Agent for Haller Remedies, desires to announce that a full line of these desirable remedies can be had at his home one block west and one north of M. E. church.

The eloquence of silence is sometimes more convincing than a whole dictionary full of words.

THE PRIMARY LAW.

The new primary law should be an object of study by the voters, in order that the new system of making nominations may be generally familiar by the time it is put in operation. Following are some of the more important provisions:

The primary election occurs on the first Tuesday in September, thus allowing ample time for candidates to look after their interests before the general election in November. The system applies neither to special elections to fill vacancies nor to municipal elections in cities less than 25,000 inhabitants. All other officials must be nominated by the various parties in accordance with its provisions.

No candidates shall have their names on the primary ballot unless a petition to that effect is filed either by themselves or by others in their behalf, asking that it be done and certifying to their affiliation with the party of which they desire to be candidates and pledging themselves to abide by the result of the primary and to qualify if elected.

Candidates for United States senator and for presidential electors are to be nominated by the direct primary system.

The primaries of all parties must be held on the same day and the primary officials are to be provided with the ballots of each party, to be furnished the voter in accordance with their statement of party affiliation, who if challenged must swear that he affiliates with the party and intends to support a majority of its candidates at the coming election.

Candidates are required to pay a filing fee of $50 for senator, $10 for state office, congressman or judge of the district court, and $5 for city or county office. This fee has to be paid only in the county of the candidate's residence.

The expenses of all primaries are paid out of the public treasury, instead of being left to the political parties to settle.

The direct primary is not made to apply to the selection of delegates to national conventions, who will continue to be chosen by conventions, the formula being left to the party committees, but it is stipulated that the delegates to such conventions shall be apportioned upon the party vote at the last presidential election, and that each county shall have at least one vote.

Vacancies occurring upon any party ticket after the holding of any primary shall be filled by a majority vote of the party committee of the city, district, county or state, as the case may be, and a certificate of such nomination shall be filed as required by law.

The first Saturday after the primary election the nominees for county officers shall meet at the county seat of the respective counties in this state and by a majority thereof select one committee-men from each township or precinct in said county, and within one week thereafter said committeemen so selected shall meet and elect a chairman of the county central committee of his respective party and at said time shall elect one delegate who shall meet with like delegates chosen in the same way from each county in the state at the capitol at 12 o'clock, m., on the fourth Tuesday in September 1907, and annually thereafter on the fourth Tuesday in September; and said delegates shall forthwith formulate the platform of their party and select a state central committee composed of one member for each senator elected from each senatorial district, and said committee so elected shall select its chairman and secretary. The platform of each party shall be framed at such time and shall be made public not later than 6 o'clock in the afternoon of the following day.

Elaborate provision is made for punishing those who violate the law. Not only do rules of general elections apply but special regulations have been made to prevent fraudulent voting, fraudulent filing of papers and fraudulent interference with the candidacy of anyone seeking nomination. Undoubtedly many defects will come to light when the new system is tried but the primary election principle is right and the law will remove one of the greatest graft evils of modern times.

Young men go to work! There is no time to idle now. You must carve out your own way if it is ever successfully carved. You must seek your fortune thru industry, perseverance and pluck. Labor is honorable, the ignoble are those will not work. Get you a home. Fence a field, plow it and plant it and gather around you the comforts of a home. And when you have made a character for industry and thrift, ask some lady to share your home with you. We would say to every young lady, work these young men who are lounging around attempting to live by their wits, or on the interest of their debts; and when they ask you to share the lot of an aimless life, pass them on for you cannot afford to marry a man without prosperity, or business habits, unless you wish to sell yourself for a mess of pottage. Again we would reiterate, young men, go to work; while ten men watch for chances one man makes a chance; while ten men wait for something to turn up one man turns something up; while ten men fail one succeeds and is called a lucky man, fortune's favorite. Luck and fortune are the result of honest endeavor, work and toil. If you would win, go to work.—Swiped.

Hoskins News

(From the Headlight)

A birthday party was held at the John Bruce home Friday night. A jolly good time was had by all.

A surprise party was given at the Joe Dobbin home Friday night. All who were present report a pleasant evening.

Baptismal services were held in the Lutheran church Monday morning, at which time the infant daughter of Henry Schwindt was baptized.

Mrs. Dobbins returned home from Omaha Thursday. She reports her sister as undergoing the operation and now being well on the way to recovery.

Geo. Gruber and wife and Rev. R. Gruber left Monday for Gresham, Nebr., where they will attend the general conference of the German Lutheran church.

Printers, printers, booze, booze; they mix to perfection, and that mixing simply raises hell in the print shop. Our helper went on a booze Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Jacob Schlack and daughter, Mrs. Henry Edens, from Battle Creek, visited at the Carl Buss home from Thursday until Monday. The former is Mrs. Buss' mother and the latter is a sister.

Mrs. Fred Zellmer and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weatherholt went as far as Sioux City, Tuesday, with Mrs. Jones, who was returning to her home at Napoleon Iowa. She had been visiting relatives here that week.

The stockholders of the local telephone company held a meeting Wednesday evening in F. S. Benser's store. They elected Anna Nelson as secretary and added 10 cents to the monthly dues thereby giving them money with which to keep up the system.

Rev. Gruber received the sad news Saturday that the wife of Rev. Siegler had passed away at their home in Stanton that day. She had been operated on at a hospital, but no relief was found. The remains were shipped to Louiston, Minn., for burial, Monday. This family is well known to many of our readers, who extend their heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing relatives.

A very serious accident occurred on Thursday afternoon, when Eric Norling fell from a disc and perhaps fatally injuring himself. He was in the field discing in small grain and the bolt fastening the seat spring to the frame of the disc gave way letting Mr. Norling fall. In some manner he fell on the corner of spring cutting the cords of the bladder. Two physicians were called and they labored diligently with him until Friday morning, when he was taken to the hospital at Sioux City, where he will be operated on. We sincerely hope he recovers which at this writing seems quite doubtful.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderful it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by Raymond's Drug Store.

Marguerite Heckert came up from Wayne Friday evening and visited until Monday morning with Bernice Beebe. Claud Hancock and R. Closson drove over to Laurel Tuesday evening to attend a meeting of the I. O. O. F. encampment. The patrons of the newly consolidated school districts of Sholes are talking of putting up a new $4000 or $5000 school building. Gerald Porter of Wayne, Wm. Assenheimer of Altona and a gentleman from Pender were transacting business in Carroll Tuesday. Mrs. E. E. Carter enjoyed a visit the first of the week from her mother who lives at Beemer, and an uncle, Mr. Early, of Ft. Dodge, Iowa. John and Bert Francis shipped two cars of cattle to Omaha Monday. Bert Francis went down with the cattle and Mrs. Francis joined him there Tuesday. County Superintendent Littell was in Carroll Wednesday on his way to Sholes where he was to attend a meeting held in regard to the building of the new school house at that place. There is considerable talk of a new hotel building being erected in Carroll in the near future. A company is being organized to put up the building, and several good hotel men are in sight who would be glad to rent the building. This is an improvement which has long been needed in Carroll. Give hundred and ninety cases of eggs have been shipped out by the Carroll merchants in the past thirty days. The average price paid was about 14 cents per dozen. In the 590 cases there were 17,700 dozen and at 14 cents netted the farmers $2478.00. No wonder John Kate has fallen in love with the hen.

Wm. Bellows attended the town lot sale at Walthill Tuesday. He says the lots sold high and he did not invest. The farmers adjoining Carroll have been putting out a large number of fruit and forest trees this spring. It is money well spent. The telephone exchange building which is being erected on the lots just of W. B. Hornby's store, is rapidly nearing completion. The cold weather of the past week has put a sort of a dampener on the base ball fever, which was getting a pretty strong hold on some of our sports. W. H. James and L. D. Evans went to Chicago Tuesday with two car loads of hogs and two of cattle, for the Farmers' elevator and John Shannon. The Methodist people are talking of putting a new, combination pipe and reed organ in the church. They are considering a good proposition which was made to them the first of the week. Geo. LaCroix received word the first of the week that his father who was living in California, was dead. Mr. and Mrs. LaCroix and Grandma LaCroix went to Wayne Wednesday where the funeral services were held. There seems to be quite a sentiment in and around Carroll that we celebrate the Fourth this year. It will either be a carnival later in the fall or a celebration, and if we are going to celebrate, it is high time some action was being taken. The date for holding the semi-annual Sunday school convention for the west district has been set for May 12. Arrangements are being made for an interesting meeting. The convention will be held in the Welsh Methodist church west of Carroll. Dr. F. M. Sisson, of Omaha, Supt. of the Childs' Saving Institute of that city, occupied the pulpit at the M. E. church Sunday morning and evening. In the morning he presented the work of the institute and took up a collection which amounted to about $50. The First National Bank people are remodeling the interior of the bank building and now have a private office in the rear of the building. They are also going to make some improvements in the way of painting on the outside, also on the store building occupied by Beebe & Francis. A large number of cattle and hogs have been shipped from Carroll this week. Monday night there were nearly 400 head of hogs in the yards here to be shipped. The bulk of them were bought by the Farmers Elevator Co. Six cents was about the average price paid, and this means quite a sum of money paid out to the farmers nearby Carroll.

North Garfield

Mrs. Bert Francis went to Omaha Monday. Mr. Ed. Morris sold hogs at Carroll Monday. Mr. Bert Francis shipped a car of cattle to Omaha Monday. John Francis shipped a car of cattle to Omaha Monday. Miss Lizzie James visited at the L. J. Hughes' home Sunday. Mr. Ellis Kendrick sold a horse Monday to a party from Randolph. The most of the farmers have finished putting in their small grain. A boy came to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Roberts Sunday. The infant son of Robert Jones has been quite sick but is better at present writing. Work has begun on the new house of John Jones which will be a very comfortable dwelling when finished. The choir is beginning to practice this week at the M. E. Church in preparation for the Sunday School convention to be held there next June.

Welsh Settlement

Harry Hughes deplors the loss of a valuable colt. Tom Hamers' fractured rib is making rapid strides towards recovery. Lizzie Williams of Carroll visited at the Evan Jenkins home over Sunday. Rev. Vincent Jones will lecture on "Missions in Japan" at the Congregational Church next Sunday evening. Mrs. John R. Morris, Blondin Morris of the Star Stock Farm and Kate Lloyd were Wayne visitors Wednesday. Programs are well under way for District Sunday School Convention to be held at the Welsh Presbyterian church, May, 12. County and State officers will partake in the meetings.

Cured of Rheumatism

Mr. Wm. Henry of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm "The strength seemed to be gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by Raymond's Drug Store.

160 Acres of Land for Sale.

3 1/2 miles from town. This is an extra good quarter, every foot of the land can be plowed. Will sell this farm in Kansas at a bargain. Dr. H. E. Eells, Wayne, Neb. Having two hydraulic well machines, will sell one at a bargain. JAS. LUCKY.

This is Pruning Season

This is the season of the year to go through your orchards and trim off all the dead branches from fruit trees and bushes, so as to give appearance to the trees and make room for the new growth. If you have not already done this, go at it at once. It will assure you a better crop of fruit the coming season. Some people do not quit pruning when they are through with the trees and shrubbery, but start in on their feet trimming corns.

Now that is one part of pruning which is absolutely unnecessary, if you buy your shoes right. If your feet hurt and are tired at night, your shoes are uncomfortable. If you have corns and ingrowing toenails, your shoes are not properly fitted to you.

Have you ever bought shoes from us? This is a very important question. We are expert shoemen, and can give you satisfaction. The shoe business is a trade, and we have learned it from A to Z, and unless you are sure your shoes are the proper shape for your particularly shaped foot you cannot hope to get satisfaction, either in wear or comfort. Why trust your feet to an inexperienced merchant? You would not let an inexperienced man shoe your horse. Use the same horse sense when buying shoes for yourself. You not only get the proper shoes here, but you get them for less money than at any other store in Wayne, quality and workmanship taken into consideration. We can fit you with a plow shoe that will be as easy as your dress shoes.

Buy Men's and Boys' shoes of us and enjoy life. Every pair warranted to give satisfaction. Your eggs the same as cash with us.

M. J. Kirwan, accompanied by his wife and child returned from their visit at Coleridge, Monday.

David Moler went to Antelope and Holt county points, Monday, to look after the delivery of nursery stock.

The L. U. McKee residence, near the court house has been sold to W. S. Goldie, who intends to occupy it with his family.

D. W. Burke, of Herman, Nebr., visited with his daughter, Mrs. R. A. McEachen, last week, returning home Saturday.

Mrs. Chas. Cuning, of Meadow Grove, Nebr., spent several days the first of the week with her daughter Mrs. Lew Winsor.

The stork made a visit at the Everett Sherman home Wednesday, Apr. 10, and left a baby girl to brighten the home circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Culler and niece, Miss Mable Elliott, were Saturday passengers to Dakota City, Nebr., for a visit with Mrs. Culler's parents.

J. H. Jones sold two pianos lately. One going into the Howard Whalen home, while R. Philleo secures one of the best of the high priced instruments sold.

The John Drew Co., occupying a special sleeper with two coaches for scenery, went thru Wayne on the noon passenger Tuesday, being billed for an appearance at Sioux City in the evening.

The Meyer's residence on Fourth street is being fitted up and put in order for a new occupant. Dr. W. R. O'Neal we understand intends to occupy the place about the first of the month.

Post master McNeal has certainly set a good example in the way he has improved appearances around his home. Several big trees have been removed and the old picket fence torn out.

D. E. Miller left for Alberta, Canada, Tuesday, and will likely be gone for some time. He has invested heavily in land near a place called Red Deer, and the investment promises good returns.

Letters received by Wayne friends of Guy Strickland the past week, tell of his securing a position in a railroad surveying corps, under direction of the Oregon Short Line. He is to report at a place called Burns, in Oregon. Guy has been spending some time visiting relatives at Lewiston, Idaho.

J. F. French has disposed of his bank and property interests at Craig and gave possession the first of the month. Mr. French was in Wayne last week looking up a house, and we understand will occupy the Snodgrass residence for the summer at least. In the meantime he will look up another location for a bank, probably in South Dakota.

Marcus Kroger spent Sunday at Scribner on a visit with Fred Volpp. On Monday Mrs. Kroger and Mrs. Beit Johnson went to Scribner to spend several days. Fred leaves next week in company with Nelson Grimsley for a tour of Europe. It will require several months, as Mr. Volpp intends to spend some time at his old home in Germany.

One of his Wayne friends received a letter from D. E. Newton, at Corona, Calif., this week. The family apparently are getting on well and enjoy the Southern California winters, and suggests that even better than fishing is an automobile ride over their fine roads. Mr. Newton recently embarked in the flour and feed business, and has a good layout with lots of trade.

SHOWING IS GOOD.

President Dinsmore has returned from the King Solomon Tunnel and is delighted with the showing he found. About a week ago while making an upraise on vein No. 2 a streak of very fine ore carrying high values in gold, silver and copper was uncovered. It is from six to eight inches wide where it was opened and continues to widen out as the upraise is advanced. Old miners who have prospected on Royal mountain for years are enthusiastic over the strike declaring it to be one of the biggest things in the district, and a good indication of what may be expected when the King Solomon Tunnel reaches and develops the larger veins at depth.

The drift being driven on vein No. 4 is also looking very promising, says Mr. Dinsmore. A large quantity of water is coming from this drift the last few days and the pay streak is getting wider. The miners who are working on this drift say they expect to break into an ore shoot at any time. Work on the new power plant is being rushed and as soon as it is completed these veins will be thoroughly explored with power drills.

H. F. Slaughter, the Greory county banker, is contemplating the erection of a handsome residence in Gregory, S. D. The new home will cost at least $6,000. Architect J. C. Stitt has been called on to prepare the plans.—Norfolk News.

The Winside Tribune is contemplating several improvements in its equipment. Mr. Ecker tells us that he has decided to buy the old power press formerly used by the Democrat and would also put in a 3 horse power gasoline engine. This will enable the Tribune to put out a six column quarto paper. Winside merchants are liberal advertisers, and the improvements will certainly be appreciated by them.

Judge Behtold, of Holdridge, spent several days in Wayne the past week guests of his daughters Mrs. Kate and Mrs. Hufferd. He is county judge of Phelps county and a long time and enthusiastic Mason, being recently advanced to the position of a Grand Commander; which gives him the rights and privileges of a delegate to the annual gathering of that order to be held at Saratoga, N. Y. this summer.

The Initiative and Referendum ordinance carried at Wayne last week, almost unanimously. A person would naturally expect that it should. The people of Wayne would be but a few degrees removed from one of Goldie's "barn storms" if they didn't have sense enough to vote favorably to themselves having a direct voice in their own public affairs. We think, from the results, that Bro. Goldie finally got over his prohibition nightmare and "smiled a little for the lady."—Coleridge Blade.

W. F. Assenheimer sold the C. E. Hunter farm near Laporte in Wayne county to J. H. Heineman of Grant township for $65 per acre... The sentence of August H. Mueller, who was convicted of a murderous assault upon his father-in-law, F. Hohneke, Mrs. Hohneke and his wife, Mrs. Mueller in Stanton county about a year ago, has been reduced by the supreme court from fifteen years to three years. A. R. Oleson assisted J. A. Ehrhardt in the defense, and is well pleased with their work for their client.—Wisner Chronicle.

The increased business of the Wayne post office for the first quarter of the present year, exceeds the banner quarter of 1906 by $385. A continuation of such a volume of receipts would put the Wayne office among the second class. The showing reflects favorably upon Wayne business activity and surely proves that we are still growing. The X Ray Incubator factory, together with several other minor industries have been strong factors in this increase of postal receipts. Messers. Kate and Porter, have sent out thousands of circulars and catalogs, and these with their general correspondence, in keeping up with the sale of incubators has not only swelled the postal receipts of the local office, but has advertised Wayne through the States and countries over the sea as well. The Normal College has always been a source of a gradual increasing postal revenue, and has given Wayne a favorable name in nearly every town for 500 miles around. We believe the pace will be maintained and that next year we can again chronicle larger postal receipts and tell of a bigger and better Wayne.

One of the pioneers of the county in the person of Geo. Buskirk, of Leslie, is building a barn out of lumber sawed from trees planted by his own hand less than a quarter of a century ago. Lumber and fuel are becoming more valuable every year, and Mr. Buskirk's privilege reminds us of the advantages of tree planting and what it means to future generations. This is the season of the year to keep this thought uppermost and to act upon it. April 22 is Arbor day, when we should follow the good advice and respect the example of the late distinguished J. Sterling Morton, and plant trees. Do it, and future years will count you a public benefactor. No danger of ever having too many trees.

Electricity on the Farm.

E. B. Miner, of Oriskany Falls, N. Y., has solved the problem of progressive farming. He has made a success of kid-glove farming and can now do the hardest work on the premises without a backache. The heavy work on the Miner farm, and most of the lighter work too, is done by electricity while the farmer and his good family stand idly by and watch the wheels go round.

There is a little creek running thru Mr. Miner's farm, and he has merely put the stream to work and is doing the playing himself. This stream he has harnessed to run a small dynamo, which in turn gives him electric light, heat and power for his home and farm buildings. A small dam of the flow type was built of concrete. The fall is about 6 ft. A small power house was equipped with a water wheel and a 250 volt generator. The electricity is carried to the house and barn by cables.

At the spacious farm house electricity lights all the rooms, heats a number of apartments; runs the sewing machine and will also be used to cook the food. The cream is separated by electricity and the heavy barrel churn is run by the same power. A small motor drives the buzz saws, the grindstone, the feed cutters, the fanning mill and pumps the water.

The cost of the plant was trifling considering what it does. It runs night and day and requires practically no attention further than oiling twice a week.

There are doubtless hundreds of other places throughout the country where small water power could be utilized and a similar plant installed.—Electric News.

Inland Waterways.

Washington, Apr. 15.—It has just dawned on the country that the work cut out for Congressman Burton and his colleagues on the newly appointed Inland Waterways Commission will be enormous. In all the discussion of the navigable waterways of the United States, little has been said or written that would disclose their vast reaches. The inland streams of the United States are in keeping with the wonderful distances of the country. As avenues of transportation they are a marvelous system in themselves.

It is not generally known that the total navigable distance of the Mississippi River extends over a space of 2,161 miles for the average steamers, and 2,237 miles for smaller craft. Taking into consideration the tributaries of the Father of Waters, these combined would make a river system 13,160 miles long, through which a good-sized steamer could make its way.

Some idea of the distance these figures convey can be gained only by comparison. It is astonishing to find that it is slightly greater than from New York to Bangkok by the way of London. If the steamer were driven by powerful engines, and made a continuous trip, it might complete the journey in about fifty days. However, if it were compelled to make as many stops as fall the share of the average river steamer, this time would be greatly lengthened.

These figures are for the Mississippi River and its tributaries alone. The splendid reaches of the Columbia River and the mileage of scores of other navigable streams emptying into the Atlantic and Pacific oceans and the Gulf of Mexico, are not taken into consideration. With this mileage added, the navigable rivers of the United States are the wonders of the world.

A faint idea of the immense volume of water that sweeps thru the Mississippi valley may be gained from the fact that every second the Mississippi River pours into the Gulf of Mexico 675,000 cubic feet of water. For more than a quarter of a century this great volume of water has served little to advance the cause of commerce. The government, instead of harnessing the great tide and making it bear on its bosom fleets of freight-carrying steamers, has been content to fight its encroachment on farming lands, regarding it rather as a destructive agency than as a great factor in the advancement of the country's prosperity.

With the appointment of the Inland Waterways Commission, and the passage of a big appropriation bill for waterways improvement by the last Congress, this policy is about to be changed. The freight congestion that has paralyzed the railroads and has gripped the commerce of the whole United States, has driven the Federal government into taking steps for the creation of another means of transportation.

This decision was reached only after coal famines caused untold suffering throughout the Northwest, and the agricultural states found themselves financially embarrassed in the midst of plenty, because of the inability of the railroads to carry their products to market, while the manufacturing states felt the same embarrassment, because of the impossibility of getting delivery of raw materials.

Large credit is due to the National Rivers & Harbors Congress for this belated recognition of the waterways as a means for relieving transportation distress. The organization, which has been at work for five years bringing the matter to the attention of the country, is non-political and lends its powerful influence to no individual scheme for betterment. It stands for a general campaign of waterways improvement, and has contended unhesitatingly that not less than $50,000,000 a year should be expended by the government in this important work of internal improvement.

PRESIDENT AND ARBOR DAY.

Roosevelt Writes to the Children, Emphasizing the Nation's Need of Trees.

Washington, April 15.—President Roosevelt has addressed "To the School Children of the United States" a message on the significance of Arbor day. He advises them to celebrate the day thoughtfully. The message says:

"Arbor day is now celebrated in every state in our Union, mainly in the schools. At various times you give a day or a part of a day to special exercises, and perhaps to actual tree planting, in recognition of the importance of trees to us as a nation, and of what they yield in adornment comfort and useful products.

"It is well that you should celebrate your Arbor day thoughtfully, for within your life time the nation's need of trees will become serious. We of an older generation can get along with what we have, though with growing hardship, but in your full manhood and womanhood you will want what nature once so bountifully supplied and man so thoughtlessly destroyed, and because of that you will reproach us for what we have wasted. For the nation, as for the man or woman and the boy or girl, the road to success is the right use of what we have and the improvement of present opportunity. If you neglect to prepare yourselves now for the duties of responsibilities that will fall on you later, if you do not learn the things which you will need to know when your school days are over, you will suffer the consequences. So any nation which in its youth lives for only the day, reaps without sowing and must expect the penalty of the prodigal, whose labor could with difficulty find him the bare means of life.

"A people without children would face a hopeless future; a country without trees is almost as hopeless. A true forest is not merely a storehouse full of wood, but as it were, a factory of wood, and at the same time a reservoir of water. When you help to preserve our forests or to plant new ones, you are acting the part of good citizens. The value of forestry deserves, therefore, to be taught in the schools. If your Arbor day exercises help you to realize what benefits each one of you receives from the forests and how by your assistance these benefits may continue, they may serve a good end.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Navy Newspapers.

Many vessels of the British fleet are equipped with first rate printing outfit, and papers are issued weekly for the amusement of the officers and crews. I have seen several of these, and they are chuck full of wit and humor. Some of the American war vessels also have papers, to which all who please may contribute. Not a few of the common seaman are able writers, and because of the "liberty of the press" they are not a bit afraid of committing "lese majeste." A good hit at the commanding officer or one of his lieutenants is hugely enjoyed. It is the one and only way of squaring accounts. The newspaper habit was started about twenty-three years ago by the officers of the trans-Atlantic steamship Gallia, a giant in her day, and great advances can now be made since the introduction of wireless telegraphy.—New York Press.

The Silver Lining.

"Your nephew, that's studying to be a doctor?"

"Well, now, he ain't by any means as useless as you'd naturally think," philosophically said honest Farmer Hornbeak. "When he comes home on a vacation I make him not only kill the chickens, as occasion arises, but dress 'em, into the bargain; and what little knowledge he has already got of surgery enables him to do a more artistic job than any of the rest of us can do. In spite of all the practice we have had in an unscientific way. A college education, Enoch, has its bright side, even if it does cost considerable."—Puck.

Does Not Approve of "Mission."
The Rev. Eugene Vetroville, an Italian priest, who was the pastor for many years at Eastport, and who was well known for his missionary labors among the Passamaquoddy Indians, and also for his educational work in their language, having compiled a dictionary and a grammar in that tongue, was extremely conservative in all matters relating to his church, and was violently opposed to anything that might change its routine.

A young lady of his congregation once urged him to establish a "mission" in Eastport, in order to rouse some of the lethargic members of the church, whose spiritual condition the good father had been deploring.

"No, no," he replied, with his quaint accent. "I do not approve of missions. They make de excitement, but their effects are not lasting."
"Oh, yes, they are!" she insisted.
"Well, in that case, you do not need one, for you had one three years ago."—Boston Herald.

At a meeting of the graduating classes Saturday afternoon, Arthur Anderson of Concord, a member of the State Certificate Class, was elected President of the classes. W. R. Schneider of Pilger was elected President of the Scientific Class, and W. L. Campbell of Belden has the same office in the Teacher's Professional Class. Methodist Meetings.

The evangelistic services under the leadership of Rev. Dr. McKaig at the Methodist church will close Sunday night. The Sunday morning services will begin at 10:30 and the evening services at 7:30. Evangelist McKaig has certainly endeared himself to the people, his methods being commended by representatives of the different churches. The work of the Beck family is remarkable in that it shows what the light of the gospel can do for the colored race. Mrs. Beck, who is sent out as a miracle of missions, will speak Saturday night.

One of the truly delightful affairs of the social season was held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Mines, Tuesday evening, when with the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Pile, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weber the Acme Club members and their husbands were entertained. The event was the last of three of the Club's social meetings for the year. Neither preparation nor expense was spared to make it a great success and one long to be remembered by the participants. The spacious rooms of the Mines home were tastily decorated with club colors—blue and yellow—in the form of festoons, from the chandeliers to the wall, and a profusion of roses and carnations. The tables richly abounded with cut glass and decorated china, the center piece being a mound of white roses. The place cards were neatly hand painted, those for the ladies being adorned with violets, while the gentlemen's cards showed various juvenile scenes. The dinner, which was served in three courses by the Misses Blair, Anderson and Beechel, was immense, and was made merry by the reading of conundrums and the answers, which had been distributed at the various places at the table. Following the banquet red roses were handed each lady and to the gentlemen red carnations were given, while all joined in games and charades until quite a late hour. When the party dispersed, it was with many kind reminiscences of the evening and compliments for the entertainers.

Herald and Nebraska Farmer, $1.00

One Dollar Cheaper.

During the one week of April 22 to 27, inclusive, the Lincoln Daily News will accept $2 from mail subscribers for a whole year to May 1, 1908. The regular price is one dollar more than that. This cut price is good only during this Bargain Week, and all you have to do is to mail your $2 the The Daily News, Lincoln, Neb., during that time, and you will receive the paper until May 1, 1908.

The News does not receive any free railroad tickets, and has cut off several traveling solicitors. Instead of paying out railroad fare, hotel bills and other expenses, these savings will be given to our subscribers direct by this big bargain offer. More things are being done this year for the people in Nebraska than ever before. The new deal seems to suit everybody who has not had some sort of a pull. The Lincoln News keeps in the midst of the fight and wants every man who believes in a square deal on its list.

At $2 for a whole year there is not a family in the state that cannot afford a daily paper. The News has the reputation of printing the truth and printing it plainly, no matter where it hits. Its the liveliest, snappiest newspaper proposition in Nebraska and if you become a subscriber at this cheap rate, you will stay with it for a long time to come. Remember the bargain week—April 22 to 27. The price will be $3 after that week.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched celery and nuts. Not a grain of real coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. As we desired to determine to what extent the keeping qualities of apples were reduced when attacked by the worm a bushel of wormy Winter Pearmain apples was selected Nov. 1 and stored under similar conditions with a bushel of the same variety not wormy. None of the apples in either lot was decayed at this time.

They were unmoistened until Feb. 3 at which time an examination showed that out of 145 apples of the wormy lot forty-seven were more or less decayed around the worm hole and four were decayed in other places. Of a like number of the other lot only nine were decayed.—Ohio Station Report.

JUDGING CORN.

Seed Corn Selection Discussed by Professor Holden.

In regard to judging corn and seed selection Professor P. G. Holden of the Iowa Agricultural college at a winter fair of the New York State Breeders' association said, among other things, that he believed New York would grow more corn, and a large proportion of this would be of the dent type because it is a little larger than the flint type, yields fully as well and is as good for the silo. Corn culture is extending steadily both northward and eastward.

In judging corn it is necessary to take in more points than mere external characteristics. The ends of the ears of corn should be well filled, but such points as density of the rows from end to end must be observed. This depends upon the kernels.

Maturity an Important Point.

As a first point maturity is the most important. The kernels should show they have become thoroughly ripened. They should not be starchy, and there should not be waste spaces between them. Constitution is the next most important point, since upon it depend productive power and ability to overcome dryness, wetness and coolness. The size and prominence of the germ is an indication of this. The germ contains about 50 per cent of oil and 8 to 10 per cent of protein. It is a good thing to increase the proportion of protein of the seed and consequently the constitution of the resulting plant. In an effort to secure this it is not required to grow corn in order to produce a balanced ration in the grain, because it is better to secure this balance from alfalfa, clover and other plants.

Uniformity of Seed.

Uniformity is another essential quality of seed corn, so important that if a bushel of ears were received from a seedman it should be returned unless the kernels as well as the ears were of uniform grade as to size, color and other characteristics. Uneven sizes among kernels will not produce a good stand in the field. Like the kernels, the stalks will be uneven. Some will be large, others small, some late, some early, some prolific and some barren. These characteristics can only be secured by breeding corn for definite results. It is just as impossible to feed the corn for this when planted and get an even constitution from it as it is to feed a pig dog in order to make him grow into a Newfoundland or a mastiff.

POPCORN INDUSTRY.

Greatest Production Is in the Commercial Corn Belt.

The active demand for popcorn this year may result in enlarging the area of the popcorn belt. This crop has been steadily moving westward until its area of greatest production is now in the heart of the commercial corn belt. Nearly half the popcorn consumed in this country is raised in a single county in northwestern Iowa, according to American Cultivator. The crop is mostly raised on contract, and for several years the average price has been 80 cents per 100 pounds, with an average yield of about 3,000 pounds to the acre. The crop is regarded as profitable even on the high priced land of Iowa. It stands drought better than large corn and ripens a little earlier, thus escaping the early frosts. Picking and husking popcorn is disagreeable work, but is a money making job, pickers being paid 15 cents per 100 pounds. It is certainly a paying crop to the Iowa farmer. Prices in the east are enough higher than those paid to western producers to warrant some extension of the crop in the older portions of the country. Especially for the seed trade there is a good demand at prices better than the regular market if the corn can be guaranteed free from mixture. Some of the Boston and New England commission merchants have been advertising for shipments of popcorn, indicating that the demand is more than equal to supply. Factories where popcorn specialties are manufactured seem to have been increasing business for several years.

Heating the Greenhouse.

For heat in the greenhouse steam possesses the following advantages over hot water: It is better adapted to crooked circuits, holds heat better and distributes it more readily and evenly, costs 15 to 20 per cent less to install and can be used in larger establishments. On the other hand, hot water surpasses steam in that it requires less fuel, breaks are less apt to occur, it lasts longer and requires no night fireman. There is no appreciable difference in the effects of the two systems on the plants, and consequently the answer to the question of whether hot water or steam shall be used in heating the establishment depends upon whether there shall be a larger cost at the start, with smaller outlay for repairs, management and fuel and a longer lasting system or the reverse of these conditions.—Professor Moore, Wisconsin.

Experiment With Apples.

As we desired to determine to what extent the keeping qualities of apples were reduced when attacked by the worm a bushel of wormy Winter Pearmain apples was selected Nov. 1 and stored under similar conditions with a bushel of the same variety not wormy. None of the apples in either lot was decayed at this time.

They were unmoistened until Feb. 3 at which time an examination showed that out of 145 apples of the wormy lot forty-seven were more or less decayed around the worm hole and four were decayed in other places. Of a like number of the other lot only nine were decayed.—Ohio Station Report.

BLOCKADED
Every Household Should Know How to Resist It

The back aches because the kidneys are blocked.

Help the kidneys with their work. The back will ache no more.

Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

W. H. McKay, engineer at the Abernathy Mfg. Co., and living at 110 Dakota street, Leavenworth, Kan., says: "Through I doctored and tried all kinds of medicines I suffered severely from kidney trouble for all of a year, and nothing seemed to do me the least bit of good. The pain in my back was terrible and the sharp twinges would cramp me up at times so that I could hardly move. The kidney secretions were irregular and contained a great deal of sediment that looked like brick dust. One physician who had treated me said I had muscular rheumatism, but he did not help me. After giving up all hope of finding relief I happened to learn through a friend about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at E. C. Fritsche's drug store. I found benefit in the treatment and continued it until I had taken three boxes. I was entirely cured of kidney trouble and have had no sign or symptom of it since. It ever any medicine saved a man's life Doan's Kidney Pills saved mine. I have been well for nearly six years, and know several people who have used Doan's Kidney Pills on the strength of the testimonial I gave in 1899 recommending them. I have yet to hear of a case in which this remedy failed."

The wrong way to select harness is the way it is usually done. Price is generally the first consideration. If that is very low the goods seem attractive, regardless of quality. Judge our goods the other way about. Examine into the quality of the harness first. Then it will be seen that it is worth almost any price. But our prices are not high. Value considered they are remarkably low.
