B. E. Elliott went to Sioux City Monday afternoon. He is contemplating a trip to the Big Horn Basin country in the near future.

Norfolk News says that Frank Tracy has been re-appointed postmaster at Wayne. That will no doubt be news to W. H. McNeal.

The icy sidewalk along the north side of 3rd street has afforded the boys and girls some rare coasting the past week. Starting from the school house grounds many of the large coasters were able to go like the wind for three blocks, to Main street. It was rare fun.

Mrs. Dan Harrington left Monday for Long Beach, California, for the rest of the winter. Her husband accompanied her as far as Omaha.

Wm. Piepenstock and wife are taking a little recreation this week in the shape of a trip to Omaha, spending two or three days in the metropolis of the state.

Assessor Witter has begun looking over his books again, and it will not be many moons before the assessors will be around trying to ascertain whether or not you have gained any wealth the past year.

"Doc" Rickabaugh has sold his barber shop in the basement of the First National Bank to a gentleman by the name of Arles Blankenship, who has been working for him at the Hotel Boyd shop for several weeks. This puts W. H. Norman up in the sunshine once more and he is glad of it. Mr. Rickabaugh has conducted the basement shop for many years.

It is probable that never in the history of Wayne has a prettier frost effect been noted throughout the city than Friday morning, when trees were great mounds of whiteness and the air was filled with powder that had blown off. Telephone and telegraph wires were as mammoth white ropes suspended picturesquely in midair.

When "Little Johnny Jones" is seen at the opera house January 22, the theatre goers of this city will have an opportunity of witnessing what last season proved the biggest musical hit of the entire year. It was not witnessed outside of the very largest cities, but by the strenuous efforts on the part of our local manager, he has succeeded in securing this attraction for a presentation in this city. "Little Johnnie Jones" is claimed to be the most original musical play that has been presented for many seasons, inasmuch as it has a plot and a dramatic story which at times is almost sensational.

The $14,000 brick school house at Casson was burned to the ground about 4 o'clock Monday morning. Our high school recently joined the Nebraska High School Debating League. In this work we must also win from other high schools. Honor be to the good women of any community who offer such incentives. It shows that they have the welfare of the public schools sincerely at heart.

It is past the middle of January and still there is considerable corn leaving their husked corn in the cribs or shelling it for the market.

It is a condition not known in this section ever before.

out of town, was in Monday afterhis right ankle, to ascertain whether that place. Ed. says that since his brother went to Wayne about a year ago, he has done well and at the present time is enjoying a splendid patronage. Mr. Fanske returned Monday morning. He was accompanied to Wayne by Will Sanders, jeweler in the Pohlman jewelry store. Pierce Leader.

Every one, or nearly so, has been feeling in good spirits the past week. The state having cashed its $75,000 warrant for the purchase of the Wayne Normal, those who purchased bonds a number of years ago to assist in building a new building and other improvements made at that time, have had their money returned to them, which has caused them to feel good. Then, on the other hand, all are glad that the matter has reached a final settlement and that the school has passed into the hands of the state, believing that it insures the perpetuity of the school and places it upon a basis for a continued growth and development.

The official board of the Methodist church held its regular monthly meeting last Monday evening, and,
among other items of business transacted voted unanimously to proceed with the work of remodeling the basement of the church, an improvement that has been badly needed for some time. The growing condition of the Sunday school, and the necessity of having some suitable place to hold surveys and social functions, has made it necessary to have more room. The Ladies' Aid Society of the church, under whose supervision the improvements will be made, held a meeting Tuesday and laid their plans for the work in hand and it will be pushed to completion as soon as possible. A kitchen, dining room and other accessories and conveniences will be provided, and the society is to be commended for the step they have taken.

Only Nine Cents

You may say you cannot buy anything worth while for that sum of money. That is just where you are mistaken at the present time. There is a firm in this city, and a perfectly reliable one too; a firm that always stays close by what it advertises that will sell you a coat, blankets, and a large number of things for only nine cents. We refer to Orr & Morris Co. See their ad on the first page which tells you all about it.
The goods they are offering are of the season's best. Although good in every respect, and you should by all means read the ad, come to town and profit by the prices they are offering.

Farmers' Institute

We have made several inquiries as to whether or no a farmer's institute was to be held here this winter and E. T. Rennick has given us the required information. An institute will be held, the dates being Monday and Tuesday, February 7th and 8th, both afternoons and evenings. The subjects to be discussed are rotation of crops, a talk on cooking profits from sheep, 20th century farming, co-operation between the country and town, and kindred subjects, on the first day. The speakers are from abroad, and are men and women well versed in the very practical subjects they are to discuss.
Still further notice will appear the next two weeks.

Coming Again

All who heard Lincoln McConnell in his wonderful lecture last year on "Dead Lions," will be pleased to know that he is on the program again this season, and will appear at the Wayne opera house on the evening of January 27th. It does not matter what his subject may be, he is sure to be interesting and everyone should make it a point to be sure and hear him.

Lincoln McConnell is a man with a mission on earth, and that is to make it brighter, better, happier. He is an optimist by birth, breeding and instincts. He believes in God and he believes in man, and he has a way of making others share his faith.
Mr. McConnell comes from a long line of orators and public speakers.
His father was a prominent Tennessee lawyer and raised his son for one. Few men 37 years of age have had the wide experience that Mr.
McConnell has, and being an unusually keen observer, he has learned valuable lessons that he uses with tremendous power in dealing with men. He is a natural wit and humorist, and without the slightest straining after it, gets into instant touch with his audience and they laugh or cry as he wills, though they laugh more than they cry, for he says the world has enough to cry over without his adding to it. But his success as a public speaker is not accounted for solely by his wit and humor. He is a logician and reasoner of high ability, and he will stick tremendous truths to your minds with his inimitable manner that he will abide long after the pleasure of the hour has passed and the laugh died. His lectures are not "a mere string of stories" for he believes that life is too short for you or him to laugh over nothing, when there are plenty of things helpful to be laughed over. Thousands have gone with heavy hearts and feeling that life was hardly worth the effort, to hear this magnetic man, and have gone away with the blues all gone, and with hope in their hearts, made better and more able to fight the battles of life, by the uplifting message of cheer that he so delights to give. If you want to feel glad that you are living, and have a share in the battles of life, then hear McConnell.

DANGER IN GORGE

OHIO RIVER RISING RAPIDLY AT LOUISVILLE

Steam Almost Blocked for 45 Miles Below City - Peaked for Will Go Out with a Rush and Do Untold Damage to Property

Property valued at nearly $2,000,000 is in jeopardy, people in the low lying suburb of Shippingport, Ky., are beginning to abandon their homes and damage to business houses adjacent to Louisville's wharves territory was threatened by the swelling waters of the Ohio Sunday night.

The tendency of the great ice gorge which stretches from a point just below Louisville to Wolf Creek, 63 miles down the river, is the cause of the danger. The river men say that the gorge was held on until the ice has grown rotten all the way through and that it will break through with a rush. The effect of each occurrence would be that a large number of boats and coal barges caught in the ice would be torn to pieces while a still greater number of craft would be stranded high and dry by the steady fall of the waters.

LAMPHERE TOLD ALL

Critics of Mrs. Guinness Bared Before His Death

In a copyrighted story Thursday the St. Louis Post-Dispatch publishes what is claimed to be the confession of Ray Lamphere, who died a few days ago in the Indiana penitentiary for setting fire to the home of Mrs. Belle Guinness near Laporte, Ind.

The confession shows that Mrs. Guinness and three children were chloroformed by Lamphere, who was robbing the house with a woman accomplice; that Jennie Olson was not chloroformed; that Mrs. Lamphere was part of that bought for Mrs. Guinness to kill three men, one of whom was Andrew Itelstein, the others probably Ole Rudberg and Tomnes Peterson Len, and that one of these men, probably Len, was the third husband of Mrs. Guinness.

HALLEY'S COMET SOON TO BE VISIBLE

HALLEY'S comet, which is moving in this direction at an inconceivable rate of speed and will soon be visible to all who have the time to look up at the sky, is a story of human ambition equal, in its way, to most of the stories that make up the pith and pulp of history.

Edmund Halley was the son of a London soap boiler and was born at London in 1656. He studied for a time at Oxford, but left that university without taking his degree.

Halley's comet was scheduled to return in 1835, and again were the astronomers on the watch, and were not disappointed.

Joseph T. Talbert, who has been elected vice president of the National City Bank of New York, has been prominent in Chicago banking for several years. In addition to being vice president of the Commercial National bank, he also is president of the Chicago Clearing House, a position he has held nearly two years. Mr. Talbert came to Chicago in 1896 as a national bank examiner and later went to the Commercial National as cashier. He has been a vice president for six years.

Infanta Eulalia of Spain says that she is tired of being a princess and would like to be just a plain Latin Quarter, connected to a living. The infant is the youngest sister of the late King Alfonso XIII and is one of the most picturesque characters of Europe. She was always a jolly princess, as those who knew her during her visit to Chicago at the time of the world's fair will remember. Eulalia is 45. She was married at 22 to Prince Antoine of Orleans.

Jacob Schiff, whose gift of $50,000 for the establishment of a training school for Jewish teachers has called forth much pleasurable comment in educational circles, is a well-known New York financier who has been identified with numerous philanthropies for many years. Mr. Schiff is a native of Frankfurt-on-the-Main, noted for its production of famous financiers. He came to America in 1865 at the age of 18, and has lived in New York ever since.

Sherman C. Kingsley, who has been appointed a member of the American Red Cross national relief board by President Taft, is the general superintendent of the United Charities of Chicago and one of the most widely known charity experts in the country. After a graduate course at Harvard University he became prominently identified with professional charity work in the East, especially in New York and Boston. He has occupied his present position since 1904.

Victor D. Brenner, who recently came into public notice as the designer of the Lincoln cent, is a New York designer of a variety and reputation. While a noteworthy piece of work, the Lincoln penny is not the only nor the best example of his capacity as a medalist. His bustrelief of ex-President Roosevelt is considered by connoisseurs as one of the best pieces of plastic art. Mr. Brenner is a native of Russia and is 37 years old.

Ewen, who has announced the discovery of a means of obtaining alcohol from sawdust and refuse wood, where by it is claimed, a product as pure as grain alcohol can be obtained at a cost of about 7 cents a gallon against 35 cents for grain alcohol. He is a well-known Chicago engineer and builder. Mr. Ewen was born at Newton, N. Y., in 1859 and was graduated from Stevens Institute of Technology. He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers and of several Chicago clubs.

INSURGENTS BEAT CANNON.

Aided by Democrats, They Take Selection of Committee from Speaker.
The first skirmish between the Republican insurgents and standpaters in Congress came off in the House the other day and the insurgents won a victory. Twenty-six Republican progressives, voting with 123 Democrats, overrode 146 Republican conservatives and took from Speaker Cannon the privilege of appointing the House representatives of the joint committee which will investigate the controversy between Secretary of the Interior, Lindbergh and Gifford Pinchot, ousted chief forester. In this close vote of 149 to 146 the House decided that its members of the joint committee should be elected. How remains to be determined, but it probably will be by resolution prescribing the method of voting. Speaker Cannon will have absolutely no voice in the selection of the House members, except insofar as he and his organization are able to control the election.

CHICAGO WAS FLEECE.

Flinding of Merriam Commission in 'Shale Rock' Case.
The report of the Merriam commission on the Chicago city hall "shale rock" exposure, set in language but direct in fixing responsibility on men and methods, was sent to the city council the other night and ordered published. Those who had expected it to be a whitewash were dismayed. It says that the city was fleeced when $45,084.20 was paid to H. McGovern and his silent partner, Joseph Hanreddy, for the excavation of 22,992 cubic yards of "shale rock" in section D of the Lawrence avenue sewer. Geologically, it says, shale may have been encountered, although not to the amount paid for; but from an engineering standpoint no excavation should have been paid for as rock. The commission asks that Corporation Counsel Brundage bring suit to recover the money paid.

It is understood.

JUDGE WEEPS AT SENTENCE.

Secrets He Is Forced to Send Two Embezzlers to Penitentiary.
Judge D. P. Dyer, of the United States District Court in St. Louis, wept as he sentenced two young men convicted of embezzlement. George F. Smith, Jr., 21 years old, and William A. Gray, 24 years old, former bank clerks, must each serve five years in the penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan. The mitlimps will be held until March 1 in hope that a pardon will be granted. "By the law permitted me to impose all right sentence I would do so," Judge Dyer said. "I hate to send young men to the penitentiary."

EDWARD ENDS HIS PARLIAMENT.

Second of His Reign Dissolved and New Body Is Summoned.
The second parliament of King Edward's reign came to an end the other day. The ceremony of dissolution was brief and formal. Four privy councillors attended at Buckingham palace, where at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon the king signed the proclamation dissolving the present and summoning a new parliament to meet on Feb. 16. Within an hour the royal writs had been dispatched from the crown office to every constituency of the United Kingdom.

ROBBERS SLAY TWO IN RAID.

Highwaymen Enter Resort and Shoot to Death Victims Who Resist.
Robbers raided a resort known as Turner hall in Crowder, Kan., and killed two men. One other man was wounded. The robbers got $200. Twenty men were in the place when the robbers entered. They were forced to line up and surrender their valuables. Aniline and Smith resisted and were shot down. Bert Turney ran to their aid and was shot, but will recover.

Prairie Dogs Menace Stock.

Fire in the night destroyed the May Hotel and three other buildings in Dickson, Tenn. The body of S. G. Mullins, a real estate broker, of Nashville, was found in the ruins of the hotel.

OUT BEHIND THE GARAGE.

BOY SLAYS TWO ROBBERS.

Florida Lad of 17, Guarding Building for Father, Fires Fatal Shots.
In a struggle with two safelovers, Paul, Sauls, 17 years old, who had been left to watch the postoffice building in Tallahassee, Fla., shot and killed them both in the basement of the building. The boy was only slightly injured. The cracksmen have not been identified. Young Sauls was on duty for his father, night watchman at the building, when he heard a knock at the door. He took up a pistol before opening it. When he did, upon the fastenings the lad found himself looking into the barrels of two pistols. "Then the men pounced on the boy. 'I managed to get my pistol in a straited position and fired,' said young Sauls. 'The shot evidently took effect, for then only one of the men clung to me. I placed my pistol on my shoulder and fired to the rear several times, after which I was freed.' A complete outfit for safe-robbing, consisting of drills, nitroglycerin, fuses, rags, soap, wax and electric search lights, were found on the bodies of the bandits."

ROBBERS KILL ONE; ARE TAKEN.

Eight Battle for Freedom When Captured at Ypsilanti, Mich.
Suspected of a jewelry store burglary which occurred in Ypsilanti, Mich., the other night, two men who were taken into custody by the baggage man and ticket clerk at the Michigan Central depot there, drew revolvers and fought a desperate battle for their liberty. Baggage man Henry C. Miner was killed. Ticket Clerk Morgan Emmett was shot through the chest and probably fatally wounded and one of the suspects was shot in the leg. Three men are under arrest, their names being given as Robert McCormick of Detroit, formerly of Ypsilanti, "Winkie," a Detroit character, who is shot in the leg, and Carl Billings of Detroit, who is said to have accompanied the other two to Ypsilanti, but parted company with them before the burglary.

Carrying out the Taft plan for an economical administration, the postal authorities in Congress have come to the conclusion that economies can be effected in the carrying of the mails, taking the position that the present outfit of $10,000,000 a year on this account is excessive.

The City Council of Cleveland passed an ordinance granting to the Cleveland Railway Company a general franchise for twenty-five years, providing for a 2-cent fare, with a 3-cent fare added (time for transfers), but providing for a 4-cent rate in case the lower rate fails to earn 8 per cent dividend, the ordinance to be subject to a referendum vote. Friends of Mayor Johnson regard this as a victory for him in his eight-year fight for the 3-cent fare system of streetcar operation. On the preceding day Judge Taylor, as arbitrator, had fixed the value of the Cleveland Railway property and franchises at $31,127,149 and that of the Forest City Railway at $1,805,890, or a total of $32,933,039, thus furnishing the basis upon which to estimate the rate and dividends.

Judge Young, of Dallas County, Texas, has made public a letter from Vice President Day of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, refusing to buy bonds offered by that company on the ground that certain Texas land laws were enacted by Texas had driven him and other life insurance companies out of the State. On that account he said that none of them would invest in Texas securities, although he admitted that the Dallas bonds were all right as an investment. The law in question is one that requires that companies doing business in the State to invest 75 per cent of their reserves in Texas securities or Texas securities

HONORS LEW WALLACE.

Indiana Unveils Statue of Soldier, Author and Diplomat in Nation's Capitol.
James Whitcomb Riley Reads Original Poem and Grandson of General Draws Canvas Aside.

PROMINENT MEN SPEAKERS.

In commemoration of his services to his State and country a statue of Gen. Lew Wallace, soldier, author and diplomat, has been placed in the capitol at Washington, making a notable addition to the galaxy of great Americans whose effigies adorn Statuary hall. Oliver P. Morton, war governor of Indiana, is the other citizen who has been honored by the Hoosier State in this manner. The unveiling was made the occasion of an imposing ceremony. Captain John P. Morgan, who served as an officer in General Wallace's command in the Civil War and is president of the Lew Wallace statue commission, presided. The figure was unveiled by Lew Wallace, Jr., grandson of the general. Gov. Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana accepted the statue on behalf of his State from the commission which had charge of its preparation. Others who delivered eulogies were Senator Beveridge, A. Rustem Bey, charge d'affaires of the Turkish embassy, and W. H. Andrews, delegate from New Mexico. GRAVES IS FORESTER.

Protégé of Pinchot Appointed to Succeed Ousted Chief at Washington.
Henry S. Graves has been appointed chief forester to succeed Gifford Pinchot. Had Mr. Pinchot controlled the selection of his successor he probably would have named Mr. Graves, who is his protégé, and who entertains substantially the same views and advocates practically the same policies as Mr. Pinchot. Mr. Graves was the most available man of those with the necessary technical training available, and he will take up the work laid down by Mr. Pinchot with zeal. He was born in Marietta, O., but while young his family moved to Andover, Mass., where Mr. Graves' father was for many years a member of the faculty of Phillips Andover Academy. When Mr. Pinchot became forester of the Department of Agriculture in July, 1898, Mr. Graves became his first assistant.

DEATH TAKES SATOLLI.

Famous Cardinal Passes Away in Rome—Known in America.
Cardinal Satolli died in Rome at 4 o'clock the other morning. The Cardinal had been seriously ill for several weeks and had been delirious at times. Cardinal Francis Satolli was widely known to Americans through having been for two years apostolic delegate to Washington and the official head of the Roman Catholic church in America. On the relinquishment of that office he became one of the most prominent members of the house of cardinals and for a time was persistently mentioned as the probable successor to Pope Leo XIII.

Capt. Chaves, the first Nicaraguan refugee to reach American protection since Mexico, gave to the press by cable his first account believed to be authoritative concerning the manner of the death met by the American soldiers of the insurgent army, Cannon and Groce. It was the company commanded by Chaves which captured the Americans, Gen. Merino had caused them to be whipped and had then reported their capture to Zelaya, who wired: "Lose no time in shooting them." After an excuse for a court-martial, composed of two officers, they were condemned and Chaves was ordered to execute the sentence. He refused and was himself sent to prison. The four soldiers of Capt. Constantino's command were taken off to do the murderous work. Both were purged in the same way.

THE WEEKLY HISTORIAN

Special Message on Conservation—Rarely Touches Ballinger—Pinchot Trouble.

FOR $30,000,000 OF BONDS.

Sum Needed for Irrigation—Urges Action Without Waiting for Proving-Committee Report.

Declaring that portions of the public domain worth millions of dollars have been obtained fraudulently by private interests, President Taft, in a special message to Congress, asks legislation that will permit the national government to conserve its vast resources in land and water power in the sparsely settled regions of the West and Southwest without waiting for a report by the Congressional committee that is probing the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy.

The message deals with the need of Congressional action for the conservation of the natural resources of the nation and supports the general policy of waterway development. The only waterway project specifically approved is that of introducing dams in the Ohio River from Pittsburg to Cairo to assure a nine-foot stage at all times. Mr. Taft favors waterway development as "the best regulator of railroad rates that we have."

Conservation of the soil is imperative if the nation would provide for the increase in production necessary to meet the growing consumption, he says. "I recommend," says the message, "that authority be given to issue, not exceeding $30,000,000 of bonds from time to time, as the Secretary of the Interior shall find it necessary, the proceeds to be applied to the completion of the conservation projects already begun and their proper extension, and the bonds running ten years or more, to be taken up by the proceeds of returns to the reclamation fund, which returns, as the years go on, will increase rapidly in amount."

The slight references to the trouble in the Interior Department, which is contained in the closing paragraph of the message, is the only allusion to the trouble which resulted in the discharge of Pinchot and brought about an acute situation in the capital and throughout the country.

The President reviews at some length the history of the nation's public domain and points out the defects in laws which he says have permitted vast areas of land and the holding of millions of acres of land by fraud. On this point the message says:

"The truth is that title to millions of acres of public lands was fraudulently obtained, and that the right to recover a large part of such lands for the government has since ceased by reason of statutes of limitation."

Other Points in the Message.

Some of the President's other recommendations follow:

The rapid disposition of the public lands under the early statutes, and the fact that the public lands have been sold, I think to the belief that these lands should rapidly pass into private ownership, has given the impression that the public domain was being sold away for the unscrupulous and that it was not the duty of the government to circumspectly withhold of power sites.

The present statutes, except so far as they relate to the present, are not adapted to carry out the modern view of the public domain. The public lands are to be sold, under conditions offering on the one hand, sufficient inducement to attract private capital, and on the other, to secure the proper development, with restrictive conditions on the other, which will prevent a monopoly or misuse of the lands or their products.

One of the projects which answers the description I have given is that of introducing dams in the Ohio river from Pittsburg to Cairo, so as to maintain at all seasons of the year, by slack water, a depth of five feet, and to provide for the present Congress, in the river and harbor bill, make provision for continuing contracts to complete this improvement, and I shall recommend in the future if it be necessary, that bonds be issued to carry it through.

Commissioner Williams of the Immigration bureau will soon begin in the States with his reports on New York, charged with the reports of the black hand. If the charges are proved they will be deported.

What has come to be known as the "fair list" of the nations of the world, that is, those countries which will be entitled to a continuation of the minimum rates of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, soon will be officially proclaimed by President Taft.

In a collision of two freight trains on the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company line, near Cascade, Oregon, T. H. Carson, a cattleman of Kearney, Neb., was killed. An occupant of the train was caught in the wreckage.

"Little Johnny Jones"

Everybody has either seen or heard of "Little Johnny Jones," therefore the announcement that this, the biggest musical hit of last season, will be presented in this city at the opera house January 22nd, conveys with it a deal of pleasurable anticipation for our theatre goers. "Little Johnny Jones" has been called a musical melodrama, and this title probably fits it better than anything else, as it is a semi-sensational play set to music, and has the distinction of being the only one of its kind and has attained any marked degree of success.

Do You Want to Help Take the Census?

All citizens of the United States within the age limit stated, regardless of sex, race, color, or political affiliation who have a good common school education, who speak the English language and can write plainly and with reasonable rapidity, are eligible for examination.

The applicant must not be under eighteen years of age nor over seventy. All applicants will be required to undergo a test examination, February 5. This examination will be held at a number of convenient places in the district, and no applicant will be required to travel an unreasonable distance to take the examination.

The places for holding the examinations will be designated and published later. The test examination is simple and practical, consisting solely in filling out a blank sample schedule of population, and in addition a blank schedule of agriculture. If for rural districts, to determine the fitness of the applicant for the duties of an enumerator. The test is not, in any sense, a civil service examination. The examining board act merely as the representatives of the supervisor and simply see that no assistance is given the applicant. The examination papers are all forwarded to the supervisor immediately after the test is completed. The supervisor makes the marking and rating, which consists in comparing the schedule of each candidate with the correct copy.

The examination for positions for taking the census will be conducted by Postmaster W. H. McNeal, in the high school auditorium February 5. If you think you want to be an applicant apply to him before January 25th.
