JOY RIDER APPEALS

First of Automobile Speed Cases. Is Brought to the Supreme Court.

The first joy rider case has reached supreme court, Albert Jones of Wayne, appealing to the supreme court from the decision of the lower court which gouged him $5 and costs for running at a speed exceeding 6 miles an hour within the built up portion of the city of Wayne. His attorney alleges that the evidence is flimsy and is largely hearsay. He also declares that the jury was generally prejudiced against the use of automobiles and that a hundred witnesses would not have changed their verdict.

Assistant Attorney General Ayers will brief the case for the state. He has figured that the state will get very little out of the suit aside from a vindication. A supreme judge gets about $15 a day. If one judge spends an entire day on the case (the fine upon Jones will create a deficit. If the entire court should spend a day on the case the state would be pretty nearly $100 to the bad.

Having realized the humorous side of the case the assistant attorney general will probably make an extra effort to secure all that the state can hope for, an affirmation of the lower court decision and a consequent vindication. So says the Daily Lincoln Star.

J. H. Lohman, for the last fourteen years publisher of the Bloomfield Germania, has disposed of his interest in the paper to F. A. Wiedemann. Mr. Lohman started the paper on August 15, 1896, and has been its editor ever since. The paper will be continued under the firm name of Liewer & Wiedemann. Mr. Lohman will remain with the Germania as its editor until January 1, when he will engage in the banking business in the western part of the state.

Lying About the President

A couple of weeks ago a Lincoln, Nebraska, paper printed a violent and wholly unwarranted attack on President Taft. It was alleged that the President devoted a large portion of his time week days to playing golf, while in Washington, and that in order to get time to indulge in this game he held his cabinet meetings on Sundays. Such an editorial illustrates how easy it is to distort facts.

The truth is, as the editor of the Republican happens to know, that one single cabinet meeting was held on Sunday. Usually cabinet meetings are held Tuesday and Friday of each week. It happened that just as Congress was adjourning the cabinet meeting was held on Sunday instead of Tuesday. This was done because several members of the President's official family were called away on official business and would not be in Washington the following Tuesday, which would have been the last cabinet meeting until fall. The Sunday cabinet meeting was an emergency session and could not well be avoided. That is all there was to the Sunday cabinet meetings to enable the President to play golf. Now, what is there in the golf feature of the tale. This much. The President plays golf probably two or three afternoons a week, for a couple of hours each afternoon. He does this upon the order of his physician, in order to keep himself in physical shape to transact business, and as a result of being in physical condition the public business is attended to. President Taft does not spend any more time playing golf than President Roosevelt put in at tennis and boxing. In this connection we venture to suggest that the public will do well to discount a good deal that is written about the President. Of course he is a good subject for exploitation by the newspaper men in Washington, and when they get hold of a very small piece of fact they will create a large garment, chiefly imagination.—Grundy Center, Iowa, Republican.

An accident resulting in the death of Harry Paulsen, the 15-year-old stepson of Henry Burgard, occurred on the latter's farm, two miles north of Bloomfield Thursday. Mr. Burgard and the unfortunate boy were stretching a wire fence when the wire suddenly broke, striking the young man on the head. The accident occurred at four o'clock in the afternoon and although no mark could be noticed where the wire had struck him, it seems that a vein had burst, causing the blood to flow to the brain, causing death within a short time thereafter.

There was nearly one inch of snow fell in the vicinity of Denver, Colorado, Sunday.

Something About Crops

While there has been much talk about this being an eight billion dollar crop year, and some speculation regarding cars and money to move it, the crop report of the government does not appear to bear out the contention. The government report on September first showed the condition of corn to be 74.6 as compared with 79.4 in 1908. Spring wheat was better showing a per cent of 83.6 as against 77.6 last year. According to the figures furnished the department Nebraska shows a big falling off. The ten year average in this state is 80 per cent. Last year it was 82, and this year only 68. The oat crop is larger and better than last year. The ten year average in this state is 74. Last year it was only 69 and this year 74. These figures would indicate that there will not be any lowering in the price of corn, for the ten year average in the United States on September first has been 80.6. Last year it was 79.4 and this year 74.6. The ten year average for the oat crop of this country on September 1st has been 79.8. Last year it was 69.7 and this year 83.8.

South Omaha ranks third among the packing cities of the country. Since March 1st the number of hogs killed at that place has been 1,115,000. Last year for the same period the record was 1,100,000.

Geo. Wells, secretary of the Iowa Grain Dealers Association, estimates the Iowa corn crop at 38,000,000 bushels less than the government report, which was lower than last year.

Has Come West

Bloomfield, Neb., Sept. 8.—There seems to be an epidemic of paralysis around these parts of late. Anna Gerday, an eighteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerday, living three miles southeast of this city, was stricken with the malady at about 4:30 o'clock Monday morning and died at 12 o'clock Monday night. A seven-year-old daughter of Mrs. Fred Buesing, living six miles northeast of this city, took sick last Wednesday noon with the disease, and died Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Apparently the disease is much more prevalent among children than it is among adults.

This, or a similar malady has been prevalent in the east for a month past, Brooklyn, New York, having over 300 cases in one week.

The merchant marine of the United States is not creditable to the nation. The stars and stripes are not seen in the high seas as they should be. Whatever the cause it should be searched and removed. We are in the anomalous position of being a great commercial nation practically without representation upon the world's ocean highways. If this is due to a policy that refuses to encourage American shipping, that policy should be changed. America does not lag behind in other particulars. Why should she be contented to be a laggard in this.—Norfolk News.

Because a passenger engineer forgot his orders two persons were killed and nine injured in a head on collision near Lincoln Sunday, on the Burlington road.

The Clothes Men Want

There's something within every man that makes him want the best the world can give--education, opportunity, success, friends, pleasure and--smart clothes.

He may be excused if he doesn't secure all the good things in life, but not if he fails to have good clothes.

Clothes are a different proposition here than elsewhere. They are clothes made by the House of Kuppenheimer.

This means more than you think. It not only means that the quality cannot be excelled; that the workmanship, style, fit and shape are perfect, but it means the patterns are different. They are cut and tailored on different lines. The styles are distinctive. The label is the most substantial clothes guarantee in the world.

It takes men with a knowledge of clothes to make clothes. It requires specialists. That's what makes the clothes different. That's what you want.

The House of Kuppenheimer has a wide reputation as makers of clothes--useless to speak of that. You understand.

We're ready with a complete line of authoritative styles.

KATE'S
ONE PRICE OUTFITTERS FOR MEN AND BOYS

Rev. T. C. Osborne returned Friday evening from his five or six weeks absence in the western part of this state, and farther west, and occupied his pulpit at the Presbyterian church Sunday.

Northeast Nebraska does not appear to take very much interest in its state fair, either in the way of attendance or exhibits. Why is this? Is it because Lincoln is so hard to reach from this part of the state, or a lack of interest. In the list of awards for prizes we fail to find the name of a single exhibit from northeast Nebraska. It surely is not because they have not got as fine stock or products as other parts of the state, or Iowa. If the Iowa farmer or breeder finds it a good investment to make exhibits at our state fair surely our own people ought to find it likewise.

The Bloomfield ball players appear to be a pretty decent lot of men and would play clean ball if it was not for the captain of the team. He seems to be the creator of all the trouble in all the games played. He seems to have an insane desire to play dirty ball and he does not take pleasure in any other kind, judging from his manner in all the games the team has played here. That kind of ball may do all right in some places but does not take here. In the game Friday with Wisner he came near breaking it up by some insulting remarks made to the umpire, who immediately asked the city Marshal to take him from the grounds, and the Marshal did so, but the matter was patched up and the game proceeded.

Have you read Ernest Thompson Seton's beautiful book, "Wild Animals I have known"? If so, you have sympathized with, and loved their wild, free life. You have come closer to their wild, untamed natures, and understood them as never before. How old Lobo, the king wolf, fearlessly ranged and foraged, and defied capture. How the dog Bingo, to the last faithful and loyal to his master, followed the "Call of the Wild," mating with the beautiful white prairie wolf. These, together with Wab the grizzly, Rag the rabbit, Silver Spot the crow and Red Kiff the partridge, all appeal to your sympathies and give you greater love for the dwellers of forest and plain. You can see the story of their lives reviewed Sept. 27, at the Wayne Opera House.

J. H. Jones has sold his eighty southwest of town to A. C. Williams for $45 per acre.

Neis Johnson last week came into possession of the F. Peterson 120 acres southwest of town for which he paid $80 per acre.

Frank Francis on Wednesday made a deal with Frank Cooper for the George Yaryan eighty that he recently bought. The consideration in this deal was $97.50 per acre.

Frank Francis and George Rohwer have sold the quarter near Jim Stephens' place that they recently bought of Frank Cooper at an advance in the price.

John W. Jones has sold his eighty two miles northwest of town to R. J. Williams for $90 per acre. After making the sale John bought his mother's, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, eighty in the settlement for $90 per acre.

Happeneth To All

We remember of reading in the Good Book the words of the wise man: "There is one event happeneth unto all." The country and the world were forcibly reminded of this fact Friday morning when the daily papers announced the death of S. H. Harriman, the great railroad king and financier, which took place at 1:30 Thursday afternoon. With immense wealth at his command and the controlling power of 84,319 miles of railway, Mr. Harriman had to meet the grim messenger death of the same as the humblest employe of his reads.

Get an Education

An exchange prints the following unadulterated truths: Young men, let us give you the benefit of our observations. We have noticed that at least one-tenth of the young men who have been here before the courts for misdemeanors are those who take no interest whatever in education, seldom read a newspaper and are always ready to make fun of other young men who try to use correct language and be somebody. It comes natural to them to discourage the studious and ambitious young men of their acquaintance. Their minds run toward dirty stories, midnight spees and bad company. This in a short time means trouble, a sheriff's invitation to attend court and a fine or term in jail.

Why Not Do It?

It is a wonder that the railroad company does not use a few car loads of its own cinders in the Wayne yards. The space between the platform on the west end of the depot and as far west as the switches should be filled in, not only for the convenience of its own workmen but also the draymen and other patrons as well as north of the north switch where there is a great deal of teaming, loading and unloading freight. There is no good reason why, as long as the road has so much waste material, that its brakemen should be compelled to wade in the mud up to their shoe tops after every rain, and its way freight patrons should be subjected to a like treatment. It would not only be much better but would also look very much neater and better if the grounds were kept dry.

True Enough

It is the opinion of the Oakdale Sentinel that "a newspaper can never creditably represent a town whose business men do not advertise. He may howl himself hoarse bragging about the vim and energy and enterprize of his town, but if his declarations are not backed up by a liberal amount of advertising by the businessmen of the town, the world will be slow to take his statements as true. It takes more than the unsupported testimony of the newspaper man to prove to the world that his town is the financial center, the business center, the best market, and the best place on earth to buy goods; his evidence needs corroboration." It does not make any difference how enterprising a merchant may be he must have some medium to let the outside world know what he is doing, and there is nothing so good as his local paper. Not only does his advertising bring him good returns on his investment but it also shows to the world that the paper's estimate of the enterprize of a town's business men is not misplaced.

Not True

Two weeks ago we published an item to the effect that the postoffice department had issued an order that any rural delivery route on which fifty cents' worth of stamps or more per day were not sold would be discontinued.

The postmaster general has recently issued a press bulletin, contradicting this statement and saying that he is unable to account for the origin of it, except that it may have come from the two following cases:

Sometimes the department notifies the postmaster at the head of a route that unless the route is patronized more extensively by the patrons it will either be given tri-weekly service or discontinued. Again, because of the delay and trouble carriers encounter from being compelled to take money out of boxes, which patrons have left for stamps, postmasters have been requested by the department to urge patrons to secure sufficient stamps in advance to provide for their needs. But the department wishes it understood that no order has been issued providing that any particular amount of stamps be purchased daily on a rural route to insure its continuance.

NATURE TELLS YOU

As Many a Wayne Reader Knows Too Well

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action; Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills. Wayne people testify to this.

D. S. McVicker, of Wayne, Nebr., says: "A member of my family was troubled by backache for a long time. That the complaint was caused by disordered kidneys was plainly shown by the irregular passages of the secretions from these organs. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally used and they brought great relief. It is a pleasure to endorse this excellent remedy."

BASE BALL TOURNAMENT

Wayne Team Wins The First Prize

The baseball tournament held in Wayne last Thursday and Friday was not attended by nearly as large a crowd as was hoped for nor as large as the merits of the games merited. The Commercial Club has worked hard all season to furnish a series of games that would please all who are interested in clean, sportsmanlike baseball and nearly all that have played on the home grounds have been of that kind, and Thursday's and Friday's games were no exception to the rule. On Thursday afternoon the first game called was between Wayne and Bloomfield, and with Sabs and Skeen in the box and good support the game ended with a shut out for the visitors, Sabs only allowing one hit. The score was:

Batteries for Wayne, Sabs and Skeen; Bloomfield, Brant, Diltz and Rusby; Umpire Davey.

The second game Thursday afternoon was between Bancroft and Wisner. It was a fast one from start to finish only occupying one hour and five minutes, and resulted in a victory for Bancroft, 2 to 1. Score:

Batteries for Bancroft, Bassinger and Bassinger; Wisner, Martin and Tift; Umpire Davey.

On Friday afternoon, the second day, the games were between Wisner and Bloomfield and Wayne and Bancroft, the losers and winners of the day before. In these contests Bloomfield defeated Wisner by a score of 4 to 3, as follows:

Wisner	0	0	0	0	2	0	1	0	3
Bloomfield	0	0	0	0	1	0	3	0	4

Batteries for Wisner, Swartz and Tift; Bloomfield, Diltz and Rusby; Davey, umpire.

In spite of the fact that Sabs had pitched and won the game for the home team the day before it was decided to put him in for the concluding game on the second day, and he did not betray the confidence reposed in him, and if it had not been for one error the Bancroft team would have had a shutout, as it was the Bancrofters who were defeated 7 to 1, the score looking like this:

Batteries for Wayne, Sabs and Skeen; Bancroft, Storm, Bassinger and Bassinger; umpire, Davey.

The Wayne team played a high grade of ball throughout the series and with one or two exceptions all of the visitors were of the same gentlemanly class. The receipts were not near enough to cover the purses given which was unfortunate from that point of view.

Remember the date, Sept. 27. F. E. West went to Coleridge Saturday morning.

Of what use is a cement gutter when it is full of mud? Normal training has been added to the Pender schools.

Mrs. J. J. Williams was a passenger for Sioux City Saturday morning, to spend the day. W. L. Fisher and Frank Martin went to Keith county, Nebraska, Tuesday forenoon on a land seeking expedition.

Carl Grothe went to Yankton, South Dakota, Wednesday afternoon to resume his studies at the State University. Oscar Womborg, who has been the scientific meat slicer at Hansen Bros. meat market for a year with a rest, is taking a vacation for a week.

Yesterday, according to a Vermont Society, was the day when the world was to come to an end, but it did not, at least our portion of it is still here this morning. Charles Goldsberg, of Elyria, Ohio, is visiting E. W. Stang and other relatives. He has recently sold out in the grocery business in the Buckeye state and may locate here.

It kept one man busy down at the depot Monday morning calling out, "Look out for the paint" and then by the time the trains pulled out the passengers had carried away most of the paint on the door casings, on their clothes. Laurel, Sept. 14.—The 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Boling, south of town, drank lye water last evening which had been set to kill mice, and for a few hours it was thought he could not live, but the indications are that he will recover all right. The saving of his life is credited to his having eaten heartily of green apples shortly before drinking the mixture, the acid of the apples acting as a counter irritant.

At her home fourteen miles southwest of Wayne, Saturday, September 11, 1909, Mrs. Albert Anderson, aged 33 years and 14 days. The funeral services were held at the St. Paul's Lutheran church in Wayne Monday afternoon at three o'clock, being conducted by Rev. C. J. Ringler, pastor of that church, and the remains were laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery.

Louisa Amelia Nelson was born in Denmark August 28th, 1876. She was united in marriage to Mr. Albert Anderson December 4th, 1895. To this union were born five children, the youngest of whom died in infancy, about eight years ago. She leaves to mourn her death her husband, four children, father, mother, three brothers and three sisters.

According to rumors that reach us some man in this town is liable to get himself into trouble if he does not use his team in a more humane manner. No man has a right to beat and mistreat his team even if he is the owner of it, and there is a law against such work.

KATE'S ONE PRICE OUTFITTERS FOR MEN

Wayne vs. Correctionville

The Correctionville baseball nine came Tuesday for two games with the Wayne team on the home diamond. Tuesday's game was not what you might call a very swift game either in the length of time occupied in playing it or the scores made. It was a see-saw game, first one side ahead and then the other, winding up with Wayne in the lead one score, as follows:

Wayne	1	1	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

Sabs and Skeen were the batteries for Wayne and Corcoran and Rice for Correctionville. Sabs struck out 11 men and Corcoran 8. Umpire, Fisher.

Second Game

The second game between the two clubs was played Wednesday afternoon in the presence of only a small crowd and was won by Correctionville 3 to 2. While the score was not large the game was without special interest. Meyer and Skeen were the battery for the home team.

J. L. M. Owen, of Wayne, Nebraska, was an arrival in Ashton Saturday morning on a visit with his brother Frank and family. He is well pleased with the country and will probably buy land before returning home. Enterprise.

LAUGH AND GROW FATTER

LOTS OF FUN JUST AHEAD

East and West Siders Will Play a Benefit Game

On next Tuesday at the Wayne ball park there is going to be more fun than was had at the famous Doneybrook Fair, of which we have all heard and read a good deal about. The cause of all this merriment will be a benefit game of baseball played by those doing business or residing on the east and west side of Main street. The Commercial Club in its efforts to afford our people some good ball games during the season have not been able to break even and the gentlemen named below have generously volunteered to give their valuable time and ability as ball tossers and base runners in an exhibition game of baseball, as it should be played with all of its flourishes and trimmings. There is so much hidden talent going to waste in the aggregation below that it will not be surprising if some scout for a big league does not offer some of them a princely sum to join one of the big teams. At any rate let every one turn out and see the sport, assist the Commercial Club and have the jolliest kind of a time. The following will play: East Side—Frank Berry, J. J. Ahern, H. Simes, Hartford, Malory, Hufford, Morris, Armstrong, Bleuchel and J. W. Johnson, with Dr. Williams, E. J. Raymond, H. Henney and Theo. Duerig as substitutes.

West Side—Rodney, Kemp, Osborne, McNeal, Moran, Fanske, Rickabaugh, H. Hanssen, James Miller and C. Craven, with Dr. Heckert, Dr. Green, Dr. Wightman, Dan Harrington as substitutes.

There are plenty of doctors on the teams to care for the wounded, and if necessary an automobile ambulance will be run to carry them from the field. Do not fail to see the sport.

All of the business houses will close from three o'clock until the close of the game.

Pleasant, Successful Meeting.

The meeting of the Northeast Nebraska Baptist Association, which met in Wayne Friday, Saturday and Sunday, was a success in every way. There were 66 delegates present and the program was carried out with but one exception. Dr. Jacobs of Kansas City, was unable to be here, however, he sent Dr. Proper, of Omaha, General Supt. of Home Mission Work, as his substitute.

There were present, as visitors, outside of the association, Rev. J. N. Funk of Carroll, clerk, and Mr. C. E. Sprague of Wayne as treasurer. The association will meet next year at Carroll.

If you love sense and nonsense remember the date, Sept. 27.

Give Him a Tryout

Winside fans are "rooting" for the opportunity to give their local pitcher, Victor Siman, a "tryout in the Western league next spring. He has pitched 26 games this year and won 19 of them against the fastest teams in North Nebraska. He has three shutouts to his credit, and lost three games because of bad support. He has only allowed an average of five hits and only walked an average of two men to the game.

"The Three of Us"

"The Three of Us," the play which made Rachel Crothers, its author, famous in one night, will be played at the Opera House Saturday, September 18th, by Ernest Fisher & Co. Miss Myrtle Gayetty has a part well suited to her in the character of Rye MacChesney and Mr. Ernest Fisher does a splendid piece of acting as Steve Townly, the young miser. The play is a story of one girl's efforts to keep her brothers and herself together and retain possession of a mine left them by her father, and around her struggles is woven a pretty love story which captivates the audience at once.

You must see this production as it is the best you will have here this year. Prices 25c, 50c and 75c.

Seats on sale at Raymond's Drug Store.

Mr. Quilkumtree's Belief is That Labor keeps us young and we all need to remain on the track.

"There is nothing like labor," said Mr. Quilkumtree, "to keep us young. I once asked a man I knew very well, a man who had worked hard all his life, but who was still going beautifully, fresh and strong, why under the canopy he didn't get out of the harness for a while, and he said the reason was that he was afraid if he got out he couldn't get back."

Why We Are Stronger

The old Greeks and Romans were great admirers of health and strength; their pictures and statues made the muscles of the men stand out like cords.

Why We Are Stronger

As a matter of fact we have athletes and strong men—men fed on fine strength making food such as Quaker Oats—that would win in any contest, with the old Roman or Greek champions.

Why We Are Stronger

It's a matter of food. The finest food for making strength of bone, muscle and nerve is fine oatmeal. Quaker Oats is the best because it is pure, no lumps or stems or black specks.

Ask Her This Question

"Do you know of any woman who ever received any benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

If any woman who is suffering with any ailment peculiar to her sex will ask her neighbors this question, she will be surprised at the result. There is hardly a community in this country where women cannot be found who have been restored to health by this famous old remedy, made exclusively from a simple formula of roots and herbs.

During the past 30 years we have published thousands of letters from these grateful women who have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and never in all that time have we published a testimonial without the writer's special permission. Never have we knowingly published a testimonial that was not truthful and genuine. Here is one just received a few days ago. If anyone doubts that this is a true and honest statement of a woman's experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound write and ask her.

Houston, Texas.—"When I first began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a total wreck. I had been sick for three years with female troubles, chronic dyspepsia, and a liver trouble. I had tried several doctor's medicines, but nothing did me any good.

"For three years I lived on medicines and thought I would never get well, when I read an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and was advised to try it.

"My husband got me one bottle of the Compound, and it did me so much good I continued its use. I am now a well woman and enjoy the best of health.

"I advise all women suffering from such troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. They won't regret it, for it will surely cure you."—Mrs. Bessie L. Hicks, 813 Cleveland St., Houston.

Any woman who is sick and suffering is foolish surely not to give such a medicine as this a trial. Why should it not do her as much good as it did Mrs. Hicks.

Carrying Bundles.
Everybody carries bundles, and everybody, according to a West Side philosopher who spends half his time in deducing traits of character from deeds performed and the manner of their performance, carries them in his own way.

"A man of cautious disposition," he said, "carries a bundle clutched tightly in his left hand. If it is too large to be carried that way he doesn't carry it at all, but has it sent home in the delivery wagon. Such a man is not only cautious, he is stubborn, and painfully slow of speech and thought; but he is home-abiding and of unquestionable probity. The man who carries a bundle in his right hand has all those qualities, but in a modified degree.

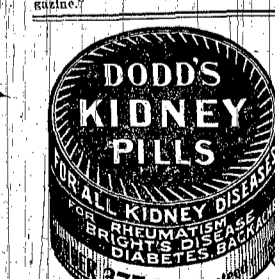

"A man who stands up the stairs of his elevator station with a package tucked under his arm inclining backward and downward at a decided angle is good natured, but rather pessimistic, and he might, if things went against him, too hard, take refuge in drink. If the bundle tilts up he takes a more optimistic view of life and likes to tell stories."

"The man who carries a bundle hugged up close to his coat front is jealous and inclined to be stinky. Still, he can be managed, and if his wife has the knack of winding him around her finger she can easily be the best-dressed woman in the block, because he has the money to do it with."

"The man who ties the bundle he has to take home with a heavy string and goes along swinging it by the loop makes a chap of all but he is also the most unreliable, because he is a spendthrift, and is so proud of his affections that the many women whom he is sure to make love to are apt to pass through some mighty uncomfortable days and nights before they find out where they are at."

"The man who lives in the mountains of eastern Tennessee; he was 95 and she, 90. Their son, a man of 70, died. As the old folks crossed the parting to their cabin after the funeral, the woman noticed a tear roll down her husband's cheek. She patted him tenderly on the arm and said: 'Never mind, John, never mind; you know I always said we never would raise that boy.'—Success Magazine.

On Saturday, September 25 (traveler's day), the following races will be pulled off in the afternoon: 2:16 pace, $600; 2:13 trot, $600; 3-year-old trot, one and one-half miles, $200; first half $50, second half, $75; (only half $125).

In addition to the races every afternoon of the fair, spectacular and amusing attractions will be given in front of the grand stand. Grand music by Liberti's band will further add to your enjoyment and pleasure.

All of the railroads running to Sioux City have made special excursion rates for the entire week. These rates will be good on the regular trains. In addition to the regular train service the roads will run special trains.

More live stock is entered for exhibition than ever before. Among the herds which this year have won grand champion sweepstakes at the Iowa, Minnesota and Nebraska state fairs.

The entries for the harness events have closed. Every race will have a large field of starters. The free for all pace gives promise of being one of the finest speed contests in the west this year.

The machinery exhibit will be exceptionally large. Thirty-eight manufacturers of farm machinery will occupy two blocks of ground. The automobile display also will be notable.

Every foot of space in Industrial Hall has been taken and the exhibits in this building will be varied and interesting.

The amusement features of the fair will be better than ever. Liberti's world famous band and Reed's Fourth regiment band will furnish the music.

HARRIMAN, RAIL KING, GOES WAY OF ALL FLESH

Napoleon of Traffic World Expires at His Residence in Arden Surrounded by Family.

WORLD LOSES FINANCIAL POWER

The Cause of His Suffering is a Mystery Which May Never Be Solved.

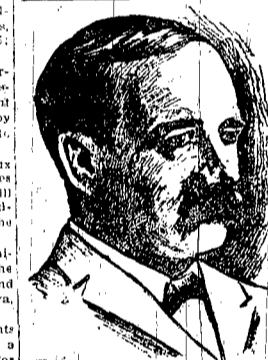

Edward Henry Harriman died at his home at Arden, N. Y., some time between 1:30 and 3:35 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

His end removes from the railroad world of the day its supreme figure. It leaves the greatest railroad system in the world—a system which he himself built up and welded together—without a head. It marks the closing of a career unique in the financial history of this country.

At 49, though wealthy he was still a mediocrity and in the wider sense unskilled. In the ensuing twelve years occurred the meteoric rise that made him the undisputed emperor of the railroad business of the nation. His death at 61 is an event that will make itself felt throughout the entire financial fabric of the world.

While it has been known for weeks that Mr. Harriman was a doomed man, the greatest mystery surrounds the nature of the disease from which he suffered. Stomach trouble was the name given to his illness by his doctors, but during the last three or four weeks the rumor gained wide circulation that he had cancer. It has been intimated by men who were in a position to know that he was afflicted with the same ailment that caused the death of the late William Rainey Harper, president of the University of Chicago.

The death of Mr. Harriman removes from the world its greatest single railroad and financial power of modern history. Like a story from "The Arabian Nights" reads the biography of this magician of steel rails and stock markets. In forty years, from poverty and obscurity to almost fabulous wealth and colossal power, from broker's clerk to master of more than 75,000 miles of railroad and steamship lines, enough to belt the globe with a triple girdle; from market "scalper" to arbiter of more than $150,000,000 in cash and with nearly a billion dollars in stocks and securities at his beck and call—such is the bird's-eye view of the career of the "Napoleon of the railroad world," as they call him, who has just gone the way of all flesh.

How Harriman got his start has always been somewhat of a mystery to Wall street. The methods by which he built into command of the captains of industry have always been an enigma to his rivals and associates alike. Taciturn, mysterious, sphinx-like, but still wielding a wand that seemed to turn everything it touched into gold, Harriman was the psychological puzzle of the "street."

FARMERS TO KEEP RECORDS.
Census Director Durand's Appeal for Accurate Farm Data.

It will be suggested by U. S. Census Director Durand to the farmers all over the country that the work of securing accurate returns at the coming census of agriculture will be greatly facilitated if the farmers will keep or provide some sort of written record of their farm operations during the year 1909. This effort to secure the farmers' personal co-operation is but one of a number of ways and means chosen by Director Durand in the effort to secure an accurate, expeditious and economical census concerning population, agriculture, manufactures, mines and quarries, which are the subjects of inquiry defined in the census law.

Rob Bank's Escape on Handcar.
The First State Bank at Foxhome, fifteen miles west of Ferguson Falls, Minn., was robbed early Monday. The robbers blew open the safe and got all the money in it, about $2,000. They then escaped on a handcar, which they threw into the river near Breckenridge.

What is Paint?
The paint on a house is the extreme outside of the house. The wood is simply a structural under layer. That is as it should be. Unprotected wood will not withstand weather. But paint made of pure white lead and linseed oil is an invulnerable armor against rain and heat and cold. Such paint protects and preserves, fortifies the perishable wood with a complete metallic coating.

And the outside of the house is the jocks of the house. A well-constructed building may be greatly depreciated by lack of painting or by poor paint.

National Lead Company has made it possible for every building owner to be absolutely sure of pure white lead paint before applying. They do this by putting upon every package of their white lead their Duroh Boy Painter Trademark. That trademark is a complete guarantee.

Hard to Handle.
"How are you going to keep complaints from arising among consumers?"

"I don't know," answered Mr. Dustin Stax, "consumers are mighty troublesome. Sometimes I think they take advantage of the fact that we can't get along without 'em in our business."

CJTICURA CURED HIM.
Ezema Came on Legs and Ankles—Canadian Chief of Police Could Not Wear Shoes Because of Itching, Swelling and Itching.

"I have been successfully cured of dry eczema. I was inspecting the removal of noxious weeds from the edge of a river and was constantly in the dust from the weeds. At night I just from my limbs, but felt a prickly sensation. I paid no attention to it for two years, but I noticed a scum on my legs like fish scales. I did not intend to let it build up, but it became so bad and sore and began getting two running sores. My ankles were all sore and scabby and I could not wear shoes. I had to use carpet and felt slippers for weeks. I got a cake of the Cuticura Soap and some Cuticura Ointment. In less than ten days I could get out on my feet and in less than three weeks I was free from the confounded itching. Capt. George P. Bliss, Chief of Police, Morris, Manitoba, March 20, 1907, and Sept. 21, 1908."

Dr. L. R. Robinson, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria certainly has merit. In no fit usage, its continued use by mothers through all these years, and the many attempts to imitate it, sufficient recommendation? What can a physician add? Leave it to the mothers."

Dr. Edwin F. Barde, of New York City, says: "For several years I have recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

Dr. N. B. Sizer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I object to what are called patent medicines, where maker alone knows what ingredients are put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use."

GET READY FOR THE CENSUS

UNCLE SAM'S ROLL CALL 1910

Will Consist Not in Mere Enumeration of Citizens, but in Compilation of Valuable Statistics

Our readers may not have thought seriously of the subject, says Henry Wallace, "but next year is the census, and the results of the census, when published, will of necessity be taken as authoritative by statisticians and students all over the United States. Every year increased attention is given to the agricultural reports of the census. Now these reports are just what the farmers make them. We confess that we have not relied upon them very much heretofore, because we knew that they were not taken in a very systematic way. The appointment of the men who take the census, both of state and nation, has heretofore been a sort of political sop both for congressmen and their appointees. The politicians, whether of State or nation, have made these appointments as a reward for political services, without regard to the qualifications of the appointees. President Roosevelt put a stop to that by his veto, and therefore we may expect more efficient service in taking the census next year than heretofore."

However, the main defects have been through the inability of farmers to answer the questions that are propounded by the census takers. This does not arise from any lack of intelligence or honesty of purpose, but simply because they have not prepared themselves for answering these questions.

The census taker will want to know not merely the number of animals which you own, but will want to know the total value of the farm property. It will not do to tell him the price that you ask for the farm, or the price at which it would sell at forced sale, but its value as determined by sales of similar farms in the neighborhood. In addition to this he will want to know what other property there is on the farm; the number of cattle, sheep, horses, hogs, and their actual value. After giving the total value of the farm property he will want you to state the value of the land and improvements. He will want to know the value of the buildings apart from the land. He will want to know the value of implements and machinery. He will want to know the total of the farm products; how many acres you have in this or that crop; what was the actual yield per acre and its value on the farm. He will then want to know how much you paid out last year if anything, for fertilizers.

The only way a farmer can prepare himself is by beginning now and making an estimate of these various items. If your corn field has forty acres in it, and ten acres of this is sown in corn, and the rest in soybeans or other crops, then reduce the number of acres you report to those which actually are planted in corn; and so with any other grain. Now as to the yield per acre: Don't guess at it. We do not expect farmers to weigh every wagon load of corn, but they certainly should be able to make an estimate by weighing a number of the average rows in different parts of the field and come within a bushel to the acre.

We are satisfied that this acreage of corn in 1910 will be taken, for the next ten years as the basis upon which the Department of Agriculture will figure increase or decrease. We are thoroughly satisfied that the acreage of corn in a number of our western states is exaggerated; and if a mistake is made in a census year it will likely be repeated and multiplied for the next ten years for a small percent of variation one year will in ten years become very wide. Upon this estimate both in acreage and yield, however, will be based estimates of the crop that is likely to come upon the market; and if these are exaggerated farmers will suffer for their neglect in not giving the census reporter accurate figures to begin with. There are two or three states in which the estimates of the State and federal government are so far apart that one or the other must be dead wrong. The time to correct this is when the facts are given to the census taker. This is one of the things that can very well be discussed when farmers meet together at the postoffice or at the store, or at institutes, or other places where they meet and discuss crops and things.

Apart from this accurate information that can be given to the census reporters, if farmers will, it will be mighty helpful if the farmers themselves find out where they are at, what they are worth in farm property, what the land itself is worth, the value of the buildings apart from the land, the number and actual value of their live stock, the actual value of their farm machinery, what the land will yield per acre this year and what it is worth in dollars and cents.

Causes of Typhoid

Autumnal typhoid still has a way of appearing at customary seasons in well nigh every region of the country. The health authorities in New York find it this year rather worse than usual. As usual it appears in the dwellings of the well-to-do as freely as in the shacks of the poor. Sanitation does not prevent it, that is, not what we generally call sanitation. It is an intestinal disease, conveyed by drink or food. The old theories of bad air, sewer gas and damp houses have not now much standing.

It is feared that some of the later theories do not explain all the points about autumn typhoid. The household does not. The condition of the water supply, as being different in summer and winter, does not. A plausible explanation is that the profuse perspiration with which in summer the body eliminates a large amount of disease breeding matter is reduced to a minimum almost instantly when the cool days begin. The kidneys and bowels, unaccustomed to the task, are burdened with dangerous material and unable to perform the task of elimination. It is at least common knowledge that typhoid is most prevalent when the cool weather sets in.

If that is not the cause, the wise treatment, preventive and curative, is exactly suited to deal with it. Typhoid has not yielded as it should have done to the efforts of medical men. It has not been conquered, though unquestionably reduced in severity and danger. The one rule of popular science is that in August and September eliminative processes be kept in a state of even more than normal activity. — Omaha Bee.

Things are beginning to stir at the clay pit west of Tekamah where it is proposed to establish a brick and tile factory.
