

THE WAYNE HERALD.

Consolidated With The Wayne Republican

THIRTIETH YEAR.

WAYNE, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1906.

NUMBER 8.

DATES FOR RACE MEET

Stated For the Month of August This Year.

MANAGEMENT GETTING READY

Coming Event Will Excel That of Last Year—Wayne Belongs to the Nebraska Circuit.

The dates for the meeting of the Wayne Speed and Fine Stock association for the year will be August 15, 16 and 17. The management is at work now preparing for the meeting and as Wayne is now a member of the Nebraska racing circuit it is fair to presume that the meeting for 1906 will be a bumper in every way. The purses to be paid by the home association will be considerably more this year than last and will get a great deal of horses here. The big stock end of the fair promises to be far and away better than last year. Wayne county has several hundred more head of pure bred stock of various kinds than it had a year ago, and the breeders are enthusiastic over the approaching exposition and promise that no effort will be lacking to make it a truly wonderful fair. There is not a cloud in the horizon of the big fair and all it is going to need is a united effort on the part of everyone interested to make it one highly creditable.

INTRODUCTORY.

An introductory explanation is deemed necessary for one entering a newspaper field and I shall comply with one's wish as far as possible. I bought the HERALD because I regard it a desirable newspaper property, in the best city of its class in the state—a city in which I intend to live permanently and where I have had no hesitancy in giving my lot. The purchase includes the plant, good will and subscription list. Arrangements on subscription are payable to the undersigned and those paid in advance will be filled out by him. Thus, the subscription list is not disturbed in the least by the change.

My predecessor has seen the HERALD grow materially through his proprietorship of eighteen months, and during that time and by former experience he has earned the reputation of a good newspaper man—a man of ability, influence and strict business integrity. I not only wish to deserve the public confidence and good will hitherto won by the HERALD and keep the paper up to its present high standard, but expect to witness continued improvement, and hope to make its advance fully commensurate with the growth, needs and interests of the city and country. As a community grows and its business resources develop, the revenues of a newspaper are accordingly increased, enabling it to keep pace with the onward movement, meet greater demands and satisfy the tightening expectations of the public.

The HERALD will of course remain a republican paper, advocating republican principles, though it will not be so narrow in partisanship that it cannot detect and denounce unfit or unworthy men seeking political preferment within its own ranks, nor will it be unable to see and applaud the good qualities of one belonging to an opposing party. However, when men of equal fitness are contending for places of public trust, it will be the duty and pleasure of the HERALD, as it should be of all members of the republican party, to stand by and support its candidates.

I shall recognize and favor no special ring, clique or faction in politics, religion or business, if any exist now or in the future, and will encourage unity and co-operation in all things that contribute to the upbuilding of the city and the general welfare of the people. The HERALD is for Wayne and Wayne county all the time. The new man earnestly solicits your acquaintance and friendship and a continuation of your patronage.

FRANK A. BRYNER.

PRIMITIVE STORE BUSINESS.

Judge Feather who will soon yield the office of chief magistrate of the city of Wayne to Pat Coleman, is one of this county's old timers, having landed here in 1877. In a reminiscent mood, he tells how business methods in old La Port contrast with what they are now in Wayne and other towns of the advanced middle west. He referred to the way Messrs. Bressler & Britton conducted their store in primitive days. He says customers went to the store, helped themselves to what they wanted, got out the day book and made the charges. It mattered not whether the proprietors were present or absent, people felt free to supply their needs from the store, and the universal pride of adhering to strict rules of honesty in the early period of the west was an assurance that the owners of the store would not suffer by reason of the lax practice. During one fall and winter a large window was cut by the front of the building and while it may not have been left open to accommodate patrons, it was not covered and served the purpose of allowing free ingress and egress when neither proprietor was on deck. No instance is known of a person increasing weights or taking other undue advantage as a result of the privilege of dispensing goods to himself. Mr. Feather says he went into the store one day when there were five social card games in progress, and stepping up to Mr. Britton, who was participating and in the act of throwing down a trump, asked him to wait on him. "Wait on yourself," exclaimed Britton, slightly nettled by the attempt at interruption.

Though there were many stubborn hardships to overcome in the initial stages of the county's development, yet the pioneer will usually look back with some regret that he cannot again experience the free and easy manners that were in vogue then—a time of more fellowship, generosity and confidence, and less greed, envy and bitter rivalry.

LITTLE GIRL LEAVES HOME.

Special from Plainview to Monday's Norfolk News: Little Vivian Cheney, the 14-year-old daughter of Banker H. H. Cheney of Creighton, ran away from home last night, walked fourteen miles during the night and was found a mile and a half northeast of this city at 7:15 o'clock this morning by a searching party which had started out from Creighton. She was taken back home on a freight train this morning.

No known reason can be assigned to the queer act of the schoolgirl. She was last seen at home at 7 o'clock last evening. At 7:30 she was seen walking east along the railroad track, hurrying away from Creighton.

At 11 o'clock last night a searching party from Creighton started out along the track. A handcar rode the railroad track and a team drove along each side of the track, searching for the child but she was not found until she had been away twelve long, cold hours.

There had been no quarrel with the child at home and nothing that could make her unhappy or anxious to leave home. A rumor in this section of the state that there was a reward of $500 offered, was without foundation.

"SWEET AUBURN" IMPROVES.

The Ponca Journal puts a few extra touches on its last issue to sound the praises of the town's recently acquired public gas lighting and heating plant. It is an enterprise which should have been tackled to municipal improvements ten or more years ago; but Ponca is a staid old town, not given to bluster and plunging, and its advance is slow, steady and sure. It has more miles of cement walks than any town of its size in the state—the result of a general uprising a few years ago to replace dilapidated, tottering boards with the more substantial variety. Now, aided by radiating, omnipresent gas, pedestrians can see and follow the long stretches of splendid walk with surer footsteps, less wabbling uncertainty and reduced chances of having their bones bumped and hurt. With its fifty-some years of life, evolution and improvement, Ponca has attained about all the advantages usual in a city of the second class. Its natural beauty of location, made more attractive by luxuriant trees, vines and flowers, add to the invitation to the homeseeker who wants a quiet, pleasant, comfortable residence, amidst happy surroundings, without fear of undue excitement or nervous disorders.

MOOSE FARM.

What will be one of the most unique farms in the state of Nebraska, or bordering on it will be a moose farm which is contemplated by a number of eastern capitalists north of this place on the Mesopotamia island in the Missouri river. The land is at present covered with short brushy growths of timber, dense enough to make a good home for the animals and also to furnish them with abundant food. It comprises about 4,000 acres and there are a few small farms cleared away by squatters but which will be vacated at the command of the purchasers. It is planned to bring ten female moose and two bulls to this part of the country from a garden in the northern part of Maine and establish them here during the spring months, the best time to transplant moose, the animals being very tractable at this time of the year.—Lincoln Star.

PRICE OF ICE GOES UP.

The price of ice to consumers in Lincoln has been fixed at a rate more than double what it was last year. Thus, it will cost more to keep the refrigerator going and take more cash to buy a dish or quart of ice cream. Everything requiring ice—doubtless including liquid hilarity—will go up in price. That is of course due to the mild winter which kept the ice harvest from reaching usual proportions. The diminished cost of living during the mild winter, which reduced the tax for coal and warm clothing, will be made up in a measure in the near hence by the extra added to the retail price of congealed aqua.

BIG HORSE SALE.

F. E. Strahan and D. L. Strickland were at Sioux City Friday attending the big horse sale and report prices as being pretty good, but sufficiently high to justify the amounts being paid for the animals in the country. O. B. Thompson had four cars in the sale and while he did not lose any money he says the profits received were not commensurate with the amount involved and the risks incurred.

CLASSED AS A FIXTURE.

The Wayne HERALD has been sold again, this time to Frank A. Bryner. The sale covers the subscription list, good will and fixtures. E. W. Huse, who has been with the paper through several of its changes, is classed as part of the fixtures.—West Point News. Be that as it may, we were omitted from the bill of sale.

Mayor Britton says after being released from his duties as executive of the city of Wayne, he will devote more attention to his office as referee in bankruptcy cases, his jurisdiction covering five counties.

The flight of geese to the north and the advent of robins in a chorus of joyful song, suggest the return of spring, and there are already promontory symptoms of house-cleaning—the vernal triumph of muscle over dirt.

Chas. Miller of Winside, who was under treatment in a hospital at Omaha, arrived in Wayne Friday evening, very much improved in health. He has since gone to Cheban, Wash., to remain until fall with his father who resides there.

D. E. Miller departed Monday morning for the Big Horn country, Wyo., where he has gone in the interest of the Thermopolis hot springs which he and Ralph Rundell have leased. Mr. Miller expects to return here in about three weeks.

The Republicans is informed that Ray, supposed to be the third bank robber who operated here and whom Wakefield tried to convict, and whom a Ponca jury kindly let loose on an unsuspecting public, is in jail in Omaha charged with burglary.—Wakefield Republican.

An immense crowd of people thronged the town Saturday afternoon and duly rewarded the expectations, energy and perseverance of enterprising merchants. The lively scene offered further testimony to the fact that Wayne is unsurpassed as an attractive trading point.

The remains of the 14-months-old child of Fred Goss, living near Winside, were brought to Wayne for interment last Thursday afternoon. We understand the cause of the little one's death was measles. The HERALD at this time desires to extend its sympathy to the bereaved parents.

All Fools day, Sunday, was observed by a suspension of business, taking a bath, attendance at divine worship, the usual two or three meals and relaxation of energy incident to a great holiday. In all the proceedings and diversions of the day, the HERALD has heard of no deaths or accidents as the result of being fooled.

O. J. Buffington has received word that the families of J. D. King and L. U. McKee will leave Pensacola, Florida, where they have spent most of the winter, on the 10th inst., and after stopping to visit points en route home, will reach here about May 1. Her many friends in Winside are hoping that the operation will prove successful and that she will soon enjoy good health.—Win. side Tribune.

The alimentary canal was started by the French for the purpose of connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans across the isthmus of Panama. It has been taken over by the Americans and will be completed by President Roosevelt. This remarkable statement was recently carefully written out by a Nebraska school teacher who was taking an examination for a first grade certificate under the certification law.—Wisner Free Press.

The Huse Publishing company has been organized at Norfolk to possess and handle the plant and business of the Daily News, of which W. N. Huse has hitherto been sole proprietor. He now becomes president and treasurer, and his son, N. A. Huse, vice-president and secretary. The corporation which began business April 1, was formed to take the latter into partnership. The junior member of the company has shown exceptional ability as an all-around newspaper man, and his promotion is eminently deserved.

SCHOOL FOR NEXT YEAR

Board Meets and Hires Present Teachers.

TWO OF THE CORPS DECLINE

Salaries of Superintendent and Principal are Increased—Vacancies Filled Later

The school board met Monday evening and among other business, took action relative to employing teachers for next year. Prof. E. P. Wilson is retained for three years at an advance of $50 per year in salary. All of the other teachers are re-employed excepting Miss Daisy Campbell and Mrs. Nellie Jones, who were not desirous of being retained. The salary of Miss Florence Boose, assistant principal, is increased $5 per month.

HONNEKE IS RECOVERING.

There is today a chance that Frederick Honneke, the wounded Stanton county farmer, will recover. Dr. Tashjean returned from the place late last night and says that he now hopes that the man's arm and life may both be saved, though the blood poisoning has made a terrible looking limb. The arm now has twelve slashes in it for drainage purposes, and is filled here and there with drainage tubes. Mr. Honneke's temperature last night was down to 101, having dropped from 103. He is but forty-five years of age, instead of fifty. Hon. George T. Eberly, a prominent attorney of Stanton, has been retained by August Mueller to defend him in his case.—Saturday's Norfolk News.

IMPROVING ROADS.

W. F. Ramsey gave an object lesson on Monday of how cheaply and easily an almost impassable piece of road can be made fairly good for very little cost. The road on which he operated was the mile running east just across the creek south of Wayne. People who had been driving over the road told us that it was about as rough and bad as could be imagined. Mr. Ramsey fixed up a drag and with a few hours work made a very good piece of road. Even an ordinary steel drag will work wonders on a piece of bad road and the wonder to us is that more work of this kind is not done after a very muddy time. Thousands of dollars of taxes could be saved by the stretch in time plan.

NEED OF PURE SEEDS.

Probably one of the most prolific sources of foul weeds that get into our farms is found in the various seeds that are purchased from so called seed men. In order to reap large profits many of these vendors unscrupulously mix or at least do not exercise care in extracting weeds from the seeds they sell and send out over the country and the result is the farms become seeded with the very plants the farmers desire to avoid. Too great care cannot be exercised in the purchase of grass and other seeds. These men who sell seeds ought to be held responsible for the purity of the goods they put out to the public.

LOST HIS JOB.

John Alexander Dowle, self-assumed Elijah, has been kicked out as leader of Zion City, and his wife and son have joined the majority of 600 who repudiated his authority. Another leader has been chosen in the person of Wilbur Glenn Vaiva whose claims to divinity or special authority from the (invisible) world, if he makes any, have not been published. Dowle has done nothing miraculous as yet to renew the reputation of a remote member of his family, but should feel justified in doing so now in view of his forcible ejection from office.

BRAINS AS WELL AS BRAWN.

There is more in brains than in brawn. The successful farmer isn't the man who can do the biggest day's work, but the one who studies the science of agriculture, who puts himself in harmony with the forces of nature and knows how to make every blow that he strikes count for something. It takes as much intelligence to run a farm as it does a factory, and the profits are about as large when the farmer once gets things coming his way.—Bixby, in Lincoln Journal.

MINING PROSPECT.

A special to the Daily Mining Record of Denver, says that a vein of sylvanite ore has just been opened in one of the new tunnels adjoining the King Solomon tunnel on Royal Mountain at Frisco, Colorado, which assays over $370.00 per ton. This will be read with interest by stockholders in the King Solomon company as they are cross cutting the same veins of ore. Several other notable strikes in the district are giving Frisco a great lift.

CAR LOAD OF INDIANS.

Monday afternoon's passenger had on a full car of Indians bound for Sioux Falls, S. D. to testify in the federal court in a lot of bootlegging cases, to be tried. These fellows were off some of the reservations up in the Hills country and it looks to us as if they were getting a nice long ride at Uncle Sam's expense and if the cases in which they are called to testify turn out as most of such cases do the result will hardly justify the expense.

EAT WHAT YOU LIKE

Don't Starve or Diet, but use Mi-o-na and Cure Your Stomach Troubles.

The average treatment of stomach troubles consists of a rigid diet list, which often half starves the patient. Of course it would be foolish for any one who knows that some foods are positively harmful and poisonous to continue eating them, even while following the Mi-o-na treatment, but in ordinary cases of stomach troubles it is not necessary to starve or diet if Mi-o-na is faithfully used, a tablet before each meal.

This scientific remedy, for the cure of stomach troubles, acts upon the whole digestive system, and strengthens the organs so that they are able to digest any food that is eaten without fear of distress. E. J. Raymond has so much confidence in the power of Mi-o-na to cure stomach troubles and resulting ill, that he will give a guarantee with every 50 cent box to refund the money unless it cures.

Hymel's Scientific Treatment for Catarrh by Breathing Medication.

Bronchitis through the pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, Hymel destroys all catarrhal germs in the air passages of the throat and nose, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane and effectually drives from the system all traces of catarrhal poison.

No one should contract Hymel with the patent medicines that are advertised as catarrh cures. It is as superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass.

The complete Hymel outfit, consisting of a neat pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hymel costs but $1, and extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents, making it the most economical method of curing catarrh, as well as the most reliable.

Raymond has sold a great many Hymel outfits and has seen such remarkable results from its use that he will sell it under an absolute guarantee that it costs nothing unless it cures.

THIRTIETH YEAR.

WAYNE, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1906.

NUMBER 8.

DATES FOR RACE MEET

Slated For the Month of August This Year.

Coming Event Will Excel That of Last Year—Wayne Belongs to the Nebraska Circuit.

The dates for the meeting of the Wayne Speed and Fine Stock association for the year will be August 15, 16 and 17. The management is at work now preparing for the meeting and as Wayne is now a member of the Nebraska racing circuit, it is fair to presume that the meeting for 1906 will be a hummer in every way. The purses to be paid by the home association will be considerably more this year than last and will get a great field of horses here. The fine stock end of the fair promises to be far and away better than last year. Wayne county has several hundred more head of pure bred stock of various kinds than it had a year ago, and the breeders are enthusiastic over the approaching exposition and promise that no effort will be lacking to make it a truly wonderful fair. There is not a cloud in the horizon of the big fair and all it is going to need is a united effort on the part of everyone interested to make it one highly creditable.

INTRODUCTORY

An introductory explanation is deemed necessary for one entering a newspaper field and I shall comply with custom as briefly as possible. I bought the HERALD because I regard it a desirable newspaper property, in the best city of its class in the state—a city in which I intend to live permanently and where I have had no hesitancy in casting my lot. The purchase includes the plant, good will and subscription list. Arrears on subscription are payable to the undersigned and those paid in advance will be filled out by him. Thus, the subscription list is not disturbed in the least by the change.

My predecessor has seen the HERALD grow materially through his proprietorship of eighteen months, and during that time and by former experience he has earned the reputation of a "good newspaper man"—a man of ability, influence and strict business integrity. I not only wish to deserve the public confidence and good will hitherto won by the HERALD and keep the paper up to its present high standard, but expect to witness continued improvement, and hope to make its advance fully commensurate with the growth, needs and merits of the city and country. As a community grows and its business resources develop, the revenues of a newspaper accordingly increased, enabling it to keep pace with the onward movement, meet greater demands and satisfy the heightening expectations of the public.

The HERALD will of course remain a republican paper, advocating republican principles, though it will not be so narrow in partisanship that it cannot detect and denounce unfit or unworthy men seeking political preferment within its own ranks, nor will it be unable to see and applaud the good qualities of one belonging to an opposing party. However, when men of equal fitness are contesting for places of public trust, it will be the duty and pleasure of the HERALD, as it should be of all members of the republican party, to stand by and support its candidates.

I shall recognize and favor no special ring, clique or faction in politics, religion or business, if any exist now or in the future, and will encourage unity and co-operation in all things that contribute to the upbuilding of the city and the general welfare of the people. The HERALD is for Wayne and Wayne county all the time. The new man earnestly solicits your acquaintance and friendship and a continuation of your patronage.

PRIMITIVE STORE BUSINESS.

Judge Feather who will soon yield the reins of chief magistracy of the city of Wayne to Pat Coleman, is one of this county's old-timers, having landed here in 1877. In a reminiscent mood, he tells how business methods in old La Port contrast with what they are now in Wayne and other towns of the advanced middle west. He referred to the way Messrs. Bressler & Britton conducted their store in primitive days. He says customers went to the store, helped themselves to what they wanted, got out the day book and made the charges. It mattered not whether the proprietors were present or absent, people felt free to supply their needs from the store, and the universal pride of adhering to strict rules of honesty in the early period of the west was an assurance that the owners of the store would not suffer by reason of the lax practice. During one fall and winter a large window was out of the front of the building and while it may not have been left open to accommodate patrons, it was not covered and served the purpose of allowing free ingress and egress when neither proprietor was on deck. No instance is known of a person increasing weights or taking other undue advantage as a result of the privilege of dispensing goods to himself. Mr. Feather says he went into the store one day when there were five social card games in progress, and stepping up to Mr. Britton, who was participating in the act of throwing down a trump, asked him to watch on him. "Wait on yourself," exclaimed Britton, slightly nettled by the attempt at interruption.

Though there were many stubborn hardships to overcome in the initial stages of the county's development, yet the pioneer will usually look back with some regret that he cannot again experience the free and easy manners that were in vogue then—a time of more fellowship, generosity and confidence, and less greed, envy and bitter rivalry.

LITTLE GIRL LEAVES HOME.

Special from Plattville to Monday's Norfolk News:

Little Vivian Cheney, the 14-year-old daughter of Banker H. H. Cheney of Creighton, ran away from home last night, walked fourteen miles during the night and was found a mile and a half northeast of this city at 7:15 o'clock this morning by a searching party which had started out from Creighton. She was taken back home on a freight train this morning.

No known reason can be assigned to the queer act of the schoolgirl. She was last seen at home at 7 o'clock last evening. At 7:30 she was seen walking east along the railroad track, hurrying away from Creighton.

At 11 o'clock last night a searching party from Creighton started out along the track. A handcar rode the railroad track and a team drove along each side of the track, searching for the child but she was not found until she had been away twelve long, cold hours.

There had been no quarrel with the child at home and nothing that could make her unhappy or anxious to leave home. A rumor in this section of the state that there was a reward of $500 offered, was without foundation.

"SWEET AUBURN" IMPROVES.

The Ponca Journal puts a few extra touches on its last issue to sound the praises of the town's recently acquired public gas lighting and heating plant. It is an enterprise which should have been tackled to municipal improvements ten or more years ago; but Ponca is a staid old town, not given to bluster and plunging, and its advance is slow, steady and sure. It has more miles of cement walks than any town of its size in the state—the result of a general uprising a few years ago to replace dilapidated, teetering boards with the more substantial variety. Now, adding radiating, omnipresent gas, pedestrians can see and follow the long stretches of splendid walk with surer footsteps, less wabbling uncertainty and reduced chances of having their bones bumped and hurt. With its fifty-some years of life, evolution and improvement, Ponca has attained about all the advantages usual in a city of the second class. Its natural beauty of location, made more attractive by luxuriant trees, vines and flowers, add to the invitation to the homeseeker who wants a quiet, pleasant, comfortable residence, amidst happy surroundings, without fear of undue excitement or nervous disorders.

MOOSE FARM.

What will be one of the most unique farms in the state of Nebraska or bordering on it will be a moose farm which is contemplated by a number of eastern capitalists north of this place on the Mesopotamia island in the Missouri river. The land is at present covered with short brushy growths of timber, dense enough to make a good home for the animals and also to furnish them with abundant feed. It comprises about 4,000 acres and there are a few small farms cleared away by squatters but which will be vacated at the command of the purchasers. It is planned to bring ten female moose and two bulls to this part of the country from a garden in the northern part of Maine and establish them here during the spring months, the best time to transplant moose, the animals being very tractable at this time of the year.—Lincoln Star.

PRICE OF ICE GOES UP.

The price of ice to consumers in Lincoln has been fixed at a rate more than double what it was last year. Thus, it will cost more to keep the refrigerator going and take more cash to buy a dish or quart of ice cream. Everything requiring ice—doubleless including liquid hilarity—will go up in price. That is of course due to the mild winter which kept the ice harvest from reaching usual proportions. The diminished cost of living during the mild winter, which reduced the tax for coal and warm clothing, will be made up in a measure in the near hence by the extra added to the retail price of congealed aqua.

BIG HORSE SALE.

F. E. Strahan and D. L. Strickland were at Sioux City Friday attending the big horse sale and report prices as being pretty good, but sufficiently high to justify the amounts being paid for the animals in the country. C. B. Thompson had four cars in the sale and while he did not lose any money he says the profits received were not commensurate with the amount involved and the risks incurred.

CLASSED AS A FIXTURE.

The Wayne HERALD has been sold again, this time to Frank A. Bryner. The sale covers the subscription list, good will and fixtures. E. W. Huse, who has been with the paper through several of its changes, is classed as part of the fixtures.—West Point News.

Be that as it may, we were omitted from the bill of sale.

Mayor Britton says after being released from his duties as executive of the city of Wayne, he will devote more attention to his office as referee in bankruptcy cases, his jurisdiction covering five counties.

The flight of geese to the north and the advent of robins in a chorus of joyful song, suggest the return of spring, and there are already premonitory symptoms of house-cleaning—the vernal triumph of muscle over dirt.

Chas. Miller of Winside, who was under treatment in a hospital at Omaha, arrived in Wayne Friday evening, very much improved in health. He has since gone to Okla. Wash., to remain until fall with his father who resides there.

D. E. Miller departed Monday morning for the Big Horn country, Wyo., where he has gone in the interest of the Thermopola hot springs which he and Ralph Hundell have leased. Mr. Miller expects to return here in about three weeks.

An immense crowd of people thronged the town Saturday afternoon and duly rewarded the expectations, energy and perspiration of enterprising merchants. The lively scene offered further testimony to the fact that Wayne is surpassing as an attractive trading point.

The remains of the 14-months old child of Fred Goss, living near Winside, were brought to Wayne for interment last Thursday afternoon. We understand the cause of the little one's death was measles. The HERALD at this time desires to extend its sympathy to the bereaved parents.

All Fools day, Sunday, was observed by a suspension of business, taking a bath, attendance at divine worship, the usual two or three meals and relaxation of energy incident to a great holiday. The alimentary canal was started by the French for the purpose of connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans across the isthmus of Panama. It has been taken over by the Americans and will be completed by President Roosevelt. This remarkable statement was recently carefully written out by a Nebraska school teacher who was taking an examination for a first grade certificate under the certification law.—Wassner Free Press.

The junior member of the company has shown exceptional ability as an all-around newspaper man, and his promotion is amply deserved.

SCHOOL FOR NEXT YEAR

Board Meets and Hires Present Teachers.

TWO OF THE CORPS DECLINE

Salaries of Superintendent and Principal are Increased—Vacancies Filled Later

The school board met Monday evening and among other business, took action relative to employing teachers for next year. Prof. E. P. Wilson is retained for three years at an advance of $50 per year in salary. All of the other teachers are re-employed excepting Miss Daisy Campbell and Mrs. Nellie Jones, who were not desirous of being retained. The salary of Miss Florence Boege, assistant principal, is increased $5 per month.

HOBNEKE IS RECOVERING.

There is today a chance that Frederick Hobneke, the wounded Stanton county farmer, will recover. Dr. Tashjean returned from the place late last night and says that he now hopes that the man's arm and life may both be saved, though the blood poisoning has made a terrible looking limb. The arm now has twelve slashes in it for drainage purposes, and is filled here and there with drainage tubes. Mr. Hobneke's temperature last night was down to 101, having dropped from 103. He is but forty-five years of age, instead of fifty. Hon. George T. Eberly, a prominent attorney of Stanton, has been retained by August Mueller to defend him in his case.—Saturday's Norfolk News.

IMPROVING ROADS.

W. F. Ramsey gave an object lesson on Monday of how cheaply and easily an almost impassable piece of road can be made fairly good for very little cost. The road on which he operated was the mile running east just across the creek south of Wayne. People who had been driving over the road told us that it was about as rough and bad as could be imagined. Mr. Ramsey fixed up a drag and with a few hours work made a very good piece of road. Even an ordinary steel drag will work wonders on a piece of bad road and the wonder to us is that more work of this kind is not done after a very muddy time. Thousands of dollars of taxes could be saved by the stitch in time plan.

NEED OF PURE SEEDS.

Probably one of the most prolific sources of foul weeds that get into our farms is found in the various seeds that are purchased from so called seed men. In order to reap large profits many of these vendors unscrupulously mix or at least do not exercise care in extracting weeds from the seeds they sell and send out over the country and the result is the farms become seeded with the very plants the farmers desire to avoid. Too great care cannot be exercised in the purchase of grass and other seeds. These men who sell seeds ought to be held responsible for the purity of the goods they put out to the public.

LOST HIS JOB.

John Alexander Dowle, self-assumed Elijah, has been kicked out as leader of Zion City, and his wife and son have joined the majority of 800 who repudiated his authority. Another leader has been chosen in the person of Wilbur Glenn Valva whose claims to divinity or special authority from the invisible world, if he makes any, have not been published. Dowle has done nothing miraculous as yet to renew the reputation of a remote member of his family, but should feel justified in doing so now in view of his forcible ejection from office.

BRAINS AS WELL AS BRAUN.

There is more in brains than in brawn. The successful farmer isn't the man who can do the biggest day's work, but the one who studies the science of agriculture, who puts himself in harmony with the forces of nature and knows how to make every blow that he strikes count for something. It takes as much intelligence to run a farm as it does a factory, and the profits are about as large when the farmer once gets things coming his way.—Bixby, in Lincoln Journal.

MINING PROSPECT.

A special to the Daily Mining Record of Denver, says that a vein of sylvanite ore has just been opened in one of the new tunnels adjoining the King Solomon tunnel on Royal Mountain at Frisco, Colorado, which assays over $378.00 per ton. This will be read with interest by stockholders in the King Solomon company as they are cross cutting the same veins of ore. Several other notable strikes in the district are giving Frisco a great lift.

CAR LOAD OF INDIANS.

Monday afternoon's passenger had on a full car of Indians bound for Sioux Falls, S. D. to testify in the federal court in a lot of bootlegging cases to be tried. These fellows were off some of the reservations up in the Hills country and it looks to us as if they were getting a nice long ride at Uncle Sam's expense and if the cases in which they are called to testify turn out as most of such cases do the result will hardly justify the expense.

THE WAYNE HERALD.

Official paper of Wayne and Wayne county. Published every Thursday. Frank A. Bryner, Publisher. Entered at the Post Office at Wayne, Neb., as second class mail matter. Subscription, $2.00 a Year in Advance.

The requirements of the Australian ballot law calling for a residence of 90 days in cities of the second class, cut out several voters from exercising the right of suffrage.

The republican state central committee will be called upon to elect a new chairman in the near future. It might not be out of place to suggest that E. R. Gurney of Fremont would make an excellent man for the place. His large acquaintance and experience along this line make him particularly qualified. —Lynch World.

The city election is over and probably it didn't go your way, but the mayor elected is a man in whom we believe the city will have a good careful executive. Mr. Piepenstock is a good business man; one who has attained success and whose honesty of purpose has never been a matter of question. He will be a careful executive, one who will seek to do what he believes to be for the best interests of the entire city.

Fortunately for the vast body of consumers of coal, the miners for the mine owners cannot agree among themselves, and as a consequence the great general strike scheduled to begin April 1, and which did start in a sort of a way on that date, promises to be of short duration. For employees of one company can refuse to work on acceptance of the scale of wages without waiting for favorable action on the part of other companies. Many operators have already entered into agreements with their men.

Show us something tangible as the result of Norris' Brown's campaign against the obnoxious grain elevator combine and then we will have greater respect for the many other claims put forth of wonderful things done by him. Brethren of the press, too many things asserted by the parties interested, are accepted as gospel truths without sufficient proof to sustain the claims. Produce the proof.

"The old doctrine of compensation works nights," says A. J. Russell, and then he goes on to tell how John D. Rockefeller, rich as he is, has a stomach that will digest nothing but unadulterated sweet condensed warm milk, a pinch of beef, predigested with papain and pancreatin, perhaps the fourth part of a raw egg and about a thimbleful of weak tea. "This is a spread," continues Mr. Russell, "that is hardly calculated to make a hearty man rub his knees with his hands as he sits facing it, or one that would cause him to give that long-drawn-out, cheerless 'ah' of satisfaction." —Lincoln Journal.

The findings of the Chicago federal judge that the individuals who comprise a corporation are immune from prosecution for violations of law, but the corporations are not, seems to the ordinary mind to be a very queer piece of logic, even if it is law. But the question naturally arises, how are corporations to be kept from violations of law, if the men who constitute, manage and control these organizations are to be immune from criminal prosecution and not held liable for their acts? Judges may be very learned, but in matters of good sense and exact justice they frequently display some very queer freaks in their line of reasoning.

The newspapers that are calling their brethren who are not jumping into the Norris Brown band wagon railroad organs, are exhibiting some indications of ignorance of the subject in hand. We know a few republican papers in the state of Nebraska which are not supporting Brown's candidacy because they are not fully satisfied as to Brown's alliances, and for the further reason that they don't believe it is a matter in which great haste of choice is an absolute necessity. Some of these papers that are not supporting Brown are pretty outspoken in matters pertaining to railroads and other corporations and leave no room for doubt as to how they stand, while as much cannot be said for many of the scolding brethren, and in fact a little investigation on the part of these, might lead some of them to conclude that the originators of the Brown boom get inspiration from sources not beyond suspicion as to corporate influence. Just as well to use your brains sometimes, brethren, and not always be hasty in using ready made opinions.

All parties wishing monumental work by Decoration day are requested to place their orders as soon as possible. I have a large stock on hand of both granite and marble to select from. By calling at the shop, you can see exactly what you are getting; much better than selecting from photographs or drawings, or you can have your own ideas worked into an original design. I have on hand a larger stock than I care to carry, and will make a still lower cut in prices for the next thirty days. R. DUNN.

AS VIEWED BY HAMMOND. Eph Cunningham has disposed of the WAYNE HERALD again, this time to Frank A. Bryner. The HERALD is a paying newspaper, published in a live town and is worth having in the family.

Mr. Cunningham has of late shown symptoms of dyspepsia and pessimism and doubtless disposition of his plant that he may get out into the fresh air and work some of the microbes of suspicion out of his system. —Fremont Tribune.

The Winside Tribune, referring to the McCarthy matter, says: "A few papers have taken it up and condemned McCarthy without any proof except what was said by Huse." All in good time, gentlemen. The News has ample proof locked up in its safe that will substantiate every assertion made concerning Mr. McCarthy, and such evidence will be forthcoming in due time. —Norfolk News.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Mrs. Randall of Holt county, enrolled Saturday to remain till the close of the school year.

Miss Nelzarit has been unable to meet her classes this week on account of sickness. Mrs. Pile has taught most of her class.

Mr. Down of Pender came over with his daughter, Monday. He left the young lady who will spend several months here preparing to teach.

Teachers and others who expect to teach next fall are coming in now. Miss Hype of Wakefield entered this week to remain till November. She takes the teachers' work.

A well attended social was held Saturday evening. It has not been possible to have any of these gatherings since the holidays and the two this term have been much appreciated by both teachers and students.

State Superintendent McBrien wants the College to prepare to accommodate 700 teachers this summer and it will be done. During the summer more can be cared for in town than during the winter. The assistance of citizens will be called for.

Excavating for the new dormitory was begun Monday. An effort will be made to get the building done for the summer term. The architect is working on the plans. An addition to the dining room will be pushed to completion for the summer.

Mrs. Maide of Pilger came over Saturday to visit her son Curtis who has been attending college since September. He completes the business course this term and will spend the spring and summer on the farm. He is a bright, manly fellow who will succeed.

Several young men will complete the business course this term. Some will continue in school, some will return to their homes where work awaits them, and others take positions away from home. The work of this department of the school has been very strong all the year.

force will do the work for the term. Additional teachers will assist during the summer, as a large number of classes will be necessary and all who attend will receive the very best of attention.

Sunday afternoon, Supt. Wilson talked to the young men of the Y. M. C. A. His talk was not only full of interest but was very impressive. About fifty members were present and enjoyed the meeting greatly. Both Christian associations are doing good work and a visit from an outsider is appreciated by the membership.

Many former students are writing to the college that they will return for the summer term to review and take advanced studies. Several will, by taking the Model School work, be able to secure life state certificates. The college will have about 100 in the graduating classes who will be granted certificates.

The Model School will continue during the summer in the college building so as to be more closely connected with the college supervision and methods. It is proving very convenient for the students. The new building will have rooms specially designed for Model school and will continue the entire year under special trained teachers.

The outside work of the college routine indicates the approach of spring. Mr. Neiland remains in charge; Mr. Murrill looks after the repair work mostly; Thomas Nieland will assist in this work, having commenced this week. A large garden will be cultivated in addition to several acres of potatoes, corn and other farm products. Spring and summer will be busy times on the hill for all kinds of work.

The Chapel talks since the holidays by outside parties have been very helpful to the students. Ministers, lawyers and business men have favored us with splendid addresses. Ray Wright made a strong talk Friday morning. On Tuesday morning, Prof. Sutton of Colver University, Lincoln, addressed the students with an interesting talk. About twenty Chapel talks have been given since the first of January.

If all things work out according to Prof. Pile's plans, the new college building will be ready for use by the 1st of November, while the heating and lighting plant will be in operation in time for starting fire for the cool fall days. The commercial department, the science department, library, shorthand, music and some preparatory work will continue in the present building. The offices, much of the class work, the Model school and Chapel will be in the new building.

The following program will be given Saturday evening, the 7th, under the direction of Miss Stewart. The public is invited:

He wrote: "That my darling may make no mistake, remember I will wear a light pair of trousers and a dark overcoat. In my right hand I will carry a cane and in my left hand a cigar. Yours ever, Jack." The girl's father got hold of the note and sent this answer: "Do mine son make no mistakes, I will be dressed in mine shirt sleeves. I will wear in mine right hand a club. ## Don't be Satisfied.

To be satisfied is not a true instinct of an American citizen. The true American people are never content to leave present conditions alone, but are ever investigating to find out how they can improve and make life more pleasant with less work. The merchant you are trading with may be an honest man and is selling you clothing at honest prices, but if he is one who is not a true American citizen and has not the ambition to investigate every factory that makes clothing he can not give you the full value of your money. If he fails to have the ready cash to buy with he can not secure the goods at prices that will allow him to sell you clothing as cheap as we sell it. Don't be satisfied with any merchant but investigate and get the full value of your dollars. We ask no greater pleasure than to show you that no merchant, no matter where he does business, will give you better clothing and for less money than we do. We are never satisfied and are constantly investigating every line of merchandise made that we sell, to secure the best and at the lowest price. Honesty is necessary in business but to sit down with honesty will never secure the best bargains for your customers. We have the largest stock of clothing in Wayne county and it is bought for cash after looking over every good line made in America, we secured the best bargains that money can buy. Will you please call at our store and see it? No matter where you trade call and see what we have, we will treat you courteously and if you then decide to buy elsewhere we will feel disappointed. Come in and investigate: don't be satisfied until you have seen our clothing.

THE PENSION OFFICE

NUMOR THAT SPICES THE ROUTINE WORK OF THE OFFICIALS.

Some of the Qualities and Original Applications For Payments That Have Been Handled In to the Representatives of Uncle Sam.

If he dared to do so the commissioner of pensions at Washington could compile a delightful volume, putting together the strange applications for pensions that come to his office.

Soon after the close of the civil war there came to the pension office in Washington the following unique and peculiar application for a pension that went the rounds of the newspapers years ago:

To Commissioner of Pensions Washington, I beg to say that I have tried in vain for some years to obtain a pension for my services in the war.

My services were as follows: I was engaged in the war against the rebels in the state of Virginia.

them, yet they persist in returning and apparently thrive under persecution.

The gypsies are popularly supposed to come originally from Egypt, as their name indicates, but their origin is traced farther east than the land of the Nile.

They appeared in England about 1500, and twenty-six years later Henry VIII. ordered them to leave the country in sixteen days.

"But what numbers were executed? says one 'old writer,' 'yet notwithstanding, all would not prevail, but they wandered as before, up and down.'"

"Gypsies are no longer a proscribed class," says a recent writer. "Probably the modern gypsy does little evil beyond begging and petty theft, but his determination not to work is as strong as ever, and it seems curious that an industrial people like ours continue to tolerate a horde of professional idlers."

The language as well as the life of the gypsy tribe has a tenacity of its own. Many of their words have taken firm hold in our language.

CITY ELECTION.

Wm. Piepenstock Elected Mayor by a Small Majority.

The city election in Wayne Tuesday resulted in the choice of Wm. Piepenstock for mayor, that gentleman receiving a majority of six votes over John T. Bressler. Here is the result in each ward: First ward—Piepenstock, 65; Bressler, 24. Second ward—Piepenstock, 67; Bressler, 63. Third ward—Piepenstock, 45; Bressler 90.
Rolla Ley was elected treasurer, A. T. Witter, clerk; Geo. Stringer, councilman, First ward; Theodore Duerig, councilman, Second ward; Dan Harrington, councilman, Third ward; all without opposition. D. C. Main and L. F. Neely were elected members of the school board.
A total of 352 votes were cast in the three wards.
The mayoralty is the only office that brought out a contest, and it was carried on in an animated fashion on election day, though no special issues were involved. A spirited contest necessarily followed with two candidates in the field, and the fact that contests for city offices arouse interest in municipal affairs make them desirable in city elections. The practice of having only one man nominated encourages indifference.

In Other Towns.

The saloons formed the issue over which Tuesday's election was fought in many towns. Randolph, Wauss, Wakefield and Lyons elected prohibition boards and will banish their saloons May 1. The saloons won in a bitter fight at Pender. Norfolk elected a democratic board.

BROWN-NIELAND.

At high noon on Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents occurred the marriage of Miss Laura Nieland to Dr. Brown of Emerson, Neb. Miss Mabel Nieland was bridesmaid and Mr. Brown of St. Louis, brother of the groom, was best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ringer of the Lutheran church, and was very impressive.
After congratulations all sat down to a sumptuous dinner of four courses. The charming bride was becomingly attired in white, as was also the bridesmaid.
Miss Nieland is a graduate of the scientific course of the N. N. O., and possesses a life state certificate. For three years she has been a valued teacher of Emerson, occupying at present the position of assistant principal.
Dr. Brown is a rising young dentist of Emerson and is worthy of the talented bride he has won.

They went to Norfolk last evening, the bride to attend the teachers' meeting and the groom to be an attendant at the dental convention.

A furnished cottage awaits them in Emerson to which place they go Friday and will be accompanied by the good wishes of many Wayne friends.
The gifts were many and valuable.

W. O. Gamble expects to go on the excursion to North Platte on Tuesday, the 17th, inst., and people wishing to accompany him will make plans accordingly. There will be reduced railroad rates.

There will be confirmation services next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in the German Evangelical Lutheran church, of which Rev. J. H. Karpenstein is pastor. Ten young people will be received into the church by confirmation.

The hearing of Joe Winkel, involuntary petitioner in bankruptcy, has been on before James Britton as special master of the U. S. district court for the past two days, attorney representing petitioning creditor being Richard S. Horton of Omaha. F. E. Snider of Harrington and O. S. Foster of Omaha appeared for defendants.

John M. Beale did a mighty good job of road leveling south of the city Monday. It is the proper thing to do and the road supervisors in every district can well afford to spend some of the road funds in this manner.

C. M. Craven, Frank Hood, Harry Fisher and Luther Peterson put in most of last week down on the reservation hunting waterfowl and came home Sunday with a lot of birds, having 4 geese and 110 ducks and report the sport as being the best they ever enjoyed.

Prof. Sutton of Otnor University was in Wayne between trains Tuesday morning en route home from Randolph where he gave an address before 500 people Monday night in the interest of temperance. He discussed the same question in several other towns last week. Prof. Sutton is an old friend of Prof. E. P. Wilson of this place and while here was a guest of that gentleman.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP

Resolutions adopted by the committee of the Congress on Uniform Divorce Law last month recommended that no attempt be made to secure a Federal divorce law by amendment of the Constitution, but that each State adopt legislation restricting to its own citizens the remedies afforded by its courts. It is further recommended that a court, in a case between persons married outside the State, shall recognize only those causes for divorce which are recognized in the place where the parties were married. To prevent conflicts of laws, it is recommended that causes and trials should always be before the court, and never before delegated representatives of the court. The committee does not recommend any present attempt at uniform legislation as a basis for divorce, but makes ten suggestions which seem to be in accord with American legislation; former causes of divorce, such as adultery, bigamy, coercion, fraud, insanity, unknown to the other party, intentional concealment of felony, intentional and willful desertion for two years and habitual drunkenness.

There will be no ship subsidy legislation by the House at this session. The committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, to which was referred the bill introduced by the Senate, has directed attention to eight aspects of the proposed legislation. Five of the twelve members of the committee are opposed to the bill, and all of the six Democratic members, with the exception of one, are with them. The principal ground for opposition is uncertainty as to whether its provisions will call for the appropriation of $20,000,000 a year or $100,000,000. The House Republicans on the committee who have lined up against the bill fear that the inducements will be so great as to take from the commerce and lake traffic a number of vessels to enter the foreign trade for the subsidies offered. They insist that any measure which would have such an effect should be opposed by the reason that all ships engaged in domestic and coastwise traffic should be encouraged to maintain competition with the railroads.

What happens when barren lands are irrigated is disclosed in a recent statement by Mr. C. J. Hamedani, an engineer of the reclamation service. A year ago last spring he camped on the banks of the Snake River in Southern Idaho in a sage brush tract of a hundred thousand acres. His camp consisted of the only human beings within thirty miles. Last October, after the rains in the west for the irrigation season were well along, riding in a passenger car on a new railroad over the ground, he found that he had traveled six months before he passed three towns, and was in sight of a population of nearly four thousand. Yet not a drop of water had been delivered for irrigation. The people were on the ground ready to cultivate the land as soon as the water was ready. This season he is doing better than that. A second blade of grass grew up to keep company with a single lone pine blade. Four hundred thousand persons live within only six hours' ride from here.

A special bulletin recently issued by the United States census bureau is reported that in all the benevolent institutions of the country 2,010,272 persons found refuge and relief during 1904, at the close of which 251,372 remained. This may be taken as about the average number of inmates at any one time. The males outnumber the females, largely because of the large number of soldiers' homes. The cost of care for 1904 amounted to $55,577,633, of which about 50 per cent was for hospital maintenance. Orphanages and permanent homes took about $10,000,000 and asylums for the deaf, dumb and blind about $8,500,000. Paying institutions contributed toward the total $18,618,708, and $6,480,226 was drawn from public funds.

Some meat sold by a Washington butcher had intended, for immediate consumption, has become the property of the United States, and forms a part of the exhibit by Doctor Wiley, head of the Bureau of Chemistry, illustrating the latest form of fraud in the sale of food. The meat was bought for lunch clubs, but it consisted merely of pieces of chain meat, probably from the neck, each with a bone thrust through it and the drily tissue drawn over the bone. By and by there will be factories for the manufacture of artificial bones to be worked into pieces of artificial meat from the artificial necks of artificial spring hams. The only thing which is likely to be genuine is the spring, for that can be made of steel.

Instead of drinking water from glasses, certain persons in Washington soon may be using guards in old rusty style. Mrs. Roosevelt is preparing to give such recipients to several close friends. The guards are of a new variety, called the Theodore Roosevelt guard, and are the products of the farm she bought in Virginia last summer. Mrs. Roosevelt would hold almost a half gallon.

Seats are held in the British House of Commons on the principle of first come first served. Consequently fifty new members gathered at the Parliament building at midnight of the day before the session opened last month, to await the unlocking of the doors, in order that they might get good seats by depositing their hats thereon. This is one of the many things which we arrange better in America.

PERKINS IS ARRESTED.

Former New York Life Official Is Charged with Larceny.

George W. Perkins, formerly vice-president of the New York Life Insurance Company, Wednesday was arrested in New York on a warrant charging grand larceny in the first degree. The warrant was issued by Magistrate Joseph Moss. Before he was arrested Perkins had been indicted by a grand jury for a writ of habeas corpus, directing the production of Mr. Perkins before Justice Greenbaum in the State court.

This proceeding takes the case from the jurisdiction of the magistrate and carries it directly to the Supreme Court, which, however, is not the highest court in the state, there being an appellate division and a court of appeals still higher, to which the case might be appealed.

In the petition in which Mr. Perkins asked for a writ of habeas corpus he declared that he is "imprisoned and restrained of his liberty" by the detective force and that he is not committed by judgment of any tribunal. In his petition Mr. Perkins declared also that his imprisonment and restraint are illegal and that the warrant is void in that no evidence of any crime or act justifying his arrest had been submitted to Magistrate Moss, and that the magistrate was without jurisdiction to issue the warrant.

The charge is based on contributions by the New York Life Insurance Company to the Republican campaign committee in 1904. Contributions of the New York Life to the Republican campaign fund in 1904 were made in the form of payments aggregating $18,702,500 from George W. Perkins to Cornelius N. Bliss.

Mr. Perkins before the Armstrong investigating committee on Sept. 14 last testified concerning a check dated Dec. 29, 1904, signed by Treasurer Randolph and Assistant Treasurer Shipman and reading: "To the order of J. P. Morgan & Co., $48,702.50."

"That was money," said Mr. Perkins, "paid to Cornelius N. Bliss on account of the Republican campaign fund of last year. We had agreed to pay him $50,000—as much as that—Mr. Morgan had—if he wished it. That was all he finally called for and it was paid in that way as cash to him."

"This check for the campaign, drawn to the order of J. P. Morgan & Co., has no significance whatever. The money was ordered paid by the president and a check was drawn that was undoubtedly. This is the first time I have seen it. It was the most convenient way to pay the money to me, or a convenient way."

NO CANAL LEGISLATION.

No Bill on Isthmian Waterway Likely to Pass This Session.

Canal legislation at the present session of Congress is regarded as extremely improbable, even by the members of the Senate committee, which, for two months, has been meeting nearly every day to investigate conditions on the Isthmus of Panama and prepare itself to report a bill. Several weeks ago it was decided to postpone temporarily the investigation of conditions that had been made against the management of canal affairs and to devote the time to a discussion of the type of canal to be constructed. The committee is divided on this subject, and there is no indication that the witnesses called and the testimony taken have tended toward harmonizing the views of the members.

Advocates of the lock-level canal proposed by the minority of the board of consulting engineers apparently are confident that this plan will be followed. They have pointed out that if no agreement is reached by Congress the President, in his message transmitting the two reports, the board, has given notice that the administration will proceed with the construction of the lock-level canal.

Engineers who have been before the Senate committee have not agreed as to the feasibility of constructing at Gatun the three locks proposed by the minority, plans, and on this has hung largely the examination of the eight-year project were outwitted against the safety of the locks at that point, but the friends of the minority plan have been greatly encouraged by a cablegram from Chief Engineer Stevens, declaring that there could be no doubt concerning the success of the Gatun locks.

In view of the fact that the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce is not inclined to accept the testimony taken by the Senate committee, it is believed that the house will not be ready for several weeks to take up canal legislation.

STRENGTH OF AMERICAN REPUBLICS.

By Elihu Root.

When President Monroe, coming to the aid of struggling Spanish America, made the audacious and gallant declaration that no part of the American continents must be deemed subject to colonization by any European power, he affirmed the proposition that all the American republics are competent to maintain throughout their territories governments answering to the demands of civilization, preserving order, enforcing law, doing justice and performing all international obligations.

To that proposition all of us stand committed. Its truth we all maintain. Every evidence in its support is a source of satisfaction to us. Every forward step in the path of progress by an American republic is a cause of joy to all of us. May every one of the sisterhood of American republics grow in prosperity and strength. May the independence, the freedom of the rights of the least and weakest be ever represented equally with the rights of the strongest, and may we all do our share toward the building up of a sound and enlightened public opinion of the Americans, which shall everywhere, upon both continents, mightily promote the reign of peace, of order and of justice in every American republic.

VALUE OF THE PANAMA CANAL.

By Governor Charles S. Deneen.

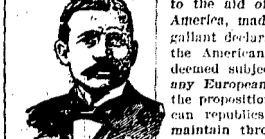

We are all aware that in recent years American diplomacy and American arms have secured for us a new position in the world. Toward the precise spot where the fortunes of war have given us a foothold the old nations have for many years been looking with longing eyes as to the Mecca of commercial enterprise—the markets of the East. In an effort to secure control of those markets which had already been accomplished by European nations while we were still engaged in the development of our internal resources, but barriers of a racial and political character have hitherto in a large measure neutralized their efforts.

A change has come over the scene in recent years, and now not only has Japan thrown off the lethargy of ages and sprung full armed into the same arena with the Western nations, but China herself is awakening from her long sleep and bids fair to open her doors to the products of the Western world and with her 400,000,000 inhabitants to furnish in the near future the greatest market still awaiting development. England, Germany, France, Russia, have all been impressed with the magnitude of the opportunity for commerce which is to come with the opening of the Oriental countries to the trade of the Occident. These countries have spared no pains to extend and strengthen their position along the lines which enable them to participate in its benefits. England especially, with her customary commercial foresight, has established a long line of what we may call points of commercial strategy, leading through the Mediterranean Sea and the Suez Canal to this new continent of the opening of the

VALUE OF THE PANAMA CANAL.

Suez Canal in the old world.

There the interposition of Africa formed a barrier to speedy communication between Western Europe, the British Isles and India and the East, just as South America interposes a barrier here. The removal of this barrier will give us command of the Pacific and will make us masters commercially of that ocean, which is to become in the not distant future the theater of the greatest commerce in the world.

APPALLING STATE OF DOMESTIC LIFE.

By Rev. Madison C. Peters.

Of the decline of marriages, there can be no doubt. There are to-day about 4,000,000 men in the United States past 30 years who are not married, and the number is constantly on the increase.

Independent careers are becoming more and more impossible to the young men in our land; women are filling positions which men should occupy to make homes; the salaries of our young men, even in good positions, are low, good salaries running from $12 to $25 a week. How can a man support a wife on present-day salary?

Marriage is being effectually discouraged by the constantly and greatly increasing cost of living. Parents without fortunes support their daughters in luxury, and girls expect to be thus cared for after marriage. It costs more to sustain such a girl than the average man can earn. The inordinate passion for dress is a terrific impediment to marriage.

The domestic life in this country is in an appalling condition. Many a man has given up all the ambition for study, for self-denying service of his fellow-men, stifled the voice of his conscience when it demanded sacrifice and devoted himself to the one object of gaining the wherewithal to keep sunshine in his home by unlimited indulgence of a fashion-pampered woman.

WOMEN AS BARGAIN HUNTERS.

By Della Austrian.

"There are two things vitally interesting to a woman," said a wise Englishwoman the other day. "One is a bargain and the other is love. A woman can't get along without hunting for bargains. It is not only in Bond street that women hunt for lovely hats, in Rue de la Paix for handsome jewels, and in State street for stunning frocks and hats. I've been all over the world and I've still to find the woman who falls to take interest in a bargain."

Women in most primitive countries are exceedingly fond of decoration. Take the Dinka women in Africa. They have a mania for iron rings. They wear them in their ears, on their arms and legs. The heavier they are the better. The Zulus are equally devoted to decoration. They wear a headress that puts one in mind of a modern tiara, and most strange themselves to become possessors of elaborate decorations, made of animals' teeth. Woman is woman the world over. Climate and occupations may change her interests and her coloring, but her inclinations are always the same. Much we hear of the civilized woman, the cultured woman, the product of this age and generation. For all that we are one in that, we are devoted to dress and enjoy bargain hunting as much as most men do betting on the races.

THE BROKEN ENGAGEMENT.

BETTY sat by the window, looking across at me; I sat by the other window, looking across at her.

"Tell me what you have been doing," said I.

"Nothing," said Betty; "it has been very dull."

"Do you know Ethel Barry?" I ventured.

"To how to," said Betty.

"It is a queer world," I announced.

"Ethel Barry has done something very ordinary," questioned Betty.

"I heard that she was engaged to a fellow named Proctor—"

"A nice boy," interrupted Betty.

"But a trifle—er—quick-tempered."

"Better not to have sown the seed," said I.

"I hate people who preach," said Betty; "but I am sorry. I will hunt her up and be nice to her."

It was something like two weeks later. Betty was making tea.

"I see the cards are out for the Proctor-Barry wedding," said I.

"Oh, they have been engaged a long time," laughed Betty. "I am to help dress the bride. How many lumps? You know I never can remember."

I looked at her. "It was dicerly done," said I.

"Let us go and watch the sunset," she answered, as she got up and began pulling pins out of her hat. Finally she turned from the mirror and smiled at me.

"Let me button your glove," I suggested.

"Thank you," she said, "they go on quite easily. I always button my gloves myself."—F. M. Smith, in Pittsburg Dispatch.

HOMELESS—HOW THE CZAR SUPPRESSES REBELLION IN RUSSIA.

This picture illustrates one of the many terrible scenes that are now taking place in the Baltic provinces, where troops are suppressing the rebellion and crushing out the very suspicion of it by wholesale farm-burning. This particular farm, which is not far from Riga, was visited by troops, who found bullets and rifles there. They burned the rifles and then set fire to the farm; they also arrested the occupants, leaving the mother of the family to weep over the destruction.

Shot by the Law of War.

"The solemnity of a military execution is about the most impressive and dramatic that can be witnessed in human affairs," said Captain W. B. Downing of San Francisco.

"These features appeal to the witnesses of the tragedy in a forceful way, and no man who has ever seen one can banish it from his memory."

"I had a young friend in California who enlisted in the union army at the same time with myself, and, coming East, we were placed in the same company. This young fellow fell in love with a Virginia girl and under her influence deserted to the enemy. A few days afterwards he was captured and, being easily recognized, was condemned to death."

"He had fought like a demon in the engagement, a prisoner, for he knew well what his fate would be if taken. His execution was the most mournful ceremony I ever witnessed, and nothing ever seen on the stage was more theatrical—the procession to the scene of death, the band in advanced playing a dirge, the coffin with the prisoner upon it, the grief in the rear and a brigade of cavalry forming in a hollow square."

"The condemned man, sitting on his coffin, met his fate like a hero, without exhibiting a tremor of fear, and those who witnessed his death were far more excited than his death was a sad thing that such a courageous lad should be sacrificed, but it is one of the necessities of war, and his martyrdom was necessary in order for others from playing the same traitor."—Washington Post.

A COLD BROUGHT IT ON.

Richard M. Penner, a prominent business man of 221 South Orange street, Newark, N. J., says: "Working nights during the winter, I had water brought on a heavy cold, swelling of the limbs and pain in the back and kidneys. Severe congestion of the kidneys followed. Besides the terrific aching there were whirling headaches, and I became exceedingly weak. My doctor could not help me, and I turned to Doan's Kidney Pills, with the result that the kidney congestion disappeared, and, with it all the other symptoms. What is more, the cure has lasted for eight years."

Curing Cuts of Disease.

Diseased seed oats are now marketed while passing through elevators, a number of the grain elevators of Indiana having been equipped for the purpose. The peculiar ailment to which oats are most susceptible is known as "smut" and unless treated such oats produce very inferior crops. However, the disease can be cured quite easily, and the medication is simply formaldehyde. That much-abused germicide.

To treat the oats a veritable drop of chutal about three feet square and forty to fifty feet high is prepared, on the inside of which are placed shelves or deflectors sloping downward, alternating on two opposite sides from top to bottom. As the grain drops from the top it is thrown from side to side by the deflectors and thus thoroughly mixed.

By means of a small steam pump the formaldehyde is then thrown, in the form of a fine spray, against the falling grain near the top of the drop. By the time the grain reaches the bottom it is thoroughly moistened, being allowed to remain in this condition several hours, after which it is run through the drop a second time, with a blast of cold air replacing the stream of formaldehyde spray, by which it is thoroughly dried.

Training the Boy.

"I saw you punishing your boy to-day. What was it all about?"

"I caught him in a lie."

"Oh, well, you can't expect a boy to tell the truth all the time."

"I know; but when he doesn't tell the truth I want him to be bright enough not to be caught at it."—Catholic Standard and Times.

"COFFEE JAGS."

The Doctor Named Them Correctly. Some one said "Coffee never hurts any one." Equivocal of your friends and note their experiences.

"During the last 2 or 3 years I became subject to what the doctor called 'coffee jags' and felt like I have heard men say they feel who have drunk too much rum. It nauseated me, and I felt as though there was nothing but coffee flowing through my veins.

"Coffee agreed well enough for a time, but for a number of years I have known that it was doing me great harm, but, like the rum toper, I thought I could not get along without it. It made me nervous, disordered my digestion, destroyed my sleep and brought on frequent and very distressing headaches.

"When I got what the doctor called a 'coffee jag' on, I would give up drinking it for a few days till my stomach regained its full strength, but I was always frail and worried and nervous till I was able to resume the use of the drug.

"About a year ago I was persuaded to try Postum, but as I got it in restaurants it was nothing but a sloppy mess, sometimes cold, and always weak, and of course I didn't like it. Finally I prepared some myself at home, following the directions carefully, and found it delicious. I persevered in its use, quitting the old coffee entirely, and feeling better and better each day. (U) I found at last, to my great joy, that my ailments had all disappeared and my longing for coffee had come to an end.

"I have heretofore suffered intensely from utter exhaustion, besides the other ailments and troubles, but this summer, using Postum, I have felt fine." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason. Restaurant cooks rarely prepare Postum Coffee properly. They do not let it boil long enough.

CARROLL NOTES.
(From the Index.)
Clard Hancock has accepted a position in a lumber yard and saw mill at Steamboat Springs, Colo. He will not leave Carroll for a couple of weeks however.

Henry Bartells is reported as much better, although he had one bad spell during the week but he recovered from it quickly. He is now practically out of danger.
Mrs. Geo. Kingston is still confined to her bed with the rheumatism. The most of her pain and distress comes from the stomach. She has been bed-fast for more than three weeks.
Will Yaryan bade good bye to his many Carroll friends Tuesday. Will has gone to Portland. He has had a desire for some time to see the west and has made this trip for that purpose. He will be gone all summer, returning in the fall.

T. F. Thomas living southwest of town, had a close call with death on Wednesday evening. He had procured a sure cure from a newspaper and took it to the drug store to be filled. Wishing to mix the drugs himself he took them home. His failure came near proving fatal. At present he is resting easy.

Probably the most popular department published in any farm paper in the world is that of "Farm Furrows, Turned by a Practical Farmer," which appears each week in The Homestead, of Des Moines, Iowa. The writer of these breezy paragraphs of farm philosophy, wit and wisdom, anecdotes and epigrams is George W. Franklin, himself a practical farmer who knows the smell of the soil. Mr. Franklin is a man in the middle period of life, the father of a large and happy family and personally the embodiment of the sunshine which radiates from his delightful "Farm Furrows." Ask ten readers of The Homestead which of its departments they read first and nine of them will say, "Farm Furrows." Yet this is only one of many splendidly written and carefully edited departments of this great agricultural weekly. The HERALD unhesitatingly recommends The Homestead as a truly great and really practical agricultural paper. We have a low clubbing rate with it and are glad to forward subscriptions for it. The farmers of this vicinity cannot do better than to subscribe for it.

NOT A PATENT MEDICINE
Hyomei a Scientific Treatment for Catarrh by Breathing Medicated Air.
Breathed through the pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, Hyomei destroys all the germs and allows passages of the throat and nose, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane and effectually drives from the system all traces of catarrhal poison.
No one should confound Hyomei with the patent medicine that is advertised as catarrh cure. It is superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass.
The complete Hyomei outfit, consisting of a neat pocket inhaler, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei costs but $1, and extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents, making it the most economical method of curing catarrh, as well as the most reliable.
Raymond has sold a great many Hyomei outfits and has seen such remarkable results from its use, that he will sell it under an absolute guarantee that it cures nothing unless it cures.

The wrong way to select horses is the way it is usually done. Price is generally the first consideration. If that is very low the goods seem attractive, regardless of quality. Judge our goods the other way about. Examine into the quality of this harness first. The quality is seen that it is worth almost any price. But our price are not high. Value considered they are remarkably low.
