GASOLINE GRIEF

Two Men Are Badly Burned.

TINNER'S FURNACE EXPLODES

New Home of W. H. Gildersleeve Has Narrow Escape From Being Burned.—Saved by Workmen.

What came nearly being a very serious accident occurred at the new home of W. H. Gildersleeve east of town on Thursday afternoon and only by heroic efforts on the part of workmen was the house saved from being consumed by fire and with it the loss of one of more lives. E. Ebert, the tinner in the employ of Neely & Craven, and Arthur Neely were putting in the furnace pipe in the house in question and were working in one of the upper chambers. The tinner went down stairs and left young Neely at work when the latter discovered that it was necessary to have more pressure on the gasoline firepot and began pumping in the air when without the least warning the gasoline chamber exploded and threw the burning fluid all over him and set his clothing on fire. The young man attempted to escape from the room when the flames compelled him to drop to the floor screaming for help which quickly brought Ebert and Jake Doranberger up the stairs to find Neely and the room a mass of flames. On the way up the stairs Jake grabbed a coat that he was passing and with this and a blanket Ebert had secured from another room the flames were extinguished and the burning man rescued, but not before his clothing was burned from his lower limbs and he was pretty seriously injured. Ebert in the meantime grabbed the burning fire pot and hurled it out of a window and in doing so was severely burned about the face, neck and ears and also had his hands burned some. Not much damage was done to the house and both of the injured men are recovering as rapidly as possible.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Lightning struck and burned a stack of hay for W. H. Gildersleeve on Wednesday night.

A party of young people were nicely entertained Friday afternoon at the home of W. H. Gildersleeve east of town in honor of Miss Ora Woodruff.

McTucker, the ice man, got in for the other day by having a plank break and a big cake of ice fall on him that put him out of business for several minutes and led him to think of the uncertainty of life and the narrowness of the stream between this and the hereafter.

We desire to call your attention to the new "ads" of Bush & Franks, the central meat firm, and H. S. Welch, the jeweler, and in fact wish you to read all other "ads" in the HERALD, they contain a wealth of interesting matter that ought to receive your attention.

The neighbors turned out last week and cultivated Burch Clark's corn while he was in the hospital at Creighton. Such acts of kindness are appreciated, and Mr. Clark cannot find words to express his thanks. It shows the spirit of brotherly love existing among the people.—Laurel Advocate.

Several Durac Jersey breeders, among them Hurst, of Wayne, Means, of Randolph, Harris, of Lynch, and Lydon, of Laurel, are to meet at Randolph today for the purpose of arranging a sale circuit for next winter sometime. These are the best breeders of that kind of hogs in north Nebraska and we are certain that their sales will contain some excellent stuff. Keep a lookout for the appearance of their dates.

Talking of grafters with one of our citizens yesterday he told us of a fellow going to John Benning, living about six miles northwest of town, one day last spring and showing John a great thing in the shape of a patent hen's nest made of wire and after talking about right to John succeeded in getting him to part with $30 in cold cash for a dozen of the patent nests which our informant says can be made for about $2 a dozen.

Don't fight your competitor, don't disparage his efforts or find fault with the goods he handles. You have a better field for your energies in attending strictly to your own affairs. Trade is not made by finding fault with the goods of another, but by close attention to your own affairs and courteous treatment of the purchasing public, and by keeping in stock what it wants and your wares and self in the broad light where all must see and be convinced.

The editors of the Pender Republic and the Bancroft Blade were billed to waste two cases of stale eggs on July 4 on the Main street of Pender. The contestants were to be placed twenty paces apart and then each given a case of overripe hen fruit with instructions to see which could hit the other the most times. We have not learned who was proclaimed the victor, but we are willing to hazard a guess that it was a mighty stinking exhibition.

Elsewhere in this issue of the HERALD appears the card of the law firm of Lundberg & Lundberg. The members of this firm are E. R. Lundberg and E. A. Lundberg who will be recognized by most of our readers as the Lundberg brothers. Elmer and Ed., the two young men who are well enough known to need no words of introduction or commendation from us. They have decided to locate here and will endeavor to take care of all legal business entrusted to them to the best of their ability.

Wayne is a living illustration from a business point of view of what good live, advertising business men can make a town. She is today not only a great trading point, but a city of comfortable homes, excellent churches, unsurpassed schools and ideal social surroundings, all made possible by the spirit of push of her business men. Her big fine stock exhibition and speed meeting to be held in September is another illustration of the energy of her people and will without a doubt be one of the best of its kind ever held in the state regardless of the size of the town pushing it.

Saturday evening the bible study circle held a social on the lawn of Rev. E. E. Young and Henry Bush to which were invited the Y. W. C. A. of the college and a great many other ladies, bringing the number of guests up to considerable in excess of one hundred persons, who were nicely entertained with speaking and music and as a final windup refreshments of cake and sherbet were served. The object of this bible circle of ladies is to encourage people in a fuller and closer study of the good book and from all reports they are succeeding admirably.

The heavy rains caused the Norfolk people to abandon their races Monday on account of the track being too heavy to race. Frank Strahan intended to ship five horses to that place and take a shy at the money hung up but the secretary telephoned him on Sunday evening that there was no use to come. A good big crowd intended to go down from here and as it was quite a number went anyway, saw the sights and enjoyed themselves. Here is hoping Norfolk will have a better stand in with the weather man the next time she arranges for an event of that kind.

A. N. Matheny and F. M. Ferguson, of Wayne, have been in Randolph this week interesting our citizens in a telephone exchange. The idea is to establish a first-class exchange for Randolph with switch connections with every rural line in this vicinity. They propose to have continuous service day and night, the exchanges to be never closed. Just what the outcome will be we cannot state at present. The proposed plan we understand will take the place of the local company recently talked of, the taking of stock by local men giving the control of the proposed line to Randolph citizens.—Randolph Times.

The writer returned last Saturday from a trip to Miller, Hand county, S. D., where we found the old town looking fine and prosperous. Rice has failed there in abundance and small grain and grass never looked better in the history of the country. A very optimistic feeling seems to prevail there as to the future of that country and land is steadily advancing in price. Crops generally do not differ in appearance from those in Nebraska. It seems to be the settled conviction of the people there that the Northwestern will in the near future cross the Missouri at Pierre, as their interest would almost seem to warrant such a conclusion. The air there is rich with railroad talk and there is no doubt that the next few years will witness some great development along this line.—Bloomfield Journal.

Wisner had a pretty strenuous time of it one day last week on account of the scandal wagging tongue of a young fellow by the name of Mooney. One of the ladies about whom he circulated the scandalous stories met the young man in one of Wisner's business houses and being in possession of a horse whip, proceeded to give the young devil a flogging that finally brought the husband of the woman and the father of the gossip into contact where the husband gave the old man a pretty severe pounding. All parties were arrested and good stiff fines administered for the fistic encounter. The justice ought to have presented the woman with a chromo and the city council passed a resolution of thanks for taking it upon herself to give the scandal monger his just deserts. Wayne has a number of things that call themselves men that deserve the same treatment and it will not be surprising if some of them get a dose of whip almost any old time.

In this issue of the HERALD appears the ad of McCullen & Cree, real estate agents at Miller, South Dakota. It is the good fortune of the writer to be personally acquainted with the gentlemen comprising this firm and we know them to be strictly honorable and reliable in their business dealings and furthermore know they are responsible for any obligations they may incur and that our readers can place absolute confidence in being fairly treated in any transactions they may have with these men. We also know something about South Dakota lands and know that Hand county, of which Miller is the county seat, has no good and fertile lands as lie between the Jim and Missouri rivers and that today those lands are greater bargains than are being offered almost anywhere and we do not hesitate to advise anyone looking for good lands at low prices to go to Hand county and see for themselves. Both members of this firm are old residents of Hand county, they know the good and bad spots of that country as well as you do the good and bad spots on your farm and we are sure that you get what you pay for if you buy of them.

The Democrats is anxious to see the color of the republican's hair who can beat Charley Reynolds for county clerk or Jack Cherry for treasurer this fall.

We are not ready to name the men that will do it, because we do not know whom the republican convention will name for these two offices, but we believe if the party will display good judgment in choosing its candidates it can easily find the men that can win out. The HERALD has no quarrel with either Charley or Jack, they are good officials, are nice gentlemanly fellows, who always have a glad hand to extend and a smile that never comes off to greet you with, but there are plenty of republicans who have every qualification that either of these gentlemen possess, and then the additional advantage of being republicans, thoroughly in accord with the principles of that party, men who contribute their time and efforts to the upbuilding of that party, and who, unlike the two gentlemen named, do not exert their best efforts to defeat the policies of the great party of progress. The HERALD sees no good reason that anyone can give for the election of Jack or Charley over any good republican, and it is our humble opinion that a personal, quiet, handshaking, begging for votes campaign, such as these two men must of necessity make cannot, and will not win out this fall. Of course after the votes are counted it may look different than it does today.

The stinking, useless plant called sweet clover is getting a hold in this section of country that is more likely to cause inestimable harm than any other plant, weed or pest that has put in an appearance heretofore. Scientific agriculturists have never been able to find any use to which the plant can be put that will make it useful or desirable to have in the fields. Cattle and horses absolutely refuse to eat it after it has passed beyond the first few weeks growth in the spring and even in the early season will not eat it if other forage can be obtained. It is a menace that ought to be extinguished and it is so persistent in its growth that it is not easily overcome and only the most heroic treatment on the part of individual land owners, tenants and road authorities can wipe it out. It has invaded towns and country alike and its noxious presence is easily detected by both its color and the nasty sickening odor filling the air in the neighborhood of it. Its greatest breeding ground is and has been the roadsides and from there it has and is spreading into the fields until it is becoming a real menace and active work must be done or it is going to get possession of much valuable ground. Every road supervisor ought to see that the roadsides in his district are closely mown before this plant goes to seed and by keeping up that kind of campaign it may be that it can be wiped out, or kept within reasonable bounds.

A young lady stepped into a Laurel drug store the other day and asked how to take a dose of castor oil without tasting it. The proprietor fooled around a little while, and then asked her if she would like a glass of lemonade. Of course she would. Then he wanted to know if she tasted the castor oil. "Heavens, no!" she exclaimed. "Did you put it in the lemonade?" O, Lord! I wanted it for my mother," she groaned, as she began to sprint for home. The proprietor is still hiding out.—Coleridge Blade.

The republican state convention is called to meet at Lincoln September 14. Wayne county has 13 delegates. Madison 19, Pierce 10, Stanton 5, Knox 18, Antelope 16, Cedar 15, Dixon 13, Dakota 8 and Thurston 7.

Smoke all the tobacco you desire so long as you put it in a pipe or have it made into a cigar, but if you put the same tobacco into a paper and roll it into a cigarette look out for the officers of the law. They will sure get you.

Ever since Pittsburg has had an iron business it has been customary to cut down the working forces in the mills during the summer months because of a dullness that has always prevailed at that time of year. Now it is announced that no curtailment of forces will be made this year owing to an extraordinary demand for iron of all kinds.

The inebriate law of Nebraska is now in full force, and if you are one of the fellows that keeps your hide soaked with booze, any person so desiring can bring you up before the commissioners of insanity and by furnishing sufficient proof of your appetite can have you sent to one of the state asylums for the insane and have you take the jag cuts whether you want it or not.

It only took engineer Wallace about two weeks after landing on the Isthmus of Panama to find out that he had cut out a job that was just a trifle too large for him. The man who takes and completes the engineering work successfully of that big canal will gain a place in the world's history of men who have accomplished great things that will last through unnumbered ages. The salary attached to the job is a small thing to the man who is desirous of placing his name at the very top of the great roll of honorable accomplishments.

If the managers of corporations are not to be held responsible for ignoring the mandates of the courts, we are as a loss to know just how desirous against the corporations are going to be enforced. It is the belief of most of the plain people that President Roosevelt's whitewash of Secretary of the Navy Paul Morton, in the matter of rebates given by him while in active control of rate making of the Santa Fe was rather illogical and not in accordance with the usual course pursued by the President. Punish offenders whether they occupy high or low places. Let the hand of justice be laid with equal weight on all offenders.

The candidates for Judge of the supreme court and for regents of the university will be in the field very shortly and we hope our editorial brethren of Nebraska who expressed themselves so frequently and forcibly last winter against public officials accepting free transportation from the railroads will get busy. Don't go boasting any of them just because they are friends or have influential friends in your community who want to see them placed in these positions, until you have learned exactly how they stand on the free pass question and in this matter it would be a pretty good idea to have their pledges in writing over their own signature. Now is the time to brace up and be somebody, afterwards it will be the other fellow's mining.

The state bureau of labor and statistics has just completed its work and given out the live stock shipments from the various counties of the state during the year 1904. Dodge leads with cattle and hogs with 28,401 and $5,928 respectively. Wayne county shipped 19,561 cattle, 47,928 hogs, 672 horses and mules and 2,970 sheep. Dixon county shipped 21,206 cattle, 63,330 hogs, 233 horses and 1,483 sheep. Madison shipped 22,200 cattle, 69,245 hogs, 574 horses and 7,425 sheep. Stanton shipped 11,701 cattle, 25,204 hogs, 260 horses and 4,660 sheep. Pierce shipped 19,785 cattle, 38,768 hogs, 97 horses and 5,400 sheep. Cedar shipped 21,194 cattle 60,514 hogs, 650 horses and 1,755 sheep. Cumming shipped 18,901 cattle, 61,768 hogs, 864 horses and 4,320 sheep.

The Chicago grand jury has been investigating the meat packers and has returned indictments against J. Ogden Armour, Charles Armour and four others of the Armour company and Louis Swift and seven others, of the Swift company; Edward Cudahy, of the Cudahy company; Edward and Ira Morris, of Nelson, Morris company and also against several connected with Schwartzchild & Sulzberger. They are charged with violating the Sherman anti-trust law by combining to shut off competition in buying live stock and the sale of meat products; fixing prices by agreement; curtailing supplies; dividing the country into districts or zones and agreements not to invade the territory assigned to each other; in forming a selling pool and for establishing selling agencies whereby all products were handled in common and prices appointed. They are also charged with securing rebates from railroads companies and divers other things

Do You Want Some?

Remember Our Special Offer!

CAR LOADS OF GOLD! They're what will come out of that head house. Not pure gold but ORE of a good grade that will be sent to the smelter and then to the mint and be made into the coin of the realm—Five, Ten and Twenty Dollar Gold pieces.

The more one sees of the properties of the King Solomon more he is impressed with their value. There's gold enough stockholders and their children. It is beyond comprehension to do so when I return home. And all I say will be borne out by what Mr. Alexander in Omaha and found that he had about 25 influential people from Wisconsin. This excursion will mean much to the Company.

See that fellow in the corner? He's a pretty good climber. We don't have as much help in climbing the mountains as he does, but its lots of fun. You see those hands that have not caught hold yet? When they reach him he will go up with a bound. The drills are driving toward Pay Ore and the directors have voted to advance the stock 25 per cent at their discretion. So, you had better be on the safe side and get some as soon as I get home. Remember, Our Special Offer Runs Until the 13th. We deduct the price of your ticket and from the mines on the purchase of 1000 Shares. Cut the Coupon in the lower left hand corner and mail same to-day. I'll get it when I come home.

in violation of the law. It seems that the grand jury were successful in finding a good many things overlooked by the experts of commissioner Garfield.

With the election this fall it is possible that the last remnant of the fusion wave that swept over Nebraska will have passed into history. The supreme justice and the two retiring regents of the university are fusionists, the last that remain in state offices, and it is unlikely that they can be re-elected, or that any of their party faith will be chosen in Nebraska. The fusion party rose into prominence rapidly and suddenly has dropped from control of affairs. A few years represents the influence they have exerted and it has been the overwhelming opinion that they have not come up to the mark they have set in the matter of reforms. During the time that there has been fusion the two parties to the deal have gradually lost influence until it is doubtful if both together can show the strength of the weakest when the scheme was first installed. It is a record that cannot be pointed to with pride, and some new plan must be tried to afford formidable opposition to the republicans who have constantly gained in strength through the years that the fusionists have been losing. Whether the two parties will continue to fuse makes very little difference to the republicans, in view of the showing of fusion strength.

The Most Favored Land in the United States

Rich Soil, Fine Climate, Great Crops, Very Cheap Lands
Entirely Too Low, All in the Great Aresian Belt, Extending From Jim River to the Missouri

Wheat Averages From 15 to 30 Bushels per Acre.
Oats Averages From 40 to 50 Bushels per Acre.
Speltz Averages From 40 to 50 Bushels per Acre.
Barley Averages From 18 to 25 Bushels per Acre.
Corn Averages From 25 to 50 Bushels per Acre.

Read what the following well known men have to say:
I have made several trips into different parts of South Dakota and examined the land pretty thoroughly in various counties and finally I bought a few hundred acres through C. R. Munson and I believe the investment a good one for either the homemaker or the man having money to invest. The soil is first-class and crops excellent and the farmer in a very prosperous condition.
H. KELLOGG, Retired Farmer.

I went to South Dakota last week with C. R. Munson prejudiced against the country and didn't believe that I could be induced by anyone to buy land. But after driving over Beadle county and seeing the lands for myself and the grass and crops growing and the evident prosperity of the farmers I became convinced that it was a good country for investment or for a man to make a home, and I bought a quarter section and am fully satisfied I made a good purchase.
HENRY HANSEN, Retired Farmer.

I was induced by C. R. Munson to go up into South Dakota and look it over and at the time of going had no intention whatever of buying any land, but after driving out over Beadle county and seeing the lands and crop conditions and evident prosperity of the settlers and taking into consideration the low prices prevailing, I believed the lands to be a good investment and consequently bought.
ED. A. JOHNSON, Furniture Dealer.

I accompanied C. R. Munson to South Dakota last week to look over that country and after taking a three days' drive through Beadle county and looking over the country I believed it to be a good country for investment or for a man to make a home, because wherever properly farmed the crops are good, and I bought a quarter section and think it a good investment.
HENRY STUMPF, Farmer.

To whom it may concern: My opinion of South Dakota is favorable. Went to "look" and bought 400 acres on my judgement. You will find GOOD SOIL, good grass and a healthy crop condition—as good as Wayne county, considering the acreage farmed. I bought of C. R. Munson and am satisfied of his reliability.
H. S. WELCH, Jeweler.
WAYNE, Neb., July 5, 1905.

To whom it may concern: We have known C. R. Munson for the past ten years and it affords us pleasure to recommend him as being truthful and honest in all his dealings. We have known parties that have bought land of him without seeing the land and after seeing it found it fully up to his statement. We would not hesitate to take his word for any statement he may make.
HENRY LEY, President State Bank of Wayne.
WAYNE, Neb., July 5, 1905.

To whom it may concern: This is to certify that we have known and had business dealings with C. R. Munson for the past ten years. His business transactions with us have been entirely satisfactory and we heartily recommend him to any one desiring to purchase land as we feel satisfied that everything will be exactly as represented by him.
ROLLIE W. LEY, Cashier State Bank of Wayne.

THE SUCCESSFUL CATTLE MAN DIPS HIS CATTLE

He does not allow them to become the prey of scab, mange, lice or itch. He dips his cattle for two reasons: First, it saves him the lives of many animals and is thus profitable. Second, because it is humane in that it rids the animals of troublesome parasites and heals the wounds upon the cattle. The successful cattlemen know that when he secures the health and comfort of his cattle he is also adding to his profits and while many cattlemen differ on minor points of cattle raising, yet they all agree that dipping leads to health and comfort in cattle and so leads to profit. When you read this ad let it remind you that I have installed a dipping plant and am ready to aid you in obtaining your profits. The price will be the usual one, so drop us a card for particulars. Some complain that the dips separate, but a sample of this dip has been mixed for two weeks and has not separated. The sample may be seen at the HERALD office. Phone 190.

SUCCESS

don't consist in never making blunders, but in never making the same one twice.—Josh Billings.

It has been many years since Josh wrote the above proverb, but we have tried to follow his advice and we are even on the alert to guard against the second mistake. That is why we have so many customers and still growing and here are other reasons:

I sell Barrington Hall (steel cut) coffee—second to none in quality. The best Mocha and Java to be obtained I sell for 35c per pound—usually sold at 40c. If you are a coffee "crank" don't fail to try this article. Big Sioux crackers are taking the lead. It is a nice crispy wafer slightly salted, a full pound package sells for 10c. This article is not made by the trust. It is worthy of a trial for many reasons.

Don't forget us when in need of fruit jars, rubber rings, jar caps and cane sugar. All the necessities for canning fruit kept in stock.

If you are using Sleepy Eye or Gold Medal flour you are one of my many satisfied customers.

We repeat it. The Sioux City Tribune led like blazes in its account of what Indian Commissioner Leupp said of Father Schell and his work on the Winnebago reservation. The Wayne HERALD is invited to take note of this statement.—Pender Republic.

Yes and no. There are a lot of fellows around Pender and on the reservation that have "led the blazes" about Father Schell and his work. The Pender Republic is invited to take note of this statement and demonstrate that it is untrue.

In the case of State of Nebraska vs McKee, in which defendant was charged with assault on Fred Brown "with intent to commit great bodily injury" and which was begun in Justice Feather's court and from there taken to Justice Alter's court on a charge of venue, was finally disposed of yesterday, the court holding defendant in bonds to appear before a district court and answer to the charge.

Information was filed this morning against Fred Brown charging him with being obscene and indecent language on the streets of Wayne to which he pleaded guilty in Justice Feather's court and paid fine and costs amounting to nearly $10. Another information was filed in Justice Alter's court charging him with assault with intent to do great bodily injury. In the last case he waived examination and was held to the district court. All of this is the outcome of the altercation between the defendant and L. U. McKee a few weeks ago.

The Republic hopes that the efforts that have been made to put a stop to the sale of liquor to the Indians in this town will prove successful. We had not intended to advertise the matter if it could be possibly avoided, as the reputation of the town is bad enough already. But since the subject has been forced into print it is just as well to state right here that the only thing that can possibly prevent the election of a temperance ticket next spring is the immediate and absolute cessation of booze traffic with the Indians.—Pender Republic.

Wayne had a little Fourth of July of her own, gotten up very quickly after those who wished to go to other towns had taken themselves hence. There were no fireworks, climbing the greased pole, but the boys could not climb it, catching the greased pig that was not greased, tug of war and a base ball game between the north and south sides in which the south sides won by a score of 17 to 3. The boys who stayed at home did not look the next day as if they had been up against so serious matter, but they had a pretty good time all the same and properly celebrated the day.

I believe under the conditions prevailing for the past two or three years, I would sooner be the street sprinkling man, than the iceman, milkman or plumber who are now drawing in pay while Jupiter (Plutus) furnishes the sprinkling and the iceman is obliged to saw and weigh and the milkman must manipulate the pump handle or the profits do not come and the plumber has to stand in order to be charged fifty cents an hour for labor never performed, but the sprinkler don't have to do a thing but just present his bill and let the mosquito always presents it.

The neighboring towns of Winside and Wakefield surely have no kick coming on the crowds Wayne contributed to their celebrations on Tuesday. The people did not go in pairs, or by the score but they were in it as soon as though about everybody and all their relatives were celebrating the day at one or other of the towns. The boys and girls were not alone in celebrating the day, fathers, mothers, uncles, aunts and grandparents were out in force and stayed until the last event was disposed of then dragged themselves homeward and worn, but filled with the consciousness of a patriotic duty well done.

The Fourth of July celebration brought with it the usual accompaniments of accidents resulting in the maiming of thousands of our citizens. The columns of the daily papers are filled with the stories of hands, arms and legs mangled or torn from bodies, of eyes blown out, of faces lacerated and disfigured, of innocent children who were victims of the carelessness of the smart clerks who put the cannon cracker under the feet of an aged person and then was sorry the old person must pass the balance of their days a helpless cripple. It is a story of suffering that leads to the contemplation of our natal day is not carried on in a manner more befitting to barbarous savages than becoming a people who boast of a high civilization. It does seem as though the yearly anniversary of our natal day ought to be commemorated in a manner wherein the practices of the barbarous ages would not have so prominent a place. Instead of the Fourth of July being a day in which we properly celebrate the crown that established a government of the people, by the people and for the people, we have turned it into a carnival of horror. To the soberminded it has become a day of apprehension and dread that they know will leave its train of desolation and sorrow.

A neglected looking woman sitting in front of the post office with seven hungry little boys ranging in age from a babe in the arms to perhaps 10 or 12 years of age huddled about her was the cause of attracting passers' by on Friday evening. Inquiry brought out the fact that she and her little ones were stranded here without food or shelter, hungry and no money to purchase either. Her story as told to a good Samaritan was that she was wife of one Guntzman, living a few miles from Winside and for some reason, while her husband was away she had come to the preceding Sunday, she had hitched up a team, gathered the children into a conveyance and drove to Wayne where she put the team in Charley Tompson's barn and she and the children went to Sioux City where they stayed until they found their money about all gone when they came back to Wayne expecting to find the team here and drive to the home she had so unceremoniously left. But on arriving here she found the husband had been in town and took the team home and they were thus without any means of conveyance. Good people contributed the wherewith and Billy Dammeier took the entire family to a restaurant and gave them in good measure. After getting their supper Way, the lively man, furnished a team and driver and the family were taken to Winside. The story is told that the woman has a sister in St. Louis who she went to take advantage of the cheap excursion rate of the previous week to go and visit her, and the husband refused to furnish her the means or permission to go and that while he was away from home visiting a sick relative she had up several times and she was thus stranded here and thus secured the means which got her and the little ones to Sioux City.

The total assessed valuation of all property in Wayne county for the year 1905 is $3,949,378, of which $1,068,486 is personal property and $2,880,892 is real estate. The real estate assessment in 1904 was $2,761,958 making the increase in real estate for 1905 over 1904 $30,937. The total personal assessed valuation for 1905 outside of railroads, telegraph and telephones is $3,139,892 and the same property for 1904 was $2,745,745 showing a decrease of $46,147 for 1905 as against 1904. Part of the increase in real estate values is due to school lands that were held under lease hence assessed as personal property, but during the year have been deeded and become real estate and consequently increase the real and decrease the personal to that extent, the rest of the increase is due largely to improvements made in the towns in the way of buildings on lots that were vacant. For the reasons stated in the above and for the further reason of three banks in the county going out of business during the past year largely accountable for the decrease in the personal assessment. The total number of acres and lots taxable in the county is 274,401 and the average assessed value is $9.20. The assessed value of notes held in the county in 1904 was $11,875.82 in 1905 $41,480 outside of bank. Moneys on deposit in 1904 $30,376, in 1905 $37,540. Numbers of horses in 1904, 8694, in 1905, 8434, mules, 1904, 480, in 1905, 467, cattle in 1904, 86,150, in 1905, 82,947, hogs in 1904, 36,754 in 1905, 36,430, poultry in 1904, 89,937, 1905, 93,414.

CARROLL NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Billiter are visiting at Fairfax, S. D., for a few days.

Henry Grovjohn visited with his wife in Omaha over the Fourth. She is still confined in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jones and son, Elmer, are visiting relatives at Red Oak, Iowa, for a couple of weeks.

Carroll people with many others enjoy the new train service which "went into effect on this branch Monday morning.

W. L. Robinson took another bunch of land seekers to South Dakota the latter part of last week some of whom made purchases.

Mrs. Francis, of Red Oak, Iowa, mother of our townsman, F. E. Francis, has come to Carroll to make her home. She will occupy the C. E. Jones house vacated by Rev. Wright.

A large number of Carrolites went to Winside the Fourth. They report a good time while there, but muddy roads and rain on the way home made the drive a bad one. Quite a number went to Wakefield as the train service was in their favor in that direction.

The ball game at Winside on the Fourth between the Winside and Carroll teams proved a farce and disgusting affair owing to some rank and partial decisions by the umpire. It is too bad that men cannot get above their prejudices, likes and dislikes and give the public the benefit of good, clean sport on such occasions.

GAMBLE—At the home of her son, O. S. Gamble, living about a mile from Wayne on Monday, July 3, Eliza S. Gamble, Eliza S. Barton was born in Juniata county, Pennsylvania, in 1828 and was married to Samuel B. Gamble October 23, 1851. She and her husband moved to Henry county, Illinois, in 1855 and from there to Kansas in 1871 and to Wayne county in 1904 where they were making their home at the time of her death. A stroke of paralysis laid low the loving wife and kind mother during the absence of her husband on a visit to sons in Kansas, death remaining within ten hours. The deceased leaves her husband, five sons and two daughters to mourn her passing into the great beyond. The sons are S. W., O. S. and W. B., of this county and J. S. and G. P., of Kansas. The daughters are Mrs. Lizzie Johnson, of Shiels, Nebraska, and Mrs. Ella Smith, of Marriess, Illinois, all of whom were at the funeral which was held at the M. Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and expose the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

Good Lands! Cheap Lands!

In the very best part of South Dakota. As good soil as can be found anywhere, with abundance of water easily obtainable, either by shallow or artesian wells. Hand county is today the best place in South Dakota for the investor or the homemaker. We grow good corn, have an abundance of wild grass and wherever sown tame grass does excellently. Wheat, oats, flax, speltz, potatoes and all kinds of vegetables yield wonderfully. Our lands are low in price, but rapidly advancing. Don't put off going until prices get away up. We know every acre of land in this and surrounding counties and will gladly give you any information you desire. Miller is the county seat and is located on the Northwestern Pierre line, forty miles west of Huron. Call on or write us for information. You can get one-way rates plus $2 at Sioux City any day.
