Demand for Wayne Flour Increasing

One of our Wayne customers stated, "I have been using Wayne Flour for seven years and as long as it remains the same will use no other." This tells the tale. Once you try you will always buy. Remember that there are only a very few al flours on the market, that are uniform in quality. Ours stands at the head. It makes the kind of bread you like to eat. One sack will wed you to it. Ask for it. It costs you $1,50 per sack for Superlative, and $1.35 per sack for Snow Flake. You can buy other flour that will cost you from 15c to 25c per sack more, but it is not as good. Why buy other flour, save your money to spend on the Glorious 4th.
