The RACKET

Local theatre goers will no doubt be pleased to learn that the talented young actor and their fellow townsman Elwin Strong will open a three night engagement at the opera house tonight. It is hardly necessary to make any comment on Mr. Strong's ability as an actor suffice to say that for the past two seasons he has starred in Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, playing principally in the east in the larger cities. Mr. Strong has this season surrounded himself with a company of exception ability each and every member being especially selected for the parts they are to assume. The company are carrying their own splendid scenery and electrical effects so that each play presented will be a complete production. Refined Vaudeville will be introduced between the acts, doing away with tedious waits. The following plays have been selected for this engagement tonight. The beautiful four act comedy drama "The Night Before Christmas." Friday night—the four act rural drama, "Driven From Home." Saturday night: The great play and Mr. Strong's masterpiece, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

HORSE THIEVES SUCCESSFUL WORK

Four Horses and a Spring Wagon Stolen from Clan Norton Farm Saturday Night

When the Clan Norton family arose Sunday morning they discovered four horses gone from their barn together with a spring wagon. Every indication pointed to midnight marauders, and Mr. Norton immediately notified the neighborhood as well as Sheriff Mears of his visit by horse thieves. By the use of the telephones, the news was spread in every direction, and the Wayne county Live Stock Protective Association, of which Mr. Norton is a member, soon had printed descriptions of the property in the mails. Mr. W. H. Gildersleeve is secretary of the Wayne county anti-horse-theft association, and a reward of $650 is offered for the thieves and property. Of the reward $500 is offered by the association, $100 by the owner and $50 by the county. This is the first theft to affect the Wayne county association. The four horses stolen were black. One was a gelding weighing 1,000 pounds, one was a gelding weighing 1,200, and two mares weighing about 1,100 pounds each. One mare has a white foot, the other has both hind feet white. The small gelding has a lump on the right ankle, is a kind family horse and will single foot some. Three of the horses have their foretops clipped. The spring wagon was heavy and covered with mud. The harness has three tugs spliced on the ends. One was an old bridle, one a new.

BRYAN SPEAKS IN WAYNE

Democracy's Leader Talks Politics to a Monster Crowd at the Opera House.

The democrats had good reasons for bolstering up an enthusiasm for election day, because of W. J. Bryan's coming to Wayne. The great Nebraskan was certainly greeted by a big crowd Friday evening, when he appeared at the opera house. Never before has the building contained so many and half of the people were turned away. Bryan at least, is certainly a drawing card. A special train from up the branch was loaded to the platform with those who come to hear him. His address was purely political and of course there is quite a difference of opinion as to its merits.

Chance to Write for the Paper

Who has not at times had ideas which he or she would like to see in some newspaper? Many a good thought has slumbered in the brain of the thinker because of the difficulties and rebuffs which are always supposed to lie in the path to the editorial sanctum. THE CHICAGO RECORD-HERALD, however welcomes such ideas and has a page in its Sunday issue called "The Battle Ground of Modern Thought," which is devoted exclusively to letters from its readers. The best articles received each week are carefully edited and printed over the writers names. The amount of really valuable matter that finds its way into the department is remarkable and is proof that the ability to write well and entertainingly is not confined to professional writers. The only restriction The Record-Herald puts upon writers for this interesting page is that articles must be of a controversial nature and devoted to the discussion of some current topic.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last two years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies by constantly failing to cure by local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. Why Colds are Dangerous.
 Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in the common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of germs that would not otherwise find lodgement. It is the same with all infectious diseases. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles, and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale at Raymond's Drug Store.

A Cut Rate Price.

This is the first campaign in Nebraska in which political bosses cut no figure. The people will nominate the candidates and afterwards elect them. You are one of the people and should take an active interest in these primaries and elections hereafter. Politics from now on means a square deal for the masses, lower passenger rates, lower freight rates, less extortion by trusts and combinations. These things can only be accomplished by every honest voter making it a part of his business. The people can only know what is really going on by reading the newspapers. But you ought to read a newspaper that can print the truth about all the candidates; a paper that has no self-interest in politics; whose owners are not office-holders or office-seekers. The publishers think the State Journal is such a paper and in order to prove it to you make the special offer of only 50 cents from now until after election; seventy-five cents if you want the Sunday also. The earlier you send in your order the more you get for your money. Lincoln is the news center.

Stomach troubles, Heart and kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc. Felber's Pharmacy.

SOCIETY GOSSIP

Last Thursday evening Misses Nettie Craven and Edith Stocking, and Mrs. Phillips, delightfully entertained about twenty-five young ladies at the Craven home. For the occasion the rooms had been profusely decorated with corn and husks, autumn leaves and jack-o-lanterns. The evening was pleasantly spent in reasonable games, feasts, and fortune telling. The most unique feature of the evening was the telling of fortunes according to the weight of the individual. To accomplish this, steelyards, to which a swing was attached had been hung from the ceiling of the basement and concealed from view by a canopy of sheets. The guests were invited one at a time to ride in the "mystic swing," and conducted by the hostess in ghostly attire, to the head of the stairs, which had been previously lined on either side with corn stalks, and bidden go down alone. At the foot of the stairs they were met by another "ghost" in the dimly lighted room, who in sepulchral tones repeated an incantation in rhyme, while the victim was swinging and her weight was being found and recorded by an unseen accomplice behind the curtain. When all had been weighed the company assembled in the parlors where the fortunes were read. Seasonable refreshments were then served and followed by several musical selections. Miss Mae Cunningham favoring the company with a few solos, rendered in her usual delightful manner. At a late hour the company dispersed voting this one of the most pleasant events of the season.

The Monday club met with Mrs. C. A. Chace this week. Mrs. Kate gave an interesting paper on the subject: "Some Comparative, Physical Geography." Mrs. E. Cunningham will entertain the Club next Monday afternoon.

The ladies of the U. D. tendered their husbands a social evening that was entirely in keeping with the spirit of hallowe'en. The members disguised themselves in the apparel given to apparitions, but were finally discovered by their guests, secreted in H. B. Craven's basement. Then the ghostly guides conducted the successful hunters to the C. H. Fisher home, where dancing and other forms of amusements were indulged in. An elegant two course luncheon was served.

The Shakespear Club postponed their meeting for this week on account of the reception at the parsonage. They meet next week with Misses Manning and Wallace.

Miss Nellie Strickland nicely entertained the girls of the tenth grade on last Thursday evening. A jolly time is reported and excellent refreshments served.

Mrs. J. Woodward Jones was hostess to the U. D. Club Tuesday. Last week's program was carried out, and the history lesson for this week was read by Mrs. Harry Jones, and Mesdames Ringland, Hufford, and Wilbur read papers of three minutes duration. The hostess served dainty refreshments. The club meets with Mrs. Miller next week.

The members of the Presbyterian church with their friends were tendered a reception at the parsonage Tuesday evening by Rev. and Mrs. T. C. Osborne. It was the first time the parsonage had been opened for inspection and it proved a happy occasion continuing from seven to nine o'clock. Light refreshments were served.

The Eastern Star hold a special business session this evening.

Paul Harrington was given a party by his parents last evening, when eight young men assisted in celebrating his birthday.

Mrs. J. G. Mines as hostess received the Acme Ladies in regular session on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Bartlett was leader. Quotations were those form noted people of the month's lesson. Mrs. H. F. Wilson and Mrs. Parker Smith were readers of "English Stories". The Club voted to invest the proceeds of its recent public supper, in books for the library. This will be done at once.

All the weird and uncanny practices associated with the origin of Hallowe'en received exemplification at the hands of the Monday club members on Thursday evening. The Northrop home was the scene of revelry, and where sombre forms did stalk by night. The "witches" had sent invitations to the "pumpkin heads" as a return for favors tendered by the latter on last Hallowe'en. The invitations were artistically designed by Mrs. Kate. The guests were met at the door by guides in ghostly garb who directed them to the cellar way on the outside. Thru dark passages they wended their way into a "land of ghosts" where moans and spooky noises were heard. All halted at the throne of the "Queen Apparition" whose long boney arms and tall uncanny form sent thrills of fear thru the victim's frame, as he was mysteriously caught in a net which was lowered from the ceiling. The captives were then taken into another room where stood a seething caldron and around it witches, chaunting the words from Macbeth of: "Bibble, bubble, toil and trouble" etc. Each dip in the caldron gave a record in verse of the victim's future, which proved poems for their affinity. The initiatory degree was then given the candidates for witches club, in which the future was revealed in momentary glimpses. The last of the initiation was the grip, administered in a dark closet in the way of the clammy grasp of a cold, rubber glove. Other games were in the spirit of the occasion, and a sumptuous luncheon in three courses was served, and the evening stands in memory both fearful and delightful to recall.

Mrs. Walters assisted by Mrs. Karo, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Hunter gave an owl party at her residence Thursday evening for the Degree of Honor people, which was largely attended. The evening was pleasantly passed in games assisted by some splendid music furnished by some of the order. In solving the mysteries of the owl puzzles Miss Ethel Juhlin and F. A. Berry carried off first honors and Mrs. Berry and H. E. Griggs were awarded the booby prizes. Mrs. Walters and her assistants proved themselves good entertainers as well as good judges of what it takes to satisfy the appetites of a hungry crowd.

A crowd of about sixty merry makers gathered at the home of Miss Ethel Huff last Friday evening where a Hallowe'en party was given by the Baptist Young People. The object of the social was that each member of the society earn a dollar in any way that they could be contributed to a building fund. Some earned their dollar by washing dishes, some by selling candy; One young lady entertained a young man by giving him a piano musical for which he gladly gave a dollar and no doubt would have given five had she asked it. One lady told how she had spent three years of married felicity but who at times had delt so harshly with her husband that even at this late month of November the flies are using his bald pate for a skating rink, earned her dollar by experimenting upon her husband's head with Doan's Liver Complaint and Dr. King's Medical Discovery until she shot his hair would come out all right. The house was decorated in festoons of tinsel and pumpkin colored butterflies and flying bats. The guests were received in the basement by several weird ghosts with guttural salutations and cold clammy hand shakes. The basement was dimly lighted with Jaak-o-lanterns and everything seemed to give evidence of the time when the frost is on the pumpkin and the fadders in the shock "In one room was exhibited the Australian monkey in which every one present thought they could see a resemblance to some of their ancestors. The little African dwarf only twenty-eight inches tall, caused a lot amusement. Participants were selected for refreshments by matching verses which were written on pumpkin shaped cards. The company went home feeling that the evening had been well spent in a financial as well as a social way, having netted $30.00 to the treasury.

Mrs. Frank Owen is reported quite ill.

LAND! LAND! LAND!

Land that grows 15 to 25 tons of sugar beets to the acre, 200 to 400 bushels of potatoes, 40 to 100 bushels of oats, 25 to 60 bushels of corn to the acre, and all kinds of fruit, berries and melons in abundance. Rich, virgin soil, that grows immense crops like magic, when the water that the U. S. government provides at cost is flowed upon it. There is no such thing as crop failure under irrigation. The farmer plants his crop and absolutely controls the amount of water his crops need at exactly the proper time, and he can grow more profitable crops than he can grow in any natural rainfall country. Such as sugar beets and alfalfa. Government statistics show that irrigated land will produce from one-third to one-half more crops than any natural rainfall country. Officials of the U. S. Reclamation Service say that the North Platte project, which will irrigate the land we are selling, is best adapted to irrigation of any land in the country, and the supply of water is unlimited.

RENTERS. Why pay from $3 to $10 an acre rent for land when you can get 160 acres of fine irrigated land for about the same money you are paying for one year's rent of an eastern farm?

COME TO THE NEW LAND and own a fine farm that will grow larger crops than the high-priced land you are renting. Uncle Sam will supply you with water to irrigate 160 acres of the most productive land in the country at cost. I can secure you a fine 160 acre, irrigable farm for from $1 to $5 per acre.

DON'T WAIT! It won't last long. Thousands of people are flocking to this country, and the sooner you come the better bargain I can get you. Don't waste your life renting somebody else's farm at a high price. Come to the rich and fertile North Platte Valley, and make a home and fortune for yourself and family. Don't neglect this splendid opportunity. There's big money in it. This land that you can now secure for practically nothing, will be worth from $100 to $300 per acre as soon as irrigated and improved. It is better land than Colorado land, that is now selling for as much. You can hire all the work done on sugar beets for $45 an acre, and at the average yield of 20 tons an acre, you can clear $55 an acre and do no work on it yourself.

FARM OWNERS. Why farm $100 eastern land when you can buy irrigated land here for from one-tenth to one-fourth the money, and get land that will produce larger crops and increase rapidly in value? Sell out and come to the rich North Platte Valley. We are not pioneering. There are no hardships in this country—towns, railroads, schools and churches are close at hand. The Platte Valley is centrally located and convenient to all markets. Railroad communications are unexcelled to all good shipping points. All kinds of produce, cattle, hogs and sheep command a high price. The Burlington R. R. now runs through the valley and the Union Pacific is rapidly pushing work on a through line to the coast, which line also runs through the valley. Thousands and thousands of tons of hay are cut in the river bottoms every year.

INVESTORS: We can sell you deeded land that is increasing rapidly in value and will continue to increase in value for years to come. Irrigated land is not subject to the depression in land values that always go with a period of crop failures in any natural rainfall country. No matter what the weather you can grow a crop every year under irrigation. I control the sale of thousands of acres of irrigated and dry lands, hay land and ranches. I can secure you any kind of land at a price that will make money quickly for you.

WRITE TO-DAY FOR FURTHER INFORMATION. Local real estate dealers correspond. We can make some money for you.

Catalogue Concern is Fined

An inspector representing the Food and dairy department of Minnesota recently tied up a shipment of goods from a Chicago catalogue concern. Investigation disclosed that of eighty-two samples taken from one shipment, only two complied with the Minnesota food laws. Reports state that every one of the eighty packages was discovered to be short weight.

Coffee marked fifteen pounds weighed thirteen pounds eight ounces, and so on throughout the list of spices, rice, etc. According to a report the coffee was adulterated with roasted beans, spices were adulterated, and a sample of blackberry cordial contained salicylic acid and coal tar dye.

The catalogue concern in question pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and costs.—Criterion.

The horse theft near Wayne on Saturday evening brought Sheriff Grant S. Mears of Wayne county, C. T. Norton, from whose farm the horses were stolen, E. C. Gamble and F. H. Benshoff of Wayne to Norfolk over night. The thieves, Sheriff Mears said, had been followed to near Winside, it being possible to trace the horses through a peculiar shoe on one of the animals. Sheriff Mears met Sheriff Clements in Norfolk by appointment to enlist the Madison county sheriff's aid in watching this county in case the horse thieves were making their escape in this direction.—Norfolk News.

Chas. Robbins goes back to Carroll into the mercantile business and at his old stand, having bot out the Beebe & Johnson store. The deal was closed some ten days ago but was kept under cover until after election. Outside of Wayne, this mercantile establishment at Carroll is recognized as one of the best in the county and Mr. Robbins is certainly to be congratulated on getting possession of the store again. Mr. Robbins started the store nearly six years ago but on account of his wife's failing health sold out to Brown & Beebe. The firm has changed in name twice since, the last title to the business being Beebe & Johnson. Both members of the retiring firm returned to Wayne to live. Mr. Beebe to take up the duties of county treasurer Jan. 1st. Mr. J. W. Johnson will assume an active part in the furniture store of Johnson, Fleetwood & Johnson.

The Store For Ladies' Coats

New Store

You Are--- All Confused

You want a late style.
You want that style to become you.
You want good cloth and good trimmings.

And you dislike to spend more money than is necessary.
The perplexing question is: Where to find the coat that will meet all requirements?

R The Remedy. First of all, come to this store where handling ladies' coats is a specialty. Here you will find the largest and finest stock to select from. Every new style, every price, every size and every color is well represented--this is by far the largest and finest stock of coats in Wayne County.

C Then try on the different coats until you find a style that becomes you. Perhaps the semi-fitted coat will be most becoming to you; the short furette jackets may be just the garment you like; or the long, loose coats may suit you best. The only way to tell is to try them on, and you are very welcome to that privilege here.

C Having found a style that suits you perfectly you can take up the matter of price. You can hang the $10 coat, the $15 coat and the $25 coat side by side and compare the cloth, the trimmings and the workmanship at your leisure. With such a large stock of coats as we carry you will find the task of getting a coat to suit you, at a price to please you, a comparatively easy matter.

C Remember---You won't be urged to buy. You are welcome to come as often as you like until you have settled on the coat that answers all requirements. I have by far the largest and finest display of ladies' and children's coats in the county. I am making a specialty of handling ladies' coats and have devoted the best lighted and most prominent place in my new store just to coats. No matter what price you wish to pay, I can show you plenty of coats at that price. If you have only $7.50 to $10 for a coat I can show you a good line. At $12 to $15 there are dozens of stylish coats--many of them full satin lined. The very finest coats are priced at $18 to $25 and there are many styles to select from. By all means visit my coat department when looking for your coat. With such a big variety to select from, a well lighted room to examine then in and no one to hurry or urge you, you will find coat buying at this store a satisfaction and a pleasure.

Wm. Kreidler and Wm. Page have bought farms three miles south east of Wisner, each buying 80 acres, Mr. Page gave $75 per acre and Mr. Kreidler $72.50. We are sorry to loose them from our community. Pilger's loss will be Wisner's gain... Two new patrons on the Pilger Mail Route, Frank Ackles moved on the place in edge of Wayne county recently vacated by Peter Anderson and Mr. Crowley from the south western part of the state has moved on the place vacated by Melvin Ellis... J. R. Chace went to Omaha Monday morning on business connected with the M. E. Hospital. It will be remembered that a year ago he gave over one thousand to this institution. In return the authorities set aside a room in remembrance of Mrs. Chace who was a patient of that institution for some time. Now Mr. Chace has gone down to furnish this room with everything that is necessary for the welfare and comfort of the patients.—Pilger Herald.

REPUBLICANS WIN!

A Decisive Victory in The State and County

Reese over Loomis for Supreme Judge by nearly 20,000.

Republican Regents of the University and for Railroad Commissioners are easily winners.

Chas. Beebe for County Treasurer and Geo. Farran for Commissioner are Victors by safe Majorities.

Clerk of the Courts, B. F. Feather, Sheriff Mears and Superintendent Littell, are given another extension of their official terms.

Surveyor Jones and Coroner Williams also retained, while A. T. Witter is given a close race by his democratic opponent, Henry Klopping.

Growing Less Attractive

"The vocation of the professional politician is disappearing," says Ross Hammond and the number of seekers for political preferment is growing steadily smaller. The popular disfavor in which the former is coming to be held gives him little chance to win advantage, and the multiplicity of opportunities in lines of endeavor more pleasant and profitable than dependence on politics, has made office-seeking less attractive or desirable. It is when times are hard and business advantages minimized that men in larger numbers feel the impulse to try a chance in the lottery for places at the public crib.

Office-holding is not permanently helpful. It often develops an annoying itch to hang on through fear of possible failure at something else. It often makes a man so selfish that he becomes an ingrate. He is apt to be tempted to use his friends, and, when triumphant, forget them in the vain-glorious conceit that his magnetic personality and eminent qualifications could not be resisted by the masses who want perfection in office. Self-anointed, and self-crowned, encircled by a halo snatched from his own imagination, he roasts on his little throne, perhaps tossing bouquets at his own greatness until he finds another boost, and then he crawls down and seeks to supplement his popularity, which, though not likely necessary, is the safest way to do and only costs a few passing spasms of affability.

A man who thus farms the public by office-holding has periods of being ultra-genial, and it cannot be expected that such periods will be permanent. He necessarily goes to extremes. He couldn't stand the strain of knowing all the time, and people look for too much when they expect him to do it. His plight is not a happy one, and deserves commiseration rather than adverse criticism.

If in his political aspiration he is disappointed, as he surely will be sooner or later, he is bewildered in figuring out what to do. An individual at the state capital once said that he had held office by appointment so long that when he was out he was unable to turn attention to anything else. He had lost touch with the affairs of the world, was not adapted to doing business and therefore was simply helplessly hanging around.

Thus, it is not wise to look on office holding as a desirable or profitable venture. It often unfits one for something better, and is seldom other than a hinderance to building up broad and noble character.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Sutton of Bloomfield was a Wayne visitor Friday.

Mrs. C. E. Cunningham returned from Iowa Friday morning.

Mrs. H. W. Roland was a visitor in Wayne from Saturday to Monday from Boyd county.

Mrs. E. B. Young is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Anderson, from Peoria, Ill. She will remain a month or two.

Friends received word on last Friday that Gus Bonhert and family had safely arrived in England, the children were sick for four days, aside from that, they experienced a pleasant trip.

Miss Johanna Ahern was a visitor in Wayne several days the past week, and a guest at the home of her brother Jas. Ahern. She is on her way to New Mexico and stopped over enroute.

Fisher & Sellers have bot the corner lot of Geo. Stringer, located west of the latter's blacksmith shop and will commence the erection of a feed mill. The structure is to be 28x40 feet and two stories. They expect to have it completed within thirty days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. James left for Duluth, Minn., last Monday. Duluth will be their home hereafter and Mr. James will go into the real estate business. Their removal from Wayne is a loss to the community, but the best wishes of friends go with them to their northern home.

A. W. Fnrchner a former Wayne boy will play base ball with Eau Claire, Wis., next year. Both Sioux City and Eau Claire claimed Fnrchner and it required the national board of national association of professional base ball at a recent meeting in New York City to decide where he would play and Eau Claire won it.

J. Adam Bede, a Minnesota Congressman will give his lecture entitled: "Our Nation: Its Problems and Progress" at the opera house on next Wednesday evening, Nov. 13. This is the strongest and highest priced number of the course. Sober, serious that is entertaining when embellished with wit and humor. Congressman Bede has a national reputation as a professional fun maker.

"My Boy Jack" drew a big crowd and proved a most satisfactory production to Wayne theatre goers, last Thursday evening at the opera house. Eugene Moore and his company travel under direction of Fred G. Conrad, and Mr. Conrad's management is a guarantee of quality and satisfaction. The return of any of his companies to Wayne is in itself assurance of a liberal patronage.

The Creighton Liberal has added a Simplex type-setting machine to its equipment and the general neatness of brother Green's paper is improved with a new dress. The Liberal has been printed all at home for some time, and the policy is evidently a winner. With a type-setting machine, Editor Green is entirely independent of the ready print trust, and his paper is one of the few in the state that has a distinctive personality.

J. F. Hansen has sold the Central meat market to Roe & Fortner and possession was given yesterday. The new proprietors will consolidate the business with their own and the stock has already been moved to their market on second street, opposite the post office. Mr. Hansen traded for the shop about two months ago, but on account of extensive business interests at Nelegh, Nebr. he has been anxious to dispose of it. With the idea that two meat markets are enough to meet all demands in Wayne, the business was taken over by Roe & Fortner. Mr. Hansen has shown himself to be a progressive and enterprising business man during his short stay in Wayne; the kind a live town needs. The change in business will leave the Main street building vacant, but it is generally conceded the structure has served its purpose as it has been used as a butcher shop from a time out of memory of the earliest inhabitant.

Christmas Presents.

Every year Photos are becoming more popular for Christmas presents. But nearly everybody puts off having them taken until about the last week and then we have more than we can do.

In order to induce people to come in early, we will give fifteen photos for the price of a dozen to every one who orders before Dec. 15.

Remember, the days are getting short so come in early in the day if possible.

EYE WINKS.

They Occur on an Average Twenty Times a Minute.

The average person winks his eyes every three seconds—that is to say, twenty times a minute, or 1,200 times in an hour. This means that an ordinary day's work for a pair of eyelids is from 13,000 to 20,000 winks.

A wink is accomplished in about one-fiftieth of a second, so quickly that, as anybody may observe for himself, it does not in the slightest degree interrupt continuous vision. But the notion that winking is intended by nature to give repose to the eyes is a mistake, the object of it being merely to keep the surface of the sensitive little organs constantly moist. The moisture, which is necessary for the health of the eyes, is supplied, of course, by the tears.

For this purpose—that is to say, to keep the eyes continually bathed—considerable quantities of salty water are secreted. The water is flowing all the time and would pour out over the edges of the eyelids were it not for an oil which is furnished to prevent this. This oil is secreted and supplied by little glands along the rims of the lids. There is also a tear duct, which carries off the superfluous water and gets rid of it.

The mouth of the tear duct is plainly visible on the edge of the lower eyelid near the inner corner of the eye. It is a small pipe, which leads down into the throat, so that when one puts into the eyes anything with a pronounced taste, like cocaine, the flavor of it is presently distinguishable in the mouth.

The eyelids, if closed, are absolutely water tight. They do not exclude light, however, nearly so well as most people suppose.—Saturday Evening Post.

Safe and Swift.

The pupils in No. 3 school in Bushby knew that whenever Mr. Lamson paid them a visit there was one question he was sure to ask, and their answer was always ready. The other selectmen might propound geographical or arithmetical puzzles, but not Mr. Lamson, chief of Bushby's fire brigade.

It was the closing day of school, and the children, having listened to three addresses with drowsy patience, were glad when Mr. Lamson rose to conclude the exercises.

"Now, children," he said cheerfully, "you have listened most attentively to the words of Mr. Howe, Mr. Gray and Mr. Ranlett. I wonder what you would do if I made you a little speech?"

The shift from the usual question was so unexpected that the children answered before they had time to catch themselves.

"Form in line and march quietly out of the building!" they cried in prompt and joyful chorus.

Bitter Wit.

Samuel Rogers, the banker poet, was noted for his bitter wit, for which, however, he had an excuse. "They tell me I say ill natured things," he once observed in his slow, quiet, deliberate way. "I have a very weak voice. If I did not say ill natured things no one would hear what I said."

It was owing to this weakness of voice that no candles were put on his dinner table, for glare and noise go together, and dimness subdues the voices in conversation as a handkerchief thrown over the cage of a canary subdues its song. The light was thrown upon the walls and pictures and shaded from the room. This did not suit Sydney Smith, who said that a dinner in St. James' place was "a flood of light on all above, and below nothing but darkness and gnashing of teeth."

His Opportunity.

A Buffalo physician tells of two young friends in that city who entered simultaneously upon their respective careers of physician and lawyer. Late one afternoon the newly made medico dashed into the room of his legal friend, exclaiming: "Great luck, old man! Congratulate me! Got a patient at last! On my way to see him now!" Whereupon the legal light to be slapped his friend on the back, saying, "Delighted, old chap!" Then, after a slight pause, he added, with a sly grin: "Say, let me go with you! Perhaps he hasn't made his will!"

Too Generous.

A lady traveling as a first class passenger was much distressed by the plight of her valuable young collie, which at Preston station fell between the footboard of the train and the platform. She appealed to a porter to save it, and the man crawled underneath the carriage and dragged the animal out, although the dog bit his hand several times. Having got her pet safely in her compartment, the lady rewarded the man who had rescued it from almost certain death with a threepenny bit. — St. James' Gazette.

Norfolk, Neb., Nov. 5.—Brought into police court with his wife this afternoon to answer to a charge of disorderly conduct, Attorney H. F. Barnhart, under the influence of liquor, attacked Police Judge Eisby with a chair and demolished police court furniture. He also made for Chief of Police Flynn with a poker. Two policeman subdued the attorney with clubs and a physician was summoned to the city jail to dress the wounds, streams of blood marking spots affected by the clubs. Barnhart was brought into court on complaints filed against him as the result of a family row. Barnhart became violent and attacked the judge with a chair. Mrs. Barnhardt stepped into the court room and also became a target. Barnhardt soon had the court room cleared and sent chair after chair crashing against the door and walls. The dis-

Items of Interest to Our Country Readers and Those of Nearby Towns

Winside News

From the Tribune)

Lorin Washburn is here from North Dakota.

H. I. Miller and O. O. Miller of Crofton were in Winside over the Sabbath.

Misses Gertie Bayes and Minnie McAdams were a Sioux City visitors Saturday.

Mrs. A. P. Chapin and daughter visited in Sioux City Friday until Sunday evening.

The annual convention of Wayne county Sunday schools will be held in Winside next year.

Mrs. W. H. McClusky and Harry arrived yesterday from North Dakota to spend the winter in Winside.

Mrs. John Wolf, of Bladen, Nebr., arrived here Sunday afternoon. Called there by the death of her father, John Miller.

Henry Miller arrived from Washington Sunday afternoon and received a hearty welcome from his relatives and friends.

The Harmony Hill box supper was a good success, fine program rendered and a big crowd. The boxes sold well all the way from one dollar to three, the proceeds amounting to $36. They are to be used for fixtures for the school house.

Some excitement was caused in Winside last week by the presence of the sheriff and county attorney a couple of days, and the arrest of a young man of the town, through the instigation of a girl who resides here, but the Tribune is not going into details of the disgusting affair.

Mrs. Frank Perrin had an old fashioned carpet rag bee Tuesday afternoon, her sister Mrs. Keifer of Missouri, being the guest of honor. Royal Neighbors and near neighbors to the number of about twenty-five were invited, and all gave evidence of having enjoyed themselves. A delicious lunch was served, such as Mrs. Perrin is famous for preparing.

The Tribune understands that steps have been taken towards building an addition to the Methodist parsonage. This improvement is very much needed, for the parsonage is really too small for the pastor and his family. The contemplated addition will consist of a large kitchen and one or two bed-rooms. We hope to see the plans carried out.

Sam Reichert went over to Humphrey last Saturday, in response to a telegram from his mother who had missed the train and was stranded there, and they both returned Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Reichert has been away several weeks visiting at Lincoln and Albion, and her trip home was a rather difficult one on account of the poor train connections. But she arrived safely at last, much to the joy of Sam who has been keeping bachelors hall.

A sheet of copy got mislaid last week and we did not discover the loss until the paper was printed. Among the items was one about Grandpa Templeton suffering a stroke of paralysis the Friday before. The old gentleman is better, yet he is very feeble. He has to use a crutch to get around at all and a few days before his last sickness, he received a bad fall. He is about ninety years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Bleich met with an accident while out driving Sunday afternoon. A dog ran out and frightened their pony and in less than no time scarcely, the little fellow was tangled up in the harness and the buggy caught by a telephone pole. The occupants of the buggy were dumped out but fortunately not hurt. The only damage done was the breaking of the dashboard. We suggest that Mr. Bleich lift the diminutive horse into the buggy the next time a dog runs out at them when they are driving.

At the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. H. Carter, on Saturday morning at 1 o'clock occurred the death of John Miller, aged 81 years. Mr. Miller's home was at Malvern, Iowa, but he came here during the summer to visit his daughter. His illness extends back several years, but it is not until a few weeks ago that the disease, which the doctors thought was caused by a cancerous growth in the bowels, developed seriously. The remains were taken to Malvern Monday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Carter, his daughter May Miller and Mrs. John Wolf, O. O.

Miller, H. I. Miller, and E. N. Hills, nephew of the deceased. The funeral services were held from the M. E. church at Melvern Tuesday morning, and he was laid to rest beside his wife, whose death preceded his some ten years ago. The Tribune extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Sholes Items.

E. W. Closson was an Omaha visitor last Friday.

Sholes sent quite a delegation to Wayne Friday night to hear the great Commoner.

The Ladies Aid Society served dinner on election day and were favored with a good patronage.

M. S. Moats was in Iowa last week attending a sale of thorough bred hogs. Mr. Moats is still increasing and improving his herd of Durocs.

Charley Carroll has furnished the house lately vacated by M. Fritzon and will move into it at once. This looks somewhat suspicious, Charley.

Rev. Smith of Belden was in Sholes Sunday and delivered a very able sermon to a highly appreciative audience. Services will be held each alternate Sunday at 11 o'clock throughout the year.

The Sholes schools closed last Friday for a few weeks vacation. As nearly all the pupils are country children, this will give the older ones a chance to assist in the corn gathering. The winter term will perhaps not open until the new building is ready for occupancy.

Last Thursday night being Halloween, the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Moats was a scene of jollity and merriment in celebration of the event. At eight o'clock the guests began to arrive and were met at the outer door by a hideous spirit which seized each one with its long hand but said never a word. Near the stair was a similar spirit which with its skinny fingers, directed the ladies and gentlemen into their respective rooms. Other apparitions were visible, engaged in various pursuits, and after being assured that they were harmless the guests retired into the drawing room where two hours were spent in playing games, reading fortunes and telling ghost stories. At 12 o'clock the ghosts became real flesh and blood and a sumptuous dinner was served. After another two hours spent in pleasing recreation, the guests feeling that the outside spirits must have ceased their rambles, departed to their respective homes declaring that they had never spent a pleasanter evening and wishing that Halloween might come more frequently.

SWIFT ANIMALS.

A Comparison of the Speed of the Fastest Runners.

The speed of the coyote is great and has often been the subject of comment, but I think it has been overrated, says Ernest Thompson Seton in Success. After collecting data of various kinds, such as actual known records of dogs and horses, also the comparative records of dogs and hares, of horses and foxes and wolves and hounds and automobiles, I have attempted a scale of comparative speeds:

Blonded race horse covers a mile in about.....	1 m. 40 s.
Prong horned antelope.....	1 m. 50 s.
First class greyhound.....	2 m. 0 s.
Jack rabbit.....	2 m. 10 s.
Common fox.....	2 m. 20 s.
Northern coyote.....	2 m. 30 s.
Foxhound.....	2 m. 40 s.
American gray wolf.....	3 m. 0 s.

Many hunters would set the kit fox or swift above the greyhound, especially for a short race, but I have had no personal experience with the species in a chase. The little prairie cottontail can, I believe, get away from the swift in a hundred yard dash. They cannot keep it up for long, but their initial velocity is incredible and baffles the eye. Not a leg, not a rabbit is to be seen—nothing but a white streak across the prairie, till it promptly disappears in some burrow.

What actually counts in the race is, as usual, the trifle more speed that each animal can command.

For example, the gray wolf makes 650 yards to the minute and the coyote about 700. But the fifty yards make all the difference between living and dying. That fifty yards' margin is probably the foothold on which the whole coyote race has been built up.

It is a well known principle that the special development of an animal is its most variable part. Thus the peculiar bell in the throat of a moose varies enormously, the bill of the long billed curlew, the neck feather of the ruff, the spots of the ocelot, the white bands of the skunk, the horns of the elk, are so varied that rarely two are found just alike. Speed is one of the peculiarities of the coyote, as it is of the greyhound, and we must therefore look for great variations of rate. I have selected an average for my calculations, but there are occasional individuals, coyotes of rare gifts, whose speed and endurance would put them very near the top of our scale.

At an Evening Party.

It is scarcely to be wondered at that the ambitions of the amateur vocalist generally wither up like summer flowers in wintry blasts. That is Jenkins' opinion, and the reason thereof is because a little while ago he was requested to sing at a house where the oldest daughter was slowly recovering from a nervous breakdown. The invalid was the only one present who could play, and Jenkins trolled forth Tosti's "Goodbye" with all the requisite sadness and final impassioned fervor.

He finished. There was a little rustle of applause, and her mother's voice filled the awkward pause.

"There," she said, "that shows Gertie's getting better. Three months ago she'd never have been able to stand that right in her ear hole, as you might say."—London Answers.

Getting an Extra Ration.

Medical Officer (going his rounds)—Well, Murphy, how are you this morning?

Private M.—Much better, sir.

M. O.—Is your appetite good?

Private M.—Yes, sir.

M. O.—Are you getting enough to eat?

Private M.—No, sir.

M. O.—What would you like in addition to your present diet?

Private M.—Another pound of bread, sir.

M. O.—That I cannot give you, as the regulations do not admit of a soldier receiving a double ration of bread in one day.

Private M. (after a moment's hesitation)—Could you not let me have the extra pound and mark it down as bread poultice?

He got it.—London Telegraph.

The Gypsies.

Gypsies first appeared in Europe about 600 years ago. They were supposed to have come from Egypt and were called Egyptians, from which fact comes their name. Now it has been proved conclusively from their peculiar language that they actually came from northern India. They first appeared in Turkey and Greece, later finding their way into the Balkan states and Hungary. From these latter countries they spread throughout Europe. Small and dark, nomadic in their habits and many of them "pettily theftuous," to quote Robert Louis Stevenson, they have never amalgamated with the people among whom they dwell. However, they are credited with many good qualities by persons who have studied their sympathetically.—London News.

Political Defeat

The one unpleasant feature in politics, is that some have to be defeated. It is a business where they can not all succeed. There are no doubt some people who were not satisfied with the way election turned out, but all true American citizens should find no fault when a majority of the people decides who shall fill the offices.

Now, it is just the same in business as it is in politics, all business men do not succeed, as the methods they use in conducting their business do not suit the people. There are no doubt some business men in Wayne Co. who do not like our methods of clothing the majority of Men and Boy's of Wayne Co. But our methods suit a large majority of the Men and Boy's of Wayne Co. And we are therefore satisfied that our business methods are right, and that our

Business Success

Is due to the fact, that articles in our store are first bought right (which takes years of experience) then it is priced right to our customers, you will never find an article in our store marked $1.98 when it is worth only $1.75 and our cast iron rule of one price to all, suits a majority of the people of Wayne Co. The lines of goods which we sell are the best in the country. This is just the time of year to buy our pure gum Snag-Proof overshoes, as one pair will last you all winter. They cost a little more than the ordinary kind, but will out wear two pair of any other make. They are Pure Gum, and this is the only store in Wayne where the genuine Snag Proof rubber foot wear is sold.

If you want to enjoy good health and be comfortable during the cold winter months, now is the time to prepare for it. And comfortable living in cold weather is best obtained in a suit of Staley underwear, besides good health and comfort. There is no ripping no tearing, it stays as it's made. You will find our line of Duck coats the best in town. They are made full length, 32 to 34 inches long, and the weight of the duck will be just what we tell you it is, and we sell duck coats 10 per cent cheaper than any other store in Wayne. You will make a mistake if you buy an over coat or a fur coat before you first look over our line, as there is none better to be found and our prices are right.

If you were disappointed with the election returns, come to our store and let us clothe you, it will sooth the pangs of disappointment, and you will be trading where a large majority of the Men and Boy's of Wayne trade.

We are certainly excelling ourselves and everybody else in the present quality of Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee.

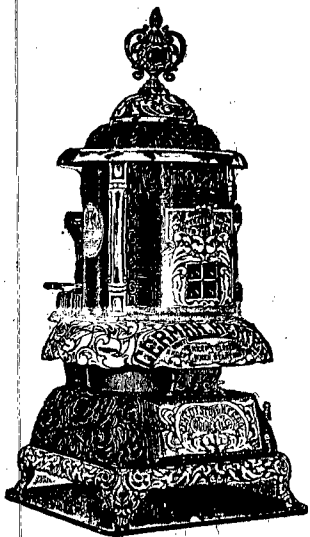

No such quality of coffee can be sold out of a bag, bin or tin, or under any other name by anybody in this town, for anything near the same price.

That's a strong statement, but you can take our word for it, and we are the largest dealers in coffee in the world. Another thing—the egg coating on ARIOSA COFFEE does not improve its appearance but preserves the flavor and aroma.

Remember that ARIOSA is not sold to look at, but to drink.

$100 Reward $100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength, by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Sold by Druggist, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Heaven help the man who imagines he can dodge enemies by trying to please everybody! If such an individual ever succeeds, pass him, over this way that we may have a look at his mortal remains ere he vanishes away, for surely this earth cannot be his abiding place. Now we do not infer that one should be going through this world trying to find beams to knock and thump his head against, disputing every man's opinion, fighting and elbowing and crowding all who differ with him. That, again is another extreme. Other people have this opinions, so have you. Don't fall into the error of supposing they will respect you more for turning your coat every day, to match the color of theirs. Wear your own clothes in spite of wind and weather, storms and sunshine. It costs the irresolute ten times the trouble to wind and shuffle and twist than it does honest manly independence to stand.—Humphrey Democrat.

Why Colds are Dangerous

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in a common cold.

Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all infectious diseases. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlin's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a staple article of trade over a large part of the world. For sale by Raymond's Drug Store.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctors use, "The Sacred Herb". Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Felber's Pharmacy.

Even after a man has "eaten his words" he may gag at swallowing his indignation.

A man's "judgement" can't always keep him from picking a winner at the races.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he unknowingly drink it for Coffee. Sold by Ralph Rundell.

WOMAN'S WOES.

Wayne Women are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity, they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop means torture. They must walk and bend over their work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys.

Mrs. J. D. Spencer, living in Wakefield, Nebr., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble and rheumatism for many years. I had severe pains across my back which were always particularly severe if I was on my feet for any length of time. My kidneys were in a bad shape and some days the secretions would be excessive in passage, while at other times they would be very scanty and highly colored. I tried many different medicines but received more relief from Doan's Kidney Pills than any other remedy previously used. Doan's Kidney Pills, in my estimation is a positive cure for kidney troubles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agent for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Notice.

I invite all brother farmers to come and inspect my Poland China hogs and at least some of them. Do not wait until you get the money, a bankable note is just as good to me as the cash. A Cut Rate Price.

This is the first campaign in Nebraska in which political bosses cut no figure. The people will nominate the candidates and afterwards elect them. You are one of the people and should take an active interest in these primaries and elections hereafter. Politics from now on means a square deal for the masses, lower passenger rates, lower freight rates, less extortion by trusts and combinations. These things can only be accomplished by every honest voter making it a part of his business. The people can only know what is really going on by reading the newspapers. But you ought to read a newspaper that can print the truth about all the candidates; a paper that has no self-interest in politics; whose owners are not office-holders or office-seekers. The publishers think The State Journal is such a paper and in order to prove it to you make the special offer of only 50 cents from now until after election; seventy-five cents if you want the Sunday also. The earlier you send in your order the more you get for your money. Lincoln is the news center.
