...Best Quality Proven by Actual Test...

The Baking Contest certainly demonstrated the high quality of MINNEAPOLIS MAID FLOUR and many who were not here on account of rain have spoken of the fine bread they had, and had nothing but praise for the flour which is of the highest quality produced.

STREET SHOULD BE OPENED
Original Plat of Wayne Shows it Platted Across the Railroad Track. — Authorities Ought to Act.

The agitation for the opening of Logan street south across the railroad right-of-way brings to light the fact that the street is a regularly laid out platted street and that the railroad company has only closed and occupied the street with its yards by the sufferance of the city and not by any ownership of the land. The map of the original town of Wayne as exhibited to a representative of the HERALD last week is not a correct copy of the original plat of the city of Wayne. The plat as filed in the county clerk's office August 15, 1881, shows that the town was originally platted over 1300 feet east from Main street, beginning at the quarter section line south of the depot and that the streets occurring in that survey were regularly platted and the records further disclose that the portion of the town south of the tracks on the east of Logan street have since been vacated and that Logan street is not vacated, hence the claim that damages can arise from the opening of the street are entirely groundless and need not enter into any considerations of the city council in this matter. It seems by the evidence of many old residents of the town that a crossing was maintained for a number of years on Logan street and was used until only a few years ago. With the facts in this case being as above stated it would seem as though any claim for direct or consequential damages on the part of the railroad company or any others disappear very readily and that the proper course for the council to pursue is to go ahead and open the street regardless of the objections of interested parties. It is to the interest of the city and country as a whole that this street should be opened to travel and the interests of interlopers should not be given any weight in the consideration of the matter. If it is not an interference with the vested rights of any person, but as the case stands at present the rights of the public are being trampled under foot. The occupancy of a street or alley by private parties for any length of time does not vest in the party so occupying any right or title, however general that idea may be in the minds of people. In purchasing town lots the deed calls for so many feet front and a certain number of feet in depth and under no circumstances can any additional land be obtained without vacating streets or alleys adjacent to said lots so purchased and in the case under consideration no proceedings have ever been instituted or perfected for the vacating of the street in question, hence there has been no opportunity given to any person to acquire even the shadow of title. It is to be hoped that the town council will cease dallying in this matter and that it will at once carry out the wishes of its constituency. Too many bugaboos have been allowed to frighten the authorities from performing a plain duty and it is time to act.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Wiener has voted $9000 in bonds for the purpose of erecting a municipal lighting plant but has not decided yet whether it will be electric or gas.

Alice Wadsworth completed her term of school in the Ole Nelson district last Friday with a nice plume for her scholars that was hugely enjoyed by the little folks.

This office is in receipt of an announcement that Seattle has a new real estate firm under the name of Grimsley & Ellain, and of course it is a good guess that Nels is the Grimsley end of the firm.

In the Bryan silver-quad season of 1896-97 there were only 10,928,978 hogs slaughtered in the west, at prices ranging from $2.60 to $4.15 per cwt. live weight, while under the "craze of gold" season of 1901-2 there were slaughtered 25,411,676, at prices ranging from $0 to $7.40 per cwt. live weight.—American Economist.

Lelgh Bros. recently resorted to a novel method of attracting attention to their place of business. They sent out over the city couriers who presented to many of the ladies a very good cotton hose and with this single hose a court-ess note informing the recipient that for ten cents the mate to the hose could be had at their store.

Street Meters went up to Carroll

Thursday afternoon and returned Friday morning with poor old Hans Peterson in charge. Hans escaped recently from the Lincoln hospital for the insane and returned to his old home and after being there for a time again became unmanageable and his wife was obliged to call on the sheriff to come and get him and return the poor fellow to the hospital.

What would you think of the practical economy of a lady who would request lady friends that when abed and in order that they might have something to retain as a keepsake they would remove two of the breadths from the back of the skirt of the dress in which she was "laid out" because it would not be noticed and it would be a pity to waste so much good material. It is said that a Wayne lady made that request.

Almost thirty years ago John Sherbaba's mother presented him a silver half dollar bearing the date of John's coming into this vale of tears. He prized the souvenir so highly that he placed on it marks so that in case of his ever losing it and it again coming into his hands he could easily and readily identify the money. He carried the money as a pocket piece for about twenty years when it suddenly and mysteriously disappeared. Ten years passed and a few days ago he got a lot of silver from the State Bank of Wayne for the purpose of paying off his men at the brick yards and among the pieces he ran across a silver half dollar that attracted his attention and examining it found his old marks of identification and was glad to be again in possession of the piece of money he prized so highly and for which he says he wouldn't take twenty-five dollars.

The railroad company has promised to build a large culvert under their tracks about three blocks east of Main street for the purpose of furnishing an outlet for the waters that during heavy rains make of a portion of the city a veritable frog pond. This promise has been out for some time and has failed of fulfillment until a good many people are looking upon it as not likely to be fulfilled at all unless very strong measures are adopted for compelling a performance of the promise. Railroad companies are long on promises and it is one of their basic principles to do nothing unless compelled to act. Some of these days the Omaha will awaken to a realization that the people of Wayne are not always going to be down on their knees begging favors but will demand their rights and what is more will do it in a way that will compel compliance with their demands.

There are some kinds of news the HERALD very much dislikes to publish and among the things is the fact that Wayne's base ball aggregation is about as near nothing, at all as it is possible to get. The high school boys went down to Wakefield recently and scarcely knew they were in the game, the score being so one-sided that it looked like a man with his right arm and leg both amputated and the right side completely paralyzed. Then the college boys took the matter up and visited our neighboring town last Friday and got about the same dose as the high school lads. Wayne has no ball team that is any good anywhere except around a hot stove in the winter time or under the cooling shade of a spreading tree when the mercury begins to climb in the tube. Too much talk, too little work, too many windjammers and no wielders of the bat, too many dead ones when it comes to healthy athletics is what is the matter of those who would be real ball players. Like Sioux City's league team their playing is fine in theory but of mighty little effect when in contact with real live men.

The Tribune is sorry to report the serious illness of Mrs. Frank Perrin, with what the doctors diagnose as gall stones. She was in a very critical condition the latter part of last week, but is much improved now. O. E. Leslie arrived home from a trip to Texas among the cotton fields and dardies last Tuesday. He went down there to see his mother who is in poor health and brought her up to Denver where she has a daughter living. Prof. Wolfe of the Wayne college, occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday morning in the place of the regular pastor, Rev. Drass, who is still visiting at Newcastles. Although the professor is not a regular preacher his sermon was a very creditable one and interesting from start to finish. Mrs. Mary Needham left on Monday morning for California to visit her son, George and wife. She expects to be absent until about the first of September and then it is probable that Mr. and Mrs. Needham will return with her and again reside in Winsted. The Tribune is glad to report that Mr. Weidner's health is very much improved.—Winsted Tribune.

PROPOSED SHOW

Prospect for Speed Meeting and Stock Display.

MORE SUBSCRIPTIONS NEEDED

A Guarantee of Sufficient Funds Will Insure Success of the Event. —Without Co-operation It Will Fail.

The Wayne Speed and Fine Stock Association is the name of an organization having for its purpose the holding of a speed meeting and exhibition of fine stock at Wayne in September. While a goodly amount of stock has been subscribed for the furtherance of the project, yet the parties having it in charge feel that considerable more money must be raised in order to insure a successful meeting and exhibition and they are going to ask pretty liberal contributions from the business interests of the town before they are ready to announce that it is a sure thing. The organization does not propose to make any half way affair of this meeting and they fully realize that the expense of putting grounds in proper shape for the holding of a creditable exhibition is going to be large, but they believe the incentive given to the fine stock interests and the resultant increase in business throughout the county will more than repay the money and effort expended. The days of street fairs and entertainments of this character are past and people are looking for something that while it amuses and entertains at the time gives something of benefit, and this it is felt is surely done in a meeting and exhibition such as is proposed. But the organization wants it distinctly understood that the success or failure of the move now on foot is largely with the business men of the town. They can be helped liberally for the purpose of making a sure thing of it, or by their indifference can kill the whole movement very quickly, because the men in charge are not going to beg for aid. Much favorable talk for something of the kind anticipated has been indulged in and now the day of talk is past. It takes money to make a success of any undertaking of this kind and it is up to you to do something.

All through the corn belt there is unusual interest now being taken in the growing of alfalfa. This crop belongs to the fampus legume family and is therefore characterized by being exceedingly rich in flesh-forming constituents. When properly formed into hay it is possibly the richest of all legumes. It is claimed that the crop will thrive on land that produces good corn. The Homestead of this week contains a very interesting article on alfalfa, prepared by Mr. N. O. Dunlap, of Kearney, Nebraska. Mr. Dunlap is foremost of an extensive alfalfa ranch, so that he speaks from actual experience. He tells how to prepare the seed bed, how to sow, the amount of seed, etc. Farmers in this community who are not subscribers to the Homestead can scarcely realize what they are missing, because there is not an issue but what contains communications that are worth much more than the subscription price for a year. This office will be pleased to take your subscription at any time.

According to a recent arrangement we are enabled for a short time to furnish the Iowa Homestead and Wayne Herald for $1.25 per year if paid in advance.

The Man Who Loves Words. "Aller folks, of course, have their own pleasures," wrote the author in Harper's Magazine. "But a man who loves words no joy for the world can give equals for him the pleasure of a perfect line. When Thackeray struck his fat on the table, as the story goes, when he had finished the eulogy of Colonel Newcome's death and exclaimed, 'By God, this is genius!' there was no empire he would have accepted in exchange for that moment. Ever satisfied with your true artist is ever content with his work, his ideal escapes him, the words seem poor and empty, etc., compared with the dream. However started that story, however the author would have known that the words are the dream. The dream does exist even as a dream or only very perfectly till it is set down in words, so the words are the dream."

Were Good for Both. Paulding, Miss., May 15.—(Special.) In this neighborhood men and women alike are telling of the great benefit they have received from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and it frequently comes they are the means of curing cases of both sexes in the same family. Take the case of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Taylor. The former, the son-in-law of both, was suffering from "My Back cannot express too much for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I suffered with Rheumatism and Female Weakness for five or six years and I feel that I have been wonderfully helped by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. My back is now a sufferer for the joints of a weak bladder and they also feel him."

The Curious Limpets. Limpets are a curious kind of fish. They resemble the abalone in their habits. The interior is made of the most brilliant, colorful, iridescent blue, predominating. They are found on the west coast of America and are so large that the people there for wash basins. They are ferocious animals and prey on great variety on clams. The limpet feeds slowly, but the limpet gets there. He gets his cover the unsuspecting clam and puts his foot on his shell, generally on the back spot. Then he whips out a long, tongue and proceeds to bore a hole in the clam. When this is done he feeds on the clam. The limpet is found on the shore, in the bay. He eats but a part and leaves the rest for the fishes of the sea.

Fixing Railroad Rates. Fixing railroad rates is like playing a game of checkers or chess. Comes to be benefited, producers, factories or shippers to be added, the pieces used. Every move is studied for its effect on the general result by skilled traffic men. A false move in the market may mean the ruin of a city, of a great manufacturing center, of an agricultural community. It is so delicate a game that each man has an eye on the other's move. So sensitive to the slightest change in the rates that the railroads that in order to do business along their lines they only allow the shipper to pre-arrange rates. Rate-making has become a matter of development, of negotiations for mutual benefit. Why the railroads of the United States have voluntarily made their rates so much lower in this country than they are on the government and operated railways of Australia that they are the lowest transportation rates in the world.

The Optimist Sees It. It had been a sudden and violent in the weather. The mercury had fallen below the zero mark and shivering the boarders. The stable and proceeded to criticize. "It's good for the old story," reported the native boarder. "When a week at a stretch were told to complain. It's good for the old story." "When there comes a snow deep we must bear it neck-deep for the crops." "But I'd now what crop a cold wave is good for?" "The philosophical replied, calmly butting a biscuit.

Useful to Cuticura. At Relief and Speedy Cure of Itchy Humors, Itching Day after Day for Many Months. "I wish you would publish this that others suffering as I see it and be helped. For this awful sore covered my neck and forming which it and it took terribly and then break open, running matter. I had tried many but was growing worse, until Cuticura. The relief gave me instant relief when I had used three boxes of Cuticura. I was completely cured. Miss Nellie Vanderelde, N. Y."

CHAPTER X. At one o'clock in the afternoon the train stopped at Merz station, over five hundred miles from Ulan Ada. We have seven hours to stop at Merz and in company with Major Nitzki I "go" to town. On our return to the station Popoff runs up to me, saying: "I know the name."

"And I?" "You Lou, the great mandarin Yen Lou?" "Popoff?" "I rush to the telegraph office, and from there I send a telegram to the Twentieth Century."

"Now, 10th May, 7 p. m. Train, Great Trans-Siberian, just leaving Merz. Took from Douchuk the body of the great mandarin Yen Lou coming from Persia to Pekin."

"I also get out and take a walk up and down by the side of the front yard and I noticed the door slightly open and shut. A man creeps out on to the platform and slips away through the station, which is dimly lighted by a few petrol lamps."

"I am at ease regarding his intentions. He returns toward the van, mounds the platform and whistles the door gently behind him. As the train on the move it will knock at the panel, and this time."

"More of the unexpected. Instead of waiting at Tseljarjoui one quarter of an hour, we have to wait three. A slight change in the engine of the brakes of the engine had been broken and not until the German baron's remonstrances, we do not leave the station before half past three, as the day is beginning to dawn."

"The train is no sooner off than the passengers go to the dining car. The places next to mine and the major's, which had been occupied since the start, are now vacant and the young Chinese man, followed by Dr. Tio-King, take advantage of the empty seats. The young man who is really the most interesting of the bunch, and of whom his pupil makes a good deal of fun."

CHAPTER XI. The train is running at high speed. In the ordinary service, when it stops at the eleven stations between Bokhara and Samarkand, it takes a whole day to cover the two hundred kilometers which separate the two towns, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon it entered Samarkand in a single day.

"I know the name." "And I?" "You Lou, the great mandarin Yen Lou?" "Popoff?" "I rush to the telegraph office, and from there I send a telegram to the Twentieth Century."

THE PROBLEM OF PRAYER.

By Rev. H. A. Harrington. "Pray without ceasing."—1. Thess. 5:17. To many it is an open question whether it is worth while or even possible to pray at all, and therefore out of the question entirely to pray continually. Paul's injunction appears applicable only to the monk and the recluse. Even if it were possible to obey the commandment, the ordinary man would be doubtful whether the world would be any better if he were one perpetual prayer meeting.

Honesty in clothes is just like any other honesty; you ought to respect it as you do any other honesty.

There are no degrees of honesty, in clothes or in anything else; if a man is really honest he isn't dishonest in anything, not even a little. There is no middle ground; he's either one thing or the other.

The standard of honesty in clothes is all-wool; not a standard arbitrarily set without reason, but based upon many years of experience of wearers of clothes. All-wool is best because it has been proven best. "Mercerized cotton" is dishonesty in clothes, not necessarily in the intention of the maker or seller of it, but in fact. One fabric may contain more "mercerized cotton" than another, but one is just as dishonest as the other.

We stand for all-wool for no other reason than because it's best; and the best isn't too good for us or for you. Our label is the sign of it—a small thing to look for, a big thing to find.

It is reported the Northwestern is anticipating building a direct line from Dakota City to Tekamah thus shortening the distance between Sioux City and Omaha about thirty miles.

Poor old Ed. Roswater, editor of the Omaha Bee, is in court again, this time charged with adultery. He has also had the complaining witness arrested charging him with an attempt to blackmail.

The State bank has been giving the interior of their banking room an overhauling that has greatly added to its appearance. A new steel ceiling has been put on and the entire room nicely repainted.

The Nebraska experiment station claims that as a result of its work the Nebraska wheat crop has increased 10,000,000 bushels per year. Corn from 10,000,000 to 20,000,000 bushels per year. Big figures if true.

Nebraska has about 20,000 cream hand separators at work and most of them have been purchased during the last six years and it is estimated that the increase in cows for dairy purposes during that time has been 200,000.

Carroll has a sensation in the shape of an adultery case, but up to this time the party charged with the offense is not in custody and consequently names are being withheld but in our next issue we expect to be able to give full particulars.

If it is any consolation to you to know that in many places throughout the state the rains and floods have done much more damage than here, you are assured that this section has been one of the favored spots in this respect.

The deal between M. P. Abern and E. T. Rennick in which the former was selling Mr. Rennick his residence property in this city has been declared off because of the inability of Abern to give possession. Mr. Rennick has rented the Kruger residence property of Grant Mears and will move into it about June 1st.

Wayne has a few fellows that come under the act recently passed by the legislature for the care of habitual drunkards at the insane asylums until their desire for strong drink has been driven out of their systems. All it needs is a complaint before competent authorities and furnishing the proof to substantiate the charge and they would have to make the trip.

Mrs. Blanche Hitchcock-Wilbur of Marshalltown, Iowa, who is visiting her parents in the city using a solo at the Methodist church Sunday morning and at the Presbyterian church in the evening. Those who heard her are profuse in their praise of the lady's splendid musical attainments and cannot speak too highly of both efforts. The lady is one of Wayne's girls, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hitchcock.

The latest change slated to occur in the president's cabinet is the retirement of Paul Morton as secretary of the navy and it is said the change will take place about Sept. 1. Nebraska is glad to be honored with a place in the cabinet but Morton's views of railroad control is not in exact accord with the views of the president and we do not believe meetings with approval by the majority of Nebraskans, and consequently there will be no particular sorrow expressed over the gentleman's retirement.

The unmarried ladies who were fortunate enough to get claims at the Rosebud drawings last summer have been so besieged by men desirous of marrying that as a measure of self protection they have formed a matrimonial club and have drafted and adopted a code of rules or requirements which will have to be met by the men before they can be accepted as husbands. Before any man can hope to marry one of these damsels he must serve an apprenticeship of one year on the farm of the lady he desires to wed, must plow, plant, till crops, harvest, milk cows, feed pigs, make himself generally useful and manifest his desirability by exhibiting a sweet temper and shall not be addicted to the use of strong drink or tobacco in any form. In fact he has to demonstrate that he is fit for all the duties a good husband is supposed to perform and then if found worthy he will be taken into full family fellowship.

Mr. Merrill left with his family Wednesday morning and will make his future home in Steamboat Springs, where he has large business interests. His many Carroll friends wish him and his family the best of success.

HOSKINS

Mrs. Erie Norling is quite sick. Dr. Dempster is attending.

Geo. Green left Monday for Spooner, Wis., where he has a claim.

C. W. Anderson was in Chicago this week with two cars of cattle.

L. C. Nettleton has gone to southern California to spend the summer.

Miss Ida Puez has gone to Balfour, N. D., to spend the summer with her brother.

Geo. Colbert has sold his drug store to Louie Ziemer, who took possession Tuesday.

John Hnebler is enjoying a visit from a couple of his brothers from Hot Springs, S. D.

The railroad bridge gang is here this week rebuilding several bridges between here and Norfolk.

The concert given by the band Friday night was a success in every way. About twenty-five dollars was cleared by the boys.

Jack Stanfield, a member of the Nebraska Telephone crew of linemen, was pretty severely injured Tuesday forenoon by a falling monkey wrench. He is in company with several other men was working on the line in the neighborhood of the Abbot schoolhouse east of town and Stanfield, it seems, was just in the act of starting to climb a pole upon which another man was at work when by some mishap the latter dropped a monkey wrench which struck Stanfield on the head and cut entirely through his hat and made a pretty severe indentation in his forehead, falling him to the ground unconscious. He was picked up by his companions in conveyance scoured and the injured man brought to town where Dr. Williams made him as comfortable as possible. While the injury was not a very serious one, yet had it not been for the heavy hat he wore taking off the force of the blow it is likely that it would have been pretty nearly a finisher.

Miss Mahel Puck of Sioux City, piano teacher, will be in Wayne Thursday, Friday and Saturday of each week, with Mrs. A. T. Clark.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

Resolutions adopted by the Degree of Honor of Wayne

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst our beloved sister, Amelia Nieman;

Be it resolved by this lodge that in the death of our sister we have lost a faithful and honored member and that we extend to the bereaved friends our heartfelt sympathy.

Be it further resolved that these resolutions be spread upon the records of the lodge, a copy be sent to the family of the deceased and also to the publisher of the local newspaper.

Mrs. D. E. NEWTON,
Mrs. R. M. FARR,
Committee.

MAIN THOROUGHFARE.

To the Lewis and Clark Exposition June 1st to Oct. 15th, 1905, will be via the Union Pacific. This is not only the shortest way by many miles, but also the scenic route, passing through some of the most charming scenery in the world.

The low rates made by the Union Pacific to Portland this summer offer the people of the East and Middle West an opportunity to visit the Pacific Northwest and see what a great country lies west of the Rocky Mountains. It is a chance of a life time.

There is also an opportunity en-route to visit Yellowstone National Park, June 1st to September 10th. Inquire of A. K. CURTIS, T. P. A., Omaha, Neb.

For Sale, good milk cow. Inquire of D. E. NEWTON.

NEW SIOUX CITY-ASHLAND LINE

The St. Paul contractors who have secured the contract for the grading of the Ashland extension have begun to make their estimates for material and men to be required in the grading of the line.

A representative of the Peter Sims grading company is now going over the proposed route for the extension, making reports to the head offices of the grading company at St. Paul as to the extent of the work. He will specify the places at which the steam shovel will have to be employed in the grading and the places where teams and scrapers will be sufficient. The shipment of paraphernalia will be made according to his recommendations.

It is not anticipated by the graders that a great deal of work will be required on the Ashland extension. The country is generally level. The determination of the Great Northern to make the grade of the road between here and Ashland correspond to the water level of the two places the entire distance will necessarily make some additional work.

Louis W. Hill, vice president of the Great Northern railroad, who was to have visited Sioux City the latter part of last week, has postponed his visit until the weather settles—if that is not too long. When he comes he wishes to make a trip over the proposed right of way to Ashland, and inasmuch as he will have to drive the greater part of the distance he wants good weather.

The Great Northern has again taken up the matter of Third street damages to property owners. Chief Right of Way Agent Hayden, who was in Sioux City recently, took back figures regarding Third street property to submit to the St. Paul offices. It is expected that some definite step will soon be taken regarding Third street. It is likely that General Manager F. E. Ward will visit Sioux City soon with that work in view.—Sioux City Journal.

Colonel Woods, the noted fine stock auctioneer, made the assertion at a sale recently held in Sioux City, Iowa, that Nebraska was ahead of Iowa in the class of cattle it contained, because Nebraska breeders would go anywhere on earth and pay the price necessary in order to obtain the choicest of the breeding stock.

The beef trust investigation at Chicago is unearthing something that Commissioner Gardfield seems to have overlooked. The grand jury is getting onto the fact that the profits as shown before the commissioner by the trust are far short of what is in reality received.

The latest is that George Brooks, of Battle Mills, has the gubernatorial bid in his bonnet. Now George in some ways is a pretty good sort of a fellow but when it comes to being good timber out of which to construct a governor for the great state of Nebraska it looks to us as though he is rather full of loose knots that are liable to drop out most any old time.

In a recent issue of the York Republican, Editor W. E. Dayton writes an open letter "to a young man in the public schools" that ought to be read and re-read by school children and parents everywhere.

Big shippers, the very men who have been receiving rebates and in whose favor freight discriminations have been made, and against which the general public has raised such a storm of protest, are the men being called before the congressional committee on interstate commerce for the purpose of learning, what if any complaints or suggestions they have to make regarding existing rate conditions.

No matter how prosperous the country may be, there are always some who would be pessimistic and complain of their lot. While the mills and forges, the merchants and business men of every class and description are busy, some will not share in the prosperity which they think is their due.

Hell years for the execrable fiend that assails a young girl's virtue and ruins her character. The man who snuffs the light of hope and happiness from precious youth, deserves to be snatched from society and placed where he can have a long time to meditate on the cussedness of his own nature and the wrong of which he is the despicable author.

It is intimated that Governor Miley may call the legislature in extra session sometime this fall for the purpose of enacting some very much needed railroad legislation. We hardly believe the governor will do anything of the kind.

for anything of the kind and we believe the governor is wise enough to know it. The people of the state must bear the burden of unjustly high rates for at least five years more and then if they will exercise due care in choosing the members of the next legislature probably they can have something done.

The members of political organizations do not object to the "machines" when they are permitted to be a vital and potential part of it before as well as after the nominations. Nor do the people object to political leadership when it is of their selection, but they have risen up in righteous rebellion against self constituted bosses who insist upon running things, caucuses, conventions and all.

The building of the Ashland connection of the Great Northern suggests a change in railroad methods. The representatives of the company are already engaged in securing right of way for the road, negotiating for land along such parts of the route as have been located and arranging for entrance into towns through which it may run.

The people of Nebraska are not worrying about who shall be elected governor a year and a half hence. Everything is quiet along the political Potomac, just the way it ought to be and just the way the people want it to be. Everything is going well. The government is running along smoothly. The state's business is being well handled.

With all records being broken in the number of immigrants coming into this country from foreign lands and the wonderful increase of population because of this state of affairs and by the births being greater than deaths, land in the United States has not reached anywhere near its maximum in price. The man who owns good farm lands anywhere in this great country is as sure of a competency for old age as he can be of anything material.

The greatest joke yet sprung on the senatorial investigating committee that is inquiring into the freight rate business is the testimony that is being given by shippers who have been favored through the discriminations against which the president and the people have registered their emphatic protests.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.
Robert Ahern, who was recently taken from here to St. Joseph's hospital at Sioux City, Iowa, died there on Saturday. He was a brother of John and M. P. Ahern and his aged mother lives at Dubuque, Iowa.

A large number participated in the bread-making contest, under the auspices of J. W. Epler & Co's store, and the following ladies proved winners: Mrs. J. E. Madden, first; Mrs. Wm. Baird, second, and Mrs. Geo. Crossland, third.

Wayne's newspapers have reached a solid business base, consistent with the advancement and substantial character of the town and surrounding country. They are as permanent fixtures and can depend as much on steady and profitable revenues as the banks or other institutions.

The railroads seek to show before the congressional committee that rates are not excessive and that to lower them would mean practical confiscation of railroad property. It is not the desire of the American people to be in any way unjust towards railroads or any other interests in which great capital is invested.

Homer, the Dakota county town down on the edge of the reservation, has had a reputation for toughness for a number of years that has not made the good citizens of the town at all proud of it. All kinds of lawlessness has run riot and most of it has been directly traceable to the saloons or the disreputable loafers that are always in evidence around these places.

Miscellaneous, Personal and Otherwise.

Attorney Berry had legal business in Winside Tuesday.

A son was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mildner.

Attorney Welch went to Nobara Tuesday on legal business.

Mrs. I. O. Brown of Winside was in the city Tuesday morning.

Chas. Craven was doing business in Norfolk between trains Tuesday.

Fred Volpp was in town Tuesday on his way from Bloomfield to Scribner.

An adjourned term of district court will be held in Wayne on Saturday, June 8.

Anton Jensen, the Winside meat market man, was in town Tuesday morning.

Chas. Chace of Stanton was in town Tuesday visiting his parents and brother and incidentally talking a little politics with the boys.

The son of Wm. Fisher fell from a telephone pole Sunday, giving one of his feet a bad sprain and necessitating the attention of Dr. Leisenring.

Gus Hansen sold fifty-three head of fat cattle to Ted Perry on Tuesday for $5.50 per hundred and the same day delivered a five-year-old mare to D. L. Strickland for which the latter paid even $200.

Gone Hansen came home from Minnesota Tuesday. While Gene is recovering from his injury received in the railroad wreck last summer, he is still obliged to use crutches to assist him in navigating.

It is said on what is deemed pretty good authority that James J. Hill has bought the Great Western in order to give the Great Northern a Gulf outlet for its export grain and at the same time give it access to the cotton country in order that it may secure the transportation of that important product on its way to the Orient.

Martius Jorgensen and Christa Sundahl appeared before Judge Hunter yesterday and by that official were duly pronounced husband and wife and launched upon life's matrimonial sea. May no rook, breakers or waves overcome their good ship and they be permitted to sail into port at a ripe old age as happy as on the day of their starting out.

Much complaint is being made about seed corn not being good this year. Quite a per cent of corn that farmers had carefully picked and cared for fails to germinate at all and many are puzzled as to the reason for this as last fall corn matured exceptionally well. It is up to the experts to explain what is the reason and to point out the way to avoid the same condition in the future.

The cold wet weather doesn't seem to effect the growth of the pestiferous dandelion. It is probably about as unwelcome a plant as grows out of the earth and about as difficult to get rid of. Lawns and pastures are being overrun by the yellow weed until it is indeed becoming a menace and the man who knows or can devise a means of cleaning it out of the country will be hailed as a benefactor.

Speaking of pig crops, if R. Philleo who has 320, R. A. McEachen with about 500 and Lewis Owen with well up to the 400 mark, are a criterion from which to judge the entire country it will have a flood of porkers next winter. There are several other Wayne county hog raisers that are having wonderful success with the crop and unless disease gets in its work between now and marketing time there will be dollars coming this way pretty freely.

A woman with three little children, the oldest not over five years of age, got off the train from the west Tuesday afternoon and pretty thoroughly canvassed the business houses for aid to assist her and the little ones to reach the home of her parents in St. Paul. She claimed to have come from Wyoming and didn't state whether she had gotten thus far on her journey by the charity of the public or not. I don't know whether Cheney Chace and Charley Craven contributed or not, but it is fair to presume they did, for we well remember the time when they and the writer were in an awful hurry to put up for a busted, stranded female.

Joseph H. Millard, present senator from this state has announced his desire to be his own successor. With Millard, Schneider and others in the field there is a probability of the fight for delegations to state conventions next year being a pretty warm one. There is little doubt but that the convention will nominate the candidate for senator and consequently the aspirants will want the right fellows selected in the various counties to carry out their wishes. At present the general belief is that both aspirants are pretty strongly tainted with corporation influence. Probably they will be able to square themselves or at least be able to make the indifferent members of the party believe they are all right.

The jury in the Hans murder case at Atsworth brought in a verdict of not guilty. In April 1904, Fred M. Hans, a detective, was given a warrant for the arrest of David O. Luse, a wealthy ranchman of Brown county, who was accused of horse stealing. Hans went to Luse's home and attempted to arrest him when it was claimed Luse resisted arrest and Hans shot and killed him. The coroner's jury exonerated Hans. Two years later a grand jury found an indictment against Hans for murder and at his trial in court he was found guilty and sentenced to penitentiary for life. The supreme court reviewed the case and sent it back to Brown county for a new trial and now the jury sets defendant free.

One of the Owens boys who lives in town met with an accident Saturday that deprived him forever of the services of one of his horses. He was driving on the road that runs south from the J. E. Owen place just west of town and as he approached the railroad track observed the afternoon passenger going east and not believing he had time to cross ahead of the incoming train stopped his team so close to the track that a third horse that was being led by being tied to one of the other horses swung around across the track and was struck and killed by the train. The loss is one that falls pretty heavily on Mr. Owen as he is a poor man and the cost of replacing the animal will be quite a heavy burden.

The following from the Sioux City Journal of Tuesday evidently refers to a former somewhat troublesome citizen of Wayne: Henry Hirsch is a gentleman of leisure, but has a disturbing disposition, and in consequence thereof he was soaked $30 or eight days by Police Judge Sam Page on the charge of disturbing the peace. "The man is simply no good" said D. M. Evans, the prosecuting witness. "He won't work, and we have taken his wife and children in to our home. His wife wishes for a living and he has been causing all sorts of trouble, notwithstanding that he has been warned repeatedly to keep away from the place. When I came home the other day I found him spanking his boy with the flat of a saw. Then he came to the house and began to abuse his wife. The woman is trying to make a living for herself and the children." "A man who won't work and then tries to abuse his wife who is doing the best she can need expect no mercy from this court," said Judge Page. Hirsch attempted to prove that he had been working, but made an awful failure of it.

Seventeen cents for eggs, twenty cents for butter. That was the prices paid for these two farm commodities by Wayne merchants for most of the past week. Is it any wonder the old hen and the cow are the farm queens and that they are being appreciated and cared for as never before? Both are veritable mines of wealth, and like all other mines, some are much more productive and consequently of greater value than others. Are you breeding the scrub hen or the scrub cow? Do you know what returns you are getting from each individual bird or animal? If you are breeding and rearing the scrub, or do not know the exact producing qualities of each you are not doing justice to yourself and are letting moments of golden opportunity slip by without reaping the benefits you ought to be receiving. Find out the profitable animals or birds in your keeping and cut out all others. It is no time for guess work, that day is past. This is a time when exact knowledge must prevail or you will lose your position in the procession of successful people.

What is responsible for the sudden and mysterious death of twelve healthy looking cattle during the night at the farm of Frank Zitelaugh, south of the city? Did lightning strike them, without leaving a mark on the barn? Did they die of poisoning in their food, while their mates continued to live and grow fatter? Or did the beasts, tired of the rainy weather, form a suicide club and end their lives together? These are the questions which have been running through the mind of Mr. Zitelaugh since he got up, yesterday morning, went to the stable and found twelve of his choicest animals stone dead. There was not a single mark on the barn to indicate that lightning had struck the place nor had any report of lightning been heard during the night. There was no mark on the cattle to show that they had been maliciously slaughtered by a hostile being, and the owner is quite at a loss to understand how they did come or could come, so silently and so mysteriously and yet so quickly and surely to their deaths. When the cattle had been looked up for the night, they were all looking well and apparently feeling well. They had eaten their usual meal and other cattle that ate the same food are alive to tell the story, if they only would.—Norfolk News.

W. H. Nolin writes to the HERALD from Albion, Washington, and says: "Health and crops good, money plenty, and still advancing. Land that was worth $4,000 to $5,000 per quarter when I came here three years ago is now selling from $8,000 to $9,000 per quarter. My wheat last year paid me $27 per acre. I farmed for thirty years in western Iowa and eastern Nebraska and you know I farmed fairly well and that is a pretty good country, but from a production standpoint I consider this the best land I ever farmed and put three years more like the past three will put land to $100 per acre. Some sales have been made this spring as high as $70 per acre. It is a great country; calm, sleepy, dreamy country, where farmers do nothing six months of the year and take it easy the other six and then make plenty of money. To sum up the climate: no winter, no summer, mostly fall, no extremes of heat or cold, no hot nights. Sleep—Oh, how we do sleep. Yes, a good country and plenty of everything except democracy and say brother, if you see anything that looks like a democrat starting but this way please send him 'round to brother Nolin. I want him to exhibit as a natural curiosity and besides I want to see one before they all disappear from the face of the earth."

The county commissioners have been out along the various streams in the county since the flood and find several bridges gone and others in pretty bad shape. While we know the bridge fund is not very copulent, it is our belief that it would be a matter of economy to build all the bridges on the main traveled roads crossing the large streams of steel. If the commissioners will continue to pursue the bridge policy that has always been in force in the county they will find the bridge fund to be always depleted, because the wooden bridges with plis set in the stream catch all drift brought down by the floods and as a result the bridge becomes a dam in the stream and the waters are blocked and raised until the bridge is lifted from its moorings and floated away and thus the expense is a continuous one for replacing after every considerable rise of water in the streams. With good steel bridges set on seasons built on either side of the stream, the stream itself is unobstructed and the waters carrying the drift flow away freely and the bridge will remain intact. It costs more money to erect steel than wooden bridges, but they are an economy; because they last many times longer and if elevated properly above the stream will be flood proof. It is false economy to pursue longer the old policy and we are satisfied the taxpayers would sustain the commissioners in a change of policy that will make the bridges safe and allow travel to be unobscured by every flood that visits the county.

Mr. Dooley on Business

"Whiniver anybody offers to give ye somethin' fr nawthin' or somethin' fr less thin it's worth, or more fr somethin' thin it's worth, don't take any chances, yell for a policeman."

There is one satisfaction in doing business here that you will not find in any other store in Wayne, and that is that you will never get something for nothing. We never pat you on the back and tell you that you can have any article for less than it is marked. There is another satisfaction in trading at this store that you will please remember, and that is that you can't buy anything here for more than it is worth. Now the same thing can be said in regard to buying something for less than it is worth. We never sell any goods for less than they are worth. Of course our competitors say we do, but we don't think so. We have some goods each year that get out of style and then we don't consider them worth more than half price, and sell them that way. If you trade here you will not have a chance to yell for a policeman for you are always safe here. Can you give us any good reason why you should not do business at this store? You may not like us, but can you afford for that reason, to trade with someone you like and pay more than we sell clothing for? This store has everything to induce you to try it. Our stock is much larger than those of other stores in Wayne. It is clean and up to date. The salesmen are experienced; own homes in Wayne, are settled for good and have an interest in the business. Therefore, they are anxious to make you a permanent customer. Think this matter over if you are not a customer and you will surely be convinced that it is justice to yourself to trade here. We are now ready for summer business and can show you anything you want. Come in any time, look the stock over and try on a few coats of our hand-made, warranted suits. If you have never had on one of our best made suits you will be surprised how much more comfortable and better fitting they are than the suits other merchants sell. They don't cost any more than other merchants ask for the hand-me-down kind. Look into this matter and it will pay you. Come in and let us satisfy you that everything in this ad. is true.

PRESIDENT'S TRIP WEST.

President Roosevelt left Washington in his limousine April 6, after announcing the appointment of the cabinet members, and the departure of the party with the President were S. B. M. Young, H. S. A. Under, who he served in the Spanish war, Dr. A. Under Lambert, a New York physician and personal friend of the President, and Secretary Lock. From the limousine he left Washington the President and himself over to the enjoyment of the vacation.

At every important town along the way as the presidential train sped west the special slowed down and opportunity was given for the people to see a chief executive of the United States.

At Louisville, Ky., the President was given a hearty welcome by Mayor Breen and a committee of prominent citizens met the presidential party at the depot and escorted them to a coach by thousands.

The trip through Kansas into Indian Territory was made hurriedly, although the President made speeches at Parsons, Kan., and other places.

At Dallas the President made his long speech. A banquet was given by the Mayor and the prominent citizens of the city. Here the President said, among other things:

"O my fellow-countrymen, think what a blessed thing it is now that every man in this land can feel the same pride in the valor and devotion of those who fought for one side and those who fought for the other. I can in a sense claim to be by blood at least, a typical President of the United States."

At Austin, Texas, the President met the Governor and other officials and spoke of the regulation of intrastate and interstate commerce.

"Don't be hard on the wealthy," said the President, "but give them a fair deal. If the rich man does not do his duty, I can and I will help you, but if I can't, but don't pinch him, for he is a rich man. If you do not pinch him a rich man is a rich man."

On the morning of April 10 the President went into camp at Camp Roosevelt, eighteen miles southwest of Emporia, Okla.

DEATH IN AN EXPLOSION.

SEVEN ARE KILLED IN RAILROAD DISASTER.

Passenger Train Hit by Dynamite - Locomotive Explodes, Coaches Blown to Pieces and Many Persons Killed.

The western express on the Pennsylvania Railroad, known as the Cleveland-Cincinnati Express, crashed into freight train which contained two dynamite early Thursday morning at South Harrisburg, Pa., and the explosion that followed brought death to thirty persons and grave injuries to thirty others.

Following the crash of the wreck, the distinct explosion was heard, a cloud of black smoke billowed up, and a shower of sparks and flying debris was scattered about the wreck.

Case of the Week. A wreck was caused by a small locomotive which was out of control.

As soon as the wreck occurred, the passengers were ordered to get out of the train.

The crash of the passengers, all of whom were asleep in their berths, were scattered in all directions.

It is impossible for those who were engaged to reach the hospital.

The explosion heard was that of the passenger locomotive.

DECLINING RURAL POPULATION.

Population Increasing in Towns and Decreasing in Country Districts.

A recent State census indicates that while the town and city population of Iowa is increasing, the rural population is declining.

There is no special reason why Iowa should be alarmed. What is taking place here has taken place elsewhere in Illinois, for instance.

Formerly the farmer, no matter how well off he was, struck the farm house to the last, even after he had become unfit for farm work.

But the decline in rural population in Iowa and other middle western States will be continued.

TORNADO IN KANSAS.

MARQUETTE IS STRUCK AND MANY KILLED.

Marquette, Kan., practically lies in ruins, and at least twenty-four persons were killed and nearly 100 injured by a tornado which swept the residence part of the village while the 1500 occupants of the houses were asleep.

Early Tuesday morning there was a terrific roar from the south, and what had been a gate became a hurricane.

The work of destruction was done within ten minutes. Persons sleeping in their beds and frightened women and children, awakened by the blasts and crashing in terror, were in most cases killed or ever by the terrific onslaught which loosened the houses from their foundations or sent them crashing to the ground.

In a score of cases roofs were taken from the houses and carried hundreds of yards. Nearly all the structures were of wood, and the side of one of these was blown in, killing a family of six as it slept.

When the storm had passed—for it was a storm—there was a scene of devastation which was almost beyond description.

ENGLAND AIDS JAPAN.

Warns France, It Is Said, to Become Neutral.

The London Times, in a strong editorial, warning to France of the extreme danger and gravity of the situation in the far East and appealing to that government not to treat the Japanese as aggressors.

Special dispatches from Tokyo to the London morning newspapers represent that the Japanese feeling is becoming highly inflamed at France's alleged failure to prevent ostentatious disregard for the principles of neutrality by the Russian Pacific squadron.

Among Japanese officials in London it is asserted that France had better give up her pretenses in order to give Japan a chance to settle the matter on a basis of equality.

The Times correspondent at Tokyo reports that the Japanese Chamber of Commerce are taking concerted measures to cease all commercial transactions with France.

A telegram from Hongkong to London news agency gives a long dispatch, which it is alleged the French authorities at Saigon refused to transmit.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and thus cause the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

Kodol Digests What You Eat

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. J. E. Owens was an over Sunday visitor at Norfolk.

John Beach, of Carroll was in town Saturday morning.

E. T. Rennie was at Omaha the latter part of the week.

Mrs. S. Jones, of Carroll, was in town Friday visiting old-time friends.

O. O. Fisher was attending to business matters at Sioux City Friday.

Lela Olmsted finished her term of teaching south of Pilger last Friday.

R. F. Swan, of Sioux City, was attending to business matters in Wayne Friday.

A. J. Ferguson and wife left Tu sday afternoon for Battle Creek, Michigan, to spend a few weeks at the big sanitarium.

Blaine Skeen returned from Pierce Monday morning where he had been assisting his brother in the drug store for a few days.

D. E. Miller, the Independent telephone man, returned on Monday from Flora, Indiana, accompanied by his wife and family and will make this city their future home.

Laura Neiland, one of our Wayne girls who has been teaching in the Emerson schools for over a year, has lately been elected to the position of assistant principal at that place.

A. G. Howard was up in eastern South Dakota last week and intended to look over the country some, but heavy rains interfered and he came home and will return at a later date.

J. M. Strahan was an arrival in the city Thursday evening, to visit with his son, Frank, and daughters, Mesdames Conger, Larison and Jones and incidentally to look after business interests of which he has considerable in the city and country round about.

Frank Strahan has been on the sick list during the past week. He has been having a pretty severe struggle with muscular rheumatism and doesn't see any particular joke in being obliged to stand, sit or lie in one position or else have some pretty severe reminders administered when he attempts to move.

George Damon's new home in Council Bluffs, Iowa, is completed and the family have gone there to take up their residence. In their removal our city has lost a most estimable family and one that goes from here with the best wishes of all for their future. This move on the part of Mr. Damon was in order to be nearer his headquarters in Omaha.

J. E. Manning returned Thursday from his Colorado trip very much pleased with the future prospects of the Wayne county colony at Steamboat Springs. He is of the opinion that a railroad will soon be built through the valley in which they are located and when it is they will be on a direct line between Denver, Colorado, and Salt Lake, Utah. At present the building of the road is being hindered by the efforts of other lines that are anxious to prevent this road from building as it would lessen the distance between the two points named about two hundred miles and would have much lower, easier grades and be in a position to haul much heavier trains with the power expended and also to reduce the running time very materially, but he thinks the obstacles being put up by interested parties will eventually be overcome.

SPRING CATARRH

Changeable Weather Causes Disease. Breathe Hyomei and Cure Catarrh.

The changeable weather of spring, with its warm days and cold nights, is responsible for a great increase in the number of cases of catarrh that Hyomei, the only guaranteed treatment for catarrh that does not require stomach dosing, should be used in every house.

For more than a century physicians have been sending patients suffering from catarrh to Egypt, Colorado, or Australia, where the pure, healing air would cure the disease. For one person who could take the trip, thousands have been compelled to stay at home and continue their daily toil. To these sufferers who could not change their climatic conditions, we offer Hyomei, a method by which pure air impregnated with nature's own remedies for the cure of catarrh, can be inhaled by every sufferer in his or her home. Breathing through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, the healing, volatile, antiseptic, fragrant breeze reaches the lungs and all passages as no stomach dosing possibly can do. It gives immediate relief and makes lasting cures. The only reliable outfit, consisting of the inhaler, medicine dropper and bottles of Hyomei, costs only one dollar and extra bottles of Hyomei, if needed, can be procured for fifty cents.

Proof that the Hyomei treatment will do all that is claimed for it is found in the guarantee underwritten by E. J. Raymond sells it, as a return to the buyer the price, if the purchaser can say that Hyomei has not given satisfaction.

SON LOST MOTHER.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it has my mother," writes E. B. Reed, of Hawthorn, Mo. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a cough or cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption which has saved me from serious lung trouble. His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reed, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c. and $1.00; guaranteed at Wayne Drug Co. Trial bottle free.

STRICTLY GENUINE.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchafalpa (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Taok, a well known engineer running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrible pains in his stomach and thought he had cancer. His doctor recommended that he should be operated on. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Just as surely as the sun shines your stomach can be brought back to its original pure condition and life, sweetened by this lasting and truly the greatest digester known. Sold by Raymond's Pharmacy.

MAN'S UNREASONABLENESS.

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican" of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so bad she could hardly leave her bed, and five physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by Wayne Drug Co. Price 50c.

HOT WEATHER PILLS.

Persons afflicted with piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make piles most painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co.

"I THANK THE LORD!"

Orled Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for a long time I got from Bicklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at Wayne Drug Co. 25c.

TIME TRIED AND MERIT PROVEN

One Minute Cough Cure is right on time when it comes to curing coughs, croup, whooping cough, etc. It is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take and is the children's favorite cough syrup. Raymond's Pharmacy.

A DISASTROUS CALAMITY.

It is a disastrous calamity, when you lose your health, because indigestion and constipation have sapped it away. Present relief can be had by Dr. King's New Life Pills. They build up your digestive organs and cure headache, dizziness, colic, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at Wayne Drug Co. 25c.

When e'er you feel impending ill,
And need a magic little pill,
No other one will fill the bill
Like DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

The Famous Little Pills, Early Risers, cure constipation, biliousness, biliousness, etc. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for either children or adults. J. C. P. Jones, Chief Burgess, Milesburg, Pa., says: "I never used pills in my family during the forty years of housewifery, but never more satisfactory results as DeWitt's Little Early Risers." Sold by Raymond's Pharmacy.
