Big Event Scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 22.

HEAD CONSUL WILL BE HERE

Large Number of Applicants Will be Initiated into the Mysteries of the Order—Neighboring Towns Will be Largely Represented.

This fraternal organization will occupy the boards on the date above mentioned with one of the great lodge events of the year. As stated in a former issue of the Herald, the date named will be the final windup of the efforts of the Woodman Camp of this place to largely increase their membership and has succeeded in an admirable manner. In the afternoon the Head Consul of the organization, A. R. Talbot of Lincoln, will be here and deliver an address to which you and your family are most cordially invited to attend and then and there learn of the ends and aims of this one of the greatest fraternal and life insurance organizations on the face of the earth. In the evening at the opera house, a large number of applicants will be initiated into the mysteries of Woodcraft and to this evening meeting every Woodman of Wayne and all adjoining camps are extended an invitation to be present. The work will be under the guidance of the Head Consul and a splendid team of Foresters. Come prepared to stay all night and participate in the great event.

Miscellaneous, Personal and Otherwise.

Sam Barnes has begun the erection of a new house on college hill which is to be ready for occupancy before March 1. Sam has rented the farm and is coming to town to take life easy.

With crops abundant and marketable at high prices, with a sweeping republican victory and the assurance of continued prosperity, this is a most auspicious year for a hearty observance of Thanksgiving day.

Did you notice the election returns that poor little Leslie was the only precinct in the county that gave Parker electors a plurality of its votes and it only gave it to him by two votes. That came pretty nearly being a clean sweep of the county for Teddy.

Nebraska University seems not to be in it when it comes to going up against a good stiff team in a game of football. Only recently they went down to defeat before Minnesota at Minneapolis and last Saturday the Ha-kel Indians put it over them at Kansas City.

Subscriptions aggregating something over $500 were raised at the different religious services Sunday for Rev. Lyon, the evangelist. Previous to that time about $300 had been contributed for running expenses, making the total cost of the series of meetings in the neighborhood of $800.

From the various parts of the county in which the big new county elevating grader has been used county reports of the excellence of the work done by it on the roads. The commissioners certainly did about the proper thing in purchasing the machine and we believe another one of the same kind would find abundance of work.

W. A. Emery, manager of the Norfolk Lumber Company of Norfolk, was the victim of a theft Monday morning by which he lost between $30 and $40 in cash. The manager had left the pocket-book in the office while he went out into the yard to wait on a customer and when he returned to the office he found his pocketbook and money gone.

At the store drawing of Neely & Craven last Saturday afternoon Ed Sellers living northeast of the city was the fortunate holder of the ticket that drew the Cole's hot air blast stove, and the smile on Ed's face when it dawned on him that he had secured the prize couldn't be measured with anything short of a yardstick.

Rev. Thomas Osborne, the new pastor of the Presbyterian church arrived in the city the latter part of the week and will hold his first service in the church next Sunday. We hope the church will find their new pastor fully up to their expectations in every respect and that no change will be deemed necessary for many years to come.

New subscribers are being constantly added to the HERALD's list which to the management is very gratifying when it is considered that our list already exceeds 1500 subscribers, probably the largest list of any county weekly in the state. Keep coming, we will try to give you a paper that will meet your highest ideals of what a country paper should be.

We want the news from your neighborhood and if there is no correspondent for the paper in the community, you are cordially invited to take up the work and we will lend you all the assistance in our power. We realize that it is an utter impossibility for us to collect all the news without help, hence this appeal. Will you take up the work and render us all the assistance you can?

If you want the Herald to be a visitor at your home for the year 1906 for the present price, $1 per year, it will be absolutely necessary for you to pay for it in advance, because we cannot send it not send the paper out for that price unless paid in advance. It is our aim to give you a paper well worth the price and must demand the payment in advance.

The Berrys were not in the running at the recent election. Frank A. was the fusion candidate for county attorney in this county and his brother Fred S. of Emerson was the republican candidate for the same office in Dakota county and both were defeated. In Dakota county the entire republican ticket except Berry was elected. In this county everybody knows the republicans got everything on earth except the commissioner in the third district.

Our court proceedings disclose that all marriages are not happy ones. Not a session is held that the court is not called on to revoke some of the work done by the ministers of the gospel, the county courts and justices of the peace. Parties are hasty in contracting engagements that afterwards they feel were not just what they desired and then, instead of living up to the vows made at the altar or elsewhere, fly to the courts to undo the folly they perpetrated on themselves and the community.

Inquiry among the farmers leads us to believe the corn crop of Wayne county will average 40 bushels to the acre. There are about 100,000 acres in corn, probably a little more than that, but calling it as indicated we will have about 4,000,000 bushels of the king of crops. Sufficient corn to make from 3,000,000 to 10,000,000 pounds of beef, or over 80,000,000 pounds of pork. Think of it will you, enough beef to load 250 cars with 40,000 pounds each of dressed beef or three times as many cars of dressed pork. This is what just one of the crops of the county can do in a single year. If the crop was to be sold at 28 cents per bushel, the prevailing price as present, it would bring to the farmers of the county $1,120,000.

There is a family reading over a place of business that needs some attention. The mother is confined to bed and the children are not receiving the care due them from a civilized community. No matter what the shortcomings of the mother may be there are duties incumbent on every community and here is one that has not been properly discharged. While the necessities of life are being furnished by the county, there are little children that need care that they are not receiving and a mother, a human being, is being allowed to pass through an ordeal that ought to be made as light as possible. Here is an opportunity for doing good that demands immediate attention and prompt action, or the grim reaper is likely to get ahead of an opportunity too long neglected.

Preliminary returns to the chief of the bureau of statistics of agriculture on the production of corn in 1904 indicates a total yield of about 2,458,000,000 bushels, or an average of 26.7 bushels per acre as compared with an average yield of 25.5 bushels per acre as finally estimated in 1903; 26.8 bushels in 1902 and a ten year average of 24 bushels. The general average as to quality is 82.2 per cent, as compared with 83.10 last year, 80.7 in 1902 and 75.7 in 1901. It is estimated that about 4.6 per cent of the corn crop of 1904 was still in the hands of farmers on November 1, 1904, as compared with 5.2 per cent on the corn crop of 1902 in farmers' hands on November 1, 1903; 1.9 per cent of the crop of 1901 in farmers' hands on Nov. 1, 1902, and 4.6 per cent of the crop of 1900 in farmers' hands on November 1, 1901.

At the college regular Sunday afternoon meeting, November 6, a special autumn program was given. At chapel on the previous Friday souvenir programs were distributed to all the girls. These were each decorated with a maple leaf and contained the subject of the meeting, "Nothing but Leaves," and the theme, "By their Fruits ye shall know them." Special music was a solo by Mrs. Crook from Ohio and a duet by Mrs. Crook and Miss McCurdy. The talks were: "We all do fade as a leaf," by Miss Ethel Smith; "Found thereon nothing but leaves only," by Miss Matheson, and "His leaf shall not wither," by Miss Marsh. Prayer circles are being held this week for the special revival services in Wayne. On Tuesday evening, November 15, from 7 to 7:30, the Y. W. C. A. cabinet will receive in the Y. W. room. The invitations are to all N. N. girls, but the old girls are hostesses and the new girls will be guests.

It doesn't pay to raise a scrub pig, calf or colt. Lard is too high to breed and raise anything but the best domestic animals and get any profit in their production. The day of the scrub boar, bull or stallion ought to be past, never to return again. Any breed of hogs that won't attain a weight of 250 pounds at 9 to 10 months of age are not profitable to raise, and any half that will not sell for $15 or more at six months of age has no place on land worth $50 per acre and upwards, and the colt worth less than $40 at one year old is not worth feeding away your time on and paying for service of horses, loss, care and risk of injury. It requires good breeding stock and good care to make stock raising a source of profit on our high priced land and the man who is not prepared to subscribe to this doctrine had better let "engage" in the business unless he expects to be a tall order all his life. This advice doesn't cost a cent, but there is money in heeding it just in advance.

COURT ADJOURNS

Regular Session Reconvenes December 19.

SEVERAL CASES DISPOSED OF

Case of Mrs. E. C. Powell Will Receive Attention at the Adjourned Term—Harry Hirsch, the Restaurant Man, Discharged.

Court was in session Wednesday afternoon, all day Thursday and until 10 o'clock Friday forenoon and then adjourned until Dec. 19. This was done because witnesses were not in readiness to testify in several of the cases that are to be tried before a jury and could not be procured in time to keep the work going during the remainder of the week and next week Judge Boyd holds court in Antelope county, hence the adjournment until the date fixed above. Several cases besides those given in our last issue were disposed of and are as follows: Warren vs. Hall was continued by agreement; Fisher vs. Fisher et al, the report of referee was approved, sale confirmed and deed ordered; Burr vs. Dearborn et al was a foreclosure case in which decree was granted; Austin A. Johnson vs. Cynthia and R. J. Parry, plaintiff sued for damages claimed on account of being deprived of part of premises leased from defendant, the jury awarded plaintiff a verdict. In the case wherein William Wright asked to have certain lands disconnected from the towns of Wayne and Winside petitioner's prayer was granted and costs taxed to petitioner. The case of Mrs. E. C. Powell who is accused of attempting to take the life of her husband will come up in the adjourned term. State vs. Wm. Prince was dismissed on motion of the county attorney. State vs. Carr is the one in which defendant was charged with the theft of whiskey from C. W. Niss & Co., defendant plead guilty to petty larceny and was sent to jail for ten days. The case of State of Nebraska vs. Harry Hirsch, the Wayne man who had been in jail for several days charged with beating his wife came before a jury, and the wife's testimony failed to bear out the charge and the defendant was discharged after the court had pretty soundly lectured both Hirsch and his wife. The jury cases to be disposed of in December are: State vs. Powell; Needham vs. C. St. F. M. & O. Ry.; Wright vs. Thompson; Shannon vs. Kondrick; Mulligan vs. B. Albert; Soose vs. Wayne County, Bertel vs. Mellor.

In a little while the county politics will begin to warm up. With the county about 400 republican the fight for the nominations is likely to be a pretty warm thing.

A gun in the hands of a careless 10-year-old boy may result in the death of Bert Charleston, a young farm hand, of Fremont, who was accidentally shot in the head last Saturday.

Richard L. Metcalf, editor of the Omaha World-Herald is of the opinion that there will be no more fusion between the democrats and populists of Nebraska. He thinks the populists have gone entirely out of business.

Governor Micokey says he is going to give us a lesson in practical economy in our state government during the next two years. Now Gov., if you'll make that promise good we know of a whole lot of fellows in the state in whose estimation you will grow measurably.

The republican party of Nebraska has received a vote of confidence and it is to be hoped there will be an appreciation of the responsibility and that the management of affairs will be such that the future will demonstrate the wisdom of the people in casting their votes as they did on November 8.

York county is becoming noted as a mule breeding center. It is claimed that over 1500 mules were produced in the county last year and mule buyers from the great markets make regular visits to the principal towns of the county and pay the farmers very remunerative prices for the animals.

Governor Micokey's statement of expenses for the election as governor at the election just passed is given as $610, of which $325 was contributed to the state central committee. The statements of the other republican candidates for state offices run from $50 for lieutenant governor to $447 for attorney general.

By joining the republican column, Missouri has taken a forward step and left the "solid south" behind. That state, unsurpassed in diversity of material resources, may now be expected to make unprecedented industrial and intellectual improvement in keeping with its rank among the progressive states of the north.

A few days ago Lillah Thietze, a little girl of West Point, devoured a portion of the contents of a can of concentrated lye that her mother had left within easy reach and but for the prompt assistance of medical aid would have died, but happily that sorrowful windup was averted and it is to be hoped a lesson is pointed to careless mothers.

In face of the vote he received as compared with other state officers on the republican ticket, it is to be hoped that Governor Micokey will take a tumble to himself and get it out of his head that he is about all there is of the state government and that he pulled "the rest of the ticket through." The old man is a pretty heavy load.

The congressional committee for this county, W. H. McNeal, offered a present to the precinct in the county that would show the largest per cent. of gain for Congressman McCarthy over his vote of two years ago. The returns indicate that Chapin got there with a gain of 120 per cent. and Brenna came in second with a gain of 115 per cent. The third in the race was Strahan with 61 per cent.

The returns from the Third Congressional district show that McCarthy has carried the district more than 3000 over McKilip. This is a surprise to even McCarthy's most ardent supporters. While they generally believed he would win they did not expect it would be by such a sweeping majority and at certain looks as though the voters are fairly well satisfied with the work he has done and very much preferred to continue him in the place.

One of the most profitable industries in the great corn belt of the United States is the breeding and fattening of hogs. If your experience along that line has not been a profitable one, the fault is your own. You have either failed to properly select your breeding stock or you have not given the animals the care you should. The best stock is the most profitable to raise and then the best care must be bestowed on the animal or your opportunity will be missed.

Joe Barnes, a member elect of the legislature from Lancaster county, says that he is going to push a new amendment to the revenue law that will provide for tax ferrets similar to that now in vogue in Iowa. Over in that state thousands upon thousands of dollars of property have been brought to light and taxes collected that the owners supposed they had avoided entirely. It is right that all property should bear its just proportion of the tax burden and that the owner thereof should be made to contribute whether he desires to or not.

Get ready for Thanksgiving. It is an event we can all celebrate. Nebraska has particular reason to return to the great Ruler of the universe. Its thanks. Never in the history of the state has it been more bountifully blessed with plentiful harvests, and its material prosperity is boundless. The beneficence of its climate is remarkable and its freedom from lawlessness very marked, and the health of the people, as a whole, above all others. Its politics are "safe and sane" and under all circumstances, why shouldn't its people be in a mood to render thanks?

Get ready for Thanksgiving. It is an event we can all celebrate. Nebraska has particular reason to return to the great Ruler of the universe. Its thanks. Never in the history of the state has it been more bountifully blessed with plentiful harvests, and its material prosperity is boundless. The beneficence of its climate is remarkable and its freedom from lawlessness very marked, and the health of the people, as a whole, above all others. Its politics are "safe and sane" and under all circumstances, why shouldn't its people be in a mood to render thanks?

In a little while the county politics will begin to warm up. With the county about 400 republican the fight for the nominations is likely to be a pretty warm thing.

A gun in the hands of a careless 10-year-old boy may result in the death of Bert Charleston, a young farm hand, of Fremont, who was accidentally shot in the head last Saturday.

Richard L. Metcalf, editor of the Omaha World-Herald is of the opinion that there will be no more fusion between the democrats and populists of Nebraska. He thinks the populists have gone entirely out of business.

Governor Micokey says he is going to give us a lesson in practical economy in our state government during the next two years. Now Gov., if you'll make that promise good we know of a whole lot of fellows in the state in whose estimation you will grow measurably.

The republican party of Nebraska has received a vote of confidence and it is to be hoped there will be an appreciation of the responsibility and that the management of affairs will be such that the future will demonstrate the wisdom of the people in casting their votes as they did on November 8.

York county is becoming noted as a mule breeding center. It is claimed that over 1500 mules were produced in the county last year and mule buyers from the great markets make regular visits to the principal towns of the county and pay the farmers very remunerative prices for the animals.

Governor Micokey's statement of expenses for the election as governor at the election just passed is given as $610, of which $325 was contributed to the state central committee. The statements of the other republican candidates for state offices run from $50 for lieutenant governor to $447 for attorney general.

By joining the republican column, Missouri has taken a forward step and left the "solid south" behind. That state, unsurpassed in diversity of material resources, may now be expected to make unprecedented industrial and intellectual improvement in keeping with its rank among the progressive states of the north.

A few days ago Lillah Thietze, a little girl of West Point, devoured a portion of the contents of a can of concentrated lye that her mother had left within easy reach and but for the prompt assistance of medical aid would have died, but happily that sorrowful windup was averted and it is to be hoped a lesson is pointed to careless mothers.

In face of the vote he received as compared with other state officers on the republican ticket, it is to be hoped that Governor Micokey will take a tumble to himself and get it out of his head that he is about all there is of the state government and that he pulled "the rest of the ticket through." The old man is a pretty heavy load.

The congressional committee for this county, W. H. McNeal, offered a present to the precinct in the county that would show the largest per cent. of gain for Congressman McCarthy over his vote of two years ago. The returns indicate that Chapin got there with a gain of 120 per cent. and Brenna came in second with a gain of 115 per cent. The third in the race was Strahan with 61 per cent.

The returns from the Third Congressional district show that McCarthy has carried the district more than 3000 over McKilip. This is a surprise to even McCarthy's most ardent supporters. While they generally believed he would win they did not expect it would be by such a sweeping majority and at certain looks as though the voters are fairly well satisfied with the work he has done and very much preferred to continue him in the place.

One of the most profitable industries in the great corn belt of the United States is the breeding and fattening of hogs. If your experience along that line has not been a profitable one, the fault is your own. You have either failed to properly select your breeding stock or you have not given the animals the care you should. The best stock is the most profitable to raise and then the best care must be bestowed on the animal or your opportunity will be missed.

Joe Barnes, a member elect of the legislature from Lancaster county, says that he is going to push a new amendment to the revenue law that will provide for tax ferrets similar to that now in vogue in Iowa. Over in that state thousands upon thousands of dollars of property have been brought to light and taxes collected that the owners supposed they had avoided entirely. It is right that all property should bear its just proportion of the tax burden and that the owner thereof should be made to contribute whether he desires to or not.

CITY DADS MEET.

The meeting of the city council Monday evening showed all members present. The following bills were allowed: Coal, $38 18. Fire Dept., 81 00. J. L. Payne, 19 00. City Atty, 34 qr. salary, 31 35. D. T. Ronch, 11 65. Ed. Merrill, labor, 11 58. W. L. Sherbahn, labor, 13 20. S. D. Relyea, plan power plant, 8 00. Frank Skeeen, special police, 1 40. Blaine, 1 40. Frank Hood, 1 00. Snyder, 1 20. D. Logan, 1 20.

The bill of John Short, $6.25 for draying O. O. Elaber $508.00 for lumber were referred to the proper committees. A claim for damages in the sum of $500 was read from Fred Henshoff. It seems Fred and his bicycle collided with some debris on the street in front of John Lewis' harness shop while the latter was putting in his cement walk and in consequence of the tumble received, Fred was pretty badly wrecked and consequently the claims made. No action was taken on the matter. An ordinance governing and controlling the creation and maintaining of nuisances within the city limits was read for the first time and, say, if this proposed ordinance passes and is strictly enforced by the city some of the residents will find it necessary to keep their surroundings in much better shape than they have been accustomed to doing. The clerk's report showing total receipts from May 1st to November 1st, $7,355 83, and expenditures $11,804 15 was read. This shows expenditures have exceeded receipts for the time covered by the report by $4,548.32 and only part of the addition to the electric lighting plant has been paid. The total appropriations for all purposes by the city is a little less than $38,000, leaving only about $4,000 to pay the expenses of the city for the next six months and also to pay several pretty good sized bills already incurred. The salary of J. L. West was raised from $450 to $600 per month beginning with Dec. 1st, 1904. Pap Wittler read an ordinance he had prepared, the purport of the same being to fix salaries of city officials as follows: Clerk $300 per year, treasurer $40, city attorney $125, Marshal $50 per month, special police 20 cents per hour, councilman $2 per night—no action taken.

How the 2 Johns Got Fooled

When the two newspapers here bought out the Republican we thought we could afford to use enough space to advertise all the good things we have for those that patronize this store, but we got fooled. We had read so much against the trusts in these papers that we thought things would go along just as they had before this trust was formed, but we got fooled. Rates for advertising have gone up about 60 per cent. and we are compelled to cut down our space. We write this that our friends will not think this store has less goods for sale and is losing its trade because we use smaller space in advertising. As our prices are always the lowest we are compelled to keep our expenses below those of any other merchant in Wayne county. We will try to keep you posted on what we are doing with less space under the trust prices for advertising. If we fail to speak of Staley underwear, don't forget to buy it and live. We would like to tell you about our fur coats, but can't in this small space. Come in and look at them anyhow. If we had more space we would tell you all about our $2.00 arctics that wear all winter. Try a pair and you will know. If you don't see our name in the newspaper, see us and we will save you money on your clothing bill.

If the HERALD doesn't contain all the news that it ought, just remember that what you know and didn't tell us was one of the many things we failed to find out. The moral of this is: Don't keep what you know to yourself, but tell it to the printer.

Norfolk is suffering from an epidemic of typhoid fever and people there are stirring themselves to find out the cause of it. The authorities will probably in time empty and clean the big tank and ascertain the fact.

For fear that the HERALD's announcement regarding its advertising rates may have been misunderstood, let us repeat that 10 cents per inch per week is the minimum price for advertisements that change frequently. The reason that those advertising at a special cost per month are not affected is because such advertisements are slightly reduced in size and do not require the labor of the others.

Aspirants for the speakership of the Nebraska legislature are beginning to bob up. Among the aspirants are Charles J. Warner and H. C. M. Burgess, of Lancaster; Dr. Wilson, of Table Rock; Robert Wyndham, of Plattsmouth; E. B. Perry, of Cambridge; Rouse, of Grand Island; James Casbeer of Blue Springs; Douglas, of Basset; Jackson, of Neligh and several others are likely to get into the race.

A new term began at the Nebraska Normal Monday and from the number of city-dwelling persons arriving in the city Saturday, Sunday and Monday the attendance must be good. Wayne is justly proud of this institution of learning and the great progress made in building it up until today it stands the equal of any school in the state. It is fully equipped in every way to give students who seek knowledge what they are after.

About 160 acres of sugar beets were grown and sent to Wayne this year and the yield is averaging about 14 tons to the acre. A total product of over 2000 tons for which the growers are getting $4.00 per ton on truck beets with a crease of 25 cents per for every one per cent the beets test in excess of 14 per cent. The total amount of money received for this crop will be from $5000 to $10,000, not a very small sum for a crop that probably not one half the people in our vicinity were aware of being grown here at all.

James Hurst sold one of his great Duroc-Jersey boars to J. W. Sturgis, of Dakota City, last Saturday. Mr. Sturgis had visited the herds of noted breeders like Manley, of Lyons, and Russell, of Herman, and then came to Wayne and found Hurst could give him better hope for his money than the other fellows had to offer. Wayne county farmers wanting anything in this line will have to secure them soon or all his males will be gone and there is no place where you beat them in breeding, individuality or price. It is one of the best herds in the state.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving day. Of course, you know it, but we venture the assertion that to hundreds of people and some of them right here in our own county, the true significance of the day will be entirely overlooked or forgotten. Instead of its being a day of prayer and thanksgiving as intended by its originators, the day is fast becoming one of feasting and sport. More than one youth will be carried from the football field maimed for life and unless the experience of the past is not repeated some are likely to lose their lives in the game.

The protracted union meetings in charge of Rev. Lyon, of Wausa, Illinois, closed Monday evening. Considerable interest was aroused and it is reported by those in position to know that much good has been accomplished. The gentleman is a pleasant speaker and a very earnest worker and the singer, Mr. Patterson, certainly pleased and entertained the audiences. The meetings were very largely attended and many persons professed a change of heart and have promised to lead different lives in the future. Doubtless the local churches will be considerably strengthened in membership as a result of the meetings.

The Commercial Club has accomplished a commendable thing in getting all the retail stores, except two, to close their places of business at 8 p. m. on all evenings except Saturday. This is as it should be and surely no reasonable person can find any fault with this determination. Thirteen hours of work every day is a pretty severe strain on an old man. They are subject to disease that is what 8 o'clock closing means and to expect men to endure from one to two hours more, per day is expecting too much. This hour of closing will not inconvenience anyone and keeping open later hours is only for the benefit of a lot of old chaps who are obliged to be just as well off if we are obliged to go home and get acquainted with our families. It is to be hoped that the two places of business which refuse to join in this movement will reconsider their determination and we believe they will and that in a very short time no place of business in the city will be open after 8 p. m.

COLLEGE NOTES.
The first winter term opened last Tuesday with a good enrollment.
Tom Lathrop spent the inter-term vacation with LeRoy Buggles, who teaches near Hoskins.
Gene Ferguson, a strong student of two or three years ago, has taken a claim under the Kinkaid law, up in Brown county. He visited the college, Friday and Saturday, enjoying the president's hospitality.
The following are some old students we have in mind returning to school this term: Oakley H. Hibbs, of Gody, Mr. C. W. of Plattsmouth, Mr. Spauld, of Foster, Miss Finnigan, of Newcastle, Miss Hertz, of Madison, Miss Schmidt, of Stanton, Miss Mae Brown, of Pender.
New faces with familiar names are represented in the term's enrollment by Messrs. Gregerson and Asplin, and Misses Robin and Koefe. It may be a matter of news to many who knew Mr. Asplin of the teachers' class of '01, that he is now in Manila, P. I.
Mr. Keyes came down from Inman, Monday, with his daughter, who becomes a member of the student body.
The completion of the electric line to the college was celebrated Monday evening, by the illumination of Pres. Pile's new home. Arrangements will soon be completed for wiring the dormitories, and the electric lights will be employed in the building. The celebration concerning extinguishing the lights at 10 o'clock will be strictly adhered to.

Some important changes are being made this week in the science laboratory. Hereafter a room will be given over to laboratory work exclusively. The cases for material are being cataloged, and new material will be added from time to time in accordance with the general policy of expansion which characterizes the institution.
The classes in science and in advanced mathematics are much the largest this term they have ever been, and it is expected that not only a large number of

IN MEXICO ITS INHABITANTS AND THEIR MODES OF LIVING, MARRIAGE CEREMONIES, ETC. QUEER DOINGS OF ITS PEOPLE

The woman is a beast of burden; the child a wild little thing that gets barely enough water to drink and none to wash in; the man stands wrapped to the eyes in his gaudy blanket, as still and solemn as if the very silence of the desert had struck into his soul. His body is dwarfed and drawn and his mind runs into a very narrow channel. He is but the stunted growth of his poor surroundings. Some day the lands around him may be irrigated and when the green fields stretch away before his eyes and the flowers bloom in his path an air of gladness and hope will be in his eyes and in the trees that will grow, it will freshen his mind and his children will have a better place among the sons of men.

It is customary for a couple to live together and get married whenever they have enough cash to pay the fee. The first act of a trip among them each year and married all who are ready. If times are hard the ceremony may have to be postponed for several years and sometimes it is never performed. If a native goes a distance of from fifteen to twenty miles away from home he is looked upon as a foreigner, a man who has come from afar off. The host country people, that portion of Mexico lying on the coast and southern part of Mexico, are called better off than the other desert natives. They have plenty of water and plenty to eat, their surroundings are all being more pleasant, consequently they can muster to a higher standard. They are not very fond of work, however, and get out of it whenever the opportunity affords. The average salary paid for man's work is about 35 cents a day in Mexican money and the Mexican's entire cost for clothing throughout the entire year would amount to only about 87 cents, as they need to wear a cotton blouse and duck or cotton trousers and sandals home made of sole leather. Their cooking is mostly done by two brooks or stoves set up edgewise and a piece of sheet iron across the top heated by a charcoal fire. They bake and fry their meats on these with the utmost skill.

The Mexican as a rule does not live to an old age. They are subject to disease and when once disease or plague attacks them they die quickly.
Dr. Caldwell, in her recent work on the prevalent diseases in Mexico, states that a great majority of the Mexican children die before they are twelve years old. In the city of Mexico there are three hundred deaths a day. In these deaths are caused principally from neglect and the non-attendance of a physician. The principal diseases arise from filth and neglect. It is a common sight in the Mexican cities to see a Mexican with a coffin containing a corpse on his shoulder, carrying it down the middle of the street and the mourners following. In the city of Mexico, which has a population of 500,000 people, the government has provided special funeral street cars which carry the dead to the conveniences of their burial. Her ability to perhaps studied the habits of the Mexican more thoroughly than any other American physician. She has traveled among the rich, studied their habits, studied the habits of the poor, and she is a very thorough individual, and has formulated plans and prescriptions from her long experience that rarely fail to cure disease.

Her practice in the last fifteen years has extended in a great measure all over Mexico and the United States. It has however, been largely in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and the two Dakotas. Thousands of people have consulted her and thousands have been cured. Her laboratories are the largest of any known physician's outside of Chicago, and she is able to analyze and to diagnose disease is, without question, one of the best of any living physician. Knowing quickly what is the matter with one she is not liable to doctor them for the wrong ailment nor is she liable to give them such treatment that would be of no value to them. It is claimed by Dr. Caldwell's friends that she can diagnose any disease without asking a question. She treats those diseases that have been principally neglected or that have been doctored by other physicians and have failed to have been cured by them.

She does not attempt to cure incurable diseases and if there are certain cases that she thinks are useless to treat and that nothing but death can cure, she will not promise to cure them. In all instances of chronic disease she has a perfect understanding of the nature of the disease and the many diseases which afflict mankind Dr. Caldwell has perhaps had more experience in treating than than any other living physician. The medical profession seems powerless to understand the claims for it and Caldwell performs such wonderful cures, especially so when they so often fail. Her charges are reasonable and no one need be deprived of a cure, no matter how poor he is. She guarantees her treatment to cure, and she has cured thousands of patients can depend on what she says.

The girls' names were divided alphabetically and they came in groups, being received by Mrs. Pile, and all the officers of the Y. W. A. After a hot time of social and dancing, a little lunch was returned to their rooms with pleasant memories of the occasion and kindly feelings for the society.

She is the originator and founder of the Southern Medical Institute of Louisville Ky., and has within the last three years established a large office in Minneapolis, Minn.

Her system for curing varicose, hydrocele and disease of men is the quickest and best known. Her cure for gonorrhea, is breaking and shortening of breath has never been known to fail. For blood poisoning, lost manhood and nervous debility she is perhaps at her best. No patient has ever been known to go away from her without being cured when they once placed themselves under her celebrated treatment. Her treatment is free from humbug and you can, out of gratitude, conscientiously recommend her to your fellow men.

In diseases of stunted development and slow growth, deformity, curvature of the spine, both in young and old, etc., her treatment is not equalled. Dr. Caldwell does not wait your case for treatment if your home doctor can cure you. She wants those cases that have been given up by such physicians as have never been known to fail. In female weakness, displacements, dizziness, and irregular menstruation there is no specialist, no matter where he be, that has anything so good.

STORM IN NEW YORK

CITY IS CUT OFF FROM SOUTH AND WEST.

Snow reaches as far south as South Carolina and for hours Washington and Baltimore were cut off from the world.

New York was entirely cut off from the south and west Sunday night by a fierce hurricane, accompanied by rain and snow, which is sweeping the Atlantic coast.

Starting from Florida Saturday night, the storm of wind and rain has come up the coast at almost cyclonic speed.

Wire service out of New York was tied up more effectively than at any time since the blizzard of 1888.

Late in the afternoon it was reported that over 100 poles along the Erie Railroad had been blown down.

A MYSTERIOUS CRIME.

Four Members of a California Family Slain.

It is now known that Julius Weber, his wife, their 19-year-old daughter, Bertha, and their son, Paul, aged 14 years, were murdered at Auburn, Cal., Thursday night by an unknown assassin who set fire to the home in an effort to cover his crime.

An examination of the bodies showed that Mrs. Weber and the children had been murdered before the fire had been started.

The body of Mr. Weber was so badly burned that it has been impossible to ascertain how many times he was shot.

It has been ascertained beyond a doubt that the women were killed in one room and their clothing set on fire and that they were then dragged into the apartment where their bodies were discovered.

One very peculiar circumstance of the tragedy is that while the bodies of the mother and daughter were burned to some extent, the apartment in which they were lying was not on fire when the firemen broke in, which showed that they had been killed in some other portion of the house, partially burned and then dragged into the room where they were found.

The physicians are holding an autopsy over the badly charred remains of Julius Weber.

Coroner Shepard, Sheriff Keon and District Attorney Robinson are making a thorough investigation of the tragedy.

TRAGEDY IN WEST VIRGINIA

Three Men Are Shot and Killed at Huntington.

Huntington, W. Va., advices state: Fayette County was excited Thursday night as never before over a double killing which occurred following the killing of Constable W. A. Jackson by Police Officer Will Elliott, of Montgomery, West Virginia.

Harvey Jackson, a brother of W. A. Jackson, and two other brothers, are said to have armed themselves and started to "clean up" the entire police force of the town, which is a small hamlet near Fayette.

A telephone message was sent to Sheriff Daniels, of Fayette County, to come to Montgomery at once. Daniels reached Montgomery at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Just as he stepped from the train he saw Harvey Jackson lounging around the station not more than fifty feet away.

The other Jackson boys came into the town and met their brother immediately after the shooting. For half an hour the three men paraded the streets firing revolvers and defying the town.

Free Ride for Saving a Train—Trainmen Also Contribute Small Sum in Cash to Tramp Hero—Other Interesting State News.

Charitably disposed persons in Hastings raised a small collection for a man who, according to his story, had saved the fast Chicago-Denver passenger train on the Burlington from a bad wreck and was rewarded by the railroad company with a free ride for a few miles.

The man was in destitute circumstances and was on his way from Sutton to Grand Island, where he hoped to enter a charitable institution. As he was walking along the Burlington tracks two men came from the woods and set a trap for him.

Section men were sent for, who repaired the breach and the train proceeded. He was taken aboard and provided with transportation to Grand Island. He showed the transportation to many people at Hastings and was taken up to the train.

WAR FOR A WEEK.

SEVEN DAYS' HISTORY OF THE EASTERN STRUGGLE.

It is not improbable that strenuous efforts will be made to induce the state printing board to rescind its action in the matter of knocking out the biennial report of the state board of irrigation.

During the week the world received the two most thrilling accounts of the operations of the present war which have yet been published.

The Port Arthur story leaves one involuntarily with the feeling that war, though a horrible and brutal thing, is yet redeemed from part of its ugliness by the lustrous heroism, self-sacrifice and devotion of its victims.

The enthusiasm among the privates and lower officers was brought out in the great charge without orders.
