Your Child's EYE SIGHT

You are responsible for the Eyes of your child. Watch out for frowns and squints. When he reads or looks at a picture book does he hold it too near or too far? These little things grow fast, but in many cases can be overcome if discovered in time.

My Business is to tell if you NEED Glasses

You may say them a lifetime of strain and weak sight. Defects of vision never disappear of their own accord, and in most cases grow worse. It's a duty you owe your child.

We wonder if Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nevin are a son and daughter of the Emerald Isle? Their last publication of the Laurel Advocate was on St. Patrick's day, and it was printed on green paper. Chas. Weiss, editor of the Cedar County Wachtel, the German paper published at Hartington, has been arrested on the charge of trying to intimidate or influence Judge Graves regarding a decision rendered by the judge in a case decided in that county. The language used in a letter was: "I guarantee you right now you will be sorry later on," and similar expressions as well as a threat to use the influence of the Germans and Catholics against the judge. The penalty for such an act is a very severe one.

The Wynot Tribune says that "A filthy pig pen is worse than a bad reputation," and then complains about some of the loud smelling pens in that town. Goodness! And pork $11 per 100. That ought to provide a sweet smelling savor.

The Randolph Times says: "We have always believed that a farmer should be much more interested in good roads than a man in town." There is no doubt of that. He is the one that has to haul heavy loads to market and home again as well.

Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, thinks that the government should have another cabinet officer—sort of a health promoter. Goodness! It looks a good many times as though we have already got to earn their money, let alone having more of them.

The editor of the Pender Republic says, "In our humble opinion the churches need more of the modern business spirit and more up-to-date methods of doing its work. But we doubt if it will ever come until we have a large class of first class funerals."

The seed corn test by the roller mills at Laurel, in one week, was 2,055 kernels tested from as many different ears of corn, of which 744 were good seed, 456 weak, and not fit to plant, and 855 with no life at all. Seed of that kind would mean a very poor stand of corn.

Reports from over the state indicate that the winter wheat crop has been damaged at least 50 per cent. There seems to have been more loss from the excessive dry spring than from freezing. There has been no rain over a good part of the state for four or five months.

The Pender Republic philosopher says: "There is one fact that it is well for young people to bear in mind, and that is, that the seed from wild oats is never bad, at least not in the sense that it will not grow. It always grows without fail, and what is more produces an abundant crop."

"Grandmother" Harstick, of West Point, has passed her 101st birthday and is in excellent health, in fact, better than she was on her 100th anniversary. The event was celebrated with great eclat by her numerous children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, the total of whom reach nearly 100 souls.

The editor of the Crofton Journal says: "The longer we live, the more we learn, and the more we learn, the less we think we know." That is too narrow a view of life. It is well not to think that you know more than the creator of the universe, but it is not wise to think you know nothing.

The Allen News thinks that there is not much use of the merchants offering inducements for the farmers to go there to trade for the reason that the vicious town dogs chew the country dogs all to pieces, or cripple them so they are no good. Allen, like a good many other towns, seems to have too many dogs.

Gus Garlock, the Emerson butcher who shot and instantly killed Joseph Lee of Yankton, S. D., and then escaped, has been arrested and taken to Dakota City for trial. The shooting was done two months ago, and Garlock claimed in self defense. Garlock states that he went to the western part of the state, but for some time has been in Omaha working in a meat market.

My! What are we coming to? Experts at Washington claim to have discovered that there were 92,000,000 germs of many kinds, on a single bill examined under a microscope. If any one gets scared over this statement and do not want to handle any bank bills they can turn them over to us. We will run the risk of contagion. The larger the bills the better.

The Wausa Gazette anxiously enquires: "What just reason is there that the people of this district should re-elect and send Jas. P. Latta to congress. Is there anyone who has noticed that he has made anything showing there during the two years which he has held the office? Let us try to send a man there who will be heard from, at least once while he is there."

"Dogs delight to bark and bite, and 'tis their nature to," and the editors of a number of our exchanges seem to be going around with chips on their shoulders, ready to engage in a war of words at the least provocation, and when there is none in sight to start something going anyway. What is the use? Life is too short for so much waste of brain tissue and time, all for nothing.

Having amended the rules and eliminated the speaker from the committee, it is now hoped that the National House of Representatives will have sense enough to realize that there is much needed legislation awaiting them, and that they will get down and do business for the country, for which purpose they were elected, rather than engage in uselessly squabbles as they have done thus far since the present session began.

Bloomfield Team Found

Pierce, Neb., March 28.—The team of horses stolen ten days ago at Bloomfield, on the night following the postoffice robbery there, were discovered loose on Conrad Huff's farm near Pierce yesterday. The buggy and harness were at a nearby bridge. Huff had not taken up the horses, not wanting to bother with advertising them. It is supposed the Bloomfield robbers remained in that town a day and then, stealing the team, drove into this neighborhood.

Girl Dragged to her Death

Pierce, Neb., March 28.—Miss Mabel Mundorf, daughter of a Pierce county farmer, was dragged to death in the field by a horse Saturday afternoon. She and her sister were leading a fresh horse to their father, who was discing the field. The animal had got away several times and the girl finally tied a rope around her waist. The other end was around the horse's neck. Again the animal ran away, dragging the girl a half mile, by this rope. Her back was broken and her skull fractured at the base. The girl died before Dr. Oelke arrived.

W. J. Patterson & Co. Sells Out

W. J. Patterson this week sold his hardware, building and all to C. W. Siefkow of Wayne. We regret exceedingly to see Mr. Patterson retire from business, but extend to Mr. Siefkow and family a hearty welcome among us. They started invoicing Tuesday morning and Mr. Siefkow now has possession of the store. He informs us that he will move his family here as soon as he can rent a house. Having lived for a number of years on a farm in Wayne county, Mr. Siefkow then moved to Wayne so that his children might attend school. He is not a stranger here as he is well and favorably known by a number of our citizens. We wish him success.—Piercer Herald.

Justice Brewer Dies Suddenly

WASHINGTON, March 28.—David Josiah Brewer, associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, died tonight at 10:30 o'clock as the result of a stroke of apoplexy. His death followed within a minute or two, before he could be carried to his bed. Mrs. Brewer was with him when the end came. Justice Brewer was 73 years of age. The end came altogether unexpectedly. Although he had not been feeling well for the last few days, the aged jurist was up and out today, and apparently in the best of health. He was in equally good spirits at dinner and spent the evening in reading. Shortly after 10 o'clock he retired to his room and within a few moments Mrs. Brewer heard a heavy fall and went to investigate the cause. She found her husband prone on the floor of the bathroom. He did not regain consciousness, and died before a physician, hastily summoned, could reach the house.

Gentle Nebraska Breezes

An ordinary stiff hat, the property of John Blake of Stanton, Neb., last week clearly demonstrated the velocity of a Nebraska wind. There have been straight winds there before, but the wind that blew in from the northwest was a record breaker. Shortly after noon Blake was walking down the main street of the town. The wind lifted his lid off his head and the next instant the piece of hat gear was carried into the upper air and went soaring away to the southeast. Three hours later the hat was picked up in front of the city hall in Omaha, somewhat disfigured by its wild flight, still a good hat. Having his name upon the inside band, the following day the hat was returned there to Blake, having been sent by express. By rail the distance from there to Omaha is 124 miles, but as the bird flies and which was probably the course followed by the hat, the mileage is a fraction over 100.

Woman Hurt

Pierce, Neb., March 28.—Mrs. August Schwietenberg, an aged woman living on a farm north of Norfolk, sustained two broken ribs and was very badly bruised as the result of a runaway which resulted from meeting the automobile of S. T. Napper of Norfolk yesterday afternoon. Napper was driving north from Norfolk and it is said the Schwietenberg carriage, containing Mrs. Schwietenberg and a son and daughter, met the auto on a narrow road, sloping down on either side. Napper refused to turn out, the Schwietenbergs claim, and they say that in order not to get run over they turned down the side of the roadway, the carriage capsizing. The horses ran away and the son was thrown out. The daughter escaped unhurt but she and the mother were both dragged for some distance and the mother was severely bruised. Her clothing was torn to shreds, according to Dr. F. G. Salter of Pierce, who attended her. The Schwietenbergs were visiting at Hadar during the morning and were returning home when the accident occurred.

Information of the whereabouts of Susanna Louise Dieter, who left her home on the 10th day of July, 1876, and was last heard from at Fremont, in August of the same year, is desired by her parents on account of an inheritance due her. Anyone knowing of her whereabouts will please notify Conrad Dieter, Madison, Nebraska. State papers will confer a favor by copying.

John Larson and family are now at home in their new residence, the very best one in Wayne.

Wayne's new Baptist Church Dedicated March 27, 1910

"Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and bless Him." Those are the words spoken by the Psalmist David long years ago, but they had a pertinent application to the members and friends of the Baptist church last Sunday as they gathered at their new house of worship, both morning and evening in its dedicatory services. So far as same nature was concerned it was a well high perfect day, and the hour for the morning service found the edifice filled to overflowing with an interested audience.

While there had been some indications of a possible storm Saturday afternoon this did not concern some of those most vitally interested as did the financial status, as it is always one of the conditions of church dedications that the money must all be provided for before the building will be formally dedicated and set aside for the worship of God, and it was found that it would be necessary to raise a little over $8,500 during the day in order to place the edifice in condition for dedication, and they could not see where the money was coming from. However, when Rev. Haynes began to get hold of the financial end, after having preached a most excellent and soul stirring sermon, and it was seen how wisely and well he took hold of it, they took fresh courage and their faith revived. At the close of the morning service it was found that pledges had been made to the amount of $7,100. This put a more cheerful view on the undertaking, and with some quiet work in the afternoon it was felt that they were "out of the woods," so to speak.

At the evening hour of worship the people again came together in great numbers, filling the church. After the opening exercises, which were participated in by Revs. Ringer, of St. Paul's church, and Kirkpatrick of the M. E. church, Rev. Haynes announced that he did not believe in half doing a thing, nor even in nine-tenths doing it, but that he thought that the people should complete the work so well begun at the morning hour, and stated that there was still needed, $1,400, and that he would give them fourteen minutes in which to raise it, and asked who would be the first to respond to the call. Volunteers were numerous in sums ranging from $100 to $2, and in about ten minutes he had $1,475 and cried enough and to spare, and even the audience demanded that the hat be passed. When this feature of the day was finished there was great rejoicing that the necessary amount, nearly $9,000, had been provided for, and the following dedicatory covenant was heartily entered into by all in attendance: Minister—Unto Thee, infinite and eternal God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

People—We dedicate this house. Minister—To the honor of Thy law, to the celebration of Thy love, to the proclamation of Thy truth, to the publication of Thy gospel and to the glory of Thy great name.

People—We dedicate this house.

Minister—That in this place Thy goodness and truth may ever be manifested to Thy people, and Thy promises continually fulfilled among Thy servants; that the simple may here find wisdom; the feeble, strength; the troubled, peace; the weary, rest; the sinful, forgiveness; and all, eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People—We dedicate this house. Minister—For the purpose of a Christian church, open to all for whom Christ died, where thou shalt be worshipped in spirit and in truth; where Thy word shall be proclaimed in purity, faithfulness and love; where Christian zeal and fellowship shall abound, and where every effort to lift the degraded, help the helpless, and save the lost, shall find sympathy and aid.

People—We dedicate this house. Minister—As a tribute of gratitude, love and praise from those who have drunk deeply from the cup of Thy goodness and love, and have known in rich experience Thy mercy and grace.

People—We dedicate this house. Minister—Holiness becometh Thine house, O Lord, for evermore, and separating this house from every unballored thing, making it a house of prayer for all Thy people, and so perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

People—We dedicate this house to Thee, O God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Minister—This house which we have been permitted to build through the gracious favor of divine providence, we do now solemnly dedicate to the worship and service of Almighty God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

All—Arise, O Lord, and fill Thy sanctuary, let the glory of the Lord fill the house of the Lord, then shall we worship Thee in the beauty of holiness. Amen, and amen.

After the responsive dedicatory covenant came the prayer of dedication, by Rev. Wilson Mills, Supt. of State Missions of the Baptist church, in which there was a fervent pouring out of his soul to the divine giver of all good and perfect gifts for the way in which He had led the people, and a spirit of thankfulness for their cheerful and prompt manner of giving. Rev. Myron W. Haynes, D. D., then preached a stirring evangelistic sermon from the words: "And the door was shut." It was a sermon calculated to move upon the great depths of the human heart, and left an impression that will abide with his hearers to these many days to come. The benediction was then pronounced and the worshippers wended their way homeward feeling that the day had been one of great blessing to them.

This handsome new church edifice thus so auspiciously dedicated, cost in all of its complete details a little over $17,000. Most of the pledges given Sunday can run two years. One-fourth payable in six months, one year, 18 months and two years. To assist in paying interest and any shrinkage that may occur by some of the pledges not being paid, the society has the sale of the old church building as a possible asset of $300, and $600 from the state missionary society, so that it is not at all likely that they will ever be troubled with the haunting fear of debt so far as the building is concerned.

We gave a description of the interior of the building last week, also the names of the building committees so it is unnecessary to cover the ground again. The present officiating officer is Rev. Parker Smith, Pastor. Church Trustees—Herman Henney, W. A. Donner, S. R. Theobald, Eli Laughlin. Deacons—C. D. Martin, I. W. Alter, C. E. Sprague, Prof. L. M. Puffer. Church Clerk—J. W. Bartlett. Church Treasurer—H. C. Henney. (C. E. Sprague, Asst.) And each of them is entitled to the full meed of praise for the work they have done and are doing for their church.

City Election Tuesday

Next Tuesday will occur the annual city election. As there is only one ticket in the field many will no doubt feel inclined to remain away from the polls. None, however, should do this, as there are other questions to be decided. The right to vote, and express an individual opinion upon any question agitating the public mind, is a duty and privilege not enjoyed by men elsewhere. There are questions of public policy that need to be settled at the ballot box, and every voter should be glad that he has a chance to have a voice in the settlement of these questions. Every voter should be fully persuaded in his own mind what is best and then vote accordingly. We believe that the liquor habit is detrimental to society, in that it destroys manhood, brings a trail of misery, woe and suffering upon the innocent, subverts justice, crowds out virtue and all the nobler attributes of human nature, and is a constant menace to good government, therefore the sale of intoxicants should be suppressed. While this is true we believe that each individual, has the same right that we reserve for ourselves, and that is to vote as he thinks is for the best. We do, however, insist that it is every voter's duty to go to the polls and vote. It is a duty laid upon them by our form of government and no man should shirk it. Each one should be willing to take upon himself that much of the responsibility of settling any question of public policy like the one at present. Go and vote.

Gone Out of Business
 As we stated last week, when Roe & Fortner closed their meat market Saturday night they closed it for good, and retired from the business. Lambert Roe has been in the meat market business in Wayne for 20 years, and the partnership of Roe & Fortner has existed for over 21 years. In all this time they have tried to deal fairly with the public and the public realizing this, has been inclined to deal fairly with them and has given them a generous patronage, which they have fully appreciated. The main reason for their going out of business at this time is Mr. Roe's health. While he has the appearance of being as healthy a man as there is in Wayne, he has recently discovered that there was something apparently wrong with his internal organs, and on consulting an out of town specialist he was told that he had worked over the meat block so long that he had grown sideways. He has also consulted all of the home physicians and they have all told him that it was absolutely necessary for him to get out of the business and the sooner the better, so it was decided to simply quit. They will turn their attention to stock buying and work of that nature, and will remain Wayne residents at least through the present season.

 John Kai, who has been living southeast of Wayne, traded his farm for Dakota land, has moved to town and now enjoys running a 40 horse power Oakland automobile.
 Good Friday services were held in the German Lutheran church last Friday. This denomination makes almost as much of that day as they do of Easter, and are about the only ones that observe it to any extent.
 Dan and John Harrington and their families arrived home Monday forenoon from California a few weeks earlier than they anticipated, being called back by Mrs. Emil Weber's death.
 W. L. Fisher came home from his farm out in the western part of the state Friday evening and remained until Monday. His son will go out there the latter part of this week to remain during the summer.

 The Methodist parsonage was the scene of a very pleasant wedding Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. The wedding parties were Mr. Clarence A. Grant of McLean and Miss Selma Strom of Randolph. The young couple were accompanied by a half dozen of their friends. Rev. Kirkpatrick in a brief but impressive ceremony spoke the words that united two lives in one, and sent the young people away happy. Mr. and Mrs. Grant have the best wishes of a host of friends.
 Dr. H. Fritchard sold his home place embracing twenty acres, east of town to Henry Plege of Wayne for $7,000, or $350 per acre. This is the highest price ever paid for land in Cumine county. When the doctor bought the forty acres, of which this is the half, for $100 per acre a few years ago, a great many thought him wild. He received $158.75 per acre for the east half about two years ago. The doctor is to give possession October 1. He has no definite plans for the future, but it is safe to say he will continue to breed fine stock. —Wisner Chronicle.
 Some of those who sowed winter wheat last fall are thinking of plowing it up and planting to corn. The stand is so poor, not one-half appearing to be alive. It was always understood, we supposed, that if winter wheat was well covered with snow all winter that a good crop was almost certain. This condition prevailed in this part of the state all winter, but Henry Westerhouse, one of the farmers' out on route three, who was in Friday afternoon, told us that it was thought, owing to the ground not being frozen when the snow came last fall, it was smothered to death. There may be something to that theory too, as we had a little similar experience with plants in the yard.
 Gus Hanson, a prosperous Wayne, Neb., farmer and feeder, topped the hog market today with a load of Duroc hogs of his own raising and feeding which sold at $10.75. They averaged an even 300 pounds and were finished in proper style. Mr. Hanson likes the Duroc type and keeps his Duroc bred up well and when he markets stuff from his feed lots he has it finished in his buyers like. He has a large amount of stuff back for future delivery and hopes to make them as good as the load which he marketed today if not better. Sioux City draws many good hogs from Wayne, but none of them come in any better than the stuff from Mr. Hanson's feed lots. The load today sold 75 cents above anything else on the market.
 Mr. Hanson consigned his hogs to Rice Brothers. This firm sold more hogs than any firm at Sioux City this year, which is about the best evidence that they are pleasing their customers.

We understand that new cables and other improvements will soon be added.
 What everybody expected, nobody wanted, and all hoped would not come, happened last night. After giving us almost summer weather the entire month the mercury suddenly took a drop Tuesday night and yesterday, and last night ice was formed to the thickness of a windup pane, no doubt doing injury to the fruit crop, as the blossoms were almost ready to open, especially on the plum and cherry trees. Other trees were in leaf. We did not get any snow, although the western part of the state got considerable, even as close as Bloomfield.

BULGARIA FOR WAR

DISSATISFIED WITH REIGN OF THE YOUNG TURKS.

Desire of Powers to Give New Sultan a Fair Opportunity to Regenerate His Country Presents a Clash in Balkan at This Time.

Another dangerous crisis in the Balkans has been narrowly averted, according to well informed diplomatic circles, where for a month it has been an open secret that Bulgaria was determined to try conclusions with Turkey over the question of Macedonia, either to win the province outright or at least to secure autonomy for the remainder of European Turkey.

Bulgaria for years has made tremendous sacrifices to equip and train the model army which she now possesses, always with the idea of the inevitable war with Turkey ahead of her. The Bulgarian people have gradually become imbued with the belief that their army is invincible and the acquisition of their own independence has left them dissatisfied that their Christian brethren in Macedonia should remain under the domination of Turkey.

DISPUTE TO BE ARBITRATED.

Agreement Reached Between French and Western Railroads.

Terms of agreement in the federal mediation of the controversy between the 27,000 firemen on western railroads and the railroad managers were reached at an early hour Thursday morning. The demands of the firemen for a 12 1/2 per cent increase in pay will be arbitrated under the terms of the Erdman pact. Any fireman temporarily promoted to be an engineer, after having held the position for sixty days, establishes his seniority and must not be reduced, irrespective of what union he is a member of. The agreement in all except the wage question was a compromise by both sides. On the wage question both sides agreed to abide by the decision of the arbitration board, which is to be selected later. The terms were agreed to by W. C. Nixon, general manager of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad, on behalf of the managers' committee, and by W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

A dozen policemen were placed at her disposal when the dinner was ready. MT. ETNA IS ACTIVE

Sicilian Residents in Fear of Losing Lives.

Mt. Etna, whose eruptions in the past have wrought great destruction, is again in a violent state of activity. The pronounced movement within the crater began Wednesday evening, steadily increasing. In volume and Thursday night the gravest fears were entertained as to the results if the eruption continues in its present violent form. From Catania a correspondent motored in the direction of the mountain. Beyond the village of Mascataucia, twelve miles in a direct line from the crater, a thick curtain of smoke was encountered which entirely concealed Etna.

At Nicolosi, ten miles from the crater, the entire population had gathered in the square to watch the volcano, which appeared as a black phantom above. Now and then it was illuminated with flashes of light, appearing almost red. Higher up the rain of cinders became thicker and extended five a mile across the mountain. A deep roaring was heard and detonations like the sound of artillery followed one another in quick succession, while the earth shook under foot.
