cunningham will have a public sale of extra fine Shorthorn cattle and Poland China hogs, farming implements and household goods at his place, three and one-half miles south of Wayne on Tuesday, October 18. He is leaving the farm and will sell everything. A. N. Matheny meets all competition.

AMERICAN FENCE

FARM PROFITS

Every rod of good fence helps to cheapen the cost of your matured hogs, bees, sheep and horses. The better and greater the quantity of efficient fence on the farm, the higher the price per acre. If you do not raise stock, the good fence protects your crops and insures largest possible returns. Thousands of investors are making fortunes by buying up so-called "run down" or "raw" farms, putting on a few buildings and good fences, then selling them for improved up-to-date farms. Good fences, well built, pay bigger dividends than good barns or good houses. You want bigger profits per acre—build good fire-proof, stock-proof, time-proof fences. Now is the time to do it. American Fence is the best fence, fully guaranteed, always satisfactory. It is cheaper per rod today than ever before. The manufacturers propose to double the use of American Fence during the next twelve months. We are here to help them. In helping them we help you by offering you American Fence, the BEST in the world, at heretofore unheard of prices. Come and see us, don't delay—this opportunity is too good to miss. You know a good thing, and you know when a good thing is cheap. It is not always best to buy cheap things, but when CHEAP and GOOD, in fact, the BEST, and the article will pay dividends for years afterward, it is clearly safe and good business sense to buy it, and buy all you can use to advantage. Come and see us—we know we can save you money now.

WHAT ROME THINKS

THE POPE'S PHYSICIAN ENDORSES AN AMERICAN REMEDY.

Dr. Lipponi Uses Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in His Practice Because Results Meet His Expectations.

Dr. Lipponi, the famous physician to the Vatican, whose name has recently come so greatly to the front on account of his unremitting attention to His Holiness, the late Pope Leo XIII, and the high esteem and confidence with which His Holiness Plus X is a man of commanding genius. He is more than a mere man of science; he is a man of original and independent mind. Untrammelled by the "etiquette" of the medical profession and having used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in his practice with good results, he freely avows the facts and endorses the value of this remedy with an authority which no one will venture to question.

Dr. Lipponi's Letter.

"I certify that I have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in four cases of the simple anemia of development. After a few weeks of treatment, the results fully up to my expectations. For that reason I shall not fail in the future to extend the use of this laudable preparation not only in the treatment of other forms of the category of anemia or chlorosis, but also in cases of neurasthenia and the like."

(Signed) GIUSEPPE LIPPONI,
Via dei Gracchi 332, Rome.

The 'simple anemia of development,' referred to by Dr. Lipponi, is of course, that tired, languid condition of young girls, whose development to womanhood is tardy and whose health, at that period, is so often imperiled. His opinion of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People at that time is of the highest scientific authority, and it confirms the many published cases in which anemia and other diseases of the blood, as well as nervous diseases such as neuralgia, neuritis, St. Vitus' dance, paralysis and locomotor ataxia have been cured by these pills. They are commended to the public for their efficiency in making new blood and strengthening weak nerves. After such an endorsement they will be accepted by the medical and scientific world at their full value.

Wanted Something Less Hackneyed.

Mrs. Reader—Step at a book store and pick out a novel for me.

Daughter—What sort?

Mrs. Reader—Try to get an old-fashioned novel, in which the hero and heroine are separated by cruel parents. I am a little tired of the young woman with a mission.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than in all other parts of the world. And until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors and their remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with their treatment, made it a habit of saying that it was incurable. It is now known that it is a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. The system they left one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: Dr. J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. It is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken in the form of a pill, and it drops to the seat of the disease. It acts directly on the blood, and mends the surface of the system. It is a sure cure for all cases of catarrh of the bladder, urethra, and testicles. Address: Dr. J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

The Vitality of a Turtle.

Almost alone among God's creatures, the Turtle has but a single enemy—man. It does not seem to matter to the Turtle whether he stays beneath the surface for an hour or a week, nor does it trouble him to spend an equal time on land if the need arises. He is neither fish, flesh nor fowl, yet his flesh partakes of the characteristics of all three. Eating seems a mere superfluity with him since for weeks at a time he may be headed up in a barrel (with the bung out) and emerge after his long fast apparently none the worse for his enforced abstinence from food, from light, and almost from air. And finally, it may truly be said that of all the higher, warm-blooded organisms, there are none so tenacious of life as the turtle. I can truly say that I have seen the flesh cleared out of a turtle shell and hung upon a tree, where for hours the quivering, convulsive movements of the muscles went on. Not only so, but on one occasion only the head and tail were left attached to the carapace and no one could have imagined that any life remained in the extremities. But a young Dane, noticing that the down-hanging head had its mouth wide open, very foolishly inserted two fingers between those horny mandibles. They closed, and our shipmate was two fingers short; the edges of the turtle's jaws had taken them off clean with only the muscular power remaining in the head. Signor Redi once cut a turtle's head off, and noted that it lived for twenty-three days without a head, and another whose brain he removed lived for six months apparently unconscious that it had suffered any less.—Leslie's Monthly.

Another cause of uneasy suspense is ended. Democratic Vice-Presidential Candidate Davis has accepted.

Henry C. Payne, postmaster general of the United States, died of heart trouble in Washington Tuesday evening, aged 60 years.

County Attorney Slinan has looked after the legal affairs of the country faithfully and efficiently during the past two years and is eminently deserving of re-election. That he will win by an increased majority, there is good reason to expect.

Gov. Mickley and staff and other state officers left Monday evening for Seattle where on Friday they will take part in ceremonies attending the launching of the battleship, Nebraska. A daughter of the governor will christen the ship.

Dr. Williams stands high in the estimation of those who know him, and more people in this senatorial district are getting to know him favorably than ever before. He is gaining friends rapidly and his vote should be large.—Norfolk Daily News.

It is unnecessary and poor policy to give the business of the county into the hands of a democrat in the face of a republican majority. Therefore, it is the duty of republicans to unite and give E. F. Jones, nominee for commissioner, the benefit of their strength.

The port of Galveston, Texas, is the third in volume of its export shipping in the United States, New York and New Orleans exceeding it, and with the rate of increase it will be but a few years until New York alone will have a greater export shipping than Galveston.

E. F. Jones of Carroll, who is making the race for commissioner on the republican ticket, is one of the best men in the county for that office. He is favored most where he is best known—a complimentary fact which should arouse united support even in those precincts where he is least acquainted.

In his speech here yesterday Bryan said substantially that sending democrats to Washington from Nebraska would not stop any republican legislation that might be desired, for republicans would still have a majority there. In other words, democrats, unable to do any harm because they would be overpowered by the superior numbers of the opposition, ought to be dispatched to Washington to get some experience and education.

Speaking of great historical sieges in comparison with that now going on at Port Arthur it is observable that this siege has lasted since May 18th or up to date 147 days, while that of Paris in the Franco-Prussian war was 132 days, Ladysmith in the Boer war 118 days, Metz in the Franco-Prussian 70 days, Plevna 94 days, Vicksburg in our great civil strife 79 days. The greatest siege on record was where the troops of Russia at Sevastopol held out against the combined forces of France, England, Italy and Turkey for eleven months.

When a good democratic brother desires to compare the expense accounts of administering the affairs of our government under democratic and republican control and attempts to show the larger expense of republican administrations, call his attention to the fact that when a man dies and is buried his expense account ceases, but the live, active man whose business is constantly expanding must of necessity have an increasing expense account. Under Grover Cleveland our country was dead, its industries paralyzed, its workmen idle, its soup houses wide open and its bond issuing mill alone worked to its fullest capacity.

A recent report of the British Board of Trade shows that the United States produces three times as much steel as England and twice as much as Germany, and a report made by the United States Bureau of Statistics shows that the average hourly wages in this country is twice as big as in England, three times what they are in Germany and two and half times as great as in France. The American common laborer receives higher wages than the skilled workmen of Germany or France and his efficiency is about the same proportion as his wages. Do you wish to change these conditions in any respect? If not, your duty at the approaching election is to do all you can to maintain existing conditions and not cast a vote that will cast a doubt as to the future policy of your government.

Republicans should bear in mind the necessity of electing a republican legislature in Nebraska this fall if they desire to have the state represented in the United States senate by a republican. The democrats are fully alive to the situation and will spare no effort in close districts to elect the nominees of their party. Nebraska democrats and populists may be divided on many things but they are both securely bound to the chariot wheels of W. J. Bryan, and the United States senate is the goal to which his ambition leads and in order to reach it he is now making a tour of the state and is everywhere urging his followers into line, and they are going to do his bidding. Our opponents are going to be urged to the polls and urged to vote and make special efforts for the election of fusion nominees for the legislature. Are you less interested than the opposition? Do you want Nebraska represented in the upper halls of congress by one of an opposite political faith? If you do not, then not only walk up but sit up your neighbors and see that Dr. Williams for senator and Chas. McLeod for representative get the vote to which they are entitled in Wayne county.

As a business proposition, viewed in the light of past experience it would seem as though the business interests of the city of Wayne ought to be pleased with the consolidation of the HERALD and REPUBLICAN. Three newspapers in the city of Wayne are too much of a good thing, both for the advertiser and for the publisher. It requires too great an expenditure on the part of the business interests in order to properly maintain three papers and when not properly maintained, some or perhaps all of them become miserable weaklings that instead of reflecting credit on the city and county bring discredit and perhaps reproach. Two strong newspapers, cheerfully and loyally supported, will cover the field much more effectively and creditably than three that have to eke out a miserable existence. The merchants of the city will be very considerable gainers in the matter of expense in advertising and get a better service for the money expended, and the reading public will not be bored with papers that are taken and tolerated for charity's sake. Then again two newspapers of the same political faith are almost certain to engender and perpetuate factionalism and discord from which not only the party with which they are allied suffers, but the interests of the entire community are affected and many times quite seriously, so that from almost any view that can be taken of the matter, it would seem the city and county ought to feel grateful that the consolidation has been brought about.

CONGRESSMAN MCCARTHY

There are many things which can be said in behalf of Congressman McCarthy and which speak loudly in favor of his re-election. Thus far, since he first went to Dixon county and commenced the practice of law, he has shown in the transaction of business entrusted to him by his clients, a resolute energy and faithfulness that ought to be remembered. He was county attorney for a number of terms in Dixon county and during that time the county business in his charge was a model in its correctness and success. The voters of Dixon county, if they think of the past, and surely they must, will recall his numerous successes in behalf of the county, his uniform correctness in his opinions, and his invariable ability in bringing order out of chaos, where chaos existed. Surely no man in Dixon county, whether republican or democrat, can consistently go back on such a steadfast friend to the county as McCarthy has shown himself to be.

Then he went to the legislature two or three terms. There he became prominent in a short time. He did not merely sit in the corner and draw his pay, but worked hard and for the best interests of those who sent him. It was not long before his abilities were recognized and appreciated and he soon became one of the best known and most trusted leaders. Thus McCarthy rose, honorably and efficiently into notice. Then he was sent to congress. There he worked with the same ability and success for the district he represented. All this is a matter of history.

One of McCarthy's efforts before congress adjourned last winter, was something which Wayne county should not forget. He introduced a bill in congress for the erection of a government building at Wayne. It was too late in the session to be acted on by both houses, and was necessarily postponed until next winter. Then both houses will act on it, and judging from the favor with which it was received by senators and representatives it will unquestionably be successful in becoming a law.

A government building is what Wayne is entitled to and what she will get. A large and elegant structure of that kind will add to the business, stability and growth of Wayne, and incidentally will benefit the county at large.

It may truthfully be said that Mr. McCarthy is a man who never fails to work for his constituents on all opportunities and occasions. This fact is so well known that it will be surprising if Wayne and Dixon counties and indeed all the counties in the district, do not re-elect him to congress by an overwhelming vote. Good common sense teaches every man that so efficient a helper should not be defeated.

Govern the World

The Weak, Sickly and Emaciated Can Hope for But Little Success.

BY DR. O. M. CALDWELL.

In compiling the statistics of the different races of people of the world, it is of interest to note the article of diet, the manner in which it is taken and the extent of medical attendance as practiced in the civilized world. It has been demonstrated conclusively that the meat-eaters are the strongest, healthiest and the best educated people in the world; therefore it is reasonable to believe that they are the people who govern the world. As demonstrated by Dr. Caldwell, the American people consume an average of six pounds of meat per week; the English, four; the German, three; the French, two, and the Italian, one-half. Statistics prove that epidemics of contagious diseases more largely prevail among those people who diet on a diet of less meat and more farinaceous foods. Good meat is the most wholesome of all foods to be taken. True, it is not as fattening as the cereals or farinaceous foods, but it is more strengthening and contains more blood and nerve making elements, so necessary to strength and good health. What is required specially for perfect health is good digestion, plenty of outdoor exercise, and special care as to hygiene and all the laws of nature. Dr. Caldwell, a specialist of many years' experience among those people who diet on a diet of less meat and more farinaceous foods, diseases of the brain and diseases of the nervous system. From conclusive proof it has been demonstrated that a little food properly served and well digested is far better than a great quantity of an unwholesome character improperly digested.

Dr. Caldwell has been afforded special advantages in studying the characteristics of the people, their diet, their hobbies and the special conditions governing medicine as a specialty.

She has been awarded, in contests the highest prize and a number of medals. She has been making a specialty of chronic, nervous and surgical diseases, diseases of the eye, ear, nose, throat, lungs, diseases of women and diseases of long standing character. No matter how long such patients have suffered or who has treated them, she never failed to cure these ailments. In over a quarter of a century in the experiment, study and practice of her profession in the diseases of men and women she has cured thousands who have been pronounced hopeless by other physicians. People come to her from far and near to receive her treatment and her offices are crowded at the places of her appointments and all cases in the highest grade of her treatment.

By permission we are pleased to publish some of the cures she made throughout the state of Nebraska. These are only a few, as space will not permit us to publish many.

Mrs. Sloan, Akron, Neb., cured of consumption and nervous trouble. treatment she took improved her at once, and she was soon cured of all her ailments.

C. A. Lundeen, Grand Island, Neb., was troubled with muscular rheumatism and dyspepsia. Those troubles soon disappeared.

Mrs. E. McBeth, Harder, Neb., cured of female and nervous troubles, was told by doctors operation would be necessary. Cured in four months' treatment.

Mrs. J. Dobbins of North Platte, Neb., writes "she had been doctored for years without relief for kidney trouble, female and general debility."

Mr. Michael McCubb of North Platte, Neb., cured of cancer of the face with two injections.

Oscar Emmitt, Columbus, Neb., cured of what other doctors called incurable blood disease.

Mrs. John Connelly, Akron, Neb., cured of cancer.

Louie Herper, Columbus, Neb., cured of Bright's disease, heart trouble, and nervousness.

Mrs. S. Jorgensen, Cozad, Neb., had suffered many years from nervous disease, loss of vitality and general weakness. She now feels healthy and like a new woman.

Mrs. J. H. Sommers, Craig, Neb., cured of female trouble, general weakness and legs of flesh. Cured in three months. Mr. Sommers had doctored with many doctors.

W. H. Larson, 65 Nebraska St., Newark, N. J., says: "Dr. Caldwell: After suffering for 80 years I have found no relief until I came to you. I write you these few lines to speak of the excellency of your treatment and I think it due you."

Mrs. Mary Collins, Wayne, Neb., cured of chronic rheumatism, swollen limbs, heart trouble, headache and general debility. Had almost given up hope, when she heard of Dr. Caldwell, her treatment soon cured her and she is now thankful.

Joe Olson, Ft. Wayne, Ind., cured of large cancer of breast.

S. J. Blensen, Platte Center, Neb., cured of stomach trouble of long standing, nervous debility; was treated by many doctors.

Dr. Caldwell, most popular specialist, Dr. O. Caldwell, registered graduate of the Kentucky School of Medicine, will make her next visit to Wayne, Wednesday, Sept. 29th, 1904.

The Great Fire Sale Is On!

$35,000 worth of Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Curtains, Etc., damaged by fire and water in the Albert Lindholm building, now on sale at Pelletier's, Fourth and Jackson Sts.

SOME OF IT GOES AT 10c ON THE DOLLAR

SOME OF IT GOES AT 25c ON THE DOLLAR

NONE OF IT EXCEEDS 50c ON THE DOLLAR

Without a doubt this is the greatest sale ever held in the Northwest. A bargain feast without parallel. A time to furnish homes, offices, hotels, restaurants, boarding houses, etc., at the smallest expense ever known. The fire in the Albert Lindholm building started in the elevator shaft, went straight to the third floor and burned the reserve stocks there. Goods on the first and second floors were only damaged by water—some badly, some a little, some not at all. The same day of the fire all these goods were removed to the Pierce building, next door. Now they're here, and we're again moving them, but this time into your homes. Every article is marked in plain figures, with not only due regard for its condition, but marked to sell "quick." You can save railroad fare three times over.

We Want a Ten Dollar Plymouth Rock Rooster

We are interested in raising good chickens and need a rooster, but we do not want to pay more than ten dollars if we can find a good one for that. Anyone having either a cockerel or cock worth ten dollars that is for sale, please call on us. We may be like a friend of ours that attended the cattle sale of Clark & Lessman last week. He wanted a bull calf, but he had only fifty dollars and he didn't get one. He did not have money enough. It seems that anyone that has good stock knows it, and knows what it is worth. We used to think that some one might have a twenty dollar chicken and not know it. Last week we found a man that had good chickens, but he said he would not sell them for less than twenty dollars a head and sent back the ten dollars we sent him. The same old story. A man that has a good article knows what it is worth and he don't have to sell it for less than it is worth. We have a ten dollar suit and we know it is worth ten dollars and we will not sell it for less. If you buy it and are not satisfied we will give you another suit. We have Staley underwear that is worth $2.50 a suit. We know it is worth that price for we have sold it for that price for twenty-seven years. We have a calf-skin coat for $15. It is worth it and we know it and will not take one cent less. We have six hundred dozen Canton flannel mittens, two thumbs, worth four pair for 25 cents. They are worth it, and we will get it. We have a 100 foot room full of clothing and every article is marked in plain figures at what it is worth, and not one cent more than it is worth. We know what it is worth for we paid cash for it, and have been in the clothing business twenty-seven years. It's worth all we ask every day in the week. We don't have special sale days. Whenever you are ready to buy you can buy as cheap here as you can at any special sale anywhere. You make a mistake if you buy any clothing before you see our new goods. Come in and look, no matter if you don't buy.

From Weak Eyes From Poor Sight

the well known expert optician of Sioux City, Iowa, will again be at the UNION HOTEL, WAYNE, NEBRASKA SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1904

His 7th visit to Wayne, Nebraska. Since Dr. Ersler has been visiting Wayne he has demonstrated to his patients that he can fit eyes with glasses where others utterly fail. He can refer you to hundreds of people in Wayne and vicinity. My examinations are thorough, painstaking and scientific. I use no drugs or medicines in my methods. My instruments are the best known to science.

Most headaches are caused by defective eyes and can be cured with glasses. My lenses positively cure headache, nervousness, granulated lids and all pains in and around the eyes, give perfect sight and relieve all strain of the eye muscles. If you have children whose eyes are crossed either constantly or occasionally, or who complain of having any trouble whatever with their eyes at school, bring them to me and have their eyes corrected.

If you have any trouble whatever with your eyes, it matters not if you spend others and they failed to give relief, give me a trial. It costs you nothing to find out whether or not you can get relief. I have fitted thousands and can fit you too.

Take Notice—I give a written contract in every case I undertake. I guarantee to give results or refund the money. Union Hotel, Wayne, Nebraska, October 29.

It is repeated on every hand that corn is beyond injury of frost; on the contrary would be benefited by frost. Frost can hurt nothing now except the feelings of people who are loath to take up the task of contributing to the riches of coal barons in order to realize the passing but rather necessary pleasure of keeping thawed out.

The first number of the lecture course Monday evening by Mrs. Wm. C. Ohlton, monologist, was deserving of a much larger audience than that which attended. ### WAS SHE TO BLAME.

Kansas City Star.—To those who saw her and listened to a recital of the ups and downs in her life at the Gillis last Friday night, she was not to blame. He would be a hard hearted creature indeed, who could witness the hardships and insults heaped upon Diana and not be moved by a feeling of pity for her. The play is dramatized from Bertha M. Clay's most popular novel and portrays several important and interesting characters. The serious and humorous sides of life are intensely interesting. Just about the time one is moved to tears through sympathy for the abused, yet kind and gentle woman, the tight hearted, happy character appears on the scene and for a moment the act which called for sympathy and emotion, is entirely forgotten and you find yourself laughing heartily.

12 PEOPLE DROWNED

TOWN OF WATROUS, N. M., DESTROYED BY FLOOD.

Property Loss Serious—Floods in the Rio Grande Valley, Above and Below Albuquerque, Made Several Hundred Families Homeless.

The town of Watrous, N. M., was destroyed by the flood, and at least twelve persons were drowned. Among these were the three children of J. E. Stevens, Felix Villarreal, his wife, two sisters and several children and O. F. Porter, J. E. Stevens and wife escaped and have been taken to Las Vegas. They are in a critical condition.

Many persons were rescued from trees and house tops. The greatest damage was around the junction of Mora and Sapello Creeks. The rock crusher, the great iron bridge and much track at Watrous were washed away.

The Gallinas River formed a new channel at Las Vegas. In the Gallinas the dams of the Aqua Pura Company broke, bringing the terrific flood upon the city. The Montezuma, Hot Springs track went out in many places. Half a dozen bridges were destroyed and the Montezuma bath house was practically cleared away.

For two blocks on Bridge Street every business house was flooded. The big brick bridge was ruined and the big bridge undermined. Gallinas Park is under water, and the trolley line cannot be repaired for two weeks.

The race meet next week has been declared off.

One hundred thousand dollars will not cover the loss to the town, and the railroad loss is equal to that of recent floods in Arizona.

From Santa Rosa comes a report of the loss of the great iron bridge of the Rock Island, and much track.

Reports from floods in the Rio Grande valley above and below Albuquerque are coming in. The towns of Valencia and Los Lentes were practically washed away, and several hundred families are homeless. The river swung to the east, cut a new channel, and poured a torrent through the two towns. No lives were lost.

Ignacio Gutierrez, a commissioner of Sandoval County, telephoned that the damage at Los Cordones and Alameda above the city will amount to several hundred thousand dollars. There is one passenger train from southern California at Gallup and another from San Francisco at Winslow, while the other trains from California are held at Albuquerque.

The officials cannot say when the trains will arrive or depart, and the traffic situation is serious. Many feet of track is reported gone at Ariz, Cerrillos, and Bernalillo, and above and below Albuquerque at Rincon, Amazillo and Islen.

MANY TRAMPLED UPON.

Floor Collapses at Cornerstone Laying at Adams, Mass.

While Rev. Thomas D. Beaven, Roman Catholic bishop of Springfield, was laying the corner stone of St. Stanislaus church at Adams, Mass., Sunday afternoon a floor collapsed precipitating 150 persons into the basement. Thirty-seven people were so injured as to require medical treatment. Of this number the injuries of sixteen are serious and one case may prove fatal. The others sustained minor cuts and bruises. Bishop Beaven and several of the priests assisting him were slightly hurt.

Some 7,000 persons attended the ceremony, and about 200 were seated or standing on the floor which covered the newly made basement. Just as the bishop was about to lay the stone a section of the flooring about forty feet square collapsed, dropping twelve feet and carrying with it the bishop, the clergy and about 140 others.

In the confusion that followed many were trampled upon and half suffocated.

In coming down a grade the brakes of the car failed to work, and the car acquired fearful momentum. Just as it was reaching the motor it succeeded in throwing on all the brakes, and the car came to a stop with such suddenness that a large number of persons were thrown off.

SEVERE FLOOD AT TRINIDAD

Loss Will Reach the Million Dollar Point.

A terrific flood struck the city of Trinidad, Colo., and the whole valley along the Las Animas River, devastating a wide section and causing a money loss which at present is estimated at $1,000,000. So far as known there was no loss of life, but several are reported missing and there were many narrow escapes.

Every bridge out of Trinidad is out; the Santa Fe station is demolished; all the railroads are tied up, and telephonic and telegraphic services are completely suspended. More than thirty city blocks in the residence and business portions are from two to four feet under water along the river.

The flood was caused by the heavy rain which had been falling for two days. Thursday night the storm assumed a cloudburst proportions, and at 2 o'clock Friday morning the Las Animas River went over its banks. At 3:30 o'clock it was impossible to get within a block of the river bed at any point, and Commercial Street was flooded for three blocks in the heart of the business district.

Meanwhile the electric and gas plants had been flooded and the city was in complete darkness. Hundreds of citizens thronged the streets on the edge of the submerged district, carrying lanterns and dipping their best to provide those driven from their homes with shelter.

Warning of the flood was given when the river left its banks by revolver shots and the ringing of the fire alarm, followed by the blowing of all the locomotive and shop whistles in town. Citizens upon roofs made sections of sidewalks paddled through the streets rescuing families which were in danger. The New Becca Hotel, a two-story structure just nearing completion at a cost of $20,000, on the river bank, was destroyed. The water then ate its way through fifty feet of ground to the Santa Fe depot, which was carried away. The Cardenas Hotel, adjoining, barely escaped a similar fate, an acre of ground being washed away near it.

SENATOR HOAR DEAD.

Passing of Massachusetts' Grand Old Man.

George Frisbie Hoar, senior United States senator from Massachusetts, died at his home in Worcester, Mass., at 1:15 o'clock Friday morning.

The end followed a period of unconsciousness that had continued since early Tuesday, and came so gently that only the attending physicians were aware of the exact moment of dissolution.

The attending physicians deplored of the senator's life six weeks ago, but such was the vitality exhibited by the distinguished patient that even they were surprised and the public was at times led to cherish a faith in an ultimate recovery. On Sunday last, however, all hope was abandoned after a last unsuccessful attempt to administer medicine and nourishment. Brief lucid intervals were followed by longer durations of unconsciousness until Tuesday morning, when the venerable senator sank into a state of coma from which all efforts to rouse him proved futile.

George Frisbie Hoar, senior senator from Massachusetts, had long occupied a peculiar place in public estimation for his unique personality, his mental strength, ripe culture, wit and incisiveness of speech; for his subtlety and wisdom and at times childish disingenuousness; for his slighting estimation of the methods of politicians; and for his unrepentant courage in attacking wrongs and his stalwart pertinacity in his defense of what to him appeared to be the right.

Members of the United States senate have sat so firmly in the seat of personal convictions of the right, even when overwhelmed by the majority, for it never troubled him to stand against the entire body, in himself a minority of one, in following out the line of set principle. For nearly thirty years he played conspicuous parts in great events, chiefly as a masterly debater, an erudite scholar and a learned jurist, and through them all he kept himself unsoiled by partisan politics, and rounded out his activities as innocent of certain debasing influences which too often govern party leaders as though his entire years had been spent closed with his beloved books, to which he has devoted much of his time.

IMMENSE LAND FRAUDS.

Conditions in Indian Territory Hurt Statehood Fight.

William M. Stewart, United States senator from Nevada, is at Kansas City, Senator Stewart is chairman of the senate committee on Indian affairs, and in that capacity has been investigating the land allotments question in the Indian Territory. In speaking of what he had found in that territory had grown to such proportions that they would have a bad effect in the fight for statehood.

"The Indian Territory," he said, "is in a lamentable condition. There is no opportunity there for actual settlers. Speculators or land grabbers occupy the entire field. The wealthy half-breeds and the intermarried whites cooperate with the schemers from the outside who would appropriate everything in sight with a view of so complicating matters that they can prevent the restoration of any part of the territory either to the honest Indians or to the white settlers."

NEWS.

Cincinnati Post.

GURNEY MAY BE PUNISHED.

British Embassy to Be Supplied with the Facts in the Case.

It seems that Hugh Gurney, third secretary of the British embassy at Washington, who was fined $25 for driving his automobile too fast and $25 more for contempt of court by Judge Phelps of Lee, Mass., and who raised a row with the judge over a question of privilege, cannot secure better after all. Gurney pleaded official exemption from arrest for the violation of a Massachusetts law, but he is not to escape scot free if Gov. Bates can prevent it. The State Department, in transmitting Gov. Bates' apology to the British legation for the arrest of Mr. Gurney, will present a statement of facts and testimony to which Gurney violated the plain law of Massachusetts.

A HAVEN FOR HOODLUMS.

New York is Crime-Ridden While the Police Beem Asleep.

Never before in the history of the American metropolis has crime been more rampant, more defiant and less interfered with than at the present time, says a New York correspondent. The police department seems to be under an hypnotic spell which renders it absolutely supine. Burglars, thieves, burglars and hoodlums prey upon society unchecked. In some sections of the city the people are terrorized to an extent that women dare not appear on the streets after dark. Within six weeks there have been 22 murders, followed by less than half a dozen arrests. There has been no less than 75 cases of felonious assault for which no arrests have been made; in Manhattan and the Bronx alone there have been 54 cases of burglary and highway robbery followed by no arrests. This astonishing record, in addition to the many arrests which the police have made, shows a deplorable state of affairs. So unbearable have conditions become that public indignation meetings are being held.

NEW WARSHIP AFOAT.

The Connecticut, Most Powerful Type Ever Built, Is Launched.

As the hands on the several warships at the New York navy yard played "The Star-Spangled Banner," a new United States battleship slid down the ways into the water at 11:18 a. m. Thursday and Miss Alice Welles, granddaughter of President Lincoln, was the first to christen the new vessel. The launching was without hitch of any kind and was entirely successful. Many thousands of people witnessed the launching of this, the first battleship built in a government yard since the Monitor and Maine; large crowds gathered at the navy yard and at various points on the Manhattan and Brooklyn sides of the East river.

DESERT BECOMES GARDEN.

Wonderful Effect of Artesian Wells on the Pecos Valley, N. M.

Residents of the Pecos valley in New Mexico are excited by the discovery that underlying more than 600,000 acres of desert land is an apparently inexhaustible supply of water. The famine of the region has spread throughout the country, and even to portions of Europe. The water gushes from the ground wherever borings are made, and occurs over a thirty land, transforming it into a garden of almost remarkable fertility. Nowhere in the world has such an artesian belt been found. It is a tableland, encircled by hills and mountains, fifty miles long by some eight miles wide. It is destined to become one of the richest gardens in the United States, and at the present rate of settlement all the land will soon be valued at fifty prices. Recently Danikars from Indiana and other States have purchased 15,000 acres of land near the town of Dexter, paying from $15 to $30 an acre. More than 10,000 people have bought homes in the valley since early spring. Each purchaser carries a guarantee, backed by the Santa Fe railroad, that water will spout from an iron pipe, no matter where it may be driven into the ground from a depth of 300 to 1,000 feet.

Found Unconscious in the Road.

Albert Ireland, a prominent horseman of Spring Springs, was found Sunday morning lying on his back on the highway. He had been crushed and right side paralyzed. He was unconscious when discovered, and it is surmised he was driving and had got out of the buggy to close a gate, when the team started, and he went after them attempting to get into the buggy, when the accident occurred.

The parties interested in the suit are very wealthy Germans who reside in Berlin precinct.

STATE OF NEBRASKA

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN A CONDENSED FORM.

Charge Divorce to Rustbodies—Man and Wife at Fremont Seek to Have Court's Decree Set Aside—Interesting News Items.

William Schultz and Johanna Schultz, who were once husband and wife, filed their petition in the district court at Fremont Saturday asking to have the divorce which Johanna was divorced from William set aside. The petition alleges that they want to live together again and Johanna says she would not have been so against William if it had not been for the middle-class acts of neighbors.

William says it was the interference of his neighbors which caused him to become intoxicated and treat his wife in a way which was not quite right and proper. Mrs. Schultz began her first suit about a year ago. Summons was served and a decree granted by default, when it appeared that the suit was not summons on the wrong William Schultz. The William who was notified to appear in the action was living peacefully with a wife whose name was not Johanna, and he paid no attention to the summons, aside from telling the sheriff that he had got the wrong notice.

When Johanna found out the situation she filed a motion to set aside the decree which was granted, and then the summons was served on the right William, and at the June term of court another decree was rendered, which is the one both parties now unite in petitioning the court to set aside.

FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE.

Thurston County Farmers Arrested in Dakota County.

Wm. Stange and Bull Peterson, two farmers of Thurston County, living about five miles south of Beatrice, were arrested by Deputy Sheriff John Klister on Thursday as being fugitives from justice, on complaint of C. J. O'Connor, banker, of Homer.

When arrested Stange and Peterson were in the act of driving thirty-five head of fat cattle onto the bridge into Sioux City, Iowa, where they were to be sold. The night in jail at Dakota City the men were taken to Emerson on Friday by Deputy Sheriff Klister and turned over to the authorities of Thurston County, where they will answer to the charge of attempting to remove mortgaged property out of the state. The cattle were taken back to Homer in charge of O'Connor.

Divide the Reward.

The $100 reward offered by Acting Mayor Brooks of Fremont for the arrest and conviction of the thief of Pearl Oatman has been divided between Bert Shultsworth, E. Shaw and Ralph Cheney. The two former were the persons who kept Bailey in the operator's office at East End while Cheney, the operator, notified the authorities. Shultsworth and Cheney were notified of the reward, but Shaw and Cheney only considered himself entitled to a third, and it was so divided. The reward offered by the county will probably be distributed in the same proportions.

Killed Under Load of Straw.

Foster, living in Buckley valley, near Kearney, was instantaneously killed Friday afternoon by the overturning of a load of straw which he and his brother were carrying on their horse, were hauling. The boys were coming down a hill with the load when it slipped forward, frightening one of the horses, which began to kick and run. The load was overturned, throwing the boys to the ground and breaking Claude's neck.

Bloodhounds Lead to Neighbor.

Big Mahone's bloodhounds were taken to the farm of William Jaeshke, seven miles north of Ravenna, to trail some men who have been stealing and breaking up Jaeshke's machinery. The hounds took the scent at once and went direct to the farm of Carl Coffey, who, with his dog, had been following the men, and had broken into the place. Each found any knowledge of the theft, but several of the stolen articles were located at the Coffey place.

Child at Talmage Struck by a Locomotive, but Not Injured.

The year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Talmage, who resides on the Talmage, was struck by a Missouri Pacific passenger train the other night and escaped without serious injury. The child was playing on the track near her home when the engine struck her, the pilot throwing her clear off the right of way into a heavy growth of weeds. The engineer saw the child in time to slacken the speed of the train.

Narrow Escape.

The train was stopped and the child picked up and taken to her home. She was conscious and was able to tell her name and where her parents resided.

PROGRESS OF THE WEEK

In some respects the strategic situation of the armies in central Manchuria is now similar to what it was six or eight weeks before the battle of Liaoyang. Tieling and Mukden, the Russian positions, now correspond to Liaoyang, Hsiehcheng and Tutchekiao then. The Liao valley and the Mongolian frontier lie to the west of the Russians, as before, while to the east are the same mountain ranges with the Japanese forcing one after the other the passes that command the most important roads.

We still have the great weight of Okta's and Nadan's armies grimly astride the railroad, preventing any possible expedition to the relief of Port Arthur. And at the same time they are ready to deal the sledge-hammer blow that will force the Russians still farther northward when the time comes. We still have Kuroki in touch with the Russians on the east and doing the most important work over the mountain trails.

During the week General Kurapatkin has reported in repeated dispatches the progress of a part of Kuroki's force along the roads from Bentstapuzze to Pihlung and to the Pishun mines, which lie respectively ten and thirty miles east of Mukden. Kiatou Pass, where there was a skirmish, seems to be on one of these roads, while an official Russian dispatch from Harbin reports a fight on the south bank of the Hun River on the road leading to Pihlung. The Japanese are said to have had two divisions here, rather a large number of men, and to have been repulsed. Farther east, on the road running northward from Salntaise, the Japanese advanced to an attack on Da Pass. An official telegram given out at Tokio tells of the Japanese capture of Tieling, which may be one of the passes just mentioned, or some other, as it clearly cannot be the City of Tieling north of Mukden.

How far and how fast these movements will progress cannot be told, as that depends on factors of weather, transport and men, concerning which we are but poorly informed. We may expect, however, in due time to see Mukden abandoned without hand fighting, much as Hsiehcheng was abandoned when the Russians were concentrating on Liaoyang. If this is not the case it will probably be because Kurapatkin sees hope of retaining for a while longer his control of the important Pishun coal mines.

The opening of the circum-Baltic railroad during the week will mean much for Russia, as her reinforcements can now be sent forward to the full capacity of the Trans-Siberian Railroad, and not merely to the capacity of the steamers and ice-breakers across the lake.

If we had any solid facts to go on the news from Port Arthur would probably be vastly more interesting and important than that from the armies farther north. But we have still nothing but rumors gathered at Chefoo from refugees from Port Arthur and Dalny. The accounts agree that another general assault has been begun, with Japanese successes at several points, and we are also told that Port Arthur is in desperate straits for food, for water and for coal. But what weight to give to the reports we do not know.

For some reason the Japanese government has thus far declined to publish any account of the fighting at the southern tip of the Liaoyang peninsula. So what is happening must be pieced out from the story of the Russian Radzivil, who reached Chefoo with dispatches from Stoessel, and from "reliable Chinese," who, in military matters, are the most unreliable people on earth. There is no one so afraid of powder and ball as the Chinese. When he sees or hears an outpost skirmish it seems to him like the last desperate general assault, and when he reaches Chefoo he reports of "halls of shot," "cyclones of shell," and "earthquaking mines."

In the latter part of August the Japs took four outlying forts in front of Pihlung and Kikwang. They immediately set out to strengthen these places, and made them into most respectable fortifications. When the next general assault starts, these forts will try to silence the guns of their

SCENE OF PANIC IN PORT ARTHUR.

Russian opposites before the infantry come into operation. If the new Japanese forts can obtain a preponderance over Pihlung and Kikwang those places may possibly fall to general assault. But the whole operations at Port Arthur up to the present date merely confirm the old lesson that defenses adequately manned by resolute troops cannot be taken by frontal attack. The Japanese are desperately brave; they are especially good on the offense. They started at Port Arthur flushed with victory. They considered the place as holy and did not want it like crusaders. But they have come now near storming it. Strong forts containing good men cannot be stormed.

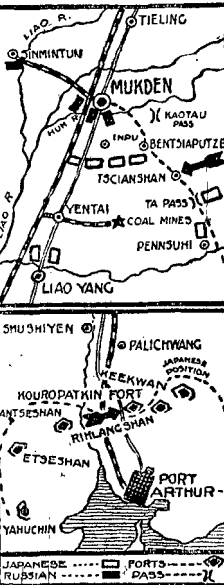

The Russian tried their hands at storming when they made a sortie at Port Etse, but were driven back. The condition as to Etse is not clear. Certainly the Russian do not hold it, but neither do the Japanese. It seems to be a low lying fort, dominated by the Japs from behind, and by the Russians from in front. Neither side can live in it, apparently, and it remains unoccupied.

Not infrequently there is a feeling of good fellowship between two hostile armies. The outposts meet and exchange tobacco. If they speak different tongues they swap lies by the sign language. But at Port Arthur the fighting has been so bitter and desperate that the Japanese and Russian soldiers individually abhor each other, regarding each other not merely as the national but also as personal enemies. General Stoessel, acutely playing on the venomous spirit between the besiegers and besieged, has told his troops they will receive no quarter if they surrender, and that they might as well die fighting as be massacred. The white flag and the red cross are disregarded by both sides, and fired into whenever seen. The stench from the decomposing bodies left on the slope of the forts makes Port Arthur almost unendurable when the wind is from the north.

Kuropatkin is evidently at sea as to the Japanese plans. Several times lately he has telegraphed that a general attack seemed imminent. But the general attack never came. It is improbable that the Japanese are undertaking a serious movement. The fact that they attacked the important position of Da Pass with only four companies, and that when thrown back they did not come again, seems to indicate that they are merely maneuvering, while waiting for the fall of Port Arthur.

The fall of Port Arthur is evidently one of the vital links in the Japanese chain of strategy. Time and again have the Japanese movements been evidently thrown out by the persistent and unexpectedly successful defense of the Russian fortress. In their War News in Brief. Intentions point to a hard winter campaign in northern Korea. Port Arthur's fate is said to hinge on a single fort that the Japs are trying to capture. The people of Japan plan sacrifices at home to enable the nation to prosecute a long war. Oyama's cavalry has entered the Pu valley, which leads to the railroad north of Mukden. The Japanese have landed many troops in Korea for an advance toward Vladivostok. Port Arthur's plight grows worse, the city being absolutely cut off from the rest of the world. Fresh troops are being added to the Japanese garrison at Bentstapuzze, now the headquarters of the army. A mysterious foreign cruiser was sighted off San Francisco and is supposed to be the Korean or Russian raider. Marshal Oyama is bending all his energies to a flanking move of various positions around the east side of Mukden. An observer of internal conditions in the Russian Empire stated that the people were generally contented and peaceful.

The wide sweep of the Japanese eastward thrusting movement is indicated in the map. Using the Tatse River as a means of transit, Oyama is dispatching troops to Manchuria, thirty miles northwest of Liaoyang. The appearance of Japanese near Kiatou Pass also is significant, and might be taken as a sign of the Russian line of investment in drawing closer. The location of Port Koorowatkin, which is reported captured, is pointed out. Almost directly eastward and westward are Hsiehcheng and Antsieshan forts, the loss of either one of which would be a serious blow to General Stoessel.

intended calendar of war the fall of Port Arthur was set for a date some months back—probably in June. Then from this June fall they deduced a long train of consequences, such as the destruction or capture of the Russian fleet, which would allow part of the Japanese fleet to go home, repair, take on new guns in place of those worn out by constant firing, rest up their men, while the remaining ships sailed up Vladivostok. Meanwhile Nogai and his 80,000 men would be released for other work—perhaps at Vladivostok. Kuroki and Oku obviously hurried long waiting for Port Arthur to fall. And by their tardy they wasted much valuable time and probably inflicted a less severe whipping on Kurapatkin than would have been possible earlier. Stoessel remains a great big spoke in the Japanese wheel.

Important Point Forty-five Miles from Mukden Captured. The Japanese at last have begun the offensive. They have captured Da Pass and are pressing on Gen. Kurapatkin's abandoned Da Pass without serious resistance. Several other passes of the Da range east of Bentstapuzze, twenty miles southeast of Mukden, are also in the hands of Japanese. Kurapatkin evidently is drawing in his forces to the less mountainous country northwest, where he may decide to fight a battle. Meanwhile sharp fighting is regarded as imminent southeast of Mukden, where the Japanese are expected to deliver their main attack, the flank movement from the west being of secondary importance.

On Da Pass, or Ta Pass, meaning Great Pass, situated about forty-five miles southeast of Mukden and about the same distance northeast of Liaoyang, it is now about twenty-five miles south of the Hun River. The Japanese attacked Da Pass, which was occupied by the troops of Gen. Mikuchenko and Samsonoff, Sept. 24, but according to dispatches from Harbin were repulsed twice. Czar to Reorganize Army. The Czar, spurred by repeated defeats at the hands of the Japanese arms on land and sea, has decided to reorganize the Russian army. Gen. Gelpenberg has been assigned to command the second division of the Manchurian army, and is placed on equal footing with Gen. Kurapatkin. Seven hundred thousand men may soon be ready to take the aggressive against the Japanese. It is believed that Grand Duke Nicholas will be made commander-in-chief of the Russian armies in the far East.

TELLS OF PANAMA AND CANAL.

Chief Engineer Wallace Praises Conditions There. Interesting descriptions of conditions in the canal field in Panama are given by John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the isthmian canal commission, who recently arrived in Chicago from the canal zone for a two weeks' rest. Mr. Wallace praises Panama and says he finds the climate good. The bad sanitary reputation attached to the country he declares to be due to the fact that the canal zone has paid little attention to ordinary laws of health.

There are at present about 1,500 men in the field there, 500 of whom are in the sanitary department under Col. Gorgas, who is assisted by Col. LeGarde. Majors Ross and Carter, the latter being chief quarantining officer, assist Mr. Wallace. The sanitary corps has given special attention to stamping out malaria and yellow fever and of all the men at work on the canal this summer only two died of yellow fever. It has been learned that a certain kind of mosquito, which bites only in the day, carries the yellow fever infection, and that another kind, which bites only at night, carries the malaria germ. Both varieties deposit their eggs in stagnant pools. By the thorough system of drainage now being put into effect these places are gradually being cleared away.

WANTS NEW KUKLUX KLAN.

Georgia Editor Urges Another Reign of Terror. In a leading editorial in the Atlanta News-Journal, George Graves, advocate of lynch law and a revival of kukluxism in order to terrify negroes, Mr. Graves says in part: "The white men of this southern country will protect their women, and neither law, nor statutes, nor public opinion, nor armed forces, nor federal courts, nor any other force, will protect them. There is no need to try to scare the people of this southern country with the threat of the federal court. If the federal court invades the State's authority and takes charge of these cases there yet remain the memory and the renaissance of the kuklux Klan, which was, perhaps after the Civil War, the only force that this southern country has ever known against the crime and lawlessness that followed a period of war. Even this may not entirely accomplish its work of reform, but it will, if anything will or if anything can, and this appeal to the superstitious terror of the criminal classes must not be left untried."

VESEVIUS IS ACTIVE.

Present Eruption Said to Be the Most Violent Since 1872. The eruption of Mount Vesuvius continues to increase in force and is now more violent than at any time since 1872. Red hot stones are hurled to a height of 1,000 feet, falling down the flanks of the mountain with a deafening sound. According to Naples advices the director of the observatory says between 5 o'clock Sunday morning and 6 o'clock in the afternoon his instruments registered 1,844 violent explosions, and that one stone thrown out weighed about two tons. Lava flowing from the crater has melted the roofs of the Fontana. It will probably destroy the upper station, and burn the wooden lifts in which guides live. Some of the people in the surrounding villages have left their homes and are camped in the open air. The curiosity of tourists to approach the volcano is such that a large number of machine-gun guards have been detailed to prevent them crossing prescribed limits.

JUDGE PARKER'S LETTER.

Attacks Imperialism and Advocates Tariff Reform.

Arrangement of Imperialism and executive power, based on individual caprice, demand for tariff reform on prudent lines so as not to work revolution in existing conditions, unequivocal declaration in favor of Filipino independence, the urging of the immediate curtailment of expenditures and a return to economical administration, and promise of a sweeping investigation of all departments of the government in the event of party success—these are the distinctive features of Alton Brooks Parker's formal letter accepting the Democratic nomination for the presidency.

Judge Parker digresses from the issues he regards as standing forth prominently in the public mind to answer Rooseveltian epigram and interrogation with judiciously constructed statements on a few of the other issues involved in the campaign. Characterizing the service pension order of the President as a usurpation of legislative power, he quotes from Mr. Roosevelt's letter of acceptance, and accepts the challenge contained therein by declaring that if elected he will revoke the order. He adds, however, that, having done so, he will contribute his effort toward the enactment of an age pension law by Congress. The language of the President's letter, Judge Parker says, suggests the suspicion that the order was made to create an issue.

The duty of proceeding with due diligence in the work of constructing the Panama canal is imperative, Judge Parker declares, but he says the methods by which the executive acquired the canal route and fights are a source of regret to many.

Another matter discussed briefly is American shipping, forty years of decadence being deplored, and the record of the Democratic party being pointed to, as giving assurance that the work of restoration can be more wisely entrusted to it. The remedy, it is declared, does not lie in subsidies wrung from the taxpayers. Attention is directed also to the officers and men of the army and navy, both, it being declared, having suffered from the infection of personal and political influence.

In a paragraph devoted to foreign relations, Judge Parker says the new conditions call for a management of foreign affairs the more circumspect in that the recent "American invasion" of markets in all parts of the world has excited the serious apprehension of all the great industrial peoples. It is essential, he believes, to adhere strictly to the traditional policy regarding friendship and entangling alliances, which means the "cultivation of peace instead of the glorification of man, and the minding of our own business in lieu of spectacular intermeddling with the affairs of other nations."

SIXTY-TWO DIE IN WRECK.

Mistake of Engineer on Southern Railway Causes Great Loss of Life. Sixty-two persons were killed and 120 injured (many of whom will die) in a head on collision on the Southern Railway nineteen miles east of Knoxville, Tenn., at 10:18 Saturday morning.

The engineer of the west bound train, go investigation shows, was directly responsible for the disaster. He deliberately disobeyed orders. Why, will never be known, for he was crushed to death beneath his engine and his fireman suffered a like fate.

The crash came on a sharp curve, between high banks. The west bound train was a heavy one, it carrying the sleepers from the east for Knoxville, Chattanooga, and other Southern cities. The east bound train was lighter, consisting of day coaches and chair cars. It was going thirty miles an hour, the other forty. The heavy train crashed into the lighter one with the force of a giant missile hurled from a catapult. And, by the irony of fate, the engineer and the fireman of the train that fault were the only ones on that train to lose their lives, while fifty-three travelers were killed on the train that had the right of way!

Expert railroad men who have seen scores of wrecks unite in saying that never have they seen such an inexplicable thorough smashup.
