CHAUTAUQUA

FOR WAYNE

MEETINGS SET FOR JULY

Subscriptions for Necessary Stock Assured—Backed by Enthusiastic Promoters

That Wayne is going to be the Chautauqua center for Northeast Nebraska is now pretty well settled. Various parties interested in the movement have had the matter in hand for some time, and thru several meetings held in the past month the matter has taken definite form.

Last week subscriptions were circulated among the citizens of Wayne and enough stock taken to provide the necessary backing and assure the success of the undertaking.

At the meeting held at Welch & Davis' office, Monday night, a working organization was perfected by the election of the following officers: John T. Bressler, President; A. B. Davis, Vice President; R. Philcox, Treasurer; E. P. Wilson, Secretary.

While an executive committee having the program and other arrangements in charge is made up with Rev. E. C. Horn, chairman, and James Britton and J. M. Pile. This committee is hard at work in the negotiations for the required talent. It is their purpose to secure several men of renown in the nation affairs, and it is very likely that La Follet, of Wisconsin or Booker T. Washington will be one of the number. However, one thing is certain, that the best talent in the country is none too good for Wayne.

It is expected that the sessions of the Chautauqua will cover a week at least. Until permanent grounds and buildings are provided a large tent will be used to shelter the crowds.

An annual Chautauqua, is a grand, good thing for any community, and the fact that the Wayne organization is a strictly home affair, promoted and controlled by Wayne business men, assures us that its success the first year means a bigger and better Chautauqua, the second.

WELCH-KUGLER

New Year's day at high noon Miss Mabel M. Welch, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Welch, was united to marriage to Mr. Edward J. Kugler of Alexandria, South Dakota. He is a young man of excellent traits and is a prosperous farmer. The bride was becomingly attired in a costume of white silk and carried a beautiful floral design. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Horn of the Methodist church in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends of the happy couple. Mr. Forest Welch, brother of the bride, and Miss Mollie Nies, acting as groomsmen and bridesmaid, completed the wedding party, which, to the strains of a wedding march, took its position under a specially and daintily prepared canopy supporting a wedding bell where the life contract was consummated. After the usual congratulations the company was seated for the wedding dinner which was served in courses. The presents were both numerous and useful, consisting largely of silverware. Mr. and Mrs. Kugler left on Wednesday, for Alexandria, South Dakota, their future home, bearing with them the best wishes of the large company of acquaintances.

Rev. Theo. O. Osborne of the Presbyterian church, publishes a four page leaflet each week that is handed to all members of his congregation as they enter the church for the Sunday morning or evening service. Two good farms changed hands about the same hour, Saturday. Henry Hansen close up a deal with Obas. Enebeck for his eighty located one mile north and four east of Wayne, at a price of $75.00 per acre. In turn Mr. Enebeck bought the Martin Kerwin farm about three miles southeast of town on a consideration of $70 per acre. After gathering the crops for four years from the land, Mr. Kerwin turns his quarter section at a profit of $31.00 per acre on the purchase price, having originally bought the place from Eph. Beckenbauer who is now owner of the old Barber farm north of Wayne. Mr. Kerwin is likely to leave the county and is thinking some of moving west. On Feb. 27th, he will hold a public sale to dispose of all his personal property including a fine lot of blooded hogs.

O. A. King left for Ottumwa, Iowa, Monday, from there he goes to Madison, Wis., for a short visit with Sam Alexander, secretary of K. S. Mining Company. The annual meeting of the company is to be held at Chicago, Jan. 8. Mr. King will attend the sessions.

An exchange tells of a newspaper reporter who interviewed thirty successful men and found that all of them when boys had been governed strictly and frequently thrashed. He also interviewed thirty loafers and learned that twenty-seven of them had been "maum's darlings," and the other three had been reared by their grandmothers.

Ernest and Harry Morris, two brothers from Omaha, have rented a room over the Hi-cox implement store, and will add it for a temporary photograph gallery. The young men intend to take views of the city and country residences, together with individual stamp pictures. The boys formerly lived in Wayne county, residing south of town some years ago.

By the united effort of several Women's clubs at Bloomfield the town now has a public library. To assure its proper management an association has been formed in which the business men are to have an active part. A large hall has been rented and a place will thus be provided where the youth can spend the evenings in reading good books and best of current literature.

A district meeting of the Modern Woodmen is being planned for the last week in January at Norfolk. The object of the meeting is the initiation of a big class of novitiates and the auditorium and another big hall has been engaged for the purpose. Prizes are up for the largest delegation from nearby towns. The Norfolk lodge expect to make the event a gala day for the M. W. A.

Judge J. W. Fox has something of a curiosity in the shape of the copy of the first paper ever published in Wayne county. The paper was printed in 1837 and is quite well worn and yellow with age. The barn on the farm formerly occupied by August Bellis and recently destroyed by fire on last Friday night and one horse belonging to a man who lives on the place was burned to death. It is thought that the fire was caused by a small boy playing with matches in the barn. Aerial insurance covers the loss.—Randolph Reporter.

"QUALITY"

There is no profession—there is no business, where the word "QUALITY" carries so much weight—has such a meaning as in the Drug Store. An attorney can give you quality in legal service, a public officer can give you quality in affairs pertaining to government, your grocer, your clothier, your butcher, your baker, can give you quality of service. However, it is not to be compared with QUALITY of Drug Store service. Here we assist the doctor in guarding and renewing your health. Our entire efforts are devoted to the bettering of the community's health. A farmer down in Bart county, is certainly possessed with practical ideas, and intends to have things "reel" handy about his place. He saves a dolly walk to his rural mail box by having it attached to an endless wire from his front porch, propelled by the gearing of a bicycle! His ingenuity would suggest that his wife is not compelled to carry coals herself and pack all the water used in the house from the well at the foot of the hill.

J. M. McClure, who recently traded his Holt county farm, taking in the McBoth residence in the west part of town arrived from Page last week and is now nicely settled in his new home. Mr. McClure is around 77 years of age, but still hale and active.

Progressive whist helped to pass a most enjoyable evening. Lurel Lundberg receiving ladies prize, Harry Fisher receiving the gentleman's prize. to much more. It will come to pass that women had a voice in the political matters of the country. The political leaders of the country are organized an executive committee and called on each sister to donate a dollar for campaign funds. The committee said that dissatisfied voters, after the election, "we were defeated. Did you use all those dollars to buy votes and not promised?"
"Oh, no," replied the leader, sweetly, "on second consideration we decided that buying votes was dishonest, so we divided all the dollars up and bought full suits for the executive committee."
"Thus we see that political rights in the hands of the gentle sex would be honesty itself."—Chicago Daily News.
All His Own Fault.
A book agent recently obtained admission to the office of Thomas Edison and assailed him with such an aggression of arguments in favor of the application which she represented that the famous inventor subscribed.
After a gradual restoration of his energies, Mr. Edison asked:
"How did you ever succeed in mastering such a long and convincing speech as that?"
"Oh, my speeches are taught us at the home office," responded the lady sweetly, "by means of the phonograph."—Harper's Weekly.

"Why, Bill, what's the matter with you? You look down in the mouth."
"Well, Peter, I dare say if you'd been through what I have, you'd look bad, too."

"Well, you know Sarah Snivels, don't you, Peter?"

"What? What for?"
"Well, I'll tell you. She said she wouldn't marry me, and I'll discard any girl that would treat me in that manner."—Exchange.
Had the "Without Habit."
The German girl who presided over the soda fountain in Heckelmeyer's drug store was accustomed to patrons who did not know their own minds, and her habit of thought was difficult to change.
"I'd like a glass of plain soda," said a stout man, entering one day in evident haste as well as thirst.
"You have vanilla, or you have lemon?" inquired the young woman.
"I want plain soda—without strup. Didn't you understand me?" asked the stout man, testily.
"Yes," said the pincled German face did not change in expression or color.
"But what kind of strup you want him without? Without vanilla or without lemon?"—Youth's Companion.

Married at Chelan, Wash.
Through the kindness of Robert Osborn, the Herald is in receipt of a copy of the Chelan (Wash.) Leader, containing an account of a double wedding of which a daughter and son of Mr. Osborn were parties. Both young people will be remembered by many Wayne people.
"One of the most beautiful weddings of the season was solemnized at Mr. and Mrs. Benson's on Saturday evening, Dec. 22nd, when Mr. Joe Morton and Miss Edith Osborn and Harry Osborn and Miss Claudia Barnes were united in the Holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Mr. Paulson said the beautiful services that made the contracting parties husband and wife. The lovely brides are of Lakeside's most popular ladies and were dressed in white silk. The grooms are well known and are both most esteemed young men and were dressed in conventional black. The bridal parties marched slowly from the parlor bedroom, the minister preceding them, and took their places in the parlor where two bells were suspended from the ceiling. Then commenced the service that made them twin. The rooms were beautifully decorated with evergreen and wide white satin ribbon reaching to all corners and thence to the bells. Congratulations were in order, the guests partook of an elaborate supper course, and all went home feeling that the brides were the most lovely and the grooms the most manly that the writer has seen in many a long day. May prosperity attend them always."

DISAGREEMENT ON PRICES IN THIRP COUNTY.

Mr. M. C. Laughtlin, ordered to return to South Dakota and say that the department stands pat on price offered in the Burke bill.

Mr. Laughtlin, who has been in South Dakota negotiating with the Sioux Indians for the opening of another portion of the Rosebud Indian reservation, has returned to Washington and Friday reported a disagreement to the commissioner of Indian Affairs.

The Indians, he says, want $2 per acre for their land at the time of the opening, $5 after three months and $4 after six months and $4 per acre for the school lands. They also insist that the money now in the treasury to the credit of their minor children be paid to the parents or guardians.

The Burke bill provides for the following payments for the lands in question: Five dollars at the time of the opening of the reservation, $4 after three months and $2.50 after six months, and $2.50 for school lands.

Representative Burke, in discussing the situation, predicted that if an agreement is concluded with the Sioux it will be along the lines of his bill and no other.

Mr. Laughtlin will return to the Rosebud reservation immediately and inform the Indians that the department of the interior stands pat on the Burke bill and will not concede from its original position.

TWO NOTED MEN ACCUSED. Geo. W. Perkins and Charles Fairchild are indicted.

Morgan & Co., and Charles Fairchild, former secretary of the treasury and trustee of the New York Life Insurance company, were indicted Friday by the grand jury at New York charged with fraud in the third degree.

The indictments are based on what is known as the Prussian bond transaction in which is charged a false statement was made by the New York Life in order to make the government of Prussia as to the security held by that company.

The jury reported six indictments against each of the accused men. Perkins appeared in court and gave bail in the sum of $10,000. Fairchild is in Europe.

ENTIRE WALK IS HIS.

Negro Soldier Hurts White Woman to Gutter.

Race feeling is at white heat and threats of lynching are heard on every hand as a result of an assault committed by Mrs. T. S. Clifford, wife of a prominent physician of El Reno, Okla., Thursday afternoon by a negro of the Twenty-fifth infantry.

Mrs. Clifford was attempting to pass the soldier when he viciously grabbed Mrs. Clifford around the waist and threw her into the street, exclaiming that the sidewalk belonged to him.

Mrs. Clifford screamed for assistance, but the assault escaped before help arrived. News of the attack spread rapidly and the entire police department, reinforced by several hundred men and boys, searched the town and surrounding country, but Thursday evening the chase was given up. The negro was in uniform and must return to the post or become a deserter.

Word was sent to Fort Reno and all absences noted. Both Mrs. Clifford and her sister are positive they can identify the man and will go to Fort Reno and attempt to pick him from the soldiers who were out of the post when the assault occurred.

FROWNS FOR IRELAND.

Archbishop's Sermon in Disfavor at Vatican.

The local press of Rome has published the summary which appeared in the Paris Matin of the statement issued by Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, on the Franco-Vatican conflict. This summary has not found favor with the Vatican authorities, as is shown by the French clergy, who are pleased by the pope's 'The Observator' remarks. This summary should be accepted with reserve as coming from an infected source, and explain that the correspondent of the Matin in New York may have misunderstood the archbishop.

In spite of the denials of the French government that it has made any reply regarding the Vatican's protest to the powers on the subject of expulsion from France of Mgr. Montagnini, until recently secretary of the propaganda at Paris, the Vatican has been positively informed that Mgr. Pichon, the minister of foreign affairs of France, has made verbal statements in answer to this protest to the general diplomatic representatives at Paris, and that he telegraphed the minister's communication to their respective governments.

According to the Vatican's authority M. Pichon said that Mgr. Montagnini had no diplomatic standing; that the papers sequestered at the nunciature were of no importance, the important documents having been removed previously, and as the French government had not allowed the papal nuncio to correspond with the French minister, much less could it permit Mgr. Montagnini to do so.

THE VATICAN NOW DECLARES with authority that the statement that documents were removed from the nunciature by the French government is unfounded and contradicted by evidence, and avers that it did not emanate from the Vatican, but from the French government.

STATE OF NEBRASKA.

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN CONDENSED FORM.

Suburban Saloon Held Up—Proprietor Heaten Over the Head When He Offered Some Resistance—Robber Makes His Escape. Using a revolver to enforce his commands, a going party alone and unassisted held up and robbed the proprietor and two others in August Wolfe's saloon, about one mile west of Dunlap on the Dakota street road, near Omaha, early Friday evening. Wolfe was badly beaten over the head with a revolver and his pockets were stripped. The two other victims, including one of the saloon boys, were left unconscious from the injuries, and Martin Tibbe, one of the other victims, was shot at when he tried to make a sly escape.

The holdup occurred about 6:30 o'clock. Wolfe, the proprietor, and Tibbe, a farmer living not far away, and a third man, whose name has not been learned, were in the saloon. Wolfe lived in the building with his wife and family, the saloon taking up one room of the residence. The family was at home as usual, but no alarm was spread.

That the nerve of the robber, who is described as being 25 years of age and an ex-convict, came from falling off the back of a tree is apparent from the fact that he entered the saloon shortly before 6 o'clock, ordered a drink for himself and then went out again. In a few minutes he re-entered, ordered another drink, which he took alone, and again passed out. The robbery was not until his entrance that he made any move to commit a crime.

After the command to throw up hands had been given the robber fired a shot to check Tibbe in an attempt to escape, but no one was struck. Later a faint fire resistance, the robber fled, inflicting a number of severe bruises. The third man made no move and no attempt was made to injure him.

INSANE MAN COERCES SUICIDE.

Fact Kept from Other Patients Over Christmas.

The suicide of Frank Swoboda, inmate of the Norfolk hospital for the insane, whose home is in St. Paul, was kept a secret from Christmas eve, when the tragedy occurred, until the fact of the death of the patient was made known to other patients on the 22nd of the inmates. Dr. Young, the superintendent, withheld information from all save the coroner until the fact was made known to the other patients because he knew that an announcement of the self-murder by one of the patients would so marring the nerves of the other scores at the institution that the merry day planned for them would be turned into one of horror.

Swoboda took unusual steps to get at his own life. He picked the lock off the door of the ward in which he was kept while the attendant was busy with another patient. Tearing out of his cell he unlocked the door and crept, as close as a razor from the shelf and garbed his throat.

The patients enjoyed a dance that evening, the first since the institution has been rebuilt, and each received a package of sweets and nuts Christmas merriment.

THE DESIGNER

The Designer for January offer a line of new ideas for the New Year. The main requirement for a magazine of any kind is to keep a little ahead of the times. It is a difficult proposition, but with hustling and perseverance it can be done. The Designer makes this his chief aim. Readers who have an eye for important details should not overlook the superiority of the illustrations in The Designer over other fashion magazines. The models pictured and described are the latest designs of the fashion makers. Besides this, there are special articles by people who know their subjects well. Among these articles are, "The Business Woman's Outfit," "Lesson in Dressmaking," "Instructions in Millinery," "Homelike Interiors," "Laura Seiple's pp-to-the-lark," minute descriptions of the new fashionable fancies in dress, etc. The other half of the magazine is devoted to stories and poems appropriate to the season, among which is an exceedingly graceful little sketch, "A Cinderella of a night," by Helen Clark. Balmer, and poems by Arthur Powell, John Kendrick Badgley and Susie M. Best.

The inspiring part of it is that you can have The Designer for a year for fifty cents, postpaid. Send subscriptions for 1907 now.

For Sale—Carry safe good as new. MARSTELLA & PATRICK.

During the engagement of the "Uncle Josh Sprucey" company at the Wayne opera house, January 11, 1907, a big street parade will be given daily at noon, and press agent Heckman promises this will be something new and unique. The company carries a big band, dressed in the "garb" of the nation and the other in military costume. During the parade the band gives a splendid concert which attracts as much attention and generally draws a crowd that reminds you of a Barnum & Bailey circus day.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. It's safe even for the youngest child. Sold by Ralph Bundell.

Dr. Netman is now located in the Alter building, two doors north of the German store.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of opium, chloroform, and other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcome the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure contains have had a warning printed on them against opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by Felber's Pharmacy.
