Most of the school teachers of Madison county, according to county superintendent, F. S. Perdue, are taking special normal training work in the normal schools of the state. The Wayne normal has secured the greater number of the teachers with the Kearney and Peru normals following.—Norfolk News.

W. J. Breslin this week sold the City Meat Market to M. C. Housel who took possession Wednesday. Mr. Housel is not unexperienced in that line of trade and is an active young business man who will no doubt conduct it successfully. Mr. Breslin has not decided just what he will do but he does not think of leaving Hartington.—Hartington Herald.

The Fairmont Sentinel publishes a formula for killing weeds on the highways, which if it will work, ought to be tried in every county: 20 cents worth of white clover seed, 10 cents worth of timothy seed and 20 cents worth of blue grass seed; mix thoroughly and sow on both sides of the road. Let every farmer sow the highways surrounding his land and in two or three years the results will be surprising. This grass mixture will kill all weeds. 50 cents worth of seed will sow a mile of highway. The same process will clean the weeds out of city lots.

A double quartet of Allenites journeyed to Wayne last Friday to see the Allen fast horses go, as well as to look over the many other equine beauties being worked at the track there. Those who went were Messrs. J. R. Graham, H. Pomeroy, H. J. Fowler, Leo Brittain, G. C. Saberson, P. P. Gaughran, W. J. Armour and E. E. Shackelford. The Allen horses are all doing fine for this time of toe year. Hixie Fallerton showed miles in 2:27, Pactola a 2:40 gait, Harvey P. a 2:40 gait, W. J. Medium an eighth in 21 seconds. Pactola and Hixie Fallerton will be raced, the other horses being there for education only.—Allen News.

Will Hoar of Wayne, and a graduate of the law department of our state university visited the fore part of the week with his friend and former classmate Mr. Frank Brookings. Miss Goldie Brookings is home from Cedar Falls, Ia., where she has been attending Iowa's justly celebrated Normal school. Miss Brookings expects to attend the same school the coming year. Eugene Brookings arrived Sunday from Madison, Wisconsin, where he has been attending law school at Wisconsin State University. Mr. Brookings has been busy the past three days shaking hands with old friends, who one and all seem delighted to have him home again.—Tekamah Journal.

A gentleman at Fairbury, Neb., offers to exchange the Blade "9 splendid poems" for some advertising space, and we are sorry that we can't accept the proffer for we had rather read poetry than hoe the garden, but the day has gone by for the trading off space. If a paper can't exchange its space for car rides we fail to see how it could consistently exchange it for poems. The poet may take this matter up with the government if he wishes, and in the meantime we are at liberty to take cash for his advertising, which we will gladly do, and try to maintain our accustomed equanimity even though we must forego the delight of the "9 splendid poems."—Cole-ridge Blade.

The Tribune cordially congratulates Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dunn over the safe birth of a new daughter, she arriving early Monday morning. Mother and daughter are doing well but Jack recovers slowly.

When a member of a newspaperman's family gets married or otherwise goes wrong, he may freely tell the truth without giving offense. This week the opportunity is presented to us, and not forgetting that we were obliged to get up at 5 o'clock in the morning to see them "hitched," they cannot expect that we will let them down easy. The bride claims to be but eighteen but we know positively that she is between twenty and twenty-one, while the groom couldn't tell his age if he was to be hung—he lost track of it forty years ago. The bride thinks she can cook; her husband will find charcoal tablets good for indigestion. The groom imagines that he will get our family trade. He will, but he doesn't seem to realize that a man's relatives have privleges that he must respect. It means free peanuts for the old man, free cigars for the young man, free candy and ice cream for the little sister and anything she wants for mother. Just how he will manage to make expenses hereafter we don't know and durned if we care; he ought to have known better. And if we squeeze him right along, he mustn't get sore even if he is a Boyle.

The greatest interest is being aroused in California and adjoining States in the various features of the coming National Irrigation Congress to be held in Sacramento in September. This session of the congress will differ materially from preceding ones, not only in the scope of the work planned, put in the character and extent of auxiliary features. Sacramento is preparing to welcome the immense attendants which these attractions are sure to draw to the city and which is already foreshadowed by inquiries from everywhere concerning arrangements and accommodations. Not only is the city ready to take care of all who come, but is planning to royally entertain her guests and visitors during the continuance of the Congress and incidental events.

USED BRASS KNUCKLES

Fred Wrobel Charges John Muth and Fritz Meyer With Intent to do Great Bodily Injury

Fred Wrobel, a young farmer living to the south of Wayne, near Altona, entered a complaint with County Attorney Geo. Wilbur, Monday, charging John Muth and Fritz Meyer with intent to do him 'great bodily injury. The assault in question took place Sunday evening, or rather Monday morning about one o'clock, somewhere on the public highway between Mr. Wrobel's home and that of Pete Sievers, where he had been to spend the evening at a gathering of neighbors. According to Mr. Wrobel's version of the affair, it was while returning home afoot that he was overtaken by his assailants in a buggy. They drew near as they were about to pass him on the road when one of them alighted and without preliminaries or explanation proceeded to pound him about the head and face with his fists while wearing brass knuckles. Mr. Wrobel claims he was unable to defend himself because of interference of the second party who had in the meantime gotten out of the buggy. After administering a fearful drubbing, the assailants climbed into their rig and drove hurriedly away, leaving their victim nearly exhausted and bleeding upon the ground.

Mr. Wrobel certainly bears evidence of hard usage, for some seven holes have been dug about his forehead, clear to the skull, while the right cheek about the eye is badly mutilated and discolored, evidence of a glancing blow from the knuckles.

The trouble seems to have had its origin in a discussion at the part when a few warm words passed between the parties.

The defendants were brot before Judge Hunter Tuesday afternoon and furnished bond for their appearance for trial on Tuesday, July 2, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Called Home.

A sad death occurred at the A. N. Matheny home, Friday, June 21, at 2:00 o'clock p. m., when their niece Miss Ivy May Pendell, passed away. The young lady had been a severe sufferer from dropsy since early March, and while everything possible had been done for her comfort and relief, yet death tightened its grip to claim its own. Deceased is survived by her mother Mrs. L. A. Pendell, and a sister Florence, the latter being a telephone operator at Randolph.

The funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church on Monday, at three o'clock in the afternoon, under direction of Rev. Wier, of Randolph, who was assisted by Rev. Heeren the local pastor. The burial took place in Greenwood cemetery.

Deceased was born in Thayer county, Nebraska, Nov. 24, 1893, leaving her age at 13 years, six months and 26 days at the time of her death. She was a very bright and intelligent girl, and while her suffering was severe, she complained hardly at all.

The sorrowing mother and sister with the aunt and uncle, of the late Miss Ivy May Pendell, desire that the HERALD express their thanks to the many kind neighbors and friends for their assistance and sympathy during her illness and death.

Best and prettiest wash goods at Orr & Morris'.

Judge Hunter tied the knot and made a Wakefield couple happy yesterday afternoon, in the persons of Thos. Fitzsimmons, jr. and Clara S. Peterson.

The board of education for the city schools let the contract for coal to the Saunders-Westrand Co. Forty ton of anthracite goes to the high school building and twenty ton to the ward school. It is being delivered this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Johnson and son spent a few days the past week at the home of C. J. Lund home, leaving for their home at Cambridge, Ill., yesterday. Mr. Johnson is a brother-in-law to Mr. Lund and had been to South Dakota on a land buying trip.

The west part of the county was well represented at the Clark-Lesson stock sale in Wayne yesterday. Among the number were: Geo. Drevson, Geo. Sweigard, Louie and Jas. Glass, John and Bert Prince, Otto Miller, Frank Weible and Harry Tiedrick.

The new Mellor building is nearing completion. The carpenters are at work on the interior furnishings this week, and there is little doubt but that the store room will be ready for its tenant, the Orr & Morris Co., by the middle of July. A good share of the upstairs will be used as hospital quarters, and will be occupied by Dr. Naffziger. The building by its location and architectural appearance is, without question, the most attractive business structure in Wayne, and we all share in the feeling of local pride that has grown up with its building.

Fred Weber, a well to do farmer from west Sherman precinct, returned from Omaha yesterday, where he had spent three weeks in the Presbyterian hospital and underwent an operation for an ailment of long standing. About ten years ago he submitted to an operation and secured but temporary relief and since then there have been periods that he suffered much. Mr. Weber is owner of one of the best improved stock farms in the county, but he has about concluded to retire from further management of the place and move to town to reside.

State of Nebraska, ss.
 Wayne County,

At a County Court, held at the County Court Room, in and for said County of Wayne, on the 25th day June, 1907.

Present, E. Hunter, County Judge.

In the matter of the estate of John H. Whipperman, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of H. H. Whipperman praying that the instrument filed on the 25th day of June, 1907, and purporting to be the last Will and Testament of said deceased, may be proved, approved, probated, allowed and recorded as the last Will and Testament of said John H. Whipperman, deceased, and that the execution of said Instrument may be committed and that the administration of said Estate may be granted to Mary Whipperman, widow as Executrix; Ordered, That July 13th, A. D. 1907, at 10 o'clock a. m., is assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear at a County Court to be held in and for said county, and show cause why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Wayne Herald, a weekly newspaper printed in said County, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.
 E. Hunter, County Judge.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my book on either Dyspepsia, the heart or the kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the stomach, heart and kidneys are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means stomach weakness always. And the heart and kidneys as well have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy ever claims to treat the inside nerves. Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free book now, Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by Felber's Pharmacy.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals for the erection of a four-room frame school house at Sholes, Nebraska, will be received by the board of education of school district No. 76, Sholes, Wayne county, Nebraska, until 12 o'clock noon, Wednesday, July 10, 1907.

Drawings and specifications may be seen at Sholes, Nebraska, and at the office of the county superintendent, A. E. Littell, Wayne, Neb., and also at the office of the architect, J. C. Stitt, Norfolk, Neb.

Bids are to be addressed to and filed with M. S. Moats, Sholes, Neb., and each bid is to be accompanied with a certified check for $200 payable to the school district, as a guaranty that the bidder will enter into contract and bond if awarded the contract.

The successful bidder will be required to give an approved surety company bond in the amount of $3,000 conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and the payment of all labor and material bills.

The heating will be contracted for separately from the balance of the work.

It is the intention to award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder, but the right is reserved to reject any or all bids, or to waive informalities in any bid.

Where to Celebrate the 4th

It is the duty of every American citizen to observe the nation's birthday. At no time in our experience have the people been more prosperous, and as we are at peace with the world let us all celebrate this 4th of July in a glorious manner. Where to go is the question? We believe there ought to be one place in every county where people can get together on that glorious day.

Winside, we understand, has made ample arrangements to entertain the crowd, and no doubt will have, as she deserves to have, the greater part of the citizens of Wayne county. Of course there will be private picnics, but wherever you celebrate the 4th it is necessary for you to have the proper clothing to make you comfortable and look as you desire to look.

We Know How to rig you up for the occasion, and you will get more than double the enjoyment, your friends will brighten up at your appearance, and it is your duty to look as well as you can, so don't think of trying to enjoy yourself in an old suit. If you buy your clothing here you will get stylish clothing, and will save enough to pay all necessary expenses on the 4th

At Winside

And not only that, but you will get better clothing here. If you want extra good things to wear, you will find them here. Our stock is large and complete in everything that is stylish. You will find what you want here and the prices are lower than elsewhere, and ONE PRICE TO ALL. With each 50c cash purchase in our boy's and children's department we will give a bunch of firecrackers free, until the night of July 3rd.

Letters to Wayne friends tell of the marriage of Miss Iva Connable at Pierre, S. D., on May 16, 1907, to a young man by the name of Ralph Peters, who is a carpenter by trade. The resite at Pierre. Last year Miss Connable with her father entered claims southeast of Pierre, and it happened that Mr. Peters was holding down an adjoining claim. Their acquaintance ripened into a life partnership. The Wayne friends of the young lady extend their best wishes for a prosperous voyage on the matrimonial sea.

The X-Ray Incubator factory will move into new quarters in the old implement ware room near the depot by August 1. In the meantime the building will undergo improvements needed by the new tenants. The rear rooms are to be ceiled and a lot of windows put in, while another chimney or two will have to be built. Mr. Kate tells us that five thousand machines will be put out next season and that the contract for the wood work has been let to the Emerson Planning Mill and that it will require more than four carloads of California red wood, which is to be used in the incubator this year. Monday the contract for 5000 lamps was let to a Meridan, Conn., firm. Our Normal college grew from a small beginning and first opened in the same building in which the incubator factory was started. Now watch another enterprise assume proportions.

Normal Notes.

Mrs. McDonald of Lyons visited last week with her daughter a few days.

Grace Ellis, Scientific '06, was visiting friends on the hill Thursday of last week. Miss Ellis taught in Stanton county the past school year and met with marked success in her work.

The State Examination for certificates was held at the college Friday and Saturday of last week. About seventy-five took the examinations. A number of students also wrote on the examinations at the Court House.

A Principal's Club was organized Monday evening. This is a club composed of city superintendents, principals of high schools and eighth grade teachers. They will meet once each week and discuss some topic of interest to school people.

Co-Supts. Miller, Teed and Marshall, who are assisting with the work this term, spent the time from Thursday until Monday at their homes. Their presence at the county seats was necessary so that they might conduct the examinations.

The play given in the Auditorium Saturday evening for the benefit of the base-ball team was a success in every way. A good crowd was in attendance and all enjoyed the evening's entertainment. A neat sum was added to the treasury of the base-ball club.

The young ladies who play basket ball met last week and elected Miss Julia Davis of Emerson Manager of the association for this term. Three teams were organized and it will probably be necessary to organize a fourth in order to accommodate all who wish to play.

John Sletten of last year's professional class goes to St. Helena next year as principal of the school at that place. Mr. Sletten is a very deserving young man and all are pleased to see the progress he is making. A number of the members of the Alumni Association have been elected to better positions for next year.

The vocal music class meets three times a week in the auditorium. On account of the number enrolled in the class it was found necessary to take it to this room. The class takes a great deal of interest in the work as set forth by Mrs. Moler, who has charge of all the vocal music this term.

The four o'clock period each day has been set aside for a talk to be given either by some member of the faculty or by some prominent school man out in the state. The meetings are well attended and a great deal of good should result from them. The Saturday talks will be continued this term as they have been all this year.

A letter from Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bright to Pres. Pile indicated that they will start for home next April. They were just returning to their work at San Isidro after a month's vacation which was spent in visiting curious places of interest in the Islands. They met Mr. Meinke who was a student here for some time, and who is now engaged in teaching in the Philippines.

At a meeting of the Tennis club held last week, the schedule was made out for this term. There are forty-seven enrolled in the club, consequently the courts are in use the greater part of the day. It is very gratifying to see the interest manifested by the students in the various branches of athletics for it shows that young people realize the fact that study, without the proper amount of exercise, is not beneficial.

A number of members of the Alumni Association are in school this summer and some will continue next year and complete some of the higher courses. Among those now in school are the following: Messrs Rohn, Peters, A. V. Johnson, James Simonin, Burrett Wright, and McGee; Misses Bruner, Leslie, Jeffrey, Ellen Johnson, Bea Murphy, Lydia Page, Patterson, Pilger, Fay Campbell, Julia Davis, Anna Brachman and Jennie Vennerberg.

What Others Say ..Of Us..

ONE OF THE LEADING MINING ENGINEERS OF DENVER

says. "Let me congratulate you on what I consider a sure thing, that is, the prospect and possibility of opening one of the richest deposits in the state."

FROM UNITED STATES DEPUTY MINERAL SURVEYOR:

"The present policy of the King Solomon T. & D Co. pursued will make the company one of the best dividend payers in the mining industry."

GREATER THAN EXPECTED

Another one says. "After visiting the property I was surprised to find the King Solomon greater than I expected."

WESTERN TRADE JOURNAL, OF CHICAGO, SAYS:

"The Herculean efforts of the Management of the King Solomon T. & D. Co. backed up by the rich properties are bearing highly gratifying results."

FROM ONE OF OUR ENTERPRISING FARMERS who visited the property. "I have no hesitancy in recommending it and I would be pleased to see my friends make a thorough investigation for their own satisfaction. I believe it will make them more money than any investment they can make."

A LEADING BANKER AND HEAVY STOCKHOLDER SAYS:

"It is difficult to conceive the amount of ore that is possible to be uncovered by the extension of the tunnel."

ONE OF OUR LEADING MERCHANTS ADDS HIS TESTIMONY

in these words: "There is no question about there being sufficient quantities of ore. Another fact that gives me great faith in the company is that the management is composed of fair honest men of sterling business qualities in whom I have every confidence"

I might add the testimony of scores of others, all of which are on file at my office and can be seen at any time, but time and space will not permit.

It is endorsed by the leading business men everywhere and and they are buying more stock than ever before. The new plant of machinery is now running and development will be rapid.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by Raymond's Drug Store.

Rusty Rags—So I am. I'm an expert pencil sharpener.

"Just fancy Wegnald, I've forgotten my card case."

"Nevah mind, dear boy; I'll lend you some of mine."

"But—ah—the name would be different, you know."

"Bah Jose, so it would. What a head you have, Algy."

Harry, who is 6 years old, saw a man with a heavy sledge, and asked what he did with such a big hammer.

"Oh," replied the man. "I pound stakes and such things with it."

"Geo," said Harry, "they must be tough old cattle that you get your stakes off from."

"Ah, at last!" exclaimed Mrs. Stubb, with a smile of victory. "Here is where some great man says bachelors cannot reach heaven."

"Oh, that's all right," replied Mr. Stubb, savagely. "They are satisfied, I am sure. They have heaven right here on earth."

Taking No Chances.

"What!" exclaimed the earl, "do you mean to tell me that you intend to resume your maiden name after you secure your divorce?"

"Yes," replied the countess, "I must do so as a matter of self-protection. I do not wish when I return to America to be mobbed by the crowds of women who regard it as an honor to be able to tear the clothes from ladies who have titles."

FARM FIELD AND GARDEN

HORSE ELEVATOR.

An Excellent Device For Lifting Blocks of Ice.

The filling of an icehouse, even the small one of the farm, requires a great amount of heavy lifting when done by hand. A simple and efficient horse elevator is shown in the cut as described by a writer in Rural New Yorker. Two upright posts of the height of the house and about three feet apart are set in front of the floors and securely fastened in place. Each has a groove on the inner side, within which the elevator travels up and down. The rope attached to the frame of the elevator passes over a pulley near the top of the house and thence around another pulley near the ground. A horse is hitched to this, and the device works much in the same way as does a hayfork. The secret of the successful operation of this elevator is in the mechanism of the trips. They are little irons placed in the side frame of the elevator in such a way that they will, automatically, hold it in any place. A trip rope is attached by which the trips may be raised and the elevator allowed to descend when it is desired. It is always free to move upward, but it can never fall unless the trips are sprung by the trip rope. This elevator can be made by any one handy with tools and with a blacksmith to make the trips and a few iron braces necessary.

Growing Cucumbers.

A number of methods of propagation are followed by successful cucumber growers, all of which have some advantages. Three of the more common practices are as follows: To plant the seeds of cucumbers in the soil of the bench where the plants are to grow and mature; to plant the seeds in three inch or four inch pots filled about half full of soil and after the seeds have germinated and the stem of the seedling has elongated to fill the pots well up to the seed leaves with soil, and to plant the seeds in cups similar to those used for harvesting strawberries, except that the cups for this purpose are usually made of pine.

In the first case, where the seeds are planted directly in the soil on the benches cucumbers are usually employed as a crop to follow lettuce, seeds being planted in the lettuce benches before the crop is entirely removed, the heads of lettuce being taken out at proper distances to allow for the correct spacing of the cucumber plants and the seeds of cucumbers planted in the areas so left, says Denver Field and Farm. In the other two cases the rearing of the plants for forcing purposes can be carried on in a small house specially designed for this purpose or in a general propagating house, thus obviating the necessity of heating and maintaining normal conditions in the growing house during the period previous to which the plants begin to run.

Fruit Notes.

In Connecticut we took 3,000 apples off one tree. When we picked that tree in the fall we took off 7,000 apples, or over seven barrels of No. 1's and two barrels of inferior ones. That was the result of thinning, says Professor Gully in American Cultivator.

Too tall trees are bad. We have picked eleven barrels of Sutton apples from a tree by standing on the ground. That is better than using ladders.

Don't plant plums or anything else among apple trees as fillers. Better plant apple trees more closely and then cut out part later on. They can also be taken up and replanted. The McIntosh or Wealthy will answer as the tree to remove.

Keep your trees in the nursery row till they are ten years old and then plant. Set the nursery row five feet apart and there is no trouble. We do it in Connecticut at the university farm. It is not difficult to transplant, but the trees should be grown at home.

Boxes must soon be used to pack, as barrels are becoming too expensive. Experiment fruit farms are good, for the ordinary farmer will not spend eight or ten years in working out some result.

Farm Brevities.

Be careful of the sheep this winter. They need good sheds.

All the dead wood should be cut out of the orchard.

The overhead carrier puts the manure pile where it's out of the way.

A barn that is covered with frost on the inside is a poorly ventilated barn.

Farming conditions can be improved by better tillage easier than by more land.

Barnyard manure alone can't make a crop, but it will help a lot if put on right.—Kimball's Dairy Farmer.

ROOM FURNISHINGS.

They Should Be Simple, Durable, Sanitary and Artistic.

Do not act on the supposition that everything old is beautiful. "Your grandfather's taste may have been worse than yours," observes an expert. Do not buy many things. Do not make a museum of your house.

The furnishings should be adapted to the use to which the family wishes to put them. The life for which the white and gold chair was designed is elaborately and distantly formal. Conventionality and ceremony rather than cozy comfort are suggested by the white and gold room. The use of the room and the purpose of the article should be kept in mind in the selection of furniture.

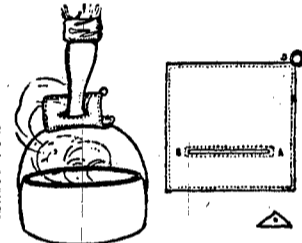

Furnishings should be simple, durable, sanitary and artistic. Color is one of the most important elements in the selection of furnishings. Do we realize that the indefinable difference between the restful room and the inhospitable room is largely a matter of color? A room requires its color to be in unison if it is to soothe and rest.

Frequently the householder may recall Morris' words, "Have nothing in your homes that you do not know to be useful or believe to be beautiful." And those from Henderson: "One must surround oneself with wholesomeness and beauty. This parallelism between consciousness and nature makes this insistence upon convenience of arrangement and respect for form and color more than a mere matter of taste. It makes it a matter of moral obligation. A man's surroundings are not accidental. They are a part of himself and must likewise be chastened and purified. An ugly room, badly lighted, poorly ventilated, inadequately heated, must be regarded as morally reprehensible, whether provided for oneself or for somebody else. It is the projection of an evil thought and, entering into consciousness, lowers the level of human life."—Boston Traveler.

A MITTEN HOLDER.

Protects the Hand From Steam in Lifting Pots From the Range.

When a young bride I purchased some very pretty blue and white kettles to harmonize with the other kitchen furnishings. On using them I discovered that they had handles, but no handles, and it was almost impossible to pour anything from them without scalding my hand in the rising steam. So I made what I call the "mitten holder." Take a piece of cotton flannel sixteen inches long and eight inches wide, fold in halves lengthwise and pad well with flannel. Before closing the side seam cut a slit the width of a hand two inches up from and parallel to the bottom seam on the side not padded (A B). Bind with tape. Then finish the edges, not forgetting a brass ring hanger (C). When in use this will be found ample protection to the back of the hand as well as palm. It founders easily and altogether, has proved a great convenience. The same scheme might be used with two sheets of asbestos paper quilted into the cloth. The covering for this holder should be removable for laundering.—Good Housekeeping.

The Simple Bedroom.

A simple bedroom is most desirable and the most comfortable. Large closets are a great convenience. Under one of the windows a box can be built in which shirt waists may be kept and also serve as a seat. Mirrors may be set into the wall, framed to match the woodwork. If the walls are in good condition it is better to have them painted a delicate tint, though it gives a room a cold appearance. Nothing, however, is as sanitary or economical. If the walls are painted, the hangings and furniture coverings should be figured. If flowered or figured paper is used, then the material for draperies and coverings should be plain. In some bedrooms both wall paper and hangings are of the same design. The floors, of course, should be of hard wood or be painted. It is possible then by removing the rugs and wiping up the floor with a damp cloth occasionally to keep the room free from dust. The rag rugs now so popular are desirable for bedrooms, for they can be washed without much trouble.—New York Post.

Believes Children Have Taste.

One Boston matron who has theories of child culture undreamed of by early New England says it is a great mistake to dress children on uniform lines, but that they should be consulted as to what they wish to wear and to exercise their own taste in dress. The Boston woman adds: "The thoughtful child of today appreciates what is good form in dress and other things, and when a little girl gets to be half a dozen summers or so her preferences should be taken into consideration. It is a mistake for reproving elders to frown upon any little fancy which does not coincide with their own ideas." She further remarks that, given an idea, many of these geniuses of the nursery go ahead and improve upon it with a cleverness that would put many dress-makers to the blush.

Nearly 400,000 Votes Cast....Two Pianos and a Gold Watch Awarded the Winners

A total of nearly 400,000 votes were turned in on the Herald's Piano Contest, which closed at five p. m. June 15. The awards have since been made in the form of two pianos and a gold watch. Miss Leta Fisher leading with the largest vote of 156,100, receives the Hobart M. Cable, Cabinet Grand piano, that has been on exhibition at the Fleetwood & Johnson Furniture store. A duplicate of this piano is also given Miss Florence Wert, in place of the second prize advertised, while the gold watch goes to Miss Lulu Ross.

The count of the judges of the contest found the highest vote to be for Miss Wert, but a bunch of 28,100 votes for Miss Fisher had been misplaced and were not in the ballot box thru fault of the Herald management. For this reason the young ladies each get a piano, and everything is satisfactory with all concerned.

As a subscription getter the contest was a great success, and the HERALD'S subscription list is larger, by several hundred, than that of any paper in North Nebraska.

BLOCKADED

Every Household Should Know How to Resist It

The back aches because the kidneys are blockaded.

Help the kidneys with their work, The back will ache no more.

Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

W. H. McKay, engineer at the Abernathy Mfg. Co., and living at 110 Dakota street, Leavenworth, Kan., says: "Though I doctored and tried all kinds of medicines I suffered severely from kidney trouble for all of a year, and nothing seemed to do me the least bit of good. The pain in my back was terrible and the sharp twinges would cramp me up at times so that I could hardly move. The kidney secretions were irregular and contained a great deal of sediment that looked like brick dust. One physician who had treated me said I had muscular rheumatism, but he did not help me. After giving up all hope of finding relief I happened to learn through a friend about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at E. C. Fritsche's drug store. I found benefit in the treatment and continued it until I had taken three boxes. I was entirely cured of kidney trouble and have had no sign or symptom of it since. If ever any medicine saved a man's life Doan's Kidney Pills saved mine. I have been well for nearly six years, and know several people who have used Doan's Kidney Pills on the strength of the testimonial I gave in 1899 recommending them. I have yet to hear of a case in which this remedy failed."

LOCAL NEWS.

The Burt Inson Big Co., will present the well known English comedy drama, "East Lynne," in Wayne under canvas, one night, Wednesday July 3rd.

Miss Nellie Lauman was taken to the hospital at Sioux City, Monday morning for an operation. It was successfully performed the following day, and the messages from her bedside have her getting on nicely. No sooner was the paper out last week carrying an announcement of the marriage of Miss Lauman for Wednesday the 26th inst, than news came from her home that she was not expected to live. That she is still alive and on the road to a speedy recovery, is indeed good news to all.

It appeared to be strictly a lawyers discussion which held the boards in another act of the ever present case of the State vs. Thomson in the District Court, Monday. Spectators evidenced their lack of interest by their absence and even the bailiff found the matter dry and took his departure. The defendant had assailed the correctness of the record of the original trial sent up by Police Judge Alter, and the state, while insisting that the record from the lower court was absolutely correct, expressed its willingness to go into the matter, take evidence and make any proper corrections, if Thomson's attorneys went about it in a proper and legal way. By the skillful use of Judge Welch's pruning knife, the discussion was finally limited to the question: "Was it necessary, as a matter of law, for the sureties who signed these bonds for an appeal, to appear in person before Judge Alter and acknowledge the execution of the bonds?" On this one question the lawyers seemed agreed that the record was correct, and in the view of the court the only one of the contentions that was really material. The lawyers took hold of this proposition and to settle it to the mind of His Honor, they read aloud from many books and talked much besides. A decision will be handed down before the rising of the present term of court.

SOCIETY GOSSIP

Mrs. Carrie Bruner entertained the teacher and members of the Sunday school class on Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Edna's 15th birthday. The class met at Mrs. Bruner's home at five o'clock while Edna was visiting at the home of a neighbor, making it a complete surprise for her. Games were played until 6:30 when a dainty three course supper was served, after which the girls indulged in a peanut hunt on the lawn, in which Bessie Remender won the prize for finding the largest number of peanuts. The prize being a box of bon-bons. Games were played on the lawn until 8:30 when the guests departed leaving Miss Edna many beautiful and useful presents. The girls spent a most enjoyable evening and voted Mrs. Bruner a royal entertainer.

An enjoyable Kensington was had at the J. Woodward Jones home, Friday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Morrison, of Lincoln, who is visiting here. Luncheon was served late in the afternoon at small tables arranged in the reception rooms.

Mrs. Rev. Parker Smith entertained her Sunday school class at a lawn party Tuesday evening.

One of the most delightful social gatherings of the season among the young ladies was held at the W. O. Gamble home given by Miss Kate Gamble, between four and eight o'clock. Music was the principal part of the entertainment. A six o'clock dinner was served in four courses. The table decorations were very pretty, the center piece being a veritable bank of roses. The guests present being Misses Hyde, Lela Tucker, Katherine Bressler, Kate, Winifred Northrop, Zela Gildersleeve, Hazel Weber, Mary Mellor, Edna Neely, Florence Wert, Love and Noakes.

A tea party was given at the Dr. Blair home on Tuesday afternoon by Misses Helen Blair and Margaret Heckert in honor of their guests Misses Cloe Rains and Margaret Whiting of Whiting, Iowa. Music, games and refreshments were the means of a jolly afternoon. Those present were Misses Freda Ellis, Margaret Chace, Mabel Clark, Hazel Weber, Dora Lewis, Zoe Mellor and Amelia Griffin, of Florence, Neb.

FIRST ANNUAL MEETING.

Farmers' Cream Association Wind Up a Successful Year and Elect a New Chairman.

The first annual meeting of the Wayne Farmers' Cream Association was held at the court house, Saturday, June 22. The meeting was called to order in the afternoon by the chairman of the board, Chris Wischoff. The secretary P. M. Corbit, submitted a report for the year showing the amount of business done and the returns that has accrued to the members of the association.

From 140 to 170 cans of cream have been sent out by the organization every week during the year ending June 15, 1907. Making a total of 242,340 pounds of cream, yielding butter fat in the amount of 85,469 pounds, bringing to the association in cash, $21,440.00.

When we consider that the average price for the cream sold the past twelve months has been a fraction over twenty-five cents per pound, it is evident what advantage the organization has been to the farmers about Wayne. The selling price of the product has been on a par with the New York market, with the cream delivered f. o. b. Wayne. The price has ranged nearly twenty per cent above that paid under the old system still in use in other towns. The condition and quality of the cream is uniformly maintained for a shipment can be made every week day and there is never any question on tests, for those of the local station are final. Much of the cream leaves the farmer's separator to reach the city and go into the churn in much less than eighteen hours. It commands a fancy price for from it a fancy creamery is produced. The success of Wayne methods of handling cream has made it an object of favorable comment over the country.

The election of officers resulted in R. H. Skiles being made chairman of the the board of managers to succeed Chris Wischoff, while P. M. Corbit was re-elected by acclamation for secretary-treasurer. Henry Lessman and Aug. Whittler were also continued as members of the board of management, with I. O. Richardson holding over.

The new board will retain A. P. Gossard as manager, and the outlook for another year is exceedingly bright, and there is little question but that the amount of cream handled will exceed $30,000.00 in receipts. That's a handsome sum for the farmers' wives to spend at home.

...A WORD... ABOUT SOME OF THE ATTRACTIONS

The "Kilties" Band, of Belleville, Canada, will furnish two big concerts. This is the only Canadian Band which was engaged at the World's Fair at St. Louis, and the band is now at Jamestown Exposition. Watch for announcements.

United States Senator, Ben Tillman, of South Carolina, is known in the Senate as "Honest Ben" and the people of this country have endorsed the title. No man in the United States can get and hold a bigger crowd.

Dr. Jon P. D. John, Ex-President of DuPauw University, is too well known to demand comment. Judges, Statesmen, Doctors, the Clergy, and Educators, as well as the rank and file of the common people write in the highest commendation.

Dr. D. F. Fox, of California Avenue Church, Chicago, is known to many people in Nebraska. His lecture on "The Neglected Cavalier" is a master piece of eloquence and power, and is worth going fifty miles to hear. Dr. McIntyre says of him, "Don't miss his lecture unless you have a grudge against yourself."

A. W. Hawks, Humorist and Poet, who is known as the "Dispenser of Sunshine," has been secured for two days. Hawks is a born humorist and could not be otherwise if he wished.

Col. H. W. J. Ham, the Georgia humorist, in his lecture, "Old Times in Dixie," is a "whole show with a dog under the wagon." Col. Ham has been on every old Chautauqua program in the land and has more calls than he can fill. If you hear him once you will probably live ten years longer.

Hon. G. A. Gearhardt, of Buffalo, N. Y., is known as the man who always returns. He has a message for the people which has been received with great ovations. His "Coming Man" should be heard by every young man in the land.

Dr. Thomas McClary is known almost everywhere. He has the "humor of Artemus Ward combined with the rare oratory and learning of Wendell Phillips." His lecture, "The Mission of Mirth," has brought gladness to thousands. He is known as the "People's Favorite."

Elliott A. Boyl should give his lecture, "The Seen and the Unseen" to every audience in America. He is an eastern man, well known in college circles. His lectures are noted for the wealth of thought, wit, humor, word paintings and good common sense.

Lucian Edgar Follansbee is a humorist, educator and preacher. He has more return dates than any other attraction sold by the Midland Bureau.

Frank H. Gamel presents a wonderfully beautiful illustrated lecture on "The American Boy—His Pranks, Perils and Possibilities." Mr. Gamel has just added a series of very humorous motion pictures. Every boy and girl will be interested and instructed, and every father and mother should hear this lecture.

Spillman Riggs, Humorous Lecturer and Character Delineator, will give his "Musical, Fits and Misfits," which has been delivered more than a thousand times. Mr. Riggs spoke at the Waterloo assembly last year to three thousand people. It was his second year there and he was at home.

Prof. J. Lorenzo Zwickey is a Canadian by birth and an American citizen by choice. His art lecture on the subject, "The Philosophy of the Beautiful," should be given before every public audience in the land. He illustrates his lecture with colored crayon work executed during the lecture.

Marvin Williams, Entertainer, is a man of education and culture. One of his "Jolly Evenings" is worth the price of a season ticket. He is called "the live wire."

"Ritchie," the Magician, will give one big entertainment which will attract five thousand people. He performs the famous levitation illusion.

The Ritz-Nebraska Combination consists of Miss Josephine Ritz and Miss Dorothy Nebras, who furnish piano, violin and vocal music together with popular readings.

The Hite-Monroe Moving Picture Company is made up of a trio of artists well known in the Lyceum world. Chas. J. Hite, formerly operator and electrician with the Ben Hur Concert Company, and Mrs. Gertrude Monroe Hite, violinist, and Miss Jessie Beatrice Monroe, contralto soloist and pianist, are musicians of ability and reputation.

Carter's Original Virginia Warblers, one of the oldest companies now before the public, was first organized in 1893 and reorganized in 1905 under the management of Walter R. Carter. This company of singers is composed of carefully selected talent whose ability has been put to the severest test. They sing the real negro melodies, plantation and camp-meeting songs of older days.

The Royal Male and Trombone Quartette is one of the foremost quartettes in the country. They are young men, fresh from college halls, and sing with vigor and spirit, which not only pleases but captivates. This is their fourth Chautauqua season.

The Midland Concert Company and their almost national reputation is an interesting story which cannot be published in such limited space. The company consists of a Soprano, Violinist, Reader and Accompanist, each an artist. This company has a splendid reputation wherever they have given their concerts.

Miss Agnes Alexander, recognized as one of the best vocalists that has appeared on the Chautauqua program, will be present four days.

SUNSET MAGAZINE
JAMES FLOOD BLDG. SAN FRANCISCO

Some fifty or sixty years ago an Indian celebrated for his cunning went into the tavern at Brookfield, and told the landlord, Captain Hawley, that he had been hunting, had killed a fine fat deer, and if Hawley would give him a quart of rum he should have it. Captain Hawley immediately measured out the rum, and inquired when he was to look for the deer.

"Well," said the Indian, "you know where broad meadow be?" "Yes." "Well, you know where the big marked maple tree be?" "Yes." "Well, there lies the deer."

The Indian went his way, and Captain Hawley went to look for the deer, but found the Indian had cheated him, there being neither a deer nor any appearance of there having recently been one.

Some time afterward the landlord met the Indian and accused him of deception. After being denounced for some time, the son of the forest inquired: "You find broad meadow?" "Yes." "And big maple?" "Yes." "And deer, too?" "No." "Very good! Two truths to one lie; that very good for poor Indians!"—Boston Herald.

"Grace says time flies when she is away from home."
"Well, I guess she has a fly time, that's why."

Tiger's Tiny Fox.
The tiger bird, so-called because he is the one thing the royal beast of India fears, is no larger than the English sparrow. Yet so bold and combative is he that if the great cat is surprised by a sufficient number of the little creature's kind far from the protecting shelter of the jungle, it will go hand with him. When alone the bird will not attack. Supported by a flock of friends, however, often numbering several thousand, the bird will seek out his hereditary foe and give battle. On such occasions the tiger seeks safety in flight. A hand thrust into a cage filled with these little gamblers will elicit a furious assault from their combined forces. Assembled en masse, they know no fear.—Technical World.

When the West Was a Waste.
"Between the Missouri and the Pacific," said a member of congress, "save a strip of cultivable prairie not above 200 or 300 miles wide, the region is waste and sterile, no better than the Desert of Sahara and quite as dangerous to cross." The author of these words was Edward Bates of Missouri, whom Horace Greely long afterward honored for the presidency in the New York Tribune and in the Chicago Republican convention of 1860, and who became attorney general in Lincoln's cabinet.

This was in the session of congress of 1820. As late as 1843 McDuffie of South Carolina, in a speech in the senate which was applauded by many persons in and out of that chamber, declared that for agricultural purposes he would "not give a pinch of snuff for the whole territory" west of the Rockies.—Putnam's Magazine.

Foxy Tenant.
At one time there lived in Worcester, Mass., an old negro, who had a tremendous influence, religious and political, in the settlement where he lived. He occupied a little house owned by a prominent banker, but had successfully evaded the payment of rent for many years. No trouble came, however, until the banker was nominated to run for a political office. The next day the old negro came hobbling into his office.

"Well, Sam," said the banker, "I suppose you've come in to pay me some rent."
"Oh, no, boss," replied the old man. "I've just come in to say I's glad yo is nominated, and will tel de res' of dese no 'count niggers to vote fo' yo, and to mention to yo at de same time dat de roof of my house is a leakin', an' if it ain't fixed I'll have to move out direct."—Linnocent's Magazine.

Two Birds with One Stone.
"Is Dr. J. Millington Thompson, the throat specialist, in the audience?" asked one of the ushers, just after the curtain had gone down on the second act.

"Yes," answered a little man in the fourth row, rising to his feet.
"Your house is on fire," said the usher.

"I suppose I'll have to go and see about it," said Dr. Thompson, "but I have no uneasiness about the house. It's insured in the Quickpay Fire and Tornado Indemnity company, the best in the country."

Stepping out into the aisle, he moved with serene and leisurely dignity toward the door, the observed of all observers.—Chicago Tribune.

Conundrums.
When is a schoolmaster like a man with one eye? When he has a vacancy for a pupil.

Why is a dog's tail like the heart of a tree? Because it is farthest from the trunk.

A Proposition.
I propose that we should all go to the top of the world and see what it is like.

When the rain started to fall, the conductor asked the man sitting next to him, "What are you doing?"

"I'm waiting for the rain to stop," he replied.

"And dear old Mrs. —, your aunt. She must be rather feeble now."

"Buried her yesterday," said the major.

"Buried her? Dear me! dear me! Is the good old lady dead?"

"Yes; that's why we buried her," said the major.

Is Very Good for Indian.

Some fifty or sixty years ago an Indian celebrated for his cunning went into the tavern at Brookfield, and told the landlord, Captain Hawley, that he had been hunting, had killed a fine fat deer, and if Hawley would give him a quart of rum he should have it. Captain Hawley immediately measured out the rum, and inquired when he was to look for the deer.

"Well," said the Indian, "you know where broad meadow be?" "Yes." "Well, you know where the big marked maple tree be?" "Yes." "Well, there lies the deer."

The Indian went his way, and Captain Hawley went to look for the deer, but found the Indian had cheated him, there being neither a deer nor any appearance of there having recently been one.

Some time afterward the landlord met the Indian and accused him of deception. After being denounced for some time, the son of the forest inquired: "You find broad meadow?" "Yes." "And big maple?" "Yes." "And deer, too?" "No." "Very good! Two truths to one lie; that very good for poor Indians!"—Boston Herald.

"Grace says time flies when she is away from home."
"Well, I guess she has a fly time, that's why."

Tiger's Tiny Fox.
The tiger bird, so-called because he is the one thing the royal beast of India fears, is no larger than the English sparrow. Yet so bold and combative is he that if the great cat is surprised by a sufficient number of the little creature's kind far from the protecting shelter of the jungle, it will go hand with him. When alone the bird will not attack. Supported by a flock of friends, however, often numbering several thousand, the bird will seek out his hereditary foe and give battle. On such occasions the tiger seeks safety in flight. A hand thrust into a cage filled with these little gamblers will elicit a furious assault from their combined forces. Assembled en masse, they know no fear.—Technical World.

When the West Was a Waste.
"Between the Missouri and the Pacific," said a member of congress, "save a strip of cultivable prairie not above 200 or 300 miles wide, the region is waste and sterile, no better than the Desert of Sahara and quite as dangerous to cross." The author of these words was Edward Bates of Missouri, whom Horace Greely long afterward honored for the presidency in the New York Tribune and in the Chicago Republican convention of 1860, and who became attorney general in Lincoln's cabinet.

Have You Catarrh?

If you have catarrh with offensive breath, burning pains in the throat, difficulty in breathing, raising of mucous, discharge from the nose, tickling or dropping from the back of the throat, coughing spasms, etc., begin the use of Hyomei at once.

Its medication is taken in with the air you breathe, so that it reaches the most remote part of the respiratory organs, killing all catarrhal germs and soothing any irritation there may be in the mucous membrane.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but one dollar; and E. J. Raymond gives a personal guarantee with each package that money will be refunded unless the treatment does all that is claimed for it.

State Fair

The management are actively engaged in improvements which when completed will mark an advanced step in the history of the Nebraska State fair. A number of men and teams are now employed in the building of a complete sewer system extending a four-inch water main a distance of 1,700 feet around the new speed barn and filling in the low land west of Administration building, so that will be a part of the very best land in the tract. The dirt for this fill is secured north of the Rock Island track. The plans and specifications for the new cattle barn to be built this year shows a barn 174x257 feet, with stall room for 632 head of cattle, sanitary closets for Ladies and Gentlemen and a Superintendent's office. The arrangement will be so that a person coming into the building at any of the numerous doors can see over the backs of all the cattle at a glance.

The wrong way to select harness is the way it is usually done. Price is generally the first consideration. If that is very low the harness seems attractive, regardless of quality. Judge our goods the other way about. Examine into the quality of the harness first. Then it will be seen that it is worth almost any price. But our prices are not high. Value considered they are remarkably low.
