How The National Forests Serve The Public.

"The Use of the National Forests," a publication just printed by the Department of Agriculture, is a brief, clear manual for public information on the forest policy of the National Government.

It is to true, as the short preface to the public says, that "many people do not know what National Forests are. Others may have heard much about them, but have no idea of their true purpose and use." It is the object of this publication to explain just what the National Forests mean, what they are for, and how to use them.

In the first place, it is explained how the Forests are created and how their boundaries are drawn. Next, their direct use and value are shown from the point of view of the homeseeker, the prospector, the miner, user of timber, the user of the range, the user of water, and other users of the Forest resources. Third, it is shown how the Forests are intended for use, for the production of usable products, and for the establishment and maintenance of homes; how on all of them the timber is protected from fire, the water flow is kept steady, the forage on the range is increased and guarded from abuse; and how, in addition they serve as great public playgrounds and as breeding places and refuges for game. Finally the management of the National Forests is described.

Here it is that the great usefulness of the Forests is brought out most clearly and strikingly; for the Forests are managed by the people in their own interests, and every means is used to meet the desires and wants of all the Forest users half way by dealing with them in the main directly on the ground and in all cases with the utmost practicable dispatch and freedom from red tape.

In a word, the special use of this manual lies in its showing that the Forest policy of the Government, both in principle and practice, is for the benefit of the ordinary man, for the benefit of every citizen equally. There is still a tendency to think of the National Forests as "preserves" closed to use, and to leave the public lands exposed to unregulated individual exploitation. Where these misapprehensions still prevail "The use of the National Forests" will go far to correct them.

The book is written by Mr. Frederick E. Olmsted, whose intimate knowledge of conditions in the West and the policy under which the National Forests are managed especially fits him to deal with the subject.

Carroll Lumber and Grain Company

The Carroll Lumber and Grain Co. has filed its articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State. The incorporators are R. D. Merrill, F. S. Battey, J. E. Blenkiron and L. S. Blenkiron, with a capital stock of $50,000, four-fifths of which is paid up. The new company take over the lumber, hardware, and furniture business of Blenkiron Bros. and with it is added the elevator, conducted by R. D. Merrill for the Farmer's Elevator Co. The financial strength, business ability and experience of the incorporators is sufficient to assure the future of the company. Mr. R. D. Merrill has been identified with Carroll's growth and progress almost from the beginning of the town, is public spirited and always on the square in his dealings. Rodney's friends are as numerous as his acquaintances. Mr. Battey has resided at Carroll nearly five years, as local manager for Blenkiron Bros. His integrity and business methods have made him a winner and he has the confidence and respect of every patron of the old firm. As the active management by the new company is to be in the hands of these two men it is cause for congratulation among the people of Carroll and vicinity.

Idleness lies abed while Industry gathers the early fruits and flowers.

The Danger of Food Adulteration.

The time has come when every housekeeper who regards the health of her family must know where she stands on the question of food adulteration... Scientific knowledge and unscrupulous greed have joined hands to pollute human food for the sake of money making. To understand the situation, its extent and its dangers, is the right and the duty of every intelligent housekeeper. To this end, an analytical chemist, who is well known as an investigator of adulterated foods and a lecturer to American housewives, Dr. J. C. Olsen, has granted an interview to a representative of The New Idea Woman's Magazine, which appears in the August issue. He explains the existing conditions, indicates their peril and gives some valuable information on the detection of impurities in food.

The Norfolk Daily News is offering to give away to some popular young lady in this section a beautiful $300 piano. Every penny in advance subscription on The News gives one vote and the young lady receiving the greatest number of votes by 6 o'clock August 31, gets the piano. Norfolk girls are barred from the contest and Norfolk subscribers are barred from voting, as that would be unfair. A "square deal" is being given in this way and some girl from a small town or in the country is going to get the piano. The instrument is a fine one, guaranteed, and one that any young lady might be proud of. Here is an opportunity to win honor and a substantial prize for some young lady of this vicinity and we would suggest that a candidate ought to be started by our citizens at once. There is every chance that she will win, with proper support from the people here. The News is the best newspaper in this territory for this locality, bringing more news of this territory to us than all other papers and bringing more telegraph news, including live stock and grain markets, a day ahead of other city dailies. The price is $3 per year and a $3 advance subscription would get 300 votes. Start somebody from this section today! Yours truly,
The Norfolk Daily News.

O. A. King returned from Colorado Sunday, where he had taken an excursion party of seven men to view the properties of the King Solomon Mining Co. Mr. King says they were so favorably impressed that all become stockholders. The trip included a visit to the noted mines at Leadville and to the celebrated Yak tunnel, which has proven such a success as a dividend payer. All comparison with this paying project was to the advantage of the King Solomon properties. Mr. King was gone about a week.

A spirited law suit was had in Justice Alter's court Monday. The Eastern Nebraska Hail Insurance Co., desired to recover a premium of $30.00 from R. D. Shippey, on a policy written last year. Atty. A. R. Davis appeared for the plaintiff while Geo. R. Wilbur was lawyer for the defense. The latter contended that while the policy was written previous to June 1, 1906, no part of the premium had ever been paid and no insurance was in force whatever, as the policy contained a clause that "if premium was not paid by June 1, the policy would be void." The jury seemed to take this version of the transaction and brot in verdict accordingly. The trial lasted nearly all day.

Miss Daisy Gamble went to Emerson this morning to meet her sister Mrs. W. E. Johnson and baby from Omaha, who will visit here until after the Chautauqua.

Dr. H. W. Gamble and family of Mt. Valley, Ia., were arrivals Saturday at the home of his father, W. O. Gamble. The Dr. returned Monday, but the family will remain some time.

About twenty members of the Lutheran League, of Swedish church at Wakefield passed thru Wayne Tuesday evening enroute to Wausa to attend a district convention of the society.

Mrs. J. M. Pile, accompanied by her father, Mr. H. Meek, and two little nieces, who are visiting here, left for Crystal Lake yesterday where they have rented a cottage for a week's outing.

Crystal Lake is proving a popular resort for Wayne people. Among those journeying there for an outing yesterday were: S. B. Scace, Ralph Rundell, J. Morgan, Fred Benschhoff and A. M. Stodden.

Mrs. W. W. Scott, and two children left this morning for Ft. Collins, Colo., where they will remain for the summer. Everett, the oldest child is a sufferer from hay fever, and a change of climate was deemed necessary.

Miss Edna Britton was an arrival home from Aberdeen, Wash., Tuesday. She has been absent for two years filling a position as teacher in the Aberdeen schools. Her journey home by way of Puget Sound from Seattle to Vancouver, at which point she took the Canadian Pacific to St Paul, which provided a very interesting trip. Miss Britton has greatly enjoyed good health and experience on the Pacific coast, and will return in the fall to teach in the schools at Centralia, Wash.

A meeting of the republican county central committee was held in Wayne Tuesday, at the office of Atty. A. R. Davis. The real purpose of the gathering was to fill several vacancies in the committee. Judge A. A. Welch had tendered his resignation as chairman and as his successor A. R. Davis was appointed. In Hunter precinct, Oliver Gamble fills the vacancy caused by the death of Wm. Sears, while Max Muller committee in First ward Wayne, in place of E. W. Huse, removed. The provisions of the primary law leave the selection of county committeeman to the nominees of the party primaries. The present committeeman hold till their successors are chosen.

THE TRICKS OF LIGHTNING.

John Ahern's Barn Struck and Burned, while Fred Weber Loses a Cow.

An unusual electric storm held the boards for several hours Friday night, and also the following Saturday night, and several casualties are reported.

Friday the big barn of John Ahern, about five miles northeast of Carroll was hit by lightning and burned to the ground with most of its contents, except the horses and other live stock which they were able to get out of the structure. The loss is Mr. Ahern's own as we are informed the insurance had run out.

The J. H. Wright residence occupied by Mrs. Sears and family was struck and the plastering was considerably damaged. The cistern was also cracked by the bolt. Mrs. Sears was in the house at the time but was unharmed.

The Leisenring property, now vacant, but lately occupied by the Panabaker family, had the chimney on the main part of the house nearly torn off. The bolt came out at the rear of the house tearing loose the siding and followed the pipes into the cistern.

A big tree in the yard at the Hefti home shows the effect of lightning. Two good sized chunks were cut out of the trunk in a peculiar way.

THIS is a pen picture of the delightful place where seven of us spent last week in looking over the property of the King Solomon Tunnel and Development Co. To say they were pleased is putting it mild. We spent the first forenoon in looking over the new plant of machinery which stands on a solid concrete foundation seven feet thick. The compressor is automatic so that whenever the drills in the tunnel stop for adjustment or other cause, the plant stops itself which makes a great saving in coal and steam. The plant is certainly a beauty. A car of coal was being unloaded from the side tracks and carpenters were busy enlarging the power house. So all about us was evidence of business and hustle. In the breast of the tunnel two large drills were pounding away at a terrific rate.

We surveyed the six veins which were cut in the tunnel and then from the outside we followed the outcroppings of a great number of veins and picked up a number of samples which we afterward compared with ore in the big Leadville mines, finding it to be identical with the Leadville ores. We visited hundreds of mines that had an immense tonnage of ores and made comparison between them and the King Solomon from all points of advantage, and I want to say that Every Man in the Crowd Came Away Exceedingly Well Pleased and more than that Every One of Them Came Back Stockholders in the King Solomon Mining and Development Co. and they are proud of it. What Better Endorsement than that could You Ask ?

Seeing is believing and I ask you to come with me and see for yourself. Of course you will not be able to tell the value of the ore with the naked eye but you can pick up your own samples and have them assayed and any man can tell the difference between quartz and country rock.

DENVER, COLORADO, JUNE 24, 1907.

MR. SAM H. ALEXANDER, Madison, Wis.

DEAR SIR:—A recent visit to the King Solomon Mine at Frisco, Colorado, by myself, found conditions in very desirable shape. The King Solomon Tunnel and Development Company has just completed the installation of one of the finest compression plants in that part of the state. It is very conveniently located for operating. The building is substantial and conveniently constructed. All these desirably arranged improvement have been made under the supervision of President F. C. Dinsmore, who is always on the alert to subserve the best interests of his company.

The big tunnel is in 1,400 feet and is cutting the mineral veins at great depth. It is a creditable piece of tunnel work, and is a pleasure to operate in. The 2,000 feet of work just let by the company will take the tunnel into the great ore bodies of the district, and insure an inexhaustible supply of mineral. There are but few running enterprises in Colorado that are fraught with such possibilities as are pictured in the King Solomon Tunnel.

Work on the tunnel is well under way, and it will not be long before the great measures of the Mountain are opened.

Respectfully,
J. A. SALSBUARY.

An Advance in the Price of Stock Is Expected Most Any Time. The stock is worth much more; the property is well improved, advantageously located and we will Soon Be Opening New Ore Bodies so Now Is the Time to Buy Before Another Advance.

Normal Notes.

Next Saturday, a play will be given in the Auditorium under the direction of Miss Carroll. Small admission will be charged.

No classes recited on the Fourth but classes were held as usual on Friday. A number were out Friday also, but the work started off Monday in good shape.

The copy for the programs for Commencement week were sent to the printer's this week. The programs will consist of 24 pages and are very neatly arranged.

Thos. R. Nelson, formerly of Wayne and a member of the teachers class of 1902, is assistant state's attorney at Rapid City, S. D. He was 4th of July orator at Wasta, S. D.

Miss Maggie Sullivan spent several days last week visiting her sister. Miss Sullivan graduated last year from the Teachers' professional course and taught in Montana during the past year.

A number of visitors have been at the College during the past few weeks. Lack of space forbids mention of each one. However, visitors are welcome at any and all times, and the teachers always enjoy having visitors.

The mid-term examinations will be held next Friday. Very good results are looked for in the examination both by teachers and students, for all are satisfied that better work was never done during the summer than has been done this term.

The four o'clock meetings are quite well attended by the students. The talks prove very helpful, both in instruction and interest. No classes recite during the period in order that all may have an opportunity to attend the meetings.

The following new students enrolled this week: Misses Young of Craig, Christensen of Allen, Pawelski of Wayne, Kerwin of Emerson and Joe Power of Ponca. Mr. Lofgren of Ponca, Miss Fields of Ponca, Miss Atkins of Neligh, Bertha Broeker of Randolph.

The outlook for next year is very encouraging. A number of the students who are here now will remain next year to complete some of the higher courses. A number of letters have been received from prospective students asking for places in the dormitory. It is hoped that the dormitory rooms will be occupied by the beginning of the year.

In order to give all an opportunity to attend the Chautauqua, the afternoon classes now recite on Saturday mornings. In this way the afternoons will be free during the Chautauqua. A number of the students have already secured their tickets, and a great deal of interest is being shown by all.

On Monday afternoon the best game of the season was played on the College grounds between Carroll and the College. But one score was made in the entire game and fortunately it went to the College. McIntosh who pitched for the College was hit safely only twice while Yaryan for Carroll was hit harder; he pitched a very good game. There were no delays in disputing over the umpire's decisions and the game was played in a few minutes over an hour. The Carroll team is made up of a gentlemanly lot of fellows who made a favorable impression by their conduct on the field. This week the ball team goes on a little trip, playing games at Stanton on Friday and Pilger on Saturday.

Miss Hattie Jeffrey was a Sioux City passenger Monday.

Notice to Cream Patrons.

In order to ship all cream sweet and comply with the provisions of the pure food law, cream cannot be taken at the station on Saturdays after 12:00 o'clock noon.

Hoskins News

(From the Headlight)
Some of the Hoskins people went in all directions to celebrate but the biggest crowd went to Winside.

Otto, Willie, and Chris Voss have purchased the Northwest threshing outfit C. W. Anderson has had on display at his implement house.

Peter Kautz received a telegram Friday evening informing him of the critical illness of his mother in Idaho. Peter was unable to go to her bedside.

John Wilson Sr. returned from S. D. Monday evening. The old gentleman has enjoyed a few weeks visit with his sons, Chas. and Benjamin at Wessington.

Mrs. R. A. Gano and the editor's children returned from Chadron early Monday night. They had been visiting with the formers relatives the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Weatherholt, son Artie and daughter Stella, H. W. Anderson and Miss Minnie Koehn are all spending the 4th at Stuart. Miss Koehn and Artie will go from there to Long Pine for a short visit before returning.

A party was given in honor of Mrs. Paul Moratz's 37th birthday last Sunday. Quite a number of friends gathered together and spent a very pleasant afternoon. Refreshments were served and all pronounce the host and hostess royal entertainers.

The woman who said, "happiness consists of a home of your own and a nice big good natured and affectionate husband," should come to Hoskins and convince our old maids of its truth. Then the old batches such as Phillips, Maas, Kaulen, and Swanson would either have to get married or get out.

The dance given last Saturday evening by Wm. F. Schulz was a success in every sense of the word. A large but orderly crowd was here and everybody enjoyed the occasion to the utmost. Wm. and his estimable wife believe in doing things right, and when it comes to entertaining they certainly know how it is done.

Last Saturday evening as Carl Monthei was going home he was overcome by the heat and fell from the walk in front of the Lutheran church. Help arrived at once and the old gentleman soon revived, but was confined to his home all this week. He had been helping put up hay for Fred Schroeder Sr. and the extreme heat and his feeblity from age was too much for him.

Fred Krause was in town Tuesday and reported that one of his six old calves had been shot and had died from the effects of the wound. It seems that someone had been hunting through the pasture and had either purposely or accidentally shot the calf in the left hind leg on Saturday evening or Sunday morning. If this was did purposely the culprit should be prosecuted to the full extent of the law, while the fellow who did such a thing through carelessness should be taught to keep their eyes open.

F. S. Bensor this week received an announcement of the marriage of his brother, Robert E., to Miss Theo Edith Engelhardt, on Wednesday, June 26th, at the home of the brides parents in Sunnyvale, California. They will reside at Westlake, Idaho. It will be remembered that several years ago the groom made Hoskins his home for a couple of years, while the bride was a former resident of Winside and was well known to many of our people. Their friends here join in wishing Robert and his newly made bride a life of joy and happiness.

Have You Rooms to Rent?

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bellows returned from Rippey, Iowa last week where they had been several weeks on a visit.

Carroll had a close and interesting ball game with the Wayne college Monday, at Wayne. The score stood 1 to 0 at the close.

Rev. H. O. Morris returned from Platte Center, Nebr., Monday, where he had been to supply the pulpit in the Welsh church.

Jenk Simmerman was called to Newcomerstown, Ohio, last week by a telegram, announcing that his mother was not expected to live. She is well along in years.

Grif Davis was out in western Nebraska last week looking up land investments. He was favorably impressed with the appearance of things in Cheyenne county and it is likely will buy land in that locality.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robinson gave a lawn party to several families on the evening of the Fourth at which a bountiful supper was the chief feature. The gathering included the following families: F. S. Batty, Rev. E. E. Carter, L. Simmerman.

W. H. Belford, Frank Francis, E. F. Oils, W. E. Liddle and Jas. Stanton were among the ball boosters that accompanied the Carroll nine to Wayne, Monday and witnessed a fine game with the college boys, but losing the honor on a score of 1 to 0.

A good share of Carroll's population left town to celebrate the Fourth. While most of the number passed the day at Randolph, the ball team played at Osmond and was accompanied by a good crowd of rooters. Several picnic gatherings were held by those remaining in town.

Lightning struck and burned the barn belonging to John Ahern Friday night. While the building was entirely consumed, yet the livestock was all saved by quick work, the insurance, we understand had expired about a week before and a renewal of the same had been overlooked. It was an unfortunate loss to Mr. Ahern.

Earl Moats Married

On Monday of this week occurred the marriage of Earl Moats, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Moats, the well known stock raiser and farmer, living southeast of town, at Silver City Iowa. The bride is a sister of Mr. Jas. Parker and is quite well known here. Mrs. Moats is a charming young lady and Earl is well and favorably known by a majority of those in this vicinity. He has been associated with his father in the stock business and is a most enterprising young man. The best wishes of the Reporter and an extremely large crowd of friends is extended to the newly wedded couple.

The event came as a surprise to the friends of the young couple but it is none the less pleasing to welcome Miss Parker to our community. They will reside at the Moats farm for the present.—Randolph Reporter.

The professional humorist would rather the world laughed than with him.

THE 2 JOHNS FAILED

Owing to the very late season which we had this year we have failed to sell out our summer suits as low as is our custom, and as we have ordered our fall goods shipped early so as to be in our stock before Chautauqua week, we will therefore conduct a Great Clearing Sale from now until July 23d, and give you unheard of prices on Summer Clothing. If you have ever attended any of our clearing sales you will readily understand what this means in a money-saving opportunity. If you have never attended any of our special sales, attend this one, as you will find it will pay you.

LOT 1	LOT 2	LOT 3	LOT 4	LOT 5	LOT 6	LOT 7	LOT 8	LOT 9

The above lots are some extra special bargains, and for those needing anything for good solid every day wear, you should not fail to supply yourself for some time to come. We will also give a discount of 20 per cent. on all summer suits not in the above lots. Now please consider what a 20 per cent. discount will mean to you. It means that you can come to this store between now and the 23d of this month, and buy a summer suit, of the very newest styles and in the latest patterns, and make a saving on a $10.00 suit that will buy you a season ticket to the Chautauqua, or on a $20.00 suit you save enough for two season tickets, and at the same time get the very best and latest summer suits. It will pay you to visit this store before Chautauqua and clothe yourself so you will thoroughly enjoy and appreciate what you see and hear at the Chautauqua

Children's Wash Suits

We still have an almost complete assortment of children's wash suits and by far the nobbiest line of this kind shown in Wayne this season. To move these out before Chautauqua will give a discount of ONE-FOURTH OFF.

Straw Hats

Our line of straw hats is somewhat broken, but still have some good styles and values, and straw hats is one thing we absolutely will not carry over. We still have five Panama hats left. From now on all straw hats go at 1-4 OFF.

The editor of the O'Neill Independent has been sued for criminal libel, by Judge Barnes, of the Nebraska Supreme court. The cause is based on a lot of matter published in the Independent and directed at Judge Barnes, which the latter deems false and malicious. Its very inconvenient to trace stories to their origin and verify the truth of news items, but its policy and often a profitable quest for libel suits are expensive and full of worry. Extolling others is a pleasant diversion, but to vilify them may be fun but its risky and often costly.

Just two weeks and the Chautauqua opens. Its a short time in which to add the finishing touches and have everything in readiness for an event that transcends in importance and good effect any series of public entertainments ever provided for Wayne. It is gratifying to note that our people have awakened to the fact and are preparing for it. Wayne must look her best and wear her most becoming tows. Weeds along the street or on vacant lots are being removed, and cement walk builders are putting in long hours to meet demands. Who is there, derelict in their duty?

Boche, the Norfolk murderer, who is confined in the jail at Madison awaiting trial, has been making attempts at suicide. Because of these strange actions his attorney has filed an affidavit asking that the insanity board declare him not in his right mind. "Brain storms" and insanity are becoming recognized methods of cheating the gallows. Just lately, Brink, who murdered his sweetheart at Ponca, in cold blood and escaped the penalty of the law on "brain storm" plea, was turned loose on society as entirely sane. When a man destroys human life, and his diseased mind stays the death penalty, he ought to be confined for life in a hospital for the criminal insane.

The benefit and value of the Normal College to Wayne is recognized the year around, but during the summer sessions it appears more apparent than at other seasons. At present there is upward of a thousand teachers in attendance at the school. They are recruited from the ranks of the sober minded and represent nearly a hundred counties and several states. The larger percent of them are lady teachers, who have had from one to several years experience. All have exerted an elevating influence on the respective communities from which they come. Their scholarship and attainments are above the average, and as they gather in Wayne to further add to their culture and knowledge, the intellectuality of our city is raised to a higher standard. These elements are potent and give a trend to the sentiment of the community, that makes any city an attractive and desirable place in which to build and make a home. The founders of the Wayne Normal builded better than they knew, and have well earned the lasting support and gratitude of every citizen.

A judge of the Supreme court and two regents are to be elected this fall. In the Republican camp the choice of favorites for the judgeship seems to be dividing on Judge Sedgwick the present incumbent and Judge Reese. In accordance with the primary plan petitions are being circulated by the friends of both of the men, at various points over the state, so that their names will appear on the primary ballot to be voted Sept. 3. Then it will be up to the rank and file of the Republican party to make a choice from the two. There will likely be other aspirants for the Republican nomination, but at present party sentiment is running to either, Sedgwick or Reese. Judge Sedgwick's ability and qualifications are not questioned. He has borne judicial honors with apparent grace and dignity and his record, with an exception or two, is quite clear, but in the eyes of the progressive element of his party he should be retired. His favors, when he has shown any, and his sympathies as revealed, point to the wrong quarter, and the source of inspiration for his support shadows his candidacy with suspicion. Perhaps he has trained too long with the railroad crowd to appear entirely acceptable to the progressive element of his party. He has not commended at any time the good work of the last legislature nor is he numbered among the faithful of Gov. Sheldon's backers. A man more imbued with republican progressiveness and Rooseveltian reform, is found in Judge M. B. Reese. He has trained right and stayed right all along. Judge Reese is in entire harmony with the policies of Gov. Sheldon and possessed of the spirit of the legislative assembly that passed laws and did things long to the general good. Judge Reese is not only right in spirit and principle, but learned in the law and possessed of natural talent as a jurist. For more than thirty years his services have been for his state.

A delegate to the constitutional convention, three terms as state's attorney with six years on the Supreme bench; his record is one of honor and without a flaw. For ten years he was Dean of the law school for the University of Nebraska, and "his boys" scattered all over the great west, cherish his instructions and revere his name, as it stands for absolute integrity, a noble mind and large heartedness. Judge Reese is the ideal candidate of his party.

The battle of the people for government control of corporations is only fairly begun. One legislature which transacted its business without the assistance and contrary to the dictation of the corporation lawyers was only the first step toward a victory. There must be more legislatures just like the last one and men elected to state, district and county offices to carry out the laws such legislatures enact in order to hold the ground that has been gained. That means that public sentiment must be kept alive and every voter must be on the alert. The railroads and other corporations must be put out of politics and kept out. In order to keep them out, the corporations must be given just as much of a square deal as the people exact from them.—Norfolk Press.

"The philosophy of cheerfulness is the best brand that has ever been invented," says the Country Gentleman. "Its principles are so simple that the poor untutored masses can understand and practice them as easily as the delicately nurtured high-brows from the centers of culture. It is equally good for mother, father, and the children, and no one should be without it. Cheerfulness is essential in every business establishment, every household and every other place where there are two or three gathered together. The man who is full of good nature—not the artificial kind, but the real home-grown product—has no inclination to say mean things about his neighbors or his competitors in business. Neither will he indulge in any personal knock-knocks against his home town. Ten poor but cheerful men will do more to bring their town into good repute among the people than a hundred bloated bond-holders afflicted with the grouch. Take note that the anvil chorus which meets for practise at the corner store is never composed of the good natured Indians of your town. If they were to come in they would break up the party. If you want to learn to be a booster, a cheerful disposition will help some. The booster class is always open, and it is never too early to start."

Elect Judge Welch

The Liberal was the first paper to advocate the breaking of party lines and the nonpartisan nomination of Judge Welch. Since our proposal several democratic papers have taken the same position. Some of our republican contemporaries have hardly received the proposition with the feeling to be expected.

The fact that this is a republican district and that the republican candidate under any ordinary circumstances would be elected anyway, takes all the merit out of the proposal upon part of the minority say our political adversaries.

Wayne Chautauqua Assembly

We hope that all other features will be eliminated and that the fact that Judge Welch has the legal qualifications, the temperament and that the time has arrived to take politics out of the Judiciary will be the sole consideration.—Creighton Liberal.

HERALD OFFICE

Primary Election September 3.

The first general primary election in Nebraska will be held September 3 in every precinct of the state. All parties will participate in this primary and will nominate their officers according to its manner of procedure.

At least sixty days prior to Sept. 3, Governor Sheldon will have to issue a proclamation designating the offices that are to be filled. He will send a copy of this proclamation to each county clerk. Thirty days before the primary is held, the candidates or their friends must file a written application with the proper authority. Twenty-five qualified electors of the same party as the candidate must sign this application unless it is presented by the candidate himself.

When the twenty-five voters present this application, it will read as follows:

We the undersigned qualified electors of _____ precinct _____ county, in the state of Nebraska affiliating with the _____ party and residing at _____ hereby request that the name of _____ be placed upon the official primary ballot of the said party for the primary election to be held on the _____ day of _____ in _____ as candidate for the office of _____ and I pledge myself to abide by the results of said primary election and qualify myself to be elected. This awkward statement of the application will be changed on the blank I sued by the secretary of state.

The papers for officers elective in more than one county must be filed by the secretary of state. For city officers, the application must be made to the city and for county officers, to the county clerk.

At least twenty-five days before September 3, the secretary of state must send the names of all candidates to the county clerks and the county clerks must publish them.

The filing fee for the office of United States Senator will be $5; that of candidates for state officers, members of Congress and district judges $10; that of candidates for county legislative and city offices, $5.

Only those voters who state their political affiliation will be permitted to vote at the primary election. In country precincts voters must state their party and they will be handed the ticket containing the names of candidates of that party. In cities, when a voter registers, he must state his party affiliation when he registers if he wants to take part in the primary election.

WEAK KIDNEYS

MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Ills of Humanity

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when the activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the access of uric poison circulated in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ill. The cures are the proof.

W. A. Tracy, printer, living at 1123 Jule street, St. Joseph, Mo., says: "For eight or ten years I suffered at times severely with pain in my back, and although I used doctor's prescriptions and various advertised remedies, I received little relief. I scarcely knew what it was to be without a plaster on my back, and at night, after standing all day at my work, suffering was always worse. As Doan's Kidney Pills were advertised and recommended by people right here at home, I procured a box and obtained such relief that I kept on using the remedy until all the pain and lameness in my back had left me. I soon felt as strong and well as I ever did. I was so surprised with the results obtained that I gave a statement for publication, advising the use of Doan's Kidney Pills by kidney sufferers. During the six years that have elapsed I have had no indication of a return of the trouble, except when a cold settled in my back or I feel slightly tired or lame in the back, and then I take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills and the trouble is always removed. I am pleased to re-indorse Doan's Kidney Pills.

DEATH FOLLOWS OPERATION.

Mrs. Anna L. Jones Dies in the Hospital at Sioux City.

The Sioux City Journal for Monday contained the following account of the death of Mrs. Anna L. Jones, wife of the restaurant keeper who succeeded Ed. Ellis as proprietor of the eating house just south of the Boyd. The family has resided here but a short time, and last week it became necessary to take Mrs. Jones to Sioux City for a surgical operation.

"The remains of Mrs. Anna L. Jones, aged 25 years, of Wayne, Neb., who died Saturday evening at St. Joseph's Hospital, will be taken this morning by her husband, Bert Jones, to the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. David Spalding, of Chamberlain, S. D., for interment. Mrs. Jones leaves one son, aged 5 years. She was a cousin of E. B. Spalding and J. D. Spalding, of this city. Death followed an operation."

THE FOURTH AT WINSIDE

The Nation's Natal Day Duly Observed with Pomp and Ceremony.

Winside is entitled to the banner for the biggest celebration on the Fourth. She entertained the largest, happiest crowd of gaily dressed people that ever assembled within her gates. They gathered from the four corners of the county, and in numbers it reached the 5000 mark, easily. Wayne honored her enterprising neighbor by sending over half her population, for it utilized all the vehicles in the city and two trains to take them there. The day was a sizzler, the hottest ever, and the refreshment vendors certainly did a thriving business. The Wayne band, arrayed in laundered white, had music going all the time, and it gained the boys the applause of the multitude. The street parade was several blocks long and a creditable surprise, indeed. The beautiful floats and decorated carriages were heartily cheered, while the calisthumpians provoked a deal of fun. It was a dandy parade.

Following dinner came the exercises in the park, with Hon. P. A. Sawyer of Sioux City, orator of the day. The speaker made an address befitting the occasion, and renewed our throats in the beautiful story of how our forefathers gained their independence.

The ball game between Stanton and Winside, was a bit slow, or at least appeared so, perhaps because all other features of the day were fast. The minor sports were exciting and were pulled off without a hitch. A band concert and fireworks in the evening closed a gala day for Winside.

Carroll vs. College.

Last Monday afternoon the College defeated Carroll in the fastest game ever played in Wayne. The game lasted just one hour and the feature was McIntosh's pitching. The score was as follows:

Batteries' Carroll: Skeen and Yaryan. College, Lundak and McIntosh. Hits off McIntosh 1, off Yaryan 8. Struck out by McIntosh 8, by Yaryan 9. Bases on balls, off McIntosh 1, 3 base hit Evans. Left on bases College 7, Carroll 7. Time one hour, Umpire, Edwards.

Will Hoar of Wayne, won the 100 yard dash in Winside, on the Fourth. He also got second in broad jump.

The ball game at Winside on the 4th was a somewhat one-sided affair. Stanton was unable to bring their full team so at the last minute. Mr. Hoar of Wayne was called to help and he did his share of making four scores. The final was 19 to 6 in favor of Stanton. Winside was somewhat unfortunate in their pitcher, paid him $10 and expenses and he proved a very weak man.

SOCIETY GOSSIP

Among those who celebrated the Fourth at home, were several that enjoyed pleasant picnic dinners on their lawns. Dr. and Mrs. Blair entertained Mr. and Mrs. Dan Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Weber, and Mr. Sweet. Mrs. Guy Wilbur entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. Philleo and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilbur and family. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Craven entertained a few friends at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Welch and Fred Philleo spent the day in the country. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bush entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Vail and Mrs. Surber.

Miss Lela Tucker entertained Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Marguerite Guthrie, of Brownell College. The dinner table was beautifully arranged, the centerpiece being a pyramid of pink roses, the place cards were pink roses. A dainty four course dinner was served, after which the guests were entertained with music, and a song representing contest, which resulted in several being a tie, but in a draw. Miss Katherine Gan'be won the honors and captured the box of bonbons. The following ladies were present Misses Marion Hyde, Alice Kate, Sella Gildersleeve, Edna Neely, Katherine Gamble, Zoe and Mary Mellor, Katherine Bressler, Mable Clark, Florence Welch, Elsie Scace, and Helen Noakes of Omaha.

Another one of Tuesday's delightful dinner parties was given by Mrs. C. H. Pjsher, in honor of about fifteen of her young lady friends. The tables were prettily adorned with roses, the place cards, hand painted, the handwork of Miss Maude Clark. The dinner was nicely served in three courses by the hostess and Miss Freda Ellis. The guests were Misses Monta Theobald, Elsie Warnock, Reba Nangle, Hattie Schulthies, Helen McNeal, Queen Mellor, Daisy Gamble, Georgia Terrwilliger, Mamie Feather, Nettie Perry, Jessie Tucker, Fay Britton, Laurel Lundburg, Ethel Lawrie and Mrs. A. O. King.

A Number of young people took supper with Miss Mamie Feather Sunday evening.

Among those who spent the day at Riverside the Fourth were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Johnson, Miss Wiggin Fleetwood and J. W. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ley, gave a big dinner party at their cottage at Crystal Lake on the Fourth. There were about twenty guest, consisting of Wayne and Sioux City friends, who enjoyed an ideal day.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fisher, were guests of F. A. Berry's, at Crystal Lake over the Fourth.

The German Lutheran Sunday School are enjoying a picnic in a grove north of town, this afternoon.

Mrs. J. P. Martin and son of Sioux City were arrivals Wednesday for a few days visit at the W. O. Gamble home.

Several young men of Wayne who had organized a ball team, and were planning on a trip, have postponed the idea.

Word from Leslie Welch to his parents and Wayne friends has him located at St. Anthony, Idaho. He enjoyed his trip into the west, and expects to accumulate a rich fund of experience before he ever returns home.

About fifteen or twenty of the "youths" of town witnessed the adjustment of a matter of "personal honor" between a town and College boy sometime during Sunday evening. The encounter took place in one of the pastures to the north of the city limits, and we understand the town boy got the most satisfaction and was confined to his home for several days.

SPILLMAN RIGGS, JULY 28.

WON'T DO IT AGAIN.

The Barbers Said a Thing or Two About Their Customer.

Quietly entering a barber's shop, the stranger removed his hat and coat and, taking a card from his pocket, wrote on it:

"I want to be shaved."

A barber stepping forward read the card and, pointing to a chair, said to his brother artist:

"Deaf as a brass kettle and dumb as an oyster."

The man straightened himself out in the chair when his manipulator began lathering his face.

"This deaf cuss has a cheek like a stone wall," he said, when a general laugh followed.

"Stick a pin in him and see if he is entirely dumb," said another.

The victim remaining undisturbed, the following shots were fired at him by the delighted tonsorial artists:

"He needs a shampoo. His head is dirtier than a public house doormat."

"Shave him with a stool leg. Don't spoil your razor on that stubble."

"Gracious, what a guy! He'd make a good head tightener."

"I ought to rent that nose for a locomotive headlight," etc.

While all these complimentary allusions were flying about him the operation of shaving was finished, and the man arose, put on his coat and then, turning to the astonished barber, said:

"How much for the shave and compliments?"

"I—I—I!" gasped the astonished man. "Oh, nothing—nothing—call again—excuse"—And as the stranger left the shop the disgruntled barbers swore that they would never believe in a deaf and dumb man again until they had first fired a ten pound cannon about his ears.—Boston Herald.

The Associated Charities.

A lady whose cook had suddenly taken her departure went in search of another whose address had been given to her.

Reaching the alley, she rapped at the door, which was opened by a portly colored woman. A still larger one was occupying a rocking chair in the room. The lady stated her errand.

"No'm, I isn't tendin' to wuk dis yer winter. It's gwine to rest."

"Then perhaps you know some one who would like the place?"

"No'm. Fac' is, de culud ladies in dis alley all means to tek a rest. We goes to de 'sassinated charities fo' what we wants."—Woman's Home Companion.

PILGRIM JOE'S DOINGS

Meets Up With an Old Man Who is Also Traveling.

BUT THEY FAIL TO AGREE.

The Pilgrim Shows How Integrity Triumphs in the Long Run—He Has a Rather Queer Experience in the Town of Happy Day.

(Copyright, 1907, by P. C. Eastment.)

I was on the road with my outfit between the enterpristin' towns of Lost Hopes and Kerplunk when I met up with an old kuss who was travelin' in the opposite direction. With his white hair and whiter whiskers he had a venerable appearance, and at first I believed him to be in the pilgrim business with myself. As we both halted I smiled a greetin' at him and said:

"Truth may be buried for a day, but truth cannot be smothered."

"And though integrity may now and then stop to rest she gets there just the same," he replied.

"Then we began to tell how good it felt to be good, and I had got to thinkin' that the old chap's soul was fairly swimmin' in benevolence when he observed:

"It has happened to me very often that I wished I could play the game of poker, in order that I might point out to my fellow men the wickedness of it and thereby keep them in the narrow road. Does it happen that you can teach me? Now and then I come across a mortal who has lost his all on ace-full by bel'n' confronted with four tens. He mourns and mourns and I cannot comfort him."

"I have occasionally played a game in order to send a few dollars to the heathen of Africa," I said. "Any other object would of course be unworthy of our noble callin'."

"Of course. We labor to lift up the downtrodden and soothe the disconsolate. Get thee down and take a seat on the greensward and teach me the game that has brought so much sorrow to the hearts of humanity."

Another Look at His Face.

As I descended from my wagon I got another look at his face. Benevolence had been replaced by cupidity, and in a moment I was on to his little scheme. I went ahead, however, and explained the value of the cards and advised with him as to the sort of frozen look he must wear when he had a poor hand and wanted to bluff. In fifteen minutes he was ready to experiment. I saw him jugglin' the pasteboards like an old gambler, but I placed my dependence on integrity and said nothin'. After a few hands in which honors were even, he got what he had been sighing for and raised the ante four or five times on me before the draw. When I found myself with a full house I knew that the African heathen would have silk undershirts for the summer. I raised him until we had a hundred bones on the blanket, and then he called and showed a flush and a wallowed man. I had sorely gathered up the long green when he wits on top of me and had me by the throat. For three or four minutes it seemed as if villainy must triumph and virtue take a lickin', but then I rallied and turned him over and sat on him and chugged him and plunked him and batted him and swatted him, and when I let up on him he was a man with no ambition left. I believe he was sayin' somethin' as I left, but it passed it by and said to myself that a good man may sometimes get in a tight pinch, but that integrity comes gallopin' up to put fresh beef into his struggles.

Before goin' further I wish to warn the public that an individual without the fear of bel'n' kicked to death by a mule before his eyes has put upon the market what he calls Sister Mary's Alleviator and is seekin' to carry the impression that I have gone out of the business of cheerin' and alleviatin' sufferin' humanity.

Let no one be deceived.

Sister Mary is not my sister. She is not a sister to any one else.

I have not sold out to a trust or any one else.

Only True Alleviator.

My alleviator is the lovely true alleviator in this world. It has cheered and cured its millions and is still in the business.

Order of Hearing on Original Probate of Will

State of Nebraska, ss.
Wayne County, ss.

At a County Court, held at the County Court Room, in and for said County of Wayne, on the 25th day June, 1907.

Present, E. Hunter, County Judge.

In the matter of the estate of John H. Whipperman, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of H. H. Whipperman praying that the instrument filed on the 25th day of June, 1907, and purporting to be the last Will and Testament of said deceased, may be proved, approved, probated, allowed and recorded as the last Will and Testament of said John H. Whipperman, deceased, and that the execution of said instrument may be committed and that the administration of said Estate may be granted to Mary Whipperman, widow as Executrix; Ordered, That July 13th, A. D. 1907, at 10 o'clock a. m., is assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear at a County Court to be held in and for said county, and show cause why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Wayne Herald, a weekly newspaper printed in said County, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.

E. Hunter,
County Judge.

Troubles of the stomach, heart and kidneys are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means stomach weakness always. And the heart and kidneys as well have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy ever claims to treat the inside nerves. Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion use Dr. Shoop's Restorative.
