Carroll sent its usual delegation to Wayne, Saturday, on business. Among the number we noted: R. D. Morrill, Luther Evans, Aug. Lohberg, D. M. Davis and Almond Dinger.

Farmers over in Antelope county are being overtaken from cornstalk disease. Freezing weather seems to lessen the danger from this cause, as the heavier losses appear to follow when the falls are mild.

Will Maupin tells of meeting an optimist who expected that sometime he would drop into a home and find the mother playing the piano in the parlor while the daughter was washing the dishes in the kitchen.

Loess and Oreginton, represent the progressive cities in northeast Nebraska that are going to have modern school buildings. The latter has decided on a $50,000 structure while the former will spend nearly $25,000.

Ed. Knappels editor of the Concord World for the past year has turned the paper back to its owner, Clyde Becker, and quit the country. Mr. Becker has arranged for a new "editor of talent and character" to take charge of the paper.

The Misses Young from Oakland, Neb. arrived Saturday on a two weeks visit with their aunt Mrs. E. P. Wilson.

The late democratic candidate for Governor, A. O. Shallenberger, lives at Alma, where he runs a bank for fun and raises blooded cattle for profit. Last week he held a sale of thoroughbred short horns and sold thirty head at an average price of $150.00.

The records at the county judge's office shows a marriage license issued on Saturday, Dec. 1, to Mr. Jacob Longmeyer and Mrs. Mary A. Marchbank. The bride is twenty-three, while the husband three years her senior. The parties reside near Winside.

Sunday morning subject at the First Methodist church, "Conscious Existence Beyond the Grave." Junior League will meet at 8:00 o'clock. Epworth League at 6:30. The evening address will be the second in the series on the Holy Land. E. O. Horn, pastor.

The Thanksgiving game of foot ball that was to have taken place between the Wayne College and Neligh on the grounds of the latter was declared off by the Neligh boys at the last minute. Their excuse being that they were seriously handicapped because of several players being absent or on the sick list.

Lovie Zandt Parcell, the famous contralto of the Schubert Lady Quartette, has one of the deepest voices ever given to a woman, and is the only lady vocalist able to sing an octave below middle C in concert. Her voice is very powerful and yet so melodious that her strongest tone loses none of its sweetness. Hear her Dec. 10.

Undoubtedly the best patronized show that has appeared in Wayne this season held the boards at the opera house Thursday night, "In a Woman's Power" held the crowd in full shape and the entertainment seemed highly satisfactory. The leading characters were strong and able supported, while the play itself was full of dramatic scenes and bloody deeds.

Oreginton News: E. M. Peterson was in Wayne last week and closed a deal for the steam laundry at that place, and took possession of same the middle of this week. Mr. Peterson has conducted the laundry here the past three years and with good success. He has proven himself a wide awake hustler and worthy the confidence of all, and it is with pleasure the News recommends him to the people of Wayne. He has many friends who regret to see him leave Oreginton, but wish him abundant success in the future. Wayne is a good town and there is no reason why he should not do well there.

Postage stamps of the issue of 1907 put on sale at the 6,000 presidential postoffices will bear on their faces the name of the state and the city in which the postoffice is situated. The reason for this innovation is said in the post-office department to be the belief that it will help do away with the big postoffice robberies and make it much easier to trace criminals. The postoffice robbery in Chicago a few years ago is a good example of the ease with which stolen postage stamps can be disposed of, for no trace of the perpetrators was ever discovered, although nearly $100,000 worth of stamps were stolen. Another reason for the change is to enable the postoffice department to determine the amount of business done by the different postoffices and to prevent padding through stamps sold at some offices to residents who do business in adjoining cities.

A STANDING CANDIDATE.

W. M. Robertson, of Norfolk, and A. A. Welch, of Wayne, were in Pierce Monday afternoon seeking endorsements from our attorneys for the position of Judge of this district. The election of Judge Boyd to congress will leave a vacancy in the judgeship in this district after March 4, next, and it will be up to Governor Sheldon to appoint Judge Boyd's successor. We understand that Messrs. Robertson and Welch are the only candidates for the vacancy. W. W. Quivry of this place has been urged by many attorneys over the district to become a candidate. Mr. Quivry, however, is a close and intimate friend of Mr. Robertson and hopes to see him get the plum.—Pierce Call.

Mr. Robertson, of Norfolk, seems to be a standing candidate for almost any "old thing" wherever there happens to be an opportunity for him to get his "bill" in. The idea with him and his friends is that Norfolk should gobble up everything of this nature there is lying loose around this North Nebraska country from Justice of the Peace up to gubernatorial honors. By dint of her persistence in these matters she is sometimes left out in the cold. In this case it would be well for Mr. Robertson and his persistent friends to take a tumble to themselves and get on the band wagon by making the endorsement of Hon. A. A. Welch, of Wayne unanimous.—Bloomfield Monitor.

THE DAILY NEWS OF DENVER, on December 29th, 1896, says: "It is rarely, indeed that Denver is favor with such vocal execution and instrumental as well. When it is said that the work of the Quartette is beyond criticism and the other performances the work of professionals, the truth is told. It was a rare privilege, thoroughly appreciated by the audience, to listen to the wonderful voices of the Quartette in their harmonious blending and surprising range, and there was not a number on the program but secured an encore." You can enjoy the same thrill that Denver did at the opera house on Dec. 10.

What Every Man Likes Immensely

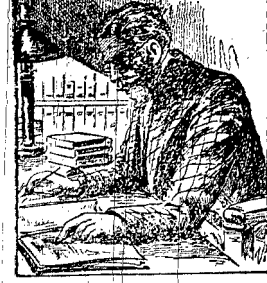

Did you ever know a man who did not want, for once in his life, a complete Shaving outfit? Shaving, at best, is an irritating, tedious, time-taking habit that must be indulged. Every day is a reminder of the thoughtful giver—to the man who has presented to him a set of the following:

- Shaving Brush, Shaving Mug, Shaving Strop, Shaving Soap, Shaving Powder, Shaving Sticks, Shaving Cream, Safety Razor, Blades and Case, Traveling Shaving Sets

Look over his outfit and see if it does not need replenishing. We can supply his needs.

DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Boyd convened court Monday afternoon for the trial of several jury cases.

The first being Watt vs Davidson, which occupied nearly two days for trial. The defendants reside south of Randolph and the trouble grew out of the sale of a threshing machine. Mr. Davidson and several of his neighbors farmers joined in the notes for payment of the same, executing a chattel mortgage at the same time. The thrasher proved no good, and the buyers permitted a foreclosure of mortgage by default. Watt sued on the notes as an innocent purchaser. The circumstances surrounding the transfer of the notes led the jury to render a verdict for the defendants.

A breach of promise case from Hoskins, Bohrerfeiger vs Ernest Behmer sr. was dismissed.

Siefkin vs Goeman, an action to recover the value of a steer lost while in case of defendant was decided for plaintiff.

Fish vs Sundahl, suit on note, defense set up counter claim for credit on notes for old threshing machine turned in. The lower court had allowed the counterclaim, but this was reversed. Judge Boyd instructing the jury to bring in verdict for plaintiff.

Brosler vs Fred Weber was compromised and settled.

Basian vs McManigal a suit to recover wages. Because plaintiff failed to work entire season the defendant set up counterclaim on breach of verbal contract. Jury found for plaintiff and gave him satisfaction in $8.18.

The court also rendered decree of divorce to Mrs. John Owen, while Andy Chance was also set free from matrimonial ties with the custody of his son Guy, the property all remains in the wife's name.

BOY CHAMPION CORN HUSKER.

The following communication appeared in Pender Times last week, and refers to a resident of Leslie precinct in Wayne county:

"Harvey (nicked, 18 year old son of J. J. Chilcott, living 3 miles west of Pender and 24 miles northeast of Wisner, husked 129 bushels of corn in 9 hours and 50 minutes on Tuesday of this week. This corn was husked clean and no undue exertion was used. He was out early the next morning husking. This would be about 20,280 ears or nearly 84 ears a minute. Any one who doubts this can come out to the place, bring some money along, and see for themselves. CLARENCE RUSSELL.

THE COLLEGE BOY.

Cedar Rapids Republican: With a compact and well written play, with a sensible, believable plot and lines full of brightness; with some good singing and dancing and with clever and capable company, "The College Boy" proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the moderate priced attractions of the season.

There were two large audiences at Green's yesterday. Both in the afternoon and the evening the house was filled. There was hardly a vacant seat. And the audiences were both highly pleased with the performance and manifested their pleasure by frequent and hearty applause.

There are but nine people in the play, but it does not take a large number of artists to make an enjoyable performance. That has been demonstrated time and time again and never more thoroughly than yesterday in "The College Boy." The parts were all in capable hands, and there were no weak places.

We Hope to See You

During the next two weeks we hope to meet everyone who lives in Wayne county, or everyone within twenty miles of this town. There are a good many reasons why we should see you in our store before Christmas—more reasons than we have space to mention them. You understand quite well that we have many things suitable for Christmas presents, and that what you get here will reflect your judgment, for you run no risk in getting anything out of style and shopworn. Under no circumstances buy bargain counter stuff for presents, and unless you buy of an up-to-date merchant you will get such stuff. That is a good reason why you should see us before you buy anything for presents. If you have ever traded here it is not necessary for us to tell you that you can save considerable on the price of what you buy, and make it possible for you to make more and better presents with your money if you buy here than you would if you traded elsewhere. Now, we cannot picture out in language the many nice things we have suitable for presents for men and boys, but if you come in we will be glad to show them all. Our nice things cannot be put where you can see them by looking around, but ask us to show you what we have and you certainly will find what you may want. It sometimes is hard for anyone to decide what is the proper thing to buy and what size to get; we have sold presents for more than thirty years and can easily help you to decide even though you should choose to buy somewhere else, we will be glad to assist you. A good many who read this have been generous with us during the past year, and were it possible we would be glad to make each and everyone a nice present. As we cannot do that we will gladly do anything we can to help you select what you want, or give you the sizes your friends wear. We know the sizes worn by a great many of our customers. It is known by nearly everyone that our stock is the largest and best selected in Wayne and our prices uniformly lower than other merchants ask. We are this year better prepared to show you fine Hand-made Suits and Overcoats than any time heretofore. Our Fur coats are the best, and our Staley underwear is constantly getting more popular. You may have forgotten that we have more Men's and Boys' shoes than any other store in the county.

We hope to see you and then we will have no trouble to please you. Come and see us before Christmas and you will be happy.

DISFIGURING SKIN DISEASE.

Impossible to Get Employment, as Face and Body Were Covered with Spruce—Cured by Cuticura. "Since the year 1904 I have been troubled with a very bad case of eczema which I have spent hundreds of dollars trying to cure, and I went to the hospital, but they failed to cure me, and it was getting worse all the time. I've weeks ago my wife bought a box of Cuticura Ointment and, one case of Cuticura Soap, and I am pleased to say that I am now completely cured and well. It was impossible for me to get employment, as my face, head and body were covered with it. The eczema first appeared on the top of my head, and it had worked all the way around down the back of my neck and around my throat, down my body and around the hips. It itched and I would be obliged to scratch it and the flesh was raw. I am now all well, and I will be pleased to recommend the Cuticura Remedies to all persons who wish a speedy and permanent cure of skin diseases." Thomas H. Rossiter, 250 Prospect Street, East Orange, N. J. Mar. 30, 1905.

FILLING UP THE CANADIAN WEST. The American Settler is Welcomed to Canada. A number of the leading newspapers on this side of the line have been noting the growth of the Canadian West in recent years, and draw attention to the fact that there seems to be no abatement of the influx of settlers to that great grain-growing country.

Canada West continues to grow. There were 4,174 homesteads enrolled in July of this year, as against 3,674 in July, 1905. Canada plumes itself over this fact with becoming pride. But what appears to make our neighbors proudest is the statement that of these 4,174 homesteads, 1,212 were from the 57 of the line. Little is said about the 3,962 Canadians who crossed the border to take up homes in Canada West, or of the 1,238 from Great Britain, or of the 1,238 from other British countries. It appears that the item in this July report that makes Canada rejoice most is that of the 1,412 American farmers who decided to try their fortunes in Canada West.

The Minister's Wife

By MRS. HENRY WOOD

CHAPTER II.—(Continued.) The evening was but another of those Mr. Baumgarten sometimes spent at the Avon House, the time of her ill-starred passion. His manner to women was naturally kind, and to Grace, with her face so naturally brought to bear upon him, he was especially warm. That he never for one moment had outstepped the bounds of friendly intercourse Grace attributed entirely to the self-restraint imposed by his interior position; but she did not feel her need for it, and she was not at all aware of it.

CHAPTER III. The morning of the letter arrived containing the promise, and also the information that his lordship was back at his house in London. Lady Avon was feeling unusually ill. Her head was aching violently, and she had her mouth put the plaster as she would open it. This sitting up in her dressing room and she told Grace of the arrival of the unexpected promise.

CHAPTER IV. "Oh, let me see it!" exclaimed Grace, in her incautious excitement, holding out her hand for the letter. The head it languidly, with flushing cheeks and trembling fingers. Lady Avon could not note this. It somewhat puzzled her. "Grace," she said, "I cannot think why you should be so eager. What does it signify to you who gets the living—whether Mr. Baumgarten or another?"

CHAPTER V. "I have been sitting with Mrs. Chester, and thought I would just ask in passing, why would you open it?" she said, leaning through the gate, as if he would offer an apology for calling. "The last time I was here she seemed so very poorly."

CHAPTER VI. "I am not a bit better, I am sorry to say, today she has not come downstairs at all," replied Grace, meeting his offered hand. "What will you give me for some of these pills?" she asked, holding out her hand for the box. "What may I give?" he said. "Nothing that I could give would be of value to you."

CHAPTER VII. "How do you know that, Mr. Baumgarten?" she asked, with a burning blush. For she had spoken unguardedly. Grace laughed merrily, stepped a few steps backward, and drew a letter from her pocket. "It is a letter from your mamma to mamma this morning, and it has a secret in it. What will you give me to read you just one bit of it?"

CHAPTER VIII. "Thank you," she said, faintly. "The angel has passed. I must go indoors now." Mr. Baumgarten held out his arm, but she did not step forward. She turned to the right and opened the door she turned to the left. "He held out his hand, but she did not appear to see it. She ran up, and he turned away to depart, thinking she must be in great pain."

Don't Know the Game. Chauncey Olcott tells a funny story, which happened some years ago when he was living at home with his parents. He became imbued with the idea that he was quite a sports, so early one morning, as he softly turned the latch-key and stole into the paternal hall, he was surprised to find his father awaiting him. "What is this I hear?" asked the father, sternly. "I am told you are playing polo?" "Why, father, I haven't the least idea of how to play the game."

THE POPULAR PULPIT

QUALITY VS. EQUALITY. By Rev. D. E. Fox, D. D. Ours is pre-eminently an age of discontent. We are all protestants. Men note the glaring inequalities that obtain, then quote the Declaration of Independence to the effect that "All men are created equal, and are endowed by the Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are, life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

ACQUAINTANCE IN CHURCH. By Rev. Russell H. Conwell, D. D. Text: "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." And straightway they left their nets and followed him. "Christ set up a Kingdom in which the right persons should ultimately be brought together. The evils that now exist in the commercial world, and which make America so often ashamed of its wealthy men, have arisen because of the lack of this spirit of Christianity, which brings men together in a common cause and leads them to open their hearts fully to each other."

Not Entirely Satisfactory. The Eskimo had eaten his first bowl of kerosene. "It has a delicious flavor," he said; "but it isn't quite so rich and satisfying as a tall candle."

Cataract Cannot Be Cured. With LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as the latest medical science discloses, cataract is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal medicine. It is a disease of the eye, but it is not a disease of the eye alone. It is a disease of the blood, and it is a disease of the system.

NEW YEAR'S CALLS. A New Drink to Replace the Old Time "Apple-Jack." Twenty-five years ago the custom of making New Year's calls was a delightful one for all concerned, until some of the boys got more "egg-nog" or "apple-jack" than they could successfully carry.

Shorter Sermons. Revenge gives birth to remorse. Little rests fall for large virtues. The best work of all is work for all. No man keeps up his reputation by talking about it.
