A Very Pleasant Occasion.

The Juniors Entertain the Seniors at the Country Home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gildersleeve.

About three weeks ago the class of 1910 of the Wayne High School issued about twenty-five invitations as follows: "The Class of 1910 request your presence at a banquet in honor of Class 1909, April 30th, at 7:30 p. m. at home of Cella Gildersleeve."

Last Friday evening was the time and the guests were present to enjoy the hospitality of the hour. The large and pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Gildersleeve being beautifully decorated for the occasion, three rooms with pink and white in honor of the Seniors, and one with green and gold in honor of the Juniors. The tables were set in the usual T shape and were beautifully decorated with pink and white carnations and a Candelabrum in the center.

A sumptuous four course banquet was served by Katherine Gamble and Dora Lewis, during which Richard Forbes, David Meeker James Britton, Bessie Marsteller, Ruby Hughes, Miss Page, Mr. Wilson, and Ben McEachen responded to the call of the toast master, Harry Bell, all of which were thoroughly good and enjoyable.

The rising orator, David Meeker, delivered a masterful toast on "Matches." Richard Forbes spoke on "Joys Ahead," and gave much encouragement to the Juniors. Ruby Hughes' subject was "Tales that might be told," and by this she showed what she had accomplished during four short years of High School. "Our Seniors" and "Our Juniors" were attacked by James Britton and Bessie Marsteller respectively. Mr. Wilson and Miss Page being of the faculty, of course kept on a higher level, their subjects being "Aims and Ends," and "Science." Ben McEachen delivered the final toast on "Blessed be the Tie that Binds." The arrangement of the menu and toasts were as follows:

MAIL ROADS

Instructions From Uncle Sam About Rural Routes

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General McGraw sends out to the postmasters the following letter which will be of interest to those on rural routes:

In order to expedite the delivery, collection, and dispatch of rural mail, enable rural carriers to cover their routes with celerity, and give the earliest possible service to patrons residing on the far ends of routes, the Department will insist that all rural mail boxes be so located as to be served with the greatest expedition.

You are, therefore, directed to require each rural carrier at your office to submit to you without delay, for transmission to the Department, the names of all patrons whose boxes cannot be served without leaving the road, dismounting, driving in deep ditches or on steep inclines, or on or across railway tracks involving danger or the approaches to whose boxes are obstructed. It is not required that boxes shall be erected beside the wheel tracks, nor on any particular corner of the cross roads; but they must be erected within the confines of the road, and accessible on any corner.

It is not desirable that boxes be attached to telegraph, telephone or electric-light poles, or to fences or buildings, but boxes should be securely fastened to neat and strong posts firmly set at the side of the roads, at a sufficient height to be served by carriers without rising from their seats or reaching through wheel spokes.

After the boxes have been properly relocated, and it is practicable to curtail carrier's schedules, postmasters will advise this office, so that changes in schedules may be considered.

When roads are in bad condition, postmasters are directed to make report thereof to the Department, and the proper road officials and cooperate with them and patrons to the fullest extent, consistent with position and duty, to secure the improvement of the roads. The manifestation of interest and properly directed efforts by postmasters in the good-roads question will in many instances be productive of excellent results.

Prizes For Good Menus

The patient housewife who is trying to cater to the needs of her family on a moderate income, has to solve daily the same old problem, "What shall I cook for breakfast, for luncheon, for dinner?" The very monotony of the question gets on one's nerve's, and there is a lot of real difficulty in planning a wholesome variety for each day. The Chicago Record-Herald has mercifully come to the aid of puzzled housewives by printing in each issue a set of three menus, with recipes, under the title, "Meals for a Day." What is more, it gives four cash prizes every week for the best of these menus, and women all over the country are invited to compete. The terms of award and the names of the latest winners may be found in any Monday issue of the Record-Herald. That is the day, too, when the "Martha's Management" column appears, with its helpful hints and advice to cooks and housekeepers. Marion Harland's Sunday page also gives a group of selected recipes, which if cut out each week and kept in a scrap book will make a most valuable collection. Women not familiar with the prize menu feature of The Record-Herald should investigate it at once. Many have found it a handy means of getting fresh ideas and securing cash for those they already have.

Obituary

Died—At her home 14 miles northwest of Bloomfield and 17 miles west of Crofton, after long suffering, and with patience that endureth to the end, Mrs. A. J. Andrews passed away from this life on April 21, 1909.

Miss Laura L. Rogers was born on July 12, 1866, in Green county Wisconsin. She was united in marriage to A. J. Andrews on March 7, 1888, in Wayne, Nebraska. To this union were born seven children, all of whom with the father were present when she died except one daughter, Mrs. R. L. Pelly, who, with her husband arrived in town for the funeral.

She was a loving mother and a kind and affectionate companion devoting her life to the happiness of those around her. To those who knew her she was placed in the realms of their highest esteem and will be remembered as a model type of Christian forbearance. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community. Hartington Herald.

Wedding Bells

On Wednesday, April 28th, at three o'clock in the afternoon, in the beautifully decorated German Evangelical Theophilus church occurred the marriage of Miss Lydia Ulrich to Mr. Otto Fleer, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Mr. William Wittler, of Laurel, acted as groomsmen and Miss Lizette Ulrich as bridesmaid. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Ad. Matzner, a reception took place at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ulrich, southwest of town. The groom is a highly respected, industrious young man and a resident of the county for a number of years. The young couple will make their home on a farm five miles southwest of town, and have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for their future happiness and prosperity.

Arrested for Assault.

Last Saturday W. F. Wright was arrested for assault upon the person of Mrs. Alice Conley. Being taken before Judge Hunter he took a continuance of the case until next Saturday. As we understand the case Mrs. Conley has been renting a house belonging to Mr. Wright. He wished her to vacate the premises, but instead of serving a legal notice upon her to do so and then waiting until the time had expired and then proceeding according to law he took the law in his own hands and not only threw the furniture and household goods out of the house, but also used force to get the woman out of doors. For this she had him arrested. It is a very poor plan for anyone to take the law in their own hands. They are very liable to get into trouble every time they do it.

In a Critical Condition

Supt. A. E. Littell is having a very hard struggle, with only a fighting chance for recovery. The physicians have not been able as yet to check the fever. A physician was up from Sioux City Sunday, and a trained nurse has also been installed and the doctors are of the opinion that if they could only break the fever so that he could gain strength they could combat the other troubles. It seems that the original trouble was typhoid fever which later developed in a malarial type and this latter has failed to yield to treatment so that he has been growing weaker all the time. Added to this is an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, and taken as a whole, his case is considered indeed a serious one.

Is Succeeding

It is said that nothing succeeds like success. Whether or not this be true it is certain that some men achieve success through their skill and merit, and Dr. S. A. Lutgen belongs to this class! Coming here a perfect stranger he has been able to build up a lucrative practice already along several lines, not only in the way of surgical operations, but also in the treatment of diseases of the eye, ear and nose, which he gives especial attention, and also the fitting of glasses. But he does not confine himself to this class of cases alone, but is versed in the use of medicine as well, and treats diseases that require skill in that line with the same success as any others.

The Kendall bill in which the civil war veterans are interested most is that which proposes a pension of $15 a month for civil war veterans on reaching the age of 60 years, $20 a month at 65 years, $25 a month at 70 years and $30 at 75 years of age. The present pension law gives only $12 a month to veterans at the age of 62 years, $15 at 70 years and $20 at 75 years. The Kendall bill applies to every volunteer soldier who served three months or more in the army of the United States, between April 1, 1861, and August 1, 1865, and who has been honorably discharged.

More Local News

A goodly number who sowed winter wheat last fall have been forced to plow it up this spring, there not being stand enough to warrant the waste of ground by letting it grow. Broadcast seeding is not satisfactory any more. The drill seems to be the thing.

On account of Mrs. Guy Wilbur's contemplated visit to Washington in the near future, the ladies of the Minerva Club surprised her Tuesday afternoon, bringing a most excellent luncheon with them. To say that it was an enjoyable time is putting it quite mild.

Sunday, May 9th, will be observed by many churches throughout the country as "Mother's Day." There will be a special service at the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. Men are urged to see that their mothers are remembered on this day. In the evening the pastor will preach on "One and a Thousand."

R. A. McEachen met with an accident last week while hitching up a colt. He saw a nail sticking up on a piece of board and stepped on it to bend it over but the nail went through the sole of his shoe into his foot, inflicting a bad wound, and one that has been so painful since that time that he has not been able to get his foot to the floor.

Mrs. Serena Hartzell Wallace, of Kansas City, gave a very interesting talk Thursday evening, April 29, in the Presbyterian church. Owing to the inclemency of the weather and the fact that it was not known she was coming until she was here, there was but a small, though very appreciative audience present to listen to her. She is a very pleasing speaker. She gave an account of the closing of saloons in Kansas City and the increase of business along all lines, demonstrating that money can only be spent once and if it goes to the saloons, the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker must suffer.

Prof. C. H. Bright talked to the Winside people Friday evening on "Education in the Philippine Islands" and interestingly too, as he always does. He was there under the auspices of the M. E. Ladies Aid Society.

The little tots up in the editor's neighborhood were distributing May baskets Friday evening. It is a very pretty custom, but there were no flowers to put in them this year, but a few pieces of candy answered the same purpose, at least to their minds.

Don't forget that Saturday, the 8th, is cleaning up day in Wayne. Let each one get interested in his own block and feel the responsibility for that much of the town. In this way it will all be done. At four o'clock Titania, queen of the fairies, in her flower-bedecked chariot and with her fairy attendants, will make a tour of inspection through the streets. See that everything is in readiness. The mothers are expected to order their groceries and do their baking, on Friday giving the family a picnic supper on the lawn on Saturday.

Those young people who are going around tapping on other people's windows as they are about to retire for the night may think it awful cute but if it was at their own home and someone else was doing it they would think it a mighty mean trick. It is not boys either, at least not alone, as one young lady who tried it at the editor's home Monday evening left the imprint of her foot in the soft earth. Better cut it out. It is neither cute nor smart, and does not even bear the ear marks of a gentleman or lady.

Have you ever taken a look at the workings of the Sherbahn brick making machinery? If not, it will interest you to do so and will also doubt surprise you to see how much of a plant he has there and how much of it is under cover. The first trip of the Lincoln baseball team away from home covers twelve days. The Greenbackers appear for three engagements each in the towns of Topeka, Wichita, Pueblo and Denver. They will then get back home in time to open with Pueblo on May 12. Some big doings are scheduled to come off in the capital city. The new grass infield will be in fine condition by that time and Governor Shallenberger will pitch the first ball.

The branch train coming south Wednesday afternoon struck a piece of track about two miles northwest of town that tied them up for more than an hour and held the main line train going east for more than that length of time. The heat had caused the rails to warp to such an extent that the train could not get over the track, and the train crew had to hunt a farm house with a telephone and then call up Agent Moran to send out the section men, who happened to be working in the yards, to go out and straighten out the tracks before the train could get in.

Nearly a Bad Fire
 Last Friday morning, the first time in many months, at least not since last September, there was an alarm of fire. It proved to be in the residence of Dr. T. B. Heckert, and with the wind blowing nearly a forty mile an hour gale, it looked quite serious for a short time, but just as the flames were breaking through the roof of the summer kitchen, the fire ladders got their hose, laid and then the flames were Dennis in a brief space of time. The fire caught in some manner from the flue, and Mr. and Mrs. Heckert had attached the garden hose to the faucet in the house and were doing their best to get it under control before the fire company arrived, and they did not let the grass grow under their feet by any means. A few minutes longer and it is probable that the doctor's fine residence would have gone up in smoke.

About half past one Friday afternoon the bell gave another alarm and everybody turned out pell mell to see what the rumpus was about. It turned out that the cause was at the home of Frank Gaertner, just west of the Catholic church, on the same block. The fire originated from the overheated kitchen range in some manner, catching in the partition wall and running upward to the second floor. Fortunately it was discovered before it had gained much headway and it was not necessary for the department to throw any water although they responded promptly to the call. Aside from some injury from water and the chopping of holes in the wall and floor, the damage was slight.

The third fire alarm in a week was turned in about 12:30 Wednesday noon. This time the fire proved to be in the Winsor blacksmith shop and the appearances were that the fire either originated from a spark dropped behind some loose pieces of iron in the northwest corner of the shop or a cigar stub carelessly thrown between the edge of the sidewalk and the building. At any rate the largest hole was on the outside of the building and was getting into a good blaze when discovered. The fire company responded with its usual promptness, but the fire was out before the hose cart reached the scene, a few pails of water having squelched the blaze. Three alarms in a week is getting too numerous by far.

MOTHERS' DAY
 To the Men and Boys

The second Sunday in May is coming to be a unique day with men and boys of America for this Sunday is being observed as Mothers' Day. Many of you are familiar with the ideals and purpose of the day but some may not have heard.
 On this day the men and boys of America are asked to pay special tribute to their mother. Many ways of doing this will suggest themselves but the following have been suggested by the originators.
 1. Wear a white flower.
 2. If she is with you show her a special act of kindness.
 3. If away from home write her a letter.
 4. If she has been called to a better home honor her memory by being the man she would have you be and do a kindness to someone's mother.
 Ministers are asked to promote the spirit of the day by having "Mother" as the theme of at least one sermon.
 We hope that someone will have enterprise enough to see that white carnations are placed on sale Saturday, May 8, and every man is urged to enter into the spirit of the day and do honor to the greatest power for good on earth—Motherhood.
 Many of the current magazines are devoting space to the movement and its observances will be widespread.

When you divide the price by the number of extra months that XTRAGOOD CLOTHES FOR BOYS give extra wear you'll see the economy of giving enough to get enough. Built honestly—so the makers include their label. If the value were lacking so would the labels be. The XTRAGOOD label is a pledge of "money" back when you're disappointed. The safest clothes sold. All XTRAGOOD knee pants are fitted all through, which means that seat and seams will hold fast as long and the pants will drape, price as gracefully. Only the price is ordinary—not the clothes.

It would seem that Governor Shallenberger must be of the opinion that the northeastern part of the state is a barren waste or else he has no use for its people. In the many appointments he has made the past week on different kinds of boards, for meetings in various parts of the country, there has not been the name of one man from the northeastern part of the state.

At the council meeting Tuesday morning two saloon licenses were granted for the ensuing year, to R. Rehder and A. N. Stodden, the two men who are now engaged in that business. The application of J. C. Jepperson was refused. As stated last week the license has been raised to $2,150 and we understand that the dealers, under a new law, now have to put up a $10,000 bond.

Our people were not to be taken in by the traveling fakirs who tried to dispose of a wreckage stock of clothing here last week. They did not begin to get enough out of their stay to pay expenses. Why should any one patronize that class of men? We have home dealers who carry large stocks, sell at reasonable prices, and aid in all home enterprises, and therefore are worthy of the trade of the community.

Last Friday Rev. J. W. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the M. E. church in Wayne, received a telegram announcing the unexpected death of his father in Butler county, Kansas, and he took the train the same evening to attend the funeral.

His father was past 76 years of age but had always been in good health, and a letter received from him only the day before his death stated that he was well as usual. His death was very sudden, caused by heart failure. His mother, who is well advanced in years, is in very poor health. He is expected home the last of the week and there will be the usual services at the church next Sunday.

Rev. Tyndall, District Superintendent, preached a very practical sermon at the M. E. church Sunday morning, after which the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed. This was participated in by a very large number of communicants. Owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Kirkpatrick, there was no preaching service in the evening.

A visit to the court house Monday afternoon disclosed the fact that those general county officials, Chas. Reynolds and Chas. Beebe with their pleasant and efficient deputies, were as busy as a swarm of bees in a red clover patch. Reynolds was looking after bills against the county as the board was to meet on Tuesday and he said that there was lots of business to be looked after. Beebe was taking in money hand over fist in the way of taxes, but none of them failed to have a smile and a cheery greeting to all comers.

CAUSES BIG FLURRY

When Real Meaning of the Supreme Court Decision is Interpreted by Lines' Attorneys a Rally Ensnues—D. L. & W. Co. Hard Hit.

With railroad attorneys expressing satisfaction rather than disappointment over the decision of the United States supreme court handed down Monday in the so-called commodities clause case, the stock market and railroad interests generally, after a forenoon of uneasiness followed by a slump in the market in the early afternoon, quickly adjusted themselves to the situation with the conviction that the coal carriers will be practically unaffected by the interpretation of the law barring "legal ownership only."

When the real meaning of the decision was understood in New York City the stock market quickly rallied and Philadelphia and Reading, which had declined 30 points on first reports from Washington, almost immediately recovered this loss, as did Delaware and Hudson and Pennsylvania, which also had dropped 1 1/2 and 1 point respectively. Thereafter, with the receipt of more reassuring news, steady advances were recorded, reading reaching 151 1/2, its highest point since 1905, and making a run of 14 1/2, its low point for the day.

During the hours of chaos prominent attorneys were pressed for interpretations, as they saw it, of the decision. William S. Opydie, general counsel for the Delaware and Hudson, was one of the first to give out an interview. He said:

"This decision allows the railroad companies to continue as now constituted, that is, those which do not own the coal mines directly, but exercise control through coal companies whose stock they own. Reading, Pennsylvania, and its part the Erie, Lehigh Valley and Jersey Central, as well as the Ontario and Western, come within the interpretation of the court's decision."

William S. Jenney, president and general counsel of the Delaware, Lackawanna, and Western Railroad company, said:

"The decision of the supreme court directly affects our company. The Lackawanna owns its coal properties directly, and although I have not seen the complete decision it is apparent that the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western will have to divest itself of the legal ownership of these properties and form a separate company to take them over."

It seems to me that there must be some joker in that decision somewhere that will put a different light on this question of direct and indirect ownership."

EX-SULTAN HAREM LARGE.

Women Leaving Palace Daily in Great Numbers.

Since the deposition of Abdul Hamid there has been a daily exodus of the women of the imperial harem from the Yildiz kiosk. Sunday forty-five carriages, each containing two or three women, and Monday fifteen more were seen proceeding to Stamboul. It is estimated that the total number of fair prisoners in the palace have been set apart for their accommodation, but in the present condition of the country their fate is pathetic. In the chamber of deputies Monday a telegram was read announcing a revolt of Syrians in Hama, a district of Syria, east of the upper Jordan. Troops have been ordered to proceed there at once.

ON A MARCH TO RICHMOND.

Army Officers Start a Trip to Study Warfare.

A thirty-day march to be made by army officers over the battle grounds of Virginia to study problems of warfare was begun Sunday when a long line of horses and troopers equipped with all the fixtures of the field left Washington, D. C., for Virginia, under command of Maj. Eben Swift, of the general staff, on the way to Fredericksburg, Va., where the column will be met by thirty officers on May 7. Then the officers who are members of the general staff of the army and of the army war college will start on a ride over the route followed by Grant's army almost a half a century ago.

The entire march will be under command of Col. R. K. Evans, of the general staff, assistant to Gen. Witherspoon, acting chief of staff. The officers and troopers will reach Richmond about May 16 and after skirmishes over many battle fields within a radius of 100 miles will start on their return journey, reaching Fort Meyer about June 3. The column which left Fort Meyer Sunday made a striking appearance. Eight large wagons filled with officers' baggage was in the van and about 100 horses and troopers were in line. Camp was pitched at Accotink, Va., as in regular field service and the usual army regulations observed. At least two days will be spent at Fredericksburg in a study of the route of Grant's army. Lieut. William W. Overton will have charge of the various camps and will have supervision of the supplies.

The draft of the uniform fisheries regulations governing the boundary waters between Canada and the United States under the terms of the treaty as passed last spring and prepared during the last six months by the two commissioners, Prof. E. E. Prince, Dominion fisheries commissioner, and President David Starr Jordan, representing the United States, has been received in Ottawa from Palo Alto, Cal., where the commissioners have just completed their work. The result will be the observance by the United States and Canadian fishermen of the regulations contended for by Canada in the treaty waters from the Atlantic to the Pacific. These waters include the area of the water at the mouth of the St. Croix river, the St. John river where it forms the boundary between Maine and New Brunswick, Lake Champlain, Lake Memphremagog, the great lakes and Cornwall westward and the waters of Juan de Fuca strait and Puget sound. Under the regulations as now agreed upon the United States protection staff, with headquarters at Washington, which will correspond to the Canadian fisheries protection service, with headquarters at Ottawa. These two services will co-operate in enforcing the uniform regulations in all waters covered by the treaty.

DUTCH TOKEN OF ESTEEM.

Vessel Halve Maan to Take Part in Hudson River Parade.

Good progress is being made in completing the ship Halve Maan, recently launched from the navy yard at Amsterdam. This queer looking craft, which the people of The Netherlands are sending as a token of their friendship for America, is expected to prove one of the most attractive features of the naval parade to be held in connection with the Fulton celebration on the Hudson river in October. When rigged and fitted out the Halve Maan will be an exact reproduction of the vessel sailed by Capt. Hudson long ago. The ship is built of heavy oak timbers and has the high bow and long nosed prow only to be seen in old portraits of ancient Dutch and Spanish galleons. She is of about eighty tons and has a length of 63 feet.

DEAD IN DIXIE LAND.

Have Wrought in South by Terrific Winds.

Dispatches gathered throughout the states by the Associated Press indicate that from fifty to seventy-five people met sudden death in the great wind that caused havoc throughout the south. The number of injured is probably threefold the list of killed, and it probably will be several days before a complete list can be gathered. While the storm, which reached the south from the upper Mississippi valley early Friday, left its scar on Mississippi, Arkansas, Kentucky, Alabama, Missouri and more remote states, Tennessee perhaps suffered the most severely. Mississippi's most disastrous point was Horn Lake, where six met death. Arkansas reports a total of twelve dead, with likelihood that it will be added to as the inaccessible wire points are picked up. Alabama has four dead near Hartzell. Kentucky escaped with much property damage, but no deaths, while Missouri has several killed at Somerville and Golden. Georgia lost two when a boat capsized in the Atlantic.

In Arkansas the towns which lay in the swath of the recent tornado at Brinkley suffered most. They were West Marion, Weakley and Vidueira. In Crawford county ninety persons were reported to have been injured. This is the country about Fort Smith. Monmouth Springs reported eight dead.

Careful estimates indicate that at least fifty people were killed in Tennessee, while the money loss will not fall short of $1,000,000. At Franklin and Hillsboro there was loss of life. The latter town is said to be practically destroyed, while at Centerville and adjoining villages the damage is reported to be very heavy, both in lives and property. Near Pulaski the death list reached twelve and many were injured. In the vicinity of Chattanooga wires were blown down and the movement of trains greatly hampered. The hurricane followed the Cumberland valley, wrecking small towns and destroying farm houses. At Ebenezer eighteen houses were blown down.

IS CRIME OF BLACK HAND.

Eight Die in Incendiary Fire in New York.

Eight persons, five of them children, were burned to death and fourteen others were injured in an incendiary fire in a five-story tenement house at 47 Spring street, New York City, occupied by twenty families, early Friday. The blaze followed a demand by members of the Black Hand society for the payment of $1,000 blackmail. It spread through the building with startling rapidity, as the hallways were soaked with kerosene oil by the blackmailers.

A panic which followed the alarm the tenants fought their way down the fire escapes or jumped from the windows, while babies were thrown from windows into the arms of policemen on the sidewalk.

Six of the injured, three of them children, are not expected to recover. Jacob Bruck, the proprietor of the grocery store on the main floor of the building, received on April 18 a letter reading:

"We demand $1,000 or death. Bring it in Matt Street. Petrosino is dead, but the Black Hand lives."

On Monday last Bruck received another letter written in a similar strain. He turned both letters over to the police.

TRIPLE LYNCHING IN TEXAS.

Three Negroes Accused of Killing a Deputy Sheriff Hanged.

A mob lynched three negroes early Friday at Marshall, Tex. The negroes had killed a deputy sheriff. The militia, which had been guarding the jail for three days, was relieved at midnight and the citizens immediately formed a mob, taking the authorities by surprise. The mob entered the county jail, secured the negroes—Creole Mose, Pie Hill and Mark Chase—and promptly strung them up.

Mose, Hill and Chase were charged with fitting upon and killing Deputy Sheriff Mark Huffman and wounding Constable Alex Cavill a few days ago for raiding a crap game. No arrests have been made.

Held for Big Robbery.

Kenneth Williams, a young man, who was arrested while carrying a valise containing $3,000 worth of diamonds, is being held in San Francisco on suspicion of being connected in some way with the robbery of the Lundy jewelry store at that place a year ago, when safe crackers escaped with jewels valued at $48,000.

New Trial for Miss Webb.

Earthquake Humblings.

Further advices received regarding the earthquakes which have been shaking Kamerun, West Africa, say an eruption of the volcano in the Kamerun mountains occurred Friday morning. The shocks still continue.

HOLLAND'S HEIR IS DAUGHTER.

Popular Hope of a Son to Succeed to Throne is Disappointed.

Queen Wilhelmina was married to Prince Henry of Mecklenburg-Schwerin Feb. 7, 1891. The queen is now in her twenty-ninth year, having been born Aug. 31, 1880. She came of age Aug. 31, 1898, but had previously been queen for eight years, having succeeded her father, the late King Willem III, Nov. 23, 1890.

The queen's marriage to Prince Henry was said to be the result of a love match pure and simple. She had been sought in marriage many times and once reported engaged, but she refused with a determination that surprised her counselors (his, or that prince, Prince Henry was at the time of the marriage in 1901 a handsome young German military lieutenant attached to the battalion of chasseurs in the Prussian Guard).

QUEEN WILHELMINA

The birth of a son to Queen Wilhelmina might in the course of time cause her to retire from the throne owing to the status of the Salfic law in Holland. Her son, when 18 years old and legally of age, would probably be crowned king and assume the throne. A daughter, on the other hand, will succeed her mother should she outlive her.

POWERS EYES WATCH TURKEY.

All European Nations Interested in Fate of Ottoman State.

Turkey for many years has been the bete noir of European governments because her name symbolizes that enduring bugbear of old world statesmen—the eastern question. What nations are to divide the territory of Turkey in Europe should the Ottoman Empire crumble? Is it possible to deny Constantinople? Is the Anglo-Saxon or the Slav to be champion of occidentalism in the twentieth century? These are three of the chief questions which, taken together, constitute the famous near eastern question of which so much has been written.

England and Russia are the powers which chiefly stand face to face on the question. British diplomacy on the near eastern question has been mainly aimed at checking the attempts of Russia to extend her empire and strengthen her strategic position by absorption of part of the Turkish territory. Whenever any phase of the eastern question is opened the whole world becomes concerned. Russia is interested because the question affects her route to the sea and her relations with England, the United States and the other great powers. Austria is concerned because the question affects her prospects in the Balkan states. France is concerned because it affects her commercial ambitions in the far East, her claims in Africa and her route to the Orient.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP

The vast revenue which the government collects from its customs service is shown by the reports of the Secretary of the Treasury. The one for the last fiscal year shows that the sum of $290,081,042 was collected during that period. The report further shows that the cost of collecting this sum was only three mills in the dollar. The part that turned in the greatest amount of customs receipts was the port of New York, which gave to the national treasury nearly two-thirds of the total amount collected at all of the ports and on the Mexican and Canadian border lines. The cost of collecting the $190,191,072 which the port of New York turned in, was less than half a cent for every dollar. On the other hand, there are places where for every dollar collected hundreds of dollars are expended. One of these is Eastern Ore, where the 60 cents that was collected last year cost the government $1.118. In the same way many of the 400 inspectors who guard the Mexican border have little to do, and their pay, and similarly many of the 400 who stand watch on the Canadian border rarely collect enough duties to equal their pay.

Whether court-martials will be in order for the naval officers at the League Island navy yard who signed the secret pamphlet designed to organize the line officers against the reorganization scheme adopted by Secretary Newberry it is safe to say that the whole naval service has been deeply stirred by the published reports in connection with that document. The pamphlet had been discussed by a group of officers who met on the Panther, and after being signed had been forwarded to the Navy Department. It proposed to form a regular association of line officers to study methods of organization and administration and boldly enumerated the disadvantages of the Newberry plan.

The formal opening of the new Potomac Park and Speedway on the lands to the south and west of the Washington Monument was made the occasion of the new popular festival. The Philippine Constabulary Band gave a public concert there, and President and Mrs. Taft, in an automobile joined in the parade of vehicles of all sorts which thronged the speedway while thousands of pedestrians lined the walks. The concerters are to be given semi-weekly and the place is to become a sort of American Hyde Park.

Prior to the date fixed for the departure of the Liberator Commission, there was much official talk in the Navy and State Departments about the social amenities to be accorded to the colored member, Emmett J. Scott, private secretary to Booker T. Washington, especially after W. M. Sluiter had resigned as chairman of the commission. His illness was advanced as the reason for Sluiter's resignation, but the impression was that his unwillingness to associate with a negro officially had been the real cause.

Judson, of Madison, was showing his country cousin the sights of the city.

"What are those crooks and blacklegs here, Joe," he said. "You must look out for them." And half by way of a joke, half by way of impressing the city's perils and pitfalls on Joe, Madison slyly nipped his cousin's handkerchief from his pocket. A moment later a well-dressed stranger took him by the arm and led him aside.

"Excuse me, pard," the stranger whispered. "I didn't know you was in the profess." And he handed Madison back his evil wench.

Finally concluded coffee was the cause of my troubles and stopped using it. I tried tea and then milk in its place, but neither agreed with me, then I commenced using Postum. I had it properly made and it was very pleasing to the taste.

I have now used it four months, and my health is so greatly improved that I can eat almost anything I want and can sleep well, whereas, before, I suffered for years with insomnia.

I have found the cause of my troubles and a way to get rid of them. You can depend upon it, I appreciate Postum.

TWO DIE IN BIG FIRE; LOSS OF $1,000,000

FIGHT ON BLAZE IS STRENUOUS

Striking of Structure, by Lightning Followed by Terrific Explosion, Then Fall of Wall.

Two firemen were killed, eleven persons injured and a loss of $1,000,000 caused early Thursday by the fire that destroyed Illinois Central elevator B, foot of South Water street, Chicago. A carbon of firemen narrowly escaped being caught beneath falling walls, while dozens of others were overcome by the heat and smoke.

Lightning is believed to have caused the blaze which was blown cityward by a heavy wind from the lake, when the flames burst through the roof and the gale sent thousands of burning embers and sparks flying over the loop district, imperiling big business houses.

Within an hour the huge elevator was a mass of fire and looked like an immense oven, as the sheet iron became red-hot and the walls began to tumble.

So intense was the heat that firemen were constantly overcome, and one after another fell at their posts of duty. It was seen to be impossible to save the burning structure. Consequently the firemen's main fight was to prevent a spread of the flames to nearby property.

Firemen Cooper and McElligott met death in the collapse of the south wall. They were leading the battle at that point, when somebody shouted a warning. A rush for safety was made by the firemen, but Cooper and McElligott were too close to the building to escape being caught. Both were buried beneath tons of brick and burning beams.

Several other firemen who narrowly escaped a similar fate were seriously injured, being struck by flying bricks. The elevator stood between two river slips and contained 491,000 bushels of wheat and about the same amount of corn. It was one of the largest in the city and was surrounded by big business houses. It was nearly 100 feet high and about 350 feet long.

For a time the flames threatened to destroy the Illinois Central docks, the Goodrich docks, the Wisconsin-Central freight house and other huge buildings. The two freight houses caught fire more than a dozen times, but hard work by the firemen prevented their destruction.

8 DIE IN "BLACK HAND" BLAZE

Children Among Fire Victims in Crowded New York Tenement.

Eight persons, five of them children, were burned to death and fourteen others were injured, some of them fatally, in an incendiary fire in a five-story tenement at 37 Spring street, New York, occupied by a Jewish family, early Friday.

The blaze followed a demand by members of a so-called "black hand" society for the payment of $1,000 blackmail. It spread through the building with startling rapidity, as the hallways were soaked with kerosene oil by the blackmailers.

In a panic which followed the alarm the tenants fought their way down the fire escapes or jumped from the windows, while babies were thrown from windows into the arms of policemen on the sidewalk. Six injured, three of whom are children, are not expected to recover. Jacob Hirsch, the proprietor of a grocery store on the fourth floor of the building, received on April 18 a letter reading: "We demand $1,000 or death. Bring it in to Matt street. Petrosino is dead but the black hand lives—Black Hand Society."

On Monday last Hirsch received another letter written in a similar strain. He turned both letters over to the police.

BICH GIRL ON TRIAL FOR LIFE.

Faces Jury to Answer Charge of Slaying Sister's Sweetheart.

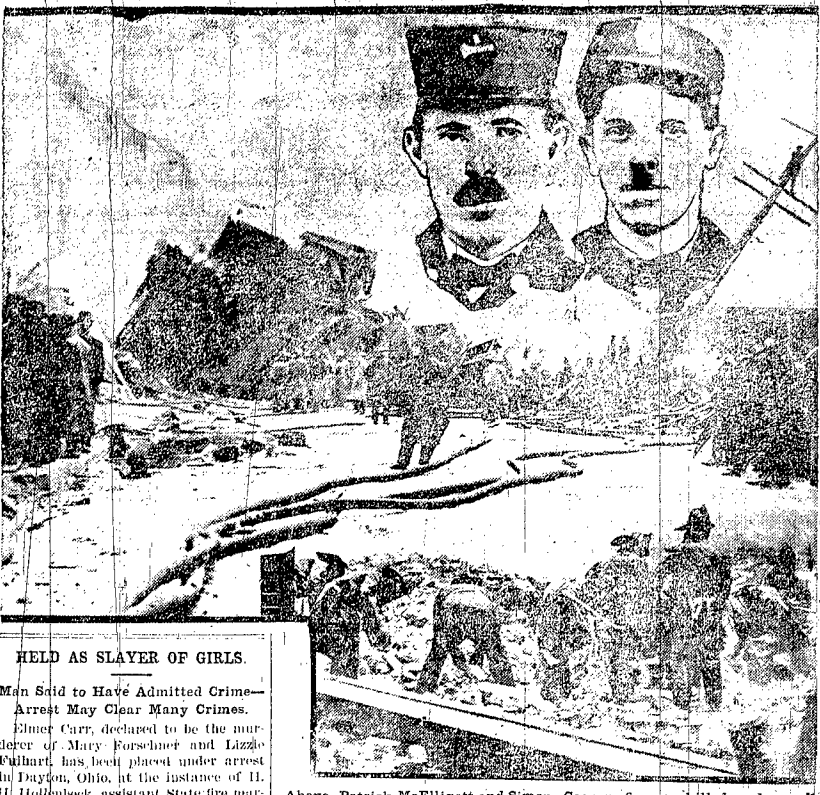

John Davidson, a wealthy young woman, who killed her husband in Nashville, Mo., on June 6, 1908, followed by a quarrel at the Davidson home in which it is alleged Ramsour applied an epithet to the girl, is on trial here. Miss Davidson's plea is self-defense. Ramsour was a sailor for the band of Miss Grace Davidson, the defendant's sister. A few days before the murder the two had quarreled. Ramsour used improper language toward Miss "Johnny" Davidson, and when he refused to retract she killed him with a revolver.

HELD AS SLAYER OF GIRLS.

Man Said to Have Admitted Crime—Arrest May Clear Many Crimes.

Elmer Carr, declared to be the murderer of Mary Forschner and Lizzie Fulhart, has been placed under arrest in Dayton, Ohio, at the instance of H. H. Hollenbeck, assistant State fire marshal, and Bert Huttlinger, a deputy fire marshal.

So strong is the web of evidence in which both Hollenbeck and Huttlinger believe they have twined Carr that Hollenbeck was given instructions to proceed to Dayton and file affidavits against Carr for murder and arson.

This arrest, while having no direct connection with the Donna Gilman crime, it is firmly believed by the authorities, who have been conscientiously working on the murders of young girls in Dayton, that Carr may be able to explain how Donna Gilman was killed.

Mrs. Carrie Middlestetter was being examined by officers of the Fire Marshal's office relative to the destruction of a house belonging to a relative of hers, and during her testimony she said that Carr had confessed to her that he had killed Elizabeth Fulhart, Mary Forschner's body was discovered by her stepfather on Jan. 23 in North Dayton. One arrest followed another, but nothing came of them. On Feb. 5, or about two weeks later, the body of Elizabeth Fulhart was found in a cistern in the rear of a house on West Jefferson street, Dayton.

Again many arrests took place, but no prosecutions were instituted because of the inability of the police to get the proper evidence.

Recently a fire destroyed a house belonging to Joseph Voges, a relative of Mrs. Middlestetter, near Dayton, and the inquiry held added the following testimony: That Carr had brought the Fulhart girl to a room in Mrs. Middlestetter's house, the following Sunday the same program was carried out, but that was the last seen of her. The dress which she wore that day, as described by the Middlestetter woman, and the dress which she wore when her body was recovered are identical.

The next Monday, Mrs. Middlestetter says, Carr confidentially asked her if she had seen anything in the newspapers regarding the disappearance of any young girl. She replied that she had not. "Well, you will," he is said to have replied, according to her testimony. On the following Friday the discovery was made, and although she was taken before the court during the coroner's inquest, Mrs. Middlestetter states that she did not dare to tell what she knew of the case through fear of Carr. Carr was arrested and held as a suspect, but later released because of lack of evidence. Carr is said to have known Donna Gilman, who was also slain.

MAKES LOVE IN WIFE'S NAME.

Kansas City Man Convicted of Securing Money for Wives.

Chester M. Hoberger in the federal court in Kansas City pleaded guilty to a charge of signing his wife's name to love letters which he wrote to Neil Johnson, a wealthy man of Atchison, Kan., and he was sentenced to a year in jail. The postoffice department could have made an objection to the love letters if Hoberger had not been necessary in his motives. "Please send $10 by return mail—here are a million kisses for you!"—that was the objectionable part of the letters in the eyes of the federal officials. The correspondence lasted six months, and Johnson was notified of nearly $500 he had become aware of the deception and put the case before the postoffice authorities. Hoberger's wife knew nothing of the affair until her husband was exposed.

TURKEY'S NEW SULTAN, 29TH OF OTTHMANS, LACKS CRAFT.

MEHMET REHAD, 29TH SULTAN OF OTTHMANS.

Rehad is 65 years old, and next to the deposed sultan, is the oldest male descendant of the house of Othman, the founder of the dynasty. He is the twenty-ninth sultan to take the throne since the conquest of Constantinople in 1453.

Abdul's nephew, Yussuf Izzeddin, was preferred by many as his successor, but his selection would have violated the Turkish law that the succession shall go to the oldest male descendant of Othman. Otherwise, Yussuf would have been chosen, as Rehad is considered a man of weak qualities.

Rehad has had no experience in governmental affairs. For twenty-five years he has been almost a prisoner in the Yildiz Kiosk, it is conceded that he will do whatever the Young Turks demand, as he is lacking in the craftiness and initiative of Abdul.

MOB AVENGES MURDER OF BOY.

Italian Laborers Driven from Wymore, Neb., and Camp Burned.

Clyde Rice, a son of Frank Weisner, the 11-year-old boy shot at Wymore, Neb., by Bertelich, the Italian railroad laborer, died Sunday without regaining consciousness. Bertelich, who was threatened by a mob, was rescued by Sheriff Trade and taken to Beatrice, where he is now in the county jail under heavy guard. After Bertelich had been taken away the angry crowd of 400 Wymore men attacked the Italian railroad camp and after a lively skirmish drove the foreigners from the town, warning them not to return. The crowd then set fire to the bunk cars occupied by the laborers and they were burned with the belongings of the Italians. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, which employed the foreigners, has moved its construction trains from Wymore to Kirker, a station some distance away.

WOMEN CUTHROATS ARRESTED.

Mother and Daughters Who Used Inn to Slay Travelers Caught.

A band of female cuthroats, who for many months past have been committing with impunity a series of brutal murders, was discovered and arrested in the village of Kurehino, thirty miles from St. Petersburg. The principal culprits are a mother and her two daughters, who kept a tavern. Assisted by other women in the village they murdered travelers who stopped at the inn for the night, disfigured the bodies beyond recognition, and then threw them into a rapidly flowing stream that passed near the inn. Many of these corpses were found, but the distance of the village was so great that suspicion did not at first center there.

LIVES SNUFFED OUT BY STORM IN SOUTH

Nearly Thirty Persons Are Reported Killed and Many Injured in Three States.

ONE TOWN IS BLOWN AWAY

Between twenty and thirty persons are dead in Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas, and scores of injured were the total Thursday night of a series of tornadoes in those States. The storms which wrought this havoc appear to have been little outliers of the big disturbances which simultaneously were sweeping through the North.

Although more fatal to life than the Northern storm, these Southern tornadoes each covered only a small area of a few acres or a few square miles. They struck at widely scattered points at intervals.

The death list as received was as follows: Youngs Crossing, Tenn., five; Medina, Tenn., two; Horn Lake, Miss., twelve; Forest City, Ark., two; West Marion, Ark., one.

During the night telegraph wires went down all over the South, with the exception of the South Atlantic States. On both sides of the Mississippi for hundreds of miles it was a gusty night, with here and there a puff of wind which knocked trees over and which isolated many sections of the South for hours.

Memphis, Tenn., was the center of a storm that destroyed plantation buildings, caused loss of life and injury, and made useless many telegraph and telegraph wires.

Near West Marion, Ark., the storm demolished twenty-four houses. Miss Nancy Young was killed and four persons were injured. Near Wheatley, Ark., a negro was killed. Near Horn Lake, Miss., plantation cabins were wrecked and twelve negroes killed.

At Raleigh, Tenn., a score of buildings were blown down and trees uprooted. Locke, Tenn., a village 18 miles from Memphis, was practically obliterated and a number of persons injured. At Youngs Crossing, near Jackson, Tenn., five persons were killed and many injured. In the vicinity of Medina, Tenn., two were killed. The wind cut a path half a mile wide through the towns of West Marion and Weakley and vicinity.

In Northern Arkansas, a dispatch from Fort Smith says, ninety persons were injured. At Plum Point a dozen houses were wrecked and one person was killed. Near Jackson, Tenn., seven persons were killed and others injured. At Medina three houses were wrecked.

Four persons were killed, at least twelve injured, and great damage done by a tornado in Golden, Mo. The town was destroyed, every building being razed.

It is the general opinion that it was the Corrigan line steamer Aurania, which Capt. Boyce of the Peavey saw sink in Whitefish Bay. A furious storm raged over the upper lake region, Capt. Robert C. Pringle of Cleveland and a crew of twenty men were in charge of the Aurania when it left Buffalo for Lake Superior with coal.

A terrible wind and rain storm struck Chicago early Thursday evening and left death and destruction in its wake. One man was killed outright, one fell dead from heart disease during the tumult, and nearly fifty were injured, some probably fatally. Twenty-five houses were blown down, many more unroofed, several set afire, and more than fifty families rendered homeless.

The extreme south end of the city was cut off from street car service and thrown into darkness by the destruction of electric light wires. A deluge of rain accompanied the wind, and west of the city hundreds of acres were flooded. Two inches of rain fell during the day and the evening. Telegraph and telephone wires were down in nearly every direction. A tidal wave in Lake Michigan did great damage in Waukegan and Kenosha.

FIREMEN ATTACKED BY RATS.

Blaze Fighters Forced to Turn Hose on Rodents.

Firemen who were called to fight a blaze in a junk shop in 118th street, New York, were attacked by hundreds of large rats. So vicious was the onslaught of the rodents as they bit the legs and hands of the firemen that the blaze fighters turned the streams of water from the fire on the rats. After the rats had been washed away by the terrific force of the water the fire was extinguished.

TORNADO KILLS ONE IN KANSAS.

One person was killed and ten injured by a tornado which struck a large portion of Douglas, Kan., Wednesday evening. The storm spread over a wide area, doing much damage to farm property. At Udall the storm, accompanied by hail, did much damage. Between Rose Hill and Douglas many houses were blown down. Three school buildings were completely wrecked. At Rock, south of Douglas, a store building was wrecked and one man injured.

RED SEA MIRACLE IS DENIED.

Professor Haupt Explains How Israelites Crossed Dry Shoal.

Prof. Haupt of the Johns Hopkins University says the miracle of the Red Sea dry shoal was nothing but a natural phenomenon, the water of one of the Red Sea bays, then a part of the sea, having been driven into another basin by a strong east wind.

Prof. Haupt said there was no doubt that there was a water way between the Red Sea and the Mediterranean in those times, and that geological facts proved it. These Bitter Lakes on the isthmus, he says, were connected with the Red Sea, such as extent that they were a part of that body of water. The spot where the Hebrews crossed, he says, is the peninsula dividing the shallow bays of the Bitter Lakes from the larger basin. The place is some miles from the northern end of the present canal.

Prof. Haupt's theory about Mount Sinai is that the mountain was a volcano, and that the sight of flames to the Israelites, was observed as the vision of God because he had seen a volcano before.

77,000 NOW IN ARMY.

Forces at Full Strength for First Time Since Spanish War.

For the first time since the Spanish American war, the United States army is recruited up to its full strength. This fact was made public by the posting of an order signed by the adjutant general of the army, in which all recruiting is ordered discontinued, temporarily, save only in cases of time expired contracts to whom the privilege of re-enlistment is given.

The bringing of the armed force of the nation to its full complement of 77,000 men, according to one official, was brought about in a great measure through the publication last September of an article by Col. Heistand, treating on "the army as a career." That the vacancies then existing have been filled with care and discrimination is attested by the records of the various recruiting offices, which show that in the period between January 1, 1908, and February 20, 1909, no fewer than 16,934 applicants for enlistment were rejected. From now on there is to be a systematic weeding out of undesirable to make room for promising youths of good character.

SEEKS DAMAGES FROM LAWYER.

Alleges He Was Divorced, Married Another, Was Arrested for Bigamy.

One of the most remarkable suits in the history of Montana was filed at Helena by John Rumping, a mining man, against O. P. Goldard, a Billings lawyer, for $5,000 for alleged wrongful legal advice. Through the lawyer, Rumping secured a decree of divorce from his wife and then married Flora Mollitor of Dubuque, Iowa. The Supreme Court reversed the findings, and the first wife then charged Rumping with bigamy, but he was acquitted in Duluth. The second marriage was annulled, however. Rumping now wants damages for injured feelings.

Mrs. Raymond Robins has been re-elected president of the National Women's Trade Union League, with headquarters in Chicago.

LITTLE BITS OF STATE NEWS

Also Some Other Items of Interest to our Readers.
Hartington has a bonded debt of $15,000 and no registered warrants out against any fund.
A gentleman by the name of E. Johnson is planning to start a tombstone factory at Wakefield.
The stockholders of the First National Bank at Hartington have bought the State Bank at Fordyce.
There is far too much drinking and carousing at Wymot, on Sundays for the good of the town, says the Tribune.
The Stanton high school baseball team has issued a challenge to any other high school team in the state or to any team under eighteen years of age.
Mike Easley, who killed Holland Sorey at Bloomfield about a month ago, was acquitted on his trial at Center last week, on the ground of self-defense.
The Burt County Herald says that the present court house of that county is a disgrace to the intelligence and financial standing of the inhabitants.
Wakefield proposes to celebrate July 4th this year, says the Republican, in the good old-fashioned way, but as that day comes on Sunday we do not know what the plan will be.
Friday, May 21st, is the date set for the big high school track meet at Hartington. Schools at Hartington, Randolph, Bloomfield, Creighton, Osmond and Coleridge will participate in the event.
John Donovan, a deputy game warden, must be from Missouri, although he hails from Madison. He went down to West Point a few days ago to see what he could see, and two young fellows there obligingly showed him how to catch croppies and bass with a dip net. After he was shown he was mean enough to have the men fined $25 each and costs.

A Blair inventor has perfected a harness tug buckle which is of course the best ever. Negotiations are now being perfected to dispose of the patent to Omaha manufacturers for $20,000 and a royalty.

Wakefield thinks it stands some show of getting a Swedish Lutheran Orphan's Home located there. That church denomination is about to establish such a home in this part of the state. Wausa is also trying to get it.

Like all fires, which at the time seems to be an irretrievable disaster, often proves to be a blessing in disguise, so the one at Elgin last week will result in a better and more substantial class of buildings in the place of those burned.

Linn McKinnis, of Tekamah, is a candidate for a Carnegie Hero Medal, he having jumped into a well 24 feet deep and 12 feet of water, to rescue a little five year old girl who had accidentally fallen into the well and he was successful too.

Stanton seems to be the home of a fire bug. Several fires of suspicious origin have recently been discovered and one night last week two fires were discovered at almost the same time in different parts of the business districts, both evidently set.

The Wakefield W. C. T. U. sent in a petition of 185 names to the voters of Lincoln, Nebraska, asking that they vote out the saloons at the coming election in May for the sake of the boys and girls we are sending there to be educated in their schools.

Say, it must be hot up at Pierce. The Call says: "The other day a lady here in town planted some onion sets at five o'clock in the evening and the next morning at ten o'clock she went to the garden and found the onions large enough to pull and eat. Say, ain't that going some?"

The contract has been let for the building of the fine new parochial school to be connected with St. Francis Catholic church of Randolph. B. E. Short, of Sioux City, was the successful bidder, his bid being $17,200 for the building complete, including roof, interior finish and painting and every detail according to the plans except the heating plant, the present one being sufficient for the new building.

The Hartington Commercial Club evidently believes that good roads leading into a town are an incentive to increased trade, as they are paying for the construction of a road two and one half miles in length, which will require the moving of 11,000 yards of earth an average distance of 320 feet. The deepest cut will be twelve feet and the highest fill nine feet, and the steepest grade will be five per cent.

Nedrow & Ewing is the name of a firm in Hartington that will in all probability be doing a lot of business before long. They have three cement block machines, a big power mixer and a four horse gasoline engine. They are putting up a factory building at the south end of second avenue, where they have three lots and a half.

The North Nebraska Eagle, published at Dakota City, thinks it is mighty queer that the east half of the railroad bridge across the Missouri river at Sioux City should be assessed at $270,000 in Iowa, and the west half at only $90,000 in Nebraska. It certainly does look as though there was something of a nigger in the wood pile.

Farmers in some neighborhoods are organized into what is known as "Brotherhood of Road Draggers," and assume an obligation to keep a certain stretch of road in good condition for one year. At their meetings different methods of doing road work are debated and considered. Nothing costs the farmer of this country so much money as poor roads.

The Shame Of It

"America pays out annually $500,000,000 more to punish crime than is devoted to every branch of church work—Sunday-school, educational and humanitarian work. This is an age of laws and yet the most lawless age in history. The peril of America today is a lack of parental control, care and culture of children, which carelessness has become criminal. Heredity and environment breed criminals; poorhouses and prisons confirm them and parents are altogether and always responsible. The cost and cause of crime is clear but it can never be figured out what a man or woman is worth. The one only cure is the juvenile court law, father to the fatherless, and industrial schools, mother love to the motherless." So says Dr. A. S. Orne, the father of the juvenile courts, after many years experience in the work of saving children.

Rev. I. W. Williamson's Letter

Rev. I. W. Williamson, Huntington, W. Va., writes: "This is to certify that I used Foley's Kidney Remedy for nervous exhaustion and kidney trouble and am free to say that it will do all that you claim for it." Foley's Kidney Remedy has restored health and strength to thousands of weak, run down people. Contains no harmful drugs and is pleasant to take. Pelber's Pharmacy.
