SPECIAL PHILIPPINE LETTER

The Filipino People--Their Qualifications For Self-Government.

(By S. E. DeRueckin.)

ZAMBOANGA, MORO PROV., P. I.
JUNE 1, 1907.

In approaching the consideration of this subject, the woeful lack of mental development of the native people as a whole must be somewhat understood before any intelligent opinion can be formed. Figures showing the number of natives who can read and write are lamentably lame and even misleading, if used as a basis to determine the self-governing qualifications of the Filipinos as we understand the term in the United States.

It is safe to say that 95 per cent of the native people are hopelessly lacking in the mental development which is so essential to progress, and which makes every American a self-governing unit however illiterate he may be as regards mere book instruction. Many people approach the consideration of this subject in total ignorance of these conditions. In fact many are found to declare that the native has been held in check in his national development by the Spaniard, and if released from the power of superior force, would speedily take his place among the nations of the East, such as they are when as a matter of truth, all progress so far made in these Islands is due wholly to the white man, to the blood he has left here, and to his precept and example. This is conclusively proven by the fact that in those parts of the Islands where the white man's influence has never been exerted, the people are still savages in every sense of the word. And that the white man, after 300 years' effort, has been able to instill western civilization into more than 5 per cent of the people, will be denied by an overwhelming majority of both Americans and Europeans here today.

When the history of these people is inquired into, the true state of affairs met with here comes as no surprise, however disappointing it may be to those who thought they were able to see the day when a Filipino Republic, "sitting docile at our feet, receiving from us civilization, laws, manners, and giving in turn everything the gratitude of a free people could give--love, obedience, trade," would be an accomplished fact.

When the Spaniards arrived in these Islands some 300 years ago, the people found here were living in tribes, possessing no written history, no written laws, no literature, no art, no agriculture, no manufactures; in fact they were living practically in a state of nature. At no time in the past had they been subject to any mental training other than that employed in compassing their simple wants. When it is remembered that, about 3000 years before Christ, when the historic certain first rises, the white man's mental development and the discipline and control he exercised over himself, was vastly superior to that found here by the Spaniards only 300 short years ago, what hope can be reasonably entertained that a naturally inferior people can cover a journey in 300 years which has taken us some 5000 years to cover?

The 3 per cent of the people who, if not overwhelmed by a sea of ignorance and savagery, are capable of building a nation and expanding along the lines of western civilization are altogether men of mixed blood. Among the full-blooded Filipinos, I know of not one who has made a success in life worthy of the name, even when measured by the low standard of the East. Successful men among the natives in law, art, commerce, are confined to those of mixed blood. The latter class while possessing no pride of ancestry, no traditions, knowing no race and with no experience, yet could I believe, with its gronnding of white blood, found a stable government and expand along the line of western civilization, but they are incapable of holding in check and guiding the 95 per cent who are ignorant, lazy, improvident, recognizing no law which restrains their desires, careless of human life, cruel, untruthful and dishonest. The 5 per cent are bright intelligent men, pleasant to meet, polite and considerate to a degree, but their mental processes are practically reversed as compared with the Americans. Temperamentally, they are timid, never going directly at anything, thus creating the impression at first blush of being crafty and dishonest. They possess in equal parts, the characteristics, inclinations, tendencies and aspirations of the two races from which they spring. From the Spaniard they receive the undying love of the game of politics, art, literature, music, and from the Malay the love of home, simplicity of life, gambling instinct, indifference to commerce, and the longing to abandon civilization and take to the bosque. Were there any considerable number of this class in these Islands, we would not be here today, and Spain would not have been here any time within the past fifty years. It is for the very reason that there is not to exceed 5 per cent of the people here who are capable of founding a stable government and expanding acceptably to those nations whose good opinion is so essential to progress, that these people are not politically free.

So far I have pointed out only those influences which the inexperience, ignorance, passion and indifference of the people themselves oppose to self-government. I shall now point out a more formidable barrier to native self-government in the person of the intollerent, crafty, brave, aggressive and warlike Moro. (The name "Moro" is loosely applied by the Spaniards to any of the fierce dark skinned races, perhaps in memory of the trimming up the Dons received at the hands of the Moro.)

THE MORO PEOPLE.

At the time of the arrival of the Spaniards in the northern Islands, a migratory movement was taking place from the Malay peninsula to Borneo and the southern Islands of the Philippine group by what is supposed to have been a vast horde of Malay pirates who had been successfully defeated and driven from the main coast of Asia. Whether this was the character of the people who settled here. It is positively known that piracy was their principal occupation after landing here. These people brought with them the laws, traditions and civilization of the Saracens, and the religion of Mohammed. They were fierce, aggressive and war-like, and practically no attempt was made to restrain them, for more than two hundred years. During this time, instead of knitting into a strong Malay colony, they broke into tribes, thus enabling the Spaniards to get a hold on them, and save them from the wrath of other nations whose commerce was being greatly interfered with in these waters.

For many years prior to American occupation and even after the sea power of the Moro had been destroyed by the introduction of steam war vessels into these waters, the Moros made foraging expeditions into the northern Islands for plunder and slaves, until the name Moro was still is enough to drive the timid Filipino inhabitants from their homes along the coast into the mountain ranges.

On land the Moros still had the Spaniard bluffed at the time of the American occupation. So anxious was the Don for peace, that no pretense at interference with the internal affairs of the Moro was ever made. Slavery and every form of crime was running riot here when the Americans assumed responsibility for the future good behavior of the Moro population.

Sawyer, the historian, writing of Mindanao during the year 1899 said: "The present condition of the Island is most lamentable. Nothing could be more dreadful; robbery, outrage and murder are rampant. Every evil passion has been let loose, and the labor of years has been lost. In the words of one who knows the country well, Mindanao has become a seething hell and is in a condition more dreadful than ever before in historic times."

In the Catabato valley, under the leadership of Dattos Ali and Djimbangan, the Moros sacked the town of Cotabato, killing many of the principle inhabitants, stripping all the Christian woman naked and marching them in this condition through the streets, and after selecting those whom they wanted, distributed the remainder among their followers.

Under the Bates treaty, but slight improvement in the conduct of the Moros was observed. While slavery as an institution was prohibited on paper, no interference with it was undertaken until the formation of civil government in the Moro Province under the governorship of Major General Wood. The policy of non-interference in the domestic affairs of the Moros by former military commanders, and Gov. Wood's policy of forcing the laws he found here, caused many fights with the war-like Moros, culminating in the famous battle of Mount Dajo where some one thousand Mohammedan fanatics met their death at the hands of the American soldiery.

While this fight has by no means bluffed the Moro, the outcry from America has bluffed the government, with the result that conditions are fast settling back into their former lawless state.

THE MORO IS UNIQUE

As a fighting machine, the Moro is unique in human species. In four fights in this Province, some two thousand Moros have been engaged, all dying practically to a man. Opposed to such fighters, the naturally timid Filipinos.

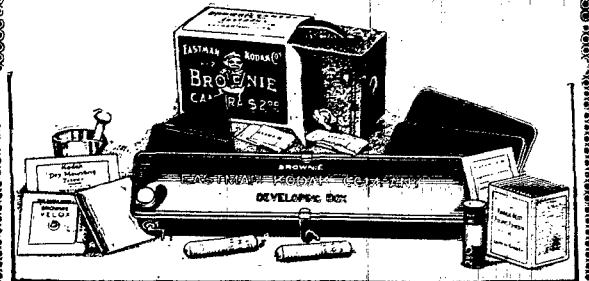

If, however, the American people are determined to try the experiment of an Oriental republic and are willing to risk the humiliation of failure, I will point out in my next letter how the Moro country can be turned to advantage in assisting the Filipinos on their way to independence and self-government.

An Irishman went into a barber shop to get shaved. After being properly seated and lather about half applied, the barber was called to an adjoining room where he was detained for some time. The barber had in his shop a pet monkey which was continually imitating its master. As soon as the latter left the room the monkey grabbed the brush and proceeded to finish lathering Pat's face. After doing this he took a razor from the case strapped it and then turned to the Irishman to shave him "Stop that," said Pat. "Ye can tuck towels in me neck and put soap on me face, but begorra, your father's got to shave!"--Ex.

Miss Gussie Scadden is spending a week with her grandmother at Blair, Nebr.

Middlestadt, the Norfolk lumber man, was in Wayne on business yesterday.

P. Baker made a business trip to Wausa and Bloomfield, the first of the week.

Fred Pile, in company with his grandfather, Mr. H. Meek, left for Lincoln Tuesday, to be absent several days.

Rev. A. F. Ernst, former pastor, now of Macalm, Ill., will preach in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning.

Miss. Maude Grothe left for Lake View, Iowa, yesterday where she will visit friends and enjoy a vacation of a week.

Miss Anna Goetz, who has been spending a week with her friend Miss Kate Baker, returned to her home at Hartington, Monday.

Phil H. Kohl and son Tracy went to Crystal Lake yesterday. Mrs. Kohl and Margaret will join them today in a several days outing.

Henry Goll is evidently prospering in his new home at Waterville, Wash. for we learn thru one of his Wayne friends that he recently added another half section to his landed possessions.

Carl Wright and Orrin Garwood arrived home from Douglas, Wyo., yesterday. Carl Grothe is expected home Saturday. The boys have been sick a good part of the time and did not find conditions suitable for their well being. Carl Wright has a position in a lumber yard at Hall-ovav, Nebr., while Orrin Garwood also has an opening in view and will know in a few days just where he will locate.

The Commercial Club held a meeting last week and now several projects of public improvement are under consideration. Among the most prominent is that of a sewerage system for Wayne. The members of the city council, as individuals, at least are favorably inclined to such an undertaking for the town. Should an organized effort be made, there is little doubt but that Wayne could have an up-to-date system established within a year.

Lawyer Willie of Randolph was a passenger thru town yesterday.

The secretary of the local lodge of Rebekahs, desires us to announce a change in their regular meeting nights, from the first and third Fridays to the second and fourth Friday nights of each month.

Jas. Miller and J. W. Jones of the firm of Miller & Jones, are in Chicago this week buying goods. They left for that city on Sunday and expect to be back by the first of next week. Mrs. Miller expects to leave today for Chicago, to join her husband.

Miss Bertha Kehrberg, whose death was chronicled in the HERALD last week, was 49 years old, and had resided in Wayne, with her sister Mrs. H. C. Henney, since 1894. Death was caused by what the doctors pronounced as a part stricture of the lower stomach. The funeral services took place from the Baptist Church on Thursday afternoon and were under the direction of Rev. Parker Smith, interment being made in Greenwood cemetery. The brothers and sisters of deceased were present at the funeral. Those out of town were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kehrberg, of Sheldon, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kehrberg, of Sanborn, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kehrberg, of Kingsley, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kehrberg, of LeMars, Iowa.

John Scofield, returned from South Dakota yesterday, where he had been the past ten days in company with his father-in-law, S. B. Scace, looking up homesteads near Phillips west of the river. They made selections of several claims and Mr. Scofield, and two brothers, with Mr. Scace and his two sons, Homer and Charley will file on the same. They found the appearance of the land much to their liking, and the boys intend to take up residence on their claims as soon as necessary. In regard to Mr. Scofield's trouble at McLean in which he is charged with intent to do great bodily harm upon the person of a fellow by the name of Scripture, an account of which appeared in the HERALD last week. Mr. Scofield tells us he gashed the fellow on the arm with a knife while defending himself.

Their trouble arose over an account. A debt of $10 rent of a building had been due him from the Scriptures since April. In the hopes of getting his money, he had given Scripture some hauling to do which came to $4.00. Last week the young son of Scripture came to Scofield to collect the $4.00 account, saying his father gave it to him if he would get it. Because Mr. Scofield credited the amount and refused to pay it, the lads big brother took up the case, and threatened to "take it out of Scofield's hide," John said he followed him to the post office, and when he finally pounced upon him he attempted to defend himself with an open pocket knife that he carried. Mr. Scofield is under arrest and his hearing will take place at Pierce.

Four Waynites in the persons of J. H. Kate, Sam Davies, W. S. Goldie and W. H. McNeal witnessed a unique ball game at Winside yesterday, between the Knights of Pythias of Carroll and Winside. Flaming posters, hand painted, depicted the coming event in caricature and rare design, had graced Winside's show windows for a week previous. When the brave Knights arrived from Carroll they were paraded thru the town as honored guests, by a motley array of attendants, whose general appearance was both a credit and a disgrace. An ambulance corps and brigade of stretcher carriers had been organized and drilled in anticipation of the contest. Dr. Cherry had been voted to sacrifice his hopes of life as umpire. But armed with sword and buckler, a six shooter and a steel cage to shelter his conscious, he dared the undertaking. It was an awful battle: a cruel, shameless slaughter of fowls, but Winside died game in a score of eight to four. This is an annual ordeal between the lodges. In the evening the band of heroes, put away all that of strife, and sat down to a banquet in the beautiful park, while kindly matrons brot them drinks to cool the raging fever of their blood, as they feasted on a spread of good things. It proved one of those happy occasions that makes life "one grand sweet song."

Card of Thanks.
The brothers and sisters, of the late Miss Bertha Kehrberg desire that the HERALD extend their profound thanks to Wayne friends in return for the many kindnesses and sympathy, tendered during her month of illness and at her death.

CEMENT WALKS.
If you are going to put in a Cement Walk let me know at once as I have concluded to do all work to be done here before going to other towns. Yours for business and a good walk. FRANK GORDON.

Special Train For Carroll Carnival.
The management of the Carroll Carnival have arranged for a special train returning from Carroll at 8 o'clock in the evening on Friday, Aug. 23. As it runs to Wakefield all Wayne people can take in Carnival all day Friday and get home in the evening. Plan to attend. Because of the convenience of getting back. Friday should be Wayne's day.

A Drowning Near Wisner.
Wisner, Neb., Aug. 12. Jens Brown Moll, aged twenty-four, drowned near here in the Elkhorn river yesterday afternoon while swimming with friends. Moll was the only member of the party who could swim and he struck out far down stream. Shortly afterward it was noticed that he had sunk. Moll was employed by Hags Jorgenson eight miles from Wayne. Accompanying him on the swimming expedition were his brother, Martin Moll, his cousin, John Jorgenson and a friend. The body was recovered after three hours. The funeral will be held here. —Norfolk News.

ANOTHER INVESTIGATION

AND ITS RESULTS

John G. Roberts, of Denver, the mining man who was employed by prospective investors to make a minute examination of the properties of the King Solomon Tunnell and Development Co., of Frisco, Colo., has finished his work and has submitted to them the following report. There is perhaps no man in Denver better qualified to make an examination of this kind, and none whose word will carry more weight with those who know him or look up his record. In his 44 years of practical mining and milling in this state he has made money, not only for himself but for others, and now enjoys the well earned comfort to be had by a residence in Denver where he is educating his family. Inquiry reveals the fact that he bears an unblemished reputation and comes from sterling old Welsh stock long known for their uprightness and reverence for the truth and morality. His father, the Right Rev. Griffith Roberts, is well known on various fields in the middle west where he has held pastorates.

As his report is too voluminous to give it all below, I will give it in part.

He says, "The first thing which impressed me on arriving was the natural advantages surrounding this property, such as unlimited water power, abundance of timber, means of handling rock and treating ore at a minimum of expense, and railroad facilities unexcelled.

In the next 400 feet after crossing the Golden Centium at least three lodes are discovered on the surface, a fine assays giving $40 per ton.

From this group to the end of the property six or eight views are seen but not developed. To examine these last was the most laborous experience of my life, four of them being in the Horseshoe which is an excavation in the side of Rock No. 1. 2500 feet long, 2000 feet wide and 800 feet deep. The perpendicular depth from the apex of these veins to the tunnel level is nearly 4000 feet. Just think of the vast stoping ground when the tunnel is finished.

An interesting item is furnished about this group: Two men while prospecting here found a large chunk of ore rolled out of one of the crevices. They broke it up into smaller pieces, took it to market on two burrows and sold it for a little over $2800. Can a better record be found anywhere?

Now about the Placer claim. It is located on the west side of the Blue river one mile below the town of Dillon and consists of about 360 acres.

I BELIEVE THIS PLACER ALONE IS WORTH ALL THE STOCKHOLDERS HAVE INVESTED OR EVER WILL INVEST.

The Reliance Dredge Company, doing deep placer mining nearby, cleaned up $1000 a day last season and $80,000 when pulling up for the winter.

Would say in conclusion that I have the utmost confidence in the honesty of the officers of the of the King Solomon Company and fully believe that all stockholders will be treated alike.

Truthfully submitted,
JOHN G. ROBERTS.

Time and again different engineers have gone over our property and in each case their reports are very favorable. The above report by Mr. Roberts is made by a man whom we had never seen and did not know he was coming until he appeared on the property with a crowd of prospective investors who had hired him to make an investigation for them.

I HAVE TAKEN QUITE A NUMBER OUT THIS SUMMER TO SEE THE PROPERTY AND EVERY ONE OF THEM HAVE INVESTED.

Now is the time to buy.

A Supt. levy of 3 mills was made on all taxable property in school district No. 80 to pay school district No. 84.

Comes now J. T. Bressler, Theo. Duerig, Henry Kellogg, A. E. Bressler, Phil H. Kohl, H. B. Craven, R. Craven, S. R. Theobald, C. M.

Craven, C. W. Wightman and objects and excepts to and complains of the action of the Board of Equalization of Wayne County, Nebr., and on June 26, 1907, in ordering the shares of stock in the Nebraska Land Company, a corporation, owned by them, to be assessed to them, individually, and objects and excepts to and complains of the action of the Board in assessing to them individually based upon their shares of stock the following sums:

Name	No. of shares	Amount
John T. Bressler	100	$1000.00
Theo. Duerig	25	2500.00
Henry Kellogg	30	3000.00
A. E. Bressler	6	600.00
Phil H. Kohl	30	3000.00
H. B. Craven	5	500.00
R. Craven	5	500.00
S. R. Theobald	25	2500.00
C. M. Craven	25	2500.00
W. C. Wightman	10	1000.00

Whereupon the Board after due consideration rejects the complaints of John T. Bressler, Theo. Duerig, Henry Kellogg, A. E. Bressler, Phil H. Kohl, H. B. Craven, R. Craven, S. R. Theobald, C. M. Craven and W. C. Wightman to assessment, individually, of their respective shares of stock in the Nebraska Land Co. The last Legislature passed an act authorizing the assessment of a poll tax of $2.50, to be paid in cash, upon every male inhabitant in each road district, being over the age of 21 years and under the age of 50 years, except those specially exempted by law. Whereas, it appears that all were assessed with a poll tax $3.00 under the old law. Be it resolved, by this Board that the assessment of $3.00 be reduced to $2.50 and the county clerk ordered to spread upon the tax list a tax of $2.50 against those subject to poll as shown by the assessor's books, Whereupon the board adjourned sine die.

Chas W. Reynolds, Clerk.

Danger of Eating Pie.

The last contest on July 4 at Randolph was a pie-eating contest and it would have been better had the program ended before this contest. Geo. Huwalt, son of August Huwalt, a well known stockman and farmer, was one of the contestants, and now is ill from the effects of swallowing a nail placed in the pies. In every piece of pie eaten by the contestants was a wire nail placed there in an innocent way and evidently for the purpose of giving the eaters a surprise with no thought of a serious ending. The nail was of good size and all of the contestants except Huwalt found the nail at the first bite. But in his case the nail was swallowed with the pie and is now lodged in his stomach or the canal leading to the stomach, and is causing him considerable suffering. Mr. Huwalt was naturally very angry over the matter and gave notice that he would make some one a defendant in a damage suit. The practice of putting nails in pies in a contest is a common one, and we can now see it is unwise and dangerous. It is safe to say it will never again be done in Randolph-Randolph Timas.

The State Fair to be held at Lincoln, Sept. 2-6, gives promise of being the greatest State Fair ever held in Nebraska. Secretary W. R. Mellor informs us that the exhibits in all departments are very heavy, and promise to exceed in magnitude those of last year, which was the record breaker heretofore. The management have secured Chas. J. Strobel and his airship, which are now making flights at the Jamestown Exposition, to make daily flights at our Fair. The stake races have 128 horses named in them, as against 58 named last year, and this feature of the Fair is looked forward to with great anticipation by the horse lovers. Fully 25 per cent more swine will be exhibited this year than last, and all the live stock departments are receiving an abundance of entries. If no more entries of County Collective Exhibits are received from now on, Agricultural hall will have a finer exhibit than ever before. Nebraska has the best agricultural exhibit shown at any Fair in the United States, and such an exhibit is a credit to our state and worth going miles to see. The implement section is even greater than that of last year, and a farmer contemplating the purchase of a piece of machinery will secure the best of satisfaction by comparing the different kinds of the same machine, all of which will be shown by experts, who can teach you the points of superiority.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For County Commissioner.
To the Republican Voters of Wayne County, Nebraska.
 Upon, not only the earnest solicitation of friends throughout the county, but the unrelenting demand of my home people, I have consented to allow my name to go before the primaries as a candidate for the nomination of County Commissioner from the Third District, subject to the will of the Republican Voters of Wayne county.

AUGUST ZEIMER.

For County Assessor.
 I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination for the office of county assessor, of Wayne county subject to the will of the republican voters at the primaries to be held September, 3.

A. T. WITTER

For Clerk of The District Court.
 I submit to the republican electors of Wayne county, at the primaries on September 3rd, 1907, my name as a candidate for the office of Clerk of the District Court. I respectfully solicit the support of all who are satisfied with the performance of my official duties.

B. F. FEATHER.

Clerk of the District Court.

For County Judge
 I hereby, respectfully, announce myself as candidate for election to the office of County Judge of Wayne County, Nebraska, subject to the decision of the Republican Primary election Sept. 3rd, 1907.

E. HUNTLE

For County Treasurer.
 I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the nomination for the office of county treasurer subject to the votes of the republican electors of Wayne county at the primary election to be held Sept. 3d, 1907.

CHARLES S. BEEBE.

For County Clerk.
 I hereby announce my candidacy for the nomination of county clerk, subject to the will of the Democratic voters of Wayne county at the Primary election, to be held September 3, 1907.

CHAS. W. REYNOLDS.

For County Superintendent.
 I hereby announce myself as candidate for the office of county superintendent of schools, subject to the decision of the republican primaries to be held on September 3, 1907.

A. E. LITTELL.

For County Commissioner.
 I have, at the solicitation of my friends in Chapin and Garfield precincts consented to become a candidate, before the Republican primaries, for the nomination for County Commissioner of the 3d commissioner district. These precincts have never had a commissioner and at this time feel that they are entitled to such recognition. I therefore, at this time, announce myself as a candidate for such nomination and join with the Republicans of Chapin and Garfield precincts in asking for the support of the Republicans of the 3d commissioner district, at the primaries September 3d.

If nominated and elected I pledge myself to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability.

Respectfully,

GEORGE S. FARRAN.

Judge Welch of Wayne, seems to have no opposition for the republican nomination for district judge and he should have none. He has proven himself an able jurist and has won favorable comment from the strongest democratic papers for his fair, impartial and intelligent decision on the bench. --Crofton Journal

The electors of each Commissioner district nominate the candidate while the whole county elects him. This leaves the voters of the third commissioner's district to select their own man. There are only two aspirants for the place in the Republican primaries, August Ziemer of Hoskins and George S. Farren of Winside. Their announcements appear in another column.

Liquor interests are fast losing power in politics. Not many years ago they exerted a mighty influence, and their support or opposition in an election was considered important. Today, especially outside of metropolitan cities, little thought is given the political influence of the saloon. So great has become the sentiment against drinking anything so conducive to physical and mental ruin as liquor, that dealers in such goods are generally content to be allowed to continue their business without trying to dictate political results. Beatrice Express

The Beatrice Daily Express for Aug. 9, was a twelve page edition. It was a real boom issue, for Beatrice and Judge Sedgwick, with honors about equally divided. However it reflects credit on Editor Huse in his enterprize. There is considerable warmth and earnestness revealed in several pages of clippings in support of Sedgwick's candidacy for Supreme Judge. But the growing popularity of Judge Reese's candidacy in opposition, makes it imperative that they do some real hustling if they are to reinstate their favorite. The sentiment of the country press in general and the voting population outside the cities is unmistakably with Judge Reese. With the talents, ability and qualifications of the two men a stand-off, there is a manifest sincerity in the record and personality of Judge Reese that commands respect and determines a choice.

GOV. SHELDON FOR REESE.

In an interview with Ross L. Hammond, published last week, Gov. Sheldon stated that he would support Reese for supreme judge. "I am for Reese," said the governor "as the situation now presented. I have great respect for him. He has for years represented the political sentiments in which I believe, and which are dominant in the party now. He has been active in the fight. He did good good service in the contest of last year that resulted in so clear a triumph for the new kind of republicanism in Nebraska. But I can give Judge Sedgwick my support if he should become the party nominee after the September primaries. I regard him, too, as an able jurist. But as the situation appears to me, Reese will be nominated. Only a big storm on primary day can prevent it. In that case the farmer vote would not get out, while the vote of the cities most likely would. The farmers should bear in mind the importance of going to the primaries, rain or shine.

Nebraska's New Road Law.

During the past ten years there has been great improvement in road building skill developed in the prairie states of this country, due chiefly to the agitation of what is known as the "Good Roads" movement, conventions of which have been held at numerous places and times chiefly in Indiana and Illinois, at which practical methods for constructing permanent dirt roads and new-fangled machinery for that purpose have demonstrated and exhibited. This movement has steadily grown and has come to stay.

The last legislature in Nebraska seems to have caught some of this infection at least; and altho our state has not gone all the way of our neighbors over in the Mississippi Valley, some important changes were enacted which indicate, if properly followed up by subsequent law making bodies, a revolution in our country road making.

For instance, our ancient system of "working out" our labor tax has passed into history. "All road and labor tax shall be paid in cash," and an annual poll tax of $2.50 per head "shall be payable in cash at the same time as the tax upon personal property is payable." All work upon the roads will still be performed under the direction of the road overseer, who may "warn out" any able bodied man under fifty years of age, or any team, in his district, to work upon the roads, not exceeding two days at any one time. The person so warned is entitled to one day's notice, either written or verbal or by telephone, and is entitled to "going wages" for the time he and his team put in; and in case he refuses or neglects, without good cause, to obey such notice, he shall pay a forfeit of $10. Each man so working receives from the road boss a receipt for the time employed and is paid therefor by county warrant.

Road overseers receive $2.50 per day for the time they are necessarily employed in superintending the building and repairing of roads in their districts, and the law places no limit to the amount they shall receive during the season. But that men may be secured for the office who can and will accept and give the time necessary, the old road district of 9 sections - 4 districts to the township - is abolished, and the county commissioners must, at their next meeting, re-district the county so that no district shall contain less than one township nor more than two. Under these provisions, next year's road bosses, who must be elected at this fall's general election should be men who are not only capable and willing, but who are able, in point of available time to give the better part of the summer season to road work in their district.

The road overseers are enjoined to give precedence, when necessary, to keep in order the main travelled roads between towns and cities; and to set aside not less than 10 per cent of his road funds to repair and drag the R. F. D. routes, which shall also have the preference. Not only must the R. F. D. roads be kept properly drained and dragged but it is provided that he may hire snow shovellers and scrapers at the rate of 20 cents per hour for man and 40 cents for man and team in order that the regular daily delivery may not be impeded in the snow season.

The instructions contained in the law to the overseers have considerable to say about the "King" system of road making, and "to provide for the largest possible use of the King Road Drag and similar implements."

No doubt these innovations are steps in the right direction. Wayne County has spent thousands of dollars of useless money in having her section lines made into passable highways. It has always been the opinion of the writer that the only possible successful system of road making was to contract in by the rod or mile to a professional road maker as in Iowa and other states. Those who profess to know say that Nebraska dirt, when properly drained and graded, makes the best roads in the world.

There is nothing like a fair association dividing its profits with its patrons. Therein lies the success of the Interstate Live Stock Association of Sioux City. This year the men who are at the head of this "largest independent fair in the world" as the eastern horse papers describe it, are spending more money for attractions of every kind than the majority of state fairs do. The stellar attraction to many people, no doubt, will be Horace Wild, the world-famed aeronaut, who will make daily flights in his air ship, the "Eagle" The free vaudeville attractions will be a show in themselves. In these will be the great "thriller" of the year, "Leaping the Death Gap Flumes."

An' dees ees w'at he say:
"W'enevra man ees kind an' free
For geevin' theengs away,
So dat da stranger man dat com'
To dees ceety can
Be happy here an' feel at home—
Dat's 'hospitable man."
"Nex' week," he say, "from far, from near,
Bees crowd'a mans dat's call
Da Brother Elk' ees comin' here.
We glad to see dem all!
We mak' da ceety clean an' bright
An' spend da mona free
So evratheengs by night,
Most' beautiful weell ho,
An' I am put dees flags to fly
From dees peanutta stan',
So stranger mans weel know dat I Am 'hospitable man."
Nex' time I see Baratt', oh, my!
He ees een soocha state.
"Dose 'brother Elk' ees gon'," he cry,
"An' dey are 'chaapa state.
You bat my life! From time dey com'
To dees da day dey went!
Dey justa mak' demsal' at home,
But nevra spend a cent!
Dey handa lemon up to me,
But buy da few banan'
I was a fool dat I should be Sooch 'hospitable man!"
Eet ees not vera clear to me
W'at dees Baratta say.
Eef ceety mak' all theengs so free,
W'at for should Elka pay?
I ppose dat I am vera dumb.
But steel I aska why,
Seence dey are ask da stranger com'.
Dey should expect heem buy?
Oh, my, I am so vera "green."
Pleass, Meester 'Morton,
I weesh you tal me w'at ees mean,
By 'hospitable man."

Praise Safer Than Blame.

Viscount de Belmont of Brazil was dining in a New York restaurant. Suddenly he put down his knife and fork and uttered an exclamation of approval.
"By Jove, a beautiful woman!" he said in the demonstrative southern way.
"She is my wife," the viscount's companion murmured modestly.
The young man laughed. "Excuse
my personal remark," he said, "but it was much better than that of an Oxford friend of mine.
"My friend, on the boat coming over,
stood in conversation with an elderly man on the promenade deck. Near by a woman sat in a deck chair. My friend, pointing to her, said, with a sneer:
"I wonder if that ugly old woman is actually trying to flirt with me!"
"I don't know," the elderly gentleman answered mildly, "but I can easily find out for you. She's my wife."

Self Interested Generosity.

Edwin and Lisa, says the New York Press, are two little cousins of three who are almost inseparable and divide most of their goodies. One day Edwin had a whole cracker unbuttered
and half a one which was buttered.
He gave the former to Lisa, and his mother commended him for giving away the larger piece.
Little Lisa looked up aggrievedly.
"Yes," said she, "he gave me the biggest, but he kept the butterest."

Too Deep For Him.

"Strange case, that of Mr. and Mrs.
Harkins."
"How so? Divorces are common. I don't see anything so remarkable in the fact that they have separated."
"Oh, it isn't the separation. But here it is nearly two weeks since the decree was granted, and neither of them has got married again. I can't understand what the motive was."
—Cleveland Leader.

The Way He Loved Her.

Three months after facing the parson together they were seated at the tea table.
"Do you love me still?" queried the young wife after the manner of her kind.
"Of course I love you still," he answered. "Now, keep quiet while I read the paper."—Leslie's Weekly.

What More Could She Ask?

"You used," she complained, "to treat me so affectionately and to use so many words of endearment when you spoke to me. Now you are so matter of fact."
"Well," he replied, with a yawn,
"didn't I prove by marrying you that I liked you?"—Judge.

Silly Question.

"But," asked Miss Prim, "didn't you scream when he kissed you?"
"Nonsense! Of course not!" replied Miss Koy. "His mistake didn't tickle
as much as all that."—Philadelphia Press.

Normal Notes.

Fred Lecrom of the '95 Teachers Class of the Normal is before the primaries of Platt county for nomination for superintendent of schools.
He has proved himself a strong teacher and principal. He completed most of the Scientific work here later and has served as principal at Pilger and Platt Center. The Normal boys discussed politics in those days much more than now and Lecron was a leader among the Democrat fellows. He was a Bryan man all the time. If elected, he will be a strong superintendent.

The graduating exercises on Thursday evening were more largely attended than those of other evenings.
W. L. Campbell, president of the classes was in the chair and proved himself a model presiding officer.
The address of A. R. Davis was well received. He is a strong, logical thinker and speaks eloquently. He emphasized that industry, self-reliance, self-confidence with a strong personality were essential elements of success. President Pile spoke firmly as to lessons he had tried to teach the classes for leadership; he mentioned the following: convictions
courage, intelligence, optimism, faith, sympathy for all mankind and all institutions for mans advancement Theodore Halla read his Prize Thesis
"The Superiority of Private Normal School Work." This was a splendid paper which called attention to the strong points of private normals and showed wherein they were producing better prepared men and women than state schools. Helen Pile begin the grand march and the graduates moved slowly led by Mr. Lundak, president of the Scientific class.
Fred Pile called the name of each student, the president handed each the diploma while Mr. Campbell gave out the state certificates. The marching back and forth by the 83 graduates, through the isles between the rows of seats, wearing caps and gowns with colors and class flowers, was a pleasant scene. Next appeared the prize winners on the rostrum. Miss Burnham made a nice five minute talk for the winners.
Prof. Pile in brief explanations presented the $20 prizes as follows:

Effie Burnham, Pilger, "Bressler
Prize" for Best Improvement, W.
L. Campbell, Belden, "Faculty Prize" for Honor Roll, Theodore Halla, Yankton, S. D., "Alumni Prize" for Normal Work, E. D.
Lundak, Niabrara, "Leisenring Prize" for Rank in Scientific Class, J. A. Checoine, Jefferson, S. D.
"Theobald Prize" for Rank in Teachers' Class, Arthur Anderson, Concord, "Harrington Prize" for Rank
in Certificate Class, Ardilla Van Connett, Page, "Tucker Prize" for Best Oration, Etta Conover, Wayne,
"Mines Prize" for Best Recitation,
E. D. Lundak, Niabrara, and Irene Lemmon, Thurston, were tie for
"Craven Prize" for Best Debate,
Anna de Groot, Madison, "Jones
Prize" for Rank in Music, A. R.
Herrill, Wayne, "Ley Prize" for Rank in Commercial. The College song, class songs and class yells closed
the program at 10 o'clock.

ALUMNI DAY!

Many members of the association
came in during the week and others came on the early trains. About 200 were present when the president
J. F. Rahu, called the house to order for the chapel exercises. The exercises were led by the president.
The secretary, Bessie E. Eaton, read the minutes of last year's meeting.
The next order of business was the election of officers, which afforded an appointment for some orator by various members, Prof. J. T. Saunt-ry of '04 Teachers, now in charge of the commercial department, was elected president, Ardilla VanConnett
of this year's Scientific and '05
Teachers' was elected secretary, N.
B. Mack of this year's Teachers was elected vice president while Rollie Ley received the unanimous vote for treasurer. A few words of thanks by new officers, and all were ready for the speakers, Lulu D. Neihardt,
'03 Teachers class led off with a pretty little speech and was followed by Fred French of '96 class. He made an excellent talk which received much praise. He talked business and told the members some cold facts as what to expect in this competitive age. Agnes Coleman of '03 Scientific made a good speech, claiming for her class, was the best and hansomest of all the classes. Here the new classes as well as old broke out with yells, class songs and good natural guying. Nice talks were given by '03 Teachers, Catherine Luchsinger, '05 Teachers; Julia Davis '05 Certificate. The '05 Scientific was represented by Claud Wright who with his bride of two weeks, Miss Porter of last year's class had made first appearance on the hill since the wedding. He made an interesting talk and was not em-barassed by the jokes of the Alumni fellows. Emma Hughes spoke for

'06 Scientific, Glen Peters for '06
Teachers, Jas. E. Simonin for Certificate, Elmer Lundburg was called upon and gave us some N. N. C. history and many good things to think about. He is a royal good fellow and a loyal alumnus.

President Pile was asked to say a few words. He thanked the members for their continued interest in and helpfulness for the Normal,
told us how the faculty and students enjoy our library and expressed the hope that the name of every alumnus in a few mouths might be found on the first leaf of a good book in the library. 241 books have been donated and a special request is made that each one who has not donated a book will do so by sending $1.25 to our treasurer, Rollie W. Ley. Surely, this request should receive a prompt acceptance. The hope was expressed that all would become subscribers for the Echo. Mrs. Pile spoke a few cheering words and announced that lunch would be ready in thirty minutes. Several of the faculty responded to calls for short talks: Miss Chase, Miss Kingsbury, Miss Carroll, Prof. Buchanan, Fred
Pile, Supt. Perdue and Supt. Pilger gave as words of cheer and good advice. More songs and more yells were followed with adjournment to shade trees on the campus where each was handed a neat box containing the lunch. The boxes were well filled with good things for the hungry and were nicely arranged.
Sandwiches, pickles, fruit and cake
in abundance and then came the big watermelons. Mrs. Pile superintended this part of the program.
The basket ball game was exciting on account of its closeness. The score closed 13 to 14, and all were happy. The Alumni base ball team for the first time was beaten. The score was 2 to 6 in favor of a picked college nine.

The afternoon was so warm that most of us sought the shade till near banquet time. At six o'clock, the faculty, trustees, speakers of the evening and invited guests were formed in line and moved to the gymnasium when Mrs. Pile showed them to their table. This year's classes followed and these in turn were followed by '06, '05, '04, and so on down the line. Plates were provided for 225 and all but two were taken. The menu was prepared by Mr. Whalen, of Wayne, and was all that could be desired for the occasion. Then again broke out class songs, yells, college songs and the like. The banquet was served in five courses, while the brass quartette, composed of leading members of Wayne band, furnished excellent music. Prof. Sauntry had been selected as toastmaster and acquitted himself well. The retiring president, Mr. Rahn, in a thoughtful speech welcomed the new classes, and the response was by Mary Williams of the teachers. She made a real nice response. Toasts by R. I. Elliott,
'01, Scientific; Henry Raubach, '02,
Scientific; Emma Richardson, '02,
Teachers; Carrie Mack, '03, Scientific; Jennie Vennerberg, '03, Teachers; Maud Kelley, '04, Teachers;
Eva Reed, '05, Scientific; Burrett
Wright, '06, Teachers; J. F. Power,
'06, Scientific, were the very best and if space allowed us we would be glad to give a short synopsis of each.
President Pile closed the speechmaking and with the college song, the school year closed. At ten o'clock
Mr. and Mrs. Pile cordially bid all goodbye with a handshake at the door. The retiring officers are entitled to many thanks for the great success of the day. The new officers said yes this is our "biggest day"
thus far, but next year will see a "bigger day." Let everyone plan to attend next year. Our Alumni is great and is doing great things,
school, faculty and normal friends are proud of us. Let us continue to merit this commendation. We can and will do more for our Alma Mater
which now ranks so high and is gaining in strength and popularity. Let us be loyal, ever on the alert to turn students to the N. N. C. None of us can ever repay the school for what it has done for us but we can have our names connected promi-nently with N. N. C. history. Remember next Alumni Day, August 8, 1908.
