Hayden Hutchinson was in town Tuesday and called on the most saintly of creatures, the editor. He just recently returned from a trip through Oklahoma and the Indian Territory, and comes home convinced that he don't want to sell his home here half so bad as he had thought he did. Good land there is just as high priced as it is here, which once more proves that Wayne county is hard to beat.

On complaint of Elmer Clyne, the arrest of Erik F. Stamm took place Tuesday. It seems that young Clyne who is about nineteen years of age, had been talking about Erik's family and on last Sunday at the Ohas. Linn home where they met Erik called for an explanation with the result that he slapped the young man. Constable Waddell went out with a warrant and brought Stamm to town. He appeared before Squire Tomplin plead guilty and was fined $3 and costs, amounting in all to $7.45, which he paid.

Winside Telephone War
Winside Tribune: Parents to call of the Commercial Club the members met at the town hall, Tuesday, afternoon, to discuss the telephone situation and to devise means to stop the exorbitant rates, both in town and country. We were not able to get the exact proceedings but understand that the Clark Telephone company was notified that there must be a reduction of rates and also better connection with country phones. Ten days was allowed as the time for the company to decide and if they refuse, a new line will be built at once. A committee of three, Walt Geisler, Chas. Jones and A. Woodward, was appointed to ascertain cost of a new line and to take steps towards starting same if the phone company refuses to grant a reasonable rate. Line No. 2 has already sent in their ultimatum of low rates or takes out the phones and it is probable that their just demands will be granted. From what we can learn, nearly every phone in town will be ordered out Feb. 1st unless better rates are given.

The Holdoebler's Again
J. N. Bichlmeyer of Randolph, has been in the city this week in the interest of Mr. and Mrs. Holdoebler, who formerly lived near Wayne. At present Holdoebler and his wife are in the insane hospital here, where they were sent from Chicago. For some time past Holdoebler has been writing to Mr. Bichlmeyer to try and secure his release. His letters are written in the best language and in beautiful writing. Some of them have pen drawings of flowers. Holdoebler is an educated man, a fine penman and his letters show intelligence. He claims he is not insane and asks that he and his wife be sent to Bavaria, on the grounds that he is a citizen of that country. This last proposition is true.

Holdoebler has refused to work about the premises, declaring that this is a free country and that slavery is illegal. In his talk with Holdoebler, Mr. Bichlmeyer says that he appears the same as he always did and he declares that if Holdoebler is insane now he was insane when he lived east of Randolph three years ago.

Holdoebler has written a letter to the emperor, of Germany petitioning that he be transferred to his native country, and this letter was sent by registered mail from Randolph. Another letter was written to the king of Bavaria, addressed to the regent who is acting ruler, asking the same thing.

Mr. Bichlmeyer says the Holdoeblers have enough money to pay the expenses of a trip to Europe if their release could be secured.

Dr. Young, the superintendent of the hospital, stated emphatically that both Mr. and Mrs. Holdoebler are insane, although not violently so.

Mr. Holdoebler, he stated, is a very quiet patient, and Mrs. Holdoebler is not required to work. They both have the hallucination that they have untold enemies, and that they are related to some of the crowned heads of Europe.

The insane pair, it will be remembered were picked up in Chicago a year or so ago. They deserted their farm without a word to any of their neighbors.—Norfolk News.

Jamaica's Capital Visited by Awful Double Disaster.

NEARLY 1,000 DEAD.

PROPERTY LOSS IS ENORMOUS

Cases Snapped by Shock and Meager Details Tell Story.

Nearly 1,000 persons are reported dead, at least 25,000 have been wounded more or less seriously and property loss estimated at $25,000,000, wrought by a terrible earthquake which visited the city of Kingston and the southern coast of Jamaica late Monday afternoon. It was the case in the San Francisco disaster.

The disaster at Kingston, Jamaica, is said to have been as great as the earthquake at San Francisco and Valparaiso. The number of dead will never be definitely known, and the property loss is likely to reach $25,000,000. The whole town was left in ruins and hundreds of dead bodies were taken from the debris. Many bodies in the case of decomposition or charred beyond recognition had to be buried.

The earthquake came as a sudden surprise, and it got down. Thousands of persons were on the streets of Kingston at the time and great numbers of them were crushed. Many Americans in Kingston were killed and others were injured.

Realizing the possibility of further disaster, the people made attempts to loot. The military, however, at once took possession of the footpaths. Detachments of troops with fixed bayonets were posted on guard. They were concentrated in a central position. No one was allowed to pass through the ruined sections of the city.

Building a barricade threatened to block the harbor to the situation at Kingston. The provision stores were destroyed and the only food, mainly preserved of the thousands of homeless poor was ruined. The stench from decaying bodies scattered through the city, threatened an epidemic and the few doctors in Kingston, although working night and day, were unable to cope with the threatened plague. The ships in the harbor were crowded with injured people and corpses by the thousands and thrown into trenches or burned.

Business was at a standstill. Some relief was given by Chalmers, who raised the interest on goods 1,000 percent. This was agreed the people that the Chalmers were driven out and their shops looted.

Direct communication with Kingston was cut off when the earthquake struck the cables to America. Temporary land lines were established, however, connecting with other cables through which sources of cancer deaths of the disaster were received.

Kingston was overwhelmed by the earthquake. All the houses within a radius of four miles were damaged and nearly every house in the city was destroyed. It broke out after the earthquake and completed the ruin. The business section of Kingston is a heap of smoking ashes. The killed number about 1,000 and thousands were injured.

Three broke out again Tuesday night. The negroes looted the runaways. A dispatch says that 1,200 persons have been killed. There were weird and terrible scenes. Forty-five military soldiers were buried to death in the military hospital. Several shocks were felt Wednesday.

Cables from Colon indicate that many civilians were burned to death, the operator using the words "furnace of human souls." He also described the "dead by hundreds."

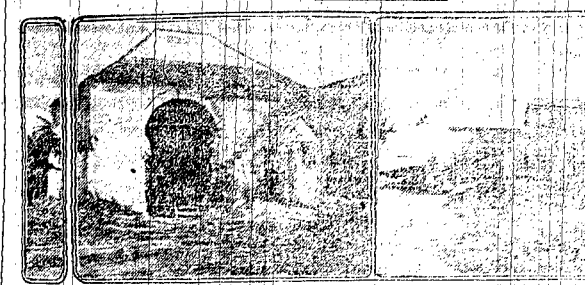

Historical Kingston. Founded in 1692 by refugees from the ruined city of Port Royal, which in 1692 was destroyed by an earthquake. (Constituted a city in 1800.)

February, 1782, half of the city was destroyed by fire that caused about $2,000,000 damage, half of the houses being destroyed.

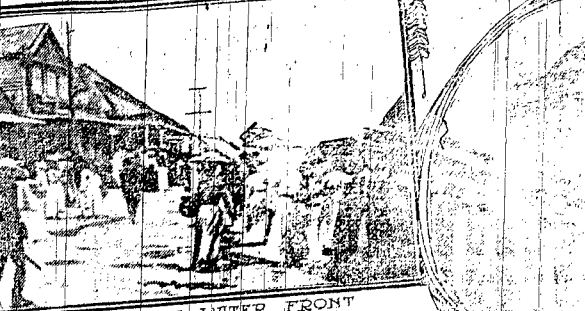

In 1843 another destructive fire broke out and nearly wiped the city from its foundations. The loss was then $15,000,000.

Next came the famous Mansion House fire, which resulted in the deaths of many who were housed in the hotel.

KING STREET LOOKING NORTH FROM WATER FRONT.

Cases Snapped by Shock and Meager Details Tell Story.

Fresh details of the disaster came from various sources. According to one report the whole city of Kingston seemed to shiver up, buildings crashing together and fell in a crashed mass under the first shock. The business streets at the time were well filled with tourists and no doubt many of them were caught in the fall of the roof, and buried in the debris. A flash broke out immediately after the first at three separate points. The department warehouse was wrecked, rendering resistance to the flames impossible. The conflagration continued unchecked until Tuesday morning, by which time the whole business quarter of Kingston had been wiped out, the damaged area comprising about a square mile.

All the large warehouses in the lower part of the city were consumed and not a single house anywhere remained undamaged, the majority being unfit for habitation. A conservative estimate of the casualties was the number of Kingston places the number of killed at 1,200.

The treasury in Harbor street was standing, but the postoffice and courthouses were in ruins. The government offices were unable for occupation, government bank was badly damaged, the North Scotia Bank was a heap of ruins. The Roman Catholic cathedral, the Parish church and the Scotch Wesleyan and Baptist churches and disappeared and the theatre was destroyed.

At Port Royal, at the entrance of Kingston harbor, one of the batteries sank and a garrison was killed. The ships in the harbor were transformed into hospitals. The cables of the steamer Port Kingston were full of dead and dying.

Englishmen in Peril. Sir James Ferguson, noted Englishman, was killed. The most distinguished visitors at Kingston were members of a party of English statesmen, agricultural experts and men of affairs, who under the leadership of Sir Alfred Jones had arrived in Kingston within the last few days to attend an agricultural conference there.

Notes of the Disaster. The Myrtle Bank Hotel, the principal hotel at Kingston, which probably sheltered the great bulk of visitors on the island, is reported destroyed. The great military hospital was burned and forty soldiers are reported dead.

The city is one of low-lying buildings clustered about the shores of one of the finest and most scenic harbors in the West Indies. The population, which numbers 20,000, is largely made up of native blacks.

Many steamships carrying tourists to Jamaica were on route to the island when the earthquake occurred, but it is supposed that, according to some reports, none of the ships from New York or Boston was in Kingston harbor Monday afternoon.

Notes of the Disaster. The whole town is in ruins. The whole line from Kingston was broken. Many Americans were killed and have been buried. The body of Sir James Ferguson was found and buried. A school house fell at the first shock, being ninety children. The battleships Massasoit and Indiana entered the harbor safely. A tidal wave inundated Anotta bay, washing out many houses. Appeals have been sent to all sections of the island asking for assistance. Thirty-five per cent of a total of fifty-five employees in a tourist bureau were killed. The shock was severe at Richmond, and this town also was destroyed by fire. The topography of the country has been changed and the navigation into the harbor partially altered. The Plans Point and Port Royal light-houses are both at the bottom of the harbor.

DERBY'S

We have just received the new spring styles in the HAWES $3.00 stiff hats. The Hawes hat is considered by the dressy people of the cities to be the BEST $3.00 hat on the market. They are very seldom found in towns of this size, but we were fortunate in securing the agency for them for Wayne county, and can truthfully say, that we give you for $3.00 in the HAWES HAT, the quality you get in most $4.00 hats. The first day of January we did not have a black stiff hat in our store, so you will be sure of getting the very latest style if you buy your stiff hat of us.

Come in and look at the new spring shapes.

THE GREAT WESTERN MANURE SPREADER. Endless Apron

We have selected for our trade the Great Western spreader because we know it to be the best spreader on the market. We know this because we have looked over other makes of spreaders and compared them piece for piece. And we know there is no other spreader that is as good as the Great Western. We have found this out just the same as you can find it out; and when you buy a manure spreader you will find how the machine is made, as a spreader that must stand hard knocks and a big strain. The Great Western will never be found wanting.

"It is made for the Man Who Wants the Best."

The main frame is all made of oak. It has two long heavy steel truss and stay-rod which keep the frame square. Herein where other manufacturers fall down, many manufacturers make their spreader frames out of pine and do not use any stay-rod. The frame that carries the machinery consists of sheet-iron, cast-iron, binding and breaking. The front axle has a big oak axle cap 2 1/2 inches, running the full length. Bolted to it is a heavy 16-lb malleable iron fly wheel, 30 inches in diameter. The fifth wheel is bolted to the front axle and carries the front end of the body. The front axle is set back under the front end of the body so the load is nearly equally balanced over the front and rear wheels. You know that oak in the frame is better than pine. You know that the front end of a machine with an axle like this, because you know it won't pull out.

We believe, in fact, we know we can show you if you will call. It has two long end of this machine costs at least $200 or $250 more than the cheaply made axle cap machine. We say it is worth $10 more. This machine has a oak pole. We don't believe there is a pole in this country that has a pole like this. The pole is set in a hole in the ground and is just as essential as a manure spreader. It has a good pole that is a wagon style, and is set out square like a single-tree.

Grandma Cullen met with a fearful accident, Saturday evening, during the high wind. While passing along in front of the Wayne Bakery the wind caught her in such a way as to throw her violently to the cement walk, which caused a fracture of the hip bone. Masie, and has the constant attention of loving hands.

On the 19th day of January, 1907, Mrs. Stina Sophia Jensen, nee. Larsen, living about 1 1/2 miles west of Wayne, passed away. Deceased was born the 10th day of December, 1876, in Manchester, Michigan and was married to Mr. Jens O. Jensen, on the 32nd day of March, 1898. From this union came five children. Four boys and one girl, of which one boy died about 6 weeks ago. The cause of her death was a complication of ailments, mainly however, pneumonia. The funeral was held from the English Lutheran church, conducted by Rev. J. H. Kasparstein in the absence of Rev. C. J. Ringer.

Henry Goll, writes the Herald from Weaverville, Wash., enclosing the usual coupon for a year of usage. Mr. Goll says they are having cold weather, the cold zero wind has been there—ten below yesterday claim it the worst they ever had, although it had been up to a week ago. Henry reports all the Wayne colony in good health, happy and doing well.

The Prouty printing press that has been doing continuous service for the Herald for more than sixteen years, has been sold to editor McFarland of Lynch in Blvd county, and will be packed for shipment this week. A new "Oranston" has been installed in the office, where the paper will be printed the coming week. The building to be vacated is the property of W. S. Goldie and will be "made over" into a permanent home for the Democrat. The Democrat, like this paper also has a new Oranston press which is being prepared this week. Wayne's newspapers to give its patrons, and to do it modern equipment is necessary.

J. E. Abbott tells us he intends to make a trip to Virginia about the middle of February, as a landseeker. He has investigated the opportunities in that part of the south somewhat, and believes an enterprising northerner would do well by taking over some of the old plantations that have, so far as abandoned since the war. According to his view, the prospects are excellent. The soil is fertile and excellent chances have been overlooked. These rust of people to the west and south, and it seems to be Mr. Abbott's purpose to inquire into climatic conditions and determine what improvements the old state holds for a homeseeker.

Death of former Wayne Teacher
 The Hebron Journal gives the following account of the death of Miss Lizzie Barrett, for several years a primary teacher in the Wayne schools: "Miss Lizzie Barrett, whose sad illness we mentioned last week, was released from her sufferings on Wednesday, 19, 1899, at Beallville, Monroe Co., Neb., January 9, 1907, aged 37 years, 6 months, 21 days. She came to Hebron, Neb., with her parents Nov. 5, 1885, and attended the Hebron schools, graduating with the class of 1888. Miss Barrett commenced teaching in the public schools in the year 1888 and was engaged continuously in that work up to June, 1906. She united with the Methodist church in her childhood and was a faithful member up to the time of her death. The first symptom of the disease which terminated in her death, was noticed last April, while teaching in the city schools of Wayne, Neb. She gradually grew worse and in August went to the Jane Stormont hospital, at Topeka, Kan., where the surgeons removed a portion of the lower jaw bone. She remained at the hospital for seven weeks and for nearly three months was at the home of her brother John T. Barrett in Topeka. Two weeks ago she began to fail rapidly and Jan. 5 she was brought to her home in Hebron, at 12:30 a. m. She leaves surviving her father, mother, brother and sister, all of whom were with her when the summons came."

THE MANURE SPREADER
 We have never come across a man who used a manure spreader who did not rate it as one of the most valuable tools on his farm, and some way manure applied with a spreader always becomes sure returns. There are some things that it is not best for the farmer to go into debt for under any circumstances, but any man can well afford to pay 25 cents per acre for manure with which to buy a manure spreader, if not more. An experiment was made recently. A 5 acre tract of corn and sprang loads on the 10 acres. The crop yielded 500 bushels of corn. At a value of 40 cents per bushel this corn would bring $200.00. In the same field the same amount of manure was spread with a manure spreader, and 820 bushels of corn were harvested, which at the same price would amount to $328.00, making a gain by spreading only $28.00. The average price of a manure spreader is about $25.00, and taking the above for a basis, if a man has 100 acres of land to spread, the increase in the crop would more than pay for the spreader.

If the farmers of this county are to ride in a good carriage, wear as good clothes, educate their children as well and live in as good style as the farmers in neighboring counties, they should maintain or even increase the fertility of the soil and keep abreast of their neighbors.

Frank was misinformed as to the time of the departure of the train, so missed the last passenger train and as it was very necessary that he reach Sioux City, he decided to get a liveryman to drive him to Emerson so he could make connections, but failing here, he boarded a freight train and the conductor stopped the train, was going to get him off, but after much persuasion he was allowed to ride without further trouble.

Wayne School Notes

Mrs. C. L. Carpenter was a visitor at the Ward School, last Thursday.

The High School Literary Society will give a program, next Friday.

Classes in the second semester studies have been organized in all the departments.

Mrs. E. R. Lundberg and Mrs. E. B. Philcox were visitors at the High school, Tuesday.

Sept. and Mrs. A. E. Littell and Mr. C. L. Ouller visited the High school, last Tuesday.

Harry Gildersteel of the 7th grade at the Ward School is out on account of an injured nose, received while skating.

The new clocks which were ordered for each of the rooms at the Ward School, have not yet arrived. Those for the High School, however, have been received.

The pupils of the 6th and 7th grades of the Ward school received a quarter holiday, last Tuesday; not because no one was tardy but on account of a snowy storm.

Shinny seems to be the game of the day at school. It will, no doubt, soon become as bad as foot ball, for one last lost a tooth, several others have scratches about the head and face and the shins of all who play are black and blue.

Miss Margaret Goodyear was promoted this semester from the 8th grade to the 9th grade. It seems that very few pupils passed into 9th grade at the beginning of the school year and it was thought best to give the pupils a chance at the beginning of the second semester to make up the grade. Margaret was the only one who took the examination and we hope she will have a goodyear of it. We welcome her into the High school room and wish her the best of success.

Several new studies have been taken up in the High School room this semester. The pupils of the book-keeping class enter upon the study of civics, to which the first semester book-keeping gives place. The freshmen have taken up the study of Physiology in lieu of Physical Geography just completed. The advanced Civics class lays aside Caesar and takes up Cicero in its stead. The pupils of the 11th English class has resumed the study of Tennyson's "Lays of the King" after a period of about two months during which they studied an advanced Grammar. All other studies will continue throughout the year.

Charley Miller Dead

On Monday afternoon about three o'clock, Charley Miller passed away at his home in Winside. His illness of more than two years duration has kept him confined to the house most of the time and being a stomach disorder he suffered considerable. The funeral services were held at Winside, Wednesday, Jan. 23, at 11:00 a. m., where the remains were interred. Deceased was 42 years of age, had been married 19 years and leaves a wife and two daughters to mourn his death, besides parents, and several brothers and sisters. Being of a genial disposition, generous and high minded in his dealings, he held the esteem and friendship of all with whom he came in contact. The Herald joins in extending condolence to the bereaved family.

Ben Skiles was a passenger west Saturday, probably for Lincoln.

ECKLUND'S WILD

J. C. Ecklund, flew his base again last week and directed his energies along paths that led him into the county jail. "Doc" is a hustler for business and one of the best of fellows ordinarily, but when he attempts to sink little worries in "fire water" reason takes flight and leaves Ecklund brutish, indeed. This was his condition, Friday evening, when the general agent of the Singer Co. came around to check his accounts. "Doc" locked himself in his quarters and stood guard with a revolver, as the agent discovered on peering through the window. Marshal Miner was called, and breaking in the back door, had a struggle with Ecklund to disarm him, during which the gun was discharged. For safe keeping Ecklund was lodged in the county jail and it is likely he will be taken before the commissioners of insanity for a hearing. After similar conduct a year or so back Ecklund served time in the Lincoln hospital, and it seems that he enjoys health of mind at all times, except when little troubles lead him to drink.

Peck's Bad Boy and Buster Brown at Opera House, January 29.

Wren A. Philcox and Miss Maude W. Craig, of Laurel, Nebraska, were united in matrimony Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist Parsonage, Rev. E. C. Horn officiating. They left on the 2:15 train for Sioux City and other points farther east on their honeymoon.

Peter Jensen was down from Garfield, Friday, attending the Merrill-Fredrickson trial. Mr. Jensen is interested in the case somewhat, through financial assistance lent Fredrickson. Because of the amount involved in the suit the case was taken to the district court for trial.

Frank Nangle was an arrival from Sioux City, Friday evening, returning Saturday afternoon. Frank was misinformed as to the time of the departure of the train, so missed the last passenger train and as it was very necessary that he reach Sioux City, he decided to get a liveryman to drive him to Emerson so he could make connections, but failing here, he boarded a freight train and the conductor stopped the train, was going to get him off, but after much persuasion he was allowed to ride without further trouble.

Alfalfa as a Weed Killer.

Probably no other crop, without a single exception, presents so many characteristics of value. As it is simple to grow and more, and as it is more profitable than any other crop, alfalfa has become the most important of all crops. A very recent discovery has been made that it is a weed eradicator of untold value. This will soon have been established to the satisfaction of all those who have been troubled about weeds, and which will prove more destructive to alfalfa than any other weed-killer. Nevertheless, it is strictly true that the plant is the greatest destroyer of weeds known. This comes not so much from any quality contained in the alfalfa plant, but from the inability of the weeds to endure having their heads cut off so many times in summer close to their feet. The most strenuous weed-killers will succumb to this harsh treatment, while the alfalfa plant will thrive all the better the more it is cut. If weeds can be kept back from choking the young alfalfa plants until they are the alfalfa plants, are tall enough to be mowed, the question of weeds in the particular parcel of ground is settled. Therefore, it is wise to select a worthy piece of ground for the alfalfa field, but before sowing the seed every precaution should be taken to kill as many weeds as possible. This can best be done by simply following the often-suggested injunction to "thoroughly prepare the soil before sowing the seed." If this be done, and the tract improved and rolled after plowing at a time when the dry weeds begin to show green over the field, and again just before time to sow, there will be the cleanest field on the farm before the year is out. There are many weed-infested farms and many farmers who have despaired of ever getting rid of the weeds. Alfalfa suggests the means of victory.—C. M. Guther in Agricultural Economist.

There is a fine specimen of a Bronze Tail Turkey, bred in Massachusetts. It is 3 years old, and sold for $175.

Annual Losses Due to Insects.

If the power of the insecticide had not been proved to be beyond a doubt, it would be foolish to regard the estimate of $700,000,000 annual loss to our farming interests caused by insects as anything more than a figure which has been made by the Department of Agriculture as the starting-point for the following table showing the value of the production:

Product	Value of Production	Amount of Loss

Cherries, Malting.

The Apple Specialist, in answer to an inquiry, gives the following directions how to make cherries and keep it sweet:

"In order to make cherries the fruit must be extracted from the apples. This is done by grating the apples into a pulper, and then pressing the juice out. The pulp is left in the press and filled in by old sacking made by rubber gummy sacks. It is laid up in chasses form, one above the other, and pressure applied at the top. The cider works out through the sack and is caught in a tub. If a good color is desired, it is excellent for the world, and sweet cider may be had at any time. There is no way to keep cider sweet without making it off, drawing it from the barrel to another several times, letting it run through a certain thickness of flannel to take out the sediment. It must be allowed to run very slowly so as to keep all sediment in the bottom of the barrel. When thoroughly purified the barrel must be plugged tight and kept in a cool place. By boiling and skimming the cider it will keep sweet, but has a slight cooked taste. We have made thousands of barrels of cider and have tried all kinds of ways to keep it sweet and have found nothing equal to making it off. It is a slow process, however, and does not work well in small quantities."

Dry Earth as a Disinfectant.

It is well known that fine, dry dirt is one of the best of absorbents and disinfectants. It is also plentiful and costs nothing but the labor of handling. It makes excellent bedding, if covered over with a few inches of straw, and it really keeps the cows clean, even when used in the stalls without straw, as it is easily removed from the hals with a brush. A stall bedded with dry earth can be cleaned out in a matter of ten minutes when the earth is not used, and, as dirt absorbs the liquids and gases, quite a saving is effected in that manner. As it goes beyond the stall. As the stable should be cleaned daily, quite a large quantity of dry earth will be used in the course of a year, and it will necessarily be added to the heap itself, but its presence therein will double the value of the manure by preventing loss of fertilizing material. It is a better absorbent than straw or corn stubs, and is easily handled when the manure is hauled to the fields.

Specific Individual Cows.

A cowherd by the Illinois Station, emphasizing the importance of studying the production of individual cows, contains records for one year of eighteen dairy herds in Illinois, including 221 cows. The average production was 5,016.99 pounds of milk and 224.43 pounds of butter fat. The best herd averaged 550.17 pounds of butter fat and the poorest 142.05 pounds. The best ten cows averaged 588.75 pounds of butter fat and the poorest 10,109.42 pounds. It is believed that at least one-third of the cows in the ordinary herds are practically unprofitable. A marked improvement was observed in herds where grading had been practiced. It was found possible to remove five cows from a herd of ten and thereby increase the profit $7.02 per head.

Farm Notes.

There is no sensible reason why half as much wheat again may not be had from an acre within less than a generation of time.

One-fourth of the dairy cows of the country do not pay for their feed, and more than half of them do not return any profit.

In nine months, 4,184,181 dozen eggs, valued at $805,437, were exported from the United States, double the number sent out during the same period last year.

The Agricultural Department's annual report says the corn crop can be increased by one-half within a quarter of a century, and without any pretense that the limit has been reached.

Equally feasible is a 50 per cent increase in the crops per acre of oats, barley, rye, buckwheat, Potatoes, instead of growing less than 100 bushels per acre, should double their production.

White Bread.

Makes Trouble for People with Weak Intestinal Digestion.

A lady in a W. S. town employed a physician who instructed her not to eat white bread for two years. She tells the details of her sickness and she certainly was a sick woman.

"In the year 1887 I gave out from over work, and until 1901 I remained an invalid in bed a great part of the time. Had different doctors, but nothing seemed to help. I suffered from cerebral spinal congestion, female trouble, and serious stomach and bowel trouble. My husband called a new doctor and after having gone without any food for 20 days the doctor ordered Grape-Nuts for me. I could eat the new food from the very first mouthful. The doctor kept me on Grape-Nuts and the only medicine was a little glycerine to heal the alimentary canal.

"When I was again doctor told me to eat Grape-Nuts twice a day and no white bread for two years. I got well in good time and have gained in strength so I can do my own work again.

"My brain has been helped so much, and I know that the Grape-Nuts food did this, too. I found I had been made ill because I was not fed right, that is I did not properly digest white bread and some other food I tried to live on."

"I have never been without Grape-Nuts food since and eat it every day. You may publish this letter if you like as it will help some one else." Name given by Posture Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Get the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in the book.

Work of Congress.

The Senate Friday passed a general service pension bill which will give survivors of the Civil War Mexican war $12 per month at the age of 62, $15 at 65 and $20 at 70. Senator Hopkins of Illinois defended the bill, arguing against the right of the Senate to pass the private acts of its members. The legislative appropriation bill was taken up and read after which the Senate adjourned. The House made a new record for the evening session by passing an act in one hour and thirty minutes. A bill was passed making the limit of cost of legislative tenders $200,000 instead of $125,000, and at 1:45 p. m. in the discharge of a quorum, the House adjourned until Monday.

The time of the Senate Saturday was devoted mainly to the discussion of the late question, in which Senator Tillman attacked the President's action in the Brownsville affair and Senator Patterson defended the executive. Senator Foraker gave an hour and a half to the resolution for an investigation of the matter. The Senate adjourned until Monday. The House was not in session.

The Senate Monday passed the legislation, executive and judicial appointments, which passed the Senate on Monday. The remainder of the day to the Brownsville affair, following the receipt of a message from the President submitting additional evidence, and a clear bill with bullet and shells. The message was ordered printed. Senators who participated in the debate on Monday were Senator Tillman, Bacon and Spooner. The bill's speech being unfinished when adjournment was taken. The House spent most of the day considering legislation pertaining to the District of Columbia, after which consideration of the fortifications appropriation bill was resumed. The passage of the bill was delayed by the Colorado River was read.

The time of the Senate Tuesday was taken up by the speech of Senator Spooner on the Brownsville affair, and at its conclusion the Senate adjourned. The House spent almost the entire day in considering the fortifications bill, and the amendments proposed to increase the appropriation for the fortifications in the Hawaiian and Philippine Islands to $1,000,000. Speaker Cannon announced the appointment of Representative Shively of Kentucky to a place on the judicial committee, and at 11:15 a. m. the resignation of Representative Little, of 1:15, after a roll call demanded by the Democrats, the House adjourned.

The Brownsville affair again occupied the time of the Senate Wednesday. Senators Carnahan, Stone, Mann and Knox defended the action of the President. Senator Foraker attacked the action of his Republican colleagues in their investigation of the matter until adjournment. The House passed the fortifications appropriation bill without amendment, and began consideration of the District of Columbia appropriation bill. Mr. Foraker of Vermont introduced a speech supporting the President for his message on the Japanese situation in California, and Mr. Shepard of Texas discussed politics and the State of the Union. Saturday, Feb. 21, was fixed for adjournment of the House. Representative H. C. Adams of Wisconsin.

Senator Foraker, in the Senate Thursday, continued his argument against the action of the President in the Brownsville matter and opposed an amendment to his compromise investigation resolution, which Senator Blackburn gave notice. Chairman of the committee on the subject of the investigation until adjournment. Mr. Foraker's address. Eulogies for the late Senator William B. Bate of Tennessee were delivered, after which the Senate, as a mark of respect to his memory, adjourned. The House resumed consideration of the bill of the fortifications appropriation bill under the agreement. During the day an emergency bill was passed for the relief of the sufferers from the earthquake in Jamaica. After completing forty pages of the district budget the House adjourned.

Representative Hay of Virginia introduced a resolution in the House regarding information concerning the death of Robert Vance Freeman, a former member of the "poison squad" of the Department of Agriculture.

Chairman Hull of the House committee on military affairs, reported the military appropriation bill, bringing $78,000,000. The bill provides that the office of lieutenant general of the army shall cease to exist as soon as it becomes vacant.

The House committee on appropriations has finished its consideration of fortifications and decided to report a bill providing an appropriation of $4,111,000, $357,000 below the amount appropriated last year and nearly $7,000,000 less than the estimates.

Postmaster Busse is working before the department and the House committee on postoffice for improvements in the postal service at Chicago. He conferred with members of the Chicago congressional delegation and appeared before the House committee framing the postoffice appropriation bill.

Senator Allison was in his seat the other day for the first time during the session. He has been detained at his home by illness.

In view of the fact that many homestead settlers are said to be freezing in North Dakota, Senator Hansbrough has prepared a resolution that the settlers be permitted leave of absence for three months to extend over the winter period and that this absence shall not interfere with their entry rights.

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless speeded, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is made from native roots and herbs. No other medicine in the country has received such widespread and unequalled endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female ills.

Miss J. P. Walsh, of No. 24th St., New York City, writes: "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been of inestimable value in restoring my health. I suffered from chronic nervousness, which caused dreadful headaches, dizziness, and dull pains in my back, but your medicine soon brought about a change in my general condition, built me up and made me perfectly well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Fatigue and Displacements, Inflammation and Irritation, and organic diseases. It is especially in general for child-birth and during the Change of Life. It cures Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, and invigorates the whole system.

A Little Victim.

Bessie Dapple, the 4-year-old child of an iron manufacturer of Bessemer, Ala., has a good working knowledge of six languages beside English. Her father is a French scholar and taught her the language, her mother, who is German descent, instructed the child in the tongue of the fatherland, and the Swiss nurse acted as an intermediary with her through a French-Italian dialect. In addition to this, another servant has drilled Yiddish into Bessie's brain, and a Cuban lad at the iron factory is now teaching her Spanish. A Russian domestic servant has also taught her a good deal of the czar's native tongue.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Five Weeks in Bed With Intensely Painful Kidney Trouble.

Mrs. Mary Wagner, of 1267 Kossuth Ave., Bridgeport, Conn., says: "I was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work and was five weeks in bed. My back ached and I had terrible headaches and at times dizzy spells. The passages of the kidney were irregular and the urine was of a disagreeable reddish color. I don't know what I would have done but for Doan's Kidney Pills. I could see an improvement from the first box, and five boxes brought a final cure."

Thoroughly Reliable.

If ever there was a reliable and safe remedy it is that old and famous porous plaster—Alcock's. It has been in use for forty years, and is popular today as ever, and no doubt if there is a civilized community on the face of the globe where this wonderful pain reliever cannot be found. It is made of a selected material and is taken to keep each plaster up to the highest standard of excellence, and so pure and simple are the ingredients that even a child can use it.

Alcock's are the original and genuine porous plasters and are sold by druggists in every part of the civilized world.

Had Gross Coughs.

Lorenzo Dow of one occasion took the liberty, while preaching, to denounce a fellowman in the community, recently deceased. The result was an arrest, a trial for slander, and an imprisonment in the county jail.

After Dow got out of limbo he announced that he would preach at a given time, a man about "another fellow man." The program was greatly enjoyed, and a crowded house greeted his arrival.

With great solemnity he opened the Bible and read, "and there was a rich man who died and went to—." Then, stopping short, and seeming to be suddenly impressed, he continued: "Brother, I shall not mention the place this rich man went to, for fear he has some relatives in this congregation who will sue me for defamation of character."

The effect was irresistible and he made the impression permanent by talking another text.—Boston Herald.

Missed something.

"This is the office of the telephone company, isn't it?" said the caller.

"Yes, sir," answered the man behind the railing.

"What can I do for you?"

"Well, it's this way," rejoined the other. "I have subscribed on a ten party line, and I'd like to subscribe in one of order. I want it."

"I see. We'll send a man out to look at it right away. I hope it isn't inconvenient for you."

"Oh, I don't mind the inconvenience. We don't do it more than about once or twice a week, but my wife has got so used to leaving it ringing day and night that it makes her nervous when the darned thing gets out of whack."

An Important Question.

He was an impetuous, seely, out-of-the-cloves person, and the doctor, when he prescribed for him, knew better than to expect a cure.

"For the inflamed eyes," said the benevolent physician, "dissolve as much boracic acid as you can put on a touch-piece in half a glass of water."

"Thank you, doctor," murmured the patient, turning away. A moment later, however, the office door was opened and the patient came in.

"Say, doc," said he with an ingratiating smile, "where do I get the ten-cent piece?"

No Room to Spare.

Many people who have lived in the quarters known according to location and the taste of their inhabitants as "flats," "suitors" or "apartments," will doubtless enter into Mrs. Graham's feelings.

After many days of troubled huping, she and Mr. Graham at last found a small suite which was somewhere near their modest ideal.

"This hall paper is dreadful," said Mrs. Graham, plaintively, "but he said the landlord wouldn't change it, for it is in good condition."

"Never mind, we'll get another paper, a pretty, cheap one, and put it right over this," said Mr. Graham cheerfully.

"Oh, James," and his wife's look was full of reproach, "your knowledge can hardly get our furniture through this entry now, it's so narrow!"

Every Household Should Know How to Resist It
The back aches because the kidneys are blocked.
Help the kidneys with their work. The back will ache no more.
Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.
W. H. McKay, engineer at the Abernathy Mfg. Co., and living at 110 Dakota street, Leavenworth, Kan., says: "Though I doctored and tried all kinds of medicines I suffered severely from kidney trouble for all of a year, and nothing seemed to do me the least bit of good. The pain in my back was terrible and the sharp twinges would cramp me up at times so that I could hardly move. The kidney secretions were irregular and contained a great deal of sediment that looked the brok dust. One physician who had treated me said I had muscular rheumatism, but he did not help me. After giving up all hope of finding relief I happened to learn through a friend about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at E. C. Fritsche's drug store. I found benefit in the treatment and continued it until I had taken three boxes. I was entirely cured of kidney trouble and have had no sign or symptom of it since. If ever any medicine saved a man's life Doan's Kidney Pills saved mine. I have been well for nearly six years, and know several people who have used Doan's Kidney Pills on the strength of the testimonial I gave in 1899 recommending them. I have yet to hear of a case in which this remedy failed.
